The Gospel According to St. Matthew

with him; <sup>4</sup> and, assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. <sup>5</sup> And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judaea; for thus it is written through the prophet: <sup>6</sup> And thou Bethlehem, land of Juda, art in no wise the least among the governors of Juda; for out of thee shall go forth a leader who shall shepherd my people Israel. <sup>7</sup> Then Herod, having secretly called the magi, inquired of them accurately the time of the star that was appearing; <sup>8</sup> and having sent them to Bethlehem, said, Go, search out accurately concerning the child, and when ye shall have found [him] bring me back word, so that I also may come and do him homage. <sup>9</sup> And they having heard the king went their way; and lo, the star, which they had seen in the east, went before them until it came and stood over the place where the little child was. <sup>10</sup> And when they saw the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. <sup>11</sup> And having come into the house they saw the little child with Mary his mother, and falling down did him homage. And having opened their treasures, they offered to him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> And being divinely instructed in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way. <sup>13</sup> Now, they having departed, behold, an angel of [the] Lord appears in a dream to Joseph, saying, Arise, take to [thee] the little child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there until I shall tell thee; for Herod will seek the little child to destroy it. <sup>14</sup> And, having arisen, he took to [him] the little child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt. <sup>15</sup> And he was there until the death of Herod, that that might be fulfilled which was spoken by [the] Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son. <sup>16</sup> Then Herod, seeing that he had been mocked by the magi, was greatly enraged; and sent and slew all the boys which [were] in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years and under, according to the time which he had accurately inquired from the magi. <sup>17</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremias the prophet, saying, <sup>18</sup> A voice has been heard in Rama, weeping, and great lamentation: Rachel weeping [for] her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not. <sup>19</sup> But Herod having died, behold, an angel of [the] Lord appears in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, <sup>20</sup> Arise, take to [thee] the little child and its mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they who sought the life of the little child are dead. <sup>21</sup> And he arose and took to [him] the little child and its mother, and came into the land of Israel; <sup>22</sup> but having heard that 'Archelaus reigns over Judaea, instead of Herod his father,' he was afraid to go there; and having been divinely instructed in a dream, he went away into the parts of Galilee, <sup>23</sup> and came and dwelt in a town called Nazareth; so that that should be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, He shall be called a Nazaraene.

3

his garment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins, and his nourishment was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup> Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the country round the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> and were baptised by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>7</sup> But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, Offspring of vipers, who has forewarned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup> Produce therefore fruit worthy of repentance. <sup>9</sup> And do not think to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for [our] father; for I say unto you, that <sup>o</sup>God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. <sup>10</sup> And already the axe is applied to the root of the trees; every tree therefore not producing good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. <sup>11</sup> I indeed baptise you with water to repentance, but he that comes after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not fit to bear; he shall baptise you with [the] Holy Spirit and fire; <sup>12</sup> whose winnowing fan [is] in his hand, and he shall thoroughly purge his threshing-floor, and shall gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. <sup>13</sup> Then comes Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised of him; <sup>14</sup> but John urgently forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptised of thee; and comest thou to me? <sup>15</sup> But Jesus answering said to him, Suffer [it] now; for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffers him. <sup>16</sup> And Jesus, having been baptised, went up straightway from the water; and lo, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of <sup>o</sup>God descending as a dove, and coming upon him: <sup>17</sup> and behold, a voice out of the heavens saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I have found my delight.

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was carried up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted of the devil: <sup>2</sup> and having fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards he hungered. <sup>3</sup> And the tempter coming up to him said, If thou be Son of <sup>o</sup>God, speak, that these stones may become loaves of bread. <sup>4</sup> But he answering said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word which goes out through <sup>o</sup>God's mouth. <sup>5</sup> Then the devil takes him to the holy city, and sets him upon the edge of the temple, <sup>6</sup> and says to him, If thou be Son of <sup>o</sup>God cast thyself down; for it is written, He shall give charge to his angels concerning thee, and on [their] hands shall they bear thee, lest in anywise thou strike thy foot against a stone. <sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, It is again written, Thou shalt not tempt [the] Lord thy <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>8</sup> Again the devil takes him to a very high mountain, and shews him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory, <sup>9</sup> and says to him, All these things will I give thee if, falling down, thou wilt do me homage. <sup>10</sup> Then says Jesus to him, Get thee away, Satan, for it is written, Thou shalt do homage to [the] Lord thy <sup>o</sup>God, and him alone shalt thou serve. <sup>11</sup> Then the devil leaves him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him. <sup>12</sup> But having heard that John was delivered up, he departed into Galilee: <sup>13</sup> and having left Nazareth, he went and dwelt at Capernaum, which is on the sea-side in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim, <sup>14</sup>that that might be fulfilled which was spoken through Esaias the prophet, saying, <sup>15</sup>Land of Zabulon and land of Nephthalim, way of [the] sea beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations: <sup>16</sup>— the people sitting in darkness has seen a great light, and to those sitting in [the] country and shadow of death, to them has light sprung up. <sup>17</sup>From that time began Jesus to preach and to say, Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has drawn nigh. <sup>18</sup>And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers; <sup>19</sup>and he says to them, Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men. <sup>20</sup>And they, having left their trawl-nets, immediately followed him. <sup>21</sup>And going on thence he saw other two brothers, James the [son] of Zebedee and John his brother, in the ship with Zebedee their father, mending their trawl-nets, and he called them; <sup>22</sup>and they, having left the ship and their father, immediately followed him. <sup>23</sup>And [Jesus] went round the whole [of] Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness among the people. <sup>24</sup>And his fame went out into the whole [of] Syria, and they brought to him all that were ill, suffering under various diseases and pains, and those possessed by demons, and lunatics, and paralytics; and he healed them. <sup>25</sup>And great crowds followed him from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judaea, and beyond the Jordan.

these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of the heavens; but whosoever shall practise and teach [them], he shall be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>20</sup> For I say unto you, that unless your righteousness surpass [that] of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>21</sup> Ye have heard that it was said to the ancients, Thou shalt not kill; but whosoever shall kill shall be subject to the judgment. <sup>22</sup> But I say unto you, that every one that is lightly angry with his brother shall be subject to the judgment; but whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be subject to [be called before] the sanhedrim; but whosoever shall say, Fool, shall be subject to the penalty of the hell of fire. <sup>23</sup> If therefore thou shouldest offer thy gift at the altar, and there shouldest remember that thy brother has something against thee, <sup>24</sup> leave there thy gift before the altar, and first go, be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. <sup>25</sup> Make friends with thine adverse party quickly, whilst thou art in the way with him; lest some time the adverse party deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. <sup>26</sup> Verily I say to thee, Thou shalt in no wise come out thence till thou hast paid the last farthing. <sup>27</sup> Ye have heard that it has been said, Thou shalt not commit adultery. <sup>28</sup> But I say unto you, that every one who looks upon a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup> But if thy right eye be a snare to thee, pluck it out and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members perish, and not thy whole body be cast into hell. <sup>30</sup> And if thy right hand be a snare to thee, cut it off and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members perish, and not thy whole body be cast into hell. <sup>31</sup> It has been said too, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a letter of divorce. <sup>32</sup> But I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, except for cause of fornication, makes her commit adultery, and whosoever marries one that is put away commits adultery. <sup>33</sup> Again, ye have heard that it has been said to the ancients, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt render to the Lord what thou hast sworn. <sup>34</sup> But I say unto you, Do not swear at all; neither by the heaven, because it is [the] throne of <sup>o</sup>God; <sup>35</sup> nor by the earth, because it is [the] footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, because it is [the] city of the great King. <sup>36</sup> Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup> But let your word be Yea, yea; Nay, nay; but what is more than these is from evil. <sup>38</sup> Ye have heard that it has been said, Eye for eye and tooth for tooth. <sup>39</sup> But I say unto you, not to resist evil; but whoever shall strike thee on thy right cheek, turn to him also the other; <sup>40</sup> and to him that would go to law with thee and take thy body coat, leave him thy cloak also. <sup>41</sup> And whoever will compel thee to go one mile, go with him two. <sup>42</sup> To him that asks of thee give, and from him that desires to borrow of thee turn not away. <sup>43</sup> Ye have heard that it has been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour and hate thine enemy. <sup>44</sup> But I say unto you, Love your enemies, [bless those who curse you,] do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who [insult you and] persecute you, <sup>45</sup> that ye may be [the] sons of your Father who is in [the] heavens; for he makes his sun rise on evil and good, and sends rain on just and unjust. <sup>46</sup> For if ye should love those who love you, what reward have ye? Do not also the tax-gatherers the same? <sup>47</sup> And if ye should salute your brethren only, what do ye extraordinary? Do not also the Gentiles the same? <sup>48</sup> Be ye therefore perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6

<sup>1</sup> Take heed not to do your alms before men to be seen of them, otherwise ye have no reward with your Father who is in the heavens. <sup>2</sup> When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may have glory from men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. <sup>3</sup> But thou, when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand does; <sup>4</sup> so that thine alms may be in secret, and thy Father who sees in secret will render [it] to thee. <sup>5</sup> And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets so that they should appear to men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. <sup>6</sup> But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who sees in secret will render [it] to thee. <sup>7</sup> But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as those who are of the nations: for they think they shall be heard through their much speaking. <sup>8</sup> Be not ye therefore like them, for your Father knows of what things ye have need before ye beg [anything] of him. <sup>9</sup> Thus therefore pray ye: Our Father who art in the heavens, let thy name be sanctified, <sup>10</sup> let thy kingdom come, let thy will be done as in heaven so upon the earth; <sup>11</sup> give us to-day our needed bread, <sup>12</sup> and forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors, <sup>13</sup> and lead us not into temptation, but save us from evil. <sup>14</sup> For if ye forgive men their offences, your heavenly Father also will forgive you [yours], <sup>15</sup> but if ye do not forgive men their offences, neither will your Father forgive your offences. <sup>16</sup> And when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, downcast in countenance; for they disfigure their faces, so that they may appear fasting to men: verily I say unto you, They have their reward. <sup>17</sup> But thou, [when] fasting, anoint thy head and wash thy face, <sup>18</sup> so that thou mayest not appear fasting unto men, but to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father who sees in secret shall render [it] to thee. <sup>19</sup> Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust spoils, and where thieves dig through and steal; <sup>20</sup> but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust spoils, and where thieves do not dig through nor steal; <sup>21</sup> for where thy treasure is, there will be also thy heart. <sup>22</sup> The lamp of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body will be light: <sup>23</sup> but if thine eye be wicked, thy whole body will be dark. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great the darkness! <sup>24</sup> No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve °God and mammon. <sup>25</sup> For this cause I say unto you, Do not be careful about your life, what ye should eat and what ye should drink; nor for your body what ye should put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than raiment? <sup>26</sup> Look at the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, nor reap, nor gather into granaries, and your heavenly Father nourishes them. Are ye not much more excellent than they? <sup>27</sup> But which of you by carefulness can add to his growth one cubit? <sup>28</sup> And why are ye careful about clothing? Observe with attention the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; <sup>29</sup> but I say unto you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these. <sup>30</sup> But if <sup>o</sup>God so clothe the herbage of the field, which is to-day, and to-morrow is cast into [the] oven, will he not much rather you, O [ye] of little faith? <sup>31</sup> Be not therefore careful, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we put on? <sup>32</sup> for all these things the nations seek after; for your heavenly Father knows that ye have need of all these things. <sup>33</sup> But seek ye first the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. <sup>34</sup> Be not careful therefore for the morrow, for the morrow shall be careful about itself. Sufficient to the day [is] its own evil.

<sup>1</sup> Judge not, that ye may not be judged; <sup>2</sup> for with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you. <sup>3</sup> But why lookest thou on the mote that is in the eye of thy brother, but observest not the beam that is in thine eye? <sup>4</sup> Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Allow [me], I will cast out the mote from thine eye; and behold, the beam is in thine eye? <sup>5</sup> Hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine eye, and then thou wilt see clearly to cast out the mote out of the eye of thy brother. <sup>6</sup> Give not that which is holy to the dogs, nor cast your pearls before the swine, lest they trample them with their feet, and turning round rend you. <sup>7</sup> Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and ye shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. <sup>8</sup> For every one that asks receives; and he that seeks finds; and to him that knocks it shall be opened. <sup>9</sup> Or what man is there of you who, if his son shall ask of him a loaf of bread, will give him a stone; <sup>10</sup> and if he ask a fish, will give him a serpent? <sup>11</sup> If therefore ye, being wicked, know [how] to give good gifts to your children, how much rather shall your Father who is in the heavens give good things to them that ask of him? <sup>12</sup> Therefore all things whatever ye desire that men should do to you, thus do ye also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets. <sup>13</sup> Enter in through the narrow gate, for wide the gate and broad the way that leads to destruction, and many are they who enter in through it. <sup>14</sup> For narrow the gate and straitened the way that leads to life, and they are few who find it. <sup>15</sup> But beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but within are ravening wolves. <sup>16</sup> By their fruits ye shall know them. Do [men] gather a bunch of grapes from thorns, or from thistles figs? <sup>17</sup> So every good tree produces good fruits, but the worthless tree produces bad fruits. <sup>18</sup> A good tree cannot produce bad fruits, nor a worthless tree produce good fruits. <sup>19</sup> Every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. <sup>20</sup> By their fruits then surely ye shall know them. <sup>21</sup> Not every one who says to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of the heavens, but he that does the will of my Father who is in the heavens. <sup>22</sup> Many shall say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied through thy name, and through thy name cast out demons, and through thy name done many works of power? <sup>23</sup> and then will I avow unto them, I never knew you. Depart from me, workers of lawlessness. <sup>24</sup> Whoever therefore hears these my words and does them, I will liken him to a prudent man, who built his house upon the rock; <sup>25</sup> and the rain came down, and the streams came, and the winds blew and fell upon that house, and it did not fall, for it had been founded upon the rock. <sup>26</sup> And every one who hears these my words and does not do them, he shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand; <sup>27</sup> and the rain came down, and the streams came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it fell, and its fall was great. <sup>28</sup> And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these words, the crowds were astonished at his doctrine, <sup>29</sup> for he taught them as having authority, and not as their scribes.

<sup>1</sup> And when he had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup> And behold, a leper came up to [him] and did him homage, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou art able to cleanse me. <sup>3</sup> And he stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be cleansed. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus says to him, See thou tell no man, but go, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses ordained, for a testimony to them. <sup>5</sup> And when he had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, beseeching him, <sup>6</sup> and saying, Lord, my servant lies paralytic in the house, suffering grievously. <sup>7</sup> And Jesus says to him, I will come and heal him. <sup>8</sup> And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not fit that thou shouldest enter under my roof; but only speak a word, and my servant shall be healed. <sup>9</sup> For I also am a man under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to this [one], Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my bondman, Do this, and he does it. <sup>10</sup> And when Jesus heard it, he wondered, and said to those who followed, Verily I say unto you, Not even in Israel have I found so great faith. <sup>11</sup> But I say unto you, that many shall come from [the] rising and setting [sun], and shall lie down at table with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens; <sup>12</sup> but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast out into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>13</sup> And Jesus said to the centurion, Go, and as thou hast believed, be it to thee. And his servant was healed in that hour. <sup>14</sup> And when Jesus had come to Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law laid down and in a fever; <sup>15</sup> and he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose and served him. <sup>16</sup> And when the evening was come, they brought to him many possessed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were ill; <sup>17</sup> so that that should be fulfilled which was spoken through Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities and bore our diseases. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus, seeing great crowds around him, commanded to depart to the other side. <sup>19</sup> And a scribe came up and said to him, Teacher, I will follow thee whithersoever thou mayest go. <sup>20</sup> And Jesus says to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven roosting-places; but the Son of man has not where he may lay his head. <sup>21</sup> But another of his disciples said to him, Lord, suffer me first to go away and bury my father. <sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. <sup>23</sup> And he went on board ship and his disciples followed him; <sup>24</sup> and behold, [the water] became very agitated on the sea, so that the ship was covered by the waves; but he slept. <sup>25</sup> And the disciples came and awoke him, saying, Lord save: we perish. <sup>26</sup> And he says to them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then, having arisen, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup> But the men were astonished, saying, What sort [of man] is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him? <sup>28</sup> And there met him, when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes, two possessed by demons, coming out of the tombs, exceeding dangerous, so that no one was able to pass by that way. <sup>29</sup> And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Son of <sup>o</sup>God? hast thou come here before the time to torment us? <sup>30</sup> Now there was, a great way off from them, a herd of many swine feeding; <sup>31</sup> and the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. <sup>32</sup> And he said to them, Go. And they, going out, departed into the herd of swine; and lo, the whole herd [of swine] rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and died in the waters. <sup>33</sup> But they that fed them fled, and went away into the city and related everything, and what had happened as to those possessed by demons. <sup>34</sup> And behold, the whole city went out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged [him] to go away out of their coasts.

<sup>1</sup> And going on board the ship, he passed over and came to his own city. <sup>2</sup> And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, laid upon a bed; and Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, Be of good courage, child; thy sins are forgiven. <sup>3</sup> And behold, certain of the scribes said to themselves, This [man] blasphemes. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus, seeing their thoughts, said, Why do ye think evil things in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> For which is easier: to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Rise up and walk? <sup>6</sup> But that ye may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins, (then he says to the paralytic,) Rise up, take up thy bed and go to thy house. <sup>7</sup> And he rose up and went to his house. <sup>8</sup> But the crowds seeing [it], were in fear, and glorified <sup>o</sup>God who gave such power to men. <sup>9</sup> And Jesus, passing on thence, saw a man sitting at the tax-office, called Matthew, and says to him, Follow me. And he rose up and followed him. <sup>10</sup> And it came to pass, as he lay at table in the house, that behold, many tax-gatherers and sinners came and lay at table with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup> And the Pharisees seeing [it], said to his disciples, Why does your teacher eat with tax-gatherers and sinners? <sup>12</sup> But [Jesus] hearing it, said, They that are strong have not need of a physician, but those that are ill. <sup>13</sup> But go and learn what [that] is — I will have mercy and not sacrifice; for I have not come to call righteous [men] but sinners. <sup>14</sup> Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees often fast, but thy disciples fast not? <sup>15</sup> And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn so long as the bridegroom is with them? But days will come when the bridegroom will have been taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup> But no one puts a patch of new cloth on an old garment, for its filling up takes from the garment and a worse rent takes place. <sup>17</sup> Nor do men put new wine into old skins, otherwise the skins burst and the wine is poured out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into new skins, and both are preserved together. <sup>18</sup> As he spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler coming in did homage to him, saying, My daughter has by this died; but come and lay thy hand upon her and she shall live. <sup>19</sup> And Jesus rose up and followed him, and [so did] his disciples. <sup>20</sup> And behold, a woman, who had had a bloody flux [for] twelve years, came behind and touched the hem of his garment; <sup>21</sup> for she said within herself, If I should only touch his garment I shall be healed. <sup>22</sup> But Jesus turning and seeing her, said, Be of good courage, daughter; thy faith has healed thee. And the woman was healed from that hour. <sup>23</sup> And when Jesus was come to the house of the ruler, and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a tumult, <sup>24</sup> he said, Withdraw, for the damsel is not dead, but sleeps. And they derided him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put out, he went in and took her hand; and the damsel rose up. <sup>26</sup> And the fame of it went out into all that land. <sup>27</sup> And as Jesus passed on thence, two blind [men] followed him, crying and saying, Have mercy on us, Son of David. <sup>28</sup> And when he was come to the house, the blind [men] came to him. And Jesus says to them, Do ye believe that I am able to do this? They say to him, Yea, Lord. <sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it unto you. <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened; and Jesus charged them sharply, saying, See, let no man know it. <sup>31</sup> But they, when they were gone out, spread his name abroad in all that land. <sup>32</sup> But as these were going out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed by a demon. <sup>33</sup> And the demon having been cast out, the dumb spake. And the crowds were astonished, saying, It has never been seen thus in Israel. <sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees said, He casts out the demons through the prince of the demons. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus went round all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness. <sup>36</sup> But when he saw the crowds he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed, and cast away as sheep not having a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then saith he to his disciples, The harvest [is] great and the workmen [are] few; <sup>38</sup> supplicate therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth workmen unto his harvest.

<sup>1</sup> And having called to [him] his twelve disciples, he gave them power over unclean spirits, so that they should cast them out, and heal every disease and every bodily weakness. <sup>2</sup> Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the [son] of Zebedee, and John his brother; <sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax-gatherer; James the [son] of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, who was surnamed Thaddaeus; <sup>4</sup> Simon the Cananaean, and Judas the Iscariote, who also delivered him up. <sup>5</sup> These twelve Jesus sent out when he had charged them, saying, Go not off into [the] way of [the] nations, and into a city of Samaritans enter ye not; <sup>6</sup> but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of the heavens has drawn nigh. <sup>8</sup> Heal [the] infirm, [raise the dead], cleanse lepers, cast out demons: ye have received gratuitously, give gratuitously. <sup>9</sup> Do not provide yourselves with gold, or silver, or brass, for your belts, <sup>10</sup> nor scrip for the way, nor two body coats, nor sandals, nor a staff: for the workman is worthy of his nourishment. <sup>11</sup> But into whatsoever city or village ye enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and there remain till ye go forth. <sup>12</sup> And as ye enter into a house salute it. <sup>13</sup> And if the house indeed be worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup> And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. <sup>15</sup> Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in judgment-day than for that city. <sup>16</sup> Behold, I send you as sheep in the midst of wolves; be therefore prudent as the serpents, and guileless as the doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to sanhedrims, and scourge you in their synagogues; <sup>18</sup> and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. <sup>19</sup> But when they deliver you up, be not careful how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given to you in that hour what ye shall speak. <sup>20</sup> For ye are not the speakers, but the Spirit of your Father which speaks in you. <sup>21</sup> But brother shall deliver up brother to death, and father child; and children shall rise up against parents and shall put them to death; <sup>22</sup> and ye shall be hated of all on account of my name. But he that has endured to [the] end, he shall be saved. <sup>23</sup> But when they persecute you in this city, flee to the other; for verily I say to you, Ye shall not have completed the cities of Israel until the Son of man be come. <sup>24</sup> The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the bondman above his lord. <sup>25</sup> [It is] sufficient for the disciple that he should become as his teacher, and the bondman as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household? <sup>26</sup> Fear them not therefore; for there is nothing covered which shall not be revealed, and secret which shall not be known. <sup>27</sup> What I say to you in darkness speak in the light, and what ye hear in the ear preach upon the houses. <sup>28</sup> And be not afraid of those who kill the body, but cannot kill the soul; but fear rather him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. <sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall to the ground without your Father; <sup>30</sup> but of you even the hairs of the head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup> Fear not therefore; ye are better than many sparrows. <sup>32</sup> Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, I also will confess him before my Father who is in [the] heavens. <sup>33</sup> But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in [the] heavens. <sup>34</sup> Do not think that I have come to send peace upon the earth: I have not come to send peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup> For I have come to set a man at variance with his father, and the daughter with her mother, and the daughter-in-law with her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup> and they of his household [shall be] a man's enemies. <sup>37</sup> He who loves father or mother above me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter above me is not worthy of me. <sup>38</sup> And he who does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. <sup>39</sup> He that finds his life shall lose it, and he who has lost his life for my sake shall find it. <sup>40</sup> He that receives you receives me, and he that receives me receives him that sent me. <sup>41</sup> He that receives a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward. <sup>42</sup> And whosoever shall give to drink to one of these little ones a cup of cold [water] only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass when Jesus had finished commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities. <sup>2</sup> But John, having heard in the prison the works of the Christ, sent by his disciples, <sup>3</sup> and said to him, Art thou the coming [one]? or are we to wait for another? <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Go, report to John what ye hear and see. <sup>5</sup> Blind [men] see and lame walk; lepers are cleansed, and deaf hear; and dead are raised, and poor have glad tidings preached to them: <sup>6</sup> and blessed is whosoever shall not be offended in me. <sup>7</sup> But as they went [away], Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed moved about by the wind? <sup>8</sup> But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in delicate raiment? behold, those who wear delicate things are in the houses of kings. <sup>9</sup> But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say to you, and more than a prophet: <sup>10</sup> this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee. <sup>11</sup> Verily I say to you, that there is not arisen among [the] born of women a greater than John the baptist. But he who is a little one in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> But from the days of John the baptist until now, the kingdom of the heavens is taken by violence, and [the] violent seize on it. <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law have prophesied unto John. <sup>14</sup> And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, who is to come. <sup>15</sup> He that has ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>16</sup> But to whom shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets, which, calling to their companions, <sup>17</sup> say, We have piped to you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wailed. <sup>18</sup> For John has come neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon. <sup>19</sup> The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man [that is] eating and wine-drinking, a friend of tax-gatherers, and of sinners: — and wisdom has been justified by her children. <sup>20</sup> Then began he to reproach the cities in which most of his works of power had taken place, because they had not repented. <sup>21</sup> Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee Bethsaida! for if the works of power which have taken place in you, had taken place in Tyre and Sidon, they had long ago repented in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in judgment-day than for you. <sup>23</sup> And thou, Capernaum, who hast been raised up to heaven, shalt be brought down even to hades. For if the works of power which have taken place in thee, had taken place in Sodom, it had remained until this day. <sup>24</sup> But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable for [the] land of Sodom in judgment-day than for thee. <sup>25</sup> At that time, Jesus answering said, I praise thee, Father, Lord of the heaven and of the earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them to babes. <sup>26</sup>Yea, Father, for thus has it been well-pleasing in thy sight. <sup>27</sup>All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son but the Father, nor does any one know the Father, but the Son, and he to whom the Son may be pleased to reveal [him]. <sup>28</sup>Come to me, all ye who labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest to your souls; <sup>30</sup>for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went on the sabbath through the cornfields; and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears and to eat. <sup>2</sup> But the Pharisees, seeing [it], said to him, Behold, thy disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on sabbath. <sup>3</sup> But he said to them, Have ye not read what David did when he was hungry, and they that were with him? <sup>4</sup> How he entered into the house of <sup>o</sup>God, and ate the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests only? <sup>5</sup> Or have ye not read in the law that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? <sup>6</sup> But I say unto you, that there is here what is greater than the temple. <sup>7</sup> But if ye had known what is: I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of man is Lord of the sabbath. <sup>9</sup> And, going away from thence, he came into their synagogue. <sup>10</sup> And behold, there was a man having his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? that they might accuse him. <sup>11</sup> But he said to them, What man shall there be of you who has one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold of it and raise [it] up? <sup>12</sup> How much better then is a man than a sheep! So that it is lawful to do well on the sabbath. <sup>13</sup> Then he says to the man, Stretch out thy hand. And he stretched [it] out, and it was restored sound as the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees, having gone out, took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>15</sup> But Jesus knowing [it], withdrew thence, and great crowds followed him; and he healed them all: <sup>16</sup> and charged them strictly that they should not make him publicly known: <sup>17</sup> that that might be fulfilled which was spoken through Esaias the prophet, saying, <sup>18</sup> Behold my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, in whom my soul has found its delight. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew forth judgment to the nations. <sup>19</sup> He shall not strive or cry out, nor shall any one hear his voice in the streets; <sup>20</sup> a bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, until he bring forth judgment unto victory; <sup>21</sup> and on his name shall [the] nations hope. <sup>22</sup> Then was brought to him one possessed by a demon, blind and dumb, and he healed him, so that the dumb [man] spake and saw. <sup>23</sup> And all the crowds were amazed and said, Is this [man] the Son of David? <sup>24</sup> But the Pharisees, having heard [it], said, This [man] does not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub, prince of demons. <sup>25</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not subsist. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom subsist? <sup>27</sup> And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, your sons, by whom do they cast [them] out? For this reason they shall be your judges. <sup>28</sup> But if I by [the] Spirit of <sup>o</sup>God cast out demons, then indeed the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God is come upon you. <sup>29</sup> Or how can any one enter into the house of the strong [man] and plunder his goods, unless first he bind the strong [man]? and then he will plunder his house. <sup>30</sup> He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathers not with me scatters. <sup>31</sup> For this reason I say unto you, Every sin and injurious speaking shall be forgiven to men, but speaking injuriously of the Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. <sup>32</sup> And whosoever shall have spoken a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this age nor in the coming [one]. <sup>33</sup> Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt. For from the fruit the tree is known. <sup>34</sup> Offspring of vipers! how can ye speak good things, being wicked? For of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. <sup>35</sup> The good man out of the good treasure brings forth good things; and the wicked man out of the wicked treasure brings forth wicked things. <sup>36</sup> But I say unto you, that every idle word which men shall say, they shall render an account of it in judgment-day: <sup>37</sup> for by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. <sup>38</sup> Then answered him some of the scribes and Pharisees, saying, Teacher, we desire to see a sign from thee. <sup>39</sup> But he, answering, said to them, A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it save the sign of Jonas the prophet. <sup>40</sup> For even as Jonas was in the belly of the great fish three days and three nights, thus shall the Son of man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. <sup>41</sup> Ninevites shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, more than Jonas [is] here. <sup>42</sup> A queen of [the] south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, more than Solomon [is] here. <sup>43</sup> But when the unclean spirit has gone out of the man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and does not find [it]. <sup>44</sup> Then he says, I will return to my house whence I came out; and having come, he finds [it] unoccupied, swept, and adorned. <sup>45</sup> Then he goes and takes with himself seven other spirits worse than himself, and entering in, they dwell there; and the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. Thus shall it be to this wicked generation also. <sup>46</sup> But while he was yet speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. <sup>47</sup> Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren are standing without, seeking to speak to thee. <sup>48</sup> But he answering said to him that spoke to him, Who is my mother, and who are my brethren? <sup>49</sup> And, stretching out his hand to his disciples, he said, Behold my mother and my brethren; <sup>50</sup> for whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in [the] heavens, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

<sup>1</sup> And that [same] day Jesus went out from the house and sat down by the sea. <sup>2</sup> And great crowds were gathered together to him, so that going on board ship himself he sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the shore. <sup>3</sup> And he spoke to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went out to sow: <sup>4</sup> and as he sowed, some [grains] fell along the way, and the birds came and devoured them; <sup>5</sup> and others fell upon the rocky places where they had not much earth, and immediately they sprang up out of [the ground] because of not having [any] depth of earth, <sup>6</sup> but when the sun rose they were burned up, and because of not having [any] root were dried up; <sup>7</sup> and others fell upon the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them; <sup>8</sup> and others fell upon the good ground, and produced fruit, one a hundred, one sixty, and one thirty. <sup>9</sup> He that has ears, let him hear. <sup>10</sup> And the disciples came up and said to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables? <sup>11</sup> And he answering said to them, Because to you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to them it is not given; <sup>12</sup> for whoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall be caused to be in abundance; but he who has not, even what he has shall be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup> For this cause I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear nor understand; <sup>14</sup> and in them is filled up the prophecy of Esaias, which says, Hearing ye shall hear and shall not understand, and beholding ye shall behold and not see; <sup>15</sup> for the heart of this people has grown fat, and they have heard heavily with their ears, and they have closed their eyes as asleep, lest they should see with the eyes, and hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. <sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear; <sup>17</sup> for verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous [men] have desired to see the things which ye behold and did not see [them], and to hear the things which ye hear and did not hear [them]. <sup>18</sup> Ye, therefore, hear the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup> From every one who hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand [it], the wicked one comes and catches away what was sown in his heart: this is he that is sown by the wayside. <sup>20</sup> But he that is sown on the rocky places — this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, <sup>21</sup> but has no root in himself, but is for a time only; and when tribulation or persecution happens on account of the word, he is immediately offended. <sup>22</sup> And he that is sown among the thorns — this is he who hears the word, and the anxious care of this life, and the deceit of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup> But he that is sown upon the good ground — this is he who hears and understands the word, who bears fruit also, and produces, one a hundred, one sixty, and one thirty. <sup>24</sup> Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man sowing good seed in his field; <sup>25</sup> but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel amongst the wheat, and went away. <sup>26</sup> But when the blade shot up and produced fruit, then appeared the darnel also. <sup>27</sup> And the bondmen of the householder came up and said to him, Sir, hast thou not sown good seed in thy field? whence then has it darnel? <sup>28</sup> And he said to them, A man [that is] an enemy has done this. And the bondmen said to him, Wilt thou then that we should go and gather it [up]? <sup>29</sup> But he said, No; lest [in] gathering the darnel ye should root up the wheat with it. <sup>30</sup> Suffer both to grow together unto the harvest, and in time of the harvest I will say to the harvestmen, Gather first the darnel, and bind it into bundles to burn it; but the wheat bring together into my granary. <sup>31</sup> Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of the heavens is like a grain of mustard [seed] which a man took and sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup> which is less indeed than all seeds, but when it is grown is greater than herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of heaven come and roost in its branches. <sup>33</sup> He spoke another parable to them: The kingdom of the heavens is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until it had been all leavened. <sup>34</sup> All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and without a parable he did not speak to them, <sup>35</sup> so that that should be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from [the] world's foundation. <sup>36</sup> Then, having dismissed the crowds, he went into the house; and his disciples came to him, saying, Expound to us the parable of the darnel of the field. <sup>37</sup> But he answering said, He that sows the good seed is the Son of man, <sup>38</sup> and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom, but the darnel are the sons of the evil [one]; <sup>39</sup> and the enemy who has sowed it is the devil; and the harvest is [the] completion of [the] age, and the harvestmen are angels. <sup>40</sup> As then the darnel is gathered and is burned in the fire, thus it shall be in the completion of the age. <sup>41</sup> The Son of man shall send his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all offences, and those that practise lawlessness; <sup>42</sup> and they shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that has ears, let him hear. <sup>44</sup> The kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure hid in the field, which a man having found has hid, and for the joy of it goes and sells all whatever he has, and buys that field. <sup>45</sup> Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls; <sup>46</sup> and having found one pearl of great value, he went and sold all whatever he had and bought it. <sup>47</sup> Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a seine which has been cast into the sea, and which has gathered together of every kind, <sup>48</sup> which, when it has been filled, having drawn up on the shore and sat down, they gathered the good into vessels and cast the worthless out. <sup>49</sup> Thus shall it be in the completion of the age: the angels shall go forth and sever the wicked from the midst of the just, <sup>50</sup> and shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>51</sup> Jesus says to them, Have ye understood all these things? They say to him, Yea, [Lord]. <sup>52</sup> And he said to them, For this reason every scribe disciplined to the kingdom of the heavens is like a man [that is] a householder who brings out of his treasure things new and old. <sup>53</sup> And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these parables he withdrew thence. <sup>54</sup> And having come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, Whence has this [man] this wisdom and these works of power? <sup>55</sup> Is not this the son of the carpenter? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brethren James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? <sup>56</sup> And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then has this [man] all these things? <sup>57</sup> And they were offended in him. And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honour, unless in his country and in his house. <sup>58</sup> And he did not there many works of power, because of their unbelief.

<sup>1</sup> At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, <sup>2</sup> and said to his servants, This is John the baptist: he is risen from the dead, and because of this these works of power display their force in him. <sup>3</sup> For Herod had seized John, and had bound him and put him in prison on account of Herodias the wife of Philip his brother. <sup>4</sup> For John said to him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. <sup>5</sup> And [while] desiring to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they held him for a prophet. <sup>6</sup> But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod; <sup>7</sup> whereupon he promised with oath to give her whatsoever she should ask. <sup>8</sup> But she, being set on by her mother, says, Give me here upon a dish the head of John the baptist. <sup>9</sup> And the king was grieved; but on account of the oaths, and those lying at table with [him], he commanded [it] to be given. <sup>10</sup> And he sent and beheaded John in the prison; <sup>11</sup> and his head was brought upon a dish, and was given to the damsel, and she carried [it] to her mother. <sup>12</sup> And his disciples came and took the body and buried it, and came and brought word to Jesus. <sup>13</sup> And Jesus, having heard it, went away thence by ship to a desert place apart. And the crowds having heard [of it] followed him on foot from the cities. <sup>14</sup> And going out he saw a great crowd, and was moved with compassion about them, and healed their infirm. <sup>15</sup> But when even was come, his disciples came to him saying, The place is desert, and [much of] the [day] time already gone by; dismiss the crowds, that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus said to them, They have no need to go: give ye them to eat. <sup>17</sup> But they say to him, We have not here save five loaves and two fishes. <sup>18</sup> And he said, Bring them here to me. <sup>19</sup> And having commanded the crowds to recline upon the grass, having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed: and having broken the loaves, he gave [them] to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the crowds. <sup>20</sup> And all ate and were filled, and they took up what was over and above of fragments twelve hand-baskets full. <sup>21</sup> But those that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>22</sup> And immediately he compelled the disciples to go on board ship, and to go on before him to the other side, until he should have dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup> And having dismissed the crowds, he went up into the mountain apart to pray. And when even was come, he was alone there, <sup>24</sup> but the ship was already in the middle of the sea tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. <sup>25</sup> But in the fourth watch of the night he went off to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup> And the disciples, seeing him walking on the sea, were troubled, saying, It is an apparition. And they cried out through fear. <sup>27</sup> But Jesus immediately spoke to them, saying, Take courage; it is I: be not afraid. <sup>28</sup> And Peter answering him said, Lord, if it be thou, command me to come to thee upon the waters. <sup>29</sup> And he said, Come. And Peter, having descended from the ship, walked upon the waters to go to Jesus. <sup>30</sup> But seeing the wind strong he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, Lord, save me. <sup>31</sup> And immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught hold of him, and says to him, O thou of little faith, why didst thou doubt? <sup>32</sup> And when they had gone up into the ship, the wind fell. <sup>33</sup> But those in the ship came and did homage to him, saying, Truly thou art °God's Son. <sup>34</sup> And having crossed over they came to the land of Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> And when the men of that place recognised him, they sent to that whole country around, and they brought to him all that were ill, <sup>36</sup> and besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment; and as many as touched were made thoroughly well.

the lost sheep of Israel's house. <sup>25</sup> But she came and did him homage, saying, Lord, help me. <sup>26</sup> But he answering said, It is not well to take the bread of the children and cast it to the dogs. <sup>27</sup> But she said, Yea, Lord; for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from the table of their masters. <sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answering said to her, O woman, thy faith [is] great. Be it to thee as thou desirest. And her daughter was healed from that hour. <sup>29</sup> And Jesus, going away from thence, came towards the sea of Galilee, and he went up into the mountain and sat down there; <sup>30</sup> and great crowds came to him, having with them lame, blind, dumb, crippled, and many others, and they cast them at his feet, and he healed them: <sup>31</sup> so that the crowds wondered, seeing dumb speaking, crippled sound, lame walking, and blind seeing; and they glorified the °God of Israel. <sup>32</sup> But Jesus, having called his disciples to [him], said, I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me already three days and they have not anything they can eat, and I would not send them away fasting lest they should faint on the way. <sup>33</sup> And his disciples say to him, Whence should we have so many loaves in [the] wilderness as to satisfy so great a crowd? <sup>34</sup> And Jesus says to them, How many loaves have ye? But they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. <sup>35</sup> And he commanded the crowds to lie down on the ground; <sup>36</sup> and having taken the seven loaves and the fishes, having given thanks, he broke [them] and gave [them] to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. <sup>37</sup> And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was over and above of the fragments seven baskets full; <sup>38</sup> but they that ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup> And, having dismissed the crowds, he went on board ship and came to the borders of Magadan.

<sup>1</sup> And the Pharisees and Sadducees, coming to [him], asked him, tempting [him], to shew them a sign out of heaven. <sup>2</sup> But he answering said to them, When evening is come, ye say, Fine weather, for the sky is red; <sup>3</sup> and in the morning, A storm to-day, for the sky is red [and] lowering; ye know [how] to discern the face of the sky, but ye cannot the signs of the times. <sup>4</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it save the sign of Jonas. And he left them and went away. <sup>5</sup> And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. <sup>6</sup> And Jesus said to them, See and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. <sup>7</sup> And they reasoned among themselves, saying, Because we have taken no bread. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus knowing [it], said, Why reason ye among yourselves, O ye of little faith, because ye have taken no bread? <sup>9</sup> Do ye not yet understand nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many hand-baskets ye took [up]? <sup>10</sup> nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took [up]? <sup>11</sup> How do ye not understand that [it was] not concerning bread I said to you, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees? <sup>12</sup> Then they comprehended that he did not speak of being beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees. <sup>13</sup> But when Jesus was come into the parts of Caesarea-Philippi, he demanded of his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I the Son of man am? <sup>14</sup> And they said, Some, John the baptist; and others, Elias; and others again, Jeremias or one of the prophets. <sup>15</sup> He says to them, But ye, who do ye say that I am? <sup>16</sup> And Simon Peter answering said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answering said to him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona, for flesh and blood has not revealed [it] to thee, but my Father who is in the heavens. <sup>18</sup> And I also, I say unto thee that thou art Peter, and on this rock I will build my assembly, and hades' gates shall not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup> And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of the heavens; and whatsoever thou mayest bind upon the earth shall be bound in the heavens; and whatsoever thou mayest loose on the earth shall be loosed in the heavens. <sup>20</sup> Then he enjoined on his disciples that they should say to no man that he was the Christ. <sup>21</sup> From that time Jesus began to shew to his disciples that he must go away to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised. <sup>22</sup> And Peter taking him to [him] began to rebuke him, saying, [God] be favourable to thee, Lord; this shall in no wise be unto thee. <sup>23</sup> But turning round, he said to Peter, Get away behind me, Satan; thou art an offence to me, for thy mind is not on the things that are of <sup>o</sup>God, but on the things that are of men. <sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, If any one desires to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>25</sup> For whosoever shall desire to save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake shall find it. <sup>26</sup> For what does a man profit, if he should gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>27</sup> For the Son of man is about to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to each according to his doings. <sup>28</sup> Verily I say unto you, There are some of those standing here that shall not taste of death at all until they shall have seen the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

17

restore all things. <sup>12</sup> But I say unto you that Elias has already come, and they have not known him, but have done unto him whatever they would. Thus also the Son of man is about to suffer from them. <sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the baptist. <sup>14</sup> And when they came to the crowd, a man came to him, falling on his knees before him, and saying, <sup>15</sup> Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is lunatic, and suffers sorely; for often he falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup> And I brought him to thy disciples, and they were not able to heal him. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answering said, O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to me. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon went out from him, and the boy was healed from that hour. <sup>19</sup> Then the disciples, coming to Jesus apart, said [to him], Why were not we able to cast him out? <sup>20</sup> And he says to them, Because of your unbelief; for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard [seed], ye shall say to this mountain, Be transported hence there, and it shall transport itself; and nothing shall be impossible to you. <sup>21</sup> But this kind does not go out but by prayer and fasting. <sup>22</sup> And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man is about to be delivered up into [the] hands of men, <sup>23</sup> and they shall kill him; and the third day he shall be raised up. And they were greatly grieved. <sup>24</sup> And when they came to Capernaum, those who received the didrachmas came to Peter and said, Does your teacher not pay the didrachmas? <sup>25</sup> He says, Yes. And when he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What dost thou think, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive custom or tribute? from their own sons or from strangers? <sup>26</sup> Peter says to him, From strangers. Jesus said to him, Then are the sons free. <sup>27</sup> But that we may not be an offence to them, go to the sea and cast a hook, and take the first fish that comes up, and when thou hast opened its mouth thou wilt find a stater; take that and give it to them for me and thee.

18

<sup>1</sup> In that hour the disciples came to Jesus saying, Who then is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens? <sup>2</sup> And Jesus having called a little child to [him], set it in their midst, <sup>3</sup> and said, Verily I say to you, Unless ye are converted and become as little children, ye will not at all enter into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>4</sup> Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens; <sup>5</sup> and whosoever shall receive one such little child in my name, receives me. <sup>6</sup> But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones who believe in me, it were profitable for him that a great millstone had been hanged upon his neck and he be sunk in the depths of the sea. <sup>7</sup> Woe to the world because of offences! For it must needs be that offences come; yet woe to that man by whom the offence comes! <sup>8</sup> And if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut it off and cast [it] from thee; it is good for thee to enter into life lame or maimed, [rather] than having two hands or two feet to be cast into eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out and cast [it] from thee; it is good for thee to enter into life one-eyed, [rather] than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire. <sup>10</sup> See that ye do not despise one of these little ones; for I say unto you that their angels in [the] heavens continually behold the face of my Father who is in [the] heavens. <sup>11</sup> For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost. <sup>12</sup> What think ye? If a certain man should have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, does he not, leaving the ninety and nine on the mountains, go and seek the one that has gone astray? <sup>13</sup> And if it should come to pass that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoices more because of it than because of the ninety and nine not gone astray. <sup>14</sup> So it is not the will of your Father who is in [the] heavens that one of these little ones should perish. <sup>15</sup> But if thy brother sin against thee, go, reprove him between thee and him alone. If he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. <sup>16</sup> But if he do not hear [thee], take with thee one or two besides, that every matter may stand upon the word of two witnesses or of three. <sup>17</sup> But if he will not listen to them, tell it to the assembly; and if also he will not listen to the assembly, let him be to thee as one of the nations and a tax-gatherer. <sup>18</sup> Verily I say to you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on the earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever ye shall loose on the earth shall be loosed in heaven. <sup>19</sup> Again I say to you, that if two of you shall agree on the earth concerning any matter, whatsoever it may be that they shall ask, it shall come to them from my Father who is in [the] heavens. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three are gathered together unto my name, there am I in the midst of them. <sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to him and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? until seven times? <sup>22</sup> Jesus says to him, I say not to thee until seven times, but until seventy times seven. <sup>23</sup> For this cause the kingdom of the heavens has become like a king who would reckon with his bondmen. <sup>24</sup> And having begun to reckon, one debtor of ten thousand talents was brought to him. <sup>25</sup> But he not having anything to pay, [his] lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and his children, and everything that he had, and that payment should be made. <sup>26</sup> The bondman therefore falling down did him homage, saying, Lord, have patience with me and I will pay thee all. <sup>27</sup> And the lord of that bondman, being moved with compassion, loosed him and forgave him the loan. <sup>28</sup> But that bondman having gone out, found one of his fellow-bondmen who owed him a hundred denarii. And having seized him, he throttled him, saying, Pay [me] if thou owest anything. <sup>29</sup> His fellow-bondman therefore, having fallen down [at his feet], besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. <sup>30</sup> But he would not, but went away and cast him into prison, until he should pay what was owing. <sup>31</sup> But his fellow-bondmen, having seen what had taken place, were greatly grieved, and went and recounted to their lord all that had taken place. <sup>32</sup> Then his lord, having called him to [him], says to him, Wicked bondman! I forgave thee all that debt because thou besoughtest me; <sup>33</sup> shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-bondman, as I also had compassion on thee? <sup>34</sup> And his lord being angry delivered him to the tormentors till he paid all that was owing to him. <sup>35</sup> Thus also my heavenly Father shall do to you if ye forgive not from your hearts every one his brother.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these words, he withdrew from Galilee, and came to the coasts of Judaea beyond the

Jordan; <sup>2</sup> and great crowds followed him, and he healed them there. <sup>3</sup> And the Pharisees came to him tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? <sup>4</sup> But he answering said [to them], Have ye not read that he who made [them], from the beginning made them male and female, <sup>5</sup> and said, On account of this a man shall leave father and mother, and shall be united to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh? <sup>6</sup> so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore <sup>o</sup>God has joined together, let not man separate. <sup>7</sup> They say to him, Why then did Moses command to give a letter of divorce and to send [her] away? <sup>8</sup> He says to them, Moses, in view of your hardheartedness, allowed you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it was not thus. <sup>9</sup> But I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, not for fornication, and shall marry another, commits adultery; and he who marries one put away commits adultery. <sup>10</sup> His disciples say to him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. <sup>11</sup> And he said to them, All cannot receive this word, but those to whom it has been given; <sup>12</sup> for there are eunuchs which have been born thus from [their] mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs of men; and there are eunuchs who have made eunuchs of themselves for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. He that is able to receive [it], let him receive [it]. <sup>13</sup> Then there were brought to him little children that he might lay his hands on them and pray; but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and do not hinder them from coming to me; for the kingdom of the heavens is of such: <sup>15</sup> and having laid his hands upon them, he departed thence. <sup>16</sup> And lo, one coming up said to him, Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have life eternal? <sup>17</sup> And he said to him, What askest thou me concerning goodness? one is good. But if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. <sup>18</sup> He says to him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup> Honour thy father and thy mother, and Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>20</sup> The young man says to him, All these have I kept; what lack I yet? <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, sell what thou hast and give to [the] poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. <sup>22</sup> But the young man, having heard the word, went away grieved, for he had large possessions. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus said to his disciples, Verily I say unto you, A rich man shall with difficulty enter into the kingdom of the heavens; <sup>24</sup> and again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to enter a needle's eye than a rich man into the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>25</sup> And when the disciples heard [it] they were exceedingly astonished, saying, Who then can be saved? <sup>26</sup> But Jesus, looking on [them], said to them, With men this is impossible; but with <sup>o</sup>God all things are possible. <sup>27</sup> Then Peter answering said to him, Behold, we have left all things and have followed thee; what then shall happen to us? <sup>28</sup> And Jesus said to them, Verily I say unto you, That ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit down upon his throne of glory, ye also shall sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> And every one who has left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit life eternal.

30 But many first shall be last, and last first.

20

1 For the kingdom of the heavens is like a householder who went out with the early morn to hire workmen for his vineyard. 2 And having agreed with the workmen for a denarius the day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And having gone out about [the] third hour, he saw others standing in the market-place idle; 4 and to them he said, Go also ye into the vineyard, and whatsoever may be just I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again, having gone out about the sixth and ninth hour, he did likewise. 6 But about the eleventh [hour], having gone out, he found others standing, and says to them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say to him, Because no man has hired us. He says to them, Go also ye into the vineyard [and whatsoever may be just ye shall receive]. 8 But when the evening was come, the lord of the vineyard says to his steward, Call the workmen and pay [them] their wages, beginning from the last even to the first. 9 And when they [who came to work] about the eleventh hour came, they received each a denarius. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more, and they received also themselves each a denarius. 11 And on receiving it they murmured against the master of the house, 12 saying, These last have worked one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the heat. 13 But he answering said to one of them, [My] friend, I do not wrong thee. Didst thou not agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take what is thine and go. But it is my will to give to this last even as to thee: 15 is it not lawful for me to do what I will in my own affairs? Is thine eye evil because I am good? 16 Thus shall the last be first, and the first last; for many are called ones, but few chosen ones. 17 And Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples with [him] apart in the way, and said to them, 18 Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death; 19 and they will deliver him up to the nations to mock and to scourge and to crucify, and the third day he shall rise again. 20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee, with her sons, doing homage, and asking something of him. 21 And he said to her, What wilt thou? She says to him, Speak [the word] that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand and one on thy left in thy kingdom. 22 And Jesus answering said, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink the cup which I am about to drink? They say to him, We are able. 23 [And] he says to them, Ye shall drink indeed my cup, but to sit on my right hand and on [my] left, is not mine to give, but to those for whom it is prepared of my Father. 24 And the ten, having heard [of it], were indignant about the two brothers. 25 But Jesus having called them to [him], said, Ye know that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them, and the great exercise authority over them. 26 It shall not be thus amongst you, but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your servant; 27 and whosoever will be first among you, let him be your bondman; 28 as indeed the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many. 29 And as they went out from Jericho a great crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup> And lo, two blind men, sitting by the wayside, having heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out saying, Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David. <sup>31</sup> But the crowd rebuked them, that they might be silent. But they cried out the more, saying, Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David. <sup>32</sup> And Jesus, having stopped, called them and said, What will ye that I shall do to you? <sup>33</sup> They say to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. <sup>34</sup> And Jesus, moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes had sight restored to them, and they followed him.

<sup>1</sup> And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, at the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> saying to them, Go into the village over against you, and immediately ye will find an ass tied, and a colt with it; loose [them] and lead [them] to me. <sup>3</sup> And if any one say anything to you, ye shall say, The Lord has need of them, and straightway he will send them. <sup>4</sup> But all this came to pass, that that might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, <sup>5</sup> Say to the daughter of Zion, Behold thy King cometh to thee, meek, and mounted upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. <sup>6</sup> But the disciples, having gone and done as Jesus had ordered them, <sup>7</sup> brought the ass and the colt and put their garments upon them, and he sat on them. <sup>8</sup> But a very great crowd strewed their own garments on the way, and others kept cutting down branches from the trees and strewing them on the way. <sup>9</sup> And the crowds who went before him and who followed cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed [be] he who comes in the name of [the] Lord; hosanna in the highest. <sup>10</sup> And as he entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was moved, saying, Who is this? <sup>11</sup> And the crowds said, This is Jesus the prophet who is from Nazareth of Galilee. <sup>12</sup> And Jesus entered into the temple [of °God], and cast out all that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those that sold the doves. <sup>13</sup> And he says to them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of robbers. <sup>14</sup> And blind and lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup> And when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonders which he wrought, and the children crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were indignant, <sup>16</sup> and said to him, Hearst thou what these say? And Jesus says to them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? <sup>17</sup> And leaving them he went forth out of the city to Bethany, and there he passed the night. <sup>18</sup> But early in the morning, as he came back into the city, he hungered. <sup>19</sup> And seeing one fig-tree in the way, he came to it and found on it nothing but leaves only. And he says to it, Let there be never more fruit of thee for ever. And the fig-tree was immediately dried up. <sup>20</sup> And when the disciples saw [it], they wondered, saying, How immediately is the fig-tree dried up! <sup>21</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and do not doubt, not only shall ye do what [is done] to the fig-tree, but even if ye should say to this mountain, Be thou taken away and be thou cast into the sea, it shall come to pass. <sup>22</sup> And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. <sup>23</sup> And when he came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him [as he was] teaching, saying, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? <sup>24</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things: <sup>25</sup> The baptism of John, whence was it? of heaven or of men? And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we should say, Of heaven, he will say to us, Why then have ye not believed him? <sup>26</sup> but if we should say, Of men, we fear the crowd, for all hold John for a prophet. <sup>27</sup> And answering Jesus they said, We do not know. He also said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>28</sup> But what think ye? A man had two children, and coming to the first he said, Child, go to-day, work in [my] vineyard. <sup>29</sup> And he answering said, I will not; but afterwards repenting himself he went. <sup>30</sup> And coming to the second he said likewise; and he answering said, I [go], sir, and went not. <sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of the father? They say [to him], The first. Jesus says to them, Verily I say unto you that the tax-gatherers and the harlots go into the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God before you. <sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the tax-gatherers and the harlots believed him; but ye when ye saw [it] repented not yourselves afterwards to believe him. <sup>33</sup> Hear another parable: There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and made a fence round it, and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and left the country. <sup>34</sup> But when the time of fruit drew near, he sent his bondmen to the husbandmen to receive his fruits. <sup>35</sup> And the husbandmen took his bondmen, and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup> Again he sent other bondmen more than the first, and they did to them in like manner. <sup>37</sup> And at last he sent to them his son, saying, They will have respect for my son. <sup>38</sup> But the husbandmen, seeing the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him and possess his inheritance. <sup>39</sup> And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup> When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what shall he do to those husbandmen? <sup>41</sup> They say to him, He will miserably destroy those evil [men], and let out the vineyard to other husbandmen, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons. <sup>42</sup> Jesus says to them, Have ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which they that builded rejected, this has become the corner-stone: this is of [the] Lord, and it is wonderful in our eyes? <sup>43</sup> Therefore I say to you, that the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God shall be taken from you and shall be given to a nation producing the fruits of it. <sup>44</sup> And he that falls on this stone shall be broken, but on whomsoever it shall fall, it shall grind him to powder. <sup>45</sup> And the chief priests and the Pharisees, having heard his parables, knew that he spoke about them. <sup>46</sup> And seeking to lay hold of him, they were afraid of the crowds, because they held him for a prophet.

22

wedding feast, and they would not come. <sup>4</sup> Again he sent other bondmen, saying, Say to the persons invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatted beasts are killed, and all things ready; come to the wedding feast. <sup>5</sup> But they made light of it, and went, one to his own land, and another to his commerce. <sup>6</sup> And the rest, laying hold of his bondmen, ill-treated and slew [them]. <sup>7</sup> And [when] the king [heard of it he] was wroth, and having sent his forces, destroyed those murderers and burned their city. <sup>8</sup> Then he says to his bondmen, The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy; <sup>9</sup> go therefore into the thoroughfares of the highways, and as many as ye shall find invite to the wedding feast. <sup>10</sup> And those bondmen went out into the highways, and brought together all as many as they found, both evil and good; and the wedding feast was furnished with guests. <sup>11</sup> And the king, having gone in to see the guests, beheld there a man not clothed with a wedding garment. <sup>12</sup> And he says to him, [My] friend, how camest thou in here not having on a wedding garment? But he was speechless. <sup>13</sup> Then said the king to the servants, Bind him feet and hands, and take him away, and cast him out into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>14</sup> For many are called ones, but few chosen ones. <sup>15</sup> Then went the Pharisees and held a council how they might ensnare him in speaking. <sup>16</sup> And they send out to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true and teachest the way of °God in truth, and carest not for any one, for thou regardest not men's person; <sup>17</sup> tell us therefore what thou thinkest: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? <sup>18</sup> But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said, Why tempt ye me, hypocrites? <sup>19</sup> Shew me the money of the tribute. And they presented to him a denarius. <sup>20</sup> And he says to them, Whose [is] this image and superscription? <sup>21</sup> They say to him, Caesar's. Then he says to them, Pay then what is Caesar's to Caesar, and what is °God's to °God. <sup>22</sup> And when they heard [him], they wondered, and left him, and went away. <sup>23</sup> On that day came to him Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they demanded of him, <sup>24</sup> saying, Teacher, Moses said, If any one die, not having children, his brother shall marry his wife and shall raise up seed to his brother. <sup>25</sup> Now there were with us seven brethren; and the first having married died, and not having seed, left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> In like manner also the second and the third, unto the seven. <sup>27</sup> And last of all the woman also died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection therefore of which of the seven shall she be wife, for all had her? <sup>29</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Ye err, not knowing the scriptures nor the power of °God. <sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as angels of °God in heaven. <sup>31</sup> But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read what was spoken to you by °God, saying, <sup>32</sup> I am the °God of Abraham, and the °God of Isaac, and the °God of Jacob? °God is not °God of [the] dead, but of [the] living. <sup>33</sup> And when the crowds heard [it] they were astonished at his doctrine. <sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees, having heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, were gathered together. <sup>35</sup> And one of them, a lawyer, demanded, tempting him, and saying, <sup>36</sup> Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? <sup>37</sup> And he said to him, Thou shalt love [the] Lord thy <sup>o</sup>God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy understanding. <sup>38</sup> This is [the] great and first commandment. <sup>39</sup> And [the] second is like it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>40</sup> On these two commandments the whole law and the prophets hang. <sup>41</sup> And the Pharisees being gathered together, Jesus demanded of them, <sup>42</sup> saying, What think ye concerning the Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, David's. <sup>43</sup> He says to them, How then does David in Spirit call him Lord, saying, <sup>44</sup> The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand until I put thine enemies under thy feet? <sup>45</sup> If therefore David call him Lord, how is he his son? <sup>46</sup> And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did any one dare from that day to question him any more.

guides, who strain out the gnat, but drink down the camel. <sup>25</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but within they are full of rapine and intemperance. <sup>26</sup> Blind Pharisee, make clean first the inside of the cup and of the dish, that their outside also may become clean. <sup>27</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye are like whited sepulchres, which appear beautiful outwardly, but within are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup> Thus also ye, outwardly ye appear righteous to men, but within are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. <sup>29</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets and adorn the tombs of the just, <sup>30</sup> and ye say, If we had been in the days of our fathers we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. <sup>31</sup> So that ye bear witness of yourselves that ye are sons of those who slew the prophets: <sup>32</sup> and ye, fill ye up the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup> Serpents, offspring of vipers, how should ye escape the judgment of hell? <sup>34</sup> Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and [some] of them ye will kill and crucify, and [some] of them ye will scourge in your synagogues, and will persecute from city to city; <sup>35</sup> so that all righteous blood shed upon the earth should come upon you, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup> Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. <sup>37</sup> Jerusalem, Jerusalem, [the city] that kills the prophets and stones those that are sent unto her, how often would I have gathered thy children as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! <sup>38</sup> Behold, your house is left unto you desolate; <sup>39</sup> for I say unto you, Ye shall in no wise see me henceforth until ye say, Blessed [be] he that comes in the name of [the] Lord.

24

<sup>1</sup> And Jesus went forth and went away from the temple, and his disciples came to [him] to point out to him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup> And he answering said to them, Do ye not see all these things? Verily I say to you, Not a stone shall be left here upon a stone which shall not be thrown down. <sup>3</sup> And as he was sitting upon the mount of Olives the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be, and what is the sign of thy coming and [the] completion of the age? <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, See that no one mislead you. <sup>5</sup> For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ, and they shall mislead many. <sup>6</sup> But ye will hear of wars and rumours of wars. See that ye be not disturbed; for all [these things] must take place, but it is not yet the end. <sup>7</sup> For nation shall rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be famines and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places. <sup>8</sup> But all these [are the] beginning of throes. <sup>9</sup> Then shall they deliver you up to tribulation, and shall kill you; and ye will be hated of all the nations for my name's sake. <sup>10</sup> And then will many be offended, and will deliver one another up, and hate one another; <sup>11</sup> and many false prophets shall arise and shall mislead many; <sup>12</sup> and because lawlessness shall prevail, the love of the most shall grow cold; <sup>13</sup> but he that has endured to the end, he shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> And these glad tidings of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole habitable earth, for a witness to all the nations, and then shall come the end. <sup>15</sup> When therefore ye shall see the abomination of desolation, which is spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in [what is a] holy place, (he that reads let him understand,) <sup>16</sup> then let those who are in Judaea flee to the mountains; <sup>17</sup> let not him that is on the house come down to take the things out of his house; <sup>18</sup> and let not him that is in the field turn back to take his garment. <sup>19</sup> But woe to those that are with child, and those that give suck in those days. <sup>20</sup> But pray that your flight may not be in winter time nor on sabbath: <sup>21</sup> for then shall there be great tribulation, such as has not been from [the] beginning of [the] world until now, nor ever shall be; <sup>22</sup> and if those days had not been cut short, no flesh had been saved; but on account of the elect those days shall be cut short. <sup>23</sup> Then if any one say to you, Behold, here is the Christ, or here, believe [it] not. <sup>24</sup> For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall give great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup> Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup> If therefore they say to you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth; behold, [he is] in the inner chambers, do not believe [it]. <sup>27</sup> For as the lightning goes forth from the east and shines to the west, so shall be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>28</sup> [For] wherever the carcase is, there will be gathered the eagles. <sup>29</sup> But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. <sup>30</sup> And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the land lament, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> And he shall send his angels with a great sound of trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from [the one] extremity of [the] heavens to [the other] extremity of them. <sup>32</sup> But learn the parable from the fig-tree: When already its branch becomes tender and produces leaves, ye know that the summer is near. <sup>33</sup> Thus also ye, when ye see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors. <sup>34</sup> Verily I say to you, This generation will not have passed away until all these things shall have taken place. <sup>35</sup> The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall in no wise pass away. <sup>36</sup> But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of the heavens, but [my] Father alone. <sup>37</sup> But as the days of Noe, so also shall be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>38</sup> For as they were in the days which were before the flood, eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day on which Noe entered into the ark, <sup>39</sup> and they knew not till the flood came and took all away; thus also shall be the coming of the Son of man. <sup>40</sup> Then two shall be in the field, one is taken and one is left; <sup>41</sup> two [women] grinding at the mill, one is taken and one is left. <sup>42</sup> Watch therefore, for ye know not in what hour your Lord comes. <sup>43</sup> But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched and not have suffered his house to be dug through [into]. <sup>44</sup> Wherefore ye also, be ye ready, for in that hour that ye think not the Son of man comes. <sup>45</sup> Who then is the faithful and prudent bondman whom his lord has set over his household, to give them food in season? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that bondman whom his lord on coming shall find doing thus. <sup>47</sup> Verily I say unto you, that he will set him over all his substance. <sup>48</sup> But if that evil bondman should say in his heart, My lord delays to come, <sup>49</sup> and begin to beat his fellow-bondmen, and eat and drink with the drunken; <sup>50</sup> the lord of that bondman shall come in a day when he does not expect it, and in an hour he knows not of, <sup>51</sup> and shall cut him in two and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

scattered; <sup>27</sup> thou oughtest then to have put my money to the money-changers, and when I came I should have got what is mine with interest. <sup>28</sup> Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him that has the ten talents: <sup>29</sup> for to every one that has shall be given, and he shall be in abundance; but from him that has not, that even which he has shall be taken from him. <sup>30</sup> And cast out the useless bondman into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>31</sup> But when the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit down upon his throne of glory, <sup>32</sup> and all the nations shall be gathered before him; and he shall separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; <sup>33</sup> and he will set the sheep on his right hand, and the goats on [his] left. <sup>34</sup> Then shall the King say to those on his right hand, Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from [the] world's foundation: <sup>35</sup> for I hungered, and ye gave me to eat; I thirsted, and ye gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; <sup>36</sup> naked, and ye clothed me; I was ill, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came to me. <sup>37</sup> Then shall the righteous answer him saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungering, and nourished thee; or thirsting, and gave thee to drink? <sup>38</sup> and when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in; or naked, and clothed thee? <sup>39</sup> and when saw we thee ill, or in prison, and came to thee? <sup>40</sup> And the King answering shall say to them, Verily, I say to you, Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it to me. <sup>41</sup> Then shall he say also to those on the left, Go from me, cursed, into eternal fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: <sup>42</sup> for I hungered, and ye gave me not to eat; I thirsted, and ye gave me not to drink; <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye did not clothe me; ill, and in prison, and ye did not visit me. <sup>44</sup> Then shall they also answer saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or ill, or in prison, and have not ministered to thee? <sup>45</sup> Then shall he answer them saying, Verily I say to you, Inasmuch as ye have not done it to one of these least, neither have ye done it to me. <sup>46</sup> And these shall go away into eternal punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup> Ye know that after two days the passover takes place, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. <sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together to the palace of the high priest who was called Caiaphas, <sup>4</sup> and took counsel together in order that they might seize Jesus by subtlety and kill him; <sup>5</sup> but they said, Not in the feast, that there be not a tumult among the people. <sup>6</sup> But Jesus being in Bethany, in Simon the leper's house, <sup>7</sup> a woman, having an alabaster flask of very precious ointment, came to him and poured it out upon his head as he lay at table. <sup>8</sup> But the disciples seeing it became indignant, saying, To what end [was] this waste? <sup>9</sup> for this might have been sold for much and been given to the poor. <sup>10</sup> But Jesus knowing [it] said to them, Why do ye trouble the woman? for she has wrought a good work toward me. <sup>11</sup> For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always. <sup>12</sup> For in pouring out this ointment on my body, she has done it for my burying. <sup>13</sup> Verily I say to you, Wheresoever these glad tidings may be preached in the whole world, that also which this [woman] has done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. <sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, he who was called Judas Iscariote, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup> and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him up to you? And they appointed to him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> And from that time he sought a good opportunity that he might deliver him up. <sup>17</sup> Now on the first [day] of [the feast of] unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? <sup>18</sup> And he said, Go into the city unto such a one, and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is near, I will keep the passover in thy house with my disciples. <sup>19</sup> And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the passover. <sup>20</sup> And when the evening was come he lay down at table with the twelve. <sup>21</sup> And as they were eating he said, Verily I say to you, that one of you shall deliver me up. <sup>22</sup> And being exceedingly grieved they began to say to him, each of them, Is it I, Lord? <sup>23</sup> But he answering said, He that dips his hand with me in the dish, he it is who shall deliver me up. <sup>24</sup> The Son of man goes indeed, according as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is delivered up; it were good for that man if he had not been born. <sup>25</sup> And Judas, who delivered him up, answering said, Is it I, Rabbi? He says to him, Thou hast said. <sup>26</sup> And as they were eating, Jesus, having taken [the] bread and blessed, broke [it] and gave [it] to the disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. <sup>27</sup> And having taken [the] cup and given thanks, he gave [it] to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. <sup>28</sup> For this is my blood, that of the [new] covenant, that shed for many for remission of sins. <sup>29</sup> But I say to you, that I will not at all drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father. <sup>30</sup> And having sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives. <sup>31</sup> Then saith Jesus to them, All ye shall be offended in me during this night. For it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. <sup>32</sup> But after that I shall be risen, I will go before you to Galilee. <sup>33</sup> And Peter answering said to him, If all shall be offended in thee, I will never be offended. <sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, Verily I say to thee, that during this night, before [the] cock shall crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. <sup>35</sup> Peter says to him, If I should needs die with thee, I will in no wise deny thee. Likewise said all the disciples also. <sup>36</sup> Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and says to the disciples, Sit here until I go away and pray yonder. <sup>37</sup> And taking with [him] Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and deeply depressed. <sup>38</sup> Then he says to them, My soul is very sorrowful even unto death; remain here and watch with me. <sup>39</sup> And going forward a little he fell upon his face, praying and saying, My Father, if it be possible let this cup pass from me; but not as I will, but as thou [wilt]. <sup>40</sup> And he comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, Thus ye have not been able to watch one hour with me? <sup>41</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed [is] ready, but the flesh weak. <sup>42</sup> Again going away a second time he prayed saying, My Father, if this cannot pass [from me] unless I drink it, thy will be done. <sup>43</sup> And coming he found them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup> And leaving them, he went away again and prayed the third time, saying the same thing. <sup>45</sup> Then he comes to the disciples and says to them, Sleep on now and take your rest; behold, the hour has drawn nigh, and the Son of man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup> Arise, let us go; behold, he that delivers me up has drawn nigh. <sup>47</sup> And while he was yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great crowd with swords and sticks from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup> Now he that delivered him up had given them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, he it is: seize him. <sup>49</sup> And immediately coming up to Jesus he said, Hail, Rabbi, and covered him with kisses. <sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to him, [My] friend, for what purpose art thou come? Then coming up they laid hands upon Jesus and seized him. <sup>51</sup> And behold, one of those with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and smiting the bondman of the high priest took off his ear. <sup>52</sup> Then saith Jesus to him, Return thy sword to its place; for all who take the sword shall perish by the sword. <sup>53</sup> Or thinkest thou that I cannot now call upon my Father, and he will furnish me more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup> How then should the scriptures be fulfilled that thus it must be? <sup>55</sup> In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and sticks to take me? I sat daily [with you] teaching in the temple, and ye did not seize me. <sup>56</sup> But all this is come to pass that the scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him and fled. <sup>57</sup> Now they that had seized Jesus led [him] away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. <sup>58</sup> And Peter followed him at a distance, even to the palace of the high priest, and entering in sat with the officers to see the end. <sup>59</sup> And the chief priests and the elders and the whole sanhedrim sought false witness against Jesus, so that they might put him to death. <sup>60</sup> And they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But at the last two false witnesses came forward <sup>61</sup> and said, He said, I am able to destroy the temple of °God, and in three days build it. <sup>62</sup> And the high priest standing up said to him, Answerest thou nothing? What do these witness against thee? <sup>63</sup> But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answering said to him, I adjure thee by the living °God that thou tell us if thou art the Christ the Son of °God. <sup>64</sup> Jesus says to him, Thou hast said. Moreover, I say to you, From henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. <sup>65</sup> Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He has blasphemed: what need have we any more of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy. <sup>66</sup> What think ye? And they answering said, He is liable to the penalty of death. <sup>67</sup> Then they spit in his face, and buffeted him, and some struck him with the palms of their hand, <sup>68</sup> saying, Prophecy to us, Christ, Who is it who struck thee? <sup>69</sup> But Peter sat without in the palace-court; and a maid came to him, saying, And thou wast with Jesus the Galilaeen. <sup>70</sup> But he denied before all, saying, I do not know what thou sayest. <sup>71</sup> And when he had gone out into the entrance, another [maid] saw him, and says to those there, This [man] also was with Jesus the Nazaraean. <sup>72</sup> And again he denied with an oath: I do not know the man. <sup>73</sup> And after a little, those who stood [there], coming to [him], said to Peter, Truly thou too art of them, for also thy speech makes thee manifest. <sup>74</sup> Then he began to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And immediately [the] cock crew. <sup>75</sup> And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who had said [to him], Before [the] cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went forth without, and wept bitterly.

27

<sup>1</sup> And when it was morning all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus so that they might put him to death. <sup>2</sup> And having bound him they led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. <sup>3</sup> Then Judas, who delivered him up, seeing that he had been condemned, filled with remorse, returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, <sup>4</sup> saying, I have sinned [in] having delivered up guiltless blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou [to that]. <sup>5</sup> And having cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, he left the place, and went away and hanged himself. <sup>6</sup> And the chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, It is not lawful to cast them into the Corban, since it is [the] price of blood. <sup>7</sup> And having taken counsel, they bought with them the field of the potter for a burying-ground for strangers. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore that field has been called Blood-field unto this day. <sup>9</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremias the prophet, saying, And I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was set a price on, whom [they who were] of the sons of Israel had set a price on, <sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the field of the potter, according as [the] Lord commanded me. <sup>11</sup> But Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor questioned him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, Thou sayest. <sup>12</sup> And when he was accused of the chief priests and the elders, he answered nothing. <sup>13</sup> Then says Pilate to him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? <sup>14</sup> And he answered him not so much as one word, so that the governor wondered exceedingly. <sup>15</sup> Now at [the] feast the governor was accustomed to release one prisoner to the crowd, whom they would. <sup>16</sup> And they had then a notable prisoner, named Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> They therefore being gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom will ye that I release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? <sup>18</sup> For he knew that they had delivered him up through envy. <sup>19</sup> But, as he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous [man]; for I have suffered to-day many things in a dream because of him. <sup>20</sup> But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds that they should beg for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup> And the governor answering said to them, Which of the two will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. <sup>22</sup> Pilate says to them, What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. <sup>23</sup> And the governor said, What evil then has he done? But they cried more than ever, saying, Let him be crucified. <sup>24</sup> And Pilate, seeing that it availed nothing, but that rather a tumult was arising, having taken water, washed his hands before the crowd, saying, I am guiltless of the blood of this righteous one: see ye [to it]. <sup>25</sup> And all the people answering said, His blood [be] on us and on our children. <sup>26</sup> Then he released to them Barabbas; but Jesus, having scourged [him], he delivered up that he might be crucified. <sup>27</sup> Then the soldiers of the governor, having taken Jesus with [them] to the praetorium, gathered against him the whole band, <sup>28</sup> and having taken off his garment, put on him a scarlet cloak; <sup>29</sup> and having woven a crown out of thorns, they put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and, bowing the knee before him, they mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! <sup>30</sup> And having spit upon him, they took the reed and beat [him] on his head. <sup>31</sup> And when they had mocked him, they took the cloak off him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify. <sup>32</sup> And as they went forth they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they compelled to go [with them] that he might bear his cross. <sup>33</sup> And having come to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a skull, <sup>34</sup> they gave to him to drink vinegar mingled with gall; and having tasted [it], he would not drink. <sup>35</sup> And having crucified him, they parted his clothes amongst [themselves], casting lots. <sup>36</sup> And sitting down, they kept guard over him there. <sup>37</sup> And they set up over his head his accusation written: This is Jesus, the King of the Jews. <sup>38</sup> Then are crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left. <sup>39</sup> But the passers-by reviled him, shaking their heads <sup>40</sup> and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou art Son of °God, descend from the cross. <sup>41</sup> [And] in like manner the chief priests also, mocking, with the scribes and elders, said, <sup>42</sup> He saved others, himself he cannot save. He is King of Israel: let him descend now from the cross, and we will believe on him. <sup>43</sup> He trusted upon °God; let him save him now if he will [have] him. For he said, I am Son of °God. <sup>44</sup> And the robbers also who had been crucified with him cast the same reproaches on him. <sup>45</sup> Now from [the] sixth hour there was darkness over the whole land until [the] ninth hour; <sup>46</sup> but about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My °God, my °God, why hast thou forsaken me? <sup>47</sup> And some of those who stood there, when they heard [it], said, This [man] calls for Elias. <sup>48</sup> And immediately one of them running and getting a sponge, having filled [it] with vinegar and fixed [it] on a reed, gave him to drink. <sup>49</sup> But the rest said, Let be; let us see if Elias comes to save him. <sup>50</sup> And Jesus, having again cried with a loud voice, gave up the ghost. <sup>51</sup> And lo, the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were rent, <sup>52</sup> and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints fallen asleep arose, <sup>53</sup> and going out of the tombs after his arising, entered into the holy city and appeared unto many. <sup>54</sup> But the centurion, and they who were with him on guard over Jesus, seeing the earthquake and the things that took place, feared greatly, saying, Truly this [man] was Son of °God. <sup>55</sup> And there were there many women beholding from afar off, who had followed Jesus from Galilee ministering to him, <sup>56</sup> among whom was Mary of Magdala, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. <sup>57</sup> Now when even was come there came a rich man of Arimathaea, his name Joseph, who also himself was a disciple to Jesus. <sup>58</sup> He, going to Pilate, begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. <sup>59</sup> And Joseph having got the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn in the rock; and having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, went away. <sup>61</sup> But Mary of Magdala was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the sepulchre. <sup>62</sup> Now on the morrow, which is after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, <sup>63</sup> saying, Sir, we have called to mind that that deceiver said when he was still alive, After three days I arise. <sup>64</sup> Command therefore that the sepulchre be secured until the third day, lest his disciples should come and steal him away, and say to the people, He is risen from the dead; and the last error shall be worse than the first. <sup>65</sup> And Pilate said to them, Ye have a watch: go, secure it as well as ye know how. <sup>66</sup> And they went and secured the sepulchre, having sealed the stone, with the watch [besides].

28

<sup>1</sup> Now late on sabbath, as it was the dusk of the next day after sabbath, came Mary of Magdala and the other Mary to look at the sepulchre. <sup>2</sup> And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of [the] Lord, descending out of heaven, came and rolled away the stone and sat upon it. <sup>3</sup> And his look was as lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup> And for fear of him the guards trembled and became as dead men. <sup>5</sup> And the angel answering said to the women, Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus the crucified one. <sup>6</sup> He is not here, for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. <sup>7</sup> And go quickly and say to his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and behold, he goes before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him. Behold, I have told you. <sup>8</sup> And going out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to bring his disciples word. <sup>9</sup> And as they went to bring his disciples word, behold also, Jesus met them, saying, Hail! And they coming up took him by the feet, and did him homage. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus says to them, Fear not; go, bring word to my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there they shall see me. <sup>11</sup> And as they went, behold, some of the watch went into the city, and brought word to the chief priests of all that had taken place. <sup>12</sup> And having assembled with the elders, and having taken counsel, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, <sup>13</sup> saying, Say that his disciples coming by night stole him [while] we [were] sleeping. <sup>14</sup> And if this should come to the hearing of the governor, we will persuade him, and save you from all anxiety. <sup>15</sup> And they took the money and did as they had been taught. And this report is current among the Jews until this day. <sup>16</sup> But the eleven disciples went into Galilee to the mountain which Jesus had appointed them. <sup>17</sup> And when they saw him, they did homage to him: but some doubted. <sup>18</sup> And Jesus coming up spoke to them, saying, All power has been given me in heaven and upon earth. <sup>19</sup> Go [therefore] and make disciples of all the nations, baptising them to the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; <sup>20</sup> teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have enjoined you. And behold, I am with you all the days, until the completion of the age.

The Gospel According to Saint Mark

the synagogue, they came with James and John into the house of Simon and Andrew. <sup>30</sup> And the mother-in-law of Simon lay in a fever. And straightway they speak to him about her. <sup>31</sup> And he went up to [her] and raised her up, having taken her by the hand, and straightway the fever left her, and she served them. <sup>32</sup> But evening being come, when the sun had gone down, they brought to him all that were suffering, and those possessed by demons; <sup>33</sup> and the whole city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup> And he healed many suffering from various diseases; and he cast out many demons, and did not suffer the demons to speak because they knew him. <sup>35</sup> And rising in the morning long before day, he went out and went away into a desert place, and there prayed. <sup>36</sup> And Simon and those with him went after him: <sup>37</sup> and having found him, they say to him, All seek thee. <sup>38</sup> And he says to them, Let us go elsewhere into the neighbouring country towns, that I may preach there also, for for this purpose am I come forth. <sup>39</sup> And he was preaching in their synagogues in the whole of Galilee, and casting out demons. <sup>40</sup> And there comes to him a leper, beseeching him, and falling on his knees to him, and saying to him, If thou wilt thou canst cleanse me. <sup>41</sup> But Jesus, moved with compassion, having stretched out his hand, touched him, and says to him, I will, be thou cleansed. <sup>42</sup> And as he spoke straightway the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. <sup>43</sup> And having sharply charged him, he straightway sent him away, <sup>44</sup> and says to him, See thou say nothing to any one, but go, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing what Moses ordained, for a testimony to them. <sup>45</sup> But he, having gone forth, began to proclaim [it] much, and to spread the matter abroad, so that he could no longer enter openly into the city, but was without in desert places, and they came to him from every side.

