

"Catharine
Susan
and Me's
Coming
Out"

"Catharine Susan
and Me's coming out."

---

by Kathleen Ainslie.

---

Castell Brothers Ltd.
London.

New York, Frederick A. Stokes Company.
Entirely produced in Great Britain.

That's Maria -
this is what she says -

"I'm sick of housework" -
so - - - - -

— "that's to let the people know."

“Nothing to wear”!!!

“Lets go to London”.

“I say ‘Muslin’ -
but she says
‘White Satin’”

“Feathers

we must have

of course –”

*“It hurt
dr-e-a-d-fully
getting ready!”*

Rather a squash!
but we managed it.

*They did seem so
pleased to see us!*

*“and asked us to the Ball
afterwards -*

*I felt so shy -
but Catharine Susan
wasn't!!”*

*“And she danced with
a Prince – at least she said it was a Prince –
but he looked like
all the rest.”*

*“One day we went to
a Polo Match - Catharine Susan sat on the box - -
- she said it made her
ill to sit behind - ”*

*And the horses galloped
so fast -"*

*I tried my hand at
punting one day.*

*Catharine Susan said she felt "sort of tired - and
didn't want to" -*

*“Then in the evening
they took us to see some acting –*

*but I don’t remember
what it was about –”*

Poor Dears !!!

-----

*no wonder they are
tired out.*

_____

an ebook published by Project Gutenberg Australia