<sup>1</sup> And he entered again into Capernaum after [several] days, and it was reported that he was at [the] house; <sup>2</sup> and straightway many were gathered together, so that there was no longer any room, not even at the door; and he spoke the word to them. <sup>3</sup> And there come to him [men] bringing a paralytic, borne by four; <sup>4</sup> and, not being able to get near to him on account of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was, and having dug [it] up they let down the couch on which the paralytic lay. <sup>5</sup> But Jesus, seeing their faith, says to the paralytic, Child, thy sins are forgiven [thee]. <sup>6</sup> But certain of the scribes were there sitting, and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup> Why does this [man] thus speak? he blasphemeth. Who is able to forgive sins except °God alone? <sup>8</sup> And straightway Jesus, knowing in his spirit that they are reasoning thus within themselves, said to them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, [Thy] sins are forgiven [thee]; or to say, Arise, and take up thy couch and walk? <sup>10</sup> But that ye may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins, he says to the paralytic, <sup>11</sup> To thee I say, Arise, take up thy couch and go to thine house. <sup>12</sup> And he rose up straightway, and, having taken up his couch, went out before [them] all, so that all were amazed, and glorified °God, saying, We never saw it thus. <sup>13</sup> And he went out again by the sea, and all the crowd came to him, and he taught them. <sup>14</sup> And passing by, he saw Levi the [son] of Alphaeus sitting at the tax-office, and says to him, Follow me. And he rose up and followed him. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass as he lay at table in his house, that many tax-gatherers and sinners lay at table with Jesus and his disciples; for they were many, and they followed him. <sup>16</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees, seeing him eating with sinners and tax-gatherers, said to his disciples, Why [is it] that he eats and drinks with tax-gatherers and sinners? <sup>17</sup> And Jesus having heard [it] says to them, They that are strong have not need of a physician, but those who are ill. I have not come to call righteous [men], but sinners. <sup>18</sup> And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting; and they come and say to him, Why do the disciples of John and [the disciples] of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? <sup>19</sup> And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup> But days will come when the bridegroom shall have been taken away from them, and then shall they fast in that day. <sup>21</sup> No one sews a patch of new cloth on an old garment: otherwise its new filling-up takes from the old [stuff], and there is a worse rent. <sup>22</sup> And no one puts new wine into old skins; otherwise the wine bursts the skins, and the wine is poured out, and the skins will be destroyed; but new wine is to be put into new skins. <sup>23</sup> And it came to pass that he went on the sabbath through the cornfields; and his disciples began to walk on, plucking the ears. <sup>24</sup> And the Pharisees said to him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath what is not lawful? <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, Have ye never read what David did when he had need and hungered, he and those with him, <sup>26</sup> how he entered into the house of °God, in [the section of] Abiathar [the] high priest, and ate the shew-bread, which it is not lawful unless for the priests to eat, and gave even to those that were with him? <sup>27</sup> And he said to them, The sabbath was made on account of man, not man on account of the sabbath; <sup>28</sup> so that the Son of man is lord of the sabbath also.

3

<sup>1</sup> And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was there a man having his hand dried up. <sup>2</sup> And they watched him if he would heal him on the sabbath, that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup> And he says to the man who had his hand dried up, Rise up [and come] into the midst. <sup>4</sup> And he says to them, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill? But they were silent. <sup>5</sup> And looking round upon them with anger, distressed at the hardening of their heart, he says to the man, Stretch out thy hand. And he stretched [it] out, and his hand was restored. <sup>6</sup> And the Pharisees going out straightway with the Herodians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>7</sup> And Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea; and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea, <sup>8</sup> and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea and beyond the Jordan; and they of around Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, having heard what things he did, came to him. <sup>9</sup> And he spoke to his disciples, in order that a little ship should wait upon him on account of the crowd, that they might not press upon him. <sup>10</sup> For he healed many, so that they beset him that they might touch him, as many as had plagues. <sup>11</sup> And the unclean spirits, when they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried saying, Thou art the Son of °God. <sup>12</sup> And he rebuked them much, that they might not make him manifest. <sup>13</sup> And he goes up into the mountain, and calls whom he himself would, and they went to him. <sup>14</sup> And he appointed twelve that they might be with him, and that he might send them to preach, <sup>15</sup> and to have power [to heal diseases, and] to cast out demons. <sup>16</sup> And he gave to Simon the surname of Peter; <sup>17</sup> and James the [son] of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and he gave them the surname of Boanerges, that is, Sons of thunder; <sup>18</sup> and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the [son] of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariote, who also delivered him up. And they come to [the] house. <sup>20</sup> And again a crowd comes together, so that they cannot even eat bread. <sup>21</sup> And his relatives having heard [of it] went out to lay hold on him, for they said, He is out of his mind. <sup>22</sup> And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, He has Beelzebub, and, By the prince of the demons he casts out demons. <sup>23</sup> And having called them to [him], he said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup> And if a kingdom has become divided against itself, that kingdom cannot subsist. <sup>25</sup> And if a house has become divided against itself, that house cannot subsist. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan rise up against himself, and is divided, he cannot subsist, but has an end. <sup>27</sup> But no one can, having entered into his house, plunder the goods of the strong [man] unless he first bind the strong [man], and then he will plunder his house. <sup>28</sup> Verily I say unto you, that all sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and all the injurious speeches [with] which they may speak injuriously; <sup>29</sup> but whosoever shall speak injuriously against the Holy Spirit, to eternity has no forgiveness; but lies under the guilt of an everlasting sin; <sup>30</sup> — because they said, He has an unclean spirit. <sup>31</sup> And his brethren and his mother come, and standing without sent to him calling him. <sup>32</sup> And a crowd sat around him. And they said to him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren seek thee without. <sup>33</sup> And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother or my brethren? <sup>34</sup> And looking around in a circuit at those that were sitting around him, he says, Behold my mother and my brethren: <sup>35</sup> for whosoever shall do the will of °God, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4

<sup>1</sup> And again he began to teach by the sea. And a great crowd was gathered together to him, so that going on board ship he sat in the sea, and all the crowd were close to the sea on the land. <sup>2</sup> And he taught them many things in parables. And he said to them in his doctrine, <sup>3</sup> Hearken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow. <sup>4</sup> And it came to pass as he sowed, one fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured it. <sup>5</sup> And another fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprung up out [of the ground] because it had no depth of earth; <sup>6</sup> and when the sun arose it was burnt up, and because of its not having any root, it withered. <sup>7</sup> And another fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. <sup>8</sup> And another fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and bore, one thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundred. <sup>9</sup> And he said, He that has ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup> And when he was alone, those about him with the twelve asked him [as to] the parables. <sup>11</sup> And he said to them, To you is given [to know] the mystery of the kingdom of °God; but to them who are without, all things are done in parables, <sup>12</sup> that beholding they may behold and not see, and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest it may be, they should be converted and they should be forgiven. <sup>13</sup> And he says to them, Do ye not know this parable? and how will ye be acquainted with all the parables? <sup>14</sup> The sower sows the word: <sup>15</sup> and these are they by the wayside where the word is sown, and when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. <sup>16</sup> And these are they in like manner who are sown upon the rocky places, who when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy, <sup>17</sup> and they have no root in themselves, but are for a time: then, tribulation arising, or persecution on account of the word, immediately they are offended. <sup>18</sup> And others are they who are sown among the thorns: these are they who have heard the word, <sup>19</sup> and the cares of life, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup> And these are they who have been sown on the good ground, such as hear the word and receive it, and bear fruit; one thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundred [fold]. <sup>21</sup> And he said to them, Does the lamp come that it should be put under the bushel or under the couch? [Is it] not that it should be set upon the lamp-stand? <sup>22</sup> For there is nothing hidden which shall not be made manifest; nor does any secret thing take place, but that it should come to light. <sup>23</sup> If any one have ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>24</sup> And he said to them, Take heed what ye hear; with what measure ye mete, it shall be meted to you; and there shall be [more] added to you. <sup>25</sup> For whosoever has, to him shall be given; and he who has not, even what he has shall be taken from him. <sup>26</sup> And he said, Thus is the kingdom of °God, as if a man should cast the seed upon the earth, <sup>27</sup> and should sleep and rise up night and day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he does not know how. <sup>28</sup> The earth bears fruit of itself, first [the] blade, then an ear, then full corn in the ear. <sup>29</sup> But when the fruit is produced, immediately he sends the sickle, for the harvest is come. <sup>30</sup> And he said, How should we liken the kingdom of °God, or with what comparison should we compare it? <sup>31</sup> As to a grain of mustard [seed], which, when it is sown upon the earth, is less than all seeds which are upon the earth, <sup>32</sup> and when it has been sown, mounts up and becomes greater than all herbs, and produces great branches, so that the birds of heaven can roost under its shadow. <sup>33</sup> And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear, <sup>34</sup> but without a parable spoke he not to them; and in private he explained all things to his disciples. <sup>35</sup> And on that day, when evening was come, he says to them, Let us go over to the other side: <sup>36</sup> and having sent away the crowd, they take him with [them], as he was, in the ship. But other ships also were with him. <sup>37</sup> And there comes a violent gust of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it already filled. <sup>38</sup> And he was in the stern sleeping on the cushion. And they awake him up and say to him, Teacher, dost thou not care that we are perishing? <sup>39</sup> And awaking up he rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Silence; be mute. And the wind fell, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup> And he said to them, Why are ye [thus] fearful? how [is it] ye have not faith? <sup>41</sup> And they feared [with] great fear, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

had had a flux of blood twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent everything she had and had found no advantage from it, but had rather got worse, <sup>27</sup> having heard concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind and touched his clothes; <sup>28</sup> for she said, If I shall touch but his clothes I shall be healed. <sup>29</sup> And immediately her fountain of blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was cured from the scourge. <sup>30</sup> And immediately Jesus, knowing in himself the power that had gone out of him, turning round in the crowd said, Who has touched my clothes? <sup>31</sup> And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the crowd pressing on thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? <sup>32</sup> And he looked round about to see her who had done this. <sup>33</sup> But the woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what had taken place in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. <sup>34</sup> And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith has healed thee; go in peace, and be well of thy scourge. <sup>35</sup> While he was yet speaking, they come from the ruler of the synagogue's [house], saying, Thy daughter has died, why troublest thou the teacher any further? <sup>36</sup> But Jesus [immediately], having heard the word spoken, says to the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not; only believe. <sup>37</sup> And he suffered no one to accompany him save Peter and James, and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup> And he comes to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and sees the tumult, and people weeping and wailing greatly. <sup>39</sup> And entering in he says to them, Why do ye make a tumult and weep? the child has not died, but sleeps. <sup>40</sup> And they derided him. But he, having put [them] all out, takes with [him] the father of the child, and the mother, and those that were with him, and enters in where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup> And having laid hold of the hand of the child, he says to her, Talitha koumi, which is, interpreted, Damsel, I say to thee, Arise. <sup>42</sup> And immediately the damsel arose and walked, for she was twelve years old. And they were astonished with great astonishment. <sup>43</sup> And he charged them much that no one should know this; and he desired that [something] should be given her to eat.

<sup>1</sup> And he went out thence and came to his own country, and his disciples follow him. <sup>2</sup> And when sabbath was come he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing were amazed, saying, Whence [has] this [man] these things? and what [is] the wisdom that is given to him, and such works of power are done by his hands? <sup>3</sup> Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended in him. <sup>4</sup> But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not despised save in his own country, and among [his] kinsmen, and in his own house. <sup>5</sup> And he could not do any work of power there, save that laying his hands on a few infirm persons he healed [them]. <sup>6</sup> And he wondered because of their unbelief. And he went round the villages in a circuit, teaching. <sup>7</sup> And he calls the twelve to [him]; and he began to send them out two [and] two, and gave to them power over the unclean spirits; <sup>8</sup> and he commanded them that they should take nothing for the way, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their belt; <sup>9</sup> but be shod with sandals, and put not on two body-coats. <sup>10</sup> And he said to them, Wheresoever ye shall enter into a house, there remain till ye shall go thence. <sup>11</sup> And whatsoever place shall not receive you nor hear you, departing thence, shake off the dust which is under your feet for a testimony to them. <sup>12</sup> And they went forth and preached that they should repent; <sup>13</sup> and they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many infirm, and healed them. <sup>14</sup> And Herod the king heard [of him] (for his name had become public), and said, John the baptist is risen from among [the] dead, and on this account works of power are wrought by him. <sup>15</sup> And others said, It is Elias; and others said, It is a prophet, as one of the prophets. <sup>16</sup> But Herod when he heard [it] said, John whom I beheaded, he it is; he is risen [from among the dead]. <sup>17</sup> For the same Herod had sent and seized John, and had bound him in prison on account of Herodias, the wife of Philip his brother, because he had married her. <sup>18</sup> For John said to Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have the wife of thy brother. <sup>19</sup> But Herodias kept it [in her mind] against him, and wished to kill him, and could not: <sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John knowing that he was a just and holy man, and kept him safe; and having heard him, did many things, and heard him gladly. <sup>21</sup> And a holiday being come, when Herod, on his birthday, made a supper to his grandees, and to the chiliarchs, and the chief [men] of Galilee; <sup>22</sup> and the daughter of the same Herodias having come in, and danced, pleased Herod and those that were with [him] at table; and the king said to the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt and I will give it thee. <sup>23</sup> And he swore to her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask me I will give thee, to half of my kingdom. <sup>24</sup> And she went out, and said to her mother, What should I ask? And she said, The head of John the baptist. <sup>25</sup> And immediately going in with haste to the king, she asked saying, I desire that thou give me directly upon a dish the head of John the baptist. <sup>26</sup> And the king, [while] made very sorry, on account of the oaths and those lying at table with [him] would not break his word with her. <sup>27</sup> And immediately the king, having sent one of the guard, ordered his head to be brought. And he went out and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup> and brought his head upon a dish, and gave it to the damsel, and the damsel gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> And his disciples having heard [it], came and took up his body, and laid it in a tomb. <sup>30</sup> And the apostles are gathered together to Jesus. And they related to him all things, [both] what they had done and what they had taught. <sup>31</sup> And he said to them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place and rest a little. For those coming and those going were many, and they had not leisure even to eat. <sup>32</sup> And they went away apart into a desert place by ship. <sup>33</sup> And many saw them going, and recognised them, and ran together there on foot, out of all the cities, and got [there] before them. <sup>34</sup> And on leaving [the ship] [Jesus] saw a great crowd, and he was moved with compassion for them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd. And he began to teach them many things. <sup>35</sup> And when it was already late in the day, his disciples coming to him say, The place is desert, and it is already late in the day; <sup>36</sup> send them away that they may go into the country and villages around, and buy themselves bread, for they have not anything they can eat. <sup>37</sup> And he answering said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them to eat? <sup>38</sup> And he says to them, How many loaves have ye? Go

[and] see. And when they knew they say, Five, and two fishes. <sup>39</sup> And he ordered them to make them all sit down by companies on the green grass. <sup>40</sup> And they sat down in ranks by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>41</sup> And having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave [them] to his disciples that they might set [them] before them. And the two fishes he divided among all. <sup>42</sup> And they all ate and were satisfied. <sup>43</sup> And they took up of fragments the fillings of twelve hand-baskets, and of the fishes. <sup>44</sup> And those that ate of the loaves were five thousand men. <sup>45</sup> And immediately he compelled his disciples to go on board ship, and to go on before to the other side to Bethsaida, while he sends the crowd away. <sup>46</sup> And, having dismissed them, he departed into the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup> And when evening was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone upon the land. <sup>48</sup> And seeing them labouring in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them walking on the sea, and would have passed them by. <sup>49</sup> But they, seeing him walking on the sea, thought that it was an apparition, and cried out. <sup>50</sup> For all saw him and were troubled. And immediately he spoke with them, and says to them, Be of good courage: it is I; be not afraid. <sup>51</sup> And he went up to them into the ship, and the wind fell. And they were exceedingly beyond measure astonished in themselves and wondered; <sup>52</sup> for they understood not through the loaves: for their heart was hardened. <sup>53</sup> And having passed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and made the shore. <sup>54</sup> And on their coming out of the ship, immediately recognising him, <sup>55</sup> they ran through that whole country around, and began to carry about those that were ill on couches, where they heard that he was. <sup>56</sup> And wherever he entered into villages, or cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might touch if it were only the hem of his garment; and as many as touched him were healed.

that ye may observe what is delivered by yourselves [to keep]. <sup>10</sup> For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, he who speaks ill of father or mother, let him surely die. <sup>11</sup> But ye say, If a man say to his father or his mother, [It is] corban (that is, gift), whatsoever thou mightest have profit from me by... <sup>12</sup> And ye no longer suffer him to do anything for his father or his mother; <sup>13</sup> making void the word of °God by your traditional teaching which ye have delivered; and many such like things ye do. <sup>14</sup> And having called again the crowd, he said to them, Hear me, all [of you], and understand: <sup>15</sup> There is nothing from outside a man entering into him which can defile him; but the things which go out from him, those it is which defile the man. <sup>16</sup> If any one have ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>17</sup> And when he went indoors from the crowd, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. <sup>18</sup> And he says to them, Are ye also thus unintelligent? Do ye not perceive that all that is outside entering into the man cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup> because it does not enter into his heart but into his belly, and goes out into the draught, purging all meats? <sup>20</sup> And he said, That which goes forth out of the man, that defiles the man. <sup>21</sup> For from within, out of the heart of men, go forth evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, <sup>22</sup> thefts, covetousness, wickednesses, deceit, licentiousness, a wicked eye, injurious language, haughtiness, folly; <sup>23</sup> all these wicked things go forth from within and defile the man. <sup>24</sup> And he rose up and went away thence into the borders of Tyre and Sidon; and having entered into a house he would not have any one know [it], and he could not be hid. <sup>25</sup> But immediately a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell at his feet <sup>26</sup> (and the woman was a Greek, Syrophenician by race), and asked him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> But [Jesus] said to her, Suffer the children to be first filled; for it is not right to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs. <sup>28</sup> But she answered and says to him, Yea, Lord; for even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. <sup>29</sup> And he said to her, Because of this word, go thy way, the demon is gone out of thy daughter. <sup>30</sup> And having gone away to her house she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed. <sup>31</sup> And again having left the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. <sup>32</sup> And they bring to him a deaf [man] who could not speak right, and they beseech him that he might lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup> And having taken him away from the crowd apart, he put his fingers to his ears; and having spit, he touched his tongue; <sup>34</sup> and looking up to heaven he groaned, and says to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. <sup>35</sup> And immediately his ears were opened, and the band of his tongue was loosed and he spoke right. <sup>36</sup> And he charged them that they should speak to no one [of it]. But so much the more he charged them, so much the more abundantly they proclaimed it; <sup>37</sup> and they were astonished above measure, saying, He does all things well; he makes both the deaf to hear, and the speechless to speak.

nothing that they could eat, having called his disciples to [him], he says to them, <sup>2</sup>I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me already three days and they have not anything they can eat, <sup>3</sup>and if I should dismiss them to their home fasting, they will faint on the way; for some of them are come from far. <sup>4</sup>And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to satisfy these with bread here in a desert place? <sup>5</sup>And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. <sup>6</sup>And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. And having taken the seven loaves, he gave thanks, and broke [them] and gave [them] to his disciples, that they might set [them] before [them]; and they set [them] before the crowd. <sup>7</sup>And they had a few small fishes, and having blessed them, he desired these also to be set before [them]. <sup>8</sup>And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up of fragments that remained seven baskets. <sup>9</sup>And they [that had eaten] were about four thousand; and he sent them away. <sup>10</sup>And immediately going on board ship with his disciples, he came into the parts of Dalmanutha. <sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees went out and began to dispute against him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, tempting him. <sup>12</sup>And groaning in his spirit, he says, Why does this generation seek a sign? Verily I say unto you, A sign shall in no wise be given to this generation. <sup>13</sup>And he left them, and going again on board ship, went away to the other side. <sup>14</sup>And they forgot to take bread, and save one loaf, they had not [any] with them in the ship. <sup>15</sup>And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and [of] the leaven of Herod. <sup>16</sup>And they reasoned with one another, [saying], It is because we have no bread. <sup>17</sup>And Jesus knowing [it], says to them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive nor understand? Have ye your heart [yet] hardened? <sup>18</sup>Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many hand-baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say to him, Twelve. <sup>20</sup>And when the seven for the four thousand, the filling of how many baskets of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. <sup>21</sup>And he said to them, How do ye not yet understand? <sup>22</sup>And he comes to Bethsaida; and they bring him a blind man, and beseech him that he might touch him. <sup>23</sup>And taking hold of the hand of the blind man he led him forth out of the village, and having spit upon his eyes, he laid his hands upon him, and asked him if he beheld anything. <sup>24</sup>And having looked up, he said, I behold men, for I see [them], as trees, walking. <sup>25</sup>Then he laid his hands again upon his eyes, and he saw distinctly, and was restored and saw all things clearly. <sup>26</sup>And he sent him to his house, saying, Neither enter into the village, nor tell [it] to any one in the village. <sup>27</sup>And Jesus went forth and his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea-Philippi. And by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? <sup>28</sup>And they answered him, saying, John the baptist; and others, Elias; but others, One of the prophets. <sup>29</sup>And he asked them, But ye, who do ye say that I am? And Peter answering says to him, Thou art the Christ. <sup>30</sup>And he charged them straitly, in order that they should tell no man about him. <sup>31</sup>And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and of the chief priests and of the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise [again]. <sup>32</sup>And he spoke the thing openly.

And Peter, taking him to [him], began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But he, turning round and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, saying, Get away behind me, Satan, for thy mind is not on the things that are of °God, but on the things that are of men. <sup>34</sup> And having called the crowd with his disciples, he said to them, Whoever desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>35</sup> For whosoever shall desire to save his life shall lose it, but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. <sup>36</sup> For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul? <sup>37</sup> for what should a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup> For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him shall the Son of man also be ashamed when he shall come in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

<sup>1</sup> And he said to them, Verily I say unto you, There are some of those standing here that shall not taste death until they shall have seen the kingdom of °God come in power. <sup>2</sup> And after six days Jesus takes with [him] Peter and James and John, and takes them up on a high mountain by themselves apart. And he was transfigured before them: <sup>3</sup> and his garments became shining, exceeding white [as snow], such as fuller on earth could not whiten [them]. <sup>4</sup> And there appeared to them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup> And Peter answering says to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good that we should be here; and let us make three tabernacles, for thee one, and for Moses one, and for Elias one. <sup>6</sup> For he knew not what he should say, for they were filled with fear. <sup>7</sup> And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son: hear him. <sup>8</sup> And suddenly having looked around, they no longer saw any one, but Jesus alone with themselves. <sup>9</sup> And as they descended from the mountain, he charged them that they should relate to no one what they had seen, unless when the Son of man should be risen from among [the] dead. <sup>10</sup> And they kept that saying, questioning among themselves, what rising from among [the] dead was. <sup>11</sup> And they asked him saying, Why do the scribes say that Elias must first have come? <sup>12</sup> And he answering said to them, Elias indeed, having first come, restores all things; and how is it written of the Son of man that he must suffer much, and be set at nought: <sup>13</sup> but I say unto you that Elias also is come, and they have done to him whatever they would, as it is written of him. <sup>14</sup> And when he came to the disciples he saw a great crowd around them, and scribes disputing against them. <sup>15</sup> And immediately all the crowd seeing him were amazed, and running to [him], saluted him. <sup>16</sup> And he asked them, What do ye question with them about? <sup>17</sup> And one out of the crowd answered him, Teacher, I brought to thee my son, who has a dumb spirit; <sup>18</sup> and wheresoever it seizes him it tears him, and he foams and gnashes his teeth, and he is withering away. And I spoke to thy disciples, that they might cast him out, and they could not. <sup>19</sup> But he answering them says, O unbelieving generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him to me. <sup>20</sup> And they brought him to him. And seeing him the spirit immediately tore him; and falling upon the earth he rolled foaming. <sup>21</sup> And he asked his father, How long a time is it that it has been like this with him? And he said, From childhood; <sup>22</sup> and often it has cast him both into fire and into waters that it might destroy him: but if thou couldst [do] anything, be moved with pity on us, and help us. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus said to him, The 'if thou couldst' is [if thou couldst] believe: all things are possible to him that believes. <sup>24</sup> And immediately the father of the young child crying out said [with tears], I believe, help mine unbelief. <sup>25</sup> But Jesus, seeing that [the] crowd was running up together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. <sup>26</sup> And having cried out and torn [him] much, he came out; and he became as if dead, so that the most said, He is dead. <sup>27</sup> But Jesus, having taken hold of him by the hand, lifted him up, and he arose. <sup>28</sup> And when he was entered into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Wherefore could not we cast him out? <sup>29</sup> And he said to them, This kind can go out by nothing but by prayer and fasting. <sup>30</sup> And going forth from thence they went through Galilee; and he would not that any one knew it; <sup>31</sup> for he taught his disciples and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into men's hands, and they shall kill him; and having been killed, after three days he shall rise again. <sup>32</sup> But they understood not the saying, and feared to ask him. <sup>33</sup> And he came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he asked them, Of what were ye reasoning by the way? <sup>34</sup> And they remained silent, for by the way they had been reasoning with one another who [was] greatest. <sup>35</sup> And sitting down he called the twelve; and he says to them, If any one would be first, he shall be last of all, and minister of all. <sup>36</sup> And taking a little child he set it in their midst, and having taken it in his arms he said to them, <sup>37</sup> Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receives me; and whosoever shall receive me, does not receive me, but him who sent me. <sup>38</sup> And John answered him saying, Teacher, we saw some one casting out demons in thy name, who does not follow us, and we forbad him, because he does not follow us. <sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, Forbid him not; for there is no one who shall do a miracle in my name, and be able soon [after] to speak ill of me; <sup>40</sup> for he who is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in [my] name, because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. <sup>42</sup> And whosoever shall be a snare to one of the little ones who believe [in me], it were better for him if a millstone were hung about his neck, and he cast into the sea. <sup>43</sup> And if thy hand serve as a snare to thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having thy two hands to go away into hell, into the fire unquenchable; <sup>44</sup> [where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched]. <sup>45</sup> And if thy foot serve as a snare to thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life lame, than having thy two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire unquenchable; <sup>46</sup> [where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched]. <sup>47</sup> And if thine eye serve as a snare to thee, cast it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire, <sup>48</sup> where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>49</sup> For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. <sup>50</sup> Salt [is] good, but if the salt is become saltless, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

10

<sup>1</sup> And rising up thence he comes into the coasts of Judaea, and the other side of the Jordan. And again crowds come together to him, and, as he was accustomed, again he taught them. <sup>2</sup> And Pharisees coming to [him] asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away [his] wife? (tempting him). <sup>3</sup> But he answering said to them, What did Moses command you? <sup>4</sup> And they said, Moses allowed to write a bill of divorce, and to put away. <sup>5</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, In view of your hard-heartedness he wrote this commandment for you; <sup>6</sup> but from [the] beginning of [the] creation °God made them male and female. <sup>7</sup> For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be united to his wife, <sup>8</sup> and the two shall be one flesh: so that they are no longer two but one flesh. <sup>9</sup> What therefore °God has joined together, let not man separate. <sup>10</sup> And again in the house the disciples asked him concerning this. <sup>11</sup> And he says to them, Whosoever shall put away his wife and shall marry another, commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> And if a woman put away her husband and shall marry another, she commits adultery. <sup>13</sup> And they brought little children to him that he might touch them. But the disciples rebuked those that brought [them]. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus seeing [it], was indignant, and said to them, Suffer the little children to come to me; forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of °God. <sup>15</sup> Verily I say to you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of °God as a little child, shall in no wise enter into it. <sup>16</sup> And having taken them in his arms, having laid his hands on them, he blessed them. <sup>17</sup> And as he went forth into the way, a person ran up to [him], and kneeling to him asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? <sup>18</sup> But Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? no one is good but one, [that is] °God. <sup>19</sup> Thou knowest the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honour thy father and mother. <sup>20</sup> And he answering said to him, Teacher, all these things have I kept from my youth. <sup>21</sup> And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, One thing lackest thou: go, sell whatever thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, [taking up the cross]. <sup>22</sup> But he, sad at the word, went away grieved, for he had large possessions. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus looking around says to his disciples, How difficultly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of °God! <sup>24</sup> And the disciples were amazed at his words. And Jesus again answering says to them, Children, how difficult it is that those who trust in riches should enter into the kingdom of °God! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of °God. <sup>26</sup> And they were exceedingly astonished, saying to one another, And who can be saved? <sup>27</sup> But Jesus looking on them says, With men it is impossible, but not with °God; for all things are possible with °God. <sup>28</sup> Peter began to say to him, Behold, we have left all things and have followed thee. <sup>29</sup> Jesus answering said, Verily I say to you, There is no one who has left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, [or wife], or children, or lands, for my sake and for the sake of the gospel, <sup>30</sup> that shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the coming age life eternal. <sup>31</sup> But many first shall be last, and the last first. <sup>32</sup> And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going on before them; and they were amazed, and were afraid as they followed. And taking the twelve again to [him], he began to tell them what was going to happen to him: <sup>33</sup> Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be delivered up to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him up to the nations: <sup>34</sup> and they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again. <sup>35</sup> And there come to him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying [to him], Teacher, we would that whatsoever we may ask thee, thou wouldst do it for us. <sup>36</sup> And he said to them, What would ye that I should do for you? <sup>37</sup> And they said to him, Give to us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. <sup>38</sup> And Jesus said to them, Ye do not know what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup which I drink, or be baptised with the baptism that I am baptised with? <sup>39</sup> And they said to him, We are able. And Jesus said to them, The cup that I drink ye will drink and with the baptism that I am baptised with ye will be baptised, <sup>40</sup> but to sit on my right hand or on my left is not mine to give, but for those for whom it is prepared. <sup>41</sup> And the ten having heard [of it], began to be indignant about James and John. <sup>42</sup> But Jesus having called them to [him], says to them, Ye know that those who are esteemed to rule over the nations exercise lordship over them; and their great men exercise authority over them; <sup>43</sup> but it is not thus among you; but whosoever would be great among you, shall be your minister; <sup>44</sup> and whosoever would be first of you shall be bondman of all. <sup>45</sup> For also the Son of man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister, and give his life a ransom for many. <sup>46</sup> And they come to Jericho, and as he was going out from Jericho, and his disciples and a large crowd, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, the blind [man], sat by the wayside begging. <sup>47</sup> And having heard that it was Jesus the Nazaraean, he began to cry out and to say, O Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me. <sup>48</sup> And many rebuked him, that he might be silent; but he cried so much the more, Son of David, have mercy on me. <sup>49</sup> And Jesus, standing still, desired him to be called. And they call the blind [man], saying to him, Be of good courage, rise up, he calls thee. <sup>50</sup> And, throwing away his garment, he started up and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup> And Jesus answering says to him, What wilt thou that I shall do to thee? And the blind [man] said to him, Rabboni, that I may see. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus said to him, Go, thy faith has healed thee. And he saw immediately, and followed him in the way.

authority, that thou shouldest do these things? <sup>29</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, I also will ask you one thing, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: <sup>30</sup> The baptism of John, was it of heaven, or of men? answer me. <sup>31</sup> And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we should say, Of heaven, he will say, Why [then] have ye not believed him? <sup>32</sup> but should we say, Of men — they feared the people; for all held of John that he was truly a prophet. <sup>33</sup> And they answering say to Jesus, We do not know. And Jesus [answering] says to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>1</sup> And he began to say to them in parables, A man planted a vineyard, and made a fence round [it] and dug a wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and left the country. <sup>2</sup> And he sent a bondman to the husbandmen at the season, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup> But they took him, and beat [him], and sent [him] away empty. <sup>4</sup> And again he sent to them another bondman; and [at] him they [threw stones, and] struck [him] on the head, and sent [him] away with insult. <sup>5</sup> And [again] he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, beating some and killing some. <sup>6</sup> Having yet therefore one beloved son, he sent also him to them the last, saying, They will have respect for my son. <sup>7</sup> But those husbandmen said to one another, This is the heir: come, let us kill him and the inheritance will be ours. <sup>8</sup> And they took him and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup> What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup> Have ye not even read this scripture, The stone which they that builded rejected, this has become the corner-stone: <sup>11</sup> this is of [the] Lord, and it is wonderful in our eyes? <sup>12</sup> And they sought to lay hold of him, and they feared the crowd; for they knew that he had spoken the parable of them. And they left him and went away. <sup>13</sup> And they send to him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they might catch him in speaking. <sup>14</sup> And they come and say to him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one; for thou regardest not men's person, but teachest the way of °God with truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? <sup>15</sup> Should we give, or should we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisy said unto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a denarius that I may see [it]. <sup>16</sup> And they brought [it]. And he says to them, Whose [is] this image and superscription? And they said to him, Caesar's. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Pay what is Caesar's to Caesar, and what is °God's to °God. And they wondered at him. <sup>18</sup> And Sadducees come to him, that say there is no resurrection; and they demanded of him saying, <sup>19</sup> Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if any one's brother die, and leave a wife behind, and leave no children, that his brother shall take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. <sup>20</sup> There were seven brethren; and the first took a wife, and dying did not leave seed; <sup>21</sup> and the second took her and died, and neither did he leave seed; and the third likewise. <sup>22</sup> And the seven [took her and] did not leave seed. Last of all the woman also died. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, when they shall rise again, of which of them shall she be wife, for the seven had her as wife? <sup>24</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Do not ye therefore err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of °God? <sup>25</sup> For when they rise from among [the] dead they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels [who are] in the heavens. <sup>26</sup> But concerning the dead that they rise, have ye not read in the book of Moses, in [the section of] the bush, how °God spoke to him, saying, I [am] the °God of Abraham, and the °God of Isaac, and the °God of Jacob? <sup>27</sup> He is not the °God of [the] dead, but of [the] living. Ye therefore greatly err. <sup>28</sup> And one of the scribes who had come up, and had heard them reasoning together, perceiving that he had answered them well, demanded of him, Which is [the] first commandment of all? <sup>29</sup> And Jesus answered him, [The] first commandment of all [is], Hear, Israel: the Lord our °God is one Lord; <sup>30</sup> and thou shalt love the Lord thy °God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thine understanding, and with all thy strength. This is [the] first commandment. <sup>31</sup> And a second like it [is] this: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is not another commandment greater than these. <sup>32</sup> And the scribe said to him, Right, teacher; thou hast spoken according to [the] truth. For he is one, and there is none other besides him; <sup>33</sup> and to love him with all the heart, and with all the intelligence, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbour as one's self, is more than all the burnt-offerings and sacrifices. <sup>34</sup> And Jesus, seeing that he had answered intelligently, said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of °God. And no one dared question him any more. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus answering said [as he was] teaching in the temple, How do the scribes say that the Christ is son of David? <sup>36</sup> [for] David himself said [speaking] in the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand until I put thine enemies [as] footstool of thy feet. <sup>37</sup> David himself [therefore] calls him Lord, and whence is he his son? And the mass of the people heard him gladly. <sup>38</sup> And he said to them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, who like to walk about in long robes, and salutations in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and first seats in the synagogues, and first places at suppers; <sup>40</sup> who devour the houses of widows, and as a pretext make long prayers. These shall receive a severer judgment. <sup>41</sup> And Jesus, having sat down opposite the treasury, saw how the crowd was casting money into the treasury; and many rich cast in much. <sup>42</sup> And a poor widow came and cast in two mites, which is a farthing. <sup>43</sup> And having called his disciples to [him] he said to them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow has cast in more than all who have cast into the treasury: <sup>44</sup> for all have cast in of that which they had in abundance, but she of her destitution has cast in all that she had, the whole of her living.

stone, which shall not be thrown down. <sup>3</sup> And as he sat on the mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, <sup>4</sup> Tell us, when shall these things be, and what is the sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled? <sup>5</sup> And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any one mislead you. <sup>6</sup> For many shall come in my name, saying, It is I, and shall mislead many. <sup>7</sup> But when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not disturbed, for [this] must happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>8</sup> For nation shall rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in [different] places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these things [are the] beginnings of throes. <sup>9</sup> But ye, take heed to yourselves, for they shall deliver you up to sanhedrims and to synagogues: ye shall be beaten and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them; <sup>10</sup> and the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. <sup>11</sup> But when they shall lead you away to deliver you up, be not careful beforehand as to what ye shall say, [nor prepare your discourse]: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak; for ye are not the speakers, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup> But brother shall deliver up brother to death, and father child; and children shall rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> And ye will be hated of all on account of my name; but he that has endured to the end, he shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation standing where it should not, (he that reads let him consider [it,]) then let those in Judaea flee to the mountains; <sup>15</sup> and him that is upon the housetop not come down into the house, nor enter [into it] to take away anything out of his house; <sup>16</sup> and him that is in the field not return back to take his garment. <sup>17</sup> But woe to those that are with child and to those that give suck in those days! <sup>18</sup> And pray that it may not be in winter time; <sup>19</sup> for those days shall be distress such as there has not been the like since [the] beginning of creation which <sup>o</sup> God created, until now, and never shall be; <sup>20</sup> and if [the] Lord had not cut short those days, no flesh should have been saved; but on account of the elect whom he has chosen, he has cut short those days. <sup>21</sup> And then if any one say to you, Lo, here [is] the Christ, or Lo, there, believe [it] not. <sup>22</sup> For false Christs and false prophets will arise, and give signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. <sup>23</sup> But do ye take heed: behold, I have told you all things beforehand. <sup>24</sup> But in those days, after that distress, the sun shall be darkened and the moon shall not give its light; <sup>25</sup> and the stars of heaven shall be falling down, and the powers which are in the heavens shall be shaken; <sup>26</sup> and then shall they see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory; <sup>27</sup> and then shall he send his angels and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from end of earth to end of heaven. <sup>28</sup> But learn the parable from the fig-tree: when its branch already becomes tender and puts forth the leaves, ye know that the summer is near. <sup>29</sup> Thus also ye, when ye see these things happening, know that it is near, at the doors. <sup>30</sup> Verily I say unto you, This generation shall in no wise pass away, till all these things take place. <sup>31</sup> The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall in no wise pass away. <sup>32</sup> But of that day or of that hour no one knows, neither the angels who are in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father.

<sup>1</sup> Now the passover and the [feast of] unleavened bread was after two days. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might seize him by subtlety and kill him. <sup>2</sup> For they said, Not in the feast, lest perhaps there be a tumult of the people. <sup>3</sup> And when he was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he lay at table, there came a woman having an alabaster flask of ointment of pure nard, very costly; and having broken the alabaster flask, she poured it out upon his head. <sup>4</sup> And there were some indignant in themselves, and saying, Why has this waste been made of the ointment? <sup>5</sup> for this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor. And they spoke very angrily at her. <sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, Let her alone; why do ye trouble her? she has wrought a good work as to me; <sup>7</sup> for ye have the poor always with you, and whenever ye would ye can do them good; but me ye have not always. <sup>8</sup> What she could she has done. She has beforehand anointed my body for the burial. <sup>9</sup> And verily I say unto you, Wheresoever these glad tidings may be preached in the whole world, what this [woman] has done shall be also spoken of for a memorial of her. <sup>10</sup> And Judas Iscariote, one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests that he might deliver him up to them; <sup>11</sup> and they, when they heard it, rejoiced, and promised him to give money. And he sought how he could opportunely deliver him up. <sup>12</sup> And the first day of unleavened bread, when they slew the passover, his disciples say to him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover? <sup>13</sup> And he sends two of his disciples, and says to them, Go into the city, and a man shall meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. <sup>14</sup> And wheresoever he enters, say to the master of the house, The Teacher says, Where is my guest-chamber where I may eat the passover with my disciples? <sup>15</sup> and he will shew you a large upper room furnished ready. There make ready for us. <sup>16</sup> And his disciples went away and came into the city, and found as he had said to them; and they made ready the passover. <sup>17</sup> And when evening was come, he comes with the twelve. <sup>18</sup> And as they lay at table and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say to you, One of you shall deliver me up; he who is eating with me. <sup>19</sup> And they began to be grieved, and to say to him, one by one, Is it I? [and another, Is it I?] <sup>20</sup> But he answered and said to them, One of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. <sup>21</sup> The Son of man goes indeed as it is written concerning him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is delivered up; [it were] good for that man if he had not been born. <sup>22</sup> And as they were eating, Jesus, having taken bread, when he had blessed, broke [it], and gave [it] to them, and said, Take [this]: this is my body. <sup>23</sup> And having taken [the] cup, when he had given thanks, he gave [it] to them, and they all drank out of it. <sup>24</sup> And he said to them, This is my blood, that of the [new] covenant, that shed for many. <sup>25</sup> Verily I say to you, I will no more drink at all of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>26</sup> And having sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives. <sup>27</sup> And Jesus says to them, All ye shall be offended, for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. <sup>28</sup> But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. <sup>29</sup> But Peter said to him, Even if all should be offended, yet not I. <sup>30</sup> And Jesus says to him, Verily I say to thee, that thou to-day, in this night, before [the] cock shall crow twice, thou shalt thrice deny me. <sup>31</sup> But he said [so much] exceedingly the more, If I should have to die with thee, I will in no wise deny thee. And likewise said they all too. <sup>32</sup> And they come to a place of which the name [is] Gethsemane, and he says to his disciples, Sit here while I shall pray. <sup>33</sup> And he takes with him Peter and James and John, and he began to be amazed and oppressed in spirit. <sup>34</sup> And he says to them, My soul is full of grief even unto death; abide here and watch. <sup>35</sup> And, going forward a little, he fell upon the earth; and he prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. <sup>36</sup> And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee: take away this cup from me; but not what I will, but what thou [wilt]. <sup>37</sup> And he comes and finds them sleeping. And he says to Peter, Simon, dost thou sleep? Hast thou not been able to watch one hour? <sup>38</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed [is] willing, but the flesh weak. <sup>39</sup> And going away, he prayed again, saying the same thing. <sup>40</sup> And returning, he found them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy; and they knew not what they should answer him. <sup>41</sup> And he comes the third time and says to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough; the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Arise, let us go; behold, he that delivers me up has drawn nigh. <sup>43</sup> And immediately, while he was yet speaking, Judas comes up, [being] one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd, with swords and sticks, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. <sup>44</sup> Now he that delivered him up had given them a sign between them, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; seize him, and lead [him] away safely. <sup>45</sup> And being come, straightway coming up to him, he says, Rabbi, Rabbi; and he covered him with kisses. <sup>46</sup> And they laid their hands upon him and seized him. <sup>47</sup> But a certain one of those who stood by, having drawn his sword, struck the bondman of the high priest, and took off his ear. <sup>48</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Are ye come out as against a robber, with swords and sticks to take me? <sup>49</sup> I was daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye did not seize me; but [it is] that the scriptures may be fulfilled. <sup>50</sup> And all left him and fled. <sup>51</sup> And a certain young man followed him with a linen cloth cast about his naked [body]; and [the young men] seize him; <sup>52</sup> but he, leaving the linen cloth behind [him], fled from them naked. <sup>53</sup> And they led away Jesus to the high priest. And there come together to him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. <sup>54</sup> And Peter followed him at a distance, till [he was] within the court of the high priest's palace; and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself in the light [of the fire]. <sup>55</sup> And the chief priests and the whole sanhedrim sought testimony against Jesus to cause him to be put to death, and did not find [any]. <sup>56</sup> For many bore false witness against him, and their testimony did not agree. <sup>57</sup> And certain persons rose up and bore false witness against him, saying, <sup>58</sup> We heard him saying, I will destroy this temple which is made with hands, and in the course of three days I will build another not made with hands. <sup>59</sup> And neither thus did their testimony agree. <sup>60</sup> And the high priest, rising up before them all, asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What do these testify against thee? <sup>61</sup> But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and says to him, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? <sup>62</sup> And Jesus said, I am, and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. <sup>63</sup> And the high priest, having rent his clothes, says, What need have we any more of witnesses? <sup>64</sup> Ye have heard the blasphemy; what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. <sup>65</sup> And some began to spit upon him, and cover up his face, and buffet him, and say to him, Prophecy; and the officers struck him with the palms of their hands. <sup>66</sup> And Peter being below in the palace-court, there comes one of the maids of the high priest, <sup>67</sup> and seeing Peter warming himself, having looked at him, says, And thou wast with the Nazarene, Jesus. <sup>68</sup> But he denied, saying, I know not nor understand what thou sayest. And he went out into the vestibule; and a cock crew. <sup>69</sup> And the maid, seeing him, again began to say to those that stood by, This is [one] of them. <sup>70</sup> And he again denied. And again, after a little, those that stood by said to Peter, Truly thou art [one] of them, for also thou art a Galilean. <sup>71</sup> But he began to curse and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. <sup>72</sup> And the second time a cock crew. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him, Before [the] cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice; and when he thought thereon he wept.

15

<sup>1</sup> And immediately in the morning the chief priests, having taken counsel with the elders and scribes and the whole sanhedrim, bound Jesus and carried [him] away, and delivered [him] up to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered and said to him, Thou sayest. <sup>3</sup> And the chief priests accused him urgently. <sup>4</sup> And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? See of how many things they bear witness against thee. <sup>5</sup> But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled. <sup>6</sup> But at [the] feast he released to them one prisoner, whomsoever they begged [of him]. <sup>7</sup> Now there was the [person] named Barabbas bound with those who had made insurrection with [him], [and] that had committed murder in the insurrection. <sup>8</sup> And the crowd crying out began to beg [that he would do] to them as he had always done. <sup>9</sup> But Pilate answered them saying, Will ye that I release to you the King of the Jews? <sup>10</sup> for he knew that the chief priests had delivered him up through envy. <sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd that he might rather release Barabbas to them. <sup>12</sup> And Pilate answering said to them again, What will ye then that I do [to him] whom ye call King of the Jews? <sup>13</sup> And they cried out again, Crucify him. <sup>14</sup> And Pilate said to them, What evil then has he done? But they cried out the more urgently, Crucify him. <sup>15</sup> And Pilate, desirous of contenting the crowd, released to them Barabbas, and delivered up Jesus, when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified. <sup>16</sup> And the soldiers led him away into the court which is [called the] praetorium, and they call together the whole band. <sup>17</sup> And they clothe him with purple, and bind round on him a crown of thorns which they had plaited. <sup>18</sup> And they began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! <sup>19</sup> And they struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and, bending the knee, did him homage. <sup>20</sup> And when they had mocked him, they took the purple off him, and put his own clothes on him; and they lead him out that they may crucify him. <sup>21</sup> And they compel to go [with them] a certain passer-by, Simon, a Cyrenian, coming from the field, the father of Alexander and Rufus, that he might carry his cross. <sup>22</sup> And they bring him to the place [called] Golgotha, which, being interpreted, is Place of a skull. <sup>23</sup> And they offered him wine [to drink] medicated with myrrh; but he did not take [it]. <sup>24</sup> And having crucified him, they part his clothes amongst [themselves], casting lots on them, what each one should take. <sup>25</sup> And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. <sup>26</sup> And the superscription of what he was accused of was written up: The King of the Jews. <sup>27</sup> And with him they crucify two robbers, one on his right hand, and one on his left. <sup>28</sup> [And the scripture was fulfilled which says, And he was reckoned with the lawless.] <sup>29</sup> And they that passed by reviled him, shaking their heads, and saying, Aha, thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, <sup>30</sup> save thyself, and descend from the cross. <sup>31</sup> In like manner the chief priests also, with the scribes, mocking with one another, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. <sup>32</sup> Let the Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and may believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him. <sup>33</sup> And when [the] sixth hour was come, there came darkness over the whole land until [the] ninth hour; <sup>34</sup> and at the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, [saying], Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My °God, my °God, why hast thou forsaken me? <sup>35</sup> And some of those who stood by, when they heard [it], said, Behold, he calls for Elias. <sup>36</sup> And one, running and filling a sponge with vinegar, fixed it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone, let us see if Elias comes to take him down. <sup>37</sup> And Jesus, having uttered a loud cry, expired. <sup>38</sup> And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. <sup>39</sup> And the centurion who stood by over against him, when he saw that he had expired having thus cried out, said, Truly this man was Son of °God. <sup>40</sup> And there were women also looking on from afar off, among whom were both Mary of Magdala, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; <sup>41</sup> who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him and ministered to him; and many others who came up with him to Jerusalem. <sup>42</sup> And when it was already evening, since it was [the] preparation, that is, [the day] before a sabbath, <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable councillor, who also himself was awaiting the kingdom of °God, coming, emboldened himself and went in to Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup> And Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and having called to [him] the centurion, he inquired of him if he had long died. <sup>45</sup> And when he knew from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup> And having bought fine linen, [and] having taken him down, he swathed him in the fine linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was cut out of rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the sepulchre. <sup>47</sup> And Mary of Magdala and Mary the [mother] of Joses saw where he was put.

16

<sup>1</sup> And the sabbath being [now] past, Mary of Magdala, and Mary the [mother] of James, and Salome, bought aromatic spices that they might come and embalm him. <sup>2</sup> And very early on the first [day] of the week they come to the sepulchre, the sun having risen. <sup>3</sup> And they said to one another, Who shall roll us away the stone out of the door of the sepulchre? <sup>4</sup> And when they looked, they see that the stone has been rolled [away], for it was very great. <sup>5</sup> And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a white robe, and they were amazed and alarmed; <sup>6</sup> but he says to them, Be not alarmed. Ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, the crucified one. He is risen, he is not here; behold the place where they had put him. <sup>7</sup> But go, tell his disciples and Peter, he goes before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him, as he said to you. <sup>8</sup> And they went out, and fled from the sepulchre. And trembling and excessive amazement possessed them, and they said nothing to any one, for they were afraid. <sup>9</sup> Now when he had risen very early, the first [day] of the week, he appeared first to Mary of Magdala, out of whom he had cast seven demons. <sup>10</sup> She went and brought word to those that had been with him, [who were] grieving and weeping. <sup>11</sup> And when these heard that he was alive and had been seen of her, they disbelieved [it]. <sup>12</sup> And after these things he was manifested in another form to two of them as they walked, going into the country; <sup>13</sup> and they went and brought word to the rest; neither did they believe them. <sup>14</sup> Afterwards as they lay at table he was manifested to the eleven, and reproached [them with] their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen him risen. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, Go into all the world, and preach the glad tidings to all the creation. <sup>16</sup> He that believes and is baptised shall be saved, and he that disbelieves shall be condemned. <sup>17</sup> And these signs shall follow those that have believed: in my name they shall cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; <sup>18</sup> they shall take up serpents; and if they should drink any deadly thing it shall not injure them; they shall lay hands upon the infirm, and they shall be well. <sup>19</sup> The Lord therefore, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat at the right hand of °God. <sup>20</sup> And they, going forth, preached everywhere, the Lord working with [them], and confirming the word by the signs following upon [it].

The Gospel According to St. Luke

<sup>1</sup> Forasmuch as many have undertaken to draw up a relation concerning the matters fully believed among us, <sup>2</sup> as those who from the beginning were eye-witnesses of and attendants on the Word have delivered them to us, <sup>3</sup> it has seemed good to me also, accurately acquainted from the origin with all things, to write to thee with method, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> that thou mightest know the certainty of those things in which thou hast been instructed. <sup>5</sup> There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest, by name Zacharias, of the course of Abia, and his wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup> And they were both just before °God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. <sup>7</sup> And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in years. <sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, as he fulfilled his priestly service before °God in the order of his course, <sup>9</sup> it fell to him by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense. <sup>10</sup> And all the multitude of the people were praying without at the hour of incense. <sup>11</sup> And an angel of [the] Lord appeared to him, standing on the right of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup> And Zacharias was troubled, seeing [him], and fear fell upon him. <sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, Fear not, Zacharias, because thy supplication has been heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. <sup>14</sup> And he shall be to thee joy and rejoicing, and many shall rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup> For he shall be great before [the] Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with [the] Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup> And many of the sons of Israel shall he turn to [the] Lord their °God. <sup>17</sup> And he shall go before him in [the] spirit and power of Elias, to turn hearts of fathers to children, and disobedient ones to [the] thoughts of just [men], to make ready for [the] Lord a prepared people. <sup>18</sup> And Zacharias said to the angel, How shall I know this, for I am an old man, and my wife advanced in years? <sup>19</sup> And the angel answering, said to him, I am Gabriel, who stand before °God, and I have been sent to speak to thee, and to bring these glad tidings to thee; <sup>20</sup> and behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, till the day in which these things shall take place, because thou hast not believed my words, the which shall be fulfilled in their time. <sup>21</sup> And the people were awaiting Zacharias, and they wondered at his delaying in the temple. <sup>22</sup> But when he came out he could not speak to them, and they recognised that he had seen a vision in the temple. And he was making signs to them, and continued dumb. <sup>23</sup> And it came to pass, when the days of his service were completed, he departed to his house. <sup>24</sup> Now after these days, Elizabeth his wife conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, <sup>25</sup> Thus has [the] Lord done to me in [these] days in which he looked upon [me] to take away my reproach among men. <sup>26</sup> But in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent of °God to a city of Galilee, of which [the] name [was] Nazareth,

<sup>27</sup> to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name [was] Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name [was] Mary. <sup>28</sup> And the angel came in to her, and said, Hail, [thou] favoured one! the Lord [is] with thee: [blessed art thou amongst women]. <sup>29</sup> But she, [seeing] [the angel], was troubled at his word, and reasoned in her mind what this salutation might be. <sup>30</sup> And the angel said to her, Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with °God; <sup>31</sup> and behold, thou shalt conceive in the womb and bear a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus. <sup>32</sup> He shall be great, and shall be called Son of [the] Highest; and [the] Lord °God shall give him the throne of David his father; <sup>33</sup> and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for the ages, and of his kingdom there shall not be an end. <sup>34</sup> But Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, since I know not a man? <sup>35</sup> And the angel answering said to her, [The] Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and power of [the] Highest overshadow thee, wherefore the holy thing also which shall be born shall be called Son of °God. <sup>36</sup> And behold, Elizabeth, thy kinswoman, she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month to her that was called barren: <sup>37</sup> for nothing shall be impossible with °God. <sup>38</sup> And Mary said, Behold the bondmaid of [the] Lord; be it to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. <sup>39</sup> And Mary, rising up in those days, went into the hill country with haste, to a city of Judah, <sup>40</sup> and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup> And it came to pass, as Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with [the] Holy Spirit, <sup>42</sup> and cried out with a loud voice and said, Blessed [art] thou amongst women, and blessed the fruit of thy womb. <sup>43</sup> And whence [is] this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For behold, as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped with joy in my womb. <sup>45</sup> And blessed [is] she that has believed, for there shall be a fulfilment of the things spoken to her from [the] Lord. <sup>46</sup> And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord, <sup>47</sup> and my spirit has rejoiced in °God my Saviour. <sup>48</sup> For he has looked upon the low estate of his bondmaid; for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. <sup>49</sup> For the Mighty One has done to me great things, and holy [is] his name; <sup>50</sup> and his mercy [is] to generations and generations to them that fear him. <sup>51</sup> He has wrought strength with his arm; he has scattered haughty [ones] in the thought of their heart. <sup>52</sup> He has put down rulers from thrones, and exalted the lowly. <sup>53</sup> He has filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty. <sup>54</sup> He has helped Israel his servant, in order to remember mercy, <sup>55</sup> (as he spoke to our fathers,) to Abraham and to his seed for ever. <sup>56</sup> And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her house. <sup>57</sup> But the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth that she should bring forth, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup> And her neighbours and kinsfolk heard that [the] Lord had magnified his mercy with her, and they rejoiced with her. <sup>59</sup> And it came to pass on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they called it after the name of his father, Zacharias. <sup>60</sup> And his mother answering said, No; but he shall be called John. <sup>61</sup> And they said to her, There is no one among thy kinsfolk who is called by this name. <sup>62</sup> And they made signs to his father as to what he might wish it to be called. <sup>63</sup> And having asked for a writing-table, he wrote saying, John is his name. And they all wondered. <sup>64</sup> And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue, and he spake, blessing °God. <sup>65</sup> And fear came upon all who dwelt round about them; and in the whole hill-country of Judaea all these things were the subject of conversation. <sup>66</sup> And all who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then will this child be? And [the] Lord's hand was with him. <sup>67</sup> And Zacharias his father was filled with [the] Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, <sup>68</sup> Blessed be [the] Lord the °God of Israel, because he has visited and wrought redemption for his people, <sup>69</sup> and raised up a horn of deliverance for us in the house of David his servant; <sup>70</sup> as he spoke by [the] mouth of his holy prophets, who have been since the world began; <sup>71</sup> deliverance from our enemies and out of the hand of all who hate us; <sup>72</sup> to fulfil mercy with our fathers and remember his holy covenant, <sup>73</sup> [the] oath which he swore to Abraham our father, <sup>74</sup> to give us, that, saved out of the hand of our enemies, we should serve him without fear <sup>75</sup> in piety and righteousness before him all our days. <sup>76</sup> And thou, child, shalt be called [the] prophet of [the] Highest; for thou shalt go before the face of [the] Lord to make ready his ways; <sup>77</sup> to give knowledge of deliverance to his people by [the] remission of their sins <sup>78</sup> on account of [the] bowels of mercy of our °God; wherein [the] dayspring from on high has visited us, <sup>79</sup> to shine upon them who were sitting in darkness and in [the] shadow of death, to guide our feet into [the] way of peace. <sup>80</sup> — And the child grew and was strengthened in spirit; and he was in the deserts until the day of his shewing to Israel.

<sup>1</sup> But it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus, that a census should be made of all the habitable world. <sup>2</sup> The census itself first took place when Cyrenius had the government of Syria. <sup>3</sup> And all went to be inscribed in the census roll, each to his own city: <sup>4</sup> and Joseph also went up from Galilee out of the city Nazareth to Judaea, to David's city, the which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, <sup>5</sup> to be inscribed in the census roll with Mary who was betrothed to him [as his] wife, she being great with child. <sup>6</sup> And it came to pass, while they were there, the days of her giving birth [to her child] were fulfilled, <sup>7</sup> and she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him up in swaddling-clothes and laid him in the manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup> And there were shepherds in that country abiding without, and keeping watch by night over their flock. <sup>9</sup> And lo, an angel of [the] Lord was there by them, and [the] glory of [the] Lord shone around them, and they feared [with] great fear. <sup>10</sup> And the angel said to them, Fear not, for behold, I announce to you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people; <sup>11</sup> for to-day a Saviour has been born to you in David's city, who is Christ [the] Lord. <sup>12</sup> And this is the sign to you: ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling-clothes, and lying in a manger. <sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising °God and saying, <sup>14</sup> Glory to °God in the highest, and on earth peace, good pleasure in men. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass, as the angels departed from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, Let us make our way then now as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us. <sup>16</sup> And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger; <sup>17</sup> and having seen [it] they made known about the country the thing which had been said to them concerning this child. <sup>18</sup> And all who heard [it] wondered at the things said to them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup> But Mary kept all these things [in her mind], pondering [them] in her heart. <sup>20</sup> And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising °God for all things which they had heard and seen, as it had been said to them. <sup>21</sup> And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called Jesus, which was the name given by the angel before he had been conceived in the womb. <sup>22</sup> And when the days were fulfilled for their purifying according to the law of Moses, they brought him to Jerusalem to present [him] to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the law of [the] Lord: Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), <sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of [the] Lord: A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons. <sup>25</sup> And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was just and pious, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and [the] Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup> And it was divinely communicated to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death before he should see [the] Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup> And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and as the parents brought in the child Jesus that they might do for him according to the custom of the law, <sup>28</sup> he received him into his arms, and blessed °God, and said, <sup>29</sup> Lord, now thou lettest thy bondman go, according to thy word, in peace; <sup>30</sup> for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, <sup>31</sup> which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples; <sup>32</sup> a light for revelation of [the] Gentiles and [the] glory of thy people Israel. <sup>33</sup> And his father and mother wondered at the things which were said concerning him. <sup>34</sup> And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Lo, this [child] is set for the fall and rising up of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against; <sup>35</sup> (and even a sword shall go through thine own soul;) so that [the] thoughts may be revealed from many hearts. <sup>36</sup> And there was a prophetess, Anna, daughter of Phanuel, of [the] tribe of Asher, who was far advanced in years, having lived with [her] husband seven years from her virginity, <sup>37</sup> and herself a widow up to eighty-four years; who did not depart from the temple, serving night and day with fastings and prayers; <sup>38</sup> and she coming up the same hour gave praise to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who waited for redemption in Jerusalem. <sup>39</sup> And when they had completed all things according to the law of [the] Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own city Nazareth. <sup>40</sup> And the child grew and waxed strong [in spirit], filled with wisdom, and °God's grace was upon him. <sup>41</sup> And his parents went yearly to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. <sup>42</sup> And when he was twelve years old, and they went up [to Jerusalem] according to the custom of the feast <sup>43</sup> and had completed the days, as they returned, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and his parents knew not [of it]; <sup>44</sup> but, supposing him to be in the company that journeyed together, they went a day's journey, and sought him among their relations and acquaintances: <sup>45</sup> and not having found him they returned to Jerusalem seeking him. <sup>46</sup> And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers and hearing them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. <sup>48</sup> And when they saw him they were amazed: and his mother said to him, Child, why hast thou dealt thus with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee distressed. <sup>49</sup> And he said to them, Why [is it] that ye have sought me? did ye not know that I ought to be [occupied] in my Father's business? <sup>50</sup> And they understood not the thing that he said to them. <sup>51</sup> And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and he was in subjection to them. And his mother kept all these things in her heart. <sup>52</sup> And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favour with °God and men.

3

am not fit to unloose; he shall baptise you with [the] Holy Spirit and fire; <sup>17</sup> whose winnowing-fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his threshing-floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. <sup>18</sup> Exhorting then many other things also he announced [his] glad tidings to the people. <sup>19</sup> But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him as to Herodias, the wife of his brother, and as to all the wicked things which Herod had done, <sup>20</sup> added this also to all [the rest], that he shut up John in prison. <sup>21</sup> And it came to pass, all the people having been baptised, and Jesus having been baptised and praying, that the heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form as a dove upon him; and a voice came out of heaven, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I have found my delight. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus himself was beginning to be about thirty years old; being as was supposed son of Joseph; of Eli, <sup>24</sup> of Matthat, of Levi, of Melchi, of Janna, of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> of Mattathias, of Amos, of Naoum, of Esli, of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> of Maath, of Mattathias, of Semei, of Joseph, of Juda, <sup>27</sup> of Joannes, of Resa, of Zorobabel, of Salathiel, of Neri, <sup>28</sup> of Melchi, of Addi, of Cosam, of Elmodam, of Er, <sup>29</sup> of Joses, of Eliezer, of Joreim, of Matthat, of Levi, <sup>30</sup> of Simeon, of Juda, of Joseph, of Jonan, of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup> of Meleas, of Menan, of Mattatha, of Nathan, of David, <sup>32</sup> of Jesse, of Obed, of Booz, of Salmon, of Naasson, <sup>33</sup> of Aminadab, of Aram, of Esrom, of Phares, of Juda, <sup>34</sup> of Jacob, of Isaac, of Abraham, of Terah, of Nachor, <sup>35</sup> of Seruch, of Ragau, of Phalek, of Eber, of Sala, <sup>36</sup> of Cainan, of Arphaxad, of Sem, of Noe, of Lamech, <sup>37</sup> of Methusala, of Enoch, of Jared, of Maleleel, of Cainan, <sup>38</sup> of Enos, of Seth, of Adam, of °God.

<sup>1</sup> But Jesus, full of [the] Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness <sup>2</sup> forty days, tempted of the devil; and in those days he did not eat anything, and when they were finished he hungered. <sup>3</sup> And the devil said to him, If thou be Son of °God, speak to this stone, that it become bread. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answered unto him saying, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of °God. <sup>5</sup> And [the devil], leading him up into a high mountain, shewed him all the kingdoms of the habitable world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> And the devil said to him, I will give thee all this power, and their glory; for it is given up to me, and to whomsoever I will I give it. <sup>7</sup> If therefore thou wilt do homage before me, all [of it] shall be thine. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus answering him said, It is written, Thou shalt do homage to [the] Lord thy °God, and him alone shalt thou serve. <sup>9</sup> And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the edge of the temple, and said to him, If thou be Son of °God, cast thyself down hence; <sup>10</sup> for it is written, He shall give charge to his angels concerning thee to keep thee; <sup>11</sup> and on [their] hands shall they bear thee, lest in any wise thou strike thy foot against a stone. <sup>12</sup> And Jesus answering said to him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt [the] Lord thy °God. <sup>13</sup> And the devil, having completed every temptation, departed from him for a time. <sup>14</sup> And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee; and a rumour went out into the whole surrounding country about him; <sup>15</sup> and he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all. <sup>16</sup> And he came to Nazareth, where he was brought up; and he entered, according to his custom, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup> And [the] book of the prophet Esaias was given to him; and having unrolled the book he found the place where it was written, <sup>18</sup> [The] Spirit of [the] Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach glad tidings to [the] poor; he has sent me to preach to captives deliverance, and to [the] blind sight, to send forth [the] crushed delivered, <sup>19</sup> to preach [the] acceptable year of [the] Lord. <sup>20</sup> And having rolled up the book, when he had delivered it up to the attendant, he sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed upon him. <sup>21</sup> And he began to say to them, To-day this scripture is fulfilled in your ears. <sup>22</sup> And all bore witness to him, and wondered at the words of grace which were coming out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this the son of Joseph? <sup>23</sup> And he said to them, Ye will surely say to me this parable, Physician, heal thyself; whatsoever we have heard has taken place in Capernaum do here also in thine own country. <sup>24</sup> And he said, Verily I say to you, that no prophet is acceptable in his [own] country. <sup>25</sup> But of a truth I say to you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up for three years and six months, so that a great famine came upon all the land, <sup>26</sup> and to none of them was Elias sent but to Sarepta of Sidonia, to a woman [that was] a widow. <sup>27</sup> And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed but Naaman the Syrian. <sup>28</sup> And they were all filled with rage in the synagogue, hearing these things; <sup>29</sup> and rising up they cast him forth out of the city, and led him up to the brow of the mountain upon which their city was built, so that they might throw him down the precipice; <sup>30</sup> but he, passing through the midst of them, went his way, <sup>31</sup> and descended to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbaths. <sup>32</sup> And they were astonished at his doctrine, for his word was with authority. <sup>33</sup> And there was in the synagogue a man having a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> saying, Eh! what have we to do with thee, Jesus, Nazarene? hast thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy [One] of °God. <sup>35</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out from him. And the demon, having thrown him down into the midst, came out from him without doing him any injury. <sup>36</sup> And astonishment came upon all, and they spoke to one another, saying, What word [is] this? for with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out. <sup>37</sup> And a rumour went out into every place of the country round concerning him. <sup>38</sup> And rising up out of the synagogue, he entered into the house of Simon. But Simon's mother-in-law was suffering under a bad fever; and they asked him for her. <sup>39</sup> And standing over her, he rebuked the fever, and it left her; and forthwith standing up she served them. <sup>40</sup> And when the sun went down, all, as many as had persons sick with divers diseases, brought them to him, and having laid his hands on every one of them, he healed them; <sup>41</sup> and demons also went out from many, crying out and saying, Thou art the Son of °God. And rebuking them, he suffered them not to speak, because they knew him to be the Christ. <sup>42</sup> And when it was day he went out, and went into a desert place, and the crowds sought after him, and came up to him, and [would have] kept him back that he should not go from them. <sup>43</sup> But he said to them, I must needs announce the glad tidings of the kingdom of °God to the other cities also, for for this I have been sent forth. <sup>44</sup> And he was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

but °God alone? <sup>22</sup> But Jesus, knowing their reasonings, answering said to them, Why reason ye in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? <sup>24</sup> But that ye may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins, he said to the paralysed man, I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy little couch and go to thine house. <sup>25</sup> And immediately standing up before them, having taken up that whereon he was laid, he departed to his house, glorifying °God. <sup>26</sup> And astonishment seized all, and they glorified °God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day. <sup>27</sup> And after these things he went forth and saw a tax-gatherer, Levi by name, sitting at the receipt of taxes, and said to him, Follow me. <sup>28</sup> And having left all, rising up, he followed him. <sup>29</sup> And Levi made a great entertainment for him in his house, and there was a great crowd of tax-gatherers and others who were at table with them. <sup>30</sup> And their scribes and the Pharisees murmured at his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with tax-gatherers and sinners? <sup>31</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, They that are in sound health have not need of a physician, but those that are ill. <sup>32</sup> I am not come to call righteous [persons], but sinful [ones] to repentance. <sup>33</sup> And they said to him, Why do the disciples of John fast often and make supplications, in like manner those also of the Pharisees, but thine eat and drink? <sup>34</sup> And he said to them, Can ye make the sons of the bridechamber fast when the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup> But days will come when also the bridegroom will have been taken away from them; then shall they fast in those days. <sup>36</sup> And he spoke also a parable to them: No one puts a piece of a new garment upon an old garment, otherwise he will both rend the new, and the piece which is from the new will not suit with the old. <sup>37</sup> And no one puts new wine into old skins, otherwise the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be poured out, and the skins will be destroyed; <sup>38</sup> but new wine is to be put into new skins, and both are preserved. <sup>39</sup> And no one having drunk old wine [straightway] wishes for new, for he says, The old is better.

risen up he stood [there]. <sup>9</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, I will ask you if it is lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy [it]? <sup>10</sup> And having looked around on them all, he said to him, Stretch out thy hand. And he did [so] and his hand was restored as the other. <sup>11</sup> But they were filled with madness, and they spoke together among themselves what they should do to Jesus. <sup>12</sup> And it came to pass in those days that he went out into the mountain to pray, and he spent the night in prayer to <sup>o</sup> God. <sup>13</sup> And when it was day he called his disciples, and having chosen out twelve from them, whom also he named apostles: <sup>14</sup> Simon, to whom also he gave the name of Peter, and Andrew his brother, [and] James and John, [and] Philip and Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup> [and] Matthew and Thomas, James the [son] of Alphaeus and Simon who was called Zealot, <sup>16</sup> [and] Judas [brother] of James, and Judas Iscariote, who was also [his] betrayer; <sup>17</sup> and having descended with them, he stood on a level place, and a crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of the people from all Judaea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; <sup>18</sup> and those that were beset by unclean spirits were healed. <sup>19</sup> And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power went out from him and healed all. <sup>20</sup> And he, lifting up his eyes upon his disciples, said, Blessed [are] ye poor, for yours is the kingdom of <sup>o</sup> God. <sup>21</sup> Blessed ye that hunger now, for ye shall be filled. Blessed ye that weep now, for ye shall laugh. <sup>22</sup> Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you [from them], and shall reproach [you], and cast out your name as wicked, for the Son of man's sake: <sup>23</sup> rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in the heaven, for after this manner did their fathers act toward the prophets. <sup>24</sup> But woe to you rich, for ye have received your consolation. <sup>25</sup> Woe to you that are filled, for ye shall hunger. Woe to you who laugh now, for ye shall mourn and weep. <sup>26</sup> Woe, when all men speak well of you, for after this manner did their fathers to the false prophets. <sup>27</sup> But to you that hear I say, Love your enemies; do good to those that hate you; <sup>28</sup> bless those that curse you; pray for those who use you despitefully. <sup>29</sup> To him that smites thee on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him that would take away thy garment, forbid not thy body-coat also. <sup>30</sup> To every one that asks of thee, give; and from him that takes away what is thine, ask it not back. <sup>31</sup> And as ye wish that men should do to you, do ye also to them in like manner. <sup>32</sup> And if ye love those that love you, what thank is it to you? for even sinners love those that love them. <sup>33</sup> And if ye do good to those that do good to you, what thank is it to you? for even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> And if ye lend to those from whom ye hope to receive, what thank is it to you? [for] even sinners lend to sinners that they may receive the like. <sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of [the] Highest; for he is good to the unthankful and wicked. <sup>36</sup> Be ye therefore merciful, even as your Father also is merciful. <sup>37</sup> And judge not, and ye shall not be judged; condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned. Remit, and it shall be remitted to you. <sup>38</sup> Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall be given into your bosom: for with the same measure with which ye mete it shall be measured to you again. <sup>39</sup> And he spoke also a parable to them: Can a blind [man] lead a blind [man]? shall not both fall into [the] ditch? <sup>40</sup> The disciple is not above his teacher, but every one that is perfected shall be as his teacher. <sup>41</sup> But why lookest thou on the mote which is in the eye of thy brother, but perceivest not the beam which is in thine own eye? <sup>42</sup> or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, allow [me], I will cast out the mote that is in thine eye, thyself not seeing the beam that is in thine eye? Hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine eye, and then thou shalt see clear to cast out the mote which is in the eye of thy brother. <sup>43</sup> For there is no good tree which produces corrupt fruit, nor a corrupt tree which produces good fruit; <sup>44</sup> for every tree is known by its own fruit, for figs are not gathered from thorns, nor grapes vintaged from a bramble. <sup>45</sup> The good man, out of the good treasure of his heart, brings forth good; and the wicked [man] out of the wicked, brings forth what is wicked: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. <sup>46</sup> And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things that I say? <sup>47</sup> Every one that comes to me, and hears my words and does them, I will shew you to whom he is like. <sup>48</sup> He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock; but a great rain coming, the stream broke upon that house, and could not shake it, for it had been founded on the rock. <sup>49</sup> And he that has heard and not done, is like a man who has built a house on the ground without [a] foundation, on which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the breach of that house was great.

<sup>1</sup> And when he had completed all his words in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. <sup>2</sup> And a certain centurion's bondman who was dear to him was ill and about to die; <sup>3</sup> and having heard of Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, begging him that he might come and save his bondman. <sup>4</sup> But they, being come to Jesus, besought him diligently, saying, He is worthy to whom thou shouldest grant this, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our nation, and himself has built the synagogue for us. <sup>6</sup> And Jesus went with them. But already, when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent to him friends, saying to him, Lord, do not trouble thyself, for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof. <sup>7</sup> Wherefore neither did I count myself worthy to come to thee. But say by a word and my servant shall be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers, and I say to this [one], Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my bondman, Do this, and he does [it]. <sup>9</sup> And Jesus hearing this wondered at him, and turning to the crowd following him said, I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found so great faith. <sup>10</sup> And they who had been sent returning to the house found the bondman, who was ill, in good health. <sup>11</sup> And it came to pass afterwards he went into a city called Nain, and many of his disciples and a great crowd went with him. <sup>12</sup> And as he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she a widow, and a very considerable crowd of the city [was] with her. <sup>13</sup> And the Lord, seeing her, was moved with compassion for her, and said to her, Weep not; <sup>14</sup> and coming up he touched the bier, and the bearers stopped. And he said, Youth, I say to thee, Wake up. <sup>15</sup> And the dead sat up and began to speak; and he gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup> And fear seized on all, and they glorified °God, saying, A great prophet has been raised up amongst us; and °God has visited his people. <sup>17</sup> And this report went out in all Judaea concerning him, and in all the surrounding country. <sup>18</sup> And the disciples of John brought him word concerning all these things: <sup>19</sup> and John, having called two of his disciples, sent to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that is coming, or are we to wait for another? <sup>20</sup> But the men having come to him said, John the baptist has sent us to thee, saying, Art thou he that is coming, or are we to wait for another? <sup>21</sup> In that hour he healed many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and to many blind he granted sight. <sup>22</sup> And Jesus answering said to them, Go, bring back word to John of what ye have seen and heard: that blind see, lame walk, lepers are cleansed, deaf hear, dead are raised, poor are evangelized; <sup>23</sup> and blessed is whosoever shall not be offended in me. <sup>24</sup> And the messengers of John having departed, he began to speak to the crowds concerning John: What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup> But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in delicate garments? Behold, those who are in splendid clothing and live luxuriously are in the courts of kings. <sup>26</sup> But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say to you, and [what is] more excellent than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is he concerning whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee; <sup>28</sup> for I say unto you, Among them that are born of women a greater [prophet] is no one than John [the baptist]; but he who is a little one in the kingdom of °God is greater than he. <sup>29</sup> (And all the people who heard [it], and the tax-gatherers, justified °God, having been baptised with the baptism of John; <sup>30</sup> but the Pharisees and the lawyers rendered null as to themselves the counsel of °God, not having been baptised by him.) <sup>31</sup> To whom therefore shall I liken the men of this generation, and to whom are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another and saying, We have piped to you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept. <sup>33</sup> For John the baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and ye say, He has a demon. <sup>34</sup> The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold an eater and wine-drinker, a friend of tax-gatherers and sinners; <sup>35</sup> and wisdom has been justified of all her children. <sup>36</sup> But one of the Pharisees begged him that he would eat with him. And entering into the house of the Pharisee he took his place at table; <sup>37</sup> and behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, and knew that he was sitting at meat in the house of the Pharisee, having taken an alabaster box of myrrh, <sup>38</sup> and standing at his feet behind [him] weeping, began to wash his feet with tears; and she wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed [them] with the myrrh. <sup>39</sup> And the Pharisee who had invited him, seeing it, spoke with himself saying, This [person] if he were a prophet would have known who and what the woman is who touches him, for she is a sinner. <sup>40</sup> And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have somewhat to say to thee. And he says, Teacher, say [it]. <sup>41</sup> There were two debtors of a certain creditor: one owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty; <sup>42</sup> but as they had nothing to pay, he forgave both of them [their debt]: [say,] which of them therefore will love him most? <sup>43</sup> And Simon answering said, I suppose he to whom he forgave the most. And he said to him, Thou hast rightly judged. <sup>44</sup> And turning to the woman he said to Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house; thou gavest me not water on my feet, but she has washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> Thou gavest me not a kiss, but she from the time I came in has not ceased kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup> My head with oil thou didst not anoint, but she has anointed my feet with myrrh. <sup>47</sup> For which cause I say to thee, Her many sins are forgiven; for she loved much; but he to whom little is forgiven loves little. <sup>48</sup> And he said to her, Thy sins are forgiven. <sup>49</sup> And they that were with [them] at table began to say within themselves, Who is this who forgives also sins? <sup>50</sup> And he said to the woman, Thy faith has saved thee; go in peace.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass afterwards that he went through [the country] city by city, and village by village, preaching and announcing the glad tidings of the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God; and the twelve [were] with him, <sup>2</sup> and certain women who had been healed of wicked spirits and infirmities, Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, <sup>3</sup> and Joanna, wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to him of their substance. <sup>4</sup> And a great crowd coming together, and those who were coming to him out of each city, he spoke by parable: <sup>5</sup> The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell along the way, and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it up; <sup>6</sup> and other fell upon the rock, and having sprung up, it was dried up because it had not moisture; <sup>7</sup> and other fell in the midst of the thorns, and the thorns having sprung up with [it] choked it; <sup>8</sup> and other fell into the good ground, and having sprung up bore fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things he cried, He that has ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>9</sup> And his disciples asked him [saying], What may this parable be? <sup>10</sup> And he said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God, but to the rest in parables, in order that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. <sup>11</sup> But the parable is this: The seed is the word of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>12</sup> But those by the wayside are those who hear; then comes the devil and takes away the word from their heart that they may not believe and be saved. <sup>13</sup> But those upon the rock, those who when they hear receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a time, and in time of trial fall away. <sup>14</sup> But that that fell where the thorns were, these are they who having heard go away and are choked under cares and riches and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to perfection. <sup>15</sup> But that in the good ground, these are they who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. <sup>16</sup> And no one having lighted a lamp covers it with a vessel or puts it under a couch, but sets it on a lamp-stand, that they who enter in may see the light. <sup>17</sup> For there is nothing hid which shall not become manifest, nor secret which shall not be known and come to light. <sup>18</sup> Take heed therefore how ye hear; for whosoever has, to him shall be given, and whosoever has not, even what he seems to have shall be taken from him. <sup>19</sup> And his mother and his brethren came to him, and could not get to him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup> And it was told him [saying], Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, wishing to see thee. <sup>21</sup> But he answering said to them, My mother and my brethren are those who hear the word of °God and do [it]. <sup>22</sup> And it came to pass on one of the days, that he entered into a ship, himself and his disciples; and he said to them, Let us pass over to the other side of the lake; and they set off from shore. <sup>23</sup> And as they sailed, he fell asleep; and a sudden squall of wind came down on the lake, and they were filled [with water], and were in danger; <sup>24</sup> and coming to [him] they woke him up, saying, Master, master, we perish. But he, rising up, rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, Where is your faith? And, being afraid, they were astonished, saying to one another, Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him? <sup>26</sup> And they arrived in the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. <sup>27</sup> And as he got out [of the ship] on the land, a certain man out of the city met him, who had demons a long time, and put on no clothes, and did not abide in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup> But seeing Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus Son of the Most High °God? I beseech thee torment me not. <sup>29</sup> For he had commanded the unclean spirit to go out from the man. For very often it had seized him; and he had been bound, kept with chains and fetters; and breaking the bonds he was driven by the demon into the deserts. <sup>30</sup> And Jesus asked him saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: for many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup> And they besought him that he would not command them to go away into the bottomless pit. <sup>32</sup> And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain, and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into those; and he suffered them. <sup>33</sup> And the demons, going out from the man, entered into the swine, and the herd rushed down the precipice into the lake, and were choked. <sup>34</sup> But they that fed [them], seeing what had happened, fled, and told [it] to the city and to the country. <sup>35</sup> And they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting, clothed and sensible, at the feet of Jesus. And they were afraid. <sup>36</sup> And they also who had seen it told them how the possessed man had been healed. <sup>37</sup> And all the multitude of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were possessed with great fear; and he, entering into the ship, returned. <sup>38</sup> But the man out of whom the demons had gone besought him that he might be with him. But he sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> Return to thine house and relate how great things °God has done for thee. And he went away through the whole city, publishing how great things Jesus had done for him. <sup>40</sup> And it came to pass when Jesus returned, the crowd received him gladly, for they were all expecting him. <sup>41</sup> And behold, a man came, whose name was Jairus, and he was [a] ruler of the synagogue, and falling at the feet of Jesus besought him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> because he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. And as he went the crowds thronged him. <sup>43</sup> And a woman who had a flux of blood since twelve years, who, having spent all her living on physicians, could not be cured by any one, <sup>44</sup> coming up behind, touched the hem of his garment, and immediately her flux of blood stopped. <sup>45</sup> And Jesus said, Who has touched me? But all denying, Peter and those with him said, Master, the crowds close thee in and press upon thee, and sayest thou, Who has touched me? <sup>46</sup> And Jesus said, Some one has touched me, for I have known that power has gone out from me. <sup>47</sup> And the woman, seeing that she was not hid, came trembling, and falling down before him declared before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was immediately healed. <sup>48</sup> And he said to her, [Be of good courage,] daughter; thy faith has healed thee; go in peace. <sup>49</sup> While he was yet speaking, comes some one from the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher. <sup>50</sup> But Jesus, hearing it, answered him saying, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be made well. <sup>51</sup> And when he came to the house he suffered no one to go in but Peter and John and James and the father of the child and the mother. <sup>52</sup> And all were weeping and lamenting her. But he said, Do not weep, for she has not died, but sleeps. <sup>53</sup> And they derided him, knowing that she had died. <sup>54</sup> But he, having turned them all out and taking hold of her hand, cried saying, Child, arise. <sup>55</sup> And her spirit returned, and immediately she rose up; and he commanded [something] to eat to be given to her. <sup>56</sup> And her parents were amazed; but he enjoined them to tell no one what had happened.

<sup>1</sup> And having called together the twelve, he gave them power and authority over all demons, and to heal diseases, <sup>2</sup> and sent them to proclaim the kingdom of °God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup> And he said to them, Take nothing for the way, neither staff, nor scrip, nor bread, nor money; nor to have two body-coats apiece. <sup>4</sup> And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide and thence go forth. <sup>5</sup> And as many as may not receive you, going forth from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a witness against them. <sup>6</sup> And going forth they passed through the villages, announcing the glad tidings and healing everywhere. <sup>7</sup> And Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things which were done [by him], and was in perplexity, because it was said by some that John was risen from among [the] dead, <sup>8</sup> and by some that Elias had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. <sup>9</sup> And Herod said, John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things? and he sought to see him. <sup>10</sup> And the apostles having returned related to him whatever they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart into [a desert place of] a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup> But the crowds knowing [it] followed him; and he received them and spake to them of the kingdom of °God, and cured those that had need of healing. <sup>12</sup> But the day began to decline, and the twelve came and said to him, Send away the crowd that they may go into the villages around, and [into] the fields, and lodge and find victuals, for here we are in a desert place. <sup>13</sup> And he said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have not more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we should go and buy food for all this people; <sup>14</sup> for they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down in companies by fifties. <sup>15</sup> And they did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup> And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up to heaven he blessed them, and broke and gave to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup> And they all ate and were filled; and there was taken up of what had remained over and above to them in fragments twelve hand-baskets. <sup>18</sup> And it came to pass as he was praying alone, his disciples were with him, and he asked them saying, Who do the crowds say that I am? <sup>19</sup> But they answering said, John the baptist; but others, Elias; and others, that one of the old prophets has risen again. <sup>20</sup> And he said to them, But ye, who do ye say that I am? And Peter answering said, The Christ of °God. <sup>21</sup> But, earnestly charging them, he enjoined [them] to say this to no man, <sup>22</sup> saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. <sup>23</sup> And he said to [them] all, If any one will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me; <sup>24</sup> for whosoever shall desire to save his life shall lose it, but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, he shall save it. <sup>25</sup> For what shall a man profit if he shall have gained the whole world, and have destroyed, or come under the penalty of the loss of himself? <sup>26</sup> For whosoever shall have been ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed when he shall come in his glory, and [in that] of the Father, and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> But I say unto you of a truth, There are some of those standing here who shall not taste death until they shall have seen the kingdom of °God. <sup>28</sup> And it came to pass after these words, about eight days, that taking Peter and John and James he went up into a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> And as he prayed the fashion of his countenance became different and his raiment white [and] effulgent. <sup>30</sup> And lo, two men talked with him, who were Moses and Elias, <sup>31</sup> who, appearing in glory, spoke of his departure which he was about to accomplish in Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup> But Peter and those with him were oppressed with sleep: but having fully awoken up they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. <sup>33</sup> And it came to pass as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. <sup>34</sup> But as he was saying these things, there came a cloud and overshadowed them, and they feared as they entered into the cloud: <sup>35</sup> and there was a voice out of the cloud saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. <sup>36</sup> And as the voice was [heard] Jesus was found alone: and they kept silence, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen. <sup>37</sup> And it came to pass on the following day, when they came down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. <sup>38</sup> And lo, a man from the crowd cried out saying, Teacher, I beseech thee look upon my son, for he is mine only child: <sup>39</sup> and behold, a spirit takes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it tears him with foaming, and with difficulty departs from him after crushing him. <sup>40</sup> And I besought thy disciples that they might cast him out, and they could not. <sup>41</sup> And Jesus answering said, O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you and suffer you? Bring hither thy son. <sup>42</sup> But as he was yet coming, the demon tore him and dragged him all together. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> And all were astonished at the glorious greatness of °God. And as all wondered at all the things which [Jesus] did, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup> Do ye let these words sink into your ears. For the Son of man is about to be delivered into men's hands. <sup>45</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them that they should not perceive it. And they feared to ask him concerning this saying. <sup>46</sup> And a reasoning came in amongst them, who should be [the] greatest of them. <sup>47</sup> And Jesus, seeing the reasoning of their heart, having taken a little child set it by him, <sup>48</sup> and said to them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receives me, and whosoever shall receive me receives him that sent me. For he who is the least among you all, he is great. <sup>49</sup> And John answering said, Master, we saw some one casting out demons in thy name, and we forbid him, because he follows not with us. <sup>50</sup> And Jesus said to him, Forbid [him] not, for he that is not against you is for you. <sup>51</sup> And it came to pass when the days of his receiving up were fulfilled, that he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup> And he sent messengers before his face. And having gone they entered into a village of the Samaritans that they might make ready for him. <sup>53</sup> And they did not receive him, because his face was [turned as] going to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> And his disciples James and John seeing [it] said, Lord, wilt thou that we speak [that] fire come down from heaven and consume them, as also Elias did? <sup>55</sup> But turning he rebuked them [and said, Ye know not of what spirit ye are]. <sup>56</sup> And they went to another village. <sup>57</sup> And it came to pass as they went in the way, one said to him, I will follow thee wheresoever thou goest, Lord. <sup>58</sup> And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes and the birds of the heaven roosting-places, but the Son of man has not where he may lay his head. <sup>59</sup> And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, allow me to go first and bury my father. <sup>60</sup> But Jesus said to him, Suffer the dead to bury their own dead, but do thou go and announce the kingdom of °God. <sup>61</sup> And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord, but first allow me to bid adieu to those at my house. <sup>62</sup> But Jesus said to him, No one having laid his hand on [the] plough and looking back is fit for the kingdom of °God.

<sup>1</sup> Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place where he himself was about to come. <sup>2</sup> And he said to them, The harvest indeed [is] great, but the workmen few; supplicate therefore the Lord of the harvest that he may send out workmen into his harvest. <sup>3</sup> Go: behold I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. <sup>4</sup> Carry neither purse nor scrip nor sandals, and salute no one on the way. <sup>5</sup> And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace to this house. <sup>6</sup> And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it; but if not it shall turn to you again. <sup>7</sup> And in the same house abide, eating and drinking such things as they have; for the workman is worthy of his hire. Remove not from house to house. <sup>8</sup> And into whatsoever city ye may enter and they receive you, eat what is set before you, <sup>9</sup> and heal the sick in it, and say to them, The kingdom of °God is come nigh to you. <sup>10</sup> But into whatsoever city ye may have entered and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> Even the dust of your city, which cleaves to us on the feet, do we shake off against you; but know this, that the kingdom of °God is come nigh. <sup>12</sup> I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for Sodom in that day than for that city. <sup>13</sup> Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee, Bethsaida! for if the works of power which have taken place in you had taken place in Tyre and Sidon, they had long ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup> But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup> And thou, Capernaum, who hast been raised up to heaven, shalt be brought down even to hades. <sup>16</sup> He that hears you hears me; and he that rejects you rejects me; and he that rejects me rejects him that sent me. <sup>17</sup> And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through thy name. <sup>18</sup> And he said to them, I beheld Satan as lightning falling out of heaven. <sup>19</sup> Behold, I give you the power of treading upon serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall in anywise injure you. <sup>20</sup> Yet in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice that your names are written in the heavens. <sup>21</sup> In the same hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit and said, I praise thee, Father, Lord of the heaven and of the earth, that thou hast hid these things from wise and prudent, and hast revealed them to babes: yea, Father, for thus has it been well-pleasing in thy sight. <sup>22</sup> All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is but the Father, and who the Father is but the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son is pleased to reveal [him]. <sup>23</sup> And having turned to the disciples privately he said, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see. <sup>24</sup> For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things which ye behold, and did not see [them]; and to hear the things which ye hear, and did not hear [them]. <sup>25</sup> And behold, a certain lawyer stood up tempting him, and saying, Teacher, having done what, shall I inherit life eternal? <sup>26</sup> And he said to him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? <sup>27</sup> But he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy °God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thine understanding; and thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>28</sup> And he said to him, Thou hast answered right: this do and thou shalt live. <sup>29</sup> But he, desirous of justifying himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbour? <sup>30</sup> And Jesus replying said, A certain man descended from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into [the hands of] robbers, who also, having stripped him and inflicted wounds, went away leaving him in a half-dead state. <sup>31</sup> And a certain priest happened to go down that way, and seeing him, passed on on the opposite side; <sup>32</sup> and in like manner also a Levite, being at the spot, came and looked [at him] and passed on on the opposite side. <sup>33</sup> But a certain Samaritan journeying came to him, and seeing [him], was moved with compassion, <sup>34</sup> and came up [to him] and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine; and having put him on his own beast, took him to [the] inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> And on the morrow [as he left], taking out two denarii he gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou shalt expend more, I will render to thee on my coming back. <sup>36</sup> Which [now] of these three seems to thee to have been neighbour of him who fell into [the hands of] the robbers? <sup>37</sup> And he said, He that shewed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, Go, and do thou likewise. <sup>38</sup> And it came to pass as they went that he entered into a certain village; and a certain woman, Martha by name, received him into her house. <sup>39</sup> And she had a sister called Mary, who also, having sat down at the feet of Jesus was listening to his word. <sup>40</sup> Now Martha was distracted with much serving, and coming up she said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Speak to her therefore that she may help me. <sup>41</sup> But Jesus answering said to her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things; <sup>42</sup> but there is need of one, and Mary has chosen the good part, the which shall not be taken from her.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass as he was in a certain place praying, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. <sup>2</sup> And he said to them, When ye pray, say, Father, thy name be hallowed; thy kingdom come; <sup>3</sup> give us our needed bread for each day; <sup>4</sup> and remit us our sins, for we also remit to every one indebted to us; and lead us not into temptation. <sup>5</sup> And he said to them, Who among you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, let me have three loaves, <sup>6</sup> since a friend of mine on a journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him; <sup>7</sup> and he within answering should say, Do not disturb me; the door is already shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise up to give [it] thee? <sup>8</sup>— I say to you, Although he will not get up and give [them] to him because he is his friend, because of his shamelessness, at any rate, he will rise and give him as many as he wants. <sup>9</sup> And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For every one that asks receives; and he that seeks finds; and to him that knocks it will be opened. <sup>11</sup> But of whom of you that is a father shall a son ask bread, and [the father] shall give him a stone? or also a fish, and instead of a fish shall give him a serpent? <sup>12</sup> or if also he shall ask an egg, shall give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If therefore ye, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much rather shall the Father who is of heaven give [the] Holy Spirit to them that ask him? <sup>14</sup> And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb; and it came to pass, the demon being gone out, the dumb [man] spoke. And the crowds wondered. <sup>15</sup> But some from among them said, By Beelzebub the prince of the demons casts he out demons. <sup>16</sup> And others tempting [him] sought from him a sign out of heaven. <sup>17</sup> But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation: and a house set against a house falls; <sup>18</sup> and if also Satan is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom subsist? because ye say that I cast out demons by Beelzebub. <sup>19</sup> But if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, your sons — by whom do they cast [them] out? For this reason they shall be your judges. <sup>20</sup> But if by the finger of °God I cast out demons, then the kingdom of °God is come upon you. <sup>21</sup> When the strong [man] armed keeps his own house, his goods are in peace; <sup>22</sup> but when the stronger than he coming upon [him] overcomes him, he takes away his panoply in which he trusted, and he will divide the spoil [he has taken] from him. <sup>23</sup> He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathers not with me scatters. <sup>24</sup> When the unclean spirit has gone out of the man, he goes through dry places seeking rest; and not finding [any] he says, I will return to my house whence I came out. <sup>25</sup> And having come, he finds it swept and adorned. <sup>26</sup> Then he goes and takes seven other spirits worse than himself, and entering in, they dwell there; and the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. <sup>27</sup> And it came to pass as he spake these things, a certain woman, lifting up her voice out of the crowd, said to him, Blessed is the womb that has borne thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. <sup>28</sup> But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they who hear the word of °God and keep [it]. <sup>29</sup> But as the crowds thronged together, he began to say, This generation is a wicked generation: it seeks a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it but the sign of Jonas. <sup>30</sup> For as Jonas was a sign to the Ninevites, thus shall also the Son of man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> A queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, more than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup> Men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold, more than Jonas is here. <sup>33</sup> But no one having lit a lamp sets it in secret, nor under the corn-measure, but on the lamp-stand, that they who enter in may see the light. <sup>34</sup> The lamp of the body is thine eye: when thine eye is simple, thy whole body also is light; but when it is wicked, thy body also is dark. <sup>35</sup> See therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. <sup>36</sup> If therefore thy whole body [is] light, not having any part dark, it shall be all light as when the lamp lights thee with its brightness. <sup>37</sup> But as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him that he would dine with him; and entering in he placed himself at table. <sup>38</sup> But the Pharisee seeing [it] wondered that he had not first washed before dinner. <sup>39</sup> But the Lord said to him, Now do ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but your inward [parts] are full of plunder and wickedness. <sup>40</sup> Fools, has not he who has made the outside made the inside also? <sup>41</sup> But rather give alms of what ye have, and behold, all things are clean to you. <sup>42</sup> But woe unto you, Pharisees, for ye pay tithes of mint and rue and every herb, and pass by the judgment and the love of °God: these ye ought to have done, and not have left those aside. <sup>43</sup> Woe unto you, Pharisees, for ye love the first seat in the synagogues and salutations in the market-places. <sup>44</sup> Woe unto you, for ye are as the sepulchres which appear not, and the men walking over them do not know [it]. <sup>45</sup> And one of the doctors of the law answering says to him, Teacher, in saying these things thou insultest us also. <sup>46</sup> And he said, To you also woe, doctors of the law, for ye lay upon men burdens heavy to bear, and yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup> Woe unto you, for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, but your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup> Ye bear witness then, and consent to the works of your fathers; for they killed them, and ye build [their sepulchres]. <sup>49</sup> For this reason also the wisdom of °God has said, I will send to them prophets and apostles, and of these shall they kill and drive out by persecution, <sup>50</sup> that the blood of all the prophets which has been poured out from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who perished between the altar and the house; yea, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation. <sup>52</sup> Woe unto you, the doctors of the law, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge; yourselves have not entered in, and those who were entering in ye have hindered. <sup>53</sup> And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him urgently, and to make him speak of many things; <sup>54</sup> watching him, [and seeking] to catch something out of his mouth, [that they might accuse him].

brought forth abundantly. <sup>17</sup> And he reasoned within himself saying, What shall I do? for I have not [a place] where I shall lay up my fruits. <sup>18</sup> And he said, This will I do: I will take away my granaries and build greater, and there I will lay up all my produce and my good things; <sup>19</sup> and I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much good things laid by for many years; repose thyself, eat, drink, be merry. <sup>20</sup> But °God said to him, Fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; and whose shall be what thou hast prepared? <sup>21</sup> Thus is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward °God. <sup>22</sup> And he said to his disciples, For this cause I say unto you, Be not careful for life, what ye shall eat, nor for the body, what ye shall put on. <sup>23</sup> The life is more than food, and the body than raiment. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens, that they sow not nor reap; which have neither storehouse nor granary; and °God feeds them. How much better are ye than the birds? <sup>25</sup> But which of you by being careful can add to his stature one cubit? <sup>26</sup> If therefore ye cannot [do] even what is least, why are ye careful about the rest? <sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; but I say unto you, Not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these. <sup>28</sup> But if °God thus clothe the grass, which to-day is in the field and to-morrow is cast into [the] oven, how much rather you, O ye of little faith? <sup>29</sup> And ye, seek not what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink, and be not in anxiety; <sup>30</sup> for all these things do the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that ye have need of these things; <sup>31</sup> but seek his kingdom, and [all] these things shall be added to you. <sup>32</sup> Fear not, little flock, for it has been the good pleasure of your Father to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup> Sell what ye possess and give alms; make to yourselves purses which do not grow old, a treasure which does not fail in the heavens, where thief does not draw near nor moth destroy. <sup>34</sup> For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be. <sup>35</sup> Let your loins be girded about, and lamps burning; <sup>36</sup> and ye like men who wait their own lord whenever he may leave the wedding, that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately. <sup>37</sup> Blessed are those bondmen whom the lord [on] coming shall find watching; verily I say unto you, that he will gird himself and make them recline at table, and coming up will serve them. <sup>38</sup> And if he come in the second watch, and come in the third watch, and find [them] thus, blessed are those [bondmen]. <sup>39</sup> But this know, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be dug through. <sup>40</sup> And ye therefore, be ye ready, for in the hour in which ye do not think [it], the Son of man comes. <sup>41</sup> And Peter said to him, Lord, sayest thou this parable to us, or also to all? <sup>42</sup> And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and prudent steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give the measure of corn in season? <sup>43</sup> Blessed is that bondman whom his lord [on] coming shall find doing thus; <sup>44</sup> verily I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he has. <sup>45</sup> But if that bondman should say in his heart, My lord delays to come, and begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and to drink and to be drunken, <sup>46</sup> the lord of that bondman shall come in a day when he does not expect it, and in an hour he knows not of, and shall cut him in two and appoint his portion with the unbelievers. <sup>47</sup> But that bondman who knew his own lord's will, and had not prepared [himself] nor done his will, shall be beaten with many [stripes]; <sup>48</sup> but he who knew [it] not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few. And to every one to whom much has been given, much shall be required from him; and to whom [men] have committed much, they will ask from him the more. <sup>49</sup> I have come to cast a fire on the earth; and what will I if already it has been kindled? <sup>50</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptised with, and how am I straitened until it shall have been accomplished! <sup>51</sup> Think ye that I have come to give peace in the earth? Nay, I say to you, but rather division: <sup>52</sup> for from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided; three shall be divided against two, and two against three: <sup>53</sup> father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. <sup>54</sup> And he said also to the crowds, When ye see a cloud rising out of the west, straightway ye say, A shower is coming; and so it happens. <sup>55</sup> And when [ye see] the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it happens. <sup>56</sup> Hypocrites, ye know how to judge of the appearance of the earth and of the heaven; how [is it then that] ye do not discern this time? <sup>57</sup> And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? <sup>58</sup> For as thou goest with thine adverse party before a magistrate, strive in the way to be reconciled with him, lest he drag thee away to the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. <sup>59</sup> I say unto thee, Thou shalt in no wise come out thence until thou hast paid the very last mite.

<sup>1</sup> Now at the same time there were present some who told him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate mingled with [that of] their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> And he answering said to them, Think ye that these Galileans were sinners beyond all the Galileans because they suffered such things? <sup>3</sup> No, I say to you, but if ye repent not, ye shall all perish in the same manner. <sup>4</sup> Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, think ye that they were debtors beyond all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup> No, I say to you, but if ye repent not, ye shall all perish in like manner. <sup>6</sup> And he spoke this parable: A certain [man] had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit upon it and did not find [any]. <sup>7</sup> And he said to the vinedresser, Behold, [these] three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree and find none: cut it down; why does it also render the ground useless? <sup>8</sup> But he answering says to him, Sir, let it alone for this year also, until I shall dig about it and put dung, <sup>9</sup> and if it shall bear fruit — but if not, after that thou shalt cut it down. <sup>10</sup> And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. <sup>11</sup> And lo, [there was] a woman having a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent together and wholly unable to lift her head up. <sup>12</sup> And Jesus, seeing her, called to [her], and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. <sup>13</sup> And he laid his hands upon her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified °God. <sup>14</sup> But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus healed on the sabbath, answering said to the crowd, There are six days in which [people] ought to work; in these therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. <sup>15</sup> The Lord therefore answered him and said, Hypocrites! does not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the manger and leading [it] away, water [it]? <sup>16</sup> And this [woman], who is a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound, lo, [these] eighteen years, ought she not to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? <sup>17</sup> And as he said these things, all who were opposed to him were ashamed; and all the crowd rejoiced at all the glorious things which were being done by him. <sup>18</sup> And he said, To what is the kingdom of °God like? and to what shall I liken it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a grain of mustard [seed] which a man took and cast into his garden; and it grew and became a great tree, and the birds of heaven lodged in its branches. <sup>20</sup> And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of °God? <sup>21</sup> It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened. <sup>22</sup> And he went through one city and village after another, teaching, and journeying to Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> And one said to him, Sir, [are] such as are to be saved few in number? But he said unto them, <sup>24</sup> Strive with earnestness to enter in through the narrow door, for many, I say to you, will seek to enter in and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> From the time that the master of the house shall have risen up and shall have shut the door, and ye shall begin to stand without and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us; and he answering shall say to you, I know you not whence ye are: <sup>26</sup> then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten in thy presence and drunk, and thou hast taught in our streets; <sup>27</sup> and he shall say, I tell you, I do not know you whence ye are; depart from me, all [ye] workers of iniquity. <sup>28</sup> There shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of °God, but yourselves cast out. <sup>29</sup> And they shall come from east and west, and from north and south, and shall lie down at table in the kingdom of °God. <sup>30</sup> And behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last. <sup>31</sup> The same hour certain Pharisees came up, saying to him, Get out, and go hence, for Herod is desirous to kill thee. <sup>32</sup> And he said to them, Go, tell that fox, Behold, I cast out demons and accomplish cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third [day] I am perfected; <sup>33</sup> but I must needs walk to-day and to-morrow and the [day] following, for it must not be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup> Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the [city] that kills the prophets and stones those that are sent unto her, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen her brood under her wings, and ye would not. <sup>35</sup> Behold, your house is left unto you; and I say unto you, that ye shall not see me until it come that ye say, Blessed [is] he that comes in the name of [the] Lord.

14

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the rulers, [who was] of the Pharisees, to eat bread on [the] sabbath, that they were watching him. <sup>2</sup> And behold, there was a certain dropsical [man] before him. <sup>3</sup> And Jesus answering spoke unto the doctors of the law and

Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? <sup>4</sup> But they were silent. And taking him he healed him and let him go. <sup>5</sup> And answering he said to them, Of which of you shall an ass or ox fall into a well, that he does not straightway pull him up on the sabbath day? <sup>6</sup> And they were not able to answer him to these things. <sup>7</sup> And he spoke a parable to those that were invited, remarking how they chose out the first places, saying to them, <sup>8</sup> When thou art invited by any one to a wedding, do not lay thyself down in the first place at table, lest perhaps a more honourable than thou be invited by him, <sup>9</sup> and he who invited thee and him come and say to thee, Give place to this [man], and then thou begin with shame to take the last place. <sup>10</sup> But when thou hast been invited, go and put thyself down in the last place, that when he who has invited thee comes, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honour before all that are lying at table with thee; <sup>11</sup> for every one that exalts himself shall be abased, and he that abases himself shall be exalted. <sup>12</sup> And he said also to him that had invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsfolk, nor rich neighbours, lest it may be they also should invite thee in return, and a recompense be made thee. <sup>13</sup> But when thou makest a feast, call poor, crippled, lame, blind: <sup>14</sup> and thou shalt be blessed; for they have not [the means] to recompense thee; for it shall be recompensed thee in the resurrection of the just. <sup>15</sup> And one of those that were lying at table with [them], hearing these things, said to him, Blessed [is] he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>16</sup> And he said to him, A certain man made a great supper and invited many. <sup>17</sup> And he sent his bondman at the hour of supper to say to those who were invited, Come, for already all things are ready. <sup>18</sup> And all began, without exception, to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I have bought land, and I must go out and see it; I pray thee hold me for excused. <sup>19</sup> And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee hold me for excused. <sup>20</sup> And another said, I have married a wife, and on this account I cannot come. <sup>21</sup> And the bondman came up and brought back word of these things to his lord. Then the master of the house, in anger, said to his bondman, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring here the poor and crippled and lame and blind. <sup>22</sup> And the bondman said, Sir, it is done as thou hast commanded, and there is still room. <sup>23</sup> And the lord said to the bondman, Go out into the ways and fences and compel to come in, that my house may be filled; <sup>24</sup> for I say to you, that not one of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper. <sup>25</sup> And great crowds went with him; and, turning round, he said to them, <sup>26</sup> If any man come to me, and shall not hate his own father and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yea, and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple; <sup>27</sup> and whoever does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup> For which of you, desirous of building a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, if he have what [is needed] to complete it; <sup>29</sup> in order that, having laid the foundation of it, and not being able to finish it, all who see it do not begin to mock at him, <sup>30</sup> saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish? <sup>31</sup> Or what king, going on his way to engage in war with another king, does not, sitting down first, take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> and if not, while he is yet far off, having sent an embassy, he asks for terms of peace. <sup>33</sup> Thus then every one of you who forsakes not all that is his own cannot be my disciple. <sup>34</sup> Salt [then] [is] good, but if the salt also has become savourless, wherewith shall it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup> It is proper neither for land nor for dung; it is cast out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> And having called one of the servants, he inquired what these things might be. <sup>27</sup> And he said to him, Thy brother is come, and thy father has killed the fatted calf because he has received him safe and well. <sup>28</sup> But he became angry and would not go in. And his father went out and besought him. <sup>29</sup> But he answering said to his father, Behold, so many years I serve thee, and never have I transgressed a commandment of thine; and to me hast thou never given a kid that I might make merry with my friends: <sup>30</sup> but when this thy son, who has devoured thy substance with harlots, is come, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. <sup>31</sup> But he said to him, Child, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. <sup>32</sup> But it was right to make merry and rejoice, because this thy brother was dead and has come to life again, and was lost and has been found.

<sup>1</sup> And he said also to [his] disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and he was accused to him as wasting his goods. <sup>2</sup> And having called him, he said to him, What [is] this that I hear of thee? give the reckoning of thy stewardship, for thou canst be no longer steward. <sup>3</sup> And the steward said within himself, What shall I do; for my lord is taking the stewardship from me? I am not able to dig; I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I know what I will do, that when I shall have been removed from the stewardship I may be received into their houses. <sup>5</sup> And having called to [him] each one of the debtors of his own lord, he said to the first, How much owest thou to my lord? <sup>6</sup> And he said, A hundred baths of oil. And he said to him, Take thy writing and sit down quickly and write fifty. <sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, And thou, how much dost thou owe? And he said, A hundred cors of wheat. And he says to him, Take thy writing and write eighty. <sup>8</sup> And the lord praised the unrighteous steward because he had done prudently. For the sons of this world are, for their own generation, more prudent than the sons of light. <sup>9</sup> And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends with the mammon of unrighteousness, that when it fails ye may be received into the eternal tabernacles. <sup>10</sup> He that is faithful in the least is faithful also in much; and he that is unrighteous in the least is unrighteous also in much. <sup>11</sup> If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who shall entrust to you the true? <sup>12</sup> and if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give to you your own? <sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or he will cleave to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve <sup>o</sup>God and mammon. <sup>14</sup> And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and mocked him. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, Ye are they who justify themselves before men, but <sup>o</sup>God knows your hearts; for what amongst men is highly thought of is an abomination before <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>16</sup> The law and the prophets [were] until John: from that time the glad tidings of the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God are announced, and every one forces his way into it. <sup>17</sup> But it is easier that the heaven and the earth should pass away than that one tittle of the law should fail. <sup>18</sup> Every one who puts away his wife and marries another commits adultery; and every one that marries one put away from a husband commits adultery. <sup>19</sup> Now there was a rich man and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, making good cheer in splendour every day. <sup>20</sup> And [there was] a poor man, by name Lazarus, [who] was laid at his gateway full of sores, <sup>21</sup> and desiring to be filled with the crumbs which fell from the table of the rich man; but the dogs also coming licked his sores. <sup>22</sup> And it came to pass that the poor man died, and that he was carried away by the angels into the bosom of Abraham. And the rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup> And in hades lifting up his eyes, being in torments, he sees Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. <sup>24</sup> And he crying out said, Father Abraham, have compassion on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering in this flame. <sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, Child, recollect that thou hast fully received thy good things in thy lifetime, and likewise Lazarus evil things. But now he is comforted here, and thou art in suffering. <sup>26</sup> And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm is fixed, so that those who desire to pass hence to you cannot, nor do they who [desire to cross] from there pass over unto us. <sup>27</sup> And he said, I beseech thee then, father, that thou wouldest send him to the house of my father, <sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers, so that he may earnestly testify to them, that they also may not come to this place of torment. <sup>29</sup> But Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them. <sup>30</sup> But he said, Nay, father Abraham, but if one from the dead should go to them, they will repent. <sup>31</sup> And he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, not even if one rise from among [the] dead will they be persuaded.

<sup>1</sup> And he said to his disciples, It cannot be but that offences come, but woe [to him] by whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It would be [more] profitable for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck and he cast into the sea, than that he should be a snare to one of these little ones. <sup>3</sup> Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother should sin, rebuke him; and if he should repent, forgive him. <sup>4</sup> And if he should sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times should return to thee, saying, I repent, thou shalt forgive him. <sup>5</sup> And the apostles said to the Lord, Give more faith to us. <sup>6</sup> But the Lord said, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard [seed], ye had said to this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea, and it would have obeyed you. <sup>7</sup> But which of you [is there] who, having a bondman ploughing or shepherding, when he comes in out of the field, will say, Come and lie down immediately to table? <sup>8</sup> But will he not say to him, Prepare what I shall sup on, and gird thyself and serve me that I may eat and drink; and after that thou shalt eat and drink? <sup>9</sup> Is he thankful to the bondman because he has done what was ordered? I judge not. <sup>10</sup> Thus ye also, when ye shall have done all things that have been ordered you, say, We are unprofitable bondmen; we have done what it was our duty to do. <sup>11</sup> And it came to pass as he was going up to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> And as he entered into a certain village ten leprous men met him, who stood afar off. <sup>13</sup> And they lifted up [their] voice saying, Jesus, Master, have compassion on us. <sup>14</sup> And seeing [them] he said to them, Go, shew yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass as they were going they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup> And one of them, seeing that he was cured, turned back, glorifying °God with a loud voice, <sup>16</sup> and fell on [his] face at his feet giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup> And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but the nine, where [are they]? <sup>18</sup> There have not been found to return and give glory to °God save this stranger. <sup>19</sup> And he said to him, Rise up and go thy way: thy faith has made thee well. <sup>20</sup> And having been asked by the Pharisees, When is the kingdom of °God coming? he answered them and said, The kingdom of °God does not come with observation; <sup>21</sup> nor shall they say, Lo here, or, Lo there; for behold, the kingdom of °God is in the midst of you. <sup>22</sup> And he said to the disciples, Days are coming, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and shall not see [it]. <sup>23</sup> And they will say to you, Lo here, or Lo there; go not, nor follow [them]. <sup>24</sup> For as the lightning shines which lightens from [one end] under heaven to [the other end] under heaven, thus shall the Son of man be in his day. <sup>25</sup> But first he must suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. <sup>26</sup> And as it took place in the days of Noe, thus also shall it be in the days of the Son of man: <sup>27</sup> they ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed all [of them]; <sup>28</sup> and in like manner as took place in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; <sup>29</sup> but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulphur from heaven, and destroyed all [of them]: <sup>30</sup> after this [manner] shall it be in the day that the Son of man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> In that day, he who shall be on the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not go down to take it away; and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. <sup>32</sup> Remember the wife of Lot. <sup>33</sup> Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it, and whosoever shall lose it shall preserve it. <sup>34</sup> I say to you, In that night there shall be two [men] upon one bed; one shall be seized and the other shall be let go. <sup>35</sup> Two [women] shall be grinding together; the one shall be seized and the other shall be let go. <sup>36</sup> [Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be seized and the other let go.] <sup>37</sup> And answering they say to him, Where, Lord? And he said to them, Where the body [is], there the eagles will be gathered together.

<sup>1</sup> And he spoke also a parable to them to the purport that they should always pray and not faint, <sup>2</sup> saying, There was a judge in a city, not fearing °God and not respecting man: <sup>3</sup> and there was a widow in that city, and she came to him, saying, Avenge me of mine adverse party. <sup>4</sup> And he would not for a time; but afterwards he said within himself, If even I fear not °God and respect not man, <sup>5</sup> at any rate because this widow annoys me I will avenge her; that she may not by perpetually coming completely harass me. <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge says. <sup>7</sup> And shall not °God at all avenge his elect, who cry to him day and night, and he bears long as to them? <sup>8</sup> I say unto you that he will avenge them speedily. But when the Son of man comes, shall he indeed find faith on the earth? <sup>9</sup> And he spoke also to some, who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and made nothing of all the rest [of men], this parable: <sup>10</sup> Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax-gatherer. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee, standing, prayed thus to himself: °God, I thank thee that I am not as the rest of men, rapacious, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax-gatherer. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice in the week, I tithe everything I gain. <sup>13</sup> And the tax-gatherer, standing afar off, would not lift up even his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, O °God, have compassion on me, the sinner. <sup>14</sup> I say unto you, This [man] went down to his house justified rather than that [other]. For every one who exalts himself shall be humbled, and he that humbles himself shall be exalted. <sup>15</sup> And they brought to him also infants that he might touch them, but the disciples when they saw [it] rebuked them. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus calling them to [him] said, Suffer little children to come to me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of °God. <sup>17</sup> Verily I say to you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of °God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein. <sup>18</sup> And a certain ruler asked him saying, Good teacher, having done what, shall I inherit eternal life? <sup>19</sup> But Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, °God. <sup>20</sup> Thou knowest the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. <sup>21</sup> And he said, All these things have I kept from my youth. <sup>22</sup> And when Jesus had heard this, he said to him, One thing is lacking to thee yet: Sell all that thou hast and distribute to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in the heavens, and come, follow me. <sup>23</sup> But when he heard this he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup> But when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, he said, How difficultly shall those who have riches enter into the kingdom of °God; <sup>25</sup> for it is easier for a camel to enter through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of °God. <sup>26</sup> And those who heard it said, And who can be saved? <sup>27</sup> But he said, The things that are impossible with men are possible with °God. <sup>28</sup> And Peter said, Behold, we have left all things and have followed thee. <sup>29</sup> And he said to them, Verily I say to you, There is no one who has left home, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of °God's sake, <sup>30</sup> who shall not receive manifold more at this time, and in the coming age life eternal. <sup>31</sup> And he took the twelve to [him] and said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written of the Son of man by the prophets shall be accomplished; <sup>32</sup> for he shall be delivered up to the nations, and shall be mocked, and insulted, and spit upon. <sup>33</sup> And when they have scourged [him] they will kill him; and on the third day he will rise again. <sup>34</sup> And they understood nothing of these things. And this word was hidden from them, and they did not know what was said. <sup>35</sup> And it came to pass when he came into the neighbourhood of Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging. <sup>36</sup> And when he heard the crowd passing, he inquired what this might be. <sup>37</sup> And they told him that Jesus the Nazaraean was passing by.

<sup>38</sup> And he called out saying, Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me. <sup>39</sup> And those [who were] going before rebuked him that he might be silent; but he cried out so much the more, Son of David, have mercy on me. <sup>40</sup> And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be led to him. And when he drew nigh he asked him [saying], <sup>41</sup> What wilt thou that I shall do to thee? And he said, Lord, that I may see. <sup>42</sup> And Jesus said to him, See: thy faith has healed thee. <sup>43</sup> And immediately he saw, and followed him, glorifying °God. And all the people when they saw [it] gave praise to °God.

<sup>1</sup> And he entered and passed through Jericho. <sup>2</sup> And behold, [there was] a man by name called Zacchaeus, and he was chief tax-gatherer, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup> And he sought to see Jesus who he was: and he could not for the crowd, because he was little in stature. <sup>4</sup> And running on before, he got up into a sycamore that he might see him, for he was going to pass that [way]. <sup>5</sup> And when he came up to the place, Jesus looked up and saw him, and said to him, Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for to-day I must remain in thy house. <sup>6</sup> And he made haste and came down, and received him with joy. <sup>7</sup> And all murmured when they saw [it], saying, He has turned in to lodge with a sinful man. <sup>8</sup> But Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I return [him] fourfold. <sup>9</sup> And Jesus said to him, To-day salvation is come to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham; <sup>10</sup> for the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which is lost. <sup>11</sup> But as they were listening to these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of °God was about to be immediately manifested. <sup>12</sup> He said therefore, A certain high-born man went to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and return. <sup>13</sup> And having called his own ten bondmen, he gave to them ten minas, and said to them, Trade while I am coming. <sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him, and sent an embassy after him, saying, We will not that this [man] should reign over us. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass on his arrival back again, having received the kingdom, that he desired these bondmen to whom he gave the money to be called to him, in order that he might know what every one had gained by trading. <sup>16</sup> And the first came up, saying, [My] Lord, thy mina has produced ten minas. <sup>17</sup> And he said to him, Well [done], thou good bondman; because thou hast been faithful in that which is least, be thou in authority over ten cities. <sup>18</sup> And the second came, saying, [My] Lord, thy mina has made five minas. <sup>19</sup> And he said also to this one, And thou, be over five cities. <sup>20</sup> And another came, saying, [My] Lord, lo, [there is] thy mina, which I have kept laid up in a towel. <sup>21</sup> For I feared thee because thou art a harsh man: thou takest up what thou hast not laid down, and thou reapest what thou hast not sowed. <sup>22</sup> He says to him, Out of thy mouth will I judge thee, wicked bondman: thou knewest that I am a harsh man, taking up what I have not laid down and reaping what I have not sowed. <sup>23</sup> And why didst thou not give my money to [the] bank; and I should have received it, at my coming, with interest? <sup>24</sup> And he said to those that stood by, Take from him the mina and give [it] to him who has the ten minas. <sup>25</sup> And they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas. <sup>26</sup> For I say unto you, that to every one that has shall be given; but from him that has not, that even which he has shall be taken from him. <sup>27</sup> Moreover those mine enemies, who would not [have] me to reign over them, bring them here and slay [them] before me. <sup>28</sup> And having said these things, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> And it came to pass as he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany at the mountain called [the mount] of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, Go into the village over against [you], in which ye will find, on entering it, a colt tied up, on which no [child] of man ever sat at any time: loose it and lead it [here]. <sup>31</sup> And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose [it]? thus shall ye say to him, Because the Lord has need of it. <sup>32</sup> And they that were sent, having gone their way, found as he had said to them. <sup>33</sup> And as they were loosing the colt, its masters said to them, Why loose ye the colt? <sup>34</sup> And they said, Because the Lord has need of it. <sup>35</sup> And they led it to Jesus; and having cast their own garments on the colt, they put Jesus on [it]. <sup>36</sup> And as he went, they strewed their clothes in the way. <sup>37</sup> And as he drew near, already at the descent of the mount of Olives, all the multitude of the disciples began, rejoicing, to praise °God with a loud voice for all the works of power which they had seen, <sup>38</sup> saying, Blessed the King that comes in the name of [the] Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. <sup>39</sup> And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, Teacher, rebuke thy disciples. <sup>40</sup> And he answering said to them, I say unto you, If these shall be silent, the stones will cry out. <sup>41</sup> And as he drew near, seeing the city, he wept over it, <sup>42</sup> saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, even at least in this thy day, the things that are for thy peace: but now they are hid from thine eyes; <sup>43</sup> for days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall make a palisaded mound about thee, and shall close thee around, and keep thee in on every side, <sup>44</sup> and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children in thee; and shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone: because thou knewest not the season of thy visitation. <sup>45</sup> And entering into the temple, he began to cast out those that sold and bought in it, <sup>46</sup> saying to them, It is written, My house is a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of robbers. <sup>47</sup> And he was teaching day by day in the temple: and the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, <sup>48</sup> and did not find what they could do, for all the people hung on him to hear.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass on one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and announcing the glad tidings, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up, <sup>2</sup> and spoke to him saying, Tell us by what authority thou doest these things, or who is it who has given thee this authority? <sup>3</sup> And he answering said to them, I also will ask you [one] thing, and tell me: <sup>4</sup> The baptism of John, was it of heaven or of men? <sup>5</sup> And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we should say, Of heaven, he will say, Why have ye not believed him? <sup>6</sup> but if we should say, Of men, the whole people will stone us, for they are persuaded that

John was a prophet. <sup>7</sup> And they answered, they did not know whence. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>9</sup> And he began to speak to the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard and let it out to husbandmen, and left the country for a long time. <sup>10</sup> And in the season he sent to the husbandmen a bondman, that they might give to him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen, having beaten him, sent [him] away empty. <sup>11</sup> And again he sent another bondman; but they, having beaten him also, and cast insult upon him, sent [him] away empty. <sup>12</sup> And again he sent a third; and they, having wounded him also, cast [him] out. <sup>13</sup> And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: perhaps when they see him they will respect [him]. <sup>14</sup> But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; [come,] let us kill him, that the inheritance may become ours. <sup>15</sup> And having cast him forth out of the vineyard, they killed [him]. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy those husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it they said, May it never be! <sup>17</sup> But he looking at them said, What then is this that is written, The stone which they that builded rejected, this has become the corner-stone? <sup>18</sup> Every one falling on this stone shall be broken, but on whomsoever it shall fall, it shall grind him to powder. <sup>19</sup> And the chief priests and the scribes sought the same hour to lay hands on him, and they feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken this parable of them. <sup>20</sup> And having watched [him], they sent out suborned persons, pretending to be just men, that they might take hold of him in [his] language, so that they might deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup> And they asked him saying, Teacher, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest no [man's] person, but teachest with truth the way of <sup>o</sup>God: <sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not? <sup>23</sup> But perceiving their deceit he said to them, Why do ye tempt me? <sup>24</sup> Shew me a denarius. Whose image and superscription has it? And answering they said, Caesar's. <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, Pay therefore what is Caesar's to Caesar, and what is <sup>o</sup>God's to <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>26</sup> And they were not able to take hold of him in [his] expressions before the people, and, wondering at his answer, they were silent. <sup>27</sup> And some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection, coming up [to him], <sup>28</sup> demanded of him saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If any one's brother, who has a wife, die, and he die childless, his brother shall take the wife and raise up seed to his brother. <sup>29</sup> There were then seven brethren: and the first, having taken a wife, died childless; <sup>30</sup> and the second [took the woman, and he died childless]; <sup>31</sup> and the third took her: and in like manner also the seven left no children and died; <sup>32</sup> and last of all the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> In the resurrection therefore of which of them does she become wife, for the seven had her as wife? <sup>34</sup> And Jesus said to them, The sons of this world marry and are given in marriage, <sup>35</sup> but they who are counted worthy to have part in that world, and the resurrection from among [the] dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage; <sup>36</sup> for neither can they die any more, for they are equal to angels, and are sons of °God, being sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> But that the dead rise, even Moses shewed in [the section of] the bush, when he called [the] Lord the °God of Abraham and the °God of Isaac and the °God of Jacob; <sup>38</sup> but he is not °God of [the] dead but of [the] living; for all live for him. <sup>39</sup> And some of the scribes answering said, Teacher, thou hast well spoken. <sup>40</sup> For they did not dare any more to ask him anything. <sup>41</sup> And he said to them, How do they say that the Christ is David's son, <sup>42</sup> and David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand <sup>43</sup> until I put thine enemies [as] footstool of thy feet? <sup>44</sup> David therefore calls him Lord, and how is he his son? <sup>45</sup> And, as all the people were listening, he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup> Beware of the scribes, who like to walk about in long robes, and who love salutations in the market-places, and first seats in the synagogues, and first places at suppers; <sup>47</sup> who devour the houses of widows, and as a pretext make long prayers. These shall receive a severer judgment.

who are in the country not enter into it; <sup>22</sup> for these are days of avenging, that all the things that are written may be accomplished. <sup>23</sup> But woe to them that are with child and to them who give suck in those days, for there shall be great distress upon the land and wrath upon this people. <sup>24</sup> And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and be led captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of [the] nations until [the] times of [the] nations be fulfilled. <sup>25</sup> And there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars, and upon the earth distress of nations in perplexity [at] the roar of the sea and rolling waves, <sup>26</sup> men ready to die through fear and expectation of what is coming on the habitable earth, for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. <sup>27</sup> And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup> But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws nigh. <sup>29</sup> And he spoke a parable to them: Behold the fig-tree and all the trees; <sup>30</sup> when they already sprout, ye know of your own selves, [on] looking [at them], that already the summer is near. <sup>31</sup> So also ye, when ye see these things take place, know that the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God is near. <sup>32</sup> Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall in no wise pass away until all come to pass. <sup>33</sup> The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but my words shall in no wise pass away. <sup>34</sup> But take heed to yourselves lest possibly your hearts be laden with surfeiting and drinking and cares of life, and that day come upon you suddenly unawares; <sup>35</sup> for as a snare shall it come upon all them that dwell upon the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> Watch therefore, praying at every season, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things which are about to come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. <sup>37</sup> And by day he was teaching in the temple, and by night, going out, he remained abroad on the mountain called [the mount] of Olives; <sup>38</sup> and all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

when the hour was come, he placed himself at table, and the [twelve] apostles with him. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup> For I say unto you, that I will not eat any more at all of it until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of °God. <sup>17</sup> And having received a cup, when he had given thanks he said, Take this and divide it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup> For I say unto you, that I will not drink at all of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of °God come. <sup>19</sup> And having taken a loaf, when he had given thanks, he broke [it], and gave [it] to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. <sup>20</sup> In like manner also the cup, after having supped, saying, This cup [is] the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>21</sup> Moreover, behold, the hand of him that delivers me up [is] with me on the table; <sup>22</sup> and the Son of man indeed goes as it is determined, but woe unto that man by whom he is delivered up. <sup>23</sup> And they began to question together among themselves who then it could be of them who was about to do this. <sup>24</sup> And there was also a strife among them which of them should be held to be [the] greatest. <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, The kings of the nations rule over them, and they that exercise authority over them are called benefactors. <sup>26</sup> But ye [shall] not [be] thus; but let the greater among you be as the younger, and the leader as he that serves. <sup>27</sup> For which [is] greater, he that is at table or he that serves? [Is] not he that is at table? But I am in the midst of you as the one that serves. <sup>28</sup> But ye are they who have persevered with me in my temptations. <sup>29</sup> And I appoint unto you, as my Father has appointed unto me, a kingdom, <sup>30</sup> that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>31</sup> And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has demanded to have you, to sift [you] as wheat; <sup>32</sup> but I have besought for thee that thy faith fail not; and thou, when once thou hast been restored, confirm thy brethren. <sup>33</sup> And he said to him, Lord, with thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death. <sup>34</sup> And he said, I tell thee, Peter, [the] cock shall not crow to-day before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. <sup>35</sup> And he said to them, When I sent you without purse and scrip and sandals, did ye lack anything? And they said, Nothing. <sup>36</sup> He said therefore to them, But now he that has a purse let him take [it], in like manner also a scrip, and he that has none let him sell his garment and buy a sword; <sup>37</sup> for I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned with [the] lawless: for also the things concerning me have an end. <sup>38</sup> And they said, Lord, behold here are two swords. And he said to them, It is enough. <sup>39</sup> And going forth he went according to his custom to the mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him. <sup>40</sup> And when he was at the place he said to them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. <sup>41</sup> And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and having knelt down he prayed, <sup>42</sup> saying, Father, if thou wilt remove this cup from me: — but then, not my will, but thine be done. <sup>43</sup> And an angel appeared to him from heaven strengthening him. <sup>44</sup> And being in conflict he prayed more intently. And his sweat became as great drops of blood, falling down upon the earth. <sup>45</sup> And rising up from his prayer, coming to the disciples, he found them sleeping from grief.

46 And he said to them, Why sleep ye? rise up and pray that ye enter not into temptation. 47 As he was yet speaking, behold, a crowd, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went on before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him. 48 And Jesus said to him, Judas, deliverest thou up the Son of man with a kiss? 49 And they who were around him, seeing what was going to follow, said [to him], Lord, shall we smite with [the] sword? 50 And a certain one from among them smote the bondman of the high priest and took off his right ear. 51 And Jesus answering said, Suffer thus far; and having touched his ear, he healed him. 52 And Jesus said to the chief priests and captains of the temple and elders, who were come against him, Have ye come out as against a robber with swords and sticks? 53 When I was day by day with you in the temple ye did not stretch out your hands against me; but this is your hour and the power of darkness. 54 And having laid hold on him, they led him [away], and they led [him] into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed afar off. 55 And they having lit a fire in the midst of the court and sat down together, Peter sat among them. 56 And a certain maid, having seen him sitting by the light, and having fixed her eyes upon him, said, And this [man] was with him. 57 But he denied [him], saying, Woman, I do not know him. 58 And after a short time another seeing him said, And thou art of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. 59 And after the lapse of about one hour another stoutly maintained it, saying, In truth this [man] also was with him, for also he is a Galilaeen. 60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, [the] cock crew. 61 And the Lord, turning round, looked at Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he said to him, Before [the] cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice. 62 And Peter, going forth without, wept bitterly. 63 And the men who held him mocked him, beating [him]; 64 and covering him up, asked him saying, Prophecy, who is it that struck thee? 65 And they said many other injurious things to him. 66 And when it was day, the elderhood of the people, both [the] chief priests and scribes, were gathered together, and led him into their council, saying, 67 If thou art the Christ, tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, ye will not at all believe; 68 and if I should ask [you], ye would not answer me at all, nor let me go; 69 but henceforth shall the Son of man be sitting on the right hand of the power of °God. 70 And they all said, Thou then art the Son of °God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am. 71 And they said, What need have we any more of witness, for we have heard ourselves out of his mouth?

1 And the whole multitude of them, rising up, led him to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We have found this [man] perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a king. 3 And Pilate demanded of him saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering him said, Thou sayest. 4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, I find no guilt in this man. 5 But they insisted, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judaea, beginning from Galilee even on to here. 6 But

Pilate, having heard Galilee [named], demanded if the man were a Galilaean; <sup>7</sup> and having learned that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, remitted him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in those days. <sup>8</sup> And when Herod saw Jesus he greatly rejoiced, for he had been a long while desirous of seeing him, because of hearing many things concerning him, and he hoped to see some sign done by him; <sup>9</sup> and he questioned him in many words, but he answered him nothing. <sup>10</sup> And the chief priests and the scribes stood and accused him violently. <sup>11</sup> And Herod with his troops having set him at nought and mocked him, having put a splendid robe upon him, sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup> And Pilate and Herod became friends with one another the same day, for they had been at enmity before between themselves. <sup>13</sup> And Pilate, having called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup> said to them, Ye have brought to me this man as turning away the people [to rebellion], and behold, I, having examined him before you, have found nothing criminal in this man as to the things of which ye accuse him; <sup>15</sup> nor Herod either, for I remitted you to him, and behold, nothing worthy of death is done by him. <sup>16</sup> Having chastised him therefore, I will release him. <sup>17</sup> (Now he was obliged to release one for them at the feast.) <sup>18</sup> But they cried out in a mass saying, Away with this [man] and release Barabbas to us; <sup>19</sup> who was one who, for a certain tumult which had taken place in the city, and [for] murder, had been cast into prison. <sup>20</sup> Pilate therefore, desirous to release Jesus, again addressed [them]. <sup>21</sup> But they cried out in reply saying, Crucify, crucify him. <sup>22</sup> And he said the third time to them, What evil then has this [man] done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will chastise him therefore and release him. <sup>23</sup> But they were urgent with loud voices, begging that he might be crucified. And their voices [and those of the chief priests] prevailed. <sup>24</sup> And Pilate adjudged that what they begged should take place. <sup>25</sup> And he released him who, for tumult and murder, had been cast into prison, whom they begged for, and Jesus he delivered up to their will. <sup>26</sup> And as they led him away, they laid hold on a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, coming from the field, and put the cross upon him to bear it behind Jesus. <sup>27</sup> And a great multitude of the people, and of women who wailed and lamented him, followed him. <sup>28</sup> And Jesus turning round to them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep over me, but weep over yourselves and over your children; <sup>29</sup> for behold, days are coming in which they will say, Blessed [are] the barren, and wombs that have not borne, and breasts that have not given suck. <sup>30</sup> Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall upon us; and to the hills, Cover us: <sup>31</sup> for if these things are done in the green tree, what shall take place in the dry? <sup>32</sup> Now two others also, malefactors, were led with him to be put to death. <sup>33</sup> And when they came to the place which is called Skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, the other on the left. <sup>34</sup> And Jesus said, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And, parting out his garments, they cast lots. <sup>35</sup> And the people stood beholding, and the rulers also [with them] sneered, saying, He has saved others; let him save himself if this is the Christ, the chosen one of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>36</sup> And the soldiers also made game of him, coming up offering him vinegar, <sup>37</sup> and saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself. <sup>38</sup> And there was also an inscription [written] over him in Greek, and Roman, and Hebrew letters: This is the King of the Jews. <sup>39</sup> Now one of the malefactors who had been hanged spoke insultingly to him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us. <sup>40</sup> But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost thou too not fear <sup>o</sup>God, thou that art under the same judgment? <sup>41</sup> and we indeed justly, for we receive the just recompense of what we have done; but this [man] has done nothing amiss. <sup>42</sup> And he said to Jesus, Remember me, [Lord,] when thou comest in thy kingdom. <sup>43</sup> And Jesus said to him, Verily I say to thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. <sup>44</sup> And it was about [the] sixth hour, and there came darkness over the whole land until [the] ninth hour. <sup>45</sup> And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple rent in the midst. <sup>46</sup> And Jesus, having cried with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit. And having said this, he expired. <sup>47</sup> Now the centurion, seeing what took place, glorified <sup>o</sup>God, saying, In very deed this man was just. <sup>48</sup> And all the crowds who had come together to that sight, having seen the things that took place, returned, beating [their] breasts. <sup>49</sup> And all those who knew him stood afar off, the women also who had followed him from Galilee, beholding these things. <sup>50</sup> And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councillor, a good man and a just <sup>51</sup> (this [man] had not assented to their counsel and deed), of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who also waited, [himself also,] for the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God <sup>52</sup> — he having gone to Pilate begged the body of Jesus; <sup>53</sup> and having taken it down, wrapped it in fine linen and placed him in a tomb hewn in the rock, where no one had ever been laid. <sup>54</sup> And it was preparation day, and [the] sabbath twilight was coming on. <sup>55</sup> And women, who had come along with him out of Galilee, having followed, saw the sepulchre and how his body was placed. <sup>56</sup> And having returned they prepared aromatic spices and ointments, and remained quiet on the sabbath, according to the commandment.

24

alone, and went away home, wondering at what had happened. <sup>13</sup> And behold, two of them were going on the same day to a village distant sixty stadia from Jerusalem, called Emmaus; <sup>14</sup> and they conversed with one another about all these things which had taken place. <sup>15</sup> And it came to pass as they conversed and reasoned, that Jesus himself drawing nigh, went with them; <sup>16</sup> but their eyes were holden so as not to know him. <sup>17</sup> And he said to them, What discourses are these which pass between you as ye walk, and are downcast? <sup>18</sup> And one [of them], named Cleopas, answering said to him, Thou sojournest alone in Jerusalem, and dost not know what has taken place in it in these days? <sup>19</sup> And he said to them, What things? And they said to him, The things concerning Jesus the Nazaraean, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before °God and all the people; <sup>20</sup> and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to [the] judgment of death and crucified him. <sup>21</sup> But we had hoped that he was [the one] who is about to redeem Israel. But then, besides all these things, it is now, to-day, the third day since these things took place. <sup>22</sup> And withal, certain women from amongst us astonished us, having been very early at the sepulchre, <sup>23</sup> and, not having found his body, came, saying that they also had seen a vision of angels, who say that he is living. <sup>24</sup> And some of those with us went to the sepulchre, and found it so, as the women also had said, but him they saw not. <sup>25</sup> And he said to them, O senseless and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into his glory? <sup>27</sup> And having begun from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. <sup>28</sup> And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he made as though he would go farther. <sup>29</sup> And they constrained him, saying, Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is declining. And he entered in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> And it came to pass as he was at table with them, having taken the bread, he blessed, and having broken it, gave it to them. <sup>31</sup> And their eyes were opened, and they recognised him. And he disappeared from them. <sup>32</sup> And they said to one another, Was not our heart burning in us as he spoke to us on the way, [and] as he opened the scriptures to us? <sup>33</sup> And rising up the same hour, they returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven, and those with them, gathered together, <sup>34</sup> saying, The Lord is indeed risen and has appeared to Simon. <sup>35</sup> And they related what [had happened] on the way, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. <sup>36</sup> And as they were saying these things, he himself stood in their midst, and says to them, Peace [be] unto you. <sup>37</sup> But they, being confounded and being frightened, supposed they beheld a spirit. <sup>38</sup> And he said to them, Why are ye troubled? and why are thoughts rising in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Handle me and see, for a spirit has not flesh and bones as ye see me having. <sup>40</sup> And having said this he shewed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup> But while they yet did not believe for joy, and were wondering, he said to them, Have ye anything here to eat? <sup>42</sup> And they gave him part of a broiled fish and of a honeycomb; <sup>43</sup> and he took it and ate before them. <sup>44</sup> And he said to them, These [are] the words which I spoke to you while I was yet with you, that all that is written concerning me in the law of Moses and prophets and psalms must be fulfilled. <sup>45</sup> Then he opened their understanding to understand the scriptures, <sup>46</sup> and said to them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise from among the dead the third day; <sup>47</sup> and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> And ye are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup> And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but do ye remain in the city till ye be clothed with power from on high. <sup>50</sup> And he led them out as far as Bethany, and having lifted up his hands, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup> And it came to pass as he was blessing them, he was separated from them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> And they, having done him homage, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup> and were continually in the temple praising and blessing °God.

The Gospel According to Saint John

<sup>1</sup> In [the] beginning was the Word, and the Word was with °God, and the Word was °God. <sup>2</sup> He was in the beginning with °God. <sup>3</sup> All things received being through him, and without him not one [thing] received being which has received being. <sup>4</sup> In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup> And the light appears in darkness, and the darkness apprehended it not. <sup>6</sup> There was a man sent from °God, his name John. <sup>7</sup> He came for witness, that he might witness concerning the light, that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup> He was not the light, but that he might witness concerning the light. <sup>9</sup> The true light was that which, coming into the world, lightens every man. <sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world had [its] being through him, and the world knew him not. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own, and his own received him not; <sup>12</sup> but as many as received him, to them gave he [the] right to be children of °God, to those that believe on his name; <sup>13</sup> who have been born, not of blood, nor of flesh's will, nor of man's will, but of °God. <sup>14</sup> And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we have contemplated his glory, a glory as of an only-begotten with a father), full of grace and truth; <sup>15</sup> (John bears witness of him, and he has cried, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that comes after me is preferred before me, for he was before me;) <sup>16</sup> for of his fulness we all have received, and grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup> For the law was given by Moses: grace and truth subsists through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has seen °God at any time; the only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared [him]. <sup>19</sup> And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent from Jerusalem priests and Levites that they might ask him, Thou, who art thou? <sup>20</sup> And he acknowledged and denied not, and acknowledged, I am not the Christ. <sup>21</sup> And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he says, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. <sup>22</sup> They said therefore to him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? <sup>23</sup> He said, I [am] [the] voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the path of [the] Lord, as said Esaias the prophet. <sup>24</sup> And they were sent from among the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup> And they asked him and said to him, Why baptisest thou then, if thou art not the Christ, nor Elias, nor the prophet? <sup>26</sup> John answered them saying, I baptise with water. In the midst of you stands, whom ye do not know, <sup>27</sup> he who comes after me, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to unloose. <sup>28</sup> These things took place in Bethany, across the Jordan, where John was baptising. <sup>29</sup> On the morrow he sees Jesus coming to him, and says, Behold the Lamb of °God, who takes away the sin of the world. <sup>30</sup> He it is of whom I said, A man comes after me who takes a place before me, because he was before me; <sup>31</sup> and I knew him not; but that he might be manifested to Israel, therefore have I come baptising with water. <sup>32</sup> And John bore witness, saying, I beheld the Spirit descending as a dove from heaven, and it abode upon him.

 ° 1:18 Elohim   ° 1:29 Elohim

<sup>33</sup> And I knew him not; but he who sent me to baptise with water, he said to me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and abiding on him, he it is who baptises with [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>34</sup> And I have seen and borne witness that this is the Son of °God. <sup>35</sup> Again, on the morrow, there stood John and two of his disciples. <sup>36</sup> And, looking at Jesus as he walked, he says, Behold the Lamb of °God. <sup>37</sup> And the two disciples heard him speaking, and followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup> But Jesus having turned, and seeing them following, says to them, What seek ye? And they said to him, Rabbi (which, being interpreted, signifies Teacher), where abidest thou? <sup>39</sup> He says to them, Come and see. They went therefore, and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. <sup>40</sup> Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard [this] from John and followed him. <sup>41</sup> He first finds his own brother Simon, and says to him, We have found the Messiah (which being interpreted is Christ). <sup>42</sup> And he led him to Jesus. Jesus looking at him said, Thou art Simon, the son of Jonas; thou shalt be called Cephas (which interpreted is stone). <sup>43</sup> On the morrow he would go forth into Galilee, and Jesus finds Philip, and says to him, Follow me. <sup>44</sup> And Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup> Philip finds Nathanael, and says to him, We have found him of whom Moses wrote in the law, and the prophets, Jesus, the son of Joseph, who is from Nazareth. <sup>46</sup> And Nathanael said to him, Can anything good come out of Nazareth? Philip says to him, Come and see. <sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and says of him, Behold [one] truly an Israelite, in whom there is no guile. <sup>48</sup> Nathanael says to him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee. <sup>49</sup> Nathanael answered and said to him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of °God, thou art the King of Israel. <sup>50</sup> Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these. <sup>51</sup> And he says to him, Verily, verily, I say to you, Henceforth ye shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of °God ascending and descending on the Son of man.

<sup>1</sup> And on the third day a marriage took place in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup> And Jesus also, and his disciples, were invited to the marriage. <sup>3</sup> And wine being deficient, the mother of Jesus says to him, They have no wine. <sup>4</sup> Jesus says to her, What have I to do with thee, woman? mine hour has not yet come. <sup>5</sup> His mother says to the servants, Whatever he may say to you, do. <sup>6</sup> Now there were standing there six stone water-vessels, according to the purification of the Jews, holding two or three measures each. <sup>7</sup> Jesus says to them, Fill the water-vessels with water. And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup> And he says to them, Draw out now, and carry [it] to the feast-master. And they carried [it]. <sup>9</sup> But when the feast-master had tasted the water which had been made wine (and knew not whence it was, but the servants knew who drew the water), the feast-master calls the bridegroom, <sup>10</sup> and says to him, Every man sets on first the good wine, and when [men] have well drunk, then the inferior; thou hast kept the good wine till now. <sup>11</sup> This beginning of signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him. <sup>12</sup> After this he descended to Capernaum, he and his mother and his brethren and his disciples; and there they abode not many days. <sup>13</sup> And the passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> And he found in the temple the sellers of oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting; <sup>15</sup> and, having made a scourge of cords, he cast [them] all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the change of the money-changers, and overturned the tables, <sup>16</sup> and said to the sellers of doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. <sup>17</sup> [And] his disciples remembered that it is written, The zeal of thy house devours me. <sup>18</sup> The Jews therefore answered and said to him, What sign shewest thou to us, that thou doest these things? <sup>19</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. <sup>20</sup> The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this temple building, and thou wilt raise it up in three days? <sup>21</sup> But he spoke of the temple of his body. <sup>22</sup> When therefore he was raised from among [the] dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and believed the scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken. <sup>23</sup> And when he was in Jerusalem, at the passover, at the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he wrought. <sup>24</sup> But Jesus himself did not trust himself to them, because he knew all [men], <sup>25</sup> and that he had not need that any should testify of man, for himself knew what was in man.

<sup>1</sup> But there was a man from among the Pharisees, his name Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; <sup>2</sup> he came to him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art come a teacher from °God, for none can do these signs that thou doest unless °God be with him. <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered and said to him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except any one be born anew he cannot see the kingdom of °God. <sup>4</sup> Nicodemus says to him, How can a man be born being old? can he enter a second time into the womb of his mother and be born? <sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except any one be born of water and of Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of °God. <sup>6</sup> That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup> Do not wonder that I said to thee, It is needful that ye should be born anew. <sup>8</sup> The wind blows where it will, and thou hearest its voice, but knowest not whence it comes and where it goes: thus is every one that is born of the Spirit. <sup>9</sup> Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can these things be? <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered and said to him, Thou art the teacher of Israel and knowest not these things! <sup>11</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that which we know, and we bear witness of that which we have seen, and ye receive not our witness. <sup>12</sup> If I have said the earthly things to you, and ye believe not, how, if I say the heavenly things to you, will ye believe? <sup>13</sup> And no one has gone up into heaven, save he who came down out of heaven, the Son of man who is in heaven. <sup>14</sup> And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, thus must the Son of man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that every one who believes on him may [not perish, but] have life eternal. <sup>16</sup> For °God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believes on him may not perish, but have life eternal. <sup>17</sup> For °God has not sent his Son into the world that he may judge the world, but that the world may be saved through him. <sup>18</sup> He that believes on him is not judged: but he that believes not has been already judged, because he has not believed on the name of the only-begotten Son of °God. <sup>19</sup> And this is the judgment, that light is come into the world, and men have loved darkness rather than light; for their works were evil. <sup>20</sup> For every one that does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light that his works may not be shewn as they are; <sup>21</sup> but he that practises the truth comes to the light, that his works may be manifested that they have been wrought in °God. <sup>22</sup> After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he abode with them and baptised. <sup>23</sup> And John also was baptising in Aenon, near Salim, because there was a great deal of water there; and they came to [him] and were baptised: <sup>24</sup> for John was not yet cast into prison. <sup>25</sup> There was therefore a reasoning of the disciples of John with a Jew about purification. <sup>26</sup> And they came to John and said to him, Rabbi, he who was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, he baptises, and all come to him. <sup>27</sup> John answered and said, A man can receive nothing unless it be given him out of heaven. <sup>28</sup> Ye yourselves bear me witness that I said, I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. <sup>29</sup> He that has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices in heart because of the voice of the bridegroom: this my joy then is fulfilled. <sup>30</sup> He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>31</sup> He who comes from above is above all. He who has his origin in the earth is of the earth, and speaks [as] of the earth. He who comes out of heaven is above all, <sup>32</sup> [and] what he has seen and has heard, this he testifies; and no one receives his testimony. <sup>33</sup> He that has received his testimony has set to his seal that °God is true; <sup>34</sup> for he whom °God has sent speaks the words of °God, for °God gives not the Spirit by measure. <sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son, and has given all things [to be] in his hand. <sup>36</sup> He that believes on the Son has life eternal, and he that is not subject to the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of °God abides upon him.

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman therefore says to him, How dost thou, being a Jew, ask to drink of me who am a Samaritan woman? for Jews have no intercourse with Samaritans. <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered and said to her, If thou knewest the gift of <sup>o</sup>God, and who it is that says to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. <sup>11</sup> The woman says to him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence then hast thou the living water? <sup>12</sup> Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his sons, and his cattle? <sup>13</sup> Jesus answered and said to her, Every one who drinks of this water shall thirst again; <sup>14</sup> but whosoever drinks of the water which I shall give him shall never thirst for ever, but the water which I shall give him shall become in him a fountain of water, springing up into eternal life. <sup>15</sup> The woman says to him, Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst nor come here to draw. <sup>16</sup> Jesus says to her, Go, call thy husband, and come here. <sup>17</sup> The woman answered and said, I have not a husband. Jesus says to her, Thou hast well said, I have not a husband; <sup>18</sup> for thou hast had five husbands, and he whom now thou hast is not thy husband: this thou hast spoken truly. <sup>19</sup> The woman says to him, Sir, I see that thou art a prophet. <sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say that in Jerusalem is the place where one must worship. <sup>21</sup> Jesus says to her, Woman, believe me, [the] hour is coming when ye shall neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem worship the Father. <sup>22</sup> Ye worship ye know not what; we worship what we know, for salvation is of the Jews. <sup>23</sup> But [the] hour is coming and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth; for also the Father seeks such as his worshippers. <sup>24</sup> <sup>o</sup>God [is] a spirit; and they who worship him must worship [him] in spirit and truth. <sup>25</sup> The woman says to him, I know that Messias is coming, who is called Christ; when he comes he will tell us all things. <sup>26</sup> Jesus says to her, I who speak to thee am [he]. <sup>27</sup> And upon this came his disciples, and wondered that he spoke with a woman; yet no one said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? <sup>28</sup> The woman then left her waterpot and went away into the city, and says to the men, <sup>29</sup> Come, see a man who told me all things I had ever done: is not he the Christ? <sup>30</sup> They went out of the city and came to him. <sup>31</sup> But meanwhile the disciples asked him saying, Rabbi, eat. <sup>32</sup> But he said to them, I have food to eat which ye do not know. <sup>33</sup> The disciples therefore said to one another, Has any one brought him [anything] to eat? <sup>34</sup> Jesus says to them, My food is that I should do the will of him that has sent me, and that I should finish his work. <sup>35</sup> Do not ye say, that there are yet four months and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and behold the fields, for they are already white to harvest. <sup>36</sup> He that reaps receives wages and gathers fruit unto life eternal, that both he that sows and he that reaps may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup> For in this is [verified] the true saying, It is one who sows and another who reaps. <sup>38</sup> I have sent you to reap that on which ye have not laboured; others have laboured, and ye have entered into their labours. <sup>39</sup> But many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him because of the word of the woman who bore witness, He told me all things that I had ever done. <sup>40</sup> When therefore the Samaritans came to him they asked him to abide with them, and he abode there two days. <sup>41</sup> And more a great deal believed on account of his word; <sup>42</sup> and they said to the woman, [It is] no longer on account of thy saying that we believe, for we have heard him ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world. <sup>43</sup> But after the two days he went forth thence and went away into Galilee, <sup>44</sup> for Jesus himself bore witness that a prophet has no honour in his own country. <sup>45</sup> When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all that he had done in Jerusalem during the feast, for they also went to the feast. <sup>46</sup> He came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain courtier in Capernaum whose son was sick. <sup>47</sup> He, having heard that Jesus had come out of Judaea into Galilee, went to him and asked [him] that he would come down and heal his son, for he was about to die. <sup>48</sup> Jesus therefore said to him, Unless ye see signs and wonders ye will not believe. <sup>49</sup> The courtier says to him, Sir, come down ere my child die. <sup>50</sup> Jesus says to him, Go, thy son lives. And the man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went his way. <sup>51</sup> But already, as he was going down, his servants met him and brought [him] word saying, Thy child lives. <sup>52</sup> He inquired therefore from them the hour at which he got better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. <sup>53</sup> The father therefore knew that [it was] in that hour in which Jesus said to him, Thy son lives; and he believed, himself and his whole house. <sup>54</sup> This second sign again did Jesus, being come out of Judaea into Galilee.

well. <sup>16</sup> And for this the Jews persecuted Jesus [and sought to kill him], because he had done these things on sabbath. <sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto and I work. <sup>18</sup> For this therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he had not only violated the sabbath, but also said that °God was his own Father, making himself equal with °God. <sup>19</sup> Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, The Son can do nothing of himself save whatever he sees the Father doing: for whatever things he does, these things also the Son does in like manner. <sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son and shews him all things which he himself does; and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may wonder. <sup>21</sup> For even as the Father raises the dead and quickens [them], thus the Son also quickens whom he will: <sup>22</sup> for neither does the Father judge any one, but has given all judgment to the Son; <sup>23</sup> that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He who honours not the Son, honours not the Father who has sent him. <sup>24</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, that he that hears my word, and believes him that has sent me, has life eternal, and does not come into judgment, but is passed out of death into life. <sup>25</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, that an hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of °God, and they that have heard shall live. <sup>26</sup> For even as the Father has life in himself, so he has given to the Son also to have life in himself, <sup>27</sup> and has given him authority to execute judgment [also], because he is Son of man. <sup>28</sup> Wonder not at this, for an hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs shall hear his voice, <sup>29</sup> and shall go forth; those that have practised good, to resurrection of life, and those that have done evil, to resurrection of judgment. <sup>30</sup> I cannot do anything of myself; as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous, because I do not seek my will, but the will of him that has sent me. <sup>31</sup> If I bear witness concerning myself, my witness is not true. <sup>32</sup> It is another who bears witness concerning me, and I know that the witness which he bears concerning me is true. <sup>33</sup> Ye have sent unto John, and he has borne witness to the truth. <sup>34</sup> But I do not receive witness from man, but I say this that ye might be saved. <sup>35</sup> He was the burning and shining lamp, and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. <sup>36</sup> But I have the witness [that is] greater than [that] of John; for the works which the Father has given me that I should complete them, the works themselves which I do, bear witness concerning me that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup> And the Father who has sent me himself has borne witness concerning me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor have seen his shape, <sup>38</sup> and ye have not his word abiding in you; for whom he hath sent, him ye do not believe. <sup>39</sup> Ye search the scriptures, for ye think that in them ye have life eternal, and they it is which bear witness concerning me; <sup>40</sup> and ye will not come to me that ye might have life. <sup>41</sup> I do not receive glory from men, <sup>42</sup> but I know you, that ye have not the love of °God in you. <sup>43</sup> I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not; if another come in his own name, him ye will receive. <sup>44</sup> How can ye believe, who receive glory one of another, and seek not the glory which [comes] from °God alone? <sup>45</sup> Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is [one] who accuses you, Moses, on whom ye trust; <sup>46</sup> for if ye had believed Moses, ye would have believed me, for he wrote of me. <sup>47</sup> But if ye do not believe his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

for him has the Father sealed, [even] °God. 28 They said therefore to him, What should we do that we may work the works of °God? 29 Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of °God, that ye believe on him whom he has sent. 30 They said therefore to him, What sign then doest thou that we may see and believe thee? what dost thou work? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. 32 Jesus therefore said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, [It is] not Moses that has given you the bread out of heaven; but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of °God is he who comes down out of heaven and gives life to the world. 34 They said therefore to him, Lord, ever give to us this bread. 35 [And] Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: he that comes to me shall never hunger, and he that believes on me shall never thirst at any time. 36 But I have said to you, that ye have also seen me and do not believe. 37 All that the Father gives me shall come to me, and him that comes to me I will not at all cast out. 38 For I am come down from heaven, not that I should do my will, but the will of him that has sent me. 39 And this is the will of him that has sent me, that of all that he has given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up in the last day. 40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son, and believes on him, should have life eternal; and I will raise him up at the last day. 41 The Jews therefore murmured about him, because he said, I am the bread which has come down out of heaven. 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we have known? how then does he say, I am come down out of heaven? 43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No one can come to me except the Father who has sent me draw him, and I will raise him up in the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of °God. Every one that has heard from the Father [himself], and has learned [of him], comes to me; 46 not that any one has seen the Father, except he who is of °God, he has seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say to you, He that believes [on me] has life eternal. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and died. 50 This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread which has come down out of heaven: if any one shall have eaten of this bread he shall live for ever; but the bread withal which I shall give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. 52 The Jews therefore contended among themselves, saying, How can he give us this flesh to eat? 53 Jesus therefore said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Unless ye shall have eaten the flesh of the Son of man, and drunk his blood, ye have no life in yourselves. 54 He that eats my flesh and drinks my blood has life eternal, and I will raise him up at the last day: 55 for my flesh is truly food and my blood is truly drink. 56 He that eats my flesh and drinks my blood dwells in me and I in him. 57 As the living Father has sent me and I live on account of the Father, he also who eats me shall live also on account of me. 58 This is the bread which has come down out of heaven. Not as the fathers ate and died: he that eats this bread shall live for ever. 59 These things he said in [the] synagogue, teaching in Capernaum. <sup>60</sup> Many therefore of his disciples having heard [it] said, This word is hard; who can hear it? <sup>61</sup> But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples murmur concerning this, said to them, Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup> If then ye see the Son of man ascending up where he was before? <sup>63</sup> It is the Spirit which quickens, the flesh profits nothing: the words which I have spoken unto you are spirit and are life. <sup>64</sup> But there are some of you who do not believe. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would deliver him up. <sup>65</sup> And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no one can come to me unless it be given to him from the Father. <sup>66</sup> From that [time] many of his disciples went away back and walked no more with him. <sup>67</sup> Jesus therefore said to the twelve, Will ye also go away? <sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast words of life eternal; <sup>69</sup> and we have believed and known that thou art the holy one of °God. <sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you the twelve? and of you one is a devil. <sup>71</sup> Now he spoke of Judas [the son] of Simon, Iscariote, for he [it was who] should deliver him up, being one of the twelve.

and ye circumcise a man on sabbath. <sup>23</sup> If a man receives circumcision on sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be violated, are ye angry with me because I have made a man entirely sound on sabbath? <sup>24</sup> Judge not according to sight, but judge righteous judgment. <sup>25</sup> Some therefore of those of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? <sup>26</sup> and behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Have the rulers then indeed recognised that this is the Christ? <sup>27</sup> But [as to] this [man] we know whence he is. Now [as to] the Christ, when he comes, no one knows whence he is. <sup>28</sup> Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me and ye know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye do not know. <sup>29</sup> I know him, because I am from him, and he has sent me. <sup>30</sup> They sought therefore to take him; and no one laid his hand upon him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup> But many of the crowd believed on him, and said, Will the Christ, when he comes, do more signs than those which this [man] has done? <sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers that they might take him. <sup>33</sup> Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while I am with you, and I go to him that has sent me. <sup>34</sup> Ye shall seek me and shall not find [me], and where I am ye cannot come. <sup>35</sup> The Jews therefore said to one another, Where is he about to go that we shall not find him? Is he about to go to the dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup> What word is this which he said, Ye shall seek me and shall not find [me]; and where I am ye cannot come? <sup>37</sup> In the last, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried saying, If any one thirst, let him come to me and drink. <sup>38</sup> He that believes on me, as the scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. <sup>39</sup> But this he said concerning the Spirit, which they that believed on him were about to receive; for [the] Spirit was not yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified. <sup>40</sup> [Some] out of the crowd therefore, having heard this word, said, This is truly the prophet. <sup>41</sup> Others said, This is the Christ. Others said, Does then the Christ come out of Galilee? <sup>42</sup> Has not the scripture said that the Christ comes of the seed of David, and from the village of Bethlehem, where David was? <sup>43</sup> There was a division therefore in the crowd on account of him. <sup>44</sup> But some of them desired to take him, but no one laid hands upon him. <sup>45</sup> The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, Why have ye not brought him? <sup>46</sup> The officers answered, Never man spoke thus, as this man [speaks]. <sup>47</sup> The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye also deceived? <sup>48</sup> Has any one of the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? <sup>49</sup> But this crowd, which does not know the law, are accursed. <sup>50</sup> Nicodemus says to them (being one of themselves), <sup>51</sup> Does our law judge a man before it have first heard from himself, and know what he does? <sup>52</sup> They answered and said to him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look, that no prophet arises out of Galilee. <sup>53</sup> And every one went to his home.

<sup>1</sup> But Jesus went to the mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup> And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees bring

[to him] a woman taken in adultery, and having set her in the midst, <sup>4</sup> they say to him, Teacher, this woman has been taken in the very act, committing adultery. <sup>5</sup> Now in the law Moses has commanded us to stone such; thou therefore, what sayest thou? <sup>6</sup> But this they said proving him, that they might have [something] to accuse him [of]. But Jesus, having stooped down, wrote with his finger on the ground. <sup>7</sup> But when they continued asking him, he lifted himself up and said to them, Let him that is without sin among you first cast the stone at her. <sup>8</sup> And again stooping down he wrote on the ground. <sup>9</sup> But they, having heard [that], went out one by one beginning from the elder ones until the last; and Jesus was left alone and the woman standing there. <sup>10</sup> And Jesus, lifting himself up and seeing no one but the woman, said to her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? Has no one condemned thee? <sup>11</sup> And she said, No one, sir. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. <sup>12</sup> Again therefore Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. <sup>13</sup> The Pharisees therefore said to him, Thou bearest witness concerning thyself; thy witness is not true. <sup>14</sup> Jesus answered and said to them, Even if I bear witness concerning myself, my witness is true, because I know whence I came and whither I go: but ye know not whence I come and whither I go. <sup>15</sup> Ye judge according to the flesh, I judge no one. <sup>16</sup> And if also I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who has sent me. <sup>17</sup> And in your law too it is written that the testimony of two men is true: <sup>18</sup> I am [one] who bear witness concerning myself, and the Father who has sent me bears witness concerning me. <sup>19</sup> They said to him therefore, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me nor my Father. If ye had known me, ye would have known also my Father. <sup>20</sup> These words spoke he in the treasury, teaching in the temple; and no one took him, for his hour was not yet come. <sup>21</sup> He said therefore again to them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin; where I go ye cannot come. <sup>22</sup> The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he says, Where I go ye cannot come? <sup>23</sup> And he said to them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above. Ye are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup> I said therefore to you, that ye shall die in your sins; for unless ye shall believe that I am [he], ye shall die in your sins. <sup>25</sup> They said therefore to him, Who art thou? [And] Jesus said to them, Altogether that which I also say to you. <sup>26</sup> I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but he that has sent me is true, and I, what I have heard from him, these things I say to the world. <sup>27</sup> They knew not that he spoke to them of the Father. <sup>28</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, When ye shall have lifted up the Son of man, then ye shall know that I am [he], and [that] I do nothing of myself, but as the Father has taught me I speak these things. <sup>29</sup> And he that has sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, because I do always the things that are pleasing to him. <sup>30</sup> As he spoke these things many believed on him. <sup>31</sup> Jesus therefore said to the Jews who believed him, If ye abide in my word, ye are truly my disciples; <sup>32</sup> and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free. <sup>33</sup> They answered him, We are Abraham's seed, and have never been under bondage to any one; how sayest thou, Ye shall become free? <sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, Verily, verily,

I say to you, Every one that practises sin is the bondman of sin. <sup>35</sup> Now the bondman abides not in the house for ever: the son abides for ever. <sup>36</sup> If therefore the Son shall set you free, ye shall be really free. <sup>37</sup> I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word has no entrance in you. <sup>38</sup> I speak what I have seen with my Father, and ye then do what ye have seen with your father. <sup>39</sup> They answered and said to him, Abraham is our father. Jesus says to them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham; <sup>40</sup> but now ye seek to kill me, a man who has spoken the truth to you, which I have heard from °God: this did not Abraham. <sup>41</sup> Ye do the works of your father. They said [therefore] to him, We are not born of fornication; we have one father, °God. <sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, If °God were your father ye would have loved me, for I came forth from °God and am come [from him]; for neither am I come of myself, but he has sent me. <sup>43</sup> Why do ye not know my speech? Because ye cannot hear my word. <sup>44</sup> Ye are of the devil, as [your] father, and ye desire to do the lusts of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks falsehood, he speaks of what is his own; for he is a liar and its father: <sup>45</sup> and because I speak the truth, ye do not believe me. <sup>46</sup> Which of you convinces me of sin? If I speak truth, why do ye not believe me? <sup>47</sup> He that is of °God hears the words of °God: therefore ye hear [them] not, because ye are not of °God. <sup>48</sup> The Jews answered and said to him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan and hast a demon? <sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me. <sup>50</sup> But I do not seek my own glory: there is he that seeks and judges. <sup>51</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, If any one shall keep my word, he shall never see death. <sup>52</sup> The Jews therefore said to him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham has died, and the prophets, and thou sayest, If any one keep my word, he shall never taste death. <sup>53</sup> Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who has died? and the prophets have died: whom makest thou thyself? <sup>54</sup> Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father who glorifies me, [of] whom ye say, He is our °God. <sup>55</sup> And ye know him not; but I know him; and if I said, I know him not, I should be like you, a liar. But I know him, and I keep his word. <sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham exulted in that he should see my day, and he saw and rejoiced. <sup>57</sup> The Jews therefore said to him, Thou hast not yet fifty years, and hast thou seen Abraham? <sup>58</sup> Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. <sup>59</sup> They took up therefore stones that they might cast [them] at him; but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple, [going through the midst of them, and thus passed on.]

<sup>1</sup> And as he passed on, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup> And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who sinned, this [man] or his parents, that he should be born blind? <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, Neither has this [man] sinned nor his parents, but that the works of °God should be manifested in him. <sup>4</sup> I must work the works of him that has sent me while it is day. [The] night is coming, when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am [the] light of the world. <sup>6</sup> Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud of the spittle, and put the mud, as ointment, on his eyes. <sup>7</sup> And he said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, which is interpreted, Sent. He went therefore and washed, and came seeing. <sup>8</sup> The neighbours therefore, and those who used to see him before, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that was sitting and begging? <sup>9</sup> Some said, It is he; others said, No, but he is like him: he said, It is I. <sup>10</sup> They said therefore to him, How have thine eyes been opened? <sup>11</sup> He answered [and said], A man called Jesus made mud and anointed mine eyes, and said to me, Go to Siloam and wash: and having gone and washed, I saw. <sup>12</sup> They said therefore to him, Where is he? He says, I do not know. <sup>13</sup> They bring him who was before blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup> Now it was sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> The Pharisees therefore also again asked him how he received his sight. And he said to them, He put mud upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. <sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees therefore said, This man is not of <sup>o</sup>God, for he does not keep the sabbath. Others said, How can a sinful man perform such signs? And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup> They say therefore again to the blind [man], What dost thou say of him, that he has opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. <sup>18</sup> The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him that he was blind and had received sight, until they had called the parents of him that had received sight. <sup>19</sup> And they asked them saying, This is your son, of whom ye say that he was born blind: how then does he now see? <sup>20</sup> His parents answered [them] and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup> but how he now sees we do not know, or who has opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age: ask him; he will speak concerning himself. <sup>22</sup> His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if any one confessed him [to be the] Christ, he should be excommunicated from the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> On this account his parents said, He is of age: ask him. <sup>24</sup> They called therefore a second time the man who had been blind, and said to him, Give glory to <sup>o</sup>God: we know that this man is sinful. <sup>25</sup> He answered therefore, If he is sinful I know not. One thing I know, that, being blind [before], now I see. <sup>26</sup> And they said to him again, What did he do to thee? how opened he thine eyes? <sup>27</sup> He answered them, I told you already and ye did not hear: why do ye desire to hear again? do ye also wish to become his disciples? <sup>28</sup> They railed at him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that <sup>o</sup>God spoke to Moses; but [as to] this [man], we know not whence he is. <sup>30</sup> The man answered and said to them, Now in this is a wonderful thing, that ye do not know whence he is, and he has opened mine eyes. <sup>31</sup> [But] we know that <sup>o</sup>God does not hear sinners; but if any one be <sup>o</sup>God-fearing and do his will, him he hears. <sup>32</sup> Since time was, it has not been heard that any one opened the eyes of one born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this [man] were not of <sup>o</sup>God he would be able to do nothing. <sup>34</sup> They answered and said to him, Thou has been wholly born in sins, and thou teachest us? And they cast him out. <sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him, he said to him, Thou, dost thou believe on the Son of <sup>o</sup>God? <sup>36</sup> He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? <sup>37</sup> And Jesus said to him, Thou hast both seen him, and he that speaks with thee is he. <sup>38</sup> And he said, I believe, Lord: and he did him homage. <sup>39</sup> And Jesus said, For judgment am I come into this world, that they which see not may see, and they which see may become blind. <sup>40</sup> And [some] of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and they said to him, Are we blind also? <sup>41</sup> Jesus said to them, If ye were blind ye would not have sin; but now ye say, We see, your sin remains.

<sup>1</sup> Verily, verily, I say to you, He that enters not in by the door to the fold of the sheep, but mounts up elsewhere, he is a thief and a robber; <sup>2</sup> but he that enters in by the door is [the] shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup> To him the porter opens; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. <sup>4</sup> When he has put forth all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup> But they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him, because they know not the voice of strangers. <sup>6</sup> This allegory spoke Jesus to them, but they did not know what it was [of] which he spoke to them. <sup>7</sup> Jesus therefore said again to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All whoever came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup> I am the door: if any one enter in by me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and shall go out and shall find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief comes not but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I am come that they might have life, and might have [it] abundantly. <sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep: <sup>12</sup> but he who serves for wages, and who is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf seizes them and scatters the sheep. <sup>13</sup> Now he who serves for wages flees because he serves for wages, and is not himself concerned about the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd; and I know those that are mine, and am known of those that are mine, <sup>15</sup> as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> And I have other sheep which are not of this fold: those also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup> On this account the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down and I have authority to take it again. I have received this commandment of my Father. <sup>19</sup> There was a division again among the Jews on account of these words; <sup>20</sup> but many of them said, He has a demon and raves; why do ye hear him? <sup>21</sup> Others said, These sayings are not [those] of one that is possessed by a demon. Can a demon open blind people's eyes? <sup>22</sup> Now the feast of the dedication was celebrating at Jerusalem, and it was winter. <sup>23</sup> And Jesus walked in the temple in the porch of Solomon. <sup>24</sup> The Jews therefore surrounded him, and said to him, Until when dost thou hold our soul in suspense? If thou art the Christ, say [so] to us openly. <sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye do not believe. The works which I do in my Father's name, these bear witness concerning me: <sup>26</sup> but ye do not believe, for ye are not of my sheep, as I told you. <sup>27</sup> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; <sup>28</sup> and I give them life eternal; and they shall never perish, and no one shall seize them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father who has given [them] to me is greater than all, and no one can seize out of the hand of my Father. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one. <sup>31</sup> The Jews therefore again took stones that they might stone him. <sup>32</sup> Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewn you of my Father; for which work of them do ye stone me? <sup>33</sup> The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy, and because thou, being a man, makest thyself °God. <sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are °gods? <sup>35</sup> If he called them °gods to whom the word of °God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), <sup>36</sup> do ye say of him whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am Son of °God? <sup>37</sup> If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not; <sup>38</sup> but if I do, even if ye believe not me, believe the works, that ye may know [and believe] that the Father is in me and I in him. <sup>39</sup> They sought therefore again to take him; and he went away from out of their hand <sup>40</sup> and departed again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was baptising at the first: and he abode there. <sup>41</sup> And many came to him, and said, John did no sign; but all things which John said of this [man] were true. <sup>42</sup> And many believed on him there.

11

that ye may believe. But let us go to him. <sup>16</sup> Thomas therefore, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. <sup>17</sup> Jesus therefore [on] arriving found him to have been four days already in the tomb. <sup>18</sup> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia off, <sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, that they might console them concerning their brother. <sup>20</sup> Martha then, when she heard Jesus is coming, went to meet him; but Mary sat in the house. <sup>21</sup> Martha therefore said to Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died; <sup>22</sup> but even now I know, that whatsoever thou shalt ask of °God, °God will give thee. <sup>23</sup> Jesus says to her, Thy brother shall rise again. <sup>24</sup> Martha says to him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection in the last day. <sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believes on me, though he have died, shall live; <sup>26</sup> and every one who lives and believes on me shall never die. Believest thou this? <sup>27</sup> She says to him, Yea, Lord; I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of °God, who should come into the world. <sup>28</sup> And having said this, she went away and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, The teacher is come and calls thee. <sup>29</sup> She, when she heard [that], rises up quickly and comes to him. <sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha came to meet him. <sup>31</sup> The Jews therefore who were with her in the house and consoling her, seeing Mary that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, She goes to the tomb, that she may weep there. <sup>32</sup> Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, seeing him, fell at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. <sup>33</sup> Jesus therefore, when he saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, was deeply moved in spirit, and was troubled, <sup>34</sup> and said, Where have ye put him? They say to him, Lord, come and see. <sup>35</sup> Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup> The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him! <sup>37</sup> And some of them said, Could not this [man], who has opened the eyes of the blind [man], have caused that this [man] also should not have died? <sup>38</sup> Jesus therefore, again deeply moved in himself, comes to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. <sup>39</sup> Jesus says, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of the dead, says to him, Lord, he stinks already, for he is four days [there]. <sup>40</sup> Jesus says to her, Did I not say to thee, that if thou shouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of °God? <sup>41</sup> They took therefore the stone away. And Jesus lifted up his eyes on high and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me; <sup>42</sup> but I knew that thou always hearest me; but on account of the crowd who stand around I have said [it], that they may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>43</sup> And having said this, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. <sup>44</sup> And the dead came forth, bound feet and hands with graveclothes, and his face was bound round with a handkerchief. Jesus says to them, Loose him and let him go. <sup>45</sup> Many therefore of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what he had done, believed on him; <sup>46</sup> but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> The chief priests, therefore, and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this man does many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let him thus alone, all will believe on him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation. <sup>49</sup> But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, Ye know nothing <sup>50</sup> nor consider that it is profitable for you that one man die for the people, and not that the whole nation perish. <sup>51</sup> But this he did not say of himself; but, being high priest that year, prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation; <sup>52</sup> and not for the nation only, but that he should also gather together into one the children of °God who were scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup> From that day therefore they took counsel that they might kill him. <sup>54</sup> Jesus therefore walked no longer openly among the Jews, but went away thence into the country near the desert, to a city called Ephraim, and there he sojourned with the disciples. <sup>55</sup> But the passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, that they might purify themselves. <sup>56</sup> They sought therefore Jesus, and said among themselves, standing in the temple, What do ye think? that he will not come to the feast? <sup>57</sup> Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment that if any one knew where he was, he should make it known, that they might take him.

<sup>1</sup> Jesus therefore, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where was the dead [man] Lazarus, whom Jesus raised from among [the] dead. <sup>2</sup> There therefore they made him a supper, and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those at table with him. <sup>3</sup> Mary therefore, having taken a pound of ointment of pure nard of great price, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair, and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. <sup>4</sup> One of his disciples therefore, Judas [son] of Simon, Iscariote, who was about to deliver him up, says, <sup>5</sup> Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor? <sup>6</sup> But he said this, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief and had the bag, and carried what was put into [it]. <sup>7</sup> Jesus therefore said, Suffer her to have kept this for the day of my preparation for burial; <sup>8</sup> for ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always. <sup>9</sup> A great crowd therefore of the Jews knew that he was there; and they came, not because of Jesus only, but also that they might see Lazarus whom he raised from among [the] dead. <sup>10</sup> But the chief priests took counsel that they might kill Lazarus also, <sup>11</sup> because many of the Jews went away on his account and believed on Jesus. <sup>12</sup> On the morrow a great crowd who came to the feast, having heard that Jesus is coming into Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup> took branches of palms and went out to meet him, and cried, Hosanna, blessed [is] he that comes in the name of [the] Lord, the King of Israel. <sup>14</sup> And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat upon it; as it is written, <sup>15</sup> Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. <sup>16</sup> [Now] his disciples knew not these things at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things to him. <sup>17</sup> The crowd therefore that was with him bore witness because he had called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from among [the] dead. <sup>18</sup> Therefore also the crowd met him because they had heard that he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup> The Pharisees therefore said to one another, Ye see that ye profit nothing: behold, the world is gone after him. <sup>20</sup> And there were certain Greeks among those who came up that they might worship in the feast; <sup>21</sup> these therefore came to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and they asked him saying, Sir, we desire to see Jesus. <sup>22</sup> Philip comes and tells Andrew, [and again] Andrew comes and Philip, and they tell Jesus. <sup>23</sup> But Jesus answered them saying, The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified. <sup>24</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except the grain of wheat falling into the ground die, it abides alone; but if it die, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup> He that loves his life shall lose it, and he that hates his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal. <sup>26</sup> If any one serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there also shall be my servant. [And] if any one serve me, him shall the Father honour. <sup>27</sup> Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour. But on account of this have I come to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, I both have glorified and will glorify [it] again. <sup>29</sup> The crowd therefore, which stood [there] and heard [it], said that it had thundered. Others said, An angel has spoken to him. <sup>30</sup> Jesus answered and said, Not on my account has this voice come, but on yours. <sup>31</sup> Now is [the] judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out: <sup>32</sup> and I, if I be lifted up out of the earth, will draw all to me. <sup>33</sup> But this he said signifying by what death he was about to die. <sup>34</sup> The crowd answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abides for ever; and how sayest thou that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this, the Son of man? <sup>35</sup> Jesus therefore said to them, Yet a little while is the light amongst you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness may not overtake you. And he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes. <sup>36</sup> While ye have the light, believe in the light, that ye may become sons of light. Jesus said these things, and going away hid himself from them. <sup>37</sup> But though he had done so many signs before them, they believed not on him, <sup>38</sup> that the word of the prophet Esaias which he said might be fulfilled, Lord, who has believed our report? and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? <sup>39</sup> On this account they could not believe, because Esaias said again, <sup>40</sup> He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, that they may not see with their eyes, and understand with their heart and be converted, and I should heal them. <sup>41</sup> These things said Esaias because he saw his glory and spoke of him. <sup>42</sup> Although indeed from among the rulers also many believed on him, but on account of the Pharisees did not confess [him], that they might not be put out of the synagogue: <sup>43</sup> for they loved glory from men rather than glory from <sup>o</sup> God. <sup>44</sup> But Jesus cried and said, He that believes on me, believes not on me, but on him that sent me; <sup>45</sup> and he that beholds me, beholds him that sent me. <sup>46</sup> I am come into the world [as] light, that every one that believes on me may not abide in darkness; <sup>47</sup> and if any one hear my words and do not keep [them], I judge him not, for I am not come that I might judge the world, but that I might save the world. <sup>48</sup> He that rejects me and does not receive my words, has him who judges him: the word which I have spoken, that shall judge him in the last day. <sup>49</sup> For I have not spoken from myself, but the Father who sent me has himself given me commandment what I should say and what I should speak; <sup>50</sup> and I know that his commandment is life eternal. What therefore I speak, as the Father has said to me, so I speak.

13

saying to him, Buy the things of which we have need for the feast; or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> Having therefore received the morsel, he went out immediately; and it was night. <sup>31</sup> When therefore he was gone out Jesus says, Now is the Son of man glorified, and °God is glorified in him. <sup>32</sup> If °God be glorified in him, °God also shall glorify him in himself, and shall glorify him immediately. <sup>33</sup> Children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me; and, as I said to the Jews, Where I go ye cannot come, I say to you also now. <sup>34</sup> A new commandment I give to you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this shall all know that ye are disciples of mine, if ye have love amongst yourselves. <sup>36</sup> Simon Peter says to him, Lord, where goest thou? Jesus answered him, Where I go thou canst not follow me now, but thou shalt follow me after. <sup>37</sup> Peter says to him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thee. <sup>38</sup> Jesus answers, Thou wilt lay down thy life for me! Verily, verily, I say to thee, The cock shall not crow till thou hast denied me thrice.

<sup>1</sup> Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe on °God, believe also on me. <sup>2</sup> In my Father's house there are many abodes; were it not so, I had told you: for I go to prepare you a place; <sup>3</sup> and if I go and shall prepare you a place, I am coming again and shall receive you to myself, that where I am ye also may be. <sup>4</sup> And ye know where I go, and ye know the way. <sup>5</sup> Thomas says to him, Lord, we know not where thou goest, and how can we know the way? <sup>6</sup> Jesus says to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father unless by me. <sup>7</sup> If ye had known me, ye would have known also my Father, and henceforth ye know him and have seen him. <sup>8</sup> Philip says to him, Lord, shew us the Father and it suffices us. <sup>9</sup> Jesus says to him, Am I so long a time with you, and thou hast not known me, Philip? He that has seen me has seen the Father; and how sayest thou, Shew us the Father? <sup>10</sup> Believest thou not that I [am] in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words which I speak to you I do not speak from myself; but the Father who abides in me, he does the works. <sup>11</sup> Believe me that I [am] in the Father and the Father in me; but if not, believe me for the works' sake themselves. <sup>12</sup> Verily, verily, I say to you, He that believes on me, the works which I do shall he do also, and he shall do greater than these, because I go to the Father. <sup>13</sup> And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, this will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup> If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup> If ye love me, keep my commandments. <sup>16</sup> And I will beg the Father, and he will give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, <sup>17</sup> the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see him nor know him; but ye know him, for he abides with you, and shall be in you. <sup>18</sup> I will not leave you orphans, I am coming to you. <sup>19</sup> Yet a little and the world sees me no longer; but ye see me; because I live ye also shall live. <sup>20</sup> In that day ye shall know that I [am] in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup> He that has my commandments and keeps them, he it is that loves me; but he that loves me shall be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will manifest myself to him. <sup>22</sup> Judas, not the Iscariote, says to him, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself to us and not to the world? <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered and said to him, If any one love me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our abode with him. <sup>24</sup> He that loves me not does not keep my words; and the word which ye hear is not mine, but [that] of the Father who has sent me. <sup>25</sup> These things I have said to you, abiding with you; <sup>26</sup> but the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and will bring to your remembrance all the things which I have said to you. <sup>27</sup> I leave peace with you; I give my peace to you: not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it fear. <sup>28</sup> Ye have heard that I have said unto you, I go away and I am coming to you. If ye loved me ye would rejoice that I go to the Father, for [my] Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And now I have told you before it comes to pass, that when it shall have come to pass ye may believe. <sup>30</sup> I will no longer speak much with you, for the ruler of the world comes, and in me he has nothing; <sup>31</sup> but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father has commanded me, thus I do. Rise up, let us go hence.

the world hates you. <sup>20</sup> Remember the word which I said unto you, The bondman is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my word, they will keep also yours. <sup>21</sup> But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they have not known him that sent me. <sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup> He that hates me hates also my Father. <sup>24</sup> If I had not done among them the works which no other one has done, they had not had sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. <sup>25</sup> But that the word written in their law might be fulfilled, They hated me without a cause. <sup>26</sup> But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes forth from with the Father, he shall bear witness concerning me; <sup>27</sup> and ye too bear witness, because ye are with me from [the] beginning.

<sup>1</sup> These things I have spoken unto you that ye may not be offended. <sup>2</sup> They shall put you out of the synagogues; but the hour is coming that every one who kills you will think to render service to <sup>o</sup>God; <sup>3</sup> and these things they will do because they have not known the Father nor me. <sup>4</sup> But I have spoken these things to you, that when their hour shall have come, ye may remember them, that I have said [them] unto you. But I did not say these things unto you from [the] beginning, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup> But now I go to him that has sent me, and none of you demands of me, Where goest thou? <sup>6</sup> But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup> But I say the truth to you, It is profitable for you that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I go I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup> And having come, he will bring demonstration to the world, of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: <sup>9</sup> of sin, because they do not believe on me; <sup>10</sup> of righteousness, because I go away to [my] Father; and ye behold me no longer; <sup>11</sup> of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. <sup>12</sup> I have yet many things to say to you, but ye cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup> But when he is come, the Spirit of truth, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but whatsoever he shall hear he shall speak; and he will announce to you what is coming. <sup>14</sup> He shall glorify me, for he shall receive of mine and shall announce [it] to you. <sup>15</sup> All things that the Father has are mine; on account of this I have said that he receives of mine and shall announce [it] to you. <sup>16</sup> A little while and ye do not behold me; and again a little while and ye shall see me, [because I go away to the Father]. <sup>17</sup> [Some] of his disciples therefore said to one another, What is this he says to us, A little while and ye do not behold me; and again a little while and ye shall see me, and, Because I go away to the Father? <sup>18</sup> They said therefore, What is this which he says [of] the little while? We do not know [of] what he speaks. <sup>19</sup> Jesus knew therefore that they desired to demand of him, and said to them, Do ye inquire of this among yourselves that I said, A little while and ye do not behold me; and again a little while and ye shall see me? <sup>20</sup> Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye shall weep and lament, ye, but the world shall rejoice; and ye will be grieved, but your grief shall be turned to joy. <sup>21</sup> A woman, when she gives birth to a child, has grief because her hour has come; but when the child is born, she no longer remembers the trouble, on account of the joy that a man has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup> And ye now therefore have grief; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one takes from you. <sup>23</sup> And in that day ye shall demand nothing of me: verily, verily, I say to you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give you. <sup>24</sup> Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. <sup>25</sup> These things I have spoken to you in allegories; the hour is coming that I will no longer speak to you in allegories, but will declare to you openly concerning the Father. <sup>26</sup> In that day ye shall ask in my name; and I say not to you that I will demand of the Father for you, <sup>27</sup> for the Father himself has affection for you, because ye have had affection for me, and have believed that I came out from °God. <sup>28</sup> I came out from the Father and have come into the world; again, I leave the world and go to the Father. <sup>29</sup> His disciples say to him, Lo, now thou speakest openly and utterest no allegory. <sup>30</sup> Now we know that thou knowest all things, and hast not need that any one should demand of thee. By this we believe that thou art come from °God. <sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? <sup>32</sup> Behold, [the] hour is coming, and has come, that ye shall be scattered, each to his own, and shall leave me alone; and [yet] I am not alone, for the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup> These things have I spoken to you that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye have tribulation; but be of good courage: I have overcome the world.

17

thee. And these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in them. <sup>14</sup>I have given them thy word, and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup>I do not demand that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them out of evil. <sup>16</sup>They are not of the world, as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them by the truth: thy word is truth. <sup>18</sup>As thou hast sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world; <sup>19</sup>and I sanctify myself for them, that they also may be sanctified by truth. <sup>20</sup>And I do not demand for these only, but also for those who believe on me through their word; <sup>21</sup>that they may be all one, as thou, Father, [art] in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. <sup>22</sup>And the glory which thou hast given me I have given them, that they may be one, as we are one; <sup>23</sup>I in them and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one [and] that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and [that] thou hast loved them as thou hast loved me. <sup>24</sup>Father, [as to] those whom thou hast given me, I desire that where I am they also may be with me, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me, for thou lovedst me before [the] foundation of [the] world. <sup>25</sup>Righteous Father, — and the world has not known thee, but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. <sup>26</sup>And I have made known to them thy name, and will make [it] known; that the love with which thou hast loved me may be in them and I in them.

<sup>1</sup>Jesus, having said these things, went out with his disciples beyond the torrent Cedron, where was a garden, into which he entered, he and his disciples. <sup>2</sup>And Judas also, who delivered him up, knew the place, because Jesus was often there, in company with his disciples. <sup>3</sup>Judas therefore, having got the band, and officers of the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Jesus therefore, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went forth and said to them, Whom seek ye? <sup>5</sup>They answered him, Jesus the Nazaraean. Jesus says to them, I am [he]. And Judas also, who delivered him up, stood with them. <sup>6</sup>When therefore he said to them, I am [he], they went away backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>He demanded of them therefore again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus the Nazaraean. <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, I told you that I am [he]: if therefore ye seek me, let these go away; <sup>9</sup>that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, [As to] those whom thou hast given me, I have not lost one of them. <sup>10</sup>Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and smote the bondman of the high priest and cut off his right ear; and the bondman's name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Jesus therefore said to Peter, Put the sword into the sheath; the cup which the Father has given me, shall I not drink it? <sup>12</sup>The band therefore, and the chiliarch, and the officers of the Jews, took Jesus and bound him: <sup>13</sup>and they led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>But it was Caiaphas who counselled the Jews that it was better that one man should perish for the people. <sup>15</sup>Now Simon Peter followed Jesus, and the other disciple. But that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest; <sup>16</sup> but Peter stood at the door without. The other disciple therefore, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the portress and brought in Peter. <sup>17</sup> The maid therefore, who was portress, says to Peter, Art thou also of the disciples of this man? He says, I am not. <sup>18</sup> But the bondmen and officers, having made a fire of coals (for it was cold), stood and warmed themselves; and Peter was standing with them and warming himself. <sup>19</sup> The high priest therefore demanded of Jesus concerning his disciples and concerning his doctrine. <sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I taught always in [the] synagogue and in the temple, where all the Jews come together, and in secret I have spoken nothing. <sup>21</sup> Why demandest thou of me? Demand of those who have heard, what I have spoken to them; behold, they know what I have said. <sup>22</sup> But as he said these things, one of the officers who stood by gave a blow on the face to Jesus, saying, Answerest thou the high priest thus? <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me? <sup>24</sup> Annas [then] had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. <sup>25</sup> But Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, Art thou also of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. <sup>26</sup> One of the bondmen of the high priest, who was kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, says, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? <sup>27</sup> Peter denied therefore again, and immediately [the] cock crew. <sup>28</sup> They lead therefore Jesus from Caiaphas to the praetorium; and it was early morn. And they entered not into the praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but eat the passover. <sup>29</sup> Pilate therefore went out to them and said, What accusation do ye bring against this man? <sup>30</sup> They answered and said to him, If this [man] were not an evildoer, we should not have delivered him up to thee. <sup>31</sup> Pilate therefore said to them, Take him, ye, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not permitted to us to put any one to death; <sup>32</sup> that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which he spoke, signifying what death he should die. <sup>33</sup> Pilate therefore entered again into the praetorium and called Jesus, and said to him, Thou art the king of the Jews? <sup>34</sup> Jesus answered [him], Dost thou say this of thyself, or have others said it to thee concerning me? <sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thy nation and the chief priests have delivered thee up to me: what hast thou done? <sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my servants had fought that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but now my kingdom is not from hence. <sup>37</sup> Pilate therefore said to him, Thou art then a king? Jesus answered, Thou sayest [it], that I am a king. I have been born for this, and for this I have come into the world, that I might bear witness to the truth. Every one that is of the truth hears my voice. <sup>38</sup> Pilate says to him, What is truth? And having said this he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, I find no fault whatever in him. <sup>39</sup> But ye have a custom that I release [some] one to you at the passover; will ye therefore that I release unto you the king of the Jews? <sup>40</sup> They cried therefore again all, saying, Not this [man], but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

soldiers having plaited a crown of thorns put it on his head, and put a purple robe on him, <sup>3</sup> and came to him and said, Hail, king of the Jews! and gave him blows on the face. <sup>4</sup> And Pilate went out again and says to them, Lo, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find in him no fault whatever. <sup>5</sup> (Jesus therefore went forth without, wearing the crown of thorn, and the purple robe.) And he says to them, Behold the man! <sup>6</sup> When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him they cried out saying, Crucify, crucify [him]. Pilate says to them, Take him ye and crucify [him], for I find no fault in him. <sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, We have a law, and according to [our] law he ought to die, because he made himself Son of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>8</sup> When Pilate therefore heard this word, he was the rather afraid, <sup>9</sup> and went into the praetorium again and says to Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup> Pilate therefore says to him, Speakest thou not to me? Dost thou not know that I have authority to release thee and have authority to crucify thee? <sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, Thou hadst no authority whatever against me if it were not given to thee from above. On this account he that has delivered me up to thee has [the] greater sin. <sup>12</sup> From this time Pilate sought to release him; but the Jews cried out saying, If thou releasest this [man], thou art not a friend to Caesar. Every one making himself a king speaks against Caesar. <sup>13</sup> Pilate therefore, having heard these words, led Jesus out and sat down upon [the] judgment-seat, at a place called Pavement, but in Hebrew Gabbatha; <sup>14</sup> (now it was [the] preparation of the passover; it was about the sixth hour;) and he says to the Jews, Behold your king! <sup>15</sup> But they cried out, Take [him] away, take [him] away, crucify him. Pilate says to them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. <sup>16</sup> Then therefore he delivered him up to them, that he might be crucified; and they took Jesus and led him away. <sup>17</sup> And he went out, bearing his cross, to the place called [place] of a skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha; <sup>18</sup> where they crucified him, and with him two others, [one] on this side, and [one] on that, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup> And Pilate wrote a title also and put it on the cross. But there was written: Jesus the Nazaraean, the King of the Jews. <sup>20</sup> This title therefore many of the Jews read, for the place of the city where Jesus was crucified was near; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, Latin. <sup>21</sup> The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Do not write, The king of the Jews, but that he said, I am king of the Jews. <sup>22</sup> Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. <sup>23</sup> The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes, and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and the body-coat; but the body-coat was seamless, woven through the whole from the top. <sup>24</sup> They said therefore to one another, Let us not rend it, but let us cast lots for it, whose it shall be; that the scripture might be fulfilled which says, They parted my garments among themselves, and on my vesture they cast lots. The soldiers therefore did these things. <sup>25</sup> And by the cross of Jesus stood his mother, and the sister of his mother, Mary the [wife] of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. <sup>26</sup> Jesus therefore, seeing his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, says to his mother, Woman, behold thy son. <sup>27</sup> Then he says unto the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home. <sup>28</sup> After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now finished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, says, I thirst. <sup>29</sup> There was a vessel therefore there full of vinegar, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, and putting hyssop round it, they put it up to his mouth. <sup>30</sup> When therefore Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished; and having bowed his head, he delivered up his spirit. <sup>31</sup> The Jews therefore, that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the sabbath, for it was [the] preparation, (for the day of that sabbath was a great [day],) demanded of Pilate that their legs might be broken and they taken away. <sup>32</sup> The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first and of the other that had been crucified with him; <sup>33</sup> but coming to Jesus, when they saw that he was already dead they did not break his legs, <sup>34</sup> but one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water. <sup>35</sup> And he who saw it bears witness, and his witness is true, and he knows that he says true that ye also may believe. <sup>36</sup> For these things took place that the scripture might be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken. <sup>37</sup> And again another scripture says, They shall look on him whom they pierced. <sup>38</sup> And after these things Joseph of Arimathaea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly through fear of the Jews, demanded of Pilate that he might take the body of Jesus: and Pilate allowed it. He came therefore and took away the body of Jesus. <sup>39</sup> And Nicodemus also, who at first came to Jesus by night, came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds [weight]. <sup>40</sup> They took therefore the body of Jesus and bound it up in linen with the spices, as it is the custom with the Jews to prepare for burial. <sup>41</sup> But there was in the place where he had been crucified a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. <sup>42</sup> There therefore, on account of the preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was near, they laid Jesus.

they say to her, Woman, why dost thou weep? She says to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. <sup>14</sup> Having said these things she turned backward and beholds Jesus standing [there], and knew not that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Jesus says to her, Woman, why dost thou weep? Whom seekest thou? She, supposing that it was the gardener, says to him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. <sup>16</sup> Jesus says to her, Mary. She, turning round, says to him in Hebrew, Rabboni, which means Teacher. <sup>17</sup> Jesus says to her, Touch me not, for I have not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brethren and say to them, I ascend to my Father and your Father, and [to] my °God and your °God. <sup>18</sup> Mary of Magdala comes bringing word to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and [that] he had said these things to her. <sup>19</sup> When therefore it was evening on that day, which was the first [day] of the week, and the doors shut where the disciples were, through fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and says to them, Peace [be] to you. <sup>20</sup> And having said this, he shewed to them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced therefore, having seen the Lord. <sup>21</sup> [Jesus] said therefore again to them, Peace [be] to you: as the Father sent me forth, I also send you. <sup>22</sup> And having said this, he breathed into [them], and says to them, Receive [the] Holy Spirit: <sup>23</sup> whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them; whose soever [sins] ye retain, they are retained. <sup>24</sup> But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe. <sup>26</sup> And eight days after, his disciples were again within, and Thomas with them. Jesus comes, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst and said, Peace [be] to you. <sup>27</sup> Then he says to Thomas, Bring thy finger here and see my hands; and bring thy hand and put it into my side; and be not unbelieving, but believing. <sup>28</sup> Thomas answered and said to him, My Lord and my °God. <sup>29</sup> Jesus says to him, Because thou hast seen me thou hast believed: blessed they who have not seen and have believed. <sup>30</sup> Many other signs therefore also Jesus did before his disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup> but these are written that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of °God, and that believing ye might have life in his name.

No. <sup>6</sup> And he said to them, Cast the net at the right side of the ship and ye will find. They cast therefore, and they could no longer draw it, from the multitude of fishes. <sup>7</sup> That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved says to Peter, It is the Lord. Simon Peter therefore, having heard that it was the Lord, girded his overcoat [on him] (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea; <sup>8</sup> and the other disciples came in the small boat, for they were not far from the land, but somewhere about two hundred cubits, dragging the net of fishes. <sup>9</sup> When therefore they went out on the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup> Jesus says to them, Bring of the fishes which ye have now taken. <sup>11</sup> Simon Peter went up and drew the net to the land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty-three; and though there were so many, the net was not rent. <sup>12</sup> Jesus says to them, Come [and] dine. But none of the disciples dared inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish in like manner. <sup>14</sup> This is already the third time that Jesus had been manifested to the disciples, being risen from among [the] dead. <sup>15</sup> When therefore they had dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, Simon, [son] of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He says to him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I am attached to thee. He says to him, Feed my lambs. <sup>16</sup> He says to him again a second time, Simon, [son] of Jonas, lovest thou me? He says to him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I am attached to thee. He says to him, Shepherd my sheep. <sup>17</sup> He says to him the third time, Simon, [son] of Jonas, art thou attached to me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Art thou attached to me? and said to him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I am attached to thee. Jesus says to him, Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup> Verily, verily, I say to thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst where thou desiredst; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and bring thee where thou dost not desire. <sup>19</sup> But he said this signifying by what death he should glorify °God. And having said this, he says to him, Follow me. <sup>20</sup> Peter, turning round, sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following, who also leaned at supper on his breast, and said, Lord, who is it that delivers thee up? <sup>21</sup> Peter, seeing him, says to Jesus, Lord, and what [of] this [man]? <sup>22</sup> Jesus says to him, If I will that he abide until I come, what [is that] to thee? Follow thou me. <sup>23</sup> This word therefore went out among the brethren, That disciple does not die. And Jesus did not say to him, He does not die; but, If I will that he abide until I come, what [is that] to thee? <sup>24</sup> This is the disciple who bears witness concerning these things, and who has written these things; and we know that his witness is true. <sup>25</sup> And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they were written one by one, I suppose that not even the world itself would contain the books written.

The Acts of the Apostles

<sup>1</sup> I composed the first discourse, O Theophilus, concerning all things which Jesus began both to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup> until that day in which, having by the Holy Spirit charged the apostles whom he had chosen, he was taken up; <sup>3</sup> to whom also he presented himself living, after he had suffered, with many proofs; being seen by them during forty days, and speaking of the things which concern the kingdom of <sup>o</sup>God; <sup>4</sup> and, being assembled with [them], commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, which [said he] ye have heard of me. <sup>5</sup> For John indeed baptised with water; but ye shall be baptised with the Holy Spirit after now not many days. <sup>6</sup> They therefore, being come together, asked him saying, Lord, is it at this time that thou restorest the kingdom to Israel? <sup>7</sup> And he said to them, It is not yours to know times or seasons, which the Father has placed in his own authority; <sup>8</sup> but ye will receive power, the Holy Spirit having come upon you, and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. <sup>9</sup> And having said these things he was taken up, they beholding [him], and a cloud received him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup> And as they were gazing into heaven, as he was going, behold, also two men stood by them in white clothing, <sup>11</sup> who also said, Men of Galilee, why do ye stand looking into heaven? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, shall thus come in the manner in which ye have beheld him going into heaven. <sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called [the mount] of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath-day's journey off. <sup>13</sup> And when they were come into [the city], they went up to the upper chamber, where were staying both Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James [son] of Alphaeus, and Simon the zealot, and Jude [the brother] of James. <sup>14</sup> These gave themselves all with one accord to continual prayer; with [several] women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. <sup>15</sup> And in those days Peter, standing up in the midst of the brethren, said, (the crowd of names [who were] together [was] about a hundred and twenty,) <sup>16</sup> Brethren, it was necessary that the scripture should have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before, by the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus; <sup>17</sup> for he was numbered amongst us, and had received a part in this service. <sup>18</sup> (This [man] then indeed got a field with [the] reward of iniquity, and, having fallen down headlong, burst in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. <sup>19</sup> And it was known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that that field was called in their own dialect Aceldama; that is, field of blood.) <sup>20</sup> For it is written in [the] book of Psalms, Let his homestead become desolate, and let there be no dweller in it; and, Let another take his overseership. <sup>21</sup> It is necessary therefore, that of the men who have assembled with us all [the] time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us, <sup>22</sup> beginning from the baptism of John until the day in which he was taken up from us, one of these should be a witness with us of his resurrection. <sup>23</sup> And they appointed two, Joseph, who was called Barsabas, who had been surnamed Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> And they prayed, and said, Thou Lord, knower of the hearts of all, shew which one of these two thou hast chosen, <sup>25</sup> to receive the lot of this service and apostleship, from which Judas transgressing fell to go to his own place. <sup>26</sup> And they gave lots on them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

<sup>1</sup> And when the day of Pentecost was now accomplishing, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And there came suddenly a sound out of heaven as of a violent impetuous blowing, and filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> And there appeared to them parted tongues, as of fire, and it sat upon each one of them. <sup>4</sup> And they were all filled with [the] Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues as the Spirit gave to them to speak forth. <sup>5</sup> Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, pious men, from every nation of those under heaven. <sup>6</sup> But the rumour of this having spread, the multitude came together and were confounded, because each one heard them speaking in his own dialect. <sup>7</sup> And all were amazed and wondered, saying, Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galilaeans? <sup>8</sup> and how do we hear [them] each in our own dialect in which we have been born, <sup>9</sup> Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and those who inhabit Mesopotamia, and Judaea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup> both Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya which adjoin Cyrene, and the Romans sojourning [here], both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great things of °God? <sup>12</sup> And they were all amazed and in perplexity, saying one to another, What would this mean? <sup>13</sup> But others mocking said, They are full of new wine. <sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and spoke forth to them, Men of Judaea, and all ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give heed to my words: <sup>15</sup> for these are not full of wine, as ye suppose, for it is the third hour of the day; <sup>16</sup> but this is that which was spoken through the prophet Joel, <sup>17</sup> And it shall be in the last days, saith °God, [that] I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your elders shall dream with dreams; <sup>18</sup> yea, even upon my bondmen and upon my bondwomen in those days will I pour out of my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup> And I will give wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: <sup>20</sup> the sun shall be changed to darkness and the moon to blood, before the great and gloriously appearing day of [the] Lord come. <sup>21</sup> And it shall be that whosoever shall call upon the name of [the] Lord shall be saved. <sup>22</sup> Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus the Nazaraean, a man borne witness to by °God to you by works of power and wonders and signs, which °God wrought by him in your midst, as yourselves know <sup>23</sup>— him, given up by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of °God, ye, by [the] hand of lawless [men], have crucified and slain.

24 Whom °God has raised up, having loosed the pains of death, inasmuch as it was not possible that he should be held by its power; 25 for David says as to him, I foresaw the Lord continually before me, because he is at my right hand that I may not be moved. 26 Therefore has my heart rejoiced and my tongue exulted; yea more, my flesh also shall dwell in hope, 27 for thou wilt not leave my soul in hades, nor wilt thou give thy gracious one to see corruption. 28 Thou hast made known to me [the] paths of life, thou wilt fill me with joy with thy countenance. 29 Brethren, let it be allowed to speak with freedom to you concerning the patriarch David, that he has both died and been buried, and his monument is amongst us unto this day. 30 Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that °God had sworn to him with an oath, of the fruit of his loins to set upon his throne; 31 he, seeing [it] before, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that neither has he been left in hades nor his flesh seen corruption. 32 This Jesus has °God raised up, whereof all we are witnesses. 33 Having therefore been exalted by the right hand of °God, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which ye behold and hear. 34 For David has not ascended into the heavens, but he says himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit at my right hand 35 until I have put thine enemies [to be] the footstool of thy feet. 36 Let the whole house of Israel therefore know assuredly that °God has made him, this Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. 37 And having heard [it] they were pricked in heart, and said to Peter and the other apostles, What shall we do, brethren? 38 And Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptised, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, for remission of sins, and ye will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is the promise and to your children, and to all who [are] afar off, as many as [the] Lord our °God may call. 40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, Be saved from this perverse generation. 41 Those then who had accepted his word were baptised; and there were added in that day about three thousand souls. 42 And they persevered in the teaching and fellowship of the apostles, in breaking of bread and prayers. 43 And fear was upon every soul, and many wonders and signs took place through the apostles' means. 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common, 45 and sold their possessions and substance, and distributed them to all, according as any one might have need. 46 And every day, being constantly in the temple with one accord, and breaking bread in [the] house, they received their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising °God, and having favour with all the people; and the Lord added [to the assembly] daily those that were to be saved.

1 And Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, [which is] the ninth [hour]; 2 and a certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they placed every day at the gate of the temple called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who were going into the temple; 3 who, seeing Peter and John about to enter into the temple, asked to receive alms. <sup>4</sup> And Peter, looking stedfastly upon him with John, said, Look on us. <sup>5</sup> And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> But Peter said, Silver and gold I have not; but what I have, this give I to thee: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazaraean rise up and walk. <sup>7</sup> And having taken hold of him [by] the right hand he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones were made strong. <sup>8</sup> And leaping up he stood and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising °God. <sup>9</sup> And all the people saw him walking and praising °God; <sup>10</sup> and they recognised him, that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. <sup>11</sup> And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico which is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. <sup>12</sup> And Peter, seeing it, answered the people, Men of Israel, why are ye astonished at this? or why do ye gaze on us as if we had by our own power or piety made him to walk? <sup>13</sup> The °God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the °God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he had judged that he should be let go. <sup>14</sup> But ye denied the holy and righteous one, and asked that a man [that was] a murderer should be granted to you; <sup>15</sup> but the originator of life ye slew, whom °God raised from among [the] dead, whereof we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup> And, by faith in his name, his name has made this [man] strong whom ye behold and know; and the faith which is by him has given him this complete soundness in the presence of you all. <sup>17</sup> And now, brethren, I know that ye did it in ignorance, as also your rulers; <sup>18</sup> but °God has thus fulfilled what he had announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer. <sup>19</sup> Repent therefore and be converted, for the blotting out of your sins, so that times of refreshing may come from [the] presence of the Lord, <sup>20</sup> and he may send Jesus Christ, who was foreordained for you, <sup>21</sup> whom heaven indeed must receive till [the] times of [the] restoring of all things, of which °God has spoken by the mouth of his holy prophets since time began. <sup>22</sup> Moses indeed said, A prophet shall [the] Lord your °God raise up to you out of your brethren like me: him shall ye hear in everything whatsoever he shall say to you. <sup>23</sup> And it shall be that whatsoever soul shall not hear that prophet shall be destroyed from among the people. <sup>24</sup> And indeed all the prophets from Samuel and those in succession after [him], as many as have spoken, have announced also these days. <sup>25</sup> Ye are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which °God appointed to our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>26</sup> To you first °God, having raised up his servant, has sent him, blessing you in turning each one [of you] from your wickedness.

<sup>1</sup> And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, <sup>2</sup> being distressed on account of their teaching the people and preaching by Jesus the resurrection from among [the] dead; <sup>3</sup> and they laid hands on them, and put them in ward till the morrow; for it was already evening. <sup>4</sup> But many of those who had heard the word believed; and the number of the men had become [about] five thousand. <sup>5</sup> And it came to pass on the morrow that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together at Jerusalem, <sup>6</sup> and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of [the] high priestly family; <sup>7</sup> and having placed them in the midst they inquired, In what power or in what name have ye done this? <sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with [the] Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people and elders [of Israel], <sup>9</sup> if we this day are called upon to answer as to the good deed [done] to the infirm man, how he has been healed, <sup>10</sup> be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazaraean, whom ye have crucified, whom <sup>o</sup>God has raised from among [the] dead, by him this [man] stands here before you sound [in body]. <sup>11</sup> He is the stone which has been set at nought by you the builders, which is become the corner stone. <sup>12</sup> And salvation is in none other; for neither is there another name under heaven which is given among men by which we must be saved. <sup>13</sup> But seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and perceiving that they were unlettered and uninstructed men, they wondered; and they recognised them that they were with Jesus. <sup>14</sup> And beholding the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to reply; <sup>15</sup> but having commanded them to go out of the council they conferred with one another, <sup>16</sup> saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed an evident sign has come to pass through their means is manifest to all that inhabit Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. <sup>17</sup> But that it be not further spread among the people, let us threaten them severely no longer to speak to any man in this name. <sup>18</sup> And having called them, they charged [them] not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup> But Peter and John answering said to them, If it be righteous before <sup>o</sup>God to listen to you rather than to <sup>o</sup>God, judge ye; <sup>20</sup> for as for us we cannot refrain from speaking of the things which we have seen and heard. <sup>21</sup> But they, having further threatened them, let them go, finding no way how they might punish them, on account of the people, because all glorified <sup>o</sup>God for what had taken place; <sup>22</sup> for the man on whom this sign of healing had taken place was above forty years old. <sup>23</sup> And having been let go, they came to their own [company], and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup> And they, having heard [it], lifted up [their] voice with one accord to <sup>o</sup>God, and said, Lord, thou art the <sup>o</sup>God who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>25</sup> who hast said by the mouth of thy servant David, Why have [the] nations raged haughtily and [the] peoples meditated vain things? <sup>26</sup> The kings of the earth were there, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against his Christ. <sup>27</sup> For in truth against thy holy servant Jesus, whom thou hadst anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with [the] nations, and peoples of Israel, have been gathered together in this city <sup>28</sup> to do whatever thy hand and thy counsel had determined before should come to pass. <sup>29</sup> And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings, and give to thy bondmen with all boldness to speak thy word, <sup>30</sup> in that thou stretchest out thy hand to heal, and that signs and wonders take place through the name of thy holy servant Jesus. <sup>31</sup> And when they had prayed, the place in which they were assembled shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and spoke the word of °God with boldness. <sup>32</sup> And the heart and soul of the multitude of those that had believed were one, and not one said that anything of what he possessed was his own, but all things were common to them; <sup>33</sup> and with great power did the apostles give witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup> For neither was there any one in want among them; for as many as were owners of lands or houses, selling them, brought the price of what was sold <sup>35</sup> and laid it at the feet of the apostles; and distribution was made to each according as any one might have need. <sup>36</sup> And Joseph, who had been surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which is, being interpreted, Son of consolation), a Levite, Cyprian by birth, <sup>37</sup> being possessed of land, having sold [it], brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

who were all healed. <sup>17</sup> And the high priest rising up, and all they that were with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, were filled with wrath, <sup>18</sup> and laid hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison. <sup>19</sup> But an angel of [the] Lord during the night opened the doors of the prison, and leading them out, said, <sup>20</sup> Go ye and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. <sup>21</sup> And when they heard it, they entered very early into the temple and taught. And when the high priest was come, and they that were with him, they called together the council and all the elderhood of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>22</sup> And when the officers were come, they did not find them in the prison; and returned and reported <sup>23</sup> saying, We found the prison shut with all security, and the keepers standing at the doors; but when we had opened [them], within we found no one. <sup>24</sup> And when they heard these words, both the priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests were in perplexity as to them, what this would come to. <sup>25</sup> And some one coming reported to them, Lo, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people. <sup>26</sup> Then the captain, having gone with the officers, brought them, not with violence, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. <sup>27</sup> And they bring them and set them in the council. And the high priest asked them, <sup>28</sup> saying, We strictly enjoined you not to teach in this name: and lo, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and purpose to bring upon us the blood of this man. <sup>29</sup> But Peter answering, and the apostles, said, °God must be obeyed rather than men. <sup>30</sup> The °God of our fathers has raised up Jesus, whom ye have slain, having hanged on a cross. <sup>31</sup> Him has °God exalted by his right hand as leader and saviour, to give repentance to Israel and remission of sins. <sup>32</sup> And we are [his] witnesses of these things, and the Holy Spirit also, which °God has given to those that obey him. <sup>33</sup> But they, when they heard [these things], were cut to the heart, and took counsel to kill them. <sup>34</sup> But a certain [man], a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, held in honour of all the people, rose up in the council, and commanded to put the men out for a short while, <sup>35</sup> and said to them, Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as regards these men what ye are going to do; <sup>36</sup> for before these days Theudas rose up, alleging himself to be somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, were joined; who was slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup> After him rose Judas the Galilean in the days of the census, and drew away [a number of] people after him; and he perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. <sup>38</sup> And now I say to you, Withdraw from these men and let them alone, for if this counsel or this work have its origin from men, it will be destroyed; <sup>39</sup> but if it be from °God, ye will not be able to put them down, lest ye be found also fighters against °God. <sup>40</sup> And they listened to his advice; and having called the apostles, they beat them, and enjoined them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. <sup>41</sup> They therefore went their way from [the] presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to be dishonoured for the name. <sup>42</sup> And every day, in the temple and in the houses, they ceased not teaching and announcing the glad tidings that Jesus [was] the Christ.

<sup>1</sup> But in those days, the disciples multiplying in number, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Hebrews because their widows were overlooked in the daily ministration. <sup>2</sup> And the twelve, having called the multitude of the disciples to [them], said, It is not right that we, leaving the word of °God, should serve tables. <sup>3</sup> Look out therefore, brethren, from among yourselves seven men, well reported of, full of [the] [Holy] Spirit and wisdom, whom we will establish over this business: <sup>4</sup> but we will give ourselves up to prayer and the ministry of the word. <sup>5</sup> And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and [the] Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte of Antioch, <sup>6</sup> whom they set before the apostles; and, having prayed, they laid their hands on them. <sup>7</sup> And the word of °God increased; and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem was very greatly multiplied, and a great crowd of the priests obeyed the faith. <sup>8</sup> And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought wonders and great signs among the people. <sup>9</sup> And there arose up certain of those of the synagogue called of freedmen, and of Cyrenians, and of Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. <sup>10</sup> And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. <sup>11</sup> Then they suborned men, saying, We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and °God. <sup>12</sup> And they roused the people, and the elders, and the scribes. And coming upon [him] they seized him and brought [him] to the council. <sup>13</sup> And they set false witnesses, saying, This man does not cease speaking words against the holy place and the law; <sup>14</sup> for we have heard him saying, This Jesus the Nazaraean shall destroy this place, and change the customs which Moses taught us. <sup>15</sup> And all who sat in the council, looking fixedly on him, saw his face as [the] face of an angel.

<sup>1</sup> And the high priest said, Are these things then so? <sup>2</sup> And he said, Brethren and fathers, hearken. The °God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, <sup>3</sup> and said to him, Go out of thy land and out of thy kindred, and come into the land which I will shew thee. <sup>4</sup> Then going out of the land of the Chaldeans he dwelt in Charran, and thence, after his father died, he removed him into this land in which ye now dwell. <sup>5</sup> And he did not give him an inheritance in it, not even what his foot could stand on; and promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he had no child. <sup>6</sup> And °God spoke thus: His seed shall be a sojourner in a strange land, and they shall enslave them and evil entreat [them] four hundred years; <sup>7</sup> and the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said °God; and after these things they shall come forth and serve me in this place. <sup>8</sup> And he gave to him

of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup> He led them out, having wrought wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. <sup>37</sup> This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, A prophet shall °God raise up to you out of your brethren like me [him shall ye hear]. <sup>38</sup> This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers; who received living oracles to give to us; <sup>39</sup> to whom our fathers would not be subject, but thrust [him] from them, and in their hearts turned back to Egypt, <sup>40</sup> saying to Aaron, Make us °gods who shall go before us; for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what has happened to him. <sup>41</sup> And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. <sup>42</sup> But °God turned and delivered them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in [the] book of the prophets, Have ye offered me victims and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? <sup>43</sup> Yea, ye took up the tent of Moloch, and the star of [your] °god Remphan, the forms which ye made to do homage to them; and I will transport you beyond Babylon. <sup>44</sup> Our fathers had the tent of the testimony in the wilderness, as he that spoke to Moses commanded to make it according to the model which he had seen; <sup>45</sup> which also our fathers, receiving from their predecessors, brought in with Joshua when they entered into possession of [the lands of] the nations, whom °God drove out from [the] face of our fathers, until the days of David; <sup>46</sup> who found favour before °God, and asked to find a tabernacle for the °God of Jacob; <sup>47</sup> but Solomon built him a house. <sup>48</sup> But the Most High dwells not in [places] made with hands; as says the prophet, <sup>49</sup> The heaven [is] my throne and the earth the footstool of my feet: what house will ye build me? saith [the] Lord, or where [is the] place of my rest? <sup>50</sup> has not my hand made all these things? <sup>51</sup> O stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers, ye also. <sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain those who announced beforehand concerning the coming of the Just One, of whom ye have now become deliverers up and murderers! <sup>53</sup> who have received the law as ordained by [the] ministry of angels, and have not kept [it]. <sup>54</sup> And hearing these things they were cut to the heart, and gnashed their teeth against him. <sup>55</sup> But being full of [the] Holy Spirit, having fixed his eyes on heaven, he saw [the] glory of °God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of °God, <sup>56</sup> and said, Lo, I behold the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of °God. <sup>57</sup> And they cried out with a loud voice, and held their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; <sup>58</sup> and having cast [him] out of the city, they stoned [him]. And the witnesses laid aside their clothes at the feet of a young man called Saul. <sup>59</sup> And they stoned Stephen, praying, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. <sup>60</sup> And kneeling down, he cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And having said this, he fell asleep.

<sup>1</sup> And Saul was consenting to his being killed. And on that day there arose a great persecution against the assembly which was in Jerusalem, and all were scattered into the countries of Judaea and Samaria except the apostles. <sup>2</sup> And pious men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him. <sup>3</sup> But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into the houses one after another, and dragging off both men and women delivered them up to prison. <sup>4</sup> Those then that had been scattered went through [the countries] announcing the glad tidings of the word. <sup>5</sup> And Philip, going down to a city of Samaria, preached the Christ to them; <sup>6</sup> and the crowds with one accord gave heed to the things spoken by Philip, when they heard [him] and saw the signs which he wrought. <sup>7</sup> For from many who had unclean spirits they went out, crying with a loud voice; and many that were paralysed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup> And there was great joy in that city. <sup>9</sup> But a certain man, by name Simon, had been before in the city, using magic arts, and astonishing the nation of Samaria, saying that himself was some great one. <sup>10</sup> To whom they had all given heed, from small to great, saying, This is the power of °God which is called great. <sup>11</sup> And they gave heed to him, because that for a long time he had astonished them by his magic arts. <sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip announcing the glad tidings concerning the kingdom of °God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised, both men and women. <sup>13</sup> And Simon also himself believed; and, having been baptised, continued constantly with Philip; and, beholding the signs and great works of power which took place, was astonished. <sup>14</sup> And the apostles who were in Jerusalem, having heard that Samaria had received the word of °God, sent to them Peter and John; <sup>15</sup> who, having come down, prayed for them that they might receive [the] Holy Spirit; <sup>16</sup> for he was not yet fallen upon any of them, only they were baptised to the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup> Then they laid their hands upon them, and they received [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> But Simon, having seen that by the laying on of the hands of the apostles the [Holy] Spirit was given, offered them money, <sup>19</sup> saying, Give to me also this power, in order that on whomsoever I may lay hands he may receive [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup> And Peter said to him, Thy money go with thee to destruction, because thou hast thought that the gift of °God can be obtained by money. <sup>21</sup> Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not upright before °God. <sup>22</sup> Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and supplicate the Lord, if indeed the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee; <sup>23</sup> for I see thee to be in the gall of bitterness, and bond of unrighteousness. <sup>24</sup> And Simon answering said, Supplicate ye for me to the Lord, so that nothing may come upon me of the things of which ye have spoken. <sup>25</sup> They therefore, having testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and announced the glad tidings to many villages of the Samaritans. <sup>26</sup> But [the] angel of [the] Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Rise up and go southward on the way which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza: the same is desert. <sup>27</sup> And he rose up and went. And lo, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a man in power under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to worship at Jerusalem, <sup>28</sup> was returning and sitting in his chariot: and he was reading the prophet Esaias. <sup>29</sup> And the Spirit said to Philip, Approach and join this chariot. <sup>30</sup> And Philip, running up, heard him reading the prophet Esaias, and said, Dost thou then know what thou art reading of? <sup>31</sup> And he said, How should I then be able unless some one guide me? And he begged Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup> And the passage of the scripture which he read was this: He was led as a sheep to slaughter, and as a lamb is dumb in presence of him that shears him, thus he opens not his mouth. <sup>33</sup> In his humiliation his judgment has been taken away, and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. <sup>34</sup> And the eunuch answering Philip said, I pray thee, concerning whom does the prophet say this? of himself or of some other? <sup>35</sup> And Philip, opening his mouth and beginning from that scripture, announced the glad tidings of Jesus to him. <sup>36</sup> And as they went along the way, they came upon a certain water, and the eunuch says, Behold water; what hinders my being baptised? <sup>38</sup> And he commanded the chariot to stop. And they went down both to the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptised him. <sup>39</sup> But when they came up out of the water [the] Spirit of [the] Lord caught away Philip, and the eunuch saw him no longer, for he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> And Philip was found at Azotus, and passing through he announced the glad tidings to all the cities till he came to Caesarea.

<sup>1</sup> But Saul, still breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, came to the high priest <sup>2</sup> and asked of him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he found any who were of the way, both men and women, he might bring [them] bound to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> But as he was journeying, it came to pass that he drew near to Damascus; and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven, <sup>4</sup> and falling on the earth he heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why dost thou persecute me? <sup>5</sup> And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he [said], I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest. <sup>6</sup> But rise up and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. <sup>7</sup> But the men who were travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but beholding no one. <sup>8</sup> And Saul rose up from the earth, and his eyes being opened he saw no one. But leading [him] by the hand they brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> And he was three days without seeing, and neither ate nor drank. <sup>10</sup> And there was a certain disciple in Damascus by name Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, [here am] I, Lord. <sup>11</sup> And the Lord [said] to him, Rise up and go into the street which is called Straight, and seek in the house of Judas one by name Saul, [he is] of Tarsus: for, behold, he is praying, <sup>12</sup> and has seen [in a vision] a man by name Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he should see. <sup>13</sup> And Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many concerning this man how much evil he has done to thy saints at Jerusalem; <sup>14</sup> and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon thy name. <sup>15</sup> And the Lord said to him, Go, for this [man] is an elect vessel to me, to bear my name before both nations and kings and [the] sons of Israel: <sup>16</sup> for I will shew to him how much he must suffer for my name. <sup>17</sup> And Ananias went and entered into the house; and laying his hands upon him he said, Saul, brother; the Lord has sent me, Jesus that appeared to thee in the way in which thou camest, that thou mightest see, and be filled with [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he saw, and rising up was baptised; <sup>19</sup> and, having received food, got strength. And he was with the disciples who [were] in Damascus certain days. <sup>20</sup> And straightway in the synagogues he preached Jesus that he is the Son of °God. <sup>21</sup> And all who heard were astonished and said, Is not this he who destroyed in Jerusalem those who called on this name, and here was come for this purpose, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests? <sup>22</sup> But Saul increased the more in power, and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. <sup>23</sup> Now when many days were fulfilled, the Jews consulted together to kill him. <sup>24</sup> But their plot became known to Saul. And they watched also the gates both day and night, that they might kill him; <sup>25</sup> but the disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. <sup>26</sup> And having arrived at Jerusalem he essayed to join himself to the disciples, and all were afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and related to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup> And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem, <sup>29</sup> and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. And he spoke and discussed with the Hellenists; but they sought to kill him. <sup>30</sup> And the brethren knowing it, brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus. <sup>31</sup> The assemblies then throughout the whole of Judaea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being edified and walking in the fear of the Lord, and were increased through the comfort of the Holy Spirit. <sup>32</sup> Now it came to pass that Peter, passing through all [quarters], descended also to the saints who inhabited Lydda. <sup>33</sup> And he found there a certain man, Aeneas by name, who had been lying for eight years upon a couch, who was paralysed. <sup>34</sup> And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus, the Christ, heals thee: rise up, and make thy couch for thyself. And straightway he rose up. <sup>35</sup> And all who inhabited Lydda and the Saron saw him, who turned to the Lord. <sup>36</sup> And in Joppa there was a certain female disciple, by name Tabitha, which being interpreted means Dorcas. She was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did. <sup>37</sup> And it came to pass in those days that she grew sick and died; and, having washed her, they put her in [the] upper room. <sup>38</sup> But Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, beseeching him, Thou must not delay coming to us. <sup>39</sup> And Peter rising up went with them, whom, when arrived, they brought up into the upper chamber; and all the widows stood by him weeping and shewing him the body-coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup> But Peter, putting them all out, and kneeling down, prayed. And, turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and, seeing Peter, sat up. <sup>41</sup> And having given her [his] hand, he raised her up, and having called the saints and the widows, presented her living. <sup>42</sup> And it became known throughout the whole of Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. <sup>43</sup> And it came to pass that he remained many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

<sup>1</sup> But a certain man in Caesarea, — by name Cornelius, a centurion of the band called Italic, <sup>2</sup> pious, and fearing °God with all his house, [both] giving much alms to the people, and supplicating °God continually, <sup>3</sup> — saw plainly in a vision, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of °God coming unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. <sup>4</sup> But he, having fixed his eyes upon him, and become full of fear, said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Thy prayers and thine alms have gone up for a memorial before °God. <sup>5</sup> And now send men to Joppa and fetch Simon, who is surnamed Peter. <sup>6</sup> He lodges with a certain Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. <sup>7</sup> And when the angel who was speaking to him had departed, having called two of his household and a pious soldier of those who were constantly with him, <sup>8</sup> and related all things to them, he sent them to Joppa. <sup>9</sup> And on the morrow, as these were journeying and drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the house to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup> And he became hungry and desired to eat. But as they were making ready an ecstasy came upon him: <sup>11</sup> and he beholds the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as a great sheet, [bound] by [the] four corners [and] let down to the earth; <sup>12</sup> in which were all the quadrupeds and creeping things of the earth, and the fowls of the heaven. <sup>13</sup> And there was a voice to him, Rise, Peter, slay and eat. <sup>14</sup> And Peter said, In no wise, Lord; for I have never eaten anything common or unclean. <sup>15</sup> And [there was] a voice again the second time to him, What °God has cleansed, do not thou make common. <sup>16</sup> And this took place thrice, and the vessel was straightway taken up into heaven. <sup>17</sup> And as Peter doubted in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold also the men who were sent by Cornelius, having sought out the house of Simon, stood at the gate, <sup>18</sup> and having called [some one], they inquired if Simon who was surnamed Peter was lodged there. <sup>19</sup> But as Peter continued pondering over the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, three men seek thee; <sup>20</sup> but rise up, go down, and go with them, nothing doubting, because I have sent them. <sup>21</sup> And Peter going down to the men said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause for which ye come? <sup>22</sup> And they said, Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man, and fearing °God, and borne witness to by the whole nation of the Jews, has been divinely instructed by a holy angel to send for thee to his house, and hear words from thee. <sup>23</sup> Having therefore invited them in, he lodged them. And on the morrow, rising up he went away with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa went with him. <sup>24</sup> And on the morrow they came to Caesarea. But Cornelius was looking for them, having called together his kinsmen and [his] intimate friends. <sup>25</sup> And when Peter was now coming in, Cornelius met him, and falling down did [him] homage. <sup>26</sup> But Peter made him rise, saying, Rise up: I myself also am a man. <sup>27</sup> And he went in, talking with him, and found many gathered together. <sup>28</sup> And he said to them, Ye know how it is unlawful for a Jew to be joined or come to one of a strange race, and to me °God has shewn to call no man common or unclean. <sup>29</sup> Wherefore also, having been sent for, I came without saying anything against it. I inquire therefore for what reason ye have sent for me. <sup>30</sup> And Cornelius said, Four days ago I had been [fasting] unto this hour, and the ninth [I was] praying in my house, and lo, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>31</sup> and said, Cornelius, thy prayer has been heard, and thy alms have come in remembrance before °God. <sup>32</sup> Send therefore to Joppa and fetch Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodges in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea [who when he is come will speak to thee]. <sup>33</sup> Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done in coming. Now therefore we are all present before °God to hear all things that are commanded thee of °God. <sup>34</sup> And Peter opening his mouth said, Of a truth I perceive that °God is no respecter of persons, <sup>35</sup> but in every nation he that fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup> The word which he sent to the sons of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (he is Lord of all things,) <sup>37</sup> ye know; the testimony which has spread through the whole of Judaea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached — <sup>38</sup> Jesus who [was] of Nazareth: how °God anointed him with [the] Holy Spirit and with power; who went through [all quarters] doing good, and healing all that were under the power of the devil, because °God was with him. <sup>39</sup> We also [are] witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they also slew, having hanged him on a cross. <sup>40</sup> This [man] °God raised up the third day and gave him to be openly seen, <sup>41</sup> not of all the people, but of witnesses who were chosen before of °God, us who have eaten and drunk with him after he arose from among [the] dead. <sup>42</sup> And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he it is who was determinately appointed of °God [to be] judge of living and dead. <sup>43</sup> To him all the prophets bear witness that every one that believes on him will receive through his name remission of sins. <sup>44</sup> While Peter was yet speaking these words the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who were hearing the word. <sup>45</sup> And the faithful of the circumcision were astonished, as many as came with Peter, that upon the nations also the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out: <sup>46</sup> for they heard them speaking with tongues and magnifying °God. Then Peter answered, <sup>47</sup> Can any one forbid water that these should not be baptised, who have received the Holy Spirit as we also [did]? <sup>48</sup> And he commanded them to be baptised in the name of the Lord. Then they begged him to stay some days.

<sup>1</sup> And the apostles and the brethren who were in Judaea heard that the nations also had received the word of °God; <sup>2</sup> and when Peter went up to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>3</sup> saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised and hast eaten with them. <sup>4</sup> But

Peter began and set forth [the matter] to them in order, saying, <sup>5</sup> I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in an ecstasy I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending like a great sheet, let down by four corners out of heaven, and it came even to me: <sup>6</sup> on which having fixed mine eyes, I considered, and saw the quadrupeds of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the fowls of the heaven. <sup>7</sup> And I heard also a voice saying to me, Rise up, Peter, slay and eat. <sup>8</sup> And I said, In no wise, Lord, for common or unclean has never entered into my mouth. <sup>9</sup> And a voice answered the second time out of heaven, What <sup>o</sup>God has cleansed, do not thou make common. <sup>10</sup> And this took place thrice, and again all was drawn up into heaven; <sup>11</sup> and lo, immediately three men were at the house in which I was, sent to me from Caesarea. <sup>12</sup> And the Spirit said to me to go with them, nothing doubting. And there went with me these six brethren also, and we entered into the house of the man, <sup>13</sup> and he related to us how he had seen the angel in his house, standing and saying [to him], Send [men] to Joppa and fetch Simon, who is surnamed Peter, <sup>14</sup> who shall speak words to thee whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and all thy house. <sup>15</sup> And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them even as upon us also at the beginning. <sup>16</sup> And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John baptised with water, but ye shall be baptised with [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> If then <sup>o</sup>God has given them the same gift as also to us when we had believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who indeed was I to be able to forbid <sup>o</sup>God? <sup>18</sup> And when they heard these things they held their peace, and glorified <sup>o</sup>God, saying, Then indeed <sup>o</sup>God has to the nations also granted repentance to life. <sup>19</sup> They then who had been scattered abroad through the tribulation that took place on the occasion of Stephen, passed through [the country] to Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one but to Jews alone. <sup>20</sup> But there were certain of them, Cyprians and Cyrenians, who entering into Antioch spoke to the Greeks also, announcing the glad tidings of the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup> And [the] Lord's hand was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup> And the report concerning them reached the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go through as far as Antioch: <sup>23</sup> who, having arrived and seeing the grace of <sup>o</sup>God, rejoiced, and exhorted all with purpose of heart to abide with the Lord; <sup>24</sup> for he was a good man and full of [the] Holy Spirit and of faith; and a large crowd [of people] were added to the Lord. <sup>25</sup> And he went away to Tarsus to seek out Saul. <sup>26</sup> And having found [him], he brought him to Antioch. And so it was with them that for a whole year they were gathered together in the assembly and taught a large crowd: and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. <sup>27</sup> Now in these days prophets went down from Jerusalem to Antioch; <sup>28</sup> and one from among them, by name Agabus, rose up and signified by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine over all the inhabited earth, which also came to pass under Claudius. <sup>29</sup> And they determined, according as any one of the disciples was well off, each of them to send to the brethren who dwelt in Judaea, to minister [to them]; <sup>30</sup> which also they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

<sup>1</sup> At that time Herod the king laid his hands on some of those of the assembly to do them hurt, <sup>2</sup> and slew James, the brother of John, with the sword. <sup>3</sup> And seeing that it was pleasing to the Jews, he went on to take Peter also: (and they were the days of unleavened bread:) <sup>4</sup> whom having seized he put in prison, having delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep, purposing after the passover to bring him out to the people. <sup>5</sup> Peter therefore was kept in the prison; but unceasing prayer was made by the assembly to <sup>o</sup>God concerning him. <sup>6</sup> And when Herod was going to bring him forth, that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards before the door kept the prison. <sup>7</sup> And lo, an angel of [the] Lord came there, and a light shone in the prison: and having smitten the side of Peter, he roused him up, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off his hands. <sup>8</sup> And the angel said to him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he says to him, Cast thine upper garment about thee and follow me. <sup>9</sup> And going forth he followed [him] and did not know that what was happening by means of the angel was real, but supposed he saw a vision. <sup>10</sup> And having passed through a first and second guard, they came to the iron gate which leads into the city, which opened to them of itself; and going forth they went down one street, and immediately the angel left him. <sup>11</sup> And Peter, being come to himself, said, Now I know certainly that [the] Lord has sent forth his angel and has taken me out of the hand of Herod and all the expectation of the people of the Jews. <sup>12</sup> And having become clearly conscious [in himself], he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was surnamed Mark, where were many gathered together and praying. <sup>13</sup> And when he had knocked at the door of the entry, a maid came to listen, by name Rhoda; <sup>14</sup> and having recognised the voice of Peter, through joy did not open the entry, but running in, reported that Peter was standing before the entry. <sup>15</sup> And they said to her, Thou art mad. But she maintained that it was so. And they said, It is his angel. <sup>16</sup> But Peter continued knocking; and having opened, they saw him and were astonished. <sup>17</sup> And having made a sign to them with his hand to be silent, he related [to them] how the Lord had brought him out of prison; and he said, Report these things to James and to the brethren. And he went out and went to another place. <sup>18</sup> And when it was day there was no small disturbance among the soldiers, what then was become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> And Herod having sought him and not found him, having examined the guards, commanded [them] to be executed. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea and stayed [there]. <sup>20</sup> And he was in bitter hostility with [the] Tyrians and Sidonians; but they came to him with one accord, and, having gained Blastus the king's chamberlain, sought peace, because their country was nourished by the king's. <sup>21</sup> And on a set day, clothed in royal apparel and sitting on the elevated seat [of honour], Herod made a public oration to them. <sup>22</sup> And the people cried out, A <sup>o</sup>god's voice and not a man's. <sup>23</sup> And immediately an angel of [the] Lord smote him, because he did not give the glory to <sup>o</sup>God, and he expired, eaten of worms. <sup>24</sup> But the word of °God grew and spread itself. <sup>25</sup> And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled the service [entrusted to them], taking also with them John, surnamed Mark.

<sup>1</sup> Now there were in Antioch, in the assembly which was [there], prophets and teachers: Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian, and Manaen, foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup> And as they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Separate me now Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. <sup>3</sup> Then, having fasted and prayed, and having laid [their] hands on them, they let [them] go. <sup>4</sup> They therefore, having been sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and thence sailed away to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> And being in Salamis, they announced the word of °God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John also as [their] attendant. <sup>6</sup> And having passed through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man a magician, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus, <sup>7</sup> who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. He, having called Barnabas and Saul to [him], desired to hear the word of °God. <sup>8</sup> But Elymas the magician (for so his name is by interpretation) opposed them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith. <sup>9</sup> But Saul, who also [is] Paul, filled with [the] Holy Spirit, fixing his eyes upon him, <sup>10</sup> said, O full of all deceit and all craft: son of [the] devil, enemy of all righteousness; wilt thou not cease perverting the right paths of [the] Lord? <sup>11</sup> And now behold, [the] Lord's hand [is] upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell upon him a mist and darkness; and going about he sought persons who should lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup> Then the proconsul, seeing what had happened, believed, being amazed at the teaching of the Lord. <sup>13</sup> And having sailed from Paphos, Paul and his company came to Perga of Pamphylia; and John separated from them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and entering into the synagogue on the sabbath day they sat down. <sup>15</sup> And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation to the people, speak. <sup>16</sup> And Paul, rising up and making a sign with the hand, said, Israelites, and ye that fear °God, hearken. <sup>17</sup> The °God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people in their sojourn in [the] land of Egypt, and with a high arm brought them out of it, <sup>18</sup> and for a time of about forty years he nursed them in the desert. <sup>19</sup> And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup> And after these things he gave [them] judges till Samuel the prophet, [to the end of] about four hundred and fifty years. <sup>21</sup> And then they asked for a king, and °God gave to them Saul, son of Kis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, during forty years. <sup>22</sup> And having removed him he raised up to them David for king, of whom also bearing witness he said, I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my will. <sup>23</sup> Of this man's seed according to promise has °God brought to Israel a Saviour, Jesus; <sup>24</sup> John having proclaimed before the face of his entry [among the people] [the] baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>25</sup> And as John was fulfilling his course he said, Whom do ye suppose that I am? I am not [he]. But behold, there comes one after me, the sandal of whose feet I am not worthy to loose. <sup>26</sup> Brethren, sons of Abraham's race, and those who among you fear °God, to you has the word of this salvation been sent: <sup>27</sup> for those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not having known him, have fulfilled also the voices of the prophets which are read on every sabbath, [by] judging [him]. <sup>28</sup> And having found no cause of death [in him], they begged of Pilate that he might be slain. <sup>29</sup> And when they had fulfilled all things written concerning him, they took him down from the cross and put him in a sepulchre; <sup>30</sup> but °God raised him from among [the] dead, <sup>31</sup> who appeared for many days to those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup> And we declare unto you the glad tidings of the promise made to the fathers, <sup>33</sup> that °God has fulfilled this to us their children, having raised up Jesus; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee. <sup>34</sup> But that he raised him from among [the] dead, no more to return to corruption, he spoke thus: I will give to you the faithful mercies of David. <sup>35</sup> Wherefore also he says in another, Thou wilt not suffer thy gracious one to see corruption. <sup>36</sup> For David indeed, having in his own generation ministered to the will of °God, fell asleep, and was added to his fathers and saw corruption. <sup>37</sup> But he whom °God raised up did not see corruption. <sup>38</sup> Be it known unto you, therefore, brethren, that through this man remission of sins is preached to you, <sup>39</sup> and from all things from which ye could not be justified in the law of Moses, in him every one that believes is justified. <sup>40</sup> See therefore that that which is spoken in the prophets do not come upon [you], <sup>41</sup> Behold, ye despisers, and wonder and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which ye will in no wise believe if one declare it to you. <sup>42</sup> And as they went out they begged that these words might be spoken to them the ensuing sabbath. <sup>43</sup> And the congregation of the synagogue having broken up, many of the Jews and of the worshipping proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of °God. <sup>44</sup> And on the coming sabbath almost all the city was gathered together to hear the word of °God. <sup>45</sup> But the Jews, seeing the crowds, were filled with envy, and contradicted the things said by Paul, [contradicting and] speaking injuriously. <sup>46</sup> And Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly and said, It was necessary that the word of °God should be first spoken to you; but, since ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we turn to the nations; <sup>47</sup> for thus has the Lord enjoined us: I have set thee for a light of the nations, that thou shouldst be for salvation to the end of the earth. <sup>48</sup> And [those of] the nations, hearing it, rejoiced, and glorified the word of the Lord, and believed, as many as were ordained to eternal life. <sup>49</sup> And the word of the Lord was carried through the whole country. <sup>50</sup> But the Jews excited the women of the upper classes who were worshippers, and the first people of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their coasts. <sup>51</sup> But they, having shaken off the dust of their feet against them, came to Iconium. <sup>52</sup> And the disciples were filled with joy and [the] Holy Spirit.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass in Iconium that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake that a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup> But the Jews who did not believe stirred up the minds of [those of] the nations and made [them] evil-affected against the brethren. <sup>3</sup> They stayed therefore a good while, speaking boldly, [confiding] in the Lord, who gave witness to the word of his grace, giving signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup> And the multitude of the city was divided, and some were with the Jews and some with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> And when an assault was making, both of [those of] the nations and [the] Jews with their rulers, to use [them] ill and stone them, <sup>6</sup> they, being aware of it, fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding country, <sup>7</sup> and there they were announcing the glad tidings. <sup>8</sup> And a certain man in Lystra, impotent in his feet, sat, [being] lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked. <sup>9</sup> This [man] heard Paul speaking, who, fixing his eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup> said with a loud voice, Rise up straight upon thy feet: and he sprang up and walked. <sup>11</sup> But the crowds, who saw what Paul had done, lifted up their voices in Lycaonian, saying, The °gods, having made themselves like men, are come down to us. <sup>12</sup> And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercury, because he took the lead in speaking. <sup>13</sup> And the priest of Jupiter who was before the city, having brought bulls and garlands to the gates, would have done sacrifice along with the crowds. <sup>14</sup> But the apostles Barnabas and Paul, having heard [it], rent their garments, and rushed out to the crowd, crying <sup>15</sup> and saying, Men, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, preaching to you to turn from these vanities to the living °God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all things in them; <sup>16</sup> who in the past generations suffered all the nations to go in their own ways, <sup>17</sup> though indeed he did not leave himself without witness, doing good, and giving to you from heaven rain and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. <sup>18</sup> And saying these things, they with difficulty kept the crowds from sacrificing to them. <sup>19</sup> But there came Jews from Antioch and Iconium, and having persuaded the crowds and stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing him to have died. <sup>20</sup> But while the disciples encircled him, he rose up and entered into the city. And on the morrow he went away with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup> And having announced the glad tidings to that city, and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>22</sup> establishing the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to abide in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of °God. <sup>23</sup> And having chosen them elders in each assembly, having prayed with fastings, they committed them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. <sup>24</sup> And having passed through Pisidia they came to Pamphylia, <sup>25</sup> and having spoken the word in Perga, they came down to Attalia; <sup>26</sup> and thence they sailed away to Antioch, whence they had been committed to the grace of °God for the work which they had fulfilled. <sup>27</sup> And having arrived, and having brought together the assembly, they related to them all that °God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. <sup>28</sup> And they stayed no little time with the disciples.

<sup>1</sup> And certain persons, having come down from Judaea, taught the brethren, If ye shall not have been circumcised according to the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved. <sup>2</sup> A commotion therefore having taken place, and no small discussion on the part of Paul and Barnabas against them, they arranged that Paul and Barnabas, and certain others from amongst them, should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup> They therefore, having been set on their way by the assembly, passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, relating the conversion of [those of] the nations. And they caused great joy to all the brethren. <sup>4</sup> And being arrived at Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly, and the apostles, and the elders, and related all that °God had wrought with them. <sup>5</sup> And some of those who were of the sect of the Pharisees, who believed, rose up from among [them], saying that they ought to circumcise them and enjoin them to keep the law of Moses. <sup>6</sup> And the apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. <sup>7</sup> And much discussion having taken place, Peter, standing up, said to them, Brethren, ye know that from the earliest days °God amongst you chose that the nations by my mouth should hear the word of the glad tidings and believe. <sup>8</sup> And the heart-knowing °God bore them witness, giving [them] the Holy Spirit as to us also, <sup>9</sup> and put no difference between us and them, having purified their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore why tempt ye °God, by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup> But we believe that we shall be saved by the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same manner as they also. <sup>12</sup> And all the multitude kept silence and listened to Barnabas and Paul relating all the signs and wonders which °God had wrought among the nations by them. <sup>13</sup> And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Brethren, listen to me: <sup>14</sup> Simon has related how °God first visited to take out of [the] nations a people for his name. <sup>15</sup> And with this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written: <sup>16</sup> After these things I will return, and will rebuild the tabernacle of David which is fallen, and will rebuild its ruins, and will set it up, <sup>17</sup> so that the residue of men may seek out the Lord, and all the nations on whom my name is invoked, saith [the] Lord, who does these things <sup>18</sup> known from eternity. <sup>19</sup> Wherefore I judge, not to trouble those who from the nations turn to °God; <sup>20</sup> but to write to them to abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from what is strangled, and from blood. <sup>21</sup> For Moses, from generations of old, has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath. <sup>22</sup> Then it seemed good to the apostles and to the elders, with the whole assembly, to send chosen men from among them with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch, Judas called Barsabas and Silas, leading men among the brethren, <sup>23</sup> having by their hand written [thus]: The apostles, and the elders, and the brethren, to the brethren who are from among [the] nations at Antioch, and [in] Syria and Cilicia, greeting: <sup>24</sup> Inasmuch as we have heard that some who went out from amongst us have troubled you by words, upsetting your souls, [saying that ye must be circumcised and keep the law]; to whom we gave no commandment; <sup>25</sup> it seemed good to us, having arrived at a common judgment, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men who have given up their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves also will tell you by word [of mouth] the same things. <sup>28</sup> For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup> to abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication; keeping yourselves from which ye will do well. Farewell. <sup>30</sup> They therefore, being let go, came to Antioch, and having gathered the multitude delivered to [them] the epistle. <sup>31</sup> And having read it, they rejoiced at the consolation. <sup>32</sup> And Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, exhorted the brethren with much discourse, and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup> And having passed some time [there], they were let go in peace from the brethren to those who sent them. <sup>35</sup> And Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and announcing the glad tidings, with many others also, of the word of the Lord. <sup>36</sup> But after certain days Paul said to Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city where we have announced the word of the Lord, [and see] how they are getting on. <sup>37</sup> And Barnabas proposed to take with [them] John also, called Mark; <sup>38</sup> but Paul thought it not well to take with them him who had abandoned them, [going back] from Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work. <sup>39</sup> There arose therefore very warm feeling, so that they separated from one another; and Barnabas taking Mark sailed away to Cyprus; <sup>40</sup> but Paul having chosen Silas went forth, committed by the brethren to the grace of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>41</sup> And he passed through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

<sup>1</sup> And he came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, by name Timotheus, son of a Jewish believing woman, but [the] father a Greek, <sup>2</sup> who had a [good] testimony of the brethren in Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup> Him would Paul have go forth with him, and took [him and] circumcised him on account of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew his father that he was a Greek. <sup>4</sup> And as they passed through the cities they instructed them to observe the decrees determined on by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> The assemblies therefore were confirmed in the faith, and increased in number every day. <sup>6</sup> And having passed through Phrygia and the

Galatian country, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia, <sup>7</sup> having come down to Mysia, they attempted to go to Bithynia, and the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them; <sup>8</sup> and having passed by Mysia they descended to Troas. <sup>9</sup> And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a certain Macedonian man, standing and beseeching him, and saying, Pass over into Macedonia and help us. <sup>10</sup> And when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go forth to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to announce to them the glad tidings. <sup>11</sup> Having sailed therefore away from Troas, we went in a straight course to Samothracia, and on the morrow to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup> and thence to Philippi, which is [the] first city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city certain days. <sup>13</sup> And on the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where it was the custom for prayer to be, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had assembled. <sup>14</sup> And a certain woman, by name Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped °God, heard; whose heart the Lord opened to attend to the things spoken by Paul. <sup>15</sup> And when she had been baptised and her house, she besought [us], saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and abide [there]. And she constrained us. <sup>16</sup> And it came to pass as we were going to prayer that a certain female slave, having a spirit of Python, met us, who brought much profit to her masters by prophesying. <sup>17</sup> She, having followed Paul and us, cried saying, These men are bondmen of the Most High °God, who announce to you [the] way of salvation. <sup>18</sup> And this she did many days. And Paul, being distressed, turned, and said to the spirit, I enjoin thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out the same hour. <sup>19</sup> And her masters, seeing that the hope of their gains was gone, having seized Paul and Silas, dragged [them] into the market before the magistrates; <sup>20</sup> and having brought them up to the praetors, said, These men utterly trouble our city, being Jews, <sup>21</sup> and announce customs which it is not lawful for us to receive nor practise, being Romans. <sup>22</sup> And the crowd rose up too against them; and the praetors, having torn off their clothes, commanded to scourge [them]. <sup>23</sup> And having laid many stripes upon them they cast [them] into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely; <sup>24</sup> who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and secured their feet to the stocks. <sup>25</sup> And at midnight Paul and Silas, in praying, were praising °God with singing, and the prisoners listened to them. <sup>26</sup> And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison shook, and all the doors were immediately opened, and the bonds of all loosed. <sup>27</sup> And the jailor being awakened out of his sleep, and seeing the doors of the prison opened, having drawn a sword was going to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had fled. <sup>28</sup> But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm, for we are all here. <sup>29</sup> And having asked for lights, he rushed in, and, trembling, fell down before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup> And leading them out said, Sirs, what must I do that I may be saved? <sup>31</sup> And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house. <sup>32</sup> And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, with all that were in his house. <sup>33</sup> And he took them the same hour of the night and washed [them] from their stripes; and was baptised, he and all his straightway. <sup>34</sup> And having brought them into his house he laid the table [for them], and rejoiced with all his house, having believed in °God. <sup>35</sup> And when it was day, the praetors sent the lictors, saying, Let those men go. <sup>36</sup> And the jailor reported these words to Paul: The praetors have sent that ye may be let go. Now therefore go out and depart in peace. <sup>37</sup> But Paul said to them, Having beaten us publicly uncondemned, us who are Romans, they have cast us into prison, and now they thrust us out secretly? no, indeed, but let them come themselves and bring us out. <sup>38</sup> And the lictors reported these words to the praetors. And they were afraid when they heard they were Romans. <sup>39</sup> And they came and besought them, and having brought them out, asked them to go out of the city. <sup>40</sup> And having gone out of the prison, they came to Lydia; and having seen the brethren, they exhorted them and went away.

<sup>1</sup> And having journeyed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> And according to Paul's custom he went in among them, and on three sabbaths reasoned with them from the scriptures, <sup>3</sup> opening and laying down that the Christ must have suffered and risen up from among the dead, and that this is the Christ, Jesus whom I announce to you. <sup>4</sup> And some of them believed, and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, and of the Greeks who worshipped, a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. <sup>5</sup> But the Jews having been stirred up to jealousy, and taken to [themselves] certain wicked men of the lowest rabble, and having got a crowd together, set the city in confusion; and having beset the house of Jason sought to bring them out to the people; <sup>6</sup> and not having found them, dragged Jason and certain brethren before the politarchs, crying out, These [men] that have set the world in tumult, are come here also, <sup>7</sup> whom Jason has received; and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying, that there is another king, Jesus. <sup>8</sup> And they troubled the crowd and the politarchs when they heard these things. <sup>9</sup> And having taken security of Jason and the rest, they let them go. <sup>10</sup> But the brethren immediately sent away, in the night, Paul and Silas to Berea; who, being arrived, went away into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup> And these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, receiving the word with all readiness of mind, daily searching the scriptures if these things were so. <sup>12</sup> Therefore many from among them believed, and of Grecian women of the upper classes and men not a few. <sup>13</sup> But when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that the word of °God was announced in Berea also by Paul, they came there also, stirring up the crowds. <sup>14</sup> And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as to the sea; but Silas and Timotheus abode there. <sup>15</sup> But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and, having received a commandment to Silas and Timotheus, that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they departed. <sup>16</sup> But in Athens, while Paul was waiting for them, his spirit was painfully excited in him seeing the city given up to idolatry.

17 He reasoned therefore in the synagogue with the Jews, and those who worshipped, and in the market-place every day with those he met with. 18 But some also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers attacked him. And some said, What would this chatterer say? and some, He seems to be an announcer of foreign demons, because he announced the glad tidings of Jesus and the resurrection [to them]. 19 And having taken hold on him they brought [him] to Areopagus, saying, Might we know what this new doctrine which is spoken by thee [is]? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears. We wish therefore to know what these things may mean. 21 Now all [the] Athenians and the strangers sojourning there spent their time in nothing else than to tell and to hear the news. 22 And Paul standing in the midst of Areopagus said, Athenians, in every way I see you given up to demon worship; 23 for, passing through and beholding your shrines, I found also an altar on which was inscribed, To the unknown °God. Whom therefore ye reverence, not knowing [him], him I announce to you. 24 The °God who has made the world and all things which are in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 nor is served by men's hands as needing something, himself giving to all life and breath and all things; 26 and has made of one blood every nation of men to dwell upon the whole face of the earth, having determined ordained times and the boundaries of their dwelling, 27 that they may seek °God; if indeed they might feel after him and find him, although he is not far from each one of us: 28 for in him we live and move and exist; as also some of the poets amongst you have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Being therefore [the] offspring of °God, we ought not to think that which is divine to be like gold or silver or stone, [the] graven form of man's art and imagination. 30 °God therefore, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now enjoins men that they shall all everywhere repent, 31 because he has set a day in which he is going to judge the habitable earth in righteousness by [the] man whom he has appointed, giving the proof [of it] to all [in] having raised him from among [the] dead. 32 And when they heard [of the] resurrection of the dead, some mocked, and some said, We will hear thee again also concerning this. 33 Thus Paul went out of their midst. 34 But some men joining themselves to him believed; among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman by name Damaris, and others with them.

1 And after these things, having left Athens, he came to Corinth; 2 and finding a certain Jew by name Aquila, of Pontus by race, just come from Italy, and Priscilla his wife, (because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome,) came to them, 3 and because they were of the same trade abode with them, and wrought. For they were tent-makers by trade. 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. 5 And when both Silas and Timotheus came down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in respect of the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. 6 But as they opposed and spoke injuriously, he shook his clothes, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own head: I [am] pure; from henceforth I will go to the nations. <sup>7</sup> And departing thence he came to the house of a certain [man], by name Justus, who worshipped <sup>o</sup>God, whose house adjoined the synagogue. <sup>8</sup> But Crispus the ruler of the synagogue believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptised. <sup>9</sup> And the Lord said by vision in [the] night to Paul, Fear not, but speak and be not silent; <sup>10</sup> because I am with thee, and no one shall set upon thee to injure thee; because I have much people in this city. <sup>11</sup> And he remained [there] a year and six months, teaching among them the word of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>12</sup> But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one consent rose against Paul and led him to the judgment-seat, <sup>13</sup> saying, This [man] persuades men to worship <sup>o</sup>God contrary to the law. <sup>14</sup> But as Paul was going to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If indeed it was some wrong or wicked criminality, O Jews, of reason I should have borne with you; <sup>15</sup> but if it be questions about words, and names, and the law that ye have, see to it yourselves; [for] I do not intend to be judge of these things. <sup>16</sup> And he drove them from the judgment-seat. <sup>17</sup> And having all laid hold on Sosthenes the ruler of the synagogue, they beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio troubled himself about none of these things. <sup>18</sup> And Paul, having yet stayed [there] many days, took leave of the brethren and sailed thence to Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila, having shorn his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow; <sup>19</sup> and he arrived at Ephesus, and left them there. But entering himself into the synagogue he reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup> And when they asked him that he would remain for a longer time [with them] he did not accede, <sup>21</sup> but bade them farewell, saying, [I must by all means keep the coming feast at Jerusalem]; I will return to you again, if <sup>o</sup>God will: and he sailed away from Ephesus. <sup>22</sup> And landing at Caesarea, and having gone up and saluted the assembly, he went down to Antioch. <sup>23</sup> And having stayed [there] some time, he went forth, passing in order through the country of Galatia and Phrygia, establishing all the disciples. <sup>24</sup> But a certain Jew, Apollos by name, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, who was mighty in the scriptures, arrived at Ephesus. <sup>25</sup> He was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in his spirit, he spoke and taught exactly the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup> And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And Aquila and Priscilla, having heard him, took him to [them] and unfolded to him the way of <sup>o</sup>God more exactly. <sup>27</sup> And when he purposed to go into Achaia, the brethren wrote to the disciples engaging them to receive him, who, being come, contributed much to those who believed through grace. <sup>28</sup> For he with great force convinced the Jews publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

<sup>1</sup> And it came to pass, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper districts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples, <sup>2</sup> he said to them, Did ye receive [the] Holy Spirit when ye had believed? And they [said] to him, We did not even hear if [the] Holy Spirit was [come]. <sup>3</sup> And he said, To what then were ye baptised? And they said, To the baptism of John. <sup>4</sup> And Paul said, John indeed baptised [with] the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on him that was coming after him, that is, on Jesus. <sup>5</sup> And when they heard that, they were baptised to the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> And Paul having laid [his] hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup> And all the men were about twelve. <sup>8</sup> And entering into the synagogue, he spoke boldly during three months, reasoning and persuading [the things] concerning the kingdom of °God. <sup>9</sup> But when some were hardened and disbelieved, speaking evil of the way before the multitude, he left them and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup> And this took place for two years, so that all that inhabited Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. <sup>11</sup> And °God wrought no ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup> so that even napkins or aprons were brought from his body [and put] upon the sick, and the diseases left them, and the wicked spirits went out. <sup>13</sup> And certain of the Jewish exorcists also, who went about, took in hand to call upon those who had wicked spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preaches. <sup>14</sup> And there were certain [men], seven sons of Sceva, Jewish high priest, who were doing this. <sup>15</sup> But the wicked spirit answering said to them, Jesus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with; but ye, who are ye? <sup>16</sup> And the man in whom the wicked spirit was leaped upon them, and having mastered both, prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup> And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who inhabited Ephesus, and fear fell upon all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup> And many of those that believed came confessing and declaring their deeds. <sup>19</sup> And many of those that practised curious arts brought their books [of charms] and burnt them before all. And they reckoned up the prices of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup> Thus with might the word of the Lord increased and prevailed. <sup>21</sup> And when these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in his spirit to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, After I have been there I must see Rome also. <sup>22</sup> And having sent into Macedonia two of those ministering to him, Timotheus and Erastus, he remained himself awhile in Asia. <sup>23</sup> And there took place at that time no small disturbance about the way. <sup>24</sup> For a certain [man] by name Demetrius, a silver-beater, making silver temples of Artemis, brought no small gain to the artisans; <sup>25</sup> whom having brought together, and those who wrought in such things, he said, Men, ye know that our well-living arises from this work, <sup>26</sup> and ye see and hear that this Paul has persuaded and turned away a great crowd, not only of Ephesus, but almost of all Asia, saying that they are no °gods which are made with hands. <sup>27</sup> Now not only there is danger for us that our business come into discredit, but also that the temple of the great °goddess Artemis be counted for nothing, and that her greatness should be destroyed whom the whole of Asia and the world reveres. <sup>28</sup> And having heard [this], and being filled with rage, they cried out, saying,

Great [is] Artemis of the Ephesians. <sup>29</sup> And the [whole] city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord to the theatre, having seized and carried off with [them] Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, fellow-travellers of Paul. <sup>30</sup> But Paul intending to go in to the people, the disciples suffered him not; <sup>31</sup> and some of the Asiarchs also, who were his friends, sent to him and urged him not to throw himself into the theatre. <sup>32</sup> Different persons therefore cried out some different thing; for the assembly was tumultuous, and the most did not know for what cause they had come together. <sup>33</sup> But from among the crowd they put forward Alexander, the Jews pushing him forward. And Alexander, beckoning with his hand, would have made a defence to the people. <sup>34</sup> But, recognising that he was a Jew, there was one cry from all, shouting for about two hours, Great [is] Artemis of the Ephesians. <sup>35</sup> And the townclerk, having quieted the crowd, said, Ephesians, what man is there then who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of Artemis the great, and of the [image] which fell down from heaven? <sup>36</sup> These things therefore being undeniable, it is necessary that ye should be calm and do nothing headlong. <sup>37</sup> For ye have brought these men, [who are] neither temple-plunderers, nor speak injuriously of your °goddess. <sup>38</sup> If therefore Demetrius and the artisans who [are] with him have a matter against any one, the courts are being held, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. <sup>39</sup> But if ye inquire anything concerning other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>40</sup> For also we are in danger to be put in accusation for sedition for this [affair] of to-day, no cause existing in reference to which we shall be able to give a reason for this concourse. <sup>41</sup> And having said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

<sup>1</sup> But after the tumult had ceased, Paul having called the disciples to [him] and embraced [them], went away to go to Macedonia. <sup>2</sup> And having passed through those parts, and having exhorted them with much discourse, he came to Greece. <sup>3</sup> And having spent three months [there], a treacherous plot against him having been set on foot by the Jews, as he was going to sail to Syria, [the] resolution was adopted of returning through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup> And there accompanied him as far as Asia, Sopater [son] of Pyrrhus, a Berean; and of Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius and Timotheus of Derbe, and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. <sup>5</sup> These going before waited for us in Troas; <sup>6</sup> but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and we came to them to Troas in five days, where we spent seven days. <sup>7</sup> And the first day of the week, we being assembled to break bread, Paul discoursed to them, about to depart on the morrow. And he prolonged the discourse till midnight. <sup>8</sup> And there were many lights in the upper room where we were assembled. <sup>9</sup> And a certain youth, by name Eutychus, sitting at the window-opening, overpowered by deep sleep, while Paul discoursed very much at length, having been overpowered by the sleep, fell from the third story down to the bottom, and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup> But Paul descending fell upon him, and

enfold[ing] [him] [in his arms], said, Be not troubled, for his life is in him. <sup>11</sup> And having gone up, and having broken the bread, and eaten, and having long spoken until daybreak, so he went away. <sup>12</sup> And they brought [away] the boy alive, and were no little comforted. <sup>13</sup> And we, having gone before on board ship, sailed off to Assos, going to take in Paul there; for so he had directed, he himself being about to go on foot. <sup>14</sup> And when he met with us at Assos, having taken him on board, we came to Mitylene; <sup>15</sup> and having sailed thence, on the morrow arrived opposite Chios, and the next day put in at Samos; and having stayed at Trogyllium, the next day we came to Miletus: <sup>16</sup> for Paul thought it desirable to sail by Ephesus, so that he might not be made to spend time in Asia; for he hastened, if it was possible for him, to be the day of Pentecost at Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> But from Miletus having sent to Ephesus, he called over [to him] the elders of the assembly. <sup>18</sup> And when they were come to him, he said to them, Ye know how I was with you all the time from the first day that I arrived in Asia, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all lowliness, and tears, and temptations, which happened to me through the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup> how I held back nothing of what is profitable, so as not to announce [it] to you, and to teach you publicly and in every house, <sup>21</sup> testifying to both Jews and Greeks repentance towards °God, and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> And now, behold, bound in my spirit I go to Jerusalem, not knowing what things shall happen to me in it; <sup>23</sup> only that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city, saying that bonds and tribulations await me. <sup>24</sup> But I make no account of [my] life [as] dear to myself, so that I finish my course, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the glad tidings of the grace of °God. <sup>25</sup> And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom [of °God], shall see my face no more. <sup>26</sup> Wherefore I witness to you this day, that I am clean from the blood of all, <sup>27</sup> for I have not shrunk from announcing to you all the counsel of °God. <sup>28</sup> Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, wherein the Holy Spirit has set you as overseers, to shepherd the assembly of °God, which he has purchased with the blood of his own. <sup>29</sup> [For] I know [this,] that there will come in amongst you after my departure grievous wolves, not sparing the flock; <sup>30</sup> and from among your own selves shall rise up men speaking perverted things to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Wherefore watch, remembering that for three years, night and day, I ceased not admonishing each one [of you] with tears. <sup>32</sup> And now I commit you to °God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build [you] up and give [to you] an inheritance among all the sanctified. <sup>33</sup> I have coveted [the] silver or gold or clothing of no one. <sup>34</sup> Yourselves know that these hands have ministered to my wants, and to those who were with me. <sup>35</sup> I have shewed you all things, that thus labouring [we] ought to come in aid of the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. <sup>36</sup> And having said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup> And they all wept sore; and falling upon the neck of Paul they ardently kissed him, <sup>38</sup> specially pained by the word which he had said, that they would no more see his face. And they went down with him to the ship.

<sup>1</sup> And when, having got away from them, we at last sailed away, we came by a direct course to Cos, and on the morrow to Rhodes, and thence to Patara. <sup>2</sup> And having found a ship passing over into Phoenicia, we went on board and sailed; <sup>3</sup> and having sighted Cyprus, and left it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and made the land at Tyre, for there the ship was to discharge her cargo. <sup>4</sup> And having found out the disciples, we remained there seven days; who said to Paul by the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> But when we had completed the days, we set out and took our journey, all of them accompanying us, with wives and children, till [we were] out of the city. And kneeling down upon the shore we prayed. <sup>6</sup> And having embraced one another, we went on board ship, and they returned home. <sup>7</sup> And we, having completed the voyage, arrived from Tyre at Ptolemais, and having saluted the brethren, we remained one day with them. <sup>8</sup> And leaving on the morrow, we came to Caesarea; and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was of the seven, we abode with him. <sup>9</sup> Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. <sup>10</sup> And as we stayed there many days, a certain man, by name Agabus, a prophet, came down from Judaea, <sup>11</sup> and coming to us and taking the girdle of Paul, and having bound his own hands and feet, said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, The man whose this girdle is shall the Jews thus bind in Jerusalem, and deliver him up into the hands of [the] Gentiles. <sup>12</sup> And when we heard these things, both we and those of the place besought [him] not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> But Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>14</sup> And when he would not be persuaded, we were silent, saying, The will of the Lord be done. <sup>15</sup> And after these days, having got our effects ready, we went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> And [some] of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, bringing [with them] a certain Mnason, a Cyprian, an old disciple, with whom we were to lodge. <sup>17</sup> And when we arrived at Jerusalem the brethren gladly received us. <sup>18</sup> And on the morrow Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders came there. <sup>19</sup> And having saluted them, he related one by one the things which °God had wrought among the nations by his ministry. <sup>20</sup> And they having heard [it] glorified °God, and said to him, Thou seest, brother, how many myriads there are of the Jews who have believed, and all are zealous of the law. <sup>21</sup> And they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews among the nations apostasy from Moses, saying that they should not circumcise their children, nor walk in the customs. <sup>22</sup> What is it then? a multitude must necessarily come together, for they will hear that thou art come. <sup>23</sup> This do therefore that we say to thee: We have four men who have a vow on them; <sup>24</sup> take these and be purified with them, and pay their expenses, that they may have their heads shaved; and all will know that [of those things] of which they have been informed about thee nothing is [true]; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. <sup>25</sup> But concerning [those of] the nations who have believed, we have written, deciding that they should [observe no such thing, only to] keep themselves both from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication. <sup>26</sup> Then Paul, taking the men, on the next day, having been purified, entered with them into the temple, signifying the time the days of the purification would be fulfilled, until the offering was offered for every one of them. <sup>27</sup> And when the seven days were nearly completed, the Jews from Asia, having seen him in the temple, set all the crowd in a tumult, and laid hands upon him, <sup>28</sup> crying, Israelites, help! this is the man who teaches all everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place, and has brought Greeks too into the temple, and profaned this holy place. <sup>29</sup> For they had before seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. <sup>30</sup> And the whole city was moved, and there was a concourse of the people; and having laid hold on Paul they drew him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup> And as they were seeking to kill him, a representation came to the chiliarch of the band that the whole of Jerusalem was in a tumult; <sup>32</sup> who, taking with him immediately soldiers and centurions, ran down upon them. But they, seeing the chiliarch and the soldiers, ceased beating Paul. <sup>33</sup> Then the chiliarch came up and laid hold upon him, and commanded [him] to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he might be, and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> And different persons cried some different thing in the crowd. But he, not being able to know the certainty on account of the uproar, commanded him to be brought into the fortress. <sup>35</sup> But when he got upon the stairs it was so that he was borne by the soldiers on account of the violence of the crowd. <sup>36</sup> For the multitude of the people followed, crying, Away with him. <sup>37</sup> But as he was about to be led into the fortress, Paul says to the chiliarch, Is it allowed me to say something to thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek? <sup>38</sup> Thou art not then that Egyptian who before these days raised a sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the assassins? <sup>39</sup> But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus, citizen of no insignificant city of Cilicia, and I beseech of thee, allow me to speak to the people. <sup>40</sup> And when he had allowed him, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people; and a great silence having been made, he addressed them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, pass, as I was journeying and drawing near to Damascus, that, about mid-day, there suddenly shone out of heaven a great light round about me. <sup>7</sup> And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? <sup>8</sup> And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus the Nazaraean, whom thou persecutest. <sup>9</sup> But they that were with me beheld the light, [and were filled with fear], but heard not the voice of him that was speaking to me. <sup>10</sup> And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Rise up, and go to Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which it is appointed thee to do. <sup>11</sup> And as I could not see, through the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came to Damascus. <sup>12</sup> And a certain Ananias, a pious man according to the law, borne witness to by all the Jews who dwelt [there], <sup>13</sup> coming to me and standing by me, said to me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And I, in the same hour, received my sight and saw him. <sup>14</sup> And he said, The <sup>o</sup> God of our fathers has chosen thee beforehand to know his will, and to see the just one, and to hear a voice out of his mouth; <sup>15</sup> for thou shalt be a witness for him to all men of what thou hast seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> And now why lingerest thou? Arise and get baptised, and have thy sins washed away, calling on his name. <sup>17</sup> And it came to pass when I had returned to Jerusalem, and as I was praying in the temple, that I became in ecstasy, <sup>18</sup> and saw him saying to me, Make haste and go quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. <sup>19</sup> And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I was imprisoning and beating in every synagogue those that believe on thee; <sup>20</sup> and when the blood of thy witness Stephen was shed, I also myself was standing by and consenting, and kept the clothes of them who killed him. <sup>21</sup> And he said to me, Go, for I will send thee to the nations afar off. <sup>22</sup> And they heard him until this word, and lifted up their voice, saying, Away with such a one as that from the earth, for it was not fit he should live. <sup>23</sup> And as they were crying, and throwing away their clothes, and casting dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the chiliarch commanded him to be brought into the fortress, saying that he should be examined by scourging, that he might ascertain for what cause they cried thus against him. <sup>25</sup> But as they stretched him forward with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood [by], Is it lawful for you to scourge a man [who is] a Roman and uncondemned? <sup>26</sup> And the centurion, having heard it, went and reported it to the chiliarch, saying, What art thou going to do? for this man is a Roman. <sup>27</sup> And the chiliarch coming up said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Roman? And he said, Yes. <sup>28</sup> And the chiliarch answered, I, for a great sum, bought this citizenship. And Paul said, But I was also [free] born. <sup>29</sup> Immediately therefore those who were going to examine him left him, and the chiliarch also was afraid when he ascertained that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. <sup>30</sup> And on the morrow, desirous to know the certainty [of the matter] why he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to meet, and having brought Paul down set him before them.

° 21:19 Elohim    ° 21:20 Elohim

23

<sup>1</sup> And Paul, fixing his eyes on the council, said, Brethren, I have walked in all good conscience with °God unto this day. <sup>2</sup> But the high priest Ananias ordered those standing by him to smite his mouth. <sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, °God will smite thee, whited wall. And thou, dost thou sit judging me according to the law, and breaking the law commandest me to be smitten? <sup>4</sup> And those that stood by said, Dost thou rail against the high priest of °God? <sup>5</sup> And Paul said, I was not conscious, brethren, that he was high priest; for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evilly of the ruler of thy people. <sup>6</sup> But Paul, knowing that the one part [of them] were of the Sadducees and the other of the Pharisees, cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, son of Pharisees: I am judged concerning the hope and resurrection of [the] dead. <sup>7</sup> And when he had spoken this, there was a tumult of the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. <sup>8</sup> For Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but Pharisees confess both of them. <sup>9</sup> And there was a great clamour, and the scribes of the Pharisees' part rising up contended, saying, We find nothing evil in this man; and if a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel... <sup>10</sup> And a great tumult having arisen, the chiliarch, fearing lest Paul should have been torn in pieces by them, commanded the troop to come down and take him by force from the midst of them, and to bring [him] into the fortress. <sup>11</sup> But the following night the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage; for as thou hast testified the things concerning me at Jerusalem, so thou must bear witness at Rome also. <sup>12</sup> And when it was day, the Jews, having banded together, put themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they should kill Paul. <sup>13</sup> And they were more than forty who had joined together in this oath; <sup>14</sup> and they went to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have cursed ourselves with a curse to taste nothing until we kill Paul. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore do ye with the council make a representation to the chiliarch so that he may bring him down to you, as about to determine more precisely what concerns him, and we, before he draws near, are ready to kill him. <sup>16</sup> But Paul's sister's son, having heard of the lying in wait, came and entered into the fortress and reported [it] to Paul. <sup>17</sup> And Paul, having called one of the centurions, said, Take this youth to the chiliarch, for he has something to report to him. <sup>18</sup> He therefore, having taken him with [him], led him to the chiliarch, and says, The prisoner Paul called me to [him] and asked me to lead this youth to thee, who has something to say to thee. <sup>19</sup> And the chiliarch having taken him by the hand, and having gone apart in private, inquired, What is it that thou hast to report to me? <sup>20</sup> And he said, The Jews have agreed together to make a request to thee, that thou mayest bring Paul down to-morrow into the council, as about to inquire something more precise concerning him. <sup>21</sup> Do not thou then be persuaded by them, for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have put themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink till they kill him; and now they are ready waiting the promise from thee. <sup>22</sup> The chiliarch then dismissed the youth, commanding [him], Utter to no one that thou hast represented these things to me. <sup>23</sup> And having called to [him] certain two of the centurions, he said, Prepare two hundred soldiers that they may go as far as Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred light-armed footmen, for the third hour of the night. <sup>24</sup> And [he ordered them] to provide beasts, that they might set Paul on them and carry [him] safe through to Felix the governor, <sup>25</sup> having written a letter, couched in this form: <sup>26</sup> Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix, greeting. <sup>27</sup> This man, having been taken by the Jews, and being about to be killed by them, I came up with the military and took out [of their hands], having learned that he was a Roman. <sup>28</sup> And desiring to know the charge on which they accused him, I brought him down to their council; <sup>29</sup> whom I found to be accused of questions of their law, but to have no charge laid against him [making him] worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>30</sup> But having received information of a plot about to be put in execution against the man [by the Jews], I have immediately sent him to thee, commanding also his accusers to say before thee the things that are against him. [Farewell.] <sup>31</sup> The soldiers therefore, according to what was ordered them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris, <sup>32</sup> and on the morrow, having left the horsemen to go with him, returned to the fortress. <sup>33</sup> And these, having entered into Caesarea, and given up the letter to the governor, presented Paul also to him. <sup>34</sup> And having read [it], and asked of what eparchy he was, and learned that [he was] of Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> he said, I will hear thee fully when thine accusers also are arrived. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's praetorium.

<sup>1</sup> And after five days came down the high priest Ananias, with the elders, and a certain orator called Tertullus, and laid their informations against Paul before the governor. <sup>2</sup> And he having been called, Tertullus began to accuse, saying, Seeing we enjoy great peace through thee, and that excellent measures are executed for this nation by thy forethought, <sup>3</sup> we receive [it] always and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup> But that I may not too much intrude on thy time, I beseech thee to hear us briefly in thy kindness. <sup>5</sup> For finding this man a pest, and moving sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a leader of the sect of the Nazaraeans; <sup>6</sup> who also attempted to profane the temple; whom we also had seized, [and would have judged according to our law; <sup>7</sup> but Lysias, the chiliarch, coming up, took [him] away with great force out of our hands, <sup>8</sup> having commanded his accusers to come to thee;] of whom thou canst thyself, in examining [him], know the certainty of all these things of which we accuse him. <sup>9</sup> And the Jews also joined in pressing the matter against [Paul], saying that these things were so. <sup>10</sup> But Paul, the governor having beckoned to him to speak, answered, Knowing that for many years thou hast been judge to this nation, I answer readily as to the things which concern myself. <sup>11</sup> As thou mayest know that there are not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem, <sup>12</sup> and neither in the temple did they find me discoursing to any one, or making any tumultuous gathering together of the crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city; <sup>13</sup> neither can they make good the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup> But this I avow to thee, that in the way which they call sect, so I serve my fathers'

°God, believing all things which are written throughout the law, and in the prophets; <sup>15</sup> having hope towards °God, which they themselves also receive, that there is to be a resurrection both of just and unjust. <sup>16</sup> For this cause I also exercise [myself] to have in everything a conscience without offence towards °God and men. <sup>17</sup> And after a lapse of many years I arrived, bringing alms to my nation, and offerings. <sup>18</sup> Whereupon they found me purified in the temple, with neither crowd nor tumult. But it was certain Jews from Asia, <sup>19</sup> who ought to appear before thee and accuse, if they have anything against me; <sup>20</sup> or let these themselves say what wrong they found in me when I stood before the council, <sup>21</sup> [other] than concerning this one voice which I cried standing amongst them: I am judged this day by you touching [the] resurrection of [the] dead. <sup>22</sup> And Felix, knowing accurately the things concerning the way, adjourned them, saying, When Lysias the chiliarch is come down I will determine your affair; <sup>23</sup> ordering the centurion to keep him, and that he should have freedom, and to hinder none of his friends to minister to him. <sup>24</sup> And after certain days, Felix having arrived with Drusilla his wife, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. <sup>25</sup> And as he reasoned concerning righteousness, and temperance, and the judgment about to come, Felix, being filled with fear, answered, Go for the present, and when I get an opportunity I will send for thee; <sup>26</sup> hoping at the same time that money would be given him by Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener and communed with him. <sup>27</sup> But when two years were completed, Felix was relieved by Porcius Festus as his successor; and Felix, desirous to oblige the Jews, to acquire their favour, left Paul bound.

<sup>1</sup> Festus therefore, being come into the eparchy, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. <sup>2</sup> And the chief priests and the chief of the Jews laid informations before him against Paul, and besought him, <sup>3</sup> asking as a grace against him that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying people in wait to kill him on the way. <sup>4</sup> Festus therefore answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to set out shortly. <sup>5</sup> Let therefore the persons of authority among you, says he, going down too, if there be anything in this man, accuse him. <sup>6</sup> And having remained among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and on the next day, having sat down on the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup> And when he was come, the Jews who were come down from Jerusalem stood round, bringing many and grievous charges which they were not able to prove: <sup>8</sup> Paul answering for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I offended [in] anything. <sup>9</sup> But Festus, desirous of obliging the Jews, to acquire their favour, answering Paul, said, Art thou willing to go up to Jerusalem, there to be judged before me concerning these things? <sup>10</sup> But Paul said, I am standing before the judgment-seat of Caesar, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. <sup>11</sup> If then I have done any wrong and committed anything worthy of death, I do not deprecate dying; but if there is nothing of those things of which they accuse me, no man can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar. <sup>12</sup> Then Festus, having conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed to Caesar. To Caesar shalt thou go. <sup>13</sup> And when certain days had elapsed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to salute Festus. <sup>14</sup> And when they had spent many days there, Festus laid before the king the matters relating to Paul, saying, There is a certain man left prisoner by Felix, <sup>15</sup> concerning whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid informations, requiring judgment against him: <sup>16</sup> to whom I answered, It is not [the] custom of the Romans to give up any man before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and he have got opportunity of defence touching the charge. <sup>17</sup> When therefore they had come together here, without putting it off, I sat the next day on the judgment-seat and commanded the man to be brought: <sup>18</sup> concerning whom the accusers, standing up, brought no such accusation of guilt as I supposed; <sup>19</sup> but had against him certain questions of their own system of worship, and concerning a certain Jesus who is dead, whom Paul affirmed to be living. <sup>20</sup> And as I myself was at a loss as to an inquiry into these things, I said, Was he willing to go to Jerusalem and there to be judged concerning these things? <sup>21</sup> But Paul having appealed to be kept for the cognisance of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I shall send him to Caesar. <sup>22</sup> And Agrippa [said] to Festus, I myself also would desire to hear the man. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. <sup>23</sup> On the morrow therefore, Agrippa being come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and having entered into the hall of audience, with the chiliarchs and the men of distinction of the city, and Festus having given command, Paul was brought. <sup>24</sup> And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye see this person, concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews applied to me both in Jerusalem and here, crying out against [him] that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup> But I, having found that he had done nothing worthy of death, and this [man] himself having appealed to Augustus, I have decided to send him; <sup>26</sup> concerning whom I have nothing certain to write to my lord. Wherefore I have brought him before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, so that an examination having been gone into I may have something to write: <sup>27</sup> for it seems to me senseless, sending a prisoner, not also to signify the charges against him.

to be judged because of the hope of the promise made by °God to our fathers, <sup>7</sup> to which our whole twelve tribes serving incessantly day and night hope to arrive; about which hope, O king, I am accused of [the] Jews. <sup>8</sup> Why should it be judged a thing incredible in your sight if °God raises the dead? <sup>9</sup> I indeed myself thought that I ought to do much against the name of Jesus the Nazaraean. <sup>10</sup> Which also I did in Jerusalem, and myself shut up in prisons many of the saints, having received the authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death I gave my vote. <sup>11</sup> And often punishing them in all the synagogues, I compelled them to blaspheme. And, being exceedingly furious against them, I persecuted them even to cities out [of our own land]. <sup>12</sup> And when, [engaged] in this, I was journeying to Damascus, with authority and power from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup> at mid-day, on the way, I saw, O king, a light above the brightness of the sun, shining from heaven round about me and those who were journeying with me. <sup>14</sup> And, when we were all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? [it is] hard for thee to kick against goads. <sup>15</sup> And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: <sup>16</sup> but rise up and stand on thy feet; for, for this purpose have I appeared to thee, to appoint thee to be a servant and a witness both of what thou hast seen, and of what I shall appear to thee in, <sup>17</sup> taking thee out from among the people, and the nations, to whom I send thee, <sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to °God, that they may receive remission of sins and inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. <sup>19</sup> Whereupon, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; <sup>20</sup> but have, first to those both in Damascus and Jerusalem, and to all the region of Judaea, and to the nations, announced that they should repent and turn to °God, doing works worthy of repentance. <sup>21</sup> On account of these things the Jews, having seized me in the temple, attempted to lay hands on and destroy me. <sup>22</sup> Having therefore met with [the] help which is from °God, I have stood firm unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying nothing else than those things which both the prophets and Moses have said should happen, <sup>23</sup> [namely,] whether Christ should suffer; whether he first, through resurrection of [the] dead, should announce light both to the people and to the nations. <sup>24</sup> And as he answered for his defence with these things, Festus says with a loud voice, Thou art mad, Paul; much learning turns thee to madness. <sup>25</sup> But Paul said, I am not mad, most excellent Festus, but utter words of truth and soberness; <sup>26</sup> for the king is informed about these things, to whom also I speak with all freedom. For I am persuaded that of these things nothing is hidden from him; for this was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. <sup>28</sup> And Agrippa [said] to Paul, In a little thou persuadest me to become a Christian. <sup>29</sup> And Paul [said], I would to °God, both in little and in much, that not only thou, but all who have heard me this day, should become such as I also am, except these bonds. <sup>30</sup> And the king stood up, and the governor and Bernice, and those who sat with them, <sup>31</sup> and having gone apart, they spoke to one another saying, This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds. <sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been let go if he had not appealed to Caesar.

<sup>1</sup> But when it had been determined that we should sail to Italy, they delivered up Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion, by name Julius, of Augustus' company. <sup>2</sup> And going on board a ship of Adramyttium about to navigate by the places along Asia, we set sail, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup> And the next day we arrived at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul kindly and suffered him to go to his friends and refresh himself. <sup>4</sup> And setting sail thence we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup> And having sailed over the waters of Cilicia and Pamphylia we came to Myra in Lycia: <sup>6</sup> and there the centurion having found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, he made us go on board her. <sup>7</sup> And sailing slowly for many days, and having with difficulty got abreast of Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete abreast of Salmone; <sup>8</sup> and coasting it with difficulty we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near to which was [the] city of Lasaea. <sup>9</sup> And much time having now been spent, and navigation being already dangerous, because the fast also was already past, Paul counselled them, <sup>10</sup> saying, Men, I perceive that the navigation will be with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives. <sup>11</sup> But the centurion believed rather the helmsman and the shipowner than what was said by Paul. <sup>12</sup> And the harbour being ill adapted to winter in, the most counselled to set sail thence, if perhaps they might reach Phoenice to winter in, a port of Crete looking north-east and south-east. <sup>13</sup> And [the] south wind blowing gently, supposing that they had gained their object, having weighed anchor they sailed close in shore along Crete. <sup>14</sup> But not long after there came down it a hurricane called Euroclydon. <sup>15</sup> And the ship being caught and driven, and not able to bring her head to the wind, letting her go we were driven [before it]. <sup>16</sup> But running under the lee of a certain island called Claudia, we were with difficulty able to make ourselves masters of the boat; <sup>17</sup> which having hoisted up, they used helps, frapping the ship; and fearing lest they should run into Syrtis and run aground, and having lowered the gear they were so driven. <sup>18</sup> But the storm being extremely violent on us, on the next day they threw cargo overboard, <sup>19</sup> and on the third day with their own hands they cast away the ship furniture. <sup>20</sup> And neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm lying on us, in the end all hope of our being saved was taken away. <sup>21</sup> And when they had been a long while without taking food, Paul then standing up in the midst of them said, Ye ought, O men, to have hearkened to me, and not have made sail from Crete and have gained this disaster and loss. <sup>22</sup> And now I exhort you to be of good courage, for there shall be no loss at all of life of [any] of you, only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For an angel of the <sup>o</sup>God, whose I am and whom I serve, stood by me this night, <sup>24</sup> saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before

Caesar; and behold, °God has granted to thee all those that sail with thee. <sup>25</sup> Wherefore be of good courage, men, for I believe °God that thus it shall be, as it has been said to me. <sup>26</sup> But we must be cast ashore on a certain island. <sup>27</sup> And when the fourteenth night was come, we being driven about in Adria, towards the middle of the night the sailors supposed that some land neared them, <sup>28</sup> and having sounded found twenty fathoms, and having gone a little farther and having again sounded they found fifteen fathoms; <sup>29</sup> and fearing lest we should be cast on rocky places, casting four anchors out of the stern, they wished that day were come. <sup>30</sup> But the sailors wishing to flee out of the ship, and having let down the boat into the sea under pretext of being about to carry out anchors from the prow, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, Unless these abide in the ship ye cannot be saved. <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and let her fall. <sup>33</sup> And while it was drawing on to daylight, Paul exhorted them all to partake of food, saying, Ye have passed the fourteenth day watching in expectation without taking food. <sup>34</sup> Wherefore I exhort you to partake of food, for this has to do with your safety; for not a hair from the head of any one of you shall perish. <sup>35</sup> And, having said these things and taken a loaf, he gave thanks to °God before all, and having broken it began to eat. <sup>36</sup> And all taking courage, themselves also took food. <sup>37</sup> And we were in the ship, all the souls, two hundred and seventy-six. <sup>38</sup> And having satisfied themselves with food, they lightened the ship, casting out the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup> And when it was day they did not recognise the land; but they perceived a certain bay having a strand, on which they were minded, if they should be able, to run the ship ashore; <sup>40</sup> and, having cast off the anchors, they left [them] in the sea, at the same time loosening the lashings of the rudders, and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the strand. <sup>41</sup> And falling into a place where two seas met they ran the ship aground, and the prow having stuck itself fast remained unmoved, but the stern was broken by the force of the waves. <sup>42</sup> And [the] counsel of the soldiers was that they should kill the prisoners, lest any one should swim off and escape. <sup>43</sup> But the centurion, desirous of saving Paul, hindered them of their purpose, and commanded those who were able to swim, casting themselves first [into the sea], to get out on land; <sup>44</sup> and the rest, some on boards, some on some of the things [that came] from the ship; and thus it came to pass that all got safe to land.

28

or fallen down suddenly dead. But when they had expected a long time and saw nothing unusual happen to him, changing their opinion, they said he was a °god. <sup>7</sup> Now in the country surrounding that place were the lands belonging to the chief man of the island, by name Publius, who received us and gave [us] hospitality three days in a very friendly way. <sup>8</sup> And it happened that the father of Publius lay ill of fever and dysentery; to whom Paul entered in, and having prayed and laid his hands on him cured him. <sup>9</sup> But this having taken place, the rest also who had sicknesses in the island came and were healed: <sup>10</sup> who also honoured us with many honours, and on our leaving they made presents to us of what should minister to our wants. <sup>11</sup> And after three months we sailed in a ship which had wintered in the island, an Alexandrian, with [the] Dioscuri for its ensign. <sup>12</sup> And having come to Syracuse we remained three days. <sup>13</sup> Whence, going in a circuitous course, we arrived at Rhegium; and after one day, the wind having changed to south, on the second day we came to Puteoli, <sup>14</sup> where, having found brethren, we were begged to stay with them seven days. And thus we went to Rome. <sup>15</sup> And thence the brethren, having heard about us, came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Tres Tabernae, whom when Paul saw, he thanked °God and took courage. <sup>16</sup> And when we came to Rome, [the centurion delivered up the prisoners to the praetorian prefect, but] Paul was allowed to remain by himself with the soldier who kept him. <sup>17</sup> And it came to pass after three days, that he called together those who were the chief of the Jews; and when they had come together he said to them, Brethren, I having done nothing against the people or the customs of our forefathers, have been delivered a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup> who having examined me were minded to let me go, because there was nothing worthy of death in me. <sup>19</sup> But the Jews speaking against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not as having anything to accuse my nation of. <sup>20</sup> For this cause therefore I have called you to [me] to see and to speak to you; for on account of the hope of Israel I have this chain about me. <sup>21</sup> And they said to him, For our part, we have neither received letters from Judaea concerning thee, nor has any one of the brethren who has arrived reported or said anything evil concerning thee. <sup>22</sup> But we beg to hear of thee what thou thinkest, for as concerning this sect it is known to us that it is everywhere spoken against. <sup>23</sup> And having appointed him a day many came to him to the lodging, to whom he expounded, testifying of the kingdom of °God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and the prophets, from early morning to evening. <sup>24</sup> And some were persuaded of the things which were said, but some disbelieved. <sup>25</sup> And being disagreed among themselves they left; Paul having spoken one word, Well spoke the Holy Spirit through Esaias the prophet to our fathers, <sup>26</sup> saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear and not understand, and seeing ye shall see and not perceive. <sup>27</sup> For the heart of this people has become fat, and they hear heavily with their ears, and they have closed their eyes; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

<sup>28</sup> Be it known to you therefore, that this salvation of °God has been sent to the nations; they also will hear [it]. <sup>29</sup> [And he having said this, the Jews went away, having great reasoning among themselves.] <sup>30</sup> And he remained two whole years in his own hired lodging, and received all who came to him, <sup>31</sup> preaching the kingdom of °God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom unhinderedly.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans

<sup>1</sup> Paul, bondman of Jesus Christ, [a] called apostle, separated to °God's glad tidings, <sup>2</sup> (which he had before promised by his prophets in holy writings,) <sup>3</sup> concerning his Son (come of David's seed according to flesh, <sup>4</sup> marked out Son of °God in power, according to [the] Spirit of holiness, by resurrection of [the] dead) Jesus Christ our Lord; <sup>5</sup> by whom we have received grace and apostleship in behalf of his name, for obedience of faith among all the nations, <sup>6</sup> among whom are ye also [the] called of Jesus Christ: <sup>7</sup> to all that are in Rome, beloved of °God, called saints: Grace to you and peace from °God our Father and [our] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup> First, I thank my °God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is proclaimed in the whole world. <sup>9</sup> For °God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the glad tidings of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, <sup>10</sup> always beseeching at my prayers, if any way now at least I may be prospered by the will of °God to come to you. <sup>11</sup> For I greatly desire to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to establish you; <sup>12</sup> that is, to have mutual comfort among you, each by the faith [which is] in the other, both yours and mine. <sup>13</sup> But I do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, that I often proposed to come to you, (and have been hindered until the present time,) that I might have some fruit among you too, even as among the other nations also. <sup>14</sup> I am a debtor both to Greeks and barbarians, both to wise and unintelligent: <sup>15</sup> so, as far as depends on me, am I ready to announce the glad tidings to you also who [are] in Rome. <sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the glad tidings; for it is °God's power to salvation, to every one that believes, both to Jew first and to Greek: <sup>17</sup> for righteousness of °God is revealed therein, on the principle of faith, to faith: according as it is written, But the just shall live by faith. <sup>18</sup> For there is revealed wrath of °God from heaven upon all impiety, and unrighteousness of men holding the truth in unrighteousness. <sup>19</sup> Because what is known of °God is manifest among them, for °God has manifested [it] to them, <sup>20</sup> — for from [the] world's creation the invisible things of him are perceived, being apprehended by the mind through the things that are made, both his eternal power and divinity, — so as to render them inexcusable. <sup>21</sup> Because, knowing °God, they glorified [him] not as °God, neither were thankful; but fell into folly in their thoughts, and their heart without understanding was darkened: <sup>22</sup> professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, <sup>23</sup> and changed the glory of the incorruptible °God into [the] likeness of an image of corruptible man and of birds and quadrupeds and reptiles. <sup>24</sup> Wherefore °God gave them up [also] in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, to dishonour their bodies between themselves: <sup>25</sup> who changed the truth of °God into falsehood, and honoured and served the creature more than him who had created [it], who is blessed for ever. Amen. <sup>26</sup> For this reason °God gave them up to vile lusts; for both their females changed the natural use into that contrary to nature; <sup>27</sup> and in like manner the males also, leaving the natural use of the female, were inflamed in their lust towards one another; males with males working shame, and receiving in themselves the recompense of their error which was fit. <sup>28</sup> And according as they did not think good to have °God in [their] knowledge, °God gave them up to a reprobate mind to practise unseemly things; <sup>29</sup> being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil dispositions; whisperers, <sup>30</sup> back-biters, hateful to °God, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup> void of understanding, faithless, without natural affection, unmerciful; <sup>32</sup> who knowing the righteous judgment of °God, that they who do such things are worthy of death, not only practise them, but have fellow delight in those who do [them].

<sup>1</sup> Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, every one who judgest, for in that in which thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. <sup>2</sup> But we know that the judgment of °God is according to truth upon those who do such things. <sup>3</sup> And thinkest thou this, O man, who judgest those that do such things, and practisest them [thyself], that thou shalt escape the judgment of °God? <sup>4</sup> or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of °God leads thee to repentance? <sup>5</sup> but, according to thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up to thyself wrath, in [the] day of wrath and revelation of [the] righteous judgment of °God, <sup>6</sup> who shall render to each according to his works: <sup>7</sup> to them who, in patient continuance of good works, seek for glory and honour and incorruptibility, life eternal. <sup>8</sup> But to those that are contentious, and are disobedient to the truth, but obey unrighteousness, [there shall be] wrath and indignation, <sup>9</sup> tribulation and distress, on every soul of man that works evil, both of Jew first, and of Greek; <sup>10</sup> but glory and honour and peace to every one that works good, both to Jew first and to Greek: <sup>11</sup> for there is no acceptance of persons with °God. <sup>12</sup> For as many as have sinned without law shall perish also without law; and as many as have sinned under law shall be judged by law, <sup>13</sup> (for not the hearers of the law [are] just before °God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. <sup>14</sup> For when [those of the] nations, which have no law, practise by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law to themselves; <sup>15</sup> who shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing or else excusing themselves between themselves;) <sup>16</sup> in [the] day when °God shall judge the secrets of men, according to my glad tidings, by

Jesus Christ. <sup>17</sup> But if thou art named a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast in °God, <sup>18</sup> and knowest the will, and discerningly approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; <sup>19</sup> and hast confidence that thou thyself art a leader of the blind, a light of those who [are] in darkness, <sup>20</sup> an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having the form of knowledge and of truth in the law: <sup>21</sup> thou then that teachest another, dost thou not teach thyself? thou that preachest not to steal, dost thou steal? <sup>22</sup> thou that sayest [man should] not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? <sup>23</sup> thou who boastest in law, dost thou by transgression of the law dishonour °God? <sup>24</sup> For the name of °God is blasphemed on your account among the nations, according as it is written. <sup>25</sup> For circumcision indeed profits if thou keep [the] law; but if thou be a law-transgressor, thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup> If therefore the uncircumcision keep the requirements of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision, <sup>27</sup> and uncircumcision by nature, fulfilling the law, judge thee, who, with letter and circumcision, [art] a law-transgressor? <sup>28</sup> For he is not a Jew who [is] one outwardly, neither that circumcision which is outward in flesh; <sup>29</sup> but he [is] a Jew [who is so] inwardly; and circumcision, of the heart, in spirit, not in letter; whose praise [is] not of men, but of °God.

<sup>1</sup> What then [is] the superiority of the Jew? or what the profit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup> Much every way: and first, indeed, that to them were entrusted the oracles of °God. <sup>3</sup> For what? if some have not believed, shall their unbelief make the faith of °God of none effect? <sup>4</sup> Far be the thought: but let °God be true, and every man false; according as it is written, So that thou shouldest be justified in thy words, and shouldest overcome when thou art in judgment. <sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness commend °God's righteousness, what shall we say? Is °God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak according to man. <sup>6</sup> Far be the thought: since how shall °God judge the world? <sup>7</sup> For if the truth of °God, in my lie, has more abounded to his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup> and not, according as we are injuriously charged, and according as some affirm that we say, Let us practise evil things, that good ones may come? whose judgment is just. <sup>9</sup> What then? are we better? No, in no wise: for we have before charged both Jews and Greeks with being all under sin: <sup>10</sup> according as it is written, There is not a righteous [man], not even one; <sup>11</sup> there is not the [man] that understands, there is not one that seeks after °God. <sup>12</sup> All have gone out of the way, they have together become unprofitable; there is not one that practises goodness, there is not so much as one: <sup>13</sup> their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; asps' poison [is] under their lips: <sup>14</sup> whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; <sup>15</sup> swift their feet to shed blood;

° 2:17 Elohim   ° 2:23 Elohim   ° 2:24 Elohim   ° 2:29 Elohim   ° 3:2 Elohim   ° 3:3 Elohim

<sup>16</sup> ruin and misery [are] in their ways, <sup>17</sup> and way of peace they have not known: <sup>18</sup> there is no fear of °God before their eyes. <sup>19</sup> Now we know that whatever the things the law says, it speaks to those under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be under judgment to °God. <sup>20</sup> Wherefore by works of law no flesh shall be justified before him; for by law [is] knowledge of sin. <sup>21</sup> But now without law righteousness of °God is manifested, borne witness to by the law and the prophets; <sup>22</sup> righteousness of °God by faith of Jesus Christ towards all, and upon all those who believe: for there is no difference; <sup>23</sup> for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of °God; <sup>24</sup> being justified freely by his grace through the redemption which [is] in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup> whom °God has set forth a mercy-seat, through faith in his blood, for [the] shewing forth of his righteousness, in respect of the passing by the sins that had taken place before, through the forbearance of °God; <sup>26</sup> for [the] shewing forth of his righteousness in the present time, so that he should be just, and justify him that is of [the] faith of Jesus. <sup>27</sup> Where then [is] boasting? It has been excluded. By what law? of works? Nay, but by law of faith; <sup>28</sup> for we reckon that a man is justified by faith, without works of law. <sup>29</sup> Is [God] the °God of Jews only? is he not of [the] nations also? Yea, of nations also: <sup>30</sup> since indeed [it is] one °God who shall justify [the] circumcision on the principle of faith, and uncircumcision by faith. <sup>31</sup> Do we then make void law by faith? Far be the thought: [no,] but we establish law.

<sup>1</sup> What shall we say then that Abraham our father according to flesh has found? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham has been justified on the principle of works, he has whereof to boast: but not before °God; <sup>3</sup> for what does the scripture say? And Abraham believed °God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness. <sup>4</sup> Now to him that works the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but of debt: <sup>5</sup> but to him who does not work, but believes on him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness. <sup>6</sup> Even as David also declares the blessedness of the man to whom °God reckons righteousness without works: <sup>7</sup> Blessed [they] whose lawlessness have been forgiven, and whose sins have been covered: <sup>8</sup> blessed [the] man to whom [the] Lord shall not at all reckon sin. <sup>9</sup> [Does] this blessedness then [rest] on the circumcision, or also on the uncircumcision? For we say that faith has been reckoned to Abraham as righteousness. <sup>10</sup> How then has it been reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup> And he received [the] sign of circumcision [as] seal of the righteousness of faith which [he had] being in uncircumcision, that he might be [the] father of all them that believe being in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned to them also; <sup>12</sup> and father of circumcision, not only to those who are of [the] circumcision, but to those also who walk in the steps of the faith, during uncircumcision, of our father Abraham. <sup>13</sup> For [it was] not by law that the promise was to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of [the] world, but by righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup> For if they which [are] of law be heirs, faith is made vain, and the promise made of no effect. <sup>15</sup> For law works wrath; but where no law is neither [is there] transgression. <sup>16</sup> Therefore [it is] on the principle of faith, that [it might be] according to grace, in order to the promise being sure to all the seed, not to that only which [is] of the law, but to that also which [is] of Abraham's faith, who is father of us all, <sup>17</sup> (according as it is written, I have made thee father of many nations,) before the °God whom he believed, who quickens the dead, and calls the things which be not as being; <sup>18</sup> who against hope believed in hope to his becoming father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be: <sup>19</sup> and not being weak in faith, he considered not his own body already become dead, being about a hundred years old, and the deadening of Sarah's womb, <sup>20</sup> and hesitated not at the promise of °God through unbelief; but found strength in faith, giving glory to °God; <sup>21</sup> and being fully persuaded that what he has promised he is able also to do; <sup>22</sup> wherefore also it was reckoned to him as righteousness. <sup>23</sup> Now it was not written on his account alone that it was reckoned to him, <sup>24</sup> but on ours also, to whom, believing on him who has raised from among [the] dead Jesus our Lord, <sup>25</sup> who has been delivered for our offences and has been raised for our justification, it will be reckoned.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore having been justified on the principle of faith, we have peace towards °God through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>2</sup> by whom we have also access by faith into this favour in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of °God. <sup>3</sup> And not only [that], but we also boast in tribulations, knowing that tribulation works endurance; <sup>4</sup> and endurance, experience; and experience, hope; <sup>5</sup> and hope does not make ashamed, because the love of °God is shed abroad in our hearts by [the] Holy Spirit which has been given to us: <sup>6</sup> for we being still without strength, in [the] due time Christ has died for [the] ungodly. <sup>7</sup> For scarcely for [the] just [man] will one die, for perhaps for [the] good [man] some one might also dare to die; <sup>8</sup> but °God commends his love to us, in that, we being still sinners, Christ has died for us. <sup>9</sup> Much rather therefore, having been now justified in [the power of] his blood, we shall be saved by him from wrath. <sup>10</sup> For if, being enemies, we have been reconciled to °God through the death of his Son, much rather, having been reconciled, we shall be saved in [the power of] his life. <sup>11</sup> And not only [that], but [we are] making our boast in °God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom now we have received the reconciliation. <sup>12</sup> For this [cause], even as by one man sin entered into the world, and by sin death; and thus death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: <sup>13</sup> (for until law sin was in [the] world; but sin is not put to account when there is no law; <sup>14</sup> but death reigned from Adam until Moses, even upon those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is [the] figure of him to come. <sup>15</sup> But [shall] not the act of favour [be] as the offence? For if by the offence of one the many have died, much rather has the grace of °God, and the free gift in grace, which [is] by the one man Jesus Christ, abounded unto the many. <sup>16</sup> And [shall] not as by one that has sinned [be] the gift? For the judgment [was] of one to condemnation, but the act of favour, of many offences unto justification. <sup>17</sup> For if by the offence of the one death reigned by the one, much rather shall those who receive the abundance of grace, and of the free gift of righteousness, reign in life by the one Jesus Christ: <sup>18</sup> so then as [it was] by one offence towards all men to condemnation, so by one righteousness towards all men for justification of life. <sup>19</sup> For as indeed by the disobedience of the one man the many have been constituted sinners, so also by the obedience of the one the many will be constituted righteous. <sup>20</sup> But law came in, in order that the offence might abound; but where sin abounded grace has overabounded, <sup>21</sup> in order that, even as sin has reigned in [the power of] death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>1</sup> What then shall we say? Should we continue in sin that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup> Far be the thought. We who have died to sin, how shall we still live in it? <sup>3</sup> Are you ignorant that we, as many as have been baptised unto Christ Jesus, have been baptised unto his death? <sup>4</sup> We have been buried therefore with him by baptism unto death, in order that, even as Christ has been raised up from among [the] dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup> For if we are become identified with [him] in the likeness of his death, so also we shall be of [his] resurrection; <sup>6</sup> knowing this, that our old man has been crucified with [him], that the body of sin might be annulled, that we should no longer serve sin. <sup>7</sup> For he that has died is justified from sin. <sup>8</sup> Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him, <sup>9</sup> knowing that Christ having been raised up from among [the] dead dies no more: death has dominion over him no more. <sup>10</sup> For in that he has died, he has died to sin once for all; but in that he lives, he lives to °God. <sup>11</sup> So also ye, reckon yourselves dead to sin and alive to °God in Christ Jesus. <sup>12</sup> Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body to obey its lusts. <sup>13</sup> Neither yield your members instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but yield yourselves to °God as alive from among [the] dead, and your members instruments of righteousness to °God. <sup>14</sup> For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under law but under grace. <sup>15</sup> What then? should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Far be the thought. <sup>16</sup> Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves bondmen for obedience, ye are bondmen to him whom ye obey, whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? <sup>17</sup> But thanks [be] to °God, that ye were bondmen of sin, but have obeyed from the heart the form of teaching into which ye were instructed. <sup>18</sup> Now, having got your freedom from sin, ye have become bondmen to righteousness. <sup>19</sup> I speak humanly on account of the weakness of your flesh. For even as ye have yielded your members in bondage to uncleanness and to lawlessness unto lawlessness, so now yield your members in bondage to righteousness unto holiness. <sup>20</sup> For when ye were bondmen of sin ye were free from righteousness. <sup>21</sup> What fruit therefore had ye then in the things of which ye are now ashamed? for the end of them [is] death. <sup>22</sup> But now, having got your freedom from sin, and having become bondmen to °God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end eternal life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin [is] death; but the act of favour of °God, eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>1</sup> Are ye ignorant, brethren, (for I speak to those knowing law,) that law rules over a man as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup> For the married woman is bound by law to her husband so long as he is alive; but if the husband should die, she is clear from the law of the husband: <sup>3</sup> so then, the husband being alive, she shall be called an adulteress if she be to another man; but if the husband should die, she is free from the law, so as not to be an adulteress, though she be to another man. <sup>4</sup> So that, my brethren, ye also have been made dead to the law by the body of the Christ, to be to another, who has been raised up from among [the] dead, in order that we might bear fruit to °God. <sup>5</sup> For when we were in the flesh the passions of sins, which [were] by the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit to death; <sup>6</sup> but now we are clear from the law, having died in that in which we were held, so that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter. <sup>7</sup> What shall we say then? [is] the law sin? Far be the thought. But I had not known sin, unless by law: for I had not had conscience also of lust unless the law had said, Thou shalt not lust; <sup>8</sup> but sin, getting a point of attack by the commandment, wrought in me every lust; for without law sin [was] dead. <sup>9</sup> But I was alive without law once; but the commandment having come, sin revived, but I died. <sup>10</sup> And the commandment, which [was] for life, was found, [as] to me, itself [to be] unto death: <sup>11</sup> for sin, getting a point of attack by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew [me]. <sup>12</sup> So that the law indeed [is] holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. <sup>13</sup> Did then that which is good become death to me? Far be the thought. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death to me by that which is good; in order that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. <sup>14</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am fleshly, sold under sin. <sup>15</sup> For that which I do, I do not own: for not what I will, this I do; but what I hate, this I practise. <sup>16</sup> But if what I do not will, this I practise, I consent to the law that [it is] right. <sup>17</sup> Now then [it is] no longer I [that] do it, but the sin that dwells in me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, good does not dwell: for to will is there with me, but to do right [I find] not. <sup>19</sup> For I do not practise the good that I will; but the evil I do not will, that I do. <sup>20</sup> But if what I do not will, this I practise, [it is] no longer I [that] do it, but the sin that dwells in me. <sup>21</sup> I find then the law upon me who will to practise what is right, that with me evil is there. <sup>22</sup> For I delight in the law of °God according to the inward man: <sup>23</sup> but I see another law in my members, warring in opposition to the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which exists in my members. <sup>24</sup>O wretched man that I [am]! who shall deliver me out of this body of death? <sup>25</sup>I thank °God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself with the mind serve °God's law; but with the flesh sin's law.

8

<sup>1</sup> [There is] then now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and of death. <sup>3</sup> For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, °God, having sent his own Son, in likeness of flesh of sin, and for sin, has condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> in order that the righteous requirement of the law should be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to flesh but according to Spirit. <sup>5</sup> For they that are according to flesh mind the things of the flesh; and they that are according to Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> For the mind of the flesh [is] death; but the mind of the Spirit life and peace. <sup>7</sup> Because the mind of the flesh is enmity against °God: for it is not subject to the law of °God; for neither indeed can it be: <sup>8</sup> and they that are in flesh cannot please °God. <sup>9</sup> But ye are not in flesh but in Spirit, if indeed °God's Spirit dwell in you; but if any one has not [the] Spirit of Christ he is not of him: <sup>10</sup> but if Christ be in you, the body is dead on account of sin, but the Spirit life on account of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> But if the Spirit of him that has raised up Jesus from among [the] dead dwell in you, he that has raised up Christ from among [the] dead shall quicken your mortal bodies also on account of his Spirit which dwells in you. <sup>12</sup> So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to flesh; <sup>13</sup> for if ye live according to flesh, ye are about to die; but if, by the Spirit, ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live: <sup>14</sup> for as many as are led by [the] Spirit of °God, these are sons of °God. <sup>15</sup> For ye have not received a spirit of bondage again for fear, but ye have received a spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. <sup>16</sup> The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit, that we are children of °God. <sup>17</sup> And if children, heirs also: heirs of °God, and Christ's joint heirs; if indeed we suffer with [him], that we may also be glorified with [him]. <sup>18</sup> For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy [to be compared] with the coming glory to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup> For the anxious looking out of the creature expects the revelation of the sons of °God: <sup>20</sup> for the creature has been made subject to vanity, not of its will, but by reason of him who has subjected [the same], in hope <sup>21</sup> that the creature itself also shall be set free from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of °God. <sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation groans together and travails in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup> And not only [that], but even we ourselves, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, we also ourselves groan in ourselves, awaiting adoption, [that is] the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup> For we have been saved in hope; but hope seen is not hope; for what any one sees, why does he also hope? <sup>25</sup> But if what we see not we hope, we expect in patience. <sup>26</sup> And in like manner the Spirit joins also its help to our weakness; for we do not know what we should pray for as is fitting, but the Spirit itself makes intercession with groanings which cannot be uttered. <sup>27</sup> But he who searches the hearts knows what [is] the mind of the Spirit, because he intercedes for saints according to °God. <sup>28</sup> But we do know that all things work together for good to those who love °God, to those who are called according to purpose. <sup>29</sup> Because whom he has foreknown, he has also predestinated [to be] conformed to the image of his Son, so that he should be [the] firstborn among many brethren. <sup>30</sup> But whom he has predestinated, these also he has called; and whom he has called, these also he has justified; but whom he has justified, these also he has glorified. <sup>31</sup> What shall we then say to these things? If °God [be] for us, who against us? <sup>32</sup> He who, yea, has not spared his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him grant us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who shall bring an accusation against °God's elect? [It is] °God who justifies: <sup>34</sup> who is he that condemns? [It is] Christ who has died, but rather has been [also] raised up; who is also at the right hand of °God; who also intercedes for us. <sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? tribulation or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? <sup>36</sup> According as it is written, For thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we have been reckoned as sheep for slaughter. <sup>37</sup> But in all these things we more than conquer through him that has loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of °God, which [is] in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>1</sup> I say [the] truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing witness with me in [the] Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup> that I have great grief and uninterrupted pain in my heart, <sup>3</sup> for I have wished, I myself, to be a curse from the Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen, according to flesh; <sup>4</sup> who are Israelites; whose [is] the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the law-giving, and the service, and the promises; <sup>5</sup> whose [are] the fathers; and of whom, as according to flesh, [is] the Christ, who is over all, °God blessed for ever. Amen. <sup>6</sup> Not however as though the word of °God had failed; for not all [are] Israel which [are] of Israel; <sup>7</sup> nor because they are seed of Abraham [are] all children: but, In Isaac shall a seed be called to thee. <sup>8</sup> That is, [they that are] the children of the flesh, these [are] not the children of °God; but the children of the promise are reckoned as seed. <sup>9</sup> For this word [is] of promise, According to this time I will come, and there shall be a son to Sarah. <sup>10</sup> And not only [that], but Rebecca having conceived by one, Isaac our father, <sup>11</sup> [the children] indeed being not yet born, or having done anything good or worthless (that the purpose of °God according to election might abide, not of works, but of him that calls), <sup>12</sup> it was said to her, The greater shall serve the less: <sup>13</sup> according as it is written, I have loved Jacob, and I have hated Esau. <sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? [Is there] unrighteousness with °God? Far be the thought. <sup>15</sup> For he says to Moses, I will shew mercy to whom I will shew mercy, and I will feel compassion for whom I will feel compassion. <sup>16</sup> So then [it is] not of him that wills, nor of him that runs, but of °God that shews mercy. <sup>17</sup> For the scripture says to Pharaoh, For this very thing I have raised thee up from amongst [men], that I might thus shew in thee my power, and so that my name should be declared in all the earth. <sup>18</sup> So then, to whom he will he shews mercy, and whom he will he hardens. <sup>19</sup> Thou wilt say to me then, Why does he yet find fault? for who resists his purpose? <sup>20</sup> Aye, but thou, O man, who art thou that answerest again to °God? Shall the thing formed say to him that has formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? <sup>21</sup> Or has not the potter authority over the clay, out of the same lump to make one vessel to honour, and another to dishonour? <sup>22</sup> And if °God, minded to shew his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering vessels of wrath fitted for destruction; <sup>23</sup> and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared for glory, <sup>24</sup> us, whom he has also called, not only from amongst [the] Jews, but also from amongst [the] nations? <sup>25</sup> As he says also in Hosea, I will call not-my-people My people; and the-not-beloved Beloved. <sup>26</sup> And it shall be, in the place where it was said to them, Ye [are] not my people, there shall they be called Sons of [the] living °God. <sup>27</sup> But Esaias cries concerning Israel, Should the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be saved: <sup>28</sup> for [he] is bringing the matter to an end, and [cutting [it] short in righteousness; because] a cutting short of the matter will [the] Lord accomplish upon the earth. <sup>29</sup> And according as Esaias said before, Unless [the] Lord of hosts had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and made like even as Gomorrhah. <sup>30</sup> What then shall we say? That [they of the] nations, who did not follow after righteousness, have attained righteousness, but [the] righteousness that is on the principle of faith. <sup>31</sup> But Israel, pursuing after a law of righteousness, has not attained to [that] law. <sup>32</sup> Wherefore? Because [it was] not on the principle of faith, but as of works. They have stumbled at the stumblingstone, <sup>33</sup> according as it is written, Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and rock of offence: and he that believes on him shall not be ashamed.

<sup>1</sup> Brethren, the delight of my own heart and my supplication which [I address] to °God for them is for salvation. <sup>2</sup> For I bear them witness that they have zeal for °God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For they, being ignorant of °God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own [righteousness], have not submitted to the righteousness of °God. <sup>4</sup> For Christ is [the] end of law for righteousness to every one that believes. <sup>5</sup> For Moses lays down in writing the righteousness which is of the law, The man who has practised those things shall live by them. <sup>6</sup> But the righteousness of faith speaks thus: Do not say in thine heart, Who shall ascend to the heavens? that is, to bring Christ down; <sup>7</sup> or, Who shall descend into the abyss? that is, to bring up Christ from among [the] dead. <sup>8</sup> But what says it? The word is near thee, in thy mouth and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: <sup>9</sup> that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thine heart that <sup>o</sup>God has raised him from among [the] dead, thou shalt be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with [the] heart is believed to righteousness; and with [the] mouth confession made to salvation. <sup>11</sup> For the scripture says, No one believing on him shall be ashamed. <sup>12</sup> For there is no difference of Jew and Greek; for the same Lord of all [is] rich towards all that call upon him. <sup>13</sup> For every one whosoever, who shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> How then shall they call upon him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe on him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without one who preaches? <sup>15</sup> and how shall they preach unless they have been sent? according as it is written, How beautiful the feet of them that announce glad tidings of peace, of them that announce glad tidings of good things! <sup>16</sup> But they have not all obeyed the glad tidings. For Esaias says, Lord, who has believed our report? <sup>17</sup> So faith then [is] by a report, but the report by <sup>o</sup>God's word. <sup>18</sup> But I say, Have they not heard? Yea, surely, Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the extremities of the habitable world. <sup>19</sup> But I say, Has not Israel known? First, Moses says, I will provoke you to jealousy through [them that are] not a nation: through a nation without understanding I will anger you. <sup>20</sup> But Esaias is very bold, and says, I have been found by those not seeking me; I have become manifest to those not inquiring after me. <sup>21</sup> But unto Israel he says, All the day long I have stretched out my hands unto a people disobeying and opposing.

<sup>1</sup> I say then, Has <sup>o</sup>God cast away his people? Far be the thought. For I also am an Israelite, of [the] seed of Abraham, of [the] tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> <sup>o</sup>God has not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Know ye not what the scripture says in [the history of] Elias, how he pleads with <sup>o</sup>God against Israel? <sup>3</sup> Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have dug down thine altars; and I have been left alone, and they seek my life. <sup>4</sup> But what says the divine answer to him? I have left to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed knee to Baal. <sup>5</sup> Thus, then, in the present time also there has been a remnant according to election of grace. <sup>6</sup> But if by grace, no longer of works: since [otherwise] grace is no more grace. <sup>7</sup> What [is it] then? What Israel seeks for, that he has not obtained; but the election has obtained, and the rest have been blinded, <sup>8</sup> according as it is written, <sup>o</sup>God has given to them a spirit of slumber, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, unto this day. <sup>9</sup> And David says, Let their table be for a snare, and for a gin, and for a fall-trap, and for a recompense to them: <sup>10</sup> let their eyes be darkened not to see, and bow down their back away. <sup>11</sup> I say then, Have they stumbled in order that they might fall? Far be the thought: but by their fall [there is] salvation to the nations to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup> But if their fall [be the] world's wealth, and their loss [the] wealth of [the] nations, how much rather their fulness? <sup>13</sup> For I speak to you, the nations, inasmuch as I am apostle of nations, I glorify my ministry; <sup>14</sup> if by any means I shall provoke to jealousy [them which are] my flesh, and shall save some from among them. <sup>15</sup> For if their casting away [be the] world's reconciliation, what [their] reception but life from among [the] dead? <sup>16</sup> Now if the first-fruit [be] holy, the lump also; and if the root [be] holy, the branches also. <sup>17</sup> Now if some of the branches have been broken out, and thou, being a wild olive tree, hast been grafted in amongst them, and hast become a fellow-partaker of the root and of the fatness of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup> boast not against the branches; but if thou boast, [it is] not thou bearest the root, but the root thee. <sup>19</sup> Thou wilt say then, The branches have been broken out in order that I might be grafted in. <sup>20</sup> Right: they have been broken out through unbelief, and thou standest through faith. Be not high-minded, but fear: <sup>21</sup> if <sup>o</sup>God indeed has not spared the natural branches; lest it might be he spare not thee either. <sup>22</sup> Behold then [the] goodness and severity of <sup>o</sup>God: upon them who have fallen, severity; upon thee goodness of <sup>o</sup>God, if thou shalt abide in goodness, since [otherwise] thou also wilt be cut away. <sup>23</sup> And they too, if they abide not in unbelief, shall be grafted in; for <sup>o</sup>God is able again to graft them in. <sup>24</sup> For if thou hast been cut out of the olive tree wild by nature, and, contrary to nature, hast been grafted into the good olive tree, how much rather shall they, who are according to nature be grafted into their own olive tree? <sup>25</sup> For I do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, of this mystery, that ye may not be wise in your own conceits, that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the nations be come in; <sup>26</sup> and so all Israel shall be saved. According as it is written, The deliverer shall come out of Zion; he shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. <sup>27</sup> And this is the covenant from me to them, when I shall have taken away their sins. <sup>28</sup> As regards the glad tidings, [they are] enemies on your account; but as regards election, beloved on account of the fathers. <sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the calling of <sup>o</sup>God [are] not subject to repentance. <sup>30</sup> For as indeed ye [also] once have not believed in <sup>o</sup>God, but now have been objects of mercy through the unbelief of these; <sup>31</sup> so these also have now not believed in your mercy, in order that they also may be objects of mercy. <sup>32</sup> For <sup>o</sup>God hath shut up together all in unbelief, in order that he might shew mercy to all. <sup>33</sup> O depth of riches both of [the] wisdom and knowledge of <sup>o</sup>God! how unsearchable his judgments, and untraceable his ways! <sup>34</sup> For who has known [the] mind of [the] Lord, or who has been his counsellor? <sup>35</sup> or who has first given to him, and it shall be rendered to him? <sup>36</sup> For of him, and through him, and for him [are] all things: to him be glory for ever. Amen.

transformed by the renewing of [your] mind, that ye may prove what [is] the good and acceptable and perfect will of °God. <sup>3</sup> For I say, through the grace which has been given to me, to every one that is among you, not to have high thoughts above what he should think; but to think so as to be wise, as °God has dealt to each a measure of faith. <sup>4</sup> For, as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not the same office; <sup>5</sup> thus we, [being] many, are one body in Christ, and each one members one of the other. <sup>6</sup> But having different gifts, according to the grace which has been given to us, whether [it be] prophecy, [let us prophesy] according to the proportion of faith; <sup>7</sup> or service, [let us occupy ourselves] in service; or he that teaches, in teaching; <sup>8</sup> or he that exhorts, in exhortation; he that gives, in simplicity; he that leads, with diligence; he that shews mercy, with cheerfulness. <sup>9</sup> Let love be unfeigned; abhorring evil; cleaving to good: <sup>10</sup> as to brotherly love, kindly affectioned towards one another: as to honour, each taking the lead in paying it to the other: <sup>11</sup> as to diligent zealousness, not slothful; in spirit fervent; serving the Lord. <sup>12</sup> As regards hope, rejoicing: as regards tribulation, enduring: as regards prayer, persevering: <sup>13</sup> distributing to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality. <sup>14</sup> Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. <sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those that rejoice, weep with those that weep. <sup>16</sup> Have the same respect one for another, not minding high things, but going along with the lowly: be not wise in your own eyes: <sup>17</sup> recompensing to no one evil for evil: providing things honest before all men: <sup>18</sup> if possible, as far as depends on you, living in peace with all men; <sup>19</sup> not avenging yourselves, beloved, but give place to wrath; for it is written, Vengeance [belongs] to me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. <sup>20</sup> If therefore thine enemy should hunger, feed him; if he should thirst, give him drink; for, so doing, thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. <sup>21</sup> Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13

<sup>1</sup> Let every soul be subject to the authorities that are above [him]. For there is no authority except from °God; and those that exist are set up by °God. <sup>2</sup> So that he that sets himself in opposition to the authority resists the ordinance of °God; and they who [thus] resist shall bring sentence of guilt on themselves. <sup>3</sup> For rulers are not a terror to a good work, but to an evil [one]. Dost thou desire then not to be afraid of the authority? practise [what is] good, and thou shalt have praise from it; <sup>4</sup> for it is °God's minister to thee for good. But if thou practisest evil, fear; for it bears not the sword in vain; for it is °God's minister, an avenger for wrath to him that does evil. <sup>5</sup> Wherefore it is necessary to be subject, not only on account of wrath, but also on account of conscience. <sup>6</sup> For on this account ye pay tribute also; for they are °God's officers, attending continually on this very thing. <sup>7</sup> Render to all their dues: to whom tribute [is due], tribute; to whom custom, custom; to whom fear, fear; to whom honour, honour. <sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, unless to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup> For, Thou shalt not commit adultery,

° 12:2 Elohim   ° 12:3 Elohim   ° 13:1 Elohim   ° 13:1 Elohim   ° 13:2 Elohim   ° 13:4

Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not lust; and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. <sup>10</sup> Love works no ill to its neighbour; love therefore [is the] whole law. <sup>11</sup> This also, knowing the time, that it is already time that we should be aroused out of sleep; for now [is] our salvation nearer than when we believed. <sup>12</sup> The night is far spent, and the day is near; let us cast away therefore the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. <sup>13</sup> As in the day, let us walk becomingly; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and lasciviousness, not in strife and emulation. <sup>14</sup> But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not take forethought for the flesh to [fulfil its] lusts.

<sup>1</sup> Now him that is weak in the faith receive, not to [the] determining of questions of reasoning. <sup>2</sup> One man is assured that he may eat all things; but the weak eats herbs. <sup>3</sup> Let not him that eats make little of him that eats not; and let not him that eats not judge him that eats: for °God has received him. <sup>4</sup> Who art thou that judgest the servant of another? to his own master he stands or falls. And he shall be made to stand; for the Lord is able to make him stand. <sup>5</sup> One man esteems day more than day; another esteems every day [alike]. Let each be fully persuaded in his own mind. <sup>6</sup> He that regards the day, regards it to [the] Lord. And he that eats, eats to [the] Lord, for he gives °God thanks; and he that does not eat, [it is] to [the] Lord he does not eat, and gives °God thanks. <sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. <sup>8</sup> For both if we should live, [it is] to the Lord we live; and if we should die, [it is] to the Lord we die: both if we should live then, and if we should die, we are the Lord's. <sup>9</sup> For to this [end] Christ has died and lived [again], that he might rule over both dead and living. <sup>10</sup> But thou, why judgest thou thy brother? or again, thou, why dost thou make little of thy brother? for we shall all be placed before the judgment-seat of °God. <sup>11</sup> For it is written, I live, saith [the] Lord, that to me shall bow every knee, and every tongue shall confess to °God. <sup>12</sup> So then each of us shall give an account concerning himself to °God. <sup>13</sup> Let us no longer therefore judge one another; but judge ye this rather, not to put a stumbling-block or a fall-trap before his brother. <sup>14</sup> I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except to him who reckons anything to be unclean, to that man [it is] unclean. <sup>15</sup> For if on account of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer according to love. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ has died. <sup>16</sup> Let not then your good be evil spoken of; <sup>17</sup> for the kingdom of °God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> For he that in this serves the Christ [is] acceptable to °God and approved of men. <sup>19</sup> So then let us pursue the things which tend to peace, and things whereby one shall build up another. <sup>20</sup> For the sake of meat do not destroy the work of °God. All things indeed [are] pure; but [it is] evil to that man who eats while stumbling [in doing so]. <sup>21</sup> [It is] right not to eat meat, nor drink wine, nor [do anything] in which thy brother stumbles, or is offended, or is weak. <sup>22</sup> Hast thou faith? have [it] to thyself before °God. Blessed [is] he who does not judge himself in what he allows. <sup>23</sup> But he that doubts, if he eat, is condemned; because [it is] not of faith; but whatever [is] not of faith is sin.

<sup>1</sup> But we ought, we that are strong, to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> Let each one of us please his neighbour with a view to what is good, to edification. <sup>3</sup> For the Christ also did not please himself; but according as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproach thee have fallen upon me. <sup>4</sup> For as many things as have been written before have been written for our instruction, that through endurance and through encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. <sup>5</sup> Now the °God of endurance and of encouragement give to you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus; <sup>6</sup> that ye may with one accord, with one mouth, glorify the °God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup> Wherefore receive ye one another, according as the Christ also has received you to [the] glory of °God. <sup>8</sup> For I say that Jesus Christ became a minister of [the] circumcision for [the] truth of °God, to confirm the promises of the fathers; <sup>9</sup> and that the nations should glorify °God for mercy; according as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among [the] nations, and will sing to thy name. <sup>10</sup> And again he says, Rejoice, nations, with his people. <sup>11</sup> And again, Praise the Lord, all [ye] nations, and let all the peoples laud him. <sup>12</sup> And again, Esaias says, There shall be the root of Jesse, and one that arises, to rule over [the] nations: in him shall [the] nations hope. <sup>13</sup> Now the °God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that ye should abound in hope by [the] power of [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>14</sup> But I am persuaded, my brethren, I myself also, concerning you, that yourselves also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. <sup>15</sup> But I have written to you the more boldly, [brethren,] in part, as putting you in mind, because of the grace given to me by °God, <sup>16</sup> for me to be minister of Christ Jesus to the nations, carrying on as a sacrificial service the [message of] glad tidings of °God, in order that the offering up of the nations might be acceptable, sanctified by [the] Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> I have therefore [whereof to] boast in Christ Jesus in the things which pertain to °God. <sup>18</sup> For I will not dare to speak anything of the things which Christ has not wrought by me, for [the] obedience of [the] nations, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> in [the] power of signs and wonders, in [the] power of [the] Spirit of °God; so that I, from Jerusalem, and in a circuit round to Illyricum, have fully preached the glad tidings of the Christ; <sup>20</sup> and so aiming to announce the glad tidings, not where Christ has been named, that I might not build upon another's foundation; <sup>21</sup> but according as it is written, To whom there was nothing told concerning him, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand. <sup>22</sup> Wherefore also I have been often hindered from coming to you. <sup>23</sup> But now, having no longer place in these regions, and having great desire to come to you these many years,

<sup>24</sup> whenever I should go to Spain; (for I hope to see you as I go through, and by you to be set forward thither; if first I shall have been in part filled with your company;) <sup>25</sup> but now I go to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints; <sup>26</sup> for Macedonia and Achaia have been well pleased to make a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who [are] in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> They have been well pleased indeed, and they are their debtors; for if the nations have participated in their spiritual things, they ought also in fleshly to minister to them. <sup>28</sup> Having finished this therefore, and having sealed to them this fruit, I will set off by you into Spain. <sup>29</sup> But I know that, coming to you, I shall come in [the] fulness of [the] blessing of Christ. <sup>30</sup> But I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in prayers for me to °God; <sup>31</sup> that I may be saved from those that do not believe in Judaea; and that my ministry which [I have] for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; <sup>32</sup> in order that I may come to you in joy by °God's will, and that I may be refreshed with you. <sup>33</sup> And the °God of peace be with you all. Amen.

<sup>1</sup> But I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is minister of the assembly which is in Cenchrea; <sup>2</sup> that ye may receive her in [the] Lord worthily of saints, and that ye may assist her in whatever matter she has need of you; for she also has been a helper of many, and of myself. <sup>3</sup> Salute Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workmen in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup> (who for my life staked their own neck; to whom not I only am thankful, but also all the assemblies of the nations,) <sup>5</sup> and the assembly at their house. Salute Epaenetus, my beloved, who is [the] first-fruits of Asia for Christ. <sup>6</sup> Salute Maria, who laboured much for you. <sup>7</sup> Salute Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and fellow-captives, who are of note among the apostles; who were also in Christ before me. <sup>8</sup> Salute Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Salute Urbanus, our fellow-workman in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. <sup>10</sup> Salute Apelles, approved in Christ. Salute those who belong to Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup> Salute Herodion, my kinsman. Salute those who belong to Narcissus, who are in [the] Lord. <sup>12</sup> Salute Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labour in [the] Lord. Salute Persis, the beloved, who has laboured much in [the] Lord. <sup>13</sup> Salute Rufus, chosen in [the] Lord; and his mother and mine. <sup>14</sup> Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren with them. <sup>15</sup> Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints with them. <sup>16</sup> Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the assemblies of Christ salute you. <sup>17</sup> But I beseech you, brethren, to consider those who create divisions and occasions of falling, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learnt, and turn away from them. <sup>18</sup> For such serve not our Lord Christ, but their own belly, and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting. <sup>19</sup> For your obedience has reached to all. I rejoice therefore as it regards you; but I wish you to be wise [as] to that which is good, and simple [as] to evil. <sup>20</sup> But the °God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you. <sup>21</sup> Timotheus, my fellow-workman, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you. <sup>22</sup> I Tertius, who have written this epistle, salute you in [the] Lord. <sup>23</sup> Gaius, my host and of the whole assembly, salutes you. Erastus, the steward of the city, salutes you, and the brother Quartus. <sup>24</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you all. Amen. <sup>25</sup> Now to him that is able to establish you, according to my glad tidings and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to [the] revelation of [the] mystery, as to which silence has been kept in [the] times of the ages, <sup>26</sup> but [which] has now been made manifest, and by prophetic scriptures, according to commandment of the eternal °God, made known for obedience of faith to all the nations — <sup>27</sup> [the] only wise °God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, [a] called apostle of Jesus Christ, by °God's will, and Sosthenes the brother, <sup>2</sup> to the assembly of °God which is in Corinth, to [those] sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, with all that in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both theirs and ours: <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from °God our Father, and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> I thank my °God always about you, in respect of the grace of °God given to you in Christ Jesus; <sup>5</sup> that in everything ye have been enriched in him, in all word [of doctrine], and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup> (according as the testimony of the Christ has been confirmed in you,) <sup>7</sup> so that ye come short in no gift, awaiting the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>8</sup> who shall also confirm you to [the] end, unimpeachable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> °God [is] faithful, by whom ye have been called into [the] fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>10</sup> Now I exhort you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all say the same thing, and that there be not among you divisions; but that ye be perfectly united in the same mind and in the same opinion. <sup>11</sup> For it has been shewn to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of [the house of] Chloe, that there are strifes among you. <sup>12</sup> But I speak of this, that each of you says, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Is the Christ divided? has Paul been crucified for you? or have ye been baptised unto the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank °God that I have baptised none of you, unless Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> that no one may say that I have baptised unto my own name. <sup>16</sup> Yes, I baptised also the house of Stephanas; for the rest I know not if I have baptised any other. <sup>17</sup> For Christ has not sent me to baptise, but to preach glad tidings; not in wisdom of word, that the cross of the Christ may not be made vain. <sup>18</sup> For the word of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but to us that are saved it is °God's power. <sup>19</sup> For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and set aside the understanding of the understanding ones. <sup>20</sup> Where [is the] wise? where scribe? where disputer of this world? has not °God made foolish the wisdom of the world? <sup>21</sup> For since, in the wisdom of °God, the world by wisdom has not known °God, °God has been pleased by the foolishness of the preaching to save those that believe. <sup>22</sup> Since Jews indeed ask for signs, and Greeks seek wisdom; <sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews an offence, and to nations foolishness; <sup>24</sup> but to those that [are] called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ °God's power and °God's wisdom. <sup>25</sup> Because the foolishness of °God is wiser than men, and the weakness of °God is stronger than men. <sup>26</sup> For consider your calling, brethren, that [there are] not many wise according to flesh, not many powerful, not many high-born. <sup>27</sup> But °God has chosen the foolish things of the world, that he may put to shame the wise; and °God has chosen the weak things of the world, that he may put to shame the strong things; <sup>28</sup> and the ignoble things of the world, and the despised, has °God chosen, [and] things that are not, that he may annul the things that are; <sup>29</sup> so that no flesh should boast before °God. <sup>30</sup> But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who has been made to us wisdom from °God, and righteousness, and holiness, and redemption; <sup>31</sup> that according as it is written, He that boasts, let him boast in [the] Lord.

° 1:1 Elohim    ° 1:2 Elohim    ° 1:3 Elohim    ° 1:4 Elohim    ° 1:4 Elohim    ° 1:9 Elohim
 ° 1:14 Elohim    ° 1:18 Elohim    ° 1:20 Elohim    ° 1:21 Elohim    ° 1:21 Elohim    ° 1:21

<sup>1</sup> And I, when I came to you, brethren, came not in excellency of word, or wisdom, announcing to you the testimony of °God. <sup>2</sup> For I did not judge [it well] to know anything among you save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. <sup>3</sup> And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling; <sup>4</sup> and my word and my preaching, not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of [the] Spirit and of power; <sup>5</sup> that your faith might not stand in men's wisdom, but in °God's power. <sup>6</sup> But we speak wisdom among the perfect; but wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who come to nought. <sup>7</sup> But we speak °God's wisdom in [a] mystery, that hidden [wisdom] which °God had predetermined before the ages for our glory: <sup>8</sup> which none of the princes of this age knew, (for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;) <sup>9</sup> but according as it is written, Things which eye has not seen, and ear not heard, and which have not come into man's heart, which °God has prepared for them that love him, <sup>10</sup> but °God has revealed to us by [his] Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of °God. <sup>11</sup> For who of men hath known the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? thus also the things of °God knows no one except the Spirit of °God. <sup>12</sup> But we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which [is] of °God, that we may know the things which have been freely given to us of °God: <sup>13</sup> which also we speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, communicating spiritual [things] by spiritual [means]. <sup>14</sup> But [the] natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of °God, for they are folly to him; and he cannot know [them] because they are spiritually discerned; <sup>15</sup> but the spiritual discerns all things, and he is discerned of no one. <sup>16</sup> For who has known the mind of [the] Lord, who shall instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

3

<sup>1</sup> And I, brethren, have not been able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly; as to babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup> I have given you milk to drink, not meat, for ye have not yet been able, nor indeed are ye yet able; <sup>3</sup> for ye are yet carnal. For whereas [there are] among you emulation and strife, are ye not carnal, and walk according to man? <sup>4</sup> For when one says, I am of Paul, and another, I of Apollos, are ye not men? <sup>5</sup> Who then is Apollos,

° 1:27 Elohim   ° 1:28 Elohim   ° 1:29 Elohim   ° 1:30 Elohim   ° 2:1 Elohim   ° 2:5 Elohim
 ° 2:7 Elohim   ° 2:7 Elohim   ° 2:9 Elohim   ° 2:10 Elohim   ° 2:10 Elohim   ° 2:11 Elohim
 ° 2:11 Elohim   ° 2:12 Elohim   ° 2:12 Elohim   ° 2:14 Elohim

and who Paul? Ministering servants, through whom ye have believed, and as the Lord has given to each. <sup>6</sup> I have planted; Apollos watered; but °God has given the increase. <sup>7</sup> So that neither the planter is anything, nor the waterer; but °God the giver of the increase. <sup>8</sup> But the planter and the waterer are one; but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. <sup>9</sup> For we are °God's fellow-workmen; ye are °God's husbandry, °God's building. <sup>10</sup> According to the grace of °God which has been given to me, as a wise architect, I have laid the foundation, but another builds upon it. But let each see how he builds upon it. <sup>11</sup> For other foundation can no man lay besides that which [is] laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup> Now if any one build upon [this] foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, grass, straw, <sup>13</sup> the work of each shall be made manifest; for the day shall declare [it], because it is revealed in fire; and the fire shall try the work of each what it is. <sup>14</sup> If the work of any one which he has built upon [the foundation] shall abide, he shall receive a reward. <sup>15</sup> If the work of any one shall be consumed, he shall suffer loss, but he shall be saved, but so as through [the] fire. <sup>16</sup> Do ye not know that ye are [the] temple of °God, and [that] the Spirit of °God dwells in you? <sup>17</sup> If any one corrupt the temple of °God, him shall °God destroy; for the temple of °God is holy, and such are ye. <sup>18</sup> Let no one deceive himself: if any one thinks himself to be wise among you in this world, let him become foolish, that he may be wise. <sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with °God; for it is written, He who takes the wise in their craftiness. <sup>20</sup> And again, [The] Lord knows the reasonings of the wise that they are vain. <sup>21</sup> So that let no one boast in men; for all things are yours. <sup>22</sup> Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or [the] world, or life, or death, or things present, or things coming, all are yours; <sup>23</sup> and ye [are] Christ's, and Christ [is] °God's.

<sup>1</sup> Let a man so account of us as servants of Christ, and stewards of [the] mysteries of °God. <sup>2</sup> Here, further, it is sought in stewards, that a man be found faithful. <sup>3</sup> But for me it is the very smallest matter that I be examined of you or of man's day. Nor do I even examine myself. <sup>4</sup> For I am conscious of nothing in myself; but I am not justified by this: but he that examines me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup> So that do not judge anything before [the] time, until the Lord shall come, who shall also both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and shall make manifest the counsels of hearts; and then shall each have [his] praise from °God. <sup>6</sup> Now these things, brethren, I have transferred, in their application, to myself and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye may learn in us the [lesson of] not [letting your thoughts go] above what is written, that ye may not be puffed up one for [such a] one against another. <sup>7</sup> For who makes thee to differ? and what hast thou which thou hast not received? but if also thou hast received, why boastest thou as not receiving? <sup>8</sup> Already ye are filled; already ye have been enriched; ye have reigned without us; and I would that ye reigned, that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup> For I think that °God has set us the apostles for the last, as appointed to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men. <sup>10</sup> We [are] fools for Christ's sake, but ye prudent in Christ: we weak, but ye strong; ye glorious, but we in dishonour. <sup>11</sup> To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are in nakedness, and buffeted, and wander without a home, <sup>12</sup> and labour, working with our own hands. Railed at, we bless; persecuted, we suffer [it]; <sup>13</sup> insulted, we entreat: we are become as [the] offscouring of the world, [the] refuse of all, until now. <sup>14</sup> Not [as] chiding do I write these things to you, but as my beloved children I admonish [you]. <sup>15</sup> For if ye should have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the glad tidings. <sup>16</sup> I entreat you therefore, be my imitators. <sup>17</sup> For this reason I have sent to you Timotheus, who is my beloved and faithful child in [the] Lord, who shall put you in mind of my ways [as] they [are] in Christ, according as I teach everywhere in every assembly. <sup>18</sup> But some have been puffed up, as if I were not coming to you; <sup>19</sup> but I will come quickly to you, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of those that are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup> For the kingdom of °God [is] not in word, but in power. <sup>21</sup> What will ye? that I come to you with a rod; or in love, and [in] a spirit of meekness?

<sup>1</sup> It is universally reported [that there is] fornication among you, and such fornication as [is] not even among the nations, so that one should have his father's wife. <sup>2</sup> And ye are puffed up, and ye have not rather mourned, in order that he that has done this deed might be taken away out of the midst of you. <sup>3</sup> For I, [as] absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged as present, <sup>4</sup> [to deliver,] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ (ye and my spirit being gathered together, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ), him that has so wrought this: <sup>5</sup> to deliver him, [I say,] [being] such, to Satan for destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> Your boasting [is] not good. Do ye not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? <sup>7</sup> Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, according as ye are unleavened. For also our passover, Christ, has been sacrificed; <sup>8</sup> so that let us celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with leaven of malice and wickedness, but with unleavened [bread] of sincerity and truth. <sup>9</sup> I have written to you in the epistle not to mix with fornicators; <sup>10</sup> not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the avaricious and rapacious, or idolaters, since [then] ye should go out of the world. <sup>11</sup> But now I have written to you, if any one called brother be fornicator, or avaricious, or idolater, or abusive, or a drunkard, or rapacious, not to mix with [him]; with such a one not even to eat. <sup>12</sup> For what have I [to do] with judging those outside also? ye, do not ye judge them that are within? <sup>13</sup> But those without °God judges. Remove the wicked person from amongst yourselves.

<sup>1</sup> But concerning the things of which ye have written [to me]: [It is] good for a man not to touch a woman; <sup>2</sup> but on account of fornications, let each have his own wife, and each [woman] have her own husband. <sup>3</sup> Let the husband render her due to the wife, and in like manner the wife to the husband. <sup>4</sup> The wife has not authority over her own body, but the husband: in like manner also the husband has not authority over his own body, but the wife. <sup>5</sup> Defraud not one another, unless, it may be, by consent for a time, that ye may devote yourselves to prayer, and again be together, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. <sup>6</sup> But

this I say, as consenting [to], not as commanding [it]. <sup>7</sup> Now I wish all men to be even as myself: but every one has his own gift of °God: one man thus, and another thus. <sup>8</sup> But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, It is good for them that they remain even as I. <sup>9</sup> But if they have not control over themselves, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup> But to the married I enjoin, not I, but the Lord, Let not wife be separated from husband; <sup>11</sup> (but if also she shall have been separated, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband;) and let not husband leave wife. <sup>12</sup> But as to the rest, I say, not the Lord, If any brother have an unbelieving wife, and she consent to dwell with him, let him not leave her. <sup>13</sup> And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to dwell with her, let her not leave [her] husband. <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother; since [otherwise] indeed your children are unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup> But if the unbeliever go away, let them go away; a brother or a sister is not bound in such [cases], but °God has called us in peace. <sup>16</sup> For what knowest thou, O wife, if thou shalt save thy husband? or what knowest thou, O husband, if thou shalt save thy wife? <sup>17</sup> However, as the Lord has divided to each, as °God has called each, so let him walk; and thus I ordain in all the assemblies. <sup>18</sup> Has any one been called circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: has any one been called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but keeping °God's commandments. <sup>20</sup> Let each abide in that calling in which he has been called. <sup>21</sup> Hast thou been called [being] a bondman, let it not concern thee; but and if thou canst become free, use [it] rather. <sup>22</sup> For the bondman that is called in [the] Lord is the Lord's freedman; in like manner [also] the freeman being called is Christ's bondman. <sup>23</sup> Ye have been bought with a price; do not be the bondmen of men. <sup>24</sup> Let each, wherein he is called, brethren, therein abide with °God. <sup>25</sup> But concerning virgins, I have no commandment of [the] Lord; but I give my opinion, as having received mercy of [the] Lord to be faithful. <sup>26</sup> I think then that this is good, on account of the present necessity, that [it is] good for a man to remain so as he is. <sup>27</sup> Art thou bound to a wife? seek not to be loosed; art thou free from a wife? do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup> But if thou shouldest also marry, thou hast not sinned; and if the virgin marry, they have not sinned: but such shall have tribulation in the flesh; but I spare you. <sup>29</sup> But this I say, brethren, the time is straitened. For the rest, that they who have wives, be as not having [any]: <sup>30</sup> and they that weep, as not weeping; and they that rejoice, as not rejoicing; and they that buy, as not possessing; <sup>31</sup> and they that use the world, as not disposing of it as their own; for the fashion of this world passes. <sup>32</sup> But I wish you to be without care. The unmarried cares for the things of the Lord, how he shall please the Lord; <sup>33</sup> but he that has married cares for the things of the world, how he shall please his wife. <sup>34</sup> There is a difference between the wife and the virgin. The unmarried cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but she that has married cares for the things of the world, how she shall please her husband. <sup>35</sup> But I say this for your own profit; not that I may set a snare before you, but for what [is] seemly, and waiting on the Lord without distraction. <sup>36</sup> But if any one think that he behaves unseemly to his virginity, if he be beyond the flower of his age, and so it must be, let him do what he will, he does not sin: let them marry. <sup>37</sup> But he who stands firm in his heart, having no need, but has authority over his own will, and has judged this in his heart to keep his own virginity, he does well. <sup>38</sup> So that he that marries himself does well; and he that does not marry does better. <sup>39</sup> A wife is bound for whatever time her husband lives; but if the husband be fallen asleep, she is free to be married to whom she will, only in [the] Lord. <sup>40</sup> But she is happier if she so remain, according to my judgment; but I think that I also have <sup>o</sup>God's Spirit.

<sup>1</sup> But concerning things sacrificed to idols, we know, (for we all have knowledge: knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. <sup>2</sup> If any one think he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know [it]. <sup>3</sup> But if any one love <sup>o</sup>God, he is known of him): <sup>4</sup>— concerning then the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol [is] nothing in [the] world, and that there [is] no other <sup>o</sup>God save one. <sup>5</sup> For and if indeed there are [those] called <sup>o</sup>gods, whether in heaven or on earth, (as there are <sup>o</sup>gods many, and lords many,) <sup>6</sup> yet to us [there is] one <sup>o</sup>God, the Father, of whom all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom [are] all things, and we by him. <sup>7</sup> But knowledge [is] not in all: but some, with conscience of the idol, until now eat as of a thing sacrificed to idols; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup> But meat does not commend us to <sup>o</sup>God; neither if we should not eat do we come short; nor if we should eat have we an advantage. <sup>9</sup> But see lest anyway this your right [to eat] itself be a stumbling-block to the weak. <sup>10</sup> For if any one see thee, who hast knowledge, sitting at table in an idol-house, shall not his conscience, he being weak, be emboldened to eat the things sacrificed to the idol? <sup>11</sup> and the weak [one], the brother for whose sake Christ died, will perish through thy knowledge. <sup>12</sup> Now, thus sinning against the brethren, and wounding their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup> Wherefore if meat be a fall-trap to my brother, I will eat no flesh for ever, that I may not be a fall-trap to my brother.

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? am I not an apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye my work in [the] Lord? <sup>2</sup> If I am not an apostle to others, yet at any rate I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in [the] Lord. <sup>3</sup> My defence to those who examine me is this: <sup>4</sup> Have we not a right to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup> have we not a right to take round a sister [as] wife, as also the other apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? <sup>6</sup> Or I alone and Barnabas, have we not a right not to work? <sup>7</sup> Who ever carries on war at his own charges? who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? or who herds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup> Do I speak these things as a man, or does not the law also say these things?

<sup>9</sup>For in the law of Moses it is written, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that is treading out corn. Is <sup>o</sup>God occupied about the oxen, <sup>10</sup>or does he say [it] altogether for our sakes? For for our sakes it has been written, that the plougher should plough in hope, and he that treads out corn, in hope of partaking of [it]. <sup>11</sup>If we have sown to you spiritual things, [is it a] great [thing] if we shall reap your carnal things? <sup>12</sup>If others partake of this right over you, should not rather we? But we have not used this right, but we bear all things, that we may put no hindrance in the way of the glad tidings of the Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do ye not know that they who labour [at] sacred things eat of the [offerings offered in the] temple; they that attend at the altar partake with the altar? <sup>14</sup>So also the Lord has ordained to those that announce the glad tidings to live of the glad tidings. <sup>15</sup>But I have used none of these things. Now I have not written these things that it should be thus in my case; for [it were] good for me rather to die than that any one should make vain my boast. <sup>16</sup>For if I announce the glad tidings, I have nothing to boast of; for a necessity is laid upon me; for it is woe to me if I should not announce the glad tidings. <sup>17</sup>For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with an administration. <sup>18</sup>What is the reward then that I have? That in announcing the glad tidings I make the glad tidings costless [to others], so as not to have made use, as belonging to me, of my right in [announcing] the glad tidings. <sup>19</sup>For being free from all, I have made myself bondman to all, that I might gain the most [possible]. <sup>20</sup>And I became to the Jews as a Jew, in order that I might gain the Jews: to those under law, as under law, not being myself under law, in order that I might gain those under law: <sup>21</sup>to those without law, as without law, (not as without law to <sup>o</sup>God, but as legitimately subject to Christ,) in order that I might gain [those] without law. <sup>22</sup>I became to the weak, [as] weak, in order that I might gain the weak. To all I have become all things, in order that at all events I might save some. <sup>23</sup>And I do all things for the sake of the glad tidings, that I may be fellow-partaker with them. <sup>24</sup>Know ye not that they who run in [the] race-course run all, but one receives the prize? Thus run in order that ye may obtain. <sup>25</sup>But every one that contends [for a prize] is temperate in all things: they then indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>26</sup>I therefore thus run, as not uncertainly; so I combat, as not beating the air. <sup>27</sup>But I buffet my body, and lead it captive, lest [after] having preached to others I should be myself rejected.

10

<sup>1</sup>For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; <sup>2</sup>and all were baptised unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>3</sup>and all ate the same spiritual food, <sup>4</sup>and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank of a spiritual rock which followed [them]: (now the rock was the Christ;) <sup>5</sup>yet <sup>o</sup>God was not pleased with the most of them, for they were strewed in the desert. <sup>6</sup>But these things happened [as] types of us, that we should not be lusters after evil things, as they also lusted. <sup>7</sup>Neither be ye idolaters, as some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. <sup>8</sup> Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. <sup>9</sup> Neither let us tempt the Christ, as some of them tempted, and perished by serpents. <sup>10</sup> Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup> Now all these things happened to them [as] types, and have been written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come. <sup>12</sup> So that let him that thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. <sup>13</sup> No temptation has taken you but such as is according to man's nature; and °God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able [to bear], but will with the temptation make the issue also, so that [ye] should be able to bear [it]. <sup>14</sup> Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup> I speak as to intelligent [persons]: do ye judge what I say. <sup>16</sup> The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not [the] communion of the blood of the Christ? The bread which we break, is it not [the] communion of the body of the Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because we, [being] many, are one loaf, one body; for we all partake of that one loaf. <sup>18</sup> See Israel according to flesh: are not they who eat the sacrifices in communion with the altar? <sup>19</sup> What then do I say? that what is sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup> But that what [the nations] sacrifice they sacrifice to demons, and not to °God. Now I do not wish you to be in communion with demons. <sup>21</sup> Ye cannot drink [the] Lord's cup, and [the] cup of demons: ye cannot partake of [the] Lord's table, and of [the] table of demons. <sup>22</sup> Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? <sup>23</sup> All things are lawful, but all are not profitable; all things are lawful, but all do not edify. <sup>24</sup> Let no one seek his own [advantage], but that of the other. <sup>25</sup> Everything sold in the shambles eat, making no inquiry for conscience sake. <sup>26</sup> For the earth [is] the Lord's and its fulness. <sup>27</sup> But if any one of the unbelievers invite you, and ye are minded to go, all that is set before you eat, making no inquiry for conscience sake. <sup>28</sup> But if any one say to you, This is offered to holy purposes, do not eat, for his sake that pointed it out, and conscience sake; <sup>29</sup> but conscience, I mean, not thine own, but that of the other: for why is my liberty judged by another conscience? <sup>30</sup> If I partake with thanksgiving, why am I spoken evil of for what I give thanks for? <sup>31</sup> Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatever ye do, do all things to °God's glory. <sup>32</sup> Give no occasion to stumbling, whether to Jews, or Greeks, or the assembly of °God. <sup>33</sup> Even as I also please all in all things; not seeking my own profit, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

<sup>1</sup> Be my imitators, even as I also [am] of Christ. <sup>2</sup> Now I praise you, that in all things ye are mindful of me; and that as I have directed you, ye keep the directions. <sup>3</sup> But I wish you to know that the Christ is the head of every man, but woman's head [is] the man, and the Christ's head °God. <sup>4</sup> Every man praying or prophesying, having [anything] on his head, puts his head to shame. <sup>5</sup> But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered puts her own head to shame; for it is one and the same as a shaved [woman]. <sup>6</sup> For if a woman be not covered, let her hair also be cut off. But if [it be] shameful to a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup> For man indeed ought not to have his head covered, being °God's image and glory; but woman is man's glory. <sup>8</sup> For man is not of woman, but woman of man. <sup>9</sup> For also man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man. <sup>10</sup> Therefore ought the woman to have authority on her head, on account of the angels. <sup>11</sup> However, neither [is] woman without man, nor man without woman, in [the] Lord. <sup>12</sup> For as the woman [is] of the man, so also [is] the man by the woman, but all things of °God. <sup>13</sup> Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman should pray to °God uncovered? <sup>14</sup> Does not even nature itself teach you, that man, if he have long hair, it is a dishonour to him? <sup>15</sup> But woman, if she have long hair, [it is] glory to her; for the long hair is given [to her] in lieu of a veil. <sup>16</sup> But if any one think to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor the assemblies of °God. <sup>17</sup> But [in] prescribing [to you on] this [which I now enter on], I do not praise, [namely,] that ye come together, not for the better, but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For first, when ye come together in assembly, I hear there exist divisions among you, and I partly give credit [to it]. <sup>19</sup> For there must also be sects among you, that the approved may become manifest among you. <sup>20</sup> When ye come therefore together into one place, it is not to eat [the] Lord's supper. <sup>21</sup> For each one in eating takes his own supper before [others], and one is hungry and another drinks to excess. <sup>22</sup> Have ye not then houses for eating and drinking? or do ye despise the assembly of °God, and put to shame them who have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you? In this [point] I do not praise. <sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord, that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, in the night in which he was delivered up, took bread, <sup>24</sup> and having given thanks broke [it], and said, This is my body, which [is] for you: this do in remembrance of me. <sup>25</sup> In like manner also the cup, after having supped, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye shall drink [it], in remembrance of me. <sup>26</sup> For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye announce the death of the Lord, until he come. <sup>27</sup> So that whosoever shall eat the bread, or drink the cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty in respect of the body and of the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup> But let a man prove himself, and thus eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. <sup>29</sup> For [the] eater and drinker eats and drinks judgment to himself, not distinguishing the body. <sup>30</sup> On this account many among you [are] weak and infirm, and a good many are fallen asleep. <sup>31</sup> But if we judged ourselves, so were we not judged. <sup>32</sup> But being judged, we are disciplined of [the] Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. <sup>33</sup> So that, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup> If any one be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye may not come together for judgment. But the other things, whenever I come, I will set in order.

were] led away to dumb idols, in whatever way ye might be led. <sup>3</sup> I give you therefore to know, that no one, speaking in [the power of the] Spirit of °God, says, Curse [on] Jesus; and no one can say, Lord Jesus, unless in [the power of the] Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup> But there are distinctions of gifts, but the same Spirit; <sup>5</sup> and there are distinctions of services, and the same Lord; <sup>6</sup> and there are distinctions of operations, but the same °God who operates all things in all. <sup>7</sup> But to each the manifestation of the Spirit is given for profit. <sup>8</sup> For to one, by the Spirit, is given [the] word of wisdom; and to another [the] word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup> and to a different one faith, in [the power of] the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healing in [the power of] the same Spirit; <sup>10</sup> and to another operations of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; and to a different one kinds of tongues; and to another interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> But all these things operates the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each in particular according as he pleases. <sup>12</sup> For even as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, being many, are one body, so also [is] the Christ. <sup>13</sup> For also in [the power of] one Spirit we have all been baptised into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bondmen or free, and have all been given to drink of one Spirit. <sup>14</sup> For also the body is not one member but many. <sup>15</sup> If the foot say, Because I am not a hand I am not of the body, is it on account of this not indeed of the body? <sup>16</sup> And if the ear say, Because I am not an eye I am not of the body, is it on account of this not indeed of the body? <sup>17</sup> If the whole body [were] an eye, where the hearing? if all hearing, where the smelling? <sup>18</sup> But now °God has set the members, each one of them in the body, according as it has pleased [him]. <sup>19</sup> But if all were one member, where the body? <sup>20</sup> But now the members [are] many, and the body one. <sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, I have not need of thee; or again, the head to the feet, I have not need of you. <sup>22</sup> But much rather, the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary; <sup>23</sup> and those [parts] of the body which we esteem to be the more void of honour, these we clothe with more abundant honour; and our uncomely [parts] have more abundant comeliness; <sup>24</sup> but our comely [parts] have not need. But °God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to [the part] that lacked; <sup>25</sup> that there might be no division in the body, but that the members might have the same concern one for another. <sup>26</sup> And if one member suffer, all the members suffer with [it]; and if one member be glorified, all the members rejoice with [it]. <sup>27</sup> Now ye are Christ's body, and members in particular. <sup>28</sup> And °God has set certain in the assembly: first, apostles; secondly, prophets; thirdly, teachers; then miraculous powers; then gifts of healings; helps; governments; kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup> [Are] all apostles? [are] all prophets? [are] all teachers? [are] all [in possession of] miraculous powers? <sup>30</sup> have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? <sup>31</sup> But desire earnestly the greater gifts, and yet shew I unto you a way of more surpassing excellence.

<sup>1</sup> If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> And if I have prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> And if I shall dole out all my goods in food, and if I deliver up my body that I may be burned, but have not love, I profit nothing. <sup>4</sup> Love has long patience, is kind; love is not emulous [of others]; love is not insolent and rash, is not puffed up, <sup>5</sup> does not behave in an unseemly manner, does not seek what is its own, is not quickly provoked, does not impute evil, <sup>6</sup> does not rejoice in iniquity but rejoices with the truth, <sup>7</sup> bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>8</sup> Love never fails; but whether prophecies, they shall be done away; or tongues, they shall cease; or knowledge, it shall be done away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part, and we prophesy in part: <sup>10</sup> but when that which is perfect has come, that which is in part shall be done away. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I reasoned as a child; when I became a man, I had done with what belonged to the child. <sup>12</sup> For we see now through a dim window obscurely, but then face to face; now I know partially, but then I shall know according as I also have been known. <sup>13</sup> And now abide faith, hope, love; these three things; and the greater of these [is] love.

14

<sup>1</sup> Follow after love, and be emulous of spiritual [manifestations], but rather that ye may prophesy. <sup>2</sup> For he that speaks with a tongue does not speak to men but to <sup>o</sup>God: for no one hears; but in spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>3</sup> But he that prophesies speaks to men [in] edification, and encouragement, and consolation. <sup>4</sup> He that speaks with a tongue edifies himself; but he that prophesies edifies [the] assembly. <sup>5</sup> Now I desire that ye should all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy. But greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with tongues, unless he interpret, that the assembly may receive edification. <sup>6</sup> And now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I shall speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching? <sup>7</sup> Even lifeless things giving a sound, whether pipe or harp, if they give not distinction to the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>8</sup> For also, if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for war? <sup>9</sup> Thus also ye with the tongue, unless ye give a distinct speech, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speaking to the air. <sup>10</sup> There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of undistinguishable sound. <sup>11</sup> If therefore I do not know the power of the sound, I shall be to him that speaks a barbarian, and he that speaks a barbarian for me. <sup>12</sup> Thus ye also, since ye are desirous of spirits, seek that ye may abound for the edification of the assembly. <sup>13</sup> Wherefore let him that speaks with a tongue pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray with a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup> What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray also with the understanding; I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing also with the understanding. <sup>16</sup> Since otherwise, if thou blessest with [the] spirit, how shall he who fills the place of the simple [Christian] say Amen, at thy giving of thanks, since he does not know what thou sayest? <sup>17</sup> For thou indeed givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. <sup>18</sup> I thank °God I speak in a tongue more than all of you: <sup>19</sup> but in [the] assembly I desire to speak five words with my understanding, that I may instruct others also, [rather] than ten thousand words in a tongue. <sup>20</sup> Brethren, be not children in [your] minds, but in malice be babes; but in [your] minds be grown [men]. <sup>21</sup> It is written in the law, By people of other tongues, and by strange lips, will I speak to this people; and neither thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. <sup>22</sup> So that tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to unbelievers; but prophecy, not to unbelievers, but to those who believe. <sup>23</sup> If therefore the whole assembly come together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and simple [persons] enter in, or unbelievers, will not they say ye are mad? <sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or simple [person] come in, he is convicted of all, he is judged of all; <sup>25</sup> the secrets of his heart are manifested; and thus, falling upon [his] face, he will do homage to °God, reporting that °God is indeed amongst you. <sup>26</sup> What is it then, brethren? whenever ye come together, each [of you] has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to edification. <sup>27</sup> If any one speak with a tongue, [let it be] two, or at the most three, and separately, and let one interpret; <sup>28</sup> but if there be no interpreter, let him be silent in [the] assembly, and let him speak to himself and to °God. <sup>29</sup> And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. <sup>30</sup> But if there be a revelation to another sitting [there], let the first be silent. <sup>31</sup> For ye can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all be encouraged. <sup>32</sup> And spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. <sup>33</sup> For °God is not [a °God] of disorder but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the saints. <sup>34</sup> Let [your] women be silent in the assemblies, for it is not permitted to them to speak; but to be in subjection, as the law also says. <sup>35</sup> But if they wish to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is a shame for a woman to speak in assembly. <sup>36</sup> Did the word of °God go out from you, or did it come to you only? <sup>37</sup> If any one thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him recognise the things that I write to you, that it is [the] Lord's commandment. <sup>38</sup> But if any be ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>39</sup> So that, brethren, desire to prophesy, and do not forbid the speaking with tongues. <sup>40</sup> But let all things be done comely and with order.

15

<sup>1</sup> But I make known to you, brethren, the glad tidings which I announced to you, which also ye received, in which also ye stand, <sup>2</sup> by which also ye are saved, (if ye hold fast the word which I announced to you as the glad tidings,) unless indeed ye have believed in vain. <sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you, in the first place, what also I had received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures; <sup>4</sup> and that he was buried; and that he was raised the third day, according to the scriptures; <sup>5</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. <sup>6</sup> Then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the most remain until now, but some also have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> Then he appeared to James; then to all the apostles; <sup>8</sup> and last of all, as to an abortion, he appeared to me also. <sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called apostle, because I have persecuted the assembly of °God. <sup>10</sup> But by °God's grace I am what I am; and his grace, which [was] towards me, has not been vain; but I have laboured more abundantly than they all, but not I, but the grace of °God which [was] with me. <sup>11</sup> Whether, therefore, I or they, thus we preach, and thus ye have believed. <sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is preached that he is raised from among [the] dead, how say some among you that there is not a resurrection of [those that are] dead? <sup>13</sup> But if there is not a resurrection of [those that are] dead, neither is Christ raised: <sup>14</sup> but if Christ is not raised, then, indeed, vain also [is] our preaching, and vain also your faith. <sup>15</sup> And we are found also false witnesses of °God; for we have witnessed concerning °God that he raised the Christ, whom he has not raised if indeed [those that are] dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup> For if [those that are] dead are not raised, neither is Christ raised; <sup>17</sup> but if Christ be not raised, your faith [is] vain; ye are yet in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then indeed also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are [the] most miserable of all men. <sup>20</sup> (But now Christ is raised from among [the] dead, first-fruits of those fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup> For since by man [came] death, by man also resurrection of [those that are] dead. <sup>22</sup> For as in the Adam all die, thus also in the Christ all shall be made alive. <sup>23</sup> But each in his own rank: [the] first-fruits, Christ; then those that are the Christ's at his coming. <sup>24</sup> Then the end, when he gives up the kingdom to him [who is] °God and Father; when he shall have annulled all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup> For he must reign until he put all enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup> [The] last enemy [that] is annulled [is] death. <sup>27</sup> For he has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when he says that all things are put in subjection, [it is] evident that [it is] except him who put all things in subjection to him. <sup>28</sup> But when all things shall have been brought into subjection to him, then the Son also himself shall be placed in subjection to him who put all things in subjection to him, that °God may be all in all.) <sup>29</sup> Since what shall the baptised for the dead do if [those that are] dead rise not at all? why also are they baptised for them? <sup>30</sup> Why do we also endanger ourselves every hour? <sup>31</sup> Daily I die, by your boasting which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup> If, [to speak] after the manner of man, I have fought with beasts in Ephesus, what is the profit to me if [those that are] dead do not rise? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die. <sup>33</sup> Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. <sup>34</sup> Awake up righteously, and sin not; for some are ignorant of °God: I speak to you as a matter of shame. <sup>35</sup> But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come? <sup>36</sup> Fool; what thou sowest is not quickened unless it die. <sup>37</sup> And what thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain: it may be of wheat, or some one of the rest:

<sup>38</sup> and <sup>o</sup>God gives to it a body as he has pleased, and to each of the seeds its own body. <sup>39</sup> Every flesh [is] not the same flesh, but one [is] of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another [flesh] of birds, and another of fishes. <sup>40</sup> And [there are] heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but different is the glory of the heavenly, different that of the earthly: <sup>41</sup> one [the] sun's glory, and another [the] moon's glory, and another [the] stars' glory; for star differs from star in glory. <sup>42</sup> Thus also [is] the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruptibility. <sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup> It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body: if there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual [one]. <sup>45</sup> Thus also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul; the last Adam a quickening spirit. <sup>46</sup> But that which is spiritual [was] not first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual: <sup>47</sup> the first man out of [the] earth, made of dust; the second man, out of heaven. <sup>48</sup> Such as he made of dust, such also those made of dust; and such as the heavenly [one], such also the heavenly [ones]. <sup>49</sup> And as we have borne the image of the [one] made of dust, we shall bear also the image of the heavenly [one]. <sup>50</sup> But this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit <sup>o</sup>God's kingdom, nor does corruption inherit incorruptibility. <sup>51</sup> Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in an instant, in [the] twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. <sup>53</sup> For this corruptible must needs put on incorruptibility, and this mortal put on immortality. <sup>54</sup> But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruptibility, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the word written: Death has been swallowed up in victory. <sup>55</sup> Where, O death, [is] thy sting? where, O death, thy victory? <sup>56</sup> Now the sting of death [is] sin, and the power of sin the law; <sup>57</sup> but thanks to <sup>o</sup>God, who gives us the victory by our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>58</sup> So then, my beloved brethren, be firm, immovable, abounding always in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in [the] Lord.

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I directed the assemblies of Galatia, so do ye do also. <sup>2</sup> On [the] first of [the] week let each of you put by at home, laying up [in] whatever [degree] he may have prospered, that there may be no collections when I come. <sup>3</sup> And when I am arrived, whomsoever ye shall approve, these I will send with letters to carry your bounty to Jerusalem: <sup>4</sup> and if it be suitable that I also should go, they shall go with me. <sup>5</sup> But I will come to you when I shall have gone through Macedonia; for I do go through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup> But perhaps I will stay with you, or even winter with you, that ye may set me forward wheresoever I may go. <sup>7</sup> For I will not see you now in passing, for I hope to remain a certain time with you, if the Lord permit. <sup>8</sup> But I remain in Ephesus until Pentecost. <sup>9</sup> For a great door is opened to me and an effectual [one], and [the] adversaries many. <sup>10</sup> Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear; for he works the work of the Lord, even as I. <sup>11</sup> Let not therefore any one despise him; but set him forward in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brethren. <sup>12</sup> Now concerning the brother Apollos, I begged him much that he would go to you with the brethren; but it was not at all [his] will to go now; but he will come when he shall have good opportunity. <sup>13</sup> Be vigilant; stand fast in the faith; quit yourselves like men; be strong. <sup>14</sup> Let all things ye do be done in love. <sup>15</sup> But I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the saints for service,) <sup>16</sup> that ye should also be subject to such, and to every one joined in the work and labouring. <sup>17</sup> But I rejoice in the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus; because they have supplied what was lacking on your part. <sup>18</sup> For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: own therefore such. <sup>19</sup> The assemblies of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla, with the assembly in their house, salute you much in [the] Lord. <sup>20</sup> All the brethren salute you. Salute one another with a holy kiss. <sup>21</sup> The salutation of [me] Paul with my own hand. <sup>22</sup> If any one love not the Lord [Jesus Christ] let him be Anathema Maranatha. <sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you. <sup>24</sup> My love [be] with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ by °God's will, and the brother Timotheus, to the assembly of °God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia. <sup>2</sup> Grace to you, and peace from °God our Father, and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> Blessed [be] the °God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassions, and °God of all encouragement; <sup>4</sup> who encourages us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to encourage those who are in any tribulation whatever, through the encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged of °God. <sup>5</sup> Because, even as the sufferings of the Christ abound towards us, so through the Christ does our encouragement also abound. <sup>6</sup> But whether we are in tribulation, [it is] for your encouragement and salvation, wrought in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; <sup>7</sup> (and our hope for you [is] sure;) or whether we are encouraged, [it is] for your encouragement and salvation: knowing that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also of the encouragement. <sup>8</sup> For we do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, as to our tribulation which happened [to us] in Asia, that we were excessively pressed beyond [our] power, so as to despair even of living. <sup>9</sup> But we ourselves had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not have our trust in ourselves, but in °God who raises the dead; <sup>10</sup> who has delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver; in whom we confide that he will also yet deliver; <sup>11</sup> ye also labouring together by supplication for us that the gift towards us, through means of many persons, may be the subject of the thanksgiving of many for us. <sup>12</sup> For our boasting is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity before °God, (not in fleshly wisdom but in °God's grace,) we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly towards you. <sup>13</sup> For we do not write other things to you but what ye well know and recognise; and I hope that ye will recognise to the end, <sup>14</sup> even as also ye have recognised us in part, that we are your boast, even as ye [are] ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. <sup>15</sup> And with this confidence I purposed to come to you previously, that ye might have a second favour; <sup>16</sup> and to pass through to Macedonia by you, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be set forward by you to Judaea. <sup>17</sup> Having therefore this purpose, did I then use lightness? Or what I purpose, do I purpose according to flesh, that there should be with me yea yea, and nay nay? <sup>18</sup> Now °God [is] faithful, that our word to you is not yea and nay. <sup>19</sup> For the Son of °God, Jesus Christ, he who has been preached by us among you (by me and Silvanus and Timotheus), did not become yea and nay, but yea is in him. <sup>20</sup> For whatever promises of °God [there are], in him is the yea, and in him the amen, for glory to °God by us. <sup>21</sup> Now he that establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us,

° 1:1 Elohim    ° 1:1 Elohim    ° 1:2 Elohim    ° 1:3 Elohim    ° 1:3 Elohim    ° 1:4 Elohim
 ° 1:9 Elohim    ° 1:12 Elohim    ° 1:12 Elohim    ° 1:18 Elohim    ° 1:19 Elohim    ° 1:20 Elohim
 ° 1:20 Elohim

[is] °God, <sup>22</sup> who also has sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>23</sup> But I call °God to witness upon my soul that to spare you I have not yet come to Corinth. <sup>24</sup> Not that we rule over your faith, but are fellow-workmen of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

2

<sup>1</sup> But I have judged this with myself, not to come back to you in grief. <sup>2</sup> For if I grieve you, who also [is] it that gladdens me, if not he that is grieved through me? <sup>3</sup> And I have written this very [letter] [to you], that coming I may not have grief from those from whom I ought to have joy; trusting in you all that my joy is [that] of you all. <sup>4</sup> For out of much tribulation and distress of heart I wrote to you, with many tears; not that ye may be grieved, but that ye may know the love which I have very abundantly towards you. <sup>5</sup> But if any one has grieved, he has grieved, not me, but in part (that I may not overcharge [you]) all of you. <sup>6</sup> Sufficient to such a one [is] this rebuke which [has been inflicted] by the many; <sup>7</sup> so that on the contrary ye should rather shew grace and encourage, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive grief. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore I exhort you to assure him of [your] love. <sup>9</sup> For to this end also I have written, that I might know, by putting you to the test, if as to everything ye are obedient. <sup>10</sup> But to whom ye forgive anything, I also; for I also, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, [it is] for your sakes in [the] person of Christ; <sup>11</sup> that we might not have Satan get an advantage against us, for we are not ignorant of his thoughts. <sup>12</sup> Now when I came to Troas for the [publication of the] glad tidings of the Christ, a door also being opened to me in [the] Lord, <sup>13</sup> I had no rest in my spirit at not finding Titus my brother; but bidding them adieu, I came away to Macedonia. <sup>14</sup> But thanks [be] to °God, who always leads us in triumph in the Christ, and makes manifest the odour of his knowledge through us in every place. <sup>15</sup> For we are a sweet odour of Christ to °God, in the saved and in those that perish: <sup>16</sup> to the one an odour from death unto death, but to the others an odour from life unto life; and who [is] sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup> For we do not, as the many, make a trade of the word of °God; but as of sincerity, but as of °God, before °God, we speak in Christ.

ministry of death, in letters, graven in stones, began with glory, so that the children of Israel could not fix their eyes on the face of Moses, on account of the glory of his face, [a glory] which is annulled; <sup>8</sup> how shall not rather the ministry of the Spirit subsist in glory? <sup>9</sup> For if the ministry of condemnation [be] glory, much rather the ministry of righteousness abounds in glory. <sup>10</sup> For also that [which was] glorified is not glorified in this respect, on account of the surpassing glory. <sup>11</sup> For if that annulled [was introduced] with glory, much rather that which abides [subsists] in glory. <sup>12</sup> Having therefore such hope, we use much boldness: <sup>13</sup> and not according as Moses put a veil on his own face, so that the children of Israel should not fix their eyes on the end of that annulled. <sup>14</sup> But their thoughts have been darkened, for unto this day the same veil remains in reading the old covenant, unremoved, which in Christ is annulled. <sup>15</sup> But unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil lies upon their heart. <sup>16</sup> But when it shall turn to [the] Lord, the veil is taken away.) <sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, but where the Spirit of [the] Lord [is, there is] liberty. <sup>18</sup> But we all, looking on the glory of the Lord, with unveiled face, are transformed according to the same image from glory to glory, even as by [the] Lord [the] Spirit.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, having this ministry, as we have had mercy shewn us, we faint not. <sup>2</sup> But we have rejected the hidden things of shame, not walking in deceit, nor falsifying the word of °God, but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every conscience of men before °God. <sup>3</sup> But if also our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in those that are lost; <sup>4</sup> in whom the °god of this world has blinded the thoughts of the unbelieving, so that the radiance of the glad tidings of the glory of the Christ, who is [the] image of °God, should not shine forth [for them]. <sup>5</sup> For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus Lord, and ourselves your bondmen for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup> Because [it is] the °God who spoke that out of darkness light should shine who has shone in our hearts for the shining forth of the knowledge of the glory of °God in [the] face of [Jesus] Christ. <sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassingness of the power may be of °God, and not from us: <sup>8</sup> every way afflicted, but not straitened; seeing no apparent issue, but our way not entirely shut up; <sup>9</sup> persecuted, but not abandoned; cast down, but not destroyed; <sup>10</sup> always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body; <sup>11</sup> for we who live are always delivered unto death on account of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh; <sup>12</sup> so that death works in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup> And having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I have believed, therefore have I spoken; we also believe, therefore also we speak; <sup>14</sup> knowing that he who has raised the Lord Jesus shall raise us also with Jesus, and shall present [us] with you. <sup>15</sup> For all things [are] for your sakes, that the grace abounding through the many may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of °God. <sup>16</sup> Wherefore we faint not;

but if indeed our outward man is consumed, yet the inward is renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup> For our momentary [and] light affliction works for us in surpassing measure an eternal weight of glory; <sup>18</sup> while we look not at the things that are seen, but at the things that are not seen; for the things that are seen [are] for a time, but those that are not seen eternal.

<sup>1</sup> For we know that if our earthly tabernacle house be destroyed, we have a building from °God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. <sup>2</sup> For indeed in this we groan, ardently desiring to have put on our house which [is] from heaven; <sup>3</sup> if indeed being also clothed we shall not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> For indeed we who are in the tabernacle groan, being burdened; while yet we do not wish to be unclothed, but clothed, that [what is] mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> Now he that has wrought us for this very thing [is] °God, who also has given to us the earnest of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> Therefore [we are] always confident, and know that while present in the body we are absent from the Lord, <sup>7</sup> (for we walk by faith, not by sight;) <sup>8</sup> we are confident, I say, and pleased rather to be absent from the body and present with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Wherefore also we are zealous, whether present or absent, to be agreeable to him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all be manifested before the judgment-seat of the Christ, that each may receive the things [done] in the body, according to those he has done, whether [it be] good or evil. <sup>11</sup> Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord we persuade men, but have been manifested to °God, and I hope also that we have been manifested in your consciences. <sup>12</sup> [For] we do not again commend ourselves to you, but [we are] giving to you occasion of boast in our behalf, that ye may have [such] with those boasting in countenance, and not in heart. <sup>13</sup> For whether we are beside ourselves, [it is] to °God; or are sober, [it is] for you. <sup>14</sup> For the love of the Christ constrains us, having judged this: that one died for all, then all have died; <sup>15</sup> and he died for all, that they who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who died for them and has been raised. <sup>16</sup> So that we henceforth know no one according to flesh; but if even we have known Christ according to flesh, yet now we know [him thus] no longer. <sup>17</sup> So if any one [be] in Christ, [there is] a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold all things have become new: <sup>18</sup> and all things [are] of the °God who has reconciled us to himself by [Jesus] Christ, and given to us the ministry of that reconciliation: <sup>19</sup> how that °God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their offences; and putting in us the word of that reconciliation. <sup>20</sup> We are ambassadors therefore for Christ, °God as [it were] beseeching by us, we entreat for Christ, Be reconciled to °God. <sup>21</sup> Him who knew not sin he has made sin for us, that we might become °God's righteousness in him.

<sup>1</sup> But [as] fellow-workmen, we also beseech that ye receive not the grace of °God in vain: <sup>2</sup> (for he says, I have listened to thee in an accepted time, and I have helped thee in a day of salvation: behold, now [is the] well-accepted time; behold, now [the] day of salvation:)<sup>3</sup> giving no manner of offence in anything, that the ministry be not blamed;<sup>4</sup> but in everything commending ourselves as °God's ministers, in much endurance, in afflictions, in necessities, in straits,<sup>5</sup> in stripes, in prisons, in riots, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,<sup>6</sup> in pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, in [the] Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned,<sup>7</sup> in [the] word of truth, in [the] power of °God; through the arms of righteousness on the right hand and left,<sup>8</sup> through glory and dishonour, through evil report and good report: as deceivers, and true;<sup>9</sup> as unknown, and well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as disciplined, and not put to death;<sup>10</sup> as grieved, but always rejoicing; as poor, but enriching many; as having nothing, and possessing all things.<sup>11</sup> Our mouth is opened to you, Corinthians, our heart is expanded.<sup>12</sup> Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your affections;<sup>13</sup> but for an answering recompense, (I speak as to children,) let your heart also expand itself.<sup>14</sup> Be not diversely yoked with unbelievers; for what participation [is there] between righteousness and lawlessness? or what fellowship of light with darkness?<sup>15</sup> and what consent of Christ with Beliar, or what part for a believer along with an unbeliever?<sup>16</sup> and what agreement of °God's temple with idols? for ye are [the] living °God's temple; according as °God has said, I will dwell among them, and walk among [them]; and I will be their °God, and they shall be to me a people.<sup>17</sup> Wherefore come out from the midst of them, and be separated, saith [the] Lord, and touch not [what is] unclean, and I will receive you;<sup>18</sup> and I will be to you for a Father, and ye shall be to me for sons and daughters, saith [the] Lord Almighty.

7

<sup>1</sup> Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us purify ourselves from every pollution of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in °God's fear. <sup>2</sup> Receive us: we have injured no one, we have ruined no one, we have made gain of no one. <sup>3</sup> I do not speak for condemnation, for I have already said that ye are in our hearts, to die together, and live together. <sup>4</sup> Great [is] my boldness towards you, great my exulting in respect of you; I am filled with encouragement; I overabound in joy under all our affliction. <sup>5</sup> For indeed, when we came into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but [we were] afflicted in every way; without combats, within fears. <sup>6</sup> But he who encourages those that are [brought] low, [even] °God, encouraged us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7</sup> and not by his coming only, but also through the encouragement with which he was encouraged as to you; relating to us your ardent desire, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I the more rejoiced. <sup>8</sup> For if also I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret [it], if even I have regretted it; for I see that that letter, if even [it were] only for a time, grieved you. <sup>9</sup> Now I rejoice, not that ye have been grieved, but that ye have been grieved to repentance; for ye have been grieved according to °God, that

° 6:4 Elohim   ° 6:7 Elohim   ° 6:16 Elohim   ° 6:16 Elohim   ° 6:16 Elohim   ° 6:16 Elohim
 ° 7:1 Elohim   ° 7:6 Elohim   ° 7:9 Elohim in nothing ye might be injured by us. <sup>10</sup> For grief according to °God works repentance to salvation, never to be regretted; but the grief of the world works death. <sup>11</sup> For, behold, this same thing, your being grieved according to °God, how much diligence it wrought in you, but [what] excusing [of yourselves], but [what] indignation, but [what] fear, but [what] ardent desire, but [what] zeal, but [what] vengeance: in every way ye have proved yourselves to be pure in the matter. <sup>12</sup> So then, if also I wrote to you, [it was] not for the sake of him that injured, nor for the sake of him that was injured, but for the sake of our diligent zeal for you being manifested to you before °God. <sup>13</sup> For this reason we have been encouraged. And we the rather rejoiced in our encouragement more abundantly by reason of the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup> Because if I boasted to him anything about you, I have not been put to shame; but as we have spoken to you all things in truth, so also our boasting to Titus has been [the] truth; <sup>15</sup> and his affections are more abundantly towards you, calling to mind the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. <sup>16</sup> I rejoice that in everything I am confident as to you.

<sup>1</sup> But we make known to you, brethren, the grace of °God bestowed in the assemblies of Macedonia; <sup>2</sup> that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty has abounded to the riches of their [free-hearted] liberality. <sup>3</sup> For according to [their] power, I bear witness, and beyond [their] power, [they were] willing of their own accord, <sup>4</sup> begging of us with much entreaty [to give effect to] the grace and fellowship of the service which [was to be rendered] to the saints. <sup>5</sup> And not according as we hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord, and to us by °God's will. <sup>6</sup> So that we begged Titus that, according as he had before begun, so he would also complete as to you this grace also; <sup>7</sup> but even as ye abound in every way, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and all diligence, and in love from you to us, that ye may abound in this grace also. <sup>8</sup> I do not speak as commanding [it], but through the zeal of others, and proving the genuineness of your love. <sup>9</sup> For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that for your sakes he, being rich, became poor, in order that ye by his poverty might be enriched. <sup>10</sup> And I give [my] opinion in this, for this is profitable for you who began before, not only to do, but also to be willing, a year ago. <sup>11</sup> But now also complete the doing of it; so that as [there was] the readiness to be willing, so also to complete out of what ye have. <sup>12</sup> For if the readiness be there, [a man is] accepted according to what he may have, not according to what he has not. <sup>13</sup> For [it is] not in order that there may be ease for others, and for you distress, <sup>14</sup> but [on the principle] of equality; in the present time your abundance for their lack, that their abundance may be for your lack, so that there should be equality. <sup>15</sup> According as it is written, He who [gathered] much had no excess, and he who [gathered] little was nothing short. <sup>16</sup> But thanks [be] to °God, who gives the same diligent zeal for you in the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup> For he received indeed the entreaty, but, being full of zeal, he went of his own accord to you; <sup>18</sup> but we have sent with him the brother whose praise [is] in the glad tidings through all the assemblies; <sup>19</sup> and not only [so], but [is] also chosen by the assemblies as our fellow-traveller with this grace, ministered by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and [a witness of] our readiness; <sup>20</sup> avoiding this, that any one should blame us in this abundance [which is] administered by us; <sup>21</sup> for we provide for things honest, not only before [the] Lord, but also before men. <sup>22</sup> And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved to be of diligent zeal in many things, and now more diligently zealous through the great confidence [he has] as to you. <sup>23</sup> Whether as regards Titus, [he is] my companion and fellow-labourer in your behalf; or our brethren, [they are] deputed messengers of assemblies, Christ's glory. <sup>24</sup> Shew therefore to them, before the assemblies, the proof of your love, and of our boasting about you.

<sup>1</sup> For concerning the ministration which [is] for the saints, it is superfluous my writing to you. <sup>2</sup> For I know your readiness, which I boast of as respects you to Macedonians, that Achaia is prepared since a year ago, and the zeal [reported] of you has stimulated the mass [of the brethren]. <sup>3</sup> But I have sent the brethren, in order that our boasting about you may not be made void in this respect, in order that, as I have said, ye may be prepared; <sup>4</sup> lest haply, if Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we, that we say not ye, may be put to shame in this confidence. <sup>5</sup> I thought it necessary therefore to beg the brethren that they would come to you, and complete beforehand your fore-announced blessing, that this may be ready thus as blessing, and not as got out of you. <sup>6</sup> But this [is true], he that sows sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that sows in [the spirit of] blessing shall reap also in blessing: <sup>7</sup> each according as he is purposed in his heart; not grievously, or of necessity; for °God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup> But °God is able to make every gracious gift abound towards you, that, having in every way always all-sufficiency, ye may abound to every good work: <sup>9</sup> according as it is written, He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor, his righteousness remains for ever. <sup>10</sup> Now he that supplies seed to the sower and bread for eating shall supply and make abundant your sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness: <sup>11</sup> enriched in every way unto all free-hearted liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to °God. <sup>12</sup> Because the ministration of this service is not only filling up the measure of what is lacking to the saints, but also abounding by many thanksgivings to °God; <sup>13</sup> they glorifying °God through the proof of this ministration, by reason of your subjection, by profession, to the glad tidings of the Christ, and your free-hearted liberality in communicating towards them and towards all; <sup>14</sup> and in their supplication for you, full of ardent desire for you, on account of the exceeding grace of °God [which is] upon you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks [be] to °God for his unspeakable free gift.

<sup>1</sup> But I myself, Paul, entreat you by the meekness and gentleness of the Christ, who, as to appearance, [when present] [am] mean among you, but absent am bold towards you; <sup>2</sup> but I beseech that present I may not be bold with the confidence with which I think to be daring towards some who think of us as walking according to flesh. <sup>3</sup> For walking in flesh, we do not war according to flesh. <sup>4</sup> For the arms of our warfare [are] not fleshly, but powerful according to °God to [the] overthrow of strongholds; <sup>5</sup> overthrowing reasonings and every high thing that lifts itself up against the knowledge of °God, and leading captive every thought into the obedience of the Christ; <sup>6</sup> and having in readiness to avenge all disobedience when your obedience shall have been fulfilled. <sup>7</sup> Do ye look at what concerns appearance? If any one has confidence in himself that he is of Christ, let him think this again in himself, that even as he [is] of Christ, so also [are] we. <sup>8</sup> For and if I should boast even somewhat more abundantly of our authority, which the Lord has given [to us] for building up and not for your overthrowing, I shall not be put to shame; <sup>9</sup> that I may not seem as if I was frightening you by letters: <sup>10</sup> because his letters, he says, [are] weighty and strong, but his presence in the body weak, and his speech naught. <sup>11</sup> Let such a one think this, that such as we are in word by letters [when] absent, such also present in deed. <sup>12</sup> For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but these, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are not intelligent. <sup>13</sup> Now we will not boast out of measure, but according to the measure of the rule which the °God of measure has apportioned to us, to reach to you also. <sup>14</sup> For we do not, as not reaching to you, overstretch ourselves, (for we have come to you also in the glad tidings of the Christ;) <sup>15</sup> not boasting out of measure in other people's labours, but having hope, your faith increasing, to be enlarged amongst you, according to our rule, yet more abundantly <sup>16</sup> to announce the glad tidings to that [which is] beyond you, not to be boasting in another's rule of things made ready to hand. <sup>17</sup> But he that boasts, let him boast in the Lord. <sup>18</sup> For not he that commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

<sup>1</sup> Would that ye would bear with me [in] a little folly; but indeed bear with me. <sup>2</sup> For I am jealous as to you with a jealousy [which is] of °God; for I have espoused you unto one man, to present [you] a chaste virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup> But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craft, [so] your thoughts should be corrupted from simplicity as to the Christ. <sup>4</sup> For if indeed he that comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or ye get a different Spirit, which ye have not got, or a different glad tidings, which ye have not received, ye might well bear with [it]. <sup>5</sup> For I reckon that in nothing I am behind those who are in surpassing degree apostles. <sup>6</sup> But if [I am] a simple person in speech, yet not in knowledge, but in everything making [the truth] manifest in all things to you. <sup>7</sup> Have I committed sin, abasing myself in order that ye might be exalted, because I gratuitously announced to you the glad tidings of °God? <sup>8</sup> I spoiled other assemblies, receiving hire for ministry towards you. <sup>9</sup> And being present with you and lacking, I did not lazily burden any one, (for the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied what I lacked,) and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and will keep myself. <sup>10</sup> [The] truth of Christ is in me that this boasting shall not be stopped as to me in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup> Why? because I do not love you? °God knows. <sup>12</sup> But what I do, I will also do, that I may cut off the opportunity of those wishing [for] an opportunity, that wherein they boast they may be found even as we. <sup>13</sup> For such [are] false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And [it is] not wonderful, for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. <sup>15</sup> It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. <sup>16</sup> Again I say, Let not any one think me to be a fool; but if otherwise, receive me then even as a fool, that I also may boast myself some little. <sup>17</sup> What I speak I do not speak according to [the] Lord, but as in folly, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>18</sup> Since many boast according to flesh, I also will boast. <sup>19</sup> For ye bear fools readily, being wise. <sup>20</sup> For ye bear if any one bring you into bondage, if any one devour [you], if any one get [your money], if any one exalt himself, if any one beat you on the face. <sup>21</sup> I speak as to dishonour, as though we had been weak; but wherein any one is daring, (I speak in folly,) I also am daring. <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? I also. Are they Israelites? I also. Are they seed of Abraham? I also. <sup>23</sup> Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as being beside myself) I above measure [so]; in labours exceedingly abundant, in stripes to excess, in prisons exceedingly abundant, in deaths oft. <sup>24</sup> From the Jews five times have I received forty [stripes], save one. <sup>25</sup> Thrice have I been scourged, once I have been stoned, three times I have suffered shipwreck, a night and day I passed in the deep: <sup>26</sup> in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from [my own] race, in perils from [the] nations, in perils in [the] city, in perils in [the] desert, in perils on [the] sea, in perils among false brethren; <sup>27</sup> in labour and toil, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. <sup>28</sup> Besides those things that are without, the crowd [of cares] pressing on me daily, the burden of all the assemblies. <sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I burn not? <sup>30</sup> If it is needful to boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity. <sup>31</sup> The °God and Father of the Lord Jesus knows — he who is blessed for ever — that I do not lie. <sup>32</sup> In Damascus the ethnarch of Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes shut up, wishing to take me; <sup>33</sup> and through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

<sup>1</sup> Well, it is not of profit to me to boast, for I will come to visions and revelations of [the] Lord. <sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago, (whether in [the] body I know not, or out of the body I know not, °God knows;) such [a one] caught up to [the] third heaven. <sup>3</sup> And I know such a man, (whether in [the] body or out of the body I know not, <sup>o</sup> God knows;) <sup>4</sup> that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable things said which it is not allowed to man to utter. <sup>5</sup> Of such [a one] I will boast, but of myself I will not boast, unless in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup> For if I shall desire to boast, I shall not be a fool; for I will say [the] truth; but I forbear, lest any one should think as to me above what he sees me [to be], or whatever he may hear of me. <sup>7</sup> And that I might not be exalted by the exceeding greatness of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn for the flesh, a messenger of Satan that he might buffet me, that I might not be exalted. <sup>8</sup> For this I thrice besought the Lord that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup> And he said to me, My grace suffices thee; for [my] power is perfected in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of the Christ may dwell upon me. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in necessities, in persecutions, in straits, for Christ: for when I am weak, then I am powerful. <sup>11</sup> I have become a fool; ye have compelled me; for I ought to have been commended by you; for I have been nothing behind those who were in surpassing degree apostles, if also I am nothing. <sup>12</sup> The signs indeed of the apostle were wrought among you in all endurance, signs, and wonders, and works of power. <sup>13</sup> For in what is it that ye have been inferior to the other assemblies, unless that I myself have not been in laziness a charge upon you? Forgive me this injury. <sup>14</sup> Behold, this third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be in laziness a charge; for I do not seek yours, but you; for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup> Now I shall most gladly spend and be utterly spent for your souls, if even in abundantly loving you I should be less loved. <sup>16</sup> But be it so. I did not burden you, but being crafty I took you by guile. <sup>17</sup> Did I make gain of you by any of those whom I have sent to you? <sup>18</sup> I begged Titus, and sent the brother with [him]: did Titus at all make gain of you? have we not walked in the same spirit? [have we] not in the same steps? <sup>19</sup> Ye have long been supposing that we excuse ourselves to you: we speak before <sup>o</sup> God in Christ; and all things, beloved, for your building up. <sup>20</sup> For I fear lest perhaps coming I find you not such as I wish, and that I be found by you such as ye do not wish: lest [there might be] strifes, jealousies, angers, contentions, evil speakings, whisperings, puffings up, disturbances; <sup>21</sup> lest my <sup>o</sup> God should humble me as to you when I come again, and that I shall grieve over many of those who have sinned before, and have not repented as to the uncleanness and fornication and licentiousness which they have practised.

13

<sup>1</sup> This third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every matter be established. <sup>2</sup> I have declared beforehand, and I say beforehand as present the second time, and now absent, to those that have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare. <sup>3</sup> Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, (who is not weak towards you, but is powerful among you, <sup>4</sup> for if indeed he has been crucified in weakness, yet he lives by °God's power; for indeed we are weak in him, but we shall live with him by °God's power towards you,) <sup>5</sup> examine your own selves if ye be in the faith; prove your own selves: do ye not recognise yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you, unless indeed ye be reprobates? <sup>6</sup> Now I hope that ye will know that we are not reprobates. <sup>7</sup> But we pray to °God that ye may do nothing evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do what is right, and we be as reprobates. <sup>8</sup> For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>9</sup> For we rejoice when we may be weak and ye may be powerful. But this also we pray for, your perfecting. <sup>10</sup> On this account I write these things being absent, that being present I may not use severity according to the authority which the Lord has given me for building up, and not for overthrowing. <sup>11</sup> For the rest, brethren, rejoice; be perfected; be encouraged; be of one mind; be at peace; and the °God of love and peace shall be with you. <sup>12</sup> Salute one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13</sup> All the saints salute you. <sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of °God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, [be] with you all.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Galatians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle, not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and °God [the] Father who raised him from among [the] dead, <sup>2</sup> and all the brethren with me, to the assemblies of Galatia. <sup>3</sup> Grace to you, and peace, from °God [the] Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup> who gave himself for our sins, so that he should deliver us out of the present evil world, according to the will of our °God and Father; <sup>5</sup> to whom [be] glory to the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>6</sup> I wonder that ye thus quickly change, from him that called you in Christ's grace, to a different gospel, <sup>7</sup> which is not another [one]; but there are some that trouble you, and desire to pervert the glad tidings of the Christ. <sup>8</sup> But if even we or an angel out of heaven announce as glad tidings to you [anything] besides what we have announced as glad tidings to you, let him be accursed. <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, now also again I say, If any one announce to you as glad tidings [anything] besides what ye have received, let him be accursed. <sup>10</sup> For do I now seek to satisfy men or °God? or do I seek to please men? If I were yet pleasing men, I were not Christ's bondman. <sup>11</sup> But I let you know, brethren, [as to] the glad tidings which were announced by me, that they are not according to man. <sup>12</sup> For neither did I receive them from man, neither was I taught [them], but by revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup> For ye have heard [what was] my conversation formerly in Judaism, that I excessively persecuted the assembly of °God, and ravaged it; <sup>14</sup> and advanced in Judaism beyond many [my] contemporaries in my nation, being exceedingly zealous of the doctrines of my fathers. <sup>15</sup> But when °God, who set me apart [even] from my mother's womb, and called [me] by his grace, <sup>16</sup> was pleased to reveal his Son in me, that I may announce him as glad tidings among the nations, immediately I took not counsel with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup> nor went I up to Jerusalem to those [who were] apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and again returned to Damascus. <sup>18</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to make acquaintance with Peter, and I remained with him fifteen days; <sup>19</sup> but I saw none other of the apostles, but James the brother of the Lord. <sup>20</sup> Now what I write to you, behold, before °God, I do not lie. <sup>21</sup> Then I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> But I was unknown personally to the assemblies of Judaea which [are] in Christ; <sup>23</sup> only they were hearing that he who persecuted us formerly now announces the glad tidings of the faith which formerly he ravaged: <sup>24</sup> and they glorified °God in me.

<sup>1</sup> Then after a lapse of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with [me]; <sup>2</sup> and I went up according to revelation, and I laid before them the glad tidings which I preach among the nations, but privately to those conspicuous [among them], lest in any way I run or had run in vain; <sup>3</sup> (but neither was Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, compelled to be circumcised;) <sup>4</sup> and [it was] on account of the false brethren brought in surreptitiously, who came in surreptitiously to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; <sup>5</sup> to whom we yielded in subjection not even for an hour, that the truth of the glad tidings might remain with you. <sup>6</sup> But from those who were conspicuous as being somewhat — whatsoever they were, it makes no difference to me: °God does not accept man's person; for to me those who were conspicuous communicated nothing; <sup>7</sup> but, on the contrary, seeing that the glad tidings of the uncircumcision were confided to me, even as to Peter that of the circumcision, <sup>8</sup> (for he that wrought in Peter for [the] apostleship of the circumcision wrought also in me towards the Gentiles,) <sup>9</sup> and recognising the grace given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were conspicuous as being pillars, gave to me and Barnabas [the] right hands of fellowship, that we [should go] to the nations, and they to the circumcision; <sup>10</sup> only that we should remember the poor, which same thing also I was diligent to do. <sup>11</sup> But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to [the] face, because he was to be condemned: <sup>12</sup> for before that certain came from James, he ate with [those of] the nations; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those of [the] circumcision; <sup>13</sup> and the rest of the Jews also played the same dissembling part with him; so that even Barnabas was carried away too by their dissimulation. <sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they do not walk straightforwardly, according to the truth of the glad tidings, I said to Peter before all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as the nations and not as the Jews, how dost thou compel the nations to Judaize? <sup>15</sup> We, Jews by nature, and not sinners of [the] nations, <sup>16</sup> but knowing that a man is not justified on the principle of works of law [nor] but by the faith of Jesus Christ, we also have believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified on the principle of [the] faith of Christ; and not of works of law; because on the principle of works of law no flesh shall be justified. <sup>17</sup> Now if in seeking to be justified in Christ we also have been found sinners, then [is] Christ minister of sin? Far be the thought. <sup>18</sup> For if the things I have thrown down, these I build again, I constitute myself a transgressor. <sup>19</sup> For I, through law, have died to law, that I may live to °God. <sup>20</sup> I am crucified with Christ, and no longer live, I, but Christ lives in me; but [in] that I now live in flesh, I live by faith, the [faith] of the Son of °God, who has loved me and given himself for me. <sup>21</sup> I do not set aside the grace of °God; for if righteousness [is] by law, then Christ has died for nothing.

<sup>1</sup> O senseless Galatians, who has bewitched you; to whom, as before your very eyes, Jesus Christ has been portrayed, crucified [among you]? <sup>2</sup> This only I wish to learn of you, Have ye received the Spirit on the principle of works of law, or of [the] report of faith? <sup>3</sup> Are ye so senseless? having begun in Spirit, are ye going to be made perfect in flesh? <sup>4</sup> Have ye suffered so many things in vain, if indeed also in vain? <sup>5</sup> He therefore who ministers to you the Spirit, and works miracles among you, [is it] on the principle of works of law, or of [the] report of faith? <sup>6</sup> Even as Abraham believed <sup>o</sup>God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness. <sup>7</sup> Know then that they that are on the principle of faith, these are Abraham's sons; <sup>8</sup> and the scripture, foreseeing that <sup>o</sup>God would justify the nations on the principle of faith, announced beforehand the glad tidings to Abraham: In thee all the nations shall be blessed. <sup>9</sup> So that they who are on the principle of faith are blessed with believing Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For as many as are on the principle of works of law are under curse. For it is written, Cursed is every one who does not continue in all things which [are] written in the book of the law to do them; <sup>11</sup> but that by law no one is justified with <sup>o</sup>God [is] evident, because The just shall live on the principle of faith; <sup>12</sup> but the law is not on the principle of faith; but, He that shall have done these things shall live by them. <sup>13</sup> Christ has redeemed us out of the curse of the law, having become a curse for us, (for it is written, Cursed [is] every one hanged upon a tree,) <sup>14</sup> that the blessing of Abraham might come to the nations in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. <sup>15</sup> Brethren, (I speak according to man,) even man's confirmed covenant no one sets aside, or adds other dispositions to. <sup>16</sup> But to Abraham were the promises addressed, and to his seed: he does not say, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed; which is Christ. <sup>17</sup> Now I say this, A covenant confirmed beforehand by <sup>o</sup>God, the law, which took place four hundred and thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. <sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance [be] on the principle of law, [it is] no longer on the principle of promise; but <sup>o</sup>God gave it in grace to Abraham by promise. <sup>19</sup> Why then the law? It was added for the sake of transgressions, until the seed came to whom the promise was made, ordained through angels in [the] hand of a mediator. <sup>20</sup> But a mediator is not of one, but <sup>o</sup>God is one. <sup>21</sup> [Is] then the law against the promises of <sup>o</sup>God? Far be the thought. For if a law had been given able to quicken, then indeed righteousness were on the principle of law; <sup>22</sup> but the scripture has shut up all things under sin, that the promise, on the principle of faith of Jesus Christ, should be given to those that believe. <sup>23</sup> But before faith came, we were guarded under law, shut up to faith [which was] about to be revealed. <sup>24</sup> So that the law has been our tutor up to Christ, that we might be justified on the principle of faith. <sup>25</sup> But, faith having come, we are no longer under a tutor; <sup>26</sup> for ye are all <sup>o</sup>God's sons by faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup> For ye, as many as have been baptised unto Christ, have put on Christ. <sup>28</sup> There is no Jew nor Greek; there is no bondman nor freeman; there is no male and female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus: <sup>29</sup> but if ye [are] of Christ, then ye are Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

stewards until the period fixed by the father. <sup>3</sup> So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the principles of the world; <sup>4</sup> but when the fulness of the time was come, °God sent forth his Son, come of woman, come under law, <sup>5</sup> that he might redeem those under law, that we might receive sonship. <sup>6</sup> But because ye are sons, °God has sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. <sup>7</sup> So thou art no longer bondman, but son; but if son, heir also through °God. <sup>8</sup> But then indeed, not knowing °God, ye were in bondage to those who by nature are not °gods; <sup>9</sup> but now, knowing °God, but rather being known by °God, how do ye turn again to the weak and beggarly principles to which ye desire to be again anew in bondage? <sup>10</sup> Ye observe days and months and times and years. <sup>11</sup> I am afraid of you, lest indeed I have laboured in vain as to you. <sup>12</sup> Be as I [am], for I also [am] as ye, brethren, I beseech you: ye have not at all wronged me. <sup>13</sup> But ye know that in weakness of the flesh I announced the glad tidings to you at the first; <sup>14</sup> and my temptation, which [was] in my flesh, ye did not slight nor reject with contempt; but ye received me as an angel of °God, as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> What then [was] your blessedness? for I bear you witness that, if possible, plucking out your own eyes ye would have given [them] to me. <sup>16</sup> So I have become your enemy in speaking the truth to you? <sup>17</sup> They are not rightly zealous after you, but desire to shut you out [from us], that ye may be zealous after them. <sup>18</sup> But [it is] right to be zealous at all times in what is right, and not only when I am present with you — <sup>19</sup> my children, of whom I again travail in birth until Christ shall have been formed in you: <sup>20</sup> and I should wish to be present with you now, and change my voice, for I am perplexed as to you. <sup>21</sup> Tell me, ye who are desirous of being under law, do ye not listen to the law? <sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons; one of the maid servant, and one of the free woman. <sup>23</sup> But he [that was] of the maid servant was born according to flesh, and he [that was] of the free woman through the promise. <sup>24</sup> Which things have an allegorical sense; for these are two covenants: one from mount Sinai, gendering to bondage, which is Hagar. <sup>25</sup> For Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which [is] now, for she is in bondage with her children; <sup>26</sup> but the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother. <sup>27</sup> For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break out and cry, thou that travailest not; because the children of the desolate are more numerous than [those] of her that has a husband. <sup>28</sup> But ye, brethren, after the pattern of Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup> But as then he that was born according to flesh persecuted him [that was born] according to Spirit, so also [it is] now. <sup>30</sup> But what says the scripture? Cast out the maid servant and her son; for the son of the maid servant shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. <sup>31</sup> So then, brethren, we are not maid servant's children, but [children] of the free woman.

<sup>1</sup> Christ has set us free in freedom; stand fast therefore, and be not held again in a yoke of bondage. <sup>2</sup> Behold, I, Paul, say to you, that if ye are circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup> And I witness again to every man [who is] circumcised, that he is debtor to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup>Ye are deprived of all profit from the Christ as separated [from him], as many as are justified by law; ye have fallen from grace. <sup>5</sup>For we, by [the] Spirit, on the principle of faith, await the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision has any force, nor uncircumcision; but faith working through love. <sup>7</sup>Ye ran well; who has stopped you that ye should not obey the truth? <sup>8</sup>The persuasibleness [is] not of him that calls you. <sup>9</sup>A little leaven leavens the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence as to you in [the] Lord, that ye will have no other mind; and he that is troubling you shall bear the guilt [of it], whosoever he may be. <sup>11</sup>But I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why am I yet persecuted? Then the scandal of the cross has been done away. <sup>12</sup>I would that they would even cut themselves off who throw you into confusion. <sup>13</sup>For ye have been called to liberty, brethren; only [do] not [turn] liberty into an opportunity to the flesh, but by love serve one another. <sup>14</sup>For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself; <sup>15</sup>but if ye bite and devour one another, see that ye are not consumed one of another. <sup>16</sup>But I say, Walk in [the] Spirit, and ye shall no way fulfil flesh's lust. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these things are opposed one to the other, that ye should not do those things which ye desire; <sup>18</sup>but if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are fornication, uncleanness, licentiousness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strifes, jealousies, angers, contentions, disputes, schools of opinion, <sup>21</sup>envyings, murders, drunkennesses, revels, and things like these; as to which I tell you beforehand, even as I also have said before, that they who do such things shall not inherit <sup>o</sup>God's kingdom. <sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, fidelity, <sup>23</sup>meekness, self-control: against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup>But they that [are] of the Christ have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts. <sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let us walk also by the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

of faith. <sup>11</sup> See how long a letter I have written to you with my own hand. <sup>12</sup> As many as desire to have a fair appearance in [the] flesh, these compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not be persecuted because of the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> For neither do they that are circumcised themselves keep the law; but they wish you to be circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup> But far be it from me to boast save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom [the] world is crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup> For [in Christ Jesus] neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision; but new creation. <sup>16</sup> And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace upon them and mercy, and upon the Israel of °God. <sup>17</sup> For the rest let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the brands of the Lord Jesus. <sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ by <sup>o</sup>God's will, to the saints and faithful in Christ Jesus who are at Ephesus. <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from <sup>o</sup>God our Father, and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> Blessed [be] the <sup>o</sup>God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Christ; <sup>4</sup> according as he has chosen us in him before [the] world's foundation, that we should be holy and blameless before him in love; <sup>5</sup> having marked us out beforehand for adoption through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>6</sup> to [the] praise of [the] glory of his grace, wherein he has taken us into favour in the Beloved: <sup>7</sup> in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of offences, according to the riches of his grace; <sup>8</sup> which he has caused to abound towards us in all wisdom and intelligence, <sup>9</sup> having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself <sup>10</sup> for [the] administration of the fulness of times; to head up all things in the Christ, the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth; in him, <sup>11</sup> in whom we have also obtained an inheritance, being marked out beforehand according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his own will, <sup>12</sup> that we should be to [the] praise of his glory who have pre-trusted in the Christ: <sup>13</sup> in whom ye also [have trusted], having heard the word of the truth, the glad tidings of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, ye have been sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup> who is [the] earnest of our inheritance to the redemption of the acquired possession to [the] praise of his glory. <sup>15</sup> Wherefore I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which [is] in you, and the love which [ye have] towards all the saints, <sup>16</sup> do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention [of you] at my prayers, <sup>17</sup> that the <sup>o</sup>God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, would give you [the] spirit of wisdom and revelation in the full knowledge of him, <sup>18</sup> being enlightened in the eyes of your heart, so that ye should know what is the hope of his calling, [and] what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup> and what the surpassing greatness of his power towards us who believe, according to the working of the might of his strength, <sup>20</sup> [in] which he wrought in the Christ [in] raising him from among [the] dead, and he set him down at his right hand in the heavenlies, <sup>21</sup> above every principality, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name named, not only in this age, but also in that to come; <sup>22</sup> and has put all things under his feet, and gave him [to be] head over all things to the assembly, <sup>23</sup> which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all: of the authority of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience: <sup>3</sup> among whom we also all once had our conversation in the lusts of our flesh, doing what the flesh and the thoughts willed to do, and were children, by nature, of wrath, even as the rest: <sup>4</sup> but <sup>o</sup>God, being rich in mercy, because of his great love wherewith he loved us, <sup>5</sup> (we too being dead in offences,) has quickened us with the Christ, (ye are saved by grace,) <sup>6</sup> and has raised [us] up together, and has made [us] sit down together in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup> that he might display in the coming ages the surpassing riches of his grace in kindness towards us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup> For ye are saved by grace, through faith; and this not of yourselves; it is <sup>o</sup>God's gift: <sup>9</sup> not on the principle of works, that no one might boast. <sup>10</sup> For we are his workmanship, having been created in Christ Jesus for good works, which <sup>o</sup>God has before prepared that we should walk in them. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore remember that ye, once nations in [the] flesh, who [are] called uncircumcision by that called circumcision in [the] flesh done with the hand; <sup>12</sup> that ye were at that time without Christ, aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without <sup>o</sup>God in the world: <sup>13</sup> but now in Christ Jesus ye who once were afar off are become nigh by the blood of the Christ. <sup>14</sup> For he is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of enclosure, <sup>15</sup> having annulled the enmity in his flesh, the law of commandments in ordinances, that he might form the two in himself into one new man, making peace; <sup>16</sup> and might reconcile both in one body to <sup>o</sup>God by the cross, having by it slain the enmity; <sup>17</sup> and, coming, he has preached the glad tidings of peace to you who [were] afar off, and [the glad tidings of] peace to those [who were] nigh. <sup>18</sup> For through him we have both access by one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup> So then ye are no longer strangers and foreigners, but ye are fellow-citizens of the saints, and of the household of <sup>o</sup>God, <sup>20</sup> being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the corner-stone, <sup>21</sup> in whom all [the] building fitted together increases to a holy temple in the Lord; <sup>22</sup> in whom ye also are built together for a habitation of <sup>o</sup>God in [the] Spirit.

<sup>1</sup> For this reason I Paul, prisoner of the Christ Jesus for you nations, <sup>2</sup> (if indeed ye have heard of the administration of the grace of <sup>o</sup>God which has been given to me towards you, <sup>3</sup> that by revelation the mystery has been made known to me, (according as I have written before briefly, <sup>4</sup> by which, in reading it, ye can understand my intelligence in the mystery of the Christ,) <sup>5</sup> which in other generations has not been made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in [the power of the] Spirit, <sup>6</sup> that [they who are of] the nations should be joint heirs, and a joint body, and joint partakers of [his] promise in Christ Jesus by the glad tidings; <sup>7</sup> of which I am become minister according to the gift of the grace of <sup>o</sup>God given to me, according to the working of his power. <sup>8</sup> To me, less than the least of all saints, has this grace been given, to announce among the nations the glad tidings of the unsearchable riches of the Christ, <sup>9</sup> and to enlighten all [with the knowledge of] what is the administration of the mystery hidden throughout the ages in °God, who has created all things, <sup>10</sup> in order that now to the principalities and authorities in the heavenlies might be made known through the assembly the all-various wisdom of °God, <sup>11</sup> according to [the] purpose of the ages, which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup> in whom we have boldness and access in confidence by the faith of him. <sup>13</sup> Wherefore I beseech [you] not to faint through my tribulations for you, which is your glory. <sup>14</sup> For this reason I bow my knees to the Father [of our Lord Jesus Christ], <sup>15</sup> of whom every family in [the] heavens and on earth is named, <sup>16</sup> in order that he may give you according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power by his Spirit in the inner man; <sup>17</sup> that the Christ may dwell, through faith, in your hearts, being rooted and founded in love, <sup>18</sup> in order that ye may be fully able to apprehend with all the saints what [is] the breadth and length and depth and height; <sup>19</sup> and to know the love of the Christ which surpasses knowledge; that ye may be filled [even] to all the fulness of °God. <sup>20</sup> But to him that is able to do far exceedingly above all which we ask or think, according to the power which works in us, <sup>21</sup> to him be glory in the assembly in Christ Jesus unto all generations of the age of ages. Amen).

each one part, works for itself the increase of the body to its self-building up in love. <sup>17</sup> This I say therefore, and testify in [the] Lord, that ye should no longer walk as [the rest of] the nations walk in [the] vanity of their mind, <sup>18</sup> being darkened in understanding, estranged from the life of °God by reason of the ignorance which is in them, by reason of the hardness of their hearts, <sup>19</sup> who having cast off all feeling, have given themselves up to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greedy unsatisfied lust. <sup>20</sup> But ye have not thus learnt the Christ, <sup>21</sup> if ye have heard him and been instructed in him according as [the] truth is in Jesus; <sup>22</sup> [namely] your having put off according to the former conversation the old man which corrupts itself according to the deceitful lusts; <sup>23</sup> and being renewed in the spirit of your mind; <sup>24</sup> and [your] having put on the new man, which according to °God is created in truthful righteousness and holiness. <sup>25</sup> Wherefore, having put off falsehood, speak truth every one with his neighbour, because we are members one of another. <sup>26</sup> Be angry, and do not sin; let not the sun set upon your wrath, <sup>27</sup> neither give room for the devil. <sup>28</sup> Let the stealer steal no more, but rather let him toil, working what is honest with [his] hands, that he may have to distribute to him that has need. <sup>29</sup> Let no corrupt word go out of your mouth, but if [there be] any good one for needful edification, that it may give grace to those that hear [it]. <sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of °God, with which ye have been sealed for [the] day of redemption. <sup>31</sup> Let all bitterness, and heat of passion, and wrath, and clamour, and injurious language, be removed from you, with all malice; <sup>32</sup> and be to one another kind, compassionate, forgiving one another, so as °God also in Christ has forgiven you.

up, [thou] that sleepest, and arise up from among the dead, and the Christ shall shine upon thee. <sup>15</sup> See therefore how ye walk carefully, not as unwise but as wise, <sup>16</sup> redeeming the time, because the days are evil. <sup>17</sup> For this reason be not foolish, but understanding what [is] the will of the Lord. <sup>18</sup> And be not drunk with wine, in which is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and chanting with your heart to the Lord; <sup>20</sup> giving thanks at all times for all things to him [who is] °God and [the] Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> submitting yourselves to one another in [the] fear of Christ. <sup>22</sup> Wives, [submit yourselves] to your own husbands, as to the Lord, <sup>23</sup> for a husband is head of the wife, as also the Christ [is] head of the assembly. He [is] Saviour of the body. <sup>24</sup> But even as the assembly is subjected to the Christ, so also wives to their own husbands in everything. <sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your own wives, even as the Christ also loved the assembly, and has delivered himself up for it, <sup>26</sup> in order that he might sanctify it, purifying [it] by the washing of water by [the] word, <sup>27</sup> that he might present the assembly to himself glorious, having no spot, or wrinkle, or any of such things; but that it might be holy and blameless. <sup>28</sup> So ought men also to love their own wives as their own bodies: he that loves his own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup> For no one has ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as also the Christ the assembly: <sup>30</sup> for we are members of his body; [we are of his flesh, and of his bones.] <sup>31</sup> Because of this a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall be united to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh. <sup>32</sup> This mystery is great, but I speak as to Christ, and as to the assembly. <sup>33</sup> But ye also, every one of you, let each so love his own wife as himself; but as to the wife [I speak] that she may fear the husband.

to withstand in the evil day, and, having accomplished all things, to stand. <sup>14</sup> Stand therefore, having girt about your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup> and shod your feet with [the] preparation of the glad tidings of peace: <sup>16</sup> besides all [these], having taken the shield of faith with which ye will be able to quench all the inflamed darts of the wicked one. <sup>17</sup> Have also the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is °God's word; <sup>18</sup> praying at all seasons, with all prayer and supplication in [the] Spirit, and watching unto this very thing with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints; <sup>19</sup> and for me in order that utterance may be given to me in [the] opening of my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the glad tidings, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador [bound] with a chain, that I may be bold in it as I ought to speak. <sup>21</sup> But in order that ye also may know what concerns me, how I am getting on, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in [the] Lord, shall make all things known to you; <sup>22</sup> whom I have sent to you for this very thing, that ye may know of our affairs and that he may encourage your hearts. <sup>23</sup> Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from °God [the] Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> Grace with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruption.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Philippians

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Timotheus, bondmen of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with [the] overseers and ministers; <sup>2</sup> grace to you, and peace from °God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> I thank my °God for my whole remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup> constantly in my every supplication, making the supplication for you all with joy, <sup>5</sup> because of your fellowship with the gospel, from the first day until now; <sup>6</sup> having confidence of this very thing, that he who has begun in you a good work will complete it unto Jesus Christ's day: <sup>7</sup> as it is righteous for me to think this as to you all, because ye have me in your hearts, and that both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the glad tidings ye are all participators in my grace. <sup>8</sup> For °God is my witness how I long after you all in [the] bowels of Christ Jesus. <sup>9</sup> And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in full knowledge and all intelligence, <sup>10</sup> that ye may judge of and approve the things that are more excellent, in order that ye may be pure and without offence for Christ's day, <sup>11</sup> being complete as regards the fruit of righteousness, which [is] by Jesus Christ, to °God's glory and praise. <sup>12</sup> But I would have you know, brethren, that the circumstances in which I am have turned out rather to the furtherance of the glad tidings, <sup>13</sup> so that my bonds have become manifest [as being] in Christ in all the praetorium and to all others; <sup>14</sup> and that the most of the brethren, trusting in [the] Lord through my bonds, dare more abundantly to speak the word of °God fearlessly. <sup>15</sup> Some indeed also for envy and strife, but some also for good will, preach the Christ. <sup>16</sup> These indeed out of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the glad tidings; <sup>17</sup> but those out of contention, announce the Christ, not purely, supposing to arouse tribulation for my bonds. <sup>18</sup> What is it then? at any rate, in every way, whether in pretext or in truth, Christ is announced; and in this I rejoice, yea, also I will rejoice; <sup>19</sup> for I know that this shall turn out for me to salvation, through your supplication and [the] supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ; <sup>20</sup> according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but in all boldness, as always, now also Christ shall be magnified in my body whether by life or by death. <sup>21</sup> For for me to live [is] Christ, and to die gain; <sup>22</sup> but if to live in flesh [is my lot], this is for me worth the while: and what I shall choose I cannot tell. <sup>23</sup> But I am pressed by both, having the desire for departure and being with Christ, [for] [it is] very much better, <sup>24</sup> but remaining in the flesh [is] more necessary for your sakes; <sup>25</sup> and having confidence of this, I know that I shall remain and abide along with you all, for your progress and joy in faith; <sup>26</sup> that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus through me by my presence again with you. <sup>27</sup> Only conduct yourselves worthily of the glad tidings of the Christ, in order that whether coming and seeing you, or absent, I may hear of what concerns you, that ye stand firm in one spirit, with one soul, labouring together in the same conflict with the faith of the glad tidings; <sup>28</sup> and not frightened in anything by the opposers, which is to them a demonstration of destruction, but of your salvation, and that from °God; <sup>29</sup> because to you has been given, as regards Christ, not only the believing on him but the suffering for him also, <sup>30</sup> having the same conflict which ye have seen in me, and now hear of in me.

<sup>1</sup> If then [there be] any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of [the] Spirit, if any bowels and compassions, <sup>2</sup> fulfil my joy, that ye may think the same thing, having the same love, joined in soul, thinking one thing; <sup>3</sup> [let] nothing [be] in the spirit of strife or vain glory, but, in lowliness of mind, each esteeming the other as more excellent than themselves; <sup>4</sup> regarding not each his own [qualities], but each those of others also. <sup>5</sup> For let this mind be in you which [was] also in Christ Jesus; <sup>6</sup> who, subsisting in the form of °God, did not esteem it an object of rapine to be on an equality with °God; <sup>7</sup> but emptied himself, taking a bondman's form, taking his place in [the] likeness of men; <sup>8</sup> and having been found in figure as a man, humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, and [that the] death of [the] cross. <sup>9</sup> Wherefore also °God highly exalted him, and granted him a name, that which is above every name, <sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of heavenly and earthly and infernal [beings], <sup>11</sup> and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ [is] Lord to °God [the] Father's glory. <sup>12</sup> So that, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much rather in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup> for it is °God who works in you both the willing and the working according to [his] good pleasure. <sup>14</sup> Do all things without murmurings and reasonings, <sup>15</sup> that ye may be harmless and simple, irreproachable children of °God in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation; among whom ye appear as lights in [the] world, <sup>16</sup> holding forth [the] word of life, so as to be a boast for me in Christ's day, that I have not run in vain nor laboured in vain. <sup>17</sup> But if also I am poured out as a libation on the sacrifice and ministration of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice in common with you all. <sup>18</sup> In like manner do ye also rejoice, and rejoice with me. <sup>19</sup> But I hope in [the] Lord Jesus to send Timotheus to you shortly, that I also may be refreshed, knowing how ye get on. <sup>20</sup> For I have no one like-minded who will care with genuine feeling how ye get on. <sup>21</sup> For all seek their own things, not the things of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But ye know the proof of him, that, as a child a father, he has served with me in the work of the glad tidings. <sup>23</sup> Him therefore I hope to send immediately, as soon as I shall see how it goes with me: <sup>24</sup> but I trust in [the] Lord that I myself also shall soon come; <sup>25</sup> but I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-workman and fellow-soldier, but your messenger and minister to my need, <sup>26</sup> since he had a longing desire after you all,

and was distressed because ye had heard that he was sick; <sup>27</sup> for he was also sick close to death, but °God had mercy on him, and not indeed on him alone, but also on me, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup> I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that seeing him ye might again rejoice, and that I might be the less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup> Receive him therefore in [the] Lord with all joy, and hold such in honour; <sup>30</sup> because for the sake of the work he drew near even to death, venturing his life that he might fill up what lacked in your ministration toward me.

<sup>1</sup> For the rest, my brethren, rejoice in [the] Lord: to write the same things to you, to me [is] not irksome, and for you safe. <sup>2</sup> See to dogs, see to evil workmen, see to the concision. <sup>3</sup> For we are the circumcision, who worship by [the] Spirit of °God, and boast in Christ Jesus, and do not trust in flesh. <sup>4</sup> Though I have [my] trust even in flesh; if any other think to trust in flesh, I rather: <sup>5</sup> as to circumcision, [I received it] the eighth day; of [the] race of Israel, of [the] tribe of Benjamin, Hebrew of Hebrews; as to [the] law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup> as to zeal, persecuting the assembly; as to righteousness which [is] in [the] law, found blameless; <sup>7</sup> but what things were gain to me these I counted, on account of Christ, loss. <sup>8</sup> But surely I count also all things to be loss on account of the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, on account of whom I have suffered the loss of all, and count them to be filth, that I may gain Christ; <sup>9</sup> and that I may be found in him, not having my righteousness, which [would be] on the principle of law, but that which is by faith of Christ, the righteousness which [is] of °God through faith, <sup>10</sup> to know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, <sup>11</sup> if any way I arrive at the resurrection from among [the] dead. <sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained [the prize], or am already perfected; but I pursue, if also I may get possession [of it], seeing that also I have been taken possession of by Christ [Jesus]. <sup>13</sup> Brethren, I do not count to have got possession myself; but one thing — forgetting the things behind, and stretching out to the things before, <sup>14</sup> I pursue, [looking] towards [the] goal, for the prize of the calling on high of °God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> As many therefore as [are] perfect, let us be thus minded; and if ye are any otherwise minded, this also °God shall reveal to you. <sup>16</sup> But whereto we have attained, [let us] walk in the same steps. <sup>17</sup> Be imitators [all] together of me, brethren, and fix your eyes on those walking thus as you have us for a model; <sup>18</sup> (for many walk of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they [are] the enemies of the cross of Christ: <sup>19</sup> whose end [is] destruction, whose °god [is] the belly, and [their] glory in their shame, who mind earthly things:) <sup>20</sup> for our commonwealth has its existence in [the] heavens, from which also we await the Lord Jesus Christ [as] Saviour; <sup>21</sup> who shall transform our body of humiliation into conformity to his body of glory, according to the working of [the] power which he has even to subdue all things to himself.

<sup>1</sup> So that, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, thus stand fast in [the] Lord, beloved. <sup>2</sup> I exhort Euodia, and exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in [the] Lord; <sup>3</sup> yea, I ask thee also, true yokefellow, assist them, who have contended along with me in the glad tidings, with Clement also, and my other fellow-labourers, whose names [are] in [the] book of life. <sup>4</sup> Rejoice in [the] Lord always: again I will say, Rejoice. <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be known of all men. The Lord [is] near. <sup>6</sup> Be careful about nothing; but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to °God; <sup>7</sup> and the peace of °God, which surpasses every understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts by Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup> For the rest, brethren, whatsoever things [are] true, whatsoever things [are] noble, whatsoever things [are] just, whatsoever things [are] pure, whatsoever things [are] amiable, whatsoever things [are] of good report; if [there be] any virtue and if any praise, think on these things. <sup>9</sup> What ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, these things do; and the °God of peace shall be with you. <sup>10</sup> But I rejoiced in [the] Lord greatly, that now however at length ye have revived your thinking of me, though surely ye did also think [of me], but lacked opportunity. <sup>11</sup> Not that I speak as regards privation, for as to me I have learnt in those circumstances in which I am, to be satisfied in myself. <sup>12</sup> I know both how to be abased and I know how to abound. In everything and in all things I am initiated both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer privation. <sup>13</sup> I have strength for all things in him that gives me power. <sup>14</sup> But ye have done well in taking part in my affliction. <sup>15</sup> And know also ye, O Philippians, that in [the] beginning of the gospel, when I came out of Macedonia, no assembly communicated [anything] to me in [the] way of giving and receiving save ye alone; <sup>16</sup> for also in Thessalonica once and even twice ye sent to me for my need. <sup>17</sup> Not that I seek gift, but I seek fruit abounding to your account. <sup>18</sup> But I have all things in full supply and abound; I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things [sent] from you, an odour of sweet savour, an acceptable sacrifice, agreeable to °God. <sup>19</sup> But my °God shall abundantly supply all your need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup> But to our °God and Father [be] glory to the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>21</sup> Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who [are] with me salute you. <sup>22</sup> All the saints salute you, and specially those of the household of Caesar. <sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle of Christ Jesus, by °God's will, and Timotheus the brother, <sup>2</sup> to the holy and faithful brethren in Christ which [are] in Colosse. Grace to you and peace from °God our Father [and Lord Jesus Christ]. <sup>3</sup> We give thanks to the °God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ continually [when] praying for you, <sup>4</sup> having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and the love which ye have towards all the saints, <sup>5</sup> on account of the hope which [is] laid up for you in the heavens; of which ye heard before in the word of the truth of the glad tidings, <sup>6</sup> which are come to you, as [they are] in all the world, [and] are bearing fruit and growing, even as also among you, from the day ye heard [them] and knew indeed the grace of °God, in truth: <sup>7</sup> even as ye learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow-bondman, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you, <sup>8</sup> who has also manifested to us your love in [the] Spirit. <sup>9</sup> For this reason we also, from the day we heard [of your faith and love], do not cease praying and asking for you, to the end that ye may be filled with the full knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, <sup>10</sup> [so as] to walk worthily of the Lord unto all well-pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and growing by the true knowledge of °God; <sup>11</sup> strengthened with all power according to the might of his glory unto all endurance and longsuffering with joy; <sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit for sharing the portion of the saints in light, <sup>13</sup> who has delivered us from the authority of darkness, and translated [us] into the kingdom of the Son of his love: <sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins; <sup>15</sup> who is image of the invisible °God, firstborn of all creation; <sup>16</sup> because by him were created all things, the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or lordships, or principalities, or authorities: all things have been created by him and for him. <sup>17</sup> And he is before all, and all things subsist together by him. <sup>18</sup> And he is the head of the body, the assembly; who is [the] beginning, firstborn from among the dead, that he might have the first place in all things: <sup>19</sup> for in him all the fulness [of the °Godhead] was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup> and by him to reconcile all things to itself, having made peace by the blood of his cross — by him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. <sup>21</sup> And you, who once were alienated and enemies in mind by wicked works, yet now has it reconciled <sup>22</sup> in the body of his flesh through death; to present you holy and unblamable and irreproachable before it, <sup>23</sup> if indeed ye abide in the faith founded and firm, and not moved away from the hope of the glad tidings, which ye have heard, which have been proclaimed in the whole creation which [is] under heaven, of which I Paul became minister. <sup>24</sup> Now, I rejoice in sufferings for you, and I fill up that which is behind of the tribulations of Christ in my flesh, for his body, which is the assembly; <sup>25</sup> of which I became minister, according to the dispensation of °God which [is] given me towards you to complete the word of °God, <sup>26</sup> the mystery which [has been] hidden from ages and from generations, but has now been made manifest to his saints; <sup>27</sup> to whom °God would make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Christ in you the hope of glory: <sup>28</sup> whom we announce, admonishing every man, and teaching every man, in all wisdom, to the end that we may present every man perfect in Christ. <sup>29</sup> Whereunto also I toil, combating according to his working, which works in me in power.

<sup>1</sup> For I would have you know what combat I have for you, and those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in flesh; <sup>2</sup> to the end that their hearts may be encouraged, being united together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to [the] full knowledge of the mystery of °God; <sup>3</sup> in which are hid all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge. <sup>4</sup> And I say this to the end that no one may delude you by persuasive speech. <sup>5</sup> For if indeed in the flesh I am absent, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the firmness of your faith in Christ. <sup>6</sup> As therefore ye have received the Christ, Jesus the Lord, walk in him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in him, and assured in the faith, even as ye have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. <sup>8</sup> See that there be no one who shall lead you away as a prey through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the teaching of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in him dwells all the fulness of the °Godhead bodily; <sup>10</sup> and ye are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and authority, <sup>11</sup> in whom also ye have been circumcised with circumcision not done by hand, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of the Christ; <sup>12</sup> buried with him in baptism, in which ye have been also raised with [him] through faith of the working of °God who raised him from among the dead. <sup>13</sup> And you, being dead in offences and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, he has quickened together with him, having forgiven us all the offences; <sup>14</sup> having effaced the handwriting in ordinances which [stood out] against us, which was contrary to us, he has taken it also out of the way, having nailed it to the cross; <sup>15</sup> having spoiled principalities and authorities, he made a show of them publicly, leading them in triumph by it. <sup>16</sup> Let none therefore judge you in meat or in drink, or in matter of feast, or new moon, or sabbaths, <sup>17</sup> which are a shadow of things to come; but the body [is] of Christ. <sup>18</sup> Let no one fraudulently deprive you of your prize, doing his own will in humility and worship of angels, entering into things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by the mind of his flesh, <sup>19</sup> and not holding fast the head, from whom all the body, ministered to and united together by the joints and bands, increases with the increase of °God. <sup>20</sup> If ye have died with Christ from the elements of the world, why as [if] alive in [the] world do ye subject yourselves to ordinances? <sup>21</sup> Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch, <sup>22</sup> (things which are all for destruction in the using [of them]:) according to the injunctions and teachings of men, <sup>23</sup> (which have indeed an appearance of wisdom in voluntary worship, and humility, and harsh treatment of the body, not in a certain honour,) to [the] satisfaction of the flesh.

with thanksgiving; <sup>3</sup> praying at the same time for us also, that °God may open to us a door of the word to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which also I am bound, <sup>4</sup> to the end that I may make it manifest as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup> Walk in wisdom towards those without, redeeming opportunities. <sup>6</sup> [Let] your word [be] always with grace, seasoned with salt, [so as] to know how ye ought to answer each one. <sup>7</sup> Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-bondman in [the] Lord, will make known to you all that concerns me; <sup>8</sup> whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that he might know your state, and that he might encourage your hearts: <sup>9</sup> with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is [one] of you. They shall make known to you everything here. <sup>10</sup> Aristarchus my fellow-captive salutes you, and Mark, Barnabas's cousin, concerning whom ye have received orders, (if he come to you, receive him,) <sup>11</sup> and Jesus called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These [are the] only fellow-workers for the kingdom of °God who have been a consolation to me. <sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is [one] of you, [the] bondman of Christ Jesus, salutes you, always combating earnestly for you in prayers, to the end that ye may stand perfect and complete in all [the] will of °God. <sup>13</sup> For I bear him witness that he labours much for you, and them in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, salutes you, and Demas. <sup>15</sup> Salute the brethren in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly which [is] in his house. <sup>16</sup> And when the letter has been read among you, cause that it be read also in the assembly of Laodiceans, and that ye also read that from Laodicea. <sup>17</sup> And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in [the] Lord, to the end that thou fulfil it. <sup>18</sup> The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace [be] with you.

The First Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Silvanus and Timotheus to the assembly of Thessalonians in °God [the] Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace. <sup>2</sup> We give thanks to °God always for you all, making mention of you at our prayers, <sup>3</sup> remembering unceasingly your work of faith, and labour of love, and enduring constancy of hope, of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our °God and Father; <sup>4</sup> knowing, brethren beloved by °God, your election. <sup>5</sup> For our glad tidings were not with you in word only, but also in power, and in [the] Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; even as ye know what we were among you for your sakes: <sup>6</sup> and ye became our imitators, and of the Lord, having accepted the word in much tribulation with joy of [the] Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup> so that ye became models to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia: <sup>8</sup> for the word of the Lord sounded out from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith which [is] towards °God has gone abroad, so that we have no need to say anything; <sup>9</sup> for they themselves relate concerning us what entering in we had to you, and how ye turned to °God from idols to serve a living and true °God, <sup>10</sup> and to await his Son from the heavens, whom he raised from among the dead, Jesus, our deliverer from the coming wrath.

<sup>1</sup> For ye know yourselves, brethren, our entering in which [we had] to you, that it has not been in vain; <sup>2</sup> but, having suffered before and been insulted, even as ye know, in Philippi, we were bold in our °God to speak unto you the glad tidings of °God with much earnest striving. <sup>3</sup> For our exhortation [was] not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile; <sup>4</sup> but even as we have been approved of °God to have the glad tidings entrusted to us, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but °God, who proves our hearts. <sup>5</sup> For we have not at any time been [among you] with flattering discourse, even as ye know, nor with a pretext for covetousness, °God [is] witness; <sup>6</sup> nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, when we might have been a charge as Christ's apostles; <sup>7</sup> but have been gentle in the midst of you, as a nurse would cherish her own children. <sup>8</sup> Thus, yearning over you, we had found our delight in having imparted to you not only the glad tidings of °God, but our own lives also, because ye had become beloved of us. <sup>9</sup> For ye remember, brethren, our labour and toil: working night and day, not to be chargeable to any one of you, we have preached to you the glad tidings of °God. <sup>10</sup> Ye [are] witnesses, and °God, how piously and righteously and blamelessly we have conducted ourselves with you that believe: <sup>11</sup> as ye know how, as a father his own children, we used to exhort each one of you, and comfort and testify, <sup>12</sup> that ye should walk worthy of °God,

° 1:1 Elohim	° 1:2 Elohim	° 1:3 Elohim	° 1:4 Elohim	° 1:8 Elohim	° 1:9 Elohim
° 1:9 Elohim	° 2:2 Elohim	° 2:2 Elohim	° 2:4 Elohim	° 2:4 Elohim	° 2:5 Elohim
° 2:8 Elohim	° 2:9 Elohim	° 2:10 Elohim	° 2:12 Elohim

who calls you to his own kingdom and glory. <sup>13</sup> And for this cause we also give thanks to °God unceasingly that, having received [the] word of [the] report of °God by us, ye accepted, not men's word, but, even as it is truly, °God's word, which also works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup> For ye, brethren, have become imitators of the assemblies of °God which are in Judaea in Christ Jesus; for ye also have suffered the same things of your own countrymen as also they of the Jews, <sup>15</sup> who have both slain the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and have driven us out by persecution, and do not please °God, and [are] against all men, <sup>16</sup> forbidding us to speak to the nations that they may be saved, that they may fill up their sins always: but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost. <sup>17</sup> But we, brethren, having been bereaved of you and separated for a little moment in person, not in heart, have used more abundant diligence to see your face with much desire; <sup>18</sup> wherefore we have desired to come to you, even I Paul, both once and twice, and Satan has hindered us. <sup>19</sup> For what [is] our hope, or joy, or crown of boasting? [are] not ye also before our Lord Jesus at his coming? <sup>20</sup> for ye are our glory and joy.

<sup>1</sup> Wherefore, being no longer able to refrain ourselves, we thought good to be left alone in Athens, <sup>2</sup> and sent Timotheus, our brother and fellow-workman under °God in the glad tidings of Christ, to confirm you and encourage [you] concerning your faith, <sup>3</sup> that no one might be moved by these afflictions. (For yourselves know that we are set for this; <sup>4</sup> for also, when we were with you, we told you beforehand we are about to be in tribulation, even as also it came to pass, and ye know.) <sup>5</sup> For this reason I also, no longer able to refrain myself, sent to know your faith, lest perhaps the tempter had tempted you and our labour should be come to nothing. <sup>6</sup> But Timotheus having just come to us from you, and brought to us the glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have always good remembrance of us, desiring much to see us, even as we also you; <sup>7</sup> for this reason we have been comforted in you, brethren, in all our distress and tribulation, through your faith, <sup>8</sup> because now we live if ye stand firm in [the] Lord. <sup>9</sup> For what thanksgiving can we render to °God for you, for all the joy wherewith we rejoice on account of you before our °God, <sup>10</sup> night and day beseeching exceedingly to the end that we may see your face, and perfect what is lacking in your faith? <sup>11</sup> But our °God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup> But you, may the Lord make to exceed and abound in love toward one another, and toward all, even as we also towards you, <sup>13</sup> in order to the confirming of your hearts unblamable in holiness before our °God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

<sup>1</sup> For the rest, then, brethren, we beg you and exhort you in [the] Lord Jesus, even as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk and please °God, even as ye also do walk, that ye would abound still

° 2:13 Elohim   ° 2:13 Elohim   ° 2:13 Elohim   ° 2:14 Elohim   ° 2:15 Elohim   ° 3:2 Elohim
 ° 3:9 Elohim   ° 3:9 Elohim   ° 3:11 Elohim   ° 3:13 Elohim   ° 4:1 Elohim

more. <sup>2</sup> For ye know what charges we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup> For this is [the] will of °God, [even] your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; <sup>4</sup> that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honour; <sup>5</sup> (not in passionate desire, even as the nations who know not °God,) <sup>6</sup> not overstepping the rights of and wronging his brother in the matter, because the Lord [is] the avenger of all these things, even as we also told you before, and have fully testified. <sup>7</sup> For °God has not called us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup> He therefore that [in this] disregards [his brother], disregards, not man, but °God, who has given also his Holy Spirit to you. <sup>9</sup> Now concerning brotherly love ye have no need that we should write to you, for ye yourselves are taught of °God to love one another. <sup>10</sup> For also ye do this towards all the brethren in the whole of Macedonia; but we exhort you, brethren, to abound still more, <sup>11</sup> and to seek earnestly to be quiet and mind your own affairs, and work with your [own] hands, even as we charged you, <sup>12</sup> that ye may walk reputably towards those without, and may have need of no one. <sup>13</sup> But we do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them that are fallen asleep, to the end that ye be not grieved even as also the rest who have no hope. <sup>14</sup> For if we believe that Jesus has died and has risen again, so also °God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. <sup>15</sup> (For this we say to you in [the] word of [the] Lord, that we, the living, who remain to the coming of the Lord, are in no way to anticipate those who have fallen asleep; <sup>16</sup> for the Lord himself, with an assembling shout, with archangel's voice and with trump of °God, shall descend from heaven; and the dead in Christ shall rise first; <sup>17</sup> then we, the living who remain, shall be caught up together with them in [the] clouds, to meet the Lord in [the] air; and thus we shall be always with [the] Lord. <sup>18</sup> So encourage one another with these words.)

<sup>1</sup> But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that ye should be written to, <sup>2</sup> for ye know perfectly well yourselves, that the day of [the] Lord so comes as a thief by night. <sup>3</sup> When they may say, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon her that is with child; and they shall in no wise escape. <sup>4</sup> But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief: <sup>5</sup> for all ye are sons of light and sons of day; we are not of night nor of darkness. <sup>6</sup> So then do not let us sleep as the rest do, but let us watch and be sober; <sup>7</sup> for they that sleep sleep by night, and they that drink drink by night; <sup>8</sup> but we being of [the] day, let us be sober, putting on [the] breastplate of faith and love, and as helmet [the] hope of salvation; <sup>9</sup> because °God has not set us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup> who has died for us, that whether we may be watching or sleep, we may live together with him. <sup>11</sup> Wherefore encourage one another, and build up each one the other, even as also ye do. <sup>12</sup> But we beg you, brethren, to know those who labour among you, and take the lead among you in [the] Lord, and admonish you, <sup>13</sup> and to regard them exceedingly in love on account of their work. Be in peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup> But we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, comfort the faint-hearted, sustain the weak, be patient towards all. <sup>15</sup> See that no one render to any evil for evil, but pursue always what is good towards one another and towards all; <sup>16</sup> rejoice always; <sup>17</sup> pray unceasingly; <sup>18</sup> in everything give thanks, for this is [the] will of °God in Christ Jesus towards you; <sup>19</sup> quench not the Spirit; <sup>20</sup> do not lightly esteem prophecies; <sup>21</sup> but prove all things, hold fast the right; <sup>22</sup> hold aloof from every form of wickedness. <sup>23</sup> Now the °God of peace himself sanctify you wholly: and your whole spirit, and soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> He [is] faithful who calls you, who will also perform [it]. <sup>25</sup> Brethren, pray for us. <sup>26</sup> Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup> I adjure you by the Lord that the letter be read to all the [holy] brethren. <sup>28</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you.

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Silvanus and Timotheus to the assembly of Thessalonians in °God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup> Grace to you, and peace from °God our Father, and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup> We ought to thank °God always for you, brethren, even as it is meet, because your faith increases exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all towards one another abounds; <sup>4</sup> so that we ourselves make our boast in you in the assemblies of °God for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations, which ye are sustaining; <sup>5</sup> a manifest token of the righteous judgment of °God, to the end that ye should be counted worthy of the kingdom of °God, for the sake of which ye also suffer; <sup>6</sup> if at least [it is a] righteous thing with °God to render tribulation to those that trouble you, <sup>7</sup> and to you that are troubled repose with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven, with [the] angels of his power, <sup>8</sup> in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who know not °God, and those who do not obey the glad tidings of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>9</sup> who shall pay the penalty [of] everlasting destruction from [the] presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his might, <sup>10</sup> when he shall have come to be glorified in his saints, and wondered at in all that have believed, (for our testimony to you has been believed,) in that day. <sup>11</sup> To which end we also pray always for you, that our °God may count you worthy of the calling, and fulfil all [the] good pleasure of [his] goodness and [the] work of faith with power, <sup>12</sup> so that the name of our Lord Jesus [Christ] may be glorified in you and ye in him, according to the grace of our °God, and of [the] Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>1</sup> Now we beg you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to him, <sup>2</sup> that ye be not soon shaken in mind, nor troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as [if it were] by us, as that the day of the Lord is present. <sup>3</sup> Let not any one deceive you in any manner, because [it will not be] unless the apostasy have first come, and the man of sin have been revealed, the son of perdition; <sup>4</sup> who opposes and exalts himself on high against all called °God, or object of veneration; so that he himself sits down in the temple of °God, shewing himself that he is °God. <sup>5</sup> Do ye not remember that, being yet with you, I said these things to you? <sup>6</sup> And now ye know that which restrains, that he should be revealed in his own time. <sup>7</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness already works; only [there is] he who restrains now until he be gone, <sup>8</sup> and then the lawless one shall be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus shall consume with the breath of his mouth, and shall annul by the appearing of his coming; <sup>9</sup> whose coming is according to the working of Satan in all power and signs and wonders of falsehood, <sup>10</sup> and in all deceit of unrighteousness to them that perish, because they have not received the love of the truth that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup> And for this reason °God sends to them a working of error, that they should believe what is false, <sup>12</sup> that all might be judged who have not believed the truth, but have found pleasure in unrighteousness. <sup>13</sup> But we ought to give thanks to °God always for you, brethren beloved of [the] Lord, that °God has chosen you from [the] beginning to salvation in sanctification of [the] Spirit and belief of [the] truth: <sup>14</sup> whereto he has called you by our glad tidings, to [the] obtaining of [the] glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup> So then, brethren, stand firm, and hold fast the instructions which ye have been taught, whether by word or by our letter. <sup>16</sup> But our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and our °God and Father, who has loved us, and given [us] eternal consolation and good hope by grace, <sup>17</sup> encourage your hearts, and establish you in every good work and word.

3

<sup>1</sup> For the rest, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also with you; <sup>2</sup> and that we may be delivered from bad and evil men, for faith [is] not [the portion] of all. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you and keep [you] from evil. <sup>4</sup> But we trust in the Lord as to you, that the things which we enjoin, ye both do and will do. <sup>5</sup> But the Lord direct your hearts into the love of °God, and into the patience of the Christ. <sup>6</sup> Now we enjoin you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw from every brother walking disorderly and not according to the instruction which he received from us. <sup>7</sup> For ye know yourselves how ye ought to imitate us, because we have not walked disorderly among you; <sup>8</sup> nor have we eaten bread from any one without cost; but in toil and hardship working night and day not to be chargeable to any one of you: <sup>9</sup> not that we have not the right, but that we might give ourselves as an example to you, in order to your imitating us. <sup>10</sup> For also when we were with you we enjoined you this, that if any man does not like to work, neither let him eat. <sup>11</sup> For we hear that [there are] some walking among you disorderly, not working at all, but busybodies. <sup>12</sup> Now such we enjoin and exhort in [the] Lord Jesus Christ, that working quietly they eat their own bread. <sup>13</sup> But ye, brethren, do not faint in well-doing. <sup>14</sup> But if any one obey not our word by the letter, mark that man, and do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed of himself; <sup>15</sup> and do not esteem him as an enemy, but admonish [him] as a brother. <sup>16</sup> But the Lord of peace himself give you peace continually in every way. The Lord [be] with you all. <sup>17</sup> The salutation by the hand of me, Paul, which is [the] mark in every letter; so I write. <sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you all.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ, according to [the] command of °God our Saviour, and of Christ Jesus our hope, <sup>2</sup> to Timotheus, [my] true child in faith: grace, mercy, peace, from °God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>3</sup> Even as I begged thee to remain in Ephesus, [when I was] going to Macedonia, that thou mightest enjoin some not to teach other doctrines, <sup>4</sup> nor to turn their minds to fables and interminable genealogies, which bring questionings rather than [further] °God's dispensation, which [is] in faith. <sup>5</sup> But the end of what is enjoined is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith; <sup>6</sup> which [things] some having missed, have turned aside to vain discourse, <sup>7</sup> desiring to be law-teachers, not understanding either what they say or concerning what they [so] strenuously affirm. <sup>8</sup> Now we know that the law [is] good if any one uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup> knowing this, that law has not its application to a righteous person, but to [the] lawless and insubordinate, to [the] impious and sinful, to [the] unholy and profane, to smiters of fathers and smiters of mothers; to murderers, <sup>10</sup> fornicators, sodomites, kidnappers, liars, perjurers; and if any other thing is opposed to sound teaching, <sup>11</sup> according to the glad tidings of the glory of the blessed °God, with which I have been entrusted. <sup>12</sup> [And] I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me power, that he has counted me faithful, appointing to ministry him <sup>13</sup> who before was a blasphemer and persecutor, and an insolent overbearing [man]: but mercy was shewn me because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief. <sup>14</sup> But the grace of our Lord surpassingly over-abounded with faith and love, which [is] in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Faithful [is] the word, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am [the] first. <sup>16</sup> But for this reason mercy was shewn me, that in me, [the] first, Jesus Christ might display the whole long-suffering, for a delineation of those about to believe on him to life eternal. <sup>17</sup> Now to the King of the ages, [the] incorruptible, invisible, only °God, honour and glory to the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>18</sup> This charge, [my] child Timotheus, I commit to thee, according to the prophecies as to thee preceding, in order that thou mightest war by them the good warfare, <sup>19</sup> maintaining faith and a good conscience; which [last] some, having put away, have made shipwreck as to faith; <sup>20</sup> of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may be taught by discipline not to blaspheme.

that all men should be saved and come to [the] knowledge of [the] truth. <sup>5</sup> For °God is one, and [the] mediator of °God and men one, [the] man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who gave himself a ransom for all, the testimony [to be rendered] in its own times; <sup>7</sup> to which I have been appointed a herald and apostle, (I speak [the] truth, I do not lie,) a teacher of [the] nations in faith and truth. <sup>8</sup> I will therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up pious hands, without wrath or reasoning. <sup>9</sup> In like manner also that the women in decent deportment and dress adorn themselves with modesty and discretion, not with plaited [hair] and gold, or pearls, or costly clothing, <sup>10</sup> but, what becomes women making profession of the fear of °God, by good works. <sup>11</sup> Let a woman learn in quietness in all subjection; <sup>12</sup> but I do not suffer a woman to teach nor to exercise authority over man, but to be in quietness; <sup>13</sup> for Adam was formed first, then Eve: <sup>14</sup> and Adam was not deceived; but the woman, having been deceived, was in transgression. <sup>15</sup> But she shall be preserved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with discretion.

teachings of demons <sup>2</sup> speaking lies in hypocrisy, cauterised as to their own conscience, <sup>3</sup> forbidding to marry, [bidding] to abstain from meats, which <sup>o</sup>God has created for receiving with thanksgiving for them who are faithful and know the truth. <sup>4</sup> For every creature of <sup>o</sup>God [is] good, and nothing [is] to be rejected, being received with thanksgiving; <sup>5</sup> for it is sanctified by <sup>o</sup>God's word and freely addressing [him]. <sup>6</sup> Laying these things before the brethren, thou wilt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished with the words of the faith and of the good teaching which thou hast fully followed up. <sup>7</sup> But profane and old wives' fables avoid, but exercise thyself unto piety; <sup>8</sup> for bodily exercise is profitable for a little, but piety is profitable for everything, having promise of life, of the present one, and of that to come. <sup>9</sup> The word [is] faithful and worthy of all acceptance; <sup>10</sup> for, for this we labour and suffer reproach, because we hope in a living <sup>o</sup>God, who is preserver of all men, specially of those that believe. <sup>11</sup> Enjoin and teach these things. <sup>12</sup> Let no one despise thy youth, but be a model of the believers, in word, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. <sup>13</sup> Till I come, give thyself to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. <sup>14</sup> Be not negligent of the gift [that is] in thee, which has been given to thee through prophecy, with imposition of the hands of the elderhood. <sup>15</sup> Occupy thyself with these things; be wholly in them, that thy progress may be manifest to all. <sup>16</sup> Give heed to thyself and to the teaching; continue in them; for, doing this, thou shalt save both thyself and those that hear thee.

aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup> If any believing man or woman have widows, let them impart relief to them, and let not the assembly be charged, that it may impart relief to those [that are] widows indeed. <sup>17</sup> Let the elders who take the lead [among the saints] well be esteemed worthy of double honour, specially those labouring in word and teaching; <sup>18</sup> for the scripture says, Thou shalt not muzzle an ox that treadeth out corn, and, The workman [is] worthy of his hire. <sup>19</sup> Against an elder receive not an accusation unless where there are two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup> Those that sin convict before all, that the rest also may have fear. <sup>21</sup> I testify before °God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, that thou keep these things without prejudice, doing nothing by favour. <sup>22</sup> Lay hands quickly on no man, nor partake in others' sins. Keep thyself pure. <sup>23</sup> Drink no longer only water, but use a little wine on account of thy stomach and thy frequent illnesses. <sup>24</sup> Of some men the sins are manifest beforehand, going before to judgment, and some also they follow after. <sup>25</sup> In like manner good works also are manifest beforehand, and those that are otherwise cannot be hid.

<sup>1</sup> Let as many bondmen as are under yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of °God and the teaching be not blasphemed. <sup>2</sup> And they that have believing masters, let them not despise [them] because they are brethren; but let them the rather serve them with subjection, because they are faithful and beloved, who profit by the good and ready service [rendered]. These things teach and exhort. <sup>3</sup> If any one teach differently, and do not accede to sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the teaching which [is] according to piety, <sup>4</sup> he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but sick about questions and disputes of words, out of which arise envy, strife, injurious words, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup> constant quarrellings of men corrupted in mind and destitute of the truth, holding gain to be [the end of] piety. <sup>6</sup> But piety with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup> For we have brought nothing into the world: [it is] [manifest] that neither can we carry anything out. <sup>8</sup> But having sustenance and covering, we will be content with these. <sup>9</sup> But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many unwise and hurtful lusts, which plunge men into destruction and ruin. <sup>10</sup> For the love of money is [the] root of every evil; which some having aspired after, have wandered from the faith, and pierced themselves with many sorrows. <sup>11</sup> But thou, O man of °God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, piety, faith, love, endurance, meekness of spirit. <sup>12</sup> Strive earnestly [in] the good conflict of faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which thou hast been called, and hast confessed the good confession before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup> I enjoin thee before °God who preserves all things in life, and Christ Jesus who witnessed before Pontius Pilate the good confession, <sup>14</sup> that thou keep the commandment spotless, irreproachable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>15</sup> which in its own time the blessed and only Ruler shall shew, the King of those that reign, and Lord of those that exercise lordship; <sup>16</sup> who only has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor is able to see; to whom [be] honour and eternal might. Amen. <sup>17</sup> Enjoin on those rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to trust on the uncertainty of riches; but in the °God who affords us all things richly for [our] enjoyment; <sup>18</sup> to do good, to be rich in good works, to be liberal in distributing, disposed to communicate [of their substance], <sup>19</sup> laying by for themselves a good foundation for the future, that they may lay hold of [what is] really life. <sup>20</sup> O Timotheus, keep the entrusted deposit, avoiding profane, vain babblings, and oppositions of false-named knowledge, <sup>21</sup> of which some having made profession, have missed the faith. Grace [be] with thee.

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy

<sup>1</sup> Paul, apostle of Jesus Christ by °God's will, according to promise of life, the [life] which [is] in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> to Timotheus, [my] beloved child: grace, mercy, peace, from °God [the] Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>3</sup> I am thankful to °God, whom I serve from [my] forefathers with pure conscience, how unceasingly I have the remembrance of thee in my supplications night and day, <sup>4</sup> earnestly desiring to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; <sup>5</sup> calling to mind the unfeigned faith which [has been] in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that in thee also. <sup>6</sup> For which cause I put thee in mind to rekindle the gift of °God which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. <sup>7</sup> For °God has not given us a spirit of cowardice, but of power, and of love, and of wise discretion. <sup>8</sup> Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but suffer evil along with the glad tidings, according to the power of °God; <sup>9</sup> who has saved us, and has called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to [his] own purpose and grace, which [was] given to us in Christ Jesus before [the] ages of time, <sup>10</sup> but has been made manifest now by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who has annulled death, and brought to light life and incorruptibility by the glad tidings; <sup>11</sup> to which I have been appointed a herald and apostle and teacher of [the] nations. <sup>12</sup> For which cause also I suffer these things; but I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep for that day the deposit I have entrusted to him. <sup>13</sup> Have an outline of sound words, which [words] thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which [are] in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup> Keep, by the Holy Spirit which dwells in us, the good deposit entrusted. <sup>15</sup> Thou knowest this, that all who [are] in Asia, of whom is Phygellus and Hermogenes, have turned away from me. <sup>16</sup> The Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he has often refreshed me, and has not been ashamed of my chain; <sup>17</sup> but being in Rome sought me out very diligently, and found [me] — <sup>18</sup> the Lord grant to him to find mercy from [the] Lord in that day — and how much service he rendered in Ephesus thou knowest best.

<sup>7</sup> Think of what I say, for the Lord will give thee understanding in all things. <sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ raised from among [the] dead, of [the] seed of David, according to my glad tidings, <sup>9</sup> in which I suffer even unto bonds as an evil-doer: but the word of °God is not bound. <sup>10</sup> For this cause I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which [is] in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup> The word [is] faithful; for if we have died together with [him], we shall also live together; <sup>12</sup> if we endure, we shall also reign together; if we deny, he also will deny us; <sup>13</sup> if we are unfaithful, he abides faithful, for he cannot deny himself. <sup>14</sup> Of these things put in remembrance, testifying earnestly before the Lord not to have disputes of words, profitable for nothing, to the subversion of the hearers. <sup>15</sup> Strive diligently to present thyself approved to °God, a workman that has not to be ashamed, cutting in a straight line the word of truth. <sup>16</sup> But profane, vain babblings shun, for they will advance to greater impiety, <sup>17</sup> and their word will spread as a gangrene; of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; <sup>18</sup> [men] who as to the truth have gone astray, saying that the resurrection has taken place already; and overthrow the faith of some. <sup>19</sup> Yet the firm foundation of °God stands, having this seal, [The] Lord knows those that are his; and, Let every one who names the name of [the] Lord withdraw from iniquity. <sup>20</sup> But in a great house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also wooden and earthen; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. <sup>21</sup> If therefore one shall have purified himself from these, [in separating himself from them], he shall be a vessel to honour, sanctified, serviceable to the Master, prepared for every good work. <sup>22</sup> But youthful lusts flee, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those that call upon the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>23</sup> But foolish and senseless questionings avoid, knowing that they beget contentions. <sup>24</sup> And a bondman of [the] Lord ought not to contend, but be gentle towards all; apt to teach; forbearing; <sup>25</sup> in meekness setting right those who oppose, if °God perhaps may sometime give them repentance to acknowledgment of [the] truth, <sup>26</sup> and that they may awake up out of the snare of the devil, [who are] taken by him, for his will.

manifest to all, as that of those also became. <sup>10</sup> But thou hast been thoroughly acquainted with my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, long-suffering, love, endurance, <sup>11</sup> persecutions, sufferings: what [sufferings] happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what persecutions I endured; and the Lord delivered me out of all. <sup>12</sup> And all indeed who desire to live piously in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. <sup>13</sup> But wicked men and juggling impostors shall advance in evil, leading and being led astray. <sup>14</sup> But thou, abide in those things which thou hast learned, and [of which] thou hast been fully persuaded, knowing of whom thou hast learned [them]; <sup>15</sup> and that from a child thou hast known the sacred letters, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which [is] in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup> Every scripture [is] divinely inspired, and profitable for teaching, for conviction, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; <sup>17</sup> that the man of <sup>o</sup>God may be complete, fully fitted to every good work.

<sup>1</sup> I testify before <sup>o</sup>God and Christ Jesus, who is about to judge living and dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom, <sup>2</sup> proclaim the word; be urgent in season [and] out of season, convict, rebuke, encourage, with all longsuffering and doctrine. <sup>3</sup> For the time shall be when they will not bear sound teaching; but according to their own lusts will heap up to themselves teachers, having an itching ear; <sup>4</sup> and they will turn away their ear from the truth, and will have turned aside to fables. <sup>5</sup> But thou, be sober in all things, bear evils, do [the] work of an evangelist, fill up the full measure of thy ministry. <sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out, and the time of my release is come. <sup>7</sup> I have combated the good combat, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> Henceforth the crown of righteousness is laid up for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will render to me in that day; but not only to me, but also to all who love his appearing. <sup>9</sup> Use diligence to come to me quickly; <sup>10</sup> for Demas has forsaken me, having loved the present age, and is gone to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup> Luke alone is with me. Take Mark, and bring [him] with thyself, for he is serviceable to me for ministry. <sup>12</sup> But Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup> The cloak which I left behind [me] in Troas at Carpus's, bring when thou comest, and the books, especially the parchments. <sup>14</sup> Alexander the smith did many evil things against me. The Lord will render to him according to his works. <sup>15</sup> Against whom be thou also on thy guard, for he has greatly withstood our words. <sup>16</sup> At my first defence no man stood with me, but all deserted me. May it not be imputed to them. <sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood with [me], and gave me power, that through me the proclamation might be fully made, and all [those of] the nations should hear; and I was delivered out of the lion's mouth. <sup>18</sup> The Lord shall deliver me from every wicked work, and shall preserve [me] for his heavenly kingdom; to whom [be] glory for the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>19</sup> Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. <sup>20</sup> Erastus remained in Corinth, but Trophimus I left behind in Miletus sick. <sup>21</sup> Use diligence to come before winter. Eubulus salutes thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and the brethren all.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit. Grace [be] with you.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus

<sup>1</sup> Paul, bondman of °God, and apostle of Jesus Christ according to [the] faith of °God's elect, and knowledge of [the] truth which [is] according to piety; <sup>2</sup> in [the] hope of eternal life, which °God, who cannot lie, promised before the ages of time, <sup>3</sup> but has manifested in its own due season his word, in [the] proclamation with which I have been entrusted, according to [the] commandment of our Saviour °God; <sup>4</sup> to Titus, my own child according to [the] faith common [to us]: Grace and peace from °God [the] Father, and Christ Jesus our Saviour. <sup>5</sup> For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou mightest go on to set right what remained [unordered], and establish elders in each city, as I had ordered thee: <sup>6</sup> if any one be free from all charge [against him], husband of one wife, having believing children not accused of excess or unruly. <sup>7</sup> For the overseer must be free from all charge [against him] as °God's steward; not headstrong, not passionate, not disorderly through wine, not a striker, not seeking gain by base means; <sup>8</sup> but hospitable, a lover of goodness, discreet, just, pious, temperate, <sup>9</sup> clinging to the faithful word according to the doctrine taught, that he may be able both to encourage with sound teaching and refute gainsayers. <sup>10</sup> For there are many and disorderly vain speakers and deceivers of people's minds, specially those of [the] circumcision, <sup>11</sup> who must have their mouths stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which ought not [to be taught] for the sake of base gain. <sup>12</sup> One of themselves, a prophet of their own, has said, Cretans are always liars, evil wild beasts, lazy gluttons. <sup>13</sup> This testimony is true; for which cause rebuke them severely, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup> not turning [their] minds to Jewish fables and commandments of men turning away from the truth. <sup>15</sup> All things [are] pure to the pure; but to the defiled and unbelieving nothing [is] pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. <sup>16</sup> They profess to know °God, but in works deny [him], being abominable, and disobedient, and found worthless as to every good work.

 ° 1:16 Elohim    ° 2:5 Elohim

he who is opposed may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us: <sup>9</sup> bondmen to be subject to their own masters, to make themselves acceptable in everything; not gainsaying; <sup>10</sup> not robbing [their masters], but shewing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the teaching which [is] of our Saviour °God in all things. <sup>11</sup> For the grace of °God which carries with it salvation for all men has appeared, <sup>12</sup> teaching us that, having denied impiety and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, and justly, and piously in the present course of things, <sup>13</sup> awaiting the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great °God and Saviour Jesus Christ; <sup>14</sup> who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all lawlessness, and purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous for good works. <sup>15</sup> These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise thee.

3

<sup>1</sup> Put them in mind to be subject to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient to rule, to be ready to do every good work, <sup>2</sup> to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, [to be] mild, shewing all meekness towards all men. <sup>3</sup> For we were once ourselves also without intelligence, disobedient, wandering in error, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, [and] hating one another. <sup>4</sup> But when the kindness and love to man of our Saviour °God appeared, <sup>5</sup> not on the principle of works which [have been done] in righteousness which we had done, but according to his own mercy he saved us through [the] washing of regeneration and renewal of [the] Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup> which he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; <sup>7</sup> that, having been justified by his grace, we should become heirs according to [the] hope of eternal life. <sup>8</sup> The word [is] faithful, and I desire that thou insist strenuously on these things, that they who have believed °God may take care to pay diligent attention to good works. These things are good and profitable to men. <sup>9</sup> But foolish questions, and genealogies, and strifes, and contentions about the law, shun; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>10</sup> An heretical man after a first and second admonition have done with, <sup>11</sup> knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned. <sup>12</sup> When I shall send Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, use diligence to come to me to Nicopolis; for I have decided to winter there. <sup>13</sup> Zenas the lawyer and Apollos set forward diligently on their way, that nothing may be lacking to them; <sup>14</sup> and let ours also learn to apply themselves to good works for necessary wants, that they may not be unfruitful. <sup>15</sup> All with me salute thee. Salute those who love us in [the] faith. Grace [be] with you all.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon

<sup>1</sup> Paul, prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timotheus the brother, to Philemon the beloved and our fellow-workman, <sup>2</sup> and to the sister Apphia and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the assembly which [is] in thine house. <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from <sup>o</sup>God our Father, and [the] Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> I thank my <sup>o</sup>God, always making mention of thee at my prayers, <sup>5</sup> hearing of thy love and the faith which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all the saints, <sup>6</sup> in such sort that thy participation in the faith should become operative in the acknowledgment of every good thing which is in us towards Christ [Jesus]. <sup>7</sup> For we have great thankfulness and encouragement through thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore having much boldness in Christ to enjoin thee what is fitting, <sup>9</sup> for love's sake I rather exhort, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also prisoner of Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> I exhort thee for my child, whom I have begotten in [my] bonds, Onesimus, <sup>11</sup> once unserviceable to thee, but now serviceable to thee and to me: <sup>12</sup> whom I have sent back to thee: [but do thou receive] him, that is, my bowels: <sup>13</sup> whom I was desirous of keeping with myself, that for thee he might minister to me in the bonds of the glad tidings; <sup>14</sup> but I have wished to do nothing without thy mind, that thy good might not be as of necessity but of willingness: <sup>15</sup> for perhaps for this reason he has been separated [from thee] for a time, that thou mightest possess him fully for ever; <sup>16</sup> not any longer as a bondman, but above a bondman, a beloved brother, specially to me, and how much rather to thee, both in [the] flesh and in [the] Lord? <sup>17</sup> If therefore thou holdest me to be a partner [with thee], receive him as me; <sup>18</sup> but if he have wronged thee anything or owe anything [to thee], put this to my account. <sup>19</sup> I Paul have written [it] with mine own hand; I will repay [it]: that I say not to thee that thou owest even thine own self also to me. <sup>20</sup> Yea, brother, I would have profit of thee in [the] Lord: refresh my bowels in Christ. <sup>21</sup> Being confident of thine obedience, I have written to thee, knowing that thou wilt do even more than I say. <sup>22</sup> But withal prepare me also a lodging; for I hope that I shall be granted to you through your prayers. <sup>23</sup> Epaphras salutes thee, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus; <sup>24</sup> Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-workmen. <sup>25</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit.

The Epistle to the Hebrews

<sup>1</sup> ° God having spoken in many parts and in many ways formerly to the fathers in the prophets, <sup>2</sup> at the end of these days has spoken to us in [the person of the] Son, whom he has established heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; <sup>3</sup> who being [the] effulgence of his glory and [the] expression of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, having made [by himself] the purification of sins, set himself down on the right hand of the greatness on high, <sup>4</sup> taking a place by so much better than the angels, as he inherits a name more excellent than they. <sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels said he ever, Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee? and again, I will be to him for father, and he shall be to me for son? <sup>6</sup> and again, when he brings in the firstborn into the habitable world, he says, And let all ° God's angels worship him. <sup>7</sup> And as to the angels he says, Who makes his angels spirits and his ministers a flame of fire; <sup>8</sup> but as to the Son, Thy throne, O ° God, [is] to the age of the age, and a sceptre of uprightness [is] the sceptre of thy kingdom. <sup>9</sup> Thou hast loved righteousness and hast hated lawlessness; therefore ° God, thy ° God, has anointed thee with oil of gladness above thy companions. <sup>10</sup> And, Thou in the beginning, Lord, hast founded the earth, and works of thy hands are the heavens. <sup>11</sup> They shall perish, but thou continuest still; and they all shall grow old as a garment, <sup>12</sup> and as a covering shalt thou roll them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the Same, and thy years shall not fail. <sup>13</sup> But as to which of the angels said he ever, Sit at my right hand until I put thine enemies [as] footstool of thy feet? <sup>14</sup> Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out for service on account of those who shall inherit salvation?

<sup>1</sup> For this reason we should give heed more abundantly to the things [we have] heard, lest in any way we should slip away. <sup>2</sup> For if the word which was spoken by angels was firm, and every transgression and disobedience received just retribution, <sup>3</sup> how shall we escape if we have been negligent of so great salvation, which, having had its commencement in being spoken [of] by the Lord, has been confirmed to us by those who have heard; <sup>4</sup> ° God bearing, besides, witness with [them] to [it], both by signs and wonders, and various acts of power, and distributions of [the] Holy Spirit, according to his will? <sup>5</sup> For he has not subjected to angels the habitable world which is to come, of which we speak; <sup>6</sup> but one has testified somewhere, saying, What is man, that thou rememberest him, or son of man that thou visitest him? <sup>7</sup> Thou hast made him some little inferior to the angels; thou hast crowned him with glory and honour, [and hast set him over the works of thy hands;] <sup>8</sup> thou hast subjected all things under his feet. For in subjecting all things to him, he has left nothing unsubject to him. But now we see not yet all things subjected to him, <sup>9</sup> but we see Jesus, who [was] made some little inferior to angels on account of the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; so that by the grace of °God he should taste death for every thing. <sup>10</sup> For it became him, for whom [are] all things, and by whom [are] all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make perfect the leader of their salvation through sufferings. <sup>11</sup> For both he that sanctifies and those sanctified [are] all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, <sup>12</sup> saying, I will declare thy name to my brethren; in [the] midst of [the] assembly will I sing thy praises. <sup>13</sup> And again, I will trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children which °God has given me. <sup>14</sup> Since therefore the children partake of blood and flesh, he also, in like manner, took part in the same, that through death he might annul him who has the might of death, that is, the devil; <sup>15</sup> and might set free all those who through fear of death through the whole of their life were subject to bondage. <sup>16</sup> For he does not indeed take hold of angels [by the hand], but he takes hold of the seed of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like to [his] brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things relating to °God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people; <sup>18</sup> for, in that himself has suffered, being tempted, he is able to help those that are being tempted.

<sup>1</sup> Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of [the] heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus, <sup>2</sup> who is faithful to him that has constituted him, as Moses also in all his house. <sup>3</sup> For he has been counted worthy of greater glory than Moses, by how much he that has built it has more honour than the house. <sup>4</sup> For every house is built by some one; but he who has built all things [is] °God. <sup>5</sup> And Moses indeed [was] faithful in all his house, as a ministering servant, for a testimony of the things to be spoken after; <sup>6</sup> but Christ, as Son over his house, whose house are we, if indeed we hold fast the boldness and the boast of hope firm to the end. <sup>7</sup> Wherefore, even as says the Holy Spirit, To-day if ye will hear his voice, <sup>8</sup> harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness; <sup>9</sup> where your fathers tempted [me], by proving [me], and saw my works forty years. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore I was wroth with this generation, and said, They always err in heart; and they have not known my ways; <sup>11</sup> so I swore in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest. <sup>12</sup> See, brethren, lest there be in any one of you a wicked heart of unbelief, in turning away from [the] living °God. <sup>13</sup> But encourage yourselves each day, as long as it is called To-day, that none of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup> For we are become companions of the Christ if indeed we hold the beginning of the assurance firm to the end; <sup>15</sup> in that it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation; <sup>16</sup> (for who was it, who, having heard, provoked? but [was it] not all who came out of Egypt by Moses? <sup>17</sup> And with whom was he wroth forty years? [Was it] not with those who had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup> And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who had not hearkened to the word? <sup>19</sup> And we see that they could not enter in on account of unbelief;)

<sup>1</sup> Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you might seem to have failed [of it]. <sup>2</sup> For indeed we have had glad tidings presented to us, even as they also; but the word of the report did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard. <sup>3</sup> For we enter into the rest who have believed; as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest; although the works had been completed from [the] foundation of [the] world. <sup>4</sup> For he has said somewhere of the seventh [day] thus, And <sup>o</sup> God rested on the seventh day from all his works: <sup>5</sup> and in this again, If they shall enter into my rest. <sup>6</sup> Seeing therefore it remains that some enter into it, and those who first received the glad tidings did not enter in on account of not hearkening to the word, <sup>7</sup> again he determines a certain day, saying, in David, 'To-day,' after so long a time; (according as it has been said before), To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. <sup>8</sup> For if Jesus had brought them into rest, he would not have spoken afterwards about another day. <sup>9</sup> There remains then a sabbatism to the people of <sup>o</sup> God. <sup>10</sup> For he that has entered into his rest, he also has rested from his works, as <sup>o</sup> God did from his own. <sup>11</sup> Let us therefore use diligence to enter into that rest, that no one may fall after the same example of not hearkening to the word. <sup>12</sup> For the word of <sup>o</sup> God [is] living and operative, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and penetrating to [the] division of soul and spirit, both of joints and marrow, and a discernor of the thoughts and intents of [the] heart. <sup>13</sup> And there is not a creature unapparent before him; but all things [are] naked and laid bare to his eyes, with whom we have to do. <sup>14</sup> Having therefore a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of <sup>o</sup> God, let us hold fast the confession. <sup>15</sup> For we have not a high priest not able to sympathise with our infirmities, but tempted in all things in like manner, sin apart. <sup>16</sup> Let us approach therefore with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and find grace for seasonable help.

5

crying and tears; (and having been heard because of his piety); <sup>8</sup> though he were Son, he learned obedience from the things which he suffered; <sup>9</sup> and having been perfected, became to all them that obey him, author of eternal salvation; <sup>10</sup> addressed by °God [as] high priest according to the order of Melchisedec. <sup>11</sup> Concerning whom we have much to say, and hard to be interpreted in speaking [of it], since ye are become dull in hearing. <sup>12</sup> For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have again need that [one] should teach you what [are] the elements of the beginning of the oracles of °God, and are become such as have need of milk, [and] not of solid food. <sup>13</sup> For every one that partakes of milk [is] unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe; <sup>14</sup> but solid food belongs to full-grown men, who, on account of habit, have their senses exercised for distinguishing both good and evil.

<sup>1</sup> Wherefore, leaving the word of the beginning of the Christ, let us go on [to what belongs] to full growth, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and faith in °God, <sup>2</sup> of [the] doctrine of washings, and of imposition of hands, and of resurrection of [the] dead, and of eternal judgment; <sup>3</sup> and this will we do if °God permit. <sup>4</sup> For it is impossible to renew again to repentance those once enlightened, and who have tasted of the heavenly gift, and have been made partakers of [the] Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup> and have tasted the good word of °God, and [the] works of power of [the] age to come, <sup>6</sup> and have fallen away, crucifying for themselves [as they do] the Son of °God, and making a show of [him]. <sup>7</sup> For ground which drinks the rain which comes often upon it, and produces useful herbs for those for whose sakes also it is tilled, partakes of blessing from °God; <sup>8</sup> but bringing forth thorns and briars, it is found worthless and nigh to a curse, whose end [is] to be burned. <sup>9</sup> But we are persuaded concerning you, beloved, better things, and connected with salvation, even if we speak thus. <sup>10</sup> For °God [is] not unrighteous to forget your work, and the love which ye have shewn to his name, having ministered to the saints, and [still] ministering. <sup>11</sup> But we desire earnestly that each one of you shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end; <sup>12</sup> that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience have been inheritors of the promises. <sup>13</sup> For °God, having promised to Abraham, since he had no greater to swear by, swore by himself, <sup>14</sup> saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee; <sup>15</sup> and thus, having had long patience, he got the promise. <sup>16</sup> For men indeed swear by a greater, and with them the oath is a term to all dispute, as making matters sure. <sup>17</sup> Wherein °God, willing to shew more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of his purpose, intervened by an oath, <sup>18</sup> that by two unchangeable things, in which [it was] impossible that °God should lie, we might have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold on the hope set before us, <sup>19</sup> which we have as anchor of the soul, both secure and firm, and entering into that within the veil, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus is entered as forerunner for us, become for ever a high priest according to the order of Melchisedec.

<sup>1</sup> For this Melchisedec, King of Salem, priest of the most high °God, who met Abraham returning from smiting the kings, and blessed him; <sup>2</sup> to whom Abraham gave also the tenth portion of all; first being interpreted King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is King of peace; <sup>3</sup> without father, without mother, without genealogy; having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but assimilated to the Son of °God, abides a priest continually. <sup>4</sup> Now consider how great this [personage] was, to whom [even] the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth out of the spoils. <sup>5</sup> And they indeed from among the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law, that is from their brethren, though these are come out of the loins of Abraham: <sup>6</sup> but he who has no genealogy from them has tithed Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises. <sup>7</sup> But beyond all gainsaying, the inferior is blessed by the better. <sup>8</sup> And here dying men receive tithes; but there [one] of whom the witness is that he lives; <sup>9</sup> and, so to speak, through Abraham, Levi also, who received tithes, has been made to pay tithes. <sup>10</sup> For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him. <sup>11</sup> If indeed then perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, for the people had their law given to them in connexion with it, what need [was there] still that a different priest should arise according to the order of Melchisedec, and not be named after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup> For, the priesthood being changed, there takes place of necessity a change of law also. <sup>13</sup> For he, of whom these things are said, belongs to a different tribe, of which no one has [ever] been attached to the service of the altar. <sup>14</sup> For it is clear that our Lord has sprung out of Juda, as to which tribe Moses spake nothing as to priests. <sup>15</sup> And it is yet more abundantly evident, since a different priest arises according to the similitude of Melchisedec, <sup>16</sup> who has been constituted not according to law of fleshly commandment, but according to power of indissoluble life. <sup>17</sup> For it is borne witness, Thou art a priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedec. <sup>18</sup> For there is a setting aside of the commandment going before for its weakness and unprofitableness, <sup>19</sup> (for the law perfected nothing,) and the introduction of a better hope by which we draw nigh to °God. <sup>20</sup> And by how much [it was] not without the swearing of an oath; <sup>21</sup> (for they are become priests without the swearing of an oath, but he with the swearing of an oath, by him who said, as to him, The Lord has sworn, and will not repent [of it], Thou [art] priest for ever [according to the order of Melchisedec];) <sup>22</sup> by so much Jesus became surety of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup> And they have been many priests, on account of being hindered from continuing by death; <sup>24</sup> but he, because of his continuing for ever, has the priesthood unchangeable. <sup>25</sup> Whence also he is able to save completely those who approach by him to °God, always living to intercede for them. <sup>26</sup> For such a high priest became us, holy, harmless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and become higher than the heavens: <sup>27</sup> who has not day by day need, as the high priests, first to offer up sacrifices for his own sins, then [for] those of the people; for this he did once for all [in] having offered up himself. <sup>28</sup> For the law constitutes men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the swearing of the oath which [is] after the law, a Son perfected for ever.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now a summary of the things of which we are speaking [is], We have such a one high priest who has sat down on [the] right hand of the throne of the greatness in the heavens; <sup>2</sup> minister of the holy places and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord has pitched, [and] not man. <sup>3</sup> For every high priest is constituted for the offering both of gifts and sacrifices; whence it is needful that this one also should have something which he may offer. <sup>4</sup> If then indeed he were upon earth, he would not even be a priest, there being those who offer the gifts according to the law, <sup>5</sup> (who serve the representation and shadow of heavenly things, according as Moses was oracularly told [when] about to make the tabernacle; for See, saith He, that thou make all things according to the pattern which has been shewn to thee in the mountain.) <sup>6</sup> But now he has got a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is mediator of a better covenant, which is established on the footing of better promises. <sup>7</sup> For if that first was faultless, place had not been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup> For finding fault, he says to them, Behold, days come, saith the Lord, and I will consummate a new covenant as regards the house of Israel, and as regards the house of Juda; <sup>9</sup> not according to the covenant which I made to their fathers in [the] day of my taking their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in my covenant, and I did not regard them, saith [the] Lord. <sup>10</sup> Because this [is] the covenant that I will covenant to the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord: Giving my laws into their mind, I will write them also upon their hearts; and I will be to them for <sup>o</sup>God, and they shall be to me for people. <sup>11</sup> And they shall not teach each his fellow-citizen, and each his brother, saying, Know the Lord; because all shall know me in themselves, from [the] little one [among them] unto [the] great among them. <sup>12</sup> Because I will be merciful to their unrighteousnesses, and their sins and their lawlessnesses I will never remember any more. <sup>13</sup> In that he says New, he has made the first old; but that which grows old and aged [is] near disappearing.

9

<sup>1</sup> The first therefore also indeed had ordinances of service, and the sanctuary, a worldly one. <sup>2</sup> For a tabernacle was set up; the first, in which [were] both the candlestick and the table and the exposition of the loaves, which is called Holy; <sup>3</sup> but after the second veil a tabernacle which is called Holy of holies, <sup>4</sup> having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, covered round in every part with gold, in which [were] the golden pot that had the manna, and the rod of Aaron that had sprouted,

and the tables of the covenant; <sup>5</sup> and above over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; concerning which it is not now [the time] to speak in detail. <sup>6</sup> Now these things being thus ordered, into the first tabernacle the priests enter at all times, accomplishing the services; <sup>7</sup> but into the second, the high priest only, once a year, not without blood, which he offers for himself and for the errors of the people: <sup>8</sup> the Holy Spirit shewing this, that the way of the [holy of] holies has not yet been made manifest while as yet the first tabernacle has [its] standing; <sup>9</sup> the which [is] an image for the present time, according to which both gifts and sacrifices, unable to perfect as to conscience him that worshipped, are offered, <sup>10</sup> [consisting] only of meats and drinks and divers washings, ordinances of flesh, imposed until [the] time of setting things right. <sup>11</sup> But Christ being come high priest of the good things to come, by the better and more perfect tabernacle not made with hand, (that is, not of this creation,) <sup>12</sup> nor by blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, has entered in once for all into the [holy of] holies, having found an eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup> For if the blood of goats and bulls, and a heifer's ashes sprinkling the defiled, sanctifies for the purity of the flesh, <sup>14</sup> how much rather shall the blood of the Christ, who by the eternal Spirit offered himself spotless to °God, purify your conscience from dead works to worship [the] living °God? <sup>15</sup> And for this reason he is mediator of a new covenant, so that, death having taken place for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, the called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>16</sup> (For where [there is] a testament, the death of the testator must needs come in. <sup>17</sup> For a testament [is] of force when men are dead, since it is in no way of force while the testator is alive.) <sup>18</sup> Whence neither the first was inaugurated without blood. <sup>19</sup> For every commandment having been spoken according to [the] law by Moses to all the people; having taken the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup> saying, This [is] the blood of the covenant which °God has enjoined to you. <sup>21</sup> And the tabernacle too and all the vessels of service he sprinkled in like manner with blood; <sup>22</sup> and almost all things are purified with blood according to the law, and without blood-shedding there is no remission. <sup>23</sup> [It was] necessary then that the figurative representations of the things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with sacrifices better than these. <sup>24</sup> For the Christ is not entered into holy places made with hand, figures of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of °God for us: <sup>25</sup> nor in order that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy places every year with blood not his own; <sup>26</sup> since he had [then] been obliged often to suffer from the foundation of the world. But now once in the consummation of the ages he has been manifested for [the] putting away of sin by his sacrifice. <sup>27</sup> And forasmuch as it is the portion of men once to die, and after this judgment; <sup>28</sup> thus the Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear to those that look for him the second time without sin for salvation.

10

thing falling into [the] hands of [the] living °God. <sup>32</sup> But call to mind the earlier days in which, having been enlightened, ye endured much conflict of sufferings; <sup>33</sup> on the one hand, when ye were made a spectacle both in reproaches and afflictions; and on the other, when ye became partakers with those who were passing through them. <sup>34</sup> For ye both sympathised with prisoners and accepted with joy the plunder of your goods, knowing that ye have for yourselves a better substance, and an abiding one. <sup>35</sup> Cast not away therefore your confidence, which has great recompense. <sup>36</sup> For ye have need of endurance in order that, having done the will of °God, ye may receive the promise. <sup>37</sup> For yet a very little while he that comes will come, and will not delay. <sup>38</sup> But the just shall live by faith; and, if he draw back, my soul does not take pleasure in him. <sup>39</sup> But we are not drawers back to perdition, but of faith to saving [the] soul.

<sup>1</sup> Now faith is [the] substantiating of things hoped for, [the] conviction of things not seen. <sup>2</sup> For in [the power of] this the elders have obtained testimony. <sup>3</sup> By faith we apprehend that the worlds were framed by [the] word of °God, so that that which is seen should not take its origin from things which appear. <sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered to °God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained testimony of being righteous, °God bearing testimony to his gifts, and by it, having died, he yet speaks. <sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because °God had translated him; for before [his] translation he has the testimony that he had pleased °God. <sup>6</sup> But without faith [it is] impossible to please [him]. For he that draws near to °God must believe that he is, and [that] he is a rewarder of them who seek him out. <sup>7</sup> By faith, Noah, oracularly warned concerning things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which [is] according to faith. <sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out into the place which he was to receive for an inheritance, and went out, not knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup> By faith he sojourned as a stranger in the land of promise as a foreign country, having dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with [him] of the same promise; <sup>10</sup> for he waited for the city which has foundations, of which °God is [the] artificer and constructor. <sup>11</sup> By faith also Sarah herself received strength for [the] conception of seed, and [that] beyond a seasonable age; since she counted him faithful who promised. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore also there have been born of one, and that of one become dead, even as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the countless sand which [is] by the sea shore. <sup>13</sup> All these died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar off and embraced [them], and confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth. <sup>14</sup> For they who say such things shew clearly that they seek [their] country. <sup>15</sup> And if they had called to mind that from whence they went out, they had had opportunity to have returned; <sup>16</sup> but now they seek a better, that is, a heavenly; wherefore °God is not ashamed of them, to be called their °God; for he has prepared for them a city. <sup>17</sup> By faith Abraham, [when] tried, offered up Isaac, and he who had received to himself the promises offered up his only begotten [son], <sup>18</sup> as to whom it had been said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called: <sup>19</sup> counting that °God [was] able to raise [him] even from among [the] dead, whence also he received him in a figure. <sup>20</sup> By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. <sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob [when] dying blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshipped on the top of his staff. <sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph [when] dying called to mind the going forth of the sons of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones. <sup>23</sup> By faith Moses, being born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw the child beautiful; and they did not fear the injunction of the king. <sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he had become great, refused to be called son of Pharaoh's daughter; <sup>25</sup> choosing rather to suffer affliction along with the people of °God than to have [the] temporary pleasure of sin; <sup>26</sup> esteeming the reproach of the Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he had respect to the recompense. <sup>27</sup> By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he persevered, as seeing him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> By faith he celebrated the passover and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them. <sup>29</sup> By faith they passed through the Red sea as through dry land; of which the Egyptians having made trial were swallowed up. <sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been encircled for seven days. <sup>31</sup> By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish along with the unbelieving, having received the spies in peace. <sup>32</sup> And what more do I say? For the time would fail me telling of Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, and David and Samuel, and of the prophets: <sup>33</sup> who by faith overcame kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped lions' mouths, <sup>34</sup> quenched [the] power of fire, escaped [the] edge of the sword, became strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, made [the] armies of strangers give way. <sup>35</sup> Women received their dead again by resurrection; and others were tortured, not having accepted deliverance, that they might get a better resurrection; <sup>36</sup> and others underwent trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, and of bonds and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup> They were stoned, were sawn asunder, were tempted, died by the death of the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, destitute, afflicted, evil treated, <sup>38</sup> (of whom the world was not worthy,) wandering in deserts and mountains, and [in] dens and caverns of the earth. <sup>39</sup> And these all, having obtained witness through faith, did not receive the promise, <sup>40</sup> °God having foreseen some better thing for us, that they should not be made perfect without us.

ing us, laying aside every weight, and sin which so easily entangles us, run with endurance the race that lies before us, <sup>2</sup> looking stedfastly on Jesus the leader and completer of faith: who, in view of the joy lying before him, endured [the] cross, having despised [the] shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of °God. <sup>3</sup>For consider well him who endured so great contradiction from sinners against himself, that ye be not weary, fainting in your minds. <sup>4</sup>Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, wrestling against sin. <sup>5</sup>And ye have quite forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: My son, despise not [the] chastening of [the] Lord, nor faint [when] reprov'd by him; <sup>6</sup>for whom [the] Lord loves he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives. <sup>7</sup>Ye endure for chastening, °God conducts himself towards you as towards sons; for who is the son that the father chastens not? <sup>8</sup>But if ye are without chastening, of which all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. <sup>9</sup>Moreover we have had the fathers of our flesh as chasteners, and we revered [them]; shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? <sup>10</sup>For they indeed chastened for a few days, as seemed good to them; but he for profit, in order to the partaking of his holiness. <sup>11</sup>But no chastening at the time seems to be [matter] of joy, but of grief; but afterwards yields [the] peaceful fruit of righteousness to those exercised by it. <sup>12</sup>Wherefore lift up the hands that hang down, and the failing knees; <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not turned aside; but that rather it may be healed. <sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with all, and holiness, without which no one shall see the Lord: <sup>15</sup>watching lest [there be] any one who lacks the grace of °God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble [you], and many be defiled by it; <sup>16</sup>lest [there be] any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright; <sup>17</sup>for ye know that also afterwards, desiring to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, (for he found no place for repentance) although he sought it earnestly with tears. <sup>18</sup>For ye have not come to [the mount] that might be touched and was all on fire, and to obscurity, and darkness, and tempest, <sup>19</sup>and trumpet's sound, and voice of words; which they that heard, excusing themselves, declined [the] word being addressed to them any more: <sup>20</sup>(for they were not able to bear what was enjoined: And if a beast should touch the mountain, it shall be stoned; <sup>21</sup>and, so fearful was the sight, Moses said, I am exceedingly afraid and full of trembling;) <sup>22</sup>but ye have come to mount Zion; and to [the] city of [the] living °God, heavenly Jerusalem; and to myriads of angels, <sup>23</sup>the universal gathering; and to [the] assembly of the firstborn [who are] registered in heaven; and to °God, judge of all; and to [the] spirits of just [men] made perfect; <sup>24</sup>and to Jesus, mediator of a new covenant; and to [the] blood of sprinkling, speaking better than Abel. <sup>25</sup>See that ye refuse not him that speaks. For if those did not escape who had refused him who uttered the oracles on earth, much more we who turn away from him [who does so] from heaven: <sup>26</sup>whose voice then shook the earth; but now he has promised, saying, Yet once will I shake not only the earth, but also the heaven. <sup>27</sup>But this Yet once, signifies the removing of what is shaken, as being made, that what is not shaken may remain. <sup>28</sup>Wherefore let us, receiving a kingdom not to be shaken, have grace, by which let us serve °God acceptably with reverence and fear.

29 For also our °God [is] a consuming fire.

1 Let brotherly love abide. 2 Be not forgetful of hospitality; for by it some have unawares entertained angels. 3 Remember prisoners, as bound with [them]; those that are evil-treated, as being yourselves also in [the] body. 4 [Let] marriage [be held] every way in honour, and the bed [be] undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers will °God judge. 5 [Let your] conversation [be] without love of money, satisfied with [your] present circumstances; for he has said, I will not leave thee, neither will I forsake thee. 6 So that, taking courage, we may say, The Lord [is] my helper, and I will not be afraid: what will man do unto me? 7 Remember your leaders who have spoken to you the word of °God; and considering the issue of their conversation, imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ [is] the same yesterday, and to-day, and to the ages [to come]. 9 Be not carried away with various and strange doctrines; for [it is] good that the heart be confirmed with grace, not meats; those who have walked in which have not been profited by [them]. 10 We have an altar of which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle; 11 for of those beasts whose blood is carried [as sacrifices for sin] into the [holy of] holies by the high priest, of these the bodies are burned outside the camp. 12 Wherefore also Jesus, that he might sanctify the people by his own blood, suffered without the gate: 13 therefore let us go forth to him without the camp, bearing his reproach: 14 for we have not here an abiding city, but we seek the coming one. 15 By him therefore let us offer [the] sacrifice of praise continually to °God, that is, [the] fruit of [the] lips confessing his name. 16 But of doing good and communicating [of your substance] be not forgetful, for with such sacrifices °God is well pleased. 17 Obey your leaders, and be submissive; for they watch over your souls as those that shall give account; that they may do this with joy, and not groaning, for this [would be] unprofitable for you. 18 Pray for us: for we persuade ourselves that we have a good conscience, in all things desirous to walk rightly. 19 But I much more beseech [you] to do this, that I may the more quickly be restored to you. 20 But the °God of peace, who brought again from among [the] dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, in [the power of the] blood of [the] eternal covenant, 21 perfect you in every good work to the doing of his will, doing in you what is pleasing before him through Jesus Christ; to whom [be] glory for the ages of ages. Amen. 22 But I beseech you, brethren, bear the word of exhortation, for it is but in few words that I have written to you. 23 Know that our brother Timotheus is set at liberty; with whom, if he should come soon, I will see you. 24 Salute all your leaders, and all the saints. They from Italy salute you. 25 Grace [be] with you all. Amen.

The General Epistle of James

man with a gold ring in splendid apparel, and a poor man also come in in vile apparel, <sup>3</sup> and ye look upon him who wears the splendid apparel, and say, Do thou sit here well, and say to the poor, Do thou stand there, or sit here under my footstool: <sup>4</sup> have ye not made a difference among yourselves, and become judges having evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup> Hear, my beloved brethren: Has not <sup>o</sup>God chosen the poor as to the world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to them that love him? <sup>6</sup> But ye have despised the poor [man]. Do not the rich oppress you, and [do not] they drag you before [the] tribunals? <sup>7</sup> And [do not] they blaspheme the excellent name which has been called upon you? <sup>8</sup> If indeed ye keep [the] royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well. <sup>9</sup> But if ye have respect of persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup> For whoever shall keep the whole law and shall offend in one [point], he has come under the guilt of [breaking] all. <sup>11</sup> For he who said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become transgressor of [the] law. <sup>12</sup> So speak ye, and so act, as those that are to be judged by [the] law of liberty; <sup>13</sup> for judgment [will be] without mercy to him that has shewn no mercy. Mercy glories over judgment. <sup>14</sup> What [is] the profit, my brethren, if any one say he have faith, but have not works? can faith save him? <sup>15</sup> Now if a brother or a sister is naked and destitute of daily food, <sup>16</sup> and one from amongst you say to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled; but give not to them the needful things for the body, what [is] the profit? <sup>17</sup> So also faith, if it have not works, is dead by itself. <sup>18</sup> But some one will say, Thou hast faith and I have works. Shew me thy faith without works, and I from my works will shew thee my faith. <sup>19</sup> Thou believest that <sup>o</sup>God is one. Thou doest well. The demons even believe, and tremble. <sup>20</sup> But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? <sup>21</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? <sup>22</sup> Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and that by works faith was perfected. <sup>23</sup> And the scripture was fulfilled which says, Abraham believed <sup>o</sup>God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness, and he was called Friend of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>24</sup> Ye see that a man is justified on the principle of works, and not on the principle of faith only. <sup>25</sup> But was not in like manner also Rahab the harlot justified on the principle of works, when she had received the messengers and put [them] forth by another way? <sup>26</sup> For as the body without a spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. See how little a fire, how large a wood it kindles! <sup>6</sup> and the tongue [is] fire, the world of unrighteousness; the tongue is set in our members, the defiler of the whole body, and which sets fire to the course of nature, and is set on fire of hell. <sup>7</sup> For every species both of beasts and of birds, both of creeping things and of sea animals, is tamed and has been tamed by the human species; <sup>8</sup> but the tongue can no one among men tame; [it is] an unsettled evil, full of death-bringing poison. <sup>9</sup> Therewith bless we the Lord and Father, and therewith curse we men made after [the] likeness of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>10</sup> Out of the same mouth goes forth blessing and cursing. It is not right, my brethren, that these things should be thus. <sup>11</sup> Does the fountain, out of the same opening, pour forth sweet and bitter? <sup>12</sup> Can, my brethren, a fig produce olives, or a vine figs? Neither [can] salt [water] make sweet water. <sup>13</sup> Who [is] wise and understanding among you; let him shew out of a good conversation his works in meekness of wisdom; <sup>14</sup> but if ye have bitter emulation and strife in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth. <sup>15</sup> This is not the wisdom which comes down from above, but earthly, natural, devilish. <sup>16</sup> For where emulation and strife [are], there [is] disorder and every evil thing. <sup>17</sup> But the wisdom from above first is pure, then peaceful, gentle, yielding, full of mercy and good fruits, unquestioning, unfeigned. <sup>18</sup> But [the] fruit of righteousness in peace is sown for them that make peace.

<sup>1</sup> Whence [come] wars and whence fightings among you? [Is it] not thence, — from your pleasures, which war in your members? <sup>2</sup> Ye lust and have not: ye kill and are full of envy, and cannot obtain; ye fight and war; ye have not because ye ask not. <sup>3</sup> Ye ask and receive not, because ye ask evilly, that ye may consume [it] in your pleasures. <sup>4</sup> Adulteresses, know ye not that friendship with the world is enmity with <sup>o</sup>God? Whoever therefore is minded to be [the] friend of the world is constituted enemy of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>5</sup> Think ye that the scripture speaks in vain? Does the Spirit which has taken his abode in us desire enviously? <sup>6</sup> But he gives more grace. Wherefore he says, <sup>o</sup>God sets himself against [the] proud, but gives grace to [the] lowly. <sup>7</sup> Subject yourselves therefore to <sup>o</sup>God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup> Draw near to <sup>o</sup>God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse [your] hands, sinners, and purify [your] hearts, ye double-minded. <sup>9</sup> Be wretched, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and [your] joy to heaviness. <sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves before [the] Lord, and he shall exalt you. <sup>11</sup> Speak not against one another, brethren. He that speaks against [his] brother, or judges his brother, speaks against [the] law and judges [the] law. But if thou judgest [the] law, thou art not doer of [the] law, but judge. <sup>12</sup> One is the lawgiver and judge, who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou who judgest thy neighbour? <sup>13</sup> Go to now, ye who say, To-day or to-morrow will we go into such a city and spend a year there, and traffic and make gain, <sup>14</sup> ye who do not know what will be on the morrow, ([for] what [is] your life? It is even a vapour, appearing for a little while, and then disappearing,) <sup>15</sup> instead of your saying, If the Lord should [so] will and we should live, we will also do this or that. <sup>16</sup> But now ye glory in your vauntings: all such glorying is evil. <sup>17</sup> To him therefore who knows how to do good, and does it not, to him it is sin.

The First Epistle General of Peter

<sup>1</sup> Peter, apostle of Jesus Christ, to [the] sojourners of [the] dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup> elect according to [the] foreknowledge of °God [the] Father, by sanctification of [the] Spirit, unto [the] obedience and sprinkling of [the] blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. <sup>3</sup> Blessed [be] the °God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his great mercy, has begotten us again to a living hope through [the] resurrection of Jesus Christ from among [the] dead, <sup>4</sup> to an incorruptible and undefiled and unfading inheritance, reserved in [the] heavens for you, <sup>5</sup> who are kept guarded by [the] power of °God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in [the] last time. <sup>6</sup> Wherein ye exult, for a little while at present, if needed, put to grief by various trials, <sup>7</sup> that the proving of your faith, much more precious than of gold which perishes, though it be proved by fire, be found to praise and glory and honour in [the] revelation of Jesus Christ: <sup>8</sup> whom, having not seen, ye love; on whom [though] not now looking, but believing, ye exult with joy unspeakable and filled with [the] glory, <sup>9</sup> receiving the end of your faith, [the] salvation of [your] souls. <sup>10</sup> Concerning which salvation prophets, who have prophesied of the grace towards you, sought out and searched out; <sup>11</sup> searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ which [was] in them pointed out, testifying before of the sufferings which [belonged] to Christ, and the glories after these. <sup>12</sup> To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves but to you they ministered those things, which have now been announced to you by those who have declared to you the glad tidings by [the] Holy Spirit, sent from heaven, which angels desire to look into. <sup>13</sup> Wherefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, [be] sober [and] hope with perfect steadfastness in the grace [which will be] brought to you at [the] revelation of Jesus Christ; <sup>14</sup> as children of obedience, not conformed to [your] former lusts in your ignorance; <sup>15</sup> but as he who has called you is holy, be ye also holy in all [your] conversation; <sup>16</sup> because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy. <sup>17</sup> And if ye invoke as Father him who, without regard of persons, judges according to the work of each, pass your time of sojourn in fear; <sup>18</sup> knowing that ye have been redeemed, not by corruptible [things, as] silver or gold, from your vain conversation handed down from [your] fathers, <sup>19</sup> but by precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, [the blood] of Christ, <sup>20</sup> foreknown indeed before [the] foundation of [the] world, but who has been manifested at the end of times for your sakes, <sup>21</sup> who by him do believe on °God, who has raised him from among [the] dead and given him glory, that your faith and hope should be in °God. <sup>22</sup> Having purified your souls by obedience to the truth to unfeigned brotherly love, love one another out of a pure heart fervently; <sup>23</sup> being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by [the] living and abiding word of °God. <sup>24</sup> Because all flesh [is] as grass, and all its glory as [the] flower of grass. The grass has withered and [its] flower has fallen; <sup>25</sup> but the word of [the] Lord abides for eternity. But this is the word which in the glad tidings [is] preached to you.

were going astray as sheep, but have now returned to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

<sup>1</sup> Likewise, wives, [be] subject to your own husbands, that, even if any are disobedient to the word, they may be gained without [the] word by the conversation of the wives, <sup>2</sup> having witnessed your pure conversation [carried out] in fear; <sup>3</sup> whose adorning let it not be that outward one of tressing of hair, and wearing gold, or putting on apparel; <sup>4</sup> but the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible [ornament] of a meek and quiet spirit, which in the sight of °God is of great price. <sup>5</sup> For thus also the holy women who have hoped in °God heretofore adorned themselves, being subject to their own husbands; <sup>6</sup> as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose children ye have become, doing good, and not fearing with any kind of consternation. <sup>7</sup> [Ye] husbands likewise, dwell with [them] according to knowledge, as with a weaker, [even] the female, vessel, giving [them] honour, as also fellow-heirs of [the] grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered. <sup>8</sup> Finally, [be] all of one mind, sympathising, full of brotherly love, tender hearted, humble minded; <sup>9</sup> not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but on the contrary, blessing [others], because ye have been called to this, that ye should inherit blessing. <sup>10</sup> For he that will love life and see good days, let him cause his tongue to cease from evil and his lips that they speak no guile. <sup>11</sup> And let him avoid evil, and do good; let him seek peace and pursue it; <sup>12</sup> because [the] eyes of [the] Lord [are] on [the] righteous, and his ears towards their supplications; but [the] face of [the] Lord [is] against them that do evil. <sup>13</sup> And who shall injure you if ye have become imitators of that which [is] good? <sup>14</sup> But if also ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed [are ye]; but be not afraid of their fear, neither be troubled; <sup>15</sup> but sanctify [the] Lord the Christ in your hearts, and [be] always prepared to [give] an answer [to] every one that asks you to give an account of the hope that [is] in you, but with meekness and fear; <sup>16</sup> having a good conscience, that [as to that] in which they speak against you as evildoers, they may be ashamed who calumniate your good conversation in Christ. <sup>17</sup> For [it is] better, if the will of °God should will it, to suffer [as] well-doers than [as] evildoers; <sup>18</sup> for Christ indeed has once suffered for sins, [the] just for [the] unjust, that he might bring us to °God; being put to death in flesh, but made alive in [the] Spirit, <sup>19</sup> in which also going he preached to the spirits [which are] in prison, <sup>20</sup> heretofore disobedient, when the longsuffering of °God waited in [the] days of Noah while the ark was preparing, into which few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water: <sup>21</sup> which figure also now saves you, [even] baptism, not a putting away of [the] filth of flesh, but [the] demand as before °God of a good conscience, by [the] resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup> who is at [the] right hand of °God, gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being subjected to him.

<sup>1</sup> Christ, then, having suffered for us in [the] flesh, do ye also arm yourselves with the same mind; for he that has suffered in [the] flesh has done with sin, <sup>2</sup> no longer to live the rest of [his] time in [the] flesh to men's lusts, but to °God's will. <sup>3</sup> For the time past [is] sufficient [for us] to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, walking in lasciviousness, lusts, wine-drinking, revels, drinkings, and unhallowed idolatries. <sup>4</sup> Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with [them] to the same sink of corruption, speaking injuriously [of you]; <sup>5</sup> who shall render account to him who is ready to judge [the] living and [the] dead. <sup>6</sup> For to this [end] were the glad tidings preached to [the] dead also, that they might be judged, as regards men, after [the] flesh, but live, as regards °God, after [the] Spirit. <sup>7</sup> But the end of all things is drawn nigh: be sober therefore, and be watchful unto prayers; <sup>8</sup> but before all things having fervent love among yourselves, because love covers a multitude of sins; <sup>9</sup> hospitable one to another, without murmuring; <sup>10</sup> each according as he has received a gift, ministering it to one another, as good stewards of [the] various grace of °God. <sup>11</sup> If any one speak — as oracles of °God; if any one minister — as of strength which °God supplies; that °God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the might for the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>12</sup> Beloved, take not [as] strange the fire [of persecution] which has taken place amongst you for [your] trial, as if a strange thing was happening to you; <sup>13</sup> but as ye have share in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, that in the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice with exultation. <sup>14</sup> If ye are reproached in [the] name of Christ, blessed [are ye]; for the [Spirit] of glory and the Spirit of °God rests upon you: [on their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.] <sup>15</sup> Let none of you suffer indeed as murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as overseer of other people's matters; <sup>16</sup> but if as a christian, let him not be ashamed, but glorify °God in this name. <sup>17</sup> For the time of having the judgment begin from the house of °God [is come]; but if first from us, what [shall be] the end of those who obey not the glad tidings of °God? <sup>18</sup> And if the righteous is difficultly saved, where shall the impious and [the] sinner appear? <sup>19</sup> Wherefore also let them who suffer according to the will of °God commit their souls in well-doing to a faithful Creator.

<sup>1</sup> The elders which [are] among you I exhort, who [am their] fellow-elder and witness of the sufferings of the Christ, who also [am] partaker of the glory about to be revealed: <sup>2</sup> shepherd the flock of °God which [is] among you, exercising oversight, not by necessity, but willingly; not for base gain, but readily; <sup>3</sup> not as lording it over your possessions, but being models for the flock. <sup>4</sup> And when the chief shepherd is manifested ye shall receive the unfading crown of glory. <sup>5</sup> Likewise [ye] younger, be subject to [the] elder, and all of you bind on humility towards one another; for °God sets himself against [the] proud, but to [the] humble gives grace. <sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of °God, that he may exalt you in [the due] time; <sup>7</sup> having cast all your care upon him, for he cares about you. <sup>8</sup> Be vigilant, watch. Your adversary [the] devil as a roaring lion walks about seeking whom he may devour. <sup>9</sup> Whom resist, stedfast in faith, knowing that the selfsame sufferings are accomplished in your brotherhood which [is] in [the] world. <sup>10</sup> But the °God of all grace who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, when ye have suffered for a little while, himself shall make perfect, stablish, strengthen, ground: <sup>11</sup> to him [be] the glory and the might for the ages of the ages. Amen. <sup>12</sup> By Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I suppose, I have written to you briefly; exhorting and testifying that this is [the] true grace of °God in which ye stand. <sup>13</sup> She that is elected with [you] in Babylon salutes you, and Marcus my son. <sup>14</sup> Salute one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with you all who [are] in Christ.

The Second Epistle General of Peter

<sup>1</sup> Simon Peter, bondman and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have received like precious faith with us through [the] righteousness of our °God and Saviour Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied to you in [the] knowledge of °God and of Jesus our Lord. <sup>3</sup> As his divine power has given to us all things which relate to life and °godliness, through the knowledge of him that has called us by glory and virtue, <sup>4</sup> through which he has given to us the greatest and precious promises, that through these ye may become partakers of [the] divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. <sup>5</sup> But for this very reason also, using therewith all diligence, in your faith have also virtue, in virtue knowledge, <sup>6</sup> in knowledge temperance, in temperance endurance, in endurance °godliness, <sup>7</sup> in °godliness brotherly love, in brotherly love love: <sup>8</sup> for these things existing and abounding in you make [you] to be neither idle nor unfruitful as regards the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>9</sup> for he with whom these things are not present is blind, short-sighted, and has forgotten the purging of his former sins. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore the rather, brethren, use diligence to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things ye will never fall; <sup>11</sup> for thus shall the entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ be richly furnished unto you. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore I will be careful to put you always in mind of these things, although knowing [them] and established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup> But I account it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting [you] in remembrance, <sup>14</sup> knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle is speedily [to take place], as also our Lord Jesus Christ has manifested to me; <sup>15</sup> but I will use diligence, that after my departure ye should have also, at any time, [in your power] to call to mind these things. <sup>16</sup> For we have not made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, following cleverly imagined fables, but having been eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>17</sup> For he received from °God [the] Father honour and glory, such a voice being uttered to him by the excellent glory: This is my beloved Son, in whom I have found my delight; <sup>18</sup> and this voice we heard uttered from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain. <sup>19</sup> And we have the prophetic word [made] surer, to which ye do well taking heed (as to a lamp shining in an obscure place) until [the] day dawn and [the] morning star arise in your hearts; <sup>20</sup> knowing this first, that [the scope of] no prophecy of scripture is had from its own particular interpretation, <sup>21</sup> for prophecy was not ever uttered by [the] will of man, but holy men of °God spake under the power of [the] Holy Spirit.

<sup>1</sup> But there were false prophets also among the people, as there shall be also among you false teachers, who shall bring in by the bye destructive heresies, and deny the master that bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction; <sup>2</sup> and many shall follow their dissolute ways, through whom the way of the truth shall be blasphemed. <sup>3</sup> And through covetousness, with well-turned words, will they make merchandise of you: for whom judgment of old is not idle, and their destruction slumbers not. <sup>4</sup> For if <sup>o</sup>God spared not [the] angels who had sinned, but having cast them down to the deepest pit of gloom has delivered them to chains of darkness [to be] kept for judgment; <sup>5</sup> and spared not [the] old world, but preserved Noe, [the] eighth, a preacher of righteousness, having brought in [the] flood upon [the] world of [the] ungodly; <sup>6</sup> and having reduced [the] cities of Sodom and Gomorrha to ashes, condemned [them] with an overthrow, setting [them as] an example to those that should [afterwards] live an ungodly life; <sup>7</sup> and saved righteous Lot, distressed with the abandoned conversation of the <sup>o</sup>godless, <sup>8</sup> (for the righteous man through seeing and hearing, dwelling among them, tormented [his] righteous soul day after day with [their] lawless works,) <sup>9</sup> [the] Lord knows [how] to deliver the <sup>o</sup>godly out of trial, and to keep [the] unjust to [the] day of judgment [to be] punished; <sup>10</sup> and specially those who walk after the flesh in [the] lust of uncleanness, and despise lordship. Bold [are they], self-willed; they do not fear speaking injuriously of dignities: <sup>11</sup> when angels, who are greater in might and power, do not bring against them, before the Lord, an injurious charge. <sup>12</sup> But these, as natural animals without reason, made to be caught and destroyed, speaking injuriously in things they are ignorant of, shall also perish in their own corruption, <sup>13</sup> receiving [the] reward of unrighteousness; accounting ephemeral indulgence pleasure; spots and blemishes, rioting in their own deceits, feasting with you; <sup>14</sup> having eyes full of adultery, and that cease not from sin, alluring unestablished souls; having a heart practised in covetousness, children of curse; <sup>15</sup> having left [the] straight way they have gone astray, having followed in the path of Balaam [the son] of Bosor, who loved [the] reward of unrighteousness; <sup>16</sup> but had reproof of his own wickedness — [the] dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the folly of the prophet. <sup>17</sup> These are springs without water, and mists driven by storm, to whom the gloom of darkness is reserved [for ever]. <sup>18</sup> For [while] speaking great highflown words of vanity, they allure with [the] lusts of [the] flesh, by dissoluteness, those who have just fled those who walk in error; <sup>19</sup> promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whom a man is subdued, by him is he also brought into slavery. <sup>20</sup> For if after having escaped the pollutions of the world through [the] knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, again entangled, they are subdued by these, their last state is worse than the first. <sup>21</sup> For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known [it] to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup> But that [word] of the true proverb has happened to them: [The] dog [has] turned back to his own vomit; and, [The] washed sow to [her] rolling in mud.

<sup>1</sup> This, a second letter, beloved, I already write to you, in [both] which I stir up, in the way of putting you in remembrance, your pure mind,

<sup>2</sup> to be mindful of the words spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the Lord and Saviour by your apostles; <sup>3</sup> knowing this first, that there shall come at [the] close of the days mockers with mocking, walking according to their own lusts, <sup>4</sup> and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for from the time the fathers fell asleep all things remain thus from [the] beginning of [the] creation. <sup>5</sup> For this is hidden from them through their own wilfulness, that heavens were of old, and an earth, having its subsistence out of water and in water, by the word of °God, <sup>6</sup> through which [waters] the then world, deluged with water, perished. <sup>7</sup> But the present heavens and the earth by his word are laid up in store, kept for fire unto a day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. <sup>8</sup> But let not this one thing be hidden from you, beloved, that one day with [the] Lord [is] as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>9</sup> [The] Lord does not delay his promise, as some account of delay, but is longsuffering towards you, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>10</sup> But the day of [the] Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and [the] elements, burning with heat, shall be dissolved, and [the] earth and the works in it shall be burnt up. <sup>11</sup> All these things then being to be dissolved, what ought ye to be in holy conversation and °godliness, <sup>12</sup> waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of °God, by reason of which [the] heavens, being on fire, shall be dissolved, and [the] elements, burning with heat, shall melt? <sup>13</sup> But, according to his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwells righteousness. <sup>14</sup> Wherefore, beloved, as ye wait for these things, be diligent to be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless; <sup>15</sup> and account the longsuffering of our Lord [to be] salvation; according as our beloved brother Paul also has written to you according to the wisdom given to him, <sup>16</sup> as also in all [his] epistles, speaking in them of these things; among which some things are hard to be understood, which the untaught and ill-established wrest, as also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>17</sup> Ye therefore, beloved, knowing [these] things before, take care lest, being led away along with the error of the wicked, ye should fall from your own stedfastness: <sup>18</sup> but grow in grace, and in [the] knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him [be] glory both now and to [the] day of eternity. Amen.

The First Epistle General of John

<sup>1</sup> That which was from [the] beginning, that which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes; that which we contemplated, and our hands handled, concerning the word of life; <sup>2</sup> (and the life has been manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and report to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and has been manifested to us:) <sup>3</sup> that which we have seen and heard we report to you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship [is] indeed with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> And these things write we to you that your joy may be full. <sup>5</sup> And this is the message which we have heard from him, and declare to you, that <sup>o</sup>God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not practise the truth. <sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us [our] sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup> If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

<sup>1</sup> My children, these things I write to you in order that ye may not sin; and if any one sin, we have a patron with the Father, Jesus Christ [the] righteous; <sup>2</sup> and he is the propitiation for our sins; but not for ours alone, but also for the whole world. <sup>3</sup> And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup> He that says, I know him, and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; <sup>5</sup> but whoever keeps his word, in him verily the love of <sup>o</sup>God is perfected. Hereby we know that we are in him. <sup>6</sup> He that says he abides in him ought, even as he walked, himself also [so] to walk. <sup>7</sup> Beloved, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which ye have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye heard. <sup>8</sup> Again, I write a new commandment to you, which thing is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing and the true light already shines. <sup>9</sup> He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in the darkness until now. <sup>10</sup> He that loves his brother abides in light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup> But he that hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and knows not where he goes, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. <sup>12</sup> I write to you, children, because [your] sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. <sup>13</sup> I write to you, fathers, because ye have known him [that is] from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked [one]. I write to you, little children, because ye have known the Father. <sup>14</sup> I have written to you, fathers, because ye have known him [that is] from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of <sup>o</sup>God abides in you, and ye have overcome the wicked [one]. <sup>15</sup> Love not the world, nor the things in the world. If any one love the world, the love of the Father is not in him; <sup>16</sup> because all that [is] in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. <sup>17</sup> And the world is passing, and its lust, but he that does the will of °God abides for eternity. <sup>18</sup> Little children, it is [the] last hour, and, according as ye have heard that antichrist comes, even now there have come many antichrists, whence we know that it is [the] last hour. <sup>19</sup> They went out from among us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have surely remained with us, but that they might be made manifest that none are of us. <sup>20</sup> And ye have [the] unction from the holy [one], and ye know all things. <sup>21</sup> I have not written to you because ye do not know the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> Whoever denies the Son has not the Father either; he who confesses the Son has the Father also. <sup>24</sup> As for you let that which ye have heard from the beginning abide in you: if what ye have heard from the beginning abides in you, ye also shall abide in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> And this is the promise which he has promised us, life eternal. <sup>26</sup> These things have I written to you concerning those who lead you astray: <sup>27</sup> and yourselves, the unction which ye have received from him abides in you, and ye have not need that any one should teach you; but as the same unction teaches you as to all things, and is true and is not a lie, and even as it has taught you, ye shall abide in him. <sup>28</sup> And now, children, abide in him, that if he be manifested we may have boldness, and not be put to shame from before him at his coming. <sup>29</sup> If ye know that he is righteous, know that every one who practises righteousness is begotten of him.

<sup>1</sup> See what love the Father has given to us, that we should be called [the] children of °God. For this reason the world knows us not, because it knew him not. <sup>2</sup> Beloved, now are we children of °God, and what we shall be has not yet been manifested; we know that if it is manifested we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. <sup>3</sup> And every one that has this hope in him purifies himself, even as he is pure. <sup>4</sup> Every one that practises sin practises also lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup> And ye know that he has been manifested that he might take away our sins; and in him sin is not. <sup>6</sup> Whoever abides in him, does not sin: whoever sins, has not seen him or known him. <sup>7</sup> Children, let no man lead you astray; he that practises righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. <sup>8</sup> He that practises sin is of the devil; for from [the] beginning the devil sins. To this end the Son of °God has been manifested, that he might undo the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup> Whoever has been begotten of °God does not practise sin, because his seed abides in him, and he cannot sin, because he has been begotten of °God. <sup>10</sup> In this are manifest the children of °God and the children of the devil. Whoever does not practise righteousness is not of °God, and he who does not love his brother. <sup>11</sup> For this is the message which ye have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another: <sup>12</sup> not as Cain was of the wicked one, and slew his brother; and on account of what slew he him? because his works were wicked, and those of his brother righteous. <sup>13</sup> Do not wonder, brethren, if the world hate you. <sup>14</sup> We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love [his] brother abides in death. <sup>15</sup> Every one that hates his brother is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. <sup>16</sup> Hereby we have known love, because he has laid down his life for us; and we ought for the brethren to lay down [our] lives. <sup>17</sup> But whoso may have the world's substance, and see his brother having need, and shut up his bowels from him, how abides the love of °God in him? <sup>18</sup> Children, let us not love with word, nor with tongue, but in deed and in truth. <sup>19</sup> And hereby we shall know that we are of the truth, and shall persuade our hearts before him — <sup>20</sup> that if our heart condemn us, °God is greater than our heart and knows all things. <sup>21</sup> Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have boldness towards °God, <sup>22</sup> and whatsoever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments, and practise the things which are pleasing in his sight. <sup>23</sup> And this is his commandment, that we believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and that we love one another, even as he has given us commandment. <sup>24</sup> And he that keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given to us.

<sup>1</sup> Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, if they are of °God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup> Hereby ye know the Spirit of °God: every spirit which confesses Jesus Christ come in flesh is of °God; <sup>3</sup> and every spirit which does not confess Jesus Christ come in flesh is not of °God: and this is that [power] of the antichrist, [of] which ye have heard that it comes, and now it is already in the world. <sup>4</sup> Ye are of °God, children, and have overcome them, because greater is he that [is] in you than he that [is] in the world. <sup>5</sup> They are of the world; for this reason they speak [as] of the world, and the world hears them. <sup>6</sup> We are of °God; he that knows °God hears us; he who is not of °God does not hear us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error. <sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another; because love is of °God, and every one that loves has been begotten of °God, and knows °God. <sup>8</sup> He that loves not has not known °God; for °God is love. <sup>9</sup> Herein as to us has been manifested the love of °God, that °God has sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup> Herein is love, not that we loved °God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son a propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, if °God has so loved us, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup> No one has seen °God at any time: if we love one another, °God abides in us, and his love is perfected in us. <sup>13</sup> Hereby

we know that we abide in him and he in us, that he has given to us of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup> And we have seen, and testify, that the Father has sent the Son [as] Saviour of the world. <sup>15</sup> Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of °God, °God abides in him, and he in °God. <sup>16</sup> And we have known and have believed the love which °God has to us. °God is love, and he that abides in love abides in °God, and °God in him. <sup>17</sup> Herein has love been perfected with us that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, that even as he is, we also are in this world. <sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has torment, and he that fears has not been made perfect in love. <sup>19</sup> We love because he has first loved us. <sup>20</sup> If any one say, I love °God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for he that loves not his brother whom he has seen, how can he love °God whom he has not seen? <sup>21</sup> And this commandment have we from him, That he that loves °God love also his brother.

<sup>1</sup> Every one that believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of °God; and every one that loves him that has begotten loves also him that is begotten of him. <sup>2</sup> Hereby know we that we love the children of °God, when we love °God and keep his commandments. <sup>3</sup> For this is the love of °God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not grievous. <sup>4</sup> For all that has been begotten of °God gets the victory over the world; and this is the victory which has gotten the victory over the world, our faith. <sup>5</sup> Who is he that gets the victory over the world, but he that believes that Jesus is the Son of °God? <sup>6</sup> This is he that came by water and blood, Jesus [the] Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness, for the Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup> For they that bear witness are three: <sup>8</sup> the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three agree in one. <sup>9</sup> If we receive the witness of men, the witness of °God is greater. For this is the witness of °God [which] he has witnessed concerning his Son. <sup>10</sup> He that believes on the Son of °God has the witness in himself; he that does not believe °God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the witness which °God has witnessed concerning his Son. <sup>11</sup> And this is the witness, that °God has given to us eternal life; and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup> He that has the Son has life: he that has not the Son of °God has not life. <sup>13</sup> These things have I written to you that ye may know that ye have eternal life who believe on the name of the Son of °God. <sup>14</sup> And this is the boldness which we have towards him, that if we ask him anything according to his will he hears us. <sup>15</sup> And if we know that he hears us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. <sup>16</sup> If any one see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life, for those that do not sin unto death. There is a sin to death: I do not say of that that he should make a request. <sup>17</sup> Every unrighteousness is sin; and there is a sin not to death. <sup>18</sup> We know that every one begotten of °God does not sin, but he that has been begotten of °God keeps himself, and the wicked [one] does not touch him. <sup>19</sup> We know that we are of °God, and the whole world lies in the wicked [one]. <sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of °God has come, and has given us an understanding that we should know him that [is] true; and we are in him that [is] true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true °God and eternal life. <sup>21</sup> Children, keep yourselves from idols.

The Second Epistle of John

<sup>1</sup> The elder to [the] elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not I only but also all who have known the truth, <sup>2</sup> for the truth's sake which abides in us and shall be with us to eternity. <sup>3</sup> Grace shall be with you, mercy, peace from <sup>o</sup>God [the] Father, and from [the] Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. <sup>4</sup> I rejoiced greatly that I have found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup> And now I beseech thee, lady, not as writing to thee a new commandment, but that which we have had from [the] beginning, that we should love one another. <sup>6</sup> And this is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, according as ye have heard from the beginning, that ye might walk in it. <sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, they who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in flesh — this is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup> See to yourselves, that we may not lose what we have wrought, but may receive full wages. <sup>9</sup> Whosoever goes forward and abides not in the doctrine of the Christ has not <sup>o</sup>God. He that abides in the doctrine, he has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup> If any one come to you and bring not this doctrine, do not receive him into [the] house, and greet him not; <sup>11</sup> for he who greets him partakes in his wicked works. <sup>12</sup> Having many things to write to you, I would not with paper and ink; but hope to come to you, and to speak mouth to mouth, that our joy may be full. <sup>13</sup> The children of thine elect sister greet thee.

The Third Epistle of John

<sup>1</sup> The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth. <sup>2</sup> Beloved, I desire that in all things thou shouldest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospers. <sup>3</sup> For I rejoiced exceedingly when [the] brethren came and bore testimony to thy [holding fast the] truth, even as thou walkest in truth. <sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than these things that I hear of my children walking in the truth. <sup>5</sup> Beloved, thou doest faithfully [in] whatever thou mayest have wrought towards the brethren and that strangers, <sup>6</sup> (who have witnessed of thy love before [the] assembly,) in setting forward whom on their journey worthily of °God, thou wilt do well; <sup>7</sup> for for the name have they gone forth, taking nothing of those of the nations. <sup>8</sup> We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth. <sup>9</sup> I wrote something to the assembly; but Diotrephes, who loves to have the first place among them, receives us not. <sup>10</sup> For this reason, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he does, babbling against us with wicked words; and not content with these, neither does he himself receive the brethren; and those who would he prevents, and casts [them] out of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. He that does good is of °God. He that does evil has not seen °God. <sup>12</sup> Demetrius has witness borne to him by all, and by the truth itself; and we also bear witness, and thou knowest that our witness is true. <sup>13</sup> I had many things to write to thee, but I will not with ink and pen write to thee; <sup>14</sup> but I hope soon to see thee, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace [be] to thee. The friends greet thee. Greet the friends by name.

The General Epistle of Jude

<sup>1</sup> Jude, bondman of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to the called ones beloved in <sup>o</sup>God [the] Father and preserved in Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Mercy to you, and peace, and love be multiplied. <sup>3</sup> Beloved, using all diligence to write to you of our common salvation, I have been obliged to write to you exhorting [you] to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints. <sup>4</sup> For certain men have got in unnoticed, they who of old were marked out beforehand to this sentence, ungodly [persons], turning the grace of our <sup>o</sup>God into dissoluteness, and denying our only Master and Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>5</sup> But I would put you in remembrance, you who once knew all things, that the Lord, having saved a people out of [the] land of Egypt, in the second place destroyed those who had not believed. <sup>6</sup> And angels who had not kept their own original state, but had abandoned their own dwelling, he keeps in eternal chains under gloomy darkness, to [the] judgment of [the] great day; <sup>7</sup> as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities around them, committing greedily fornication, in like manner with them, and going after other flesh, lie there as an example, undergoing the judgment of eternal fire. <sup>8</sup> Yet in like manner these dreamers also defile [the] flesh, and despise lordship, and speak railingly against dignities. <sup>9</sup> But Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil he reasoned about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring a railing judgment against [him], but said, [The] Lord rebuke thee. <sup>10</sup> But these, whatever things they know not, they speak railingly against; but what even, as the irrational animals, they understand by mere nature, in these things they corrupt themselves. <sup>11</sup> Woe to them! because they have gone in the way of Cain, and given themselves up to the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. <sup>12</sup> These are spots in your love-feasts, feasting together [with you] without fear, pasturing themselves; clouds without water, carried along by [the] winds; autumnal trees, without fruit, twice dead, rooted up; <sup>13</sup> raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shames; wandering stars, to whom has been reserved the gloom of darkness for eternity. <sup>14</sup> And Enoch, [the] seventh from Adam, prophesied also as to these, saying, Behold, [the] Lord has come amidst his holy myriads, <sup>15</sup> to execute judgment against all; and to convict all the ungodly of them of all their works of ungodliness, which they have wrought ungodlily, and of all the hard [things] which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. <sup>16</sup> These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their lusts; and their mouth speaks swelling words, admiring persons for the sake of profit. <sup>17</sup> But ye, beloved, remember the words spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>18</sup> that they said to you, that at [the] end of the time there should be mockers, walking after their own lusts of ungodliness. <sup>19</sup> These are they who set [themselves] apart, natural [men], not having [the] Spirit. <sup>20</sup> But ye, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup> keep yourselves in the love of <sup>o</sup>God, awaiting the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. <sup>22</sup> And of some have compassion, making a difference, <sup>23</sup> but others save with fear, snatching [them] out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. <sup>24</sup> But to him that is able to keep you without stumbling, and to set [you] with exultation blameless before his glory, <sup>25</sup> to the only °God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, [be] glory, majesty, might, and authority, from before the whole age, and now, and to all the ages. Amen.

The Revelation to Saint John

<sup>1</sup> Revelation of Jesus Christ, which <sup>o</sup>God gave to him, to shew to his bondmen what must shortly take place; and he signified [it], sending by his angel, to his bondman John, <sup>2</sup> who testified the word of <sup>o</sup>God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, all things that he saw. <sup>3</sup> Blessed [is] he that reads, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things written in it; for the time [is] near. <sup>4</sup> John to the seven assemblies which [are] in Asia: Grace to you and peace from [him] who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits which [are] before his throne; <sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and has washed us from our sins in his blood, <sup>6</sup> and made us a kingdom, priests to his <sup>o</sup>God and Father: to him [be] the glory and the might to the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>7</sup> Behold, he comes with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they which have pierced him, and all the tribes of the land shall wail because of him. Yea. Amen. <sup>8</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith [the] Lord <sup>o</sup>God, he who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. <sup>9</sup> I John, your brother and fellow-partaker in the tribulation and kingdom and patience, in Jesus, was in the island called Patmos, for the word of <sup>o</sup>God, and for the testimony of Jesus. <sup>10</sup> I became in [the] Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet, <sup>11</sup> saying, What thou seest write in a book, and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea. <sup>12</sup> And I turned back to see the voice which spoke with me; and having turned, I saw seven golden lamps, <sup>13</sup> and in the midst of the [seven] lamps [one] like [the] Son of man, clothed with a garment reaching to the feet, and girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle: <sup>14</sup> his head and hair white like white wool, as snow; and his eyes as a flame of fire; <sup>15</sup> and his feet like fine brass, as burning in a furnace; and his voice as the voice of many waters; <sup>16</sup> and having in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth a sharp two-edged sword going forth; and his countenance as the sun shines in its power. <sup>17</sup> And when I saw him I fell at his feet as dead; and he laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, <sup>18</sup> and the living one: and I became dead, and behold, I am living to the ages of ages, and have the keys of death and of hades. <sup>19</sup> Write therefore what thou hast seen, and the things that are, and the things that are about to be after these. <sup>20</sup> The mystery of the seven stars which thou hast seen on my right hand, and the seven golden lamps. — The seven stars are angels of the seven assemblies; and the seven lamps are seven assemblies.

of the seven golden lamps: <sup>2</sup> I know thy works and [thy] labour, and thine endurance, and that thou canst not bear evil [men]; and thou hast tried them who say that themselves [are] apostles and are not, and hast found them liars; <sup>3</sup> and endurest, and hast borne for my name's sake, and hast not wearied: <sup>4</sup> but I have against thee, that thou hast left thy first love. <sup>5</sup> Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works: but if not, I am coming to thee, and I will remove thy lamp out of its place, except thou shalt repent. <sup>6</sup> But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him that overcomes, I will give to him to eat of the tree of life which is in the paradise of <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>8</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: These things says the first and the last, who became dead, and lived: <sup>9</sup> I know thy tribulation and thy poverty; but thou art rich; and the railing of those who say that they themselves are Jews, and are not, but a synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup> Fear nothing [of] what thou art about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give to thee the crown of life. <sup>11</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He that overcomes shall in no wise be injured of the second death. <sup>12</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Pergamos write: These things says he that has the sharp two-edged sword: <sup>13</sup> I know where thou dwellest, where the throne of Satan [is]; and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in the days in which Antipas my faithful witness [was], who was slain among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against thee: that thou hast there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a snare before the sons of Israel, to eat [of] idol sacrifices and commit fornication. <sup>15</sup> So thou also hast those who hold the doctrine of Nicolaitanes in like manner. <sup>16</sup> Repent therefore: but if not, I come to thee quickly, and I will make war with them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>17</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him that overcomes, to him will I give of the hidden manna; and I will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he that receives [it]. <sup>18</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write: These things says the Son of <sup>o</sup>God, he that has his eyes as a flame of fire, and his feet [are] like fine brass: <sup>19</sup> I know thy works, and love, and faith, and service, and thine endurance, and thy last works [to be] more than the first. <sup>20</sup> But I have against thee that thou permittest the woman Jezebel, she who calls herself prophetess, and she teaches and leads astray my servants to commit fornication and eat of idol sacrifices. <sup>21</sup> And I gave her time that she should repent, and she will not repent of her fornication. <sup>22</sup> Behold, I cast her into a bed, and those that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, <sup>23</sup> and her children will I kill with death; and all the assemblies shall know that I am he that searches [the] reins and [the] hearts; and I will give to you each according to your works. <sup>24</sup> But to you I say, the rest who [are] in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I do not cast upon you any other burden; <sup>25</sup> but what ye have hold fast till I shall come. <sup>26</sup> And he that overcomes, and he that keeps unto the end my works, to him will I give authority over the nations, <sup>27</sup> and he shall shepherd them with an iron rod; as vessels of pottery are they broken in pieces, as I also have received from my Father; <sup>28</sup> and I will give to him the morning star. <sup>29</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

<sup>1</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: These things saith he that has the seven Spirits of <sup>o</sup>God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. <sup>2</sup> Be watchful, and strengthen the things that remain, which are about to die, for I have not found thy works complete before my <sup>o</sup>God. <sup>3</sup> Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and keep [it] and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come [upon thee] as a thief, and thou shalt not know at what hour I shall come upon thee. <sup>4</sup> But thou hast a few names in Sardis which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white, because they are worthy. <sup>5</sup> He that overcomes, he shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot his name out of the book of life, and will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. <sup>6</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. <sup>7</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: These things saith the holy, the true; he that has the key of David, he who opens and no one shall shut, and shuts and no one shall open: <sup>8</sup> I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an opened door, which no one can shut, because thou hast a little power, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. <sup>9</sup> Behold, I make them of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews, and are not, but lie; behold, I will cause that they shall come and shall do homage before thy feet, and shall know that I have loved thee. <sup>10</sup> Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee out of the hour of trial, which is about to come upon the whole habitable world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. <sup>11</sup> I come quickly: hold fast what thou hast, that no one take thy crown. <sup>12</sup> He that overcomes, him will I make a pillar in the temple of my <sup>o</sup>God, and he shall go no more at all out; and I will write upon him the name of my <sup>o</sup>God, and the name of the city of my <sup>o</sup>God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven, from my <sup>o</sup>God, and my new name. <sup>13</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. <sup>14</sup> And to the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of <sup>o</sup>God: <sup>15</sup> I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would thou wert cold or hot. <sup>16</sup> Thus because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spue thee out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup> Because thou sayest, I am rich, and am grown rich, and have need of nothing, and knowest not that thou art the wretched and the miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked; <sup>18</sup> I counsel thee to buy of me gold purified by fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white garments, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not be made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. <sup>19</sup> I rebuke and discipline as many as I love; be zealous therefore and repent. <sup>20</sup> Behold, I stand at the door and am knocking; if any one hear my voice and open the door, I will come in unto him and sup with him, and he with me. <sup>21</sup> He that overcomes, to him will I give to sit with me in my throne; as I also have overcome, and have sat down with my Father in his throne. <sup>22</sup> He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

<sup>1</sup> After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard as of a trumpet speaking with me, saying, Come up here, and I will shew thee the things which must take place after these things. <sup>2</sup> Immediately I became in [the] Spirit; and behold, a throne stood in the heaven, and upon the throne one sitting, <sup>3</sup> and he [that was] sitting like in appearance to a stone [of] jasper and a sardius, and a rainbow round the throne like in appearance to an emerald. <sup>4</sup> And round the throne twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones twenty-four elders sitting, clothed with white garments; and on their heads golden crowns. <sup>5</sup> And out of the throne go forth lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and seven lamps of fire, burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of °God; <sup>6</sup> and before the throne, as a glass sea, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, four living creatures, full of eyes, before and behind; <sup>7</sup> and the first living creature like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature having the face as of a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup> And the four living creatures, each one of them having respectively six wings; round and within they are full of eyes; and they cease not day and night saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord °God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come. <sup>9</sup> And when the living creatures shall give glory and honour and thanksgiving to him that sits upon the throne, who lives to the ages of ages, <sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders shall fall before him that sits upon the throne, and do homage to him that lives to the ages of ages; and shall cast their crowns before the throne, saying, <sup>11</sup> Thou art worthy, O our Lord and [our] °God, to receive glory and honour and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy will they were, and they have been created.

5

a Lamb standing, as slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of °God [which are] sent into all the earth: <sup>7</sup> and it came and took [it] out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. <sup>8</sup> And when it took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, having each a harp and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup> And they sing a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open its seals; because thou hast been slain, and hast redeemed to °God, by thy blood, out of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, <sup>10</sup> and made them to our °God kings and priests; and they shall reign over the earth. <sup>11</sup> And I saw, and I heard [the] voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and their number was ten thousands of ten thousands and thousands of thousands; <sup>12</sup> saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that has been slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. <sup>13</sup> And every creature which is in the heaven and upon the earth and under the earth, and [those that are] upon the sea, and all things in them, heard I saying, To him that sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb, blessing, and honour, and glory, and might, to the ages of ages. <sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures said, Amen; and the elders fell down and did homage.

<sup>1</sup> And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as a voice of thunder, Come [and see]. <sup>2</sup> And I saw: and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon it having a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering and that he might conquer. <sup>3</sup> And when it opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come [and see]. <sup>4</sup> And another, a red horse, went forth; and to him that sat upon it, to him it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another; and there was given to him a great sword. <sup>5</sup> And when it opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come [and see]. And I saw: and behold, a black horse, and he that sat upon it having a balance in his hand. <sup>6</sup> And I heard as a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenixes of barley for a denarius: and do not injure the oil and the wine. <sup>7</sup> And when it opened the fourth seal, I heard [the voice of] the fourth living creature saying, Come [and see]. <sup>8</sup> And I saw: and behold, a pale horse, and he that sat upon it, his name [was] Death, and hades followed with him; and authority was given to him over the fourth of the earth to slay with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and by the beasts of the earth. <sup>9</sup> And when it opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of °God, and for the testimony which they held; <sup>10</sup> and they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O sovereign Ruler, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell upon the earth? <sup>11</sup> And there was given to them, to each one a white robe; and it was said to them that they should rest yet a little while, until both their fellow-bondmen and their brethren, who were about to be killed as they, should be fulfilled. <sup>12</sup> And I saw when it opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as hair sackcloth, and the whole moon became as blood, <sup>13</sup> and the stars of heaven fell upon the earth, as a fig tree, shaken by a great wind, casts its unseasonable figs. <sup>14</sup> And the heaven was removed as a book rolled up, and every mountain and island were removed out of their places. <sup>15</sup> And the kings of the earth, and the great, and the chiliarchs, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; <sup>16</sup> and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and have us hidden from [the] face of him that sits upon the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; <sup>17</sup> because the great day of his wrath is come, and who is able to stand?

<sup>1</sup> And after this I saw four angels standing upon the four corners of the earth, holding fast the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow upon the earth, nor upon the sea, nor upon any tree. <sup>2</sup> And I saw another angel ascending from [the] sunrising, having [the] seal of [the] living °God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it had been given to hurt the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup> saying, Hurt not the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, until we shall have sealed the bondmen of our °God upon their foreheads. <sup>4</sup> And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred [and] forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of [the] sons of Israel: <sup>5</sup> out of [the] tribe of Juda, twelve thousand sealed; out of [the] tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Gad, twelve thousand; <sup>6</sup> out of [the] tribe of Aser, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Nephtalim, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand; <sup>7</sup> out of [the] tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Levi, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand; <sup>8</sup> out of [the] tribe of Zabulun, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand; out of [the] tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand sealed. <sup>9</sup> After these things I saw, and lo, a great crowd, which no one could number, out of every nation and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup> And they cry with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our °God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb. <sup>11</sup> And all the angels stood around the throne, and the elders, and the four living creatures, and fell before the throne upon their faces, and worshipped °God, <sup>12</sup> saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and strength, to our °God, to the ages of ages. Amen. <sup>13</sup> And one of the elders answered, saying to me, These who are clothed with white robes, who are they, and whence came they? <sup>14</sup> And I said to him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they who come out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and have made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup> Therefore are they before the throne of °God, and serve him day and night in his temple, and he that sits upon the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. <sup>16</sup> They shall not hunger any more, neither shall they thirst any more, nor shall the sun at all fall on them, nor any burning heat; <sup>17</sup> because the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them, and shall lead them to fountains of waters of life, and <sup>o</sup> God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8

<sup>1</sup> And when it opened the seventh seal, there was silence in the heaven about half an hour. <sup>2</sup> And I saw the seven angels who stand before <sup>o</sup> God, and seven trumpets were given to them. <sup>3</sup> And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, that he might give [efficacy] to the prayers of all saints at the golden altar which [was] before the throne. <sup>4</sup> And the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints, out of the hand of the angel before <sup>o</sup> God. <sup>5</sup> And the angel took the censer, and filled it from the fire of the altar, and cast [it] on the earth: and there were voices, and thunders and lightnings, and an earthquake. <sup>6</sup> And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they might sound with [their] trumpets. <sup>7</sup> And the first sounded [his] trumpet: and there was hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth; and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. <sup>8</sup> And the second angel sounded [his] trumpet: and as a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood; <sup>9</sup> and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea which had life died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. <sup>10</sup> And the third angel sounded [his] trumpet: and there fell out of the heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters. <sup>11</sup> And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many of the men died of the waters because they were made bitter. <sup>12</sup> And the fourth angel sounded [his] trumpet: and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so that the third part of them should be darkened, and that the day should not appear [for] the third part of it, and the night the same. <sup>13</sup> And I saw, and I heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to them that dwell upon the earth, for the remaining voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound.

<sup>1</sup> And the fifth angel sounded [his] trumpet: and I saw a star out of the heaven fallen to the earth; and there was given to it the key of the pit of the abyss. <sup>2</sup> And it opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up smoke out of the pit as [the] smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke of the pit. <sup>3</sup> And out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them as the scorpions of the earth have power; <sup>4</sup> and it was said to them, that they should not injure the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but the men who have not the seal of <sup>o</sup> God on their foreheads: <sup>5</sup> and it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment [was] as [the] torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. <sup>6</sup> And in those days shall men seek death, and shall in no way find it; and shall desire to die, and death flees from them. <sup>7</sup> And the likenesses of the locusts [were] like to horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as crowns like gold, and their faces as faces of men; <sup>8</sup> and they had hair as women's hair, and their teeth were as of lions, <sup>9</sup> and they had breastplates as breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings [was] as the sound of chariots of many horses running to war; <sup>10</sup> and they have tails like scorpions, and stings; and their power [was] in their tails to hurt men five months. <sup>11</sup> They have a king over them, the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in Greek he has [for] name Apollyon. <sup>12</sup> The first woe has passed. Behold, there come yet two woes after these things. <sup>13</sup> And the sixth angel sounded [his] trumpet: and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which [is] before °God, <sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel that had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound at the great river Euphrates. <sup>15</sup> And the four angels were loosed, who are prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they might slay the third part of men; <sup>16</sup> and the number of the hosts of horse [was] twice ten thousand times ten thousand. I heard their number. <sup>17</sup> And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those that sat upon them, having breastplates of fire and jacinth and brimstone; and the heads of the horses [were] as heads of lions, and out of their mouths goes out fire and smoke and brimstone. <sup>18</sup> By these three plagues were the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which goes out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses is in their mouth and in their tails: for their tails [are] like serpents, having heads, and with them they injure. <sup>20</sup> And the rest of men who were not killed with these plagues repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and the golden and silver and brazen and stone and wooden idols, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. <sup>21</sup> And they repented not of their murders, nor of their witchcrafts, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

tidings to his own bondmen the prophets. <sup>8</sup> And the voice which I heard out of the heaven [was] again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the little book which is opened in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the earth. <sup>9</sup> And I went to the angel, saying to him to give me the little book. And he says to me, Take and eat it up: and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey. <sup>10</sup> And I took the little book out of the hand of the angel, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth as honey, sweet; and when I had eaten it my belly was made bitter. <sup>11</sup> And it was said to me, Thou must prophesy again as to peoples and nations and tongues and many kings.

11

<sup>1</sup> And there was given to me a reed like a staff, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of °God, and the altar, and them that worship in it. <sup>2</sup> And the court which [is] without the temple cast out, and measure it not; because it has been given [up] to the nations, and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty-two months. <sup>3</sup> And I will give [power] to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred [and] sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. <sup>4</sup> These are the two olive trees and the two lamps which stand before the Lord of the earth; <sup>5</sup> and if any one wills to injure them, fire goes out of their mouth, and devours their enemies. And if any one wills to injure them, thus must he be killed. <sup>6</sup> These have power to shut the heaven that no rain may fall during the days of their prophecy; and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth as often as they will with every plague. <sup>7</sup> And when they shall have completed their testimony, the beast who comes up out of the abyss shall make war with them, and shall conquer them, and shall kill them: <sup>8</sup> and their body [shall be] on the street of the great city, which is called spiritually Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup> And [men] of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations see their body three days and a half, and they do not suffer their bodies to be put into a sepulchre. <sup>10</sup> And they that dwell upon the earth rejoice over them, and are full of delight, and shall send gifts one to another, because these, the two prophets, tormented them that dwell upon the earth. <sup>11</sup> And after the three days and a half [the] spirit of life from °God came into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those beholding them. <sup>12</sup> And I heard a great voice out of the heaven saying to them, Come up here; and they went up to the heaven in the cloud, and their enemies beheld them. <sup>13</sup> And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand names of men were slain in the earthquake. And the remnant were filled with fear, and gave glory to the °God of the heaven. <sup>14</sup> The second woe has passed; behold, the third woe comes quickly. <sup>15</sup> And the seventh angel sounded [his] trumpet: and there were great voices in the heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world of our Lord and of his Christ is come, and he shall reign to the ages of ages. <sup>16</sup> And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before °God, fell upon their faces, and worshipped °God, <sup>17</sup> saying, We give thee thanks, Lord °God Almighty, [He] who is, and who was, that thou hast taken thy great power and hast reigned. <sup>18</sup> And the nations have been full of wrath, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the recompense to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to those who fear thy name, small and great; and to destroy those that destroy the earth. <sup>19</sup> And the temple of °God in the heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

<sup>1</sup> And a great sign was seen in the heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; <sup>2</sup> and being with child she cried, [being] in travail, and in pain to bring forth. <sup>3</sup> And another sign was seen in the heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems; <sup>4</sup> and his tail draws the third part of the stars of the heaven; and he cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bring forth, in order that when she brought forth he might devour her child. <sup>5</sup> And she brought forth a male son, who shall shepherd all the nations with an iron rod; and her child was caught up to °God and to his throne. <sup>6</sup> And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has there a place prepared of °God, that they should nourish her there a thousand two hundred [and] sixty days. <sup>7</sup> And there was war in the heaven: Michael and his angels went to war with the dragon. And the dragon fought, and his angels; <sup>8</sup> and he prevailed not, nor was their place found any more in the heaven. <sup>9</sup> And the great dragon was cast out, the ancient serpent, he who is called Devil and Satan, he who deceives the whole habitable world, he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. <sup>10</sup> And I heard a great voice in the heaven saying, Now is come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our °God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brethren has been cast out, who accused them before our °God day and night: <sup>11</sup> and they have overcome him by reason of the blood of the Lamb, and by reason of the word of their testimony, and have not loved their life even unto death. <sup>12</sup> Therefore be full of delight, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great rage, knowing he has a short time. <sup>13</sup> And when the dragon saw that he had been cast out into the earth, he persecuted the woman which bore the male [child]. <sup>14</sup> And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the desert into her place, where she is nourished there a time, and times, and half a time, from [the] face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup> And the serpent cast out of his mouth behind the woman water as a river; that he might make her be [as] one carried away by a river. <sup>16</sup> And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup> And the dragon was angry with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of °God, and have the testimony of Jesus.

13

<sup>1</sup> And I stood upon the sand of the sea; and I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and upon its horns ten diadems, and upon its heads names of blasphemy. <sup>2</sup> And the beast which I saw was like to a leopardess, and its feet as of a bear, and its mouth as a lion's mouth; and the dragon gave to it his power, and his throne, and great authority; <sup>3</sup> and one of his heads [was] as slain to death, and his wound of death had been healed: and the whole earth wondered after the beast. <sup>4</sup> And they did homage to the dragon, because he gave the authority to the beast; and they did homage to the beast, saying, Who [is] like to the beast? and who can make war with it? <sup>5</sup> And there was given to it a mouth, speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to it authority to pursue its career forty-two months. <sup>6</sup> And it opened its mouth for blasphemies against <sup>o</sup>God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, and those who have their tabernacle in the heaven. <sup>7</sup> And there was given to it to make war with the saints, and to overcome them; and there was given to it authority over every tribe, and people, and tongue, and nation; <sup>8</sup> and all that dwell on the earth shall do it homage, [every one] whose name had not been written from [the] founding of [the] world in the book of life of the slain Lamb. <sup>9</sup> If any one has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup> If any one [leads] into captivity, he goes into captivity. If any one shall kill with [the] sword, he must with [the] sword be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints. <sup>11</sup> And I saw another beast rising out of the earth; and it had two horns like to a lamb, and spake as a dragon; <sup>12</sup> and it exercises all the authority of the first beast before it, and causes the earth and those that dwell in it to do homage to the first beast, whose wound of death was healed. <sup>13</sup> And it works great signs, that it should cause even fire to come down from heaven to the earth before men. <sup>14</sup> And it deceives those that dwell upon the earth by reason of the signs which it was given to it to work before the beast, saying to those that dwell upon the earth to make an image to the beast, which has the wound of the sword, and lived. <sup>15</sup> And it was given to it to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should also speak, and should cause that as many as should not do homage to the image of the beast should be killed. <sup>16</sup> And it causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bondmen, that they should give them a mark upon their right hand or upon their forehead; <sup>17</sup> and that no one should be able to buy or sell save he that had the mark, the name of the beast, or the number of its name. <sup>18</sup> Here is wisdom. He that has understanding let him count the number of the beast: for it is a man's number; and its number [is] six hundred [and] sixty-six.

14

that song save the hundred [and] forty-four thousand who were bought from the earth. <sup>4</sup>These are they who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they who follow the Lamb wheresoever it goes. These have been bought from men [as] first-fruits to °God and to the Lamb: <sup>5</sup>and in their mouths was no lie found; [for] they are blameless. <sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having [the] everlasting glad tidings to announce to those settled on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, <sup>7</sup>saying with a loud voice, Fear °God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; and do homage to him who has made the heaven and the earth and the sea and fountains of waters. <sup>8</sup>And another, a second, angel followed, saying, Great Babylon has fallen, has fallen, which of the wine of the fury of her fornication has made all nations drink. <sup>9</sup>And another, a third, angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any one do homage to the beast and its image, and receive a mark upon his forehead or upon his hand, <sup>10</sup>he also shall drink of the wine of the fury of °God prepared unmixed in the cup of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy angels and before the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment goes up to ages of ages, and they have no respite day and night who do homage to the beast and to its image, and if any one receive the mark of its name. <sup>12</sup>Here is the endurance of the saints, who keep the commandments of °God and the faith of Jesus. <sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice out of the heaven saying, Write, Blessed the dead who die in [the] Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; for their works follow with them. <sup>14</sup>And I saw, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud one sitting like [the] Son of man, having upon his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. <sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send thy sickle and reap; for the hour of reaping is come, for the harvest of the earth is dried. <sup>16</sup>And he that sat on the cloud put his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. <sup>17</sup>And another angel came out of the temple which [is] in the heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And another angel came out of the altar, having power over fire, and called with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send thy sharp sickle, and gather the bunches of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripened. <sup>19</sup>And the angel put his sickle to the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast [the bunches] into the great wine-press of the fury of °God; <sup>20</sup>and the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood went out of the wine-press to the bits of the horses for a thousand six hundred stadia.

15

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another sign in the heaven, great and wonderful: seven angels having seven plagues, the last; for in them the fury of °God is completed. <sup>2</sup>And I saw as a glass sea, mingled with fire, and those that had gained the victory over the beast, and over its image, and over the number of its name, standing upon the glass sea, having harps of °God.

° 14:4 Elohim   ° 14:7 Elohim   ° 14:10 Elohim   ° 14:12 Elohim   ° 14:19 Elohim   ° 15:1 Elohim   ° 15:2 Elohim

<sup>3</sup> And they sing the song of Moses bondman of °God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and wonderful [are] thy works, Lord °God Almighty; righteous and true [are] thy ways, O King of nations. <sup>4</sup> Who shall not fear [thee], O Lord, and glorify thy name? for [thou] only [art] holy; for all nations shall come and do homage before thee; for thy righteousnesses have been made manifest. <sup>5</sup> And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of witness in the heaven was opened; <sup>6</sup> and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in pure bright linen, and girded about the breasts with golden girdles. <sup>7</sup> And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls, full of the fury of °God, who lives to the ages of ages. <sup>8</sup> And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of °God and from his power: and no one could enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

<sup>1</sup> And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go and pour out the seven bowls of the fury of °God upon the earth. <sup>2</sup> And the first went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and there came an evil and grievous sore upon the men that had the mark of the beast, and those who worshipped its image. <sup>3</sup> And the second poured out his bowl on the sea; and it became blood, as of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea. <sup>4</sup> And the third poured out his bowl on the rivers, and [on] the fountains of waters; and they became blood. <sup>5</sup> And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Thou art righteous, who art and wast, the holy one, that thou hast judged so; <sup>6</sup> for they have poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; they are worthy. <sup>7</sup> And I heard the altar saying, Yea, Lord °God Almighty, true and righteous [are] thy judgments. <sup>8</sup> And the fourth poured out his bowl on the sun; and it was given to it to burn men with fire. <sup>9</sup> And the men were burnt with great heat, and blasphemed the name of °God, who had authority over these plagues, and did not repent to give him glory. <sup>10</sup> And the fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast; and its kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues with distress, <sup>11</sup> and blasphemed the °God of the heaven for their distresses and their sores, and did not repent of their works. <sup>12</sup> And the sixth poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared. <sup>13</sup> And I saw out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as frogs; <sup>14</sup> for they are [the] spirits of demons, doing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole habitable world to gather them together to the war of [that] great day of °God the Almighty. <sup>15</sup> (Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed [is] he that watches and keeps his garments, that he may not walk naked, and that they [may not] see his shame.) <sup>16</sup> And he gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armagedon. <sup>17</sup> And the seventh poured out his bowl on the air; and there came out a great voice from the temple of the heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. <sup>18</sup> And there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, such an earthquake, so great. <sup>19</sup> And the great city was [divided] into three parts; and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon was remembered before °God to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of his wrath. <sup>20</sup> And every island fled, and mountains were not found; <sup>21</sup> and a great hail, as of a talent weight, comes down out of the heaven upon men; and men blasphemed °God because of the plague of hail, for the plague of it is exceeding great.

<sup>1</sup> And one of the seven angels, which had the seven bowls, came and spoke with me, saying, Come here, I will shew thee the sentence of the great harlot who sits upon the many waters; <sup>2</sup> with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; and they that dwell on the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. <sup>3</sup> And he carried me away in spirit to a desert; and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and had ornaments of gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and the unclean things of her fornication; <sup>5</sup> and upon her forehead a name written, Mystery, great Babylon, the mother of the harlots, and of the abominations of the earth. <sup>6</sup> And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. And I wondered, seeing her, with great wonder. <sup>7</sup> And the angel said to me, Why hast thou wondered? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast which carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup> The beast which thou sawest was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go into destruction: and they who dwell on the earth, whose names are not written from the founding of the world in the book of life, shall wonder, seeing the beast, that it was, and is not, and shall be present. <sup>9</sup> Here is the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains, whereon the woman sits. <sup>10</sup> And there are seven kings: five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes he must remain [only] a little while. <sup>11</sup> And the beast that was and is not, he also is an eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into destruction. <sup>12</sup> And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have not yet received a kingdom, but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast. <sup>13</sup> These have one mind, and give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup> These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them; for he is Lord of lords and King of kings: and they [that are] with him called, and chosen, and faithful. <sup>15</sup> And he says to me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup> And the ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her with fire; <sup>17</sup> for °God has given to their hearts to do his mind, and to act with one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of °God shall be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup> And the woman which thou sawest is the great city, which has kingship over the kings of the earth.

18

<sup>1</sup> After these things I saw another angel descending out of the heaven, having great authority: and the earth was lightened with his glory. <sup>2</sup> And he cried with a strong voice, saying, Great Babylon has fallen, has fallen, and has become the habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hated bird; <sup>3</sup> because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her fornication; and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have been enriched through the might of her luxury. <sup>4</sup> And I heard another voice out of the heaven saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye have not fellowship in her sins, and that ye do not receive of her plagues: <sup>5</sup> for her sins have been heaped on one another up to the heaven, and °God has remembered her unrighteousnesses. <sup>6</sup> Recompense her even as she has recompensed; and double [to her] double, according to her works. In the cup which she has mixed, mix to her double. <sup>7</sup> So much as she has glorified herself and lived luxuriously, so much torment and grief give to her. Because she says in her heart, I sit a queen, and I am not a widow; and I shall in no wise see grief: <sup>8</sup> for this reason in one day shall her plagues come, death and grief and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire; for strong [is the] Lord °God who has judged her. <sup>9</sup> And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived luxuriously with her, shall weep and wail over her, when they see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup> standing afar off, through fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in one hour thy judgment is come. <sup>11</sup> And the merchants of the earth weep and grieve over her, because no one buys their lading any more; <sup>12</sup> lading of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and pearl, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet dye, and all thine wood, and every article in ivory, and every article in most precious wood, and in brass, and in iron, and in marble, <sup>13</sup> and cinnamon, and amomum, and incense, and unguent, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and of horses, and of chariots, and of bodies, and souls of men. <sup>14</sup> And the ripe fruits which were the lust of thy soul have departed from thee, and all fair and splendid things have perished from thee, and they shall not find them any more at all. <sup>15</sup> The merchants of these things, who had been enriched through her, shall stand afar off through fear of her torment, weeping and grieving, <sup>16</sup> saying, Woe, woe, the great city, which [was] clothed with fine linen and purple and scarlet, and had ornaments of gold and precious stones and pearls! <sup>17</sup> for in one hour so great riches has been made desolate. And every steersman, and every one who sailed to any place, and sailors, and all who exercise their calling on the sea, stood afar off, <sup>18</sup> and cried, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What [city] is like to the great city? <sup>19</sup> and cast dust upon their heads, and cried, weeping and grieving, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, in which all that had ships in the sea were enriched through her costliness! for in one hour she has been made desolate. <sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her, heaven, and [ye] saints and apostles and prophets; for °God has judged your judgment upon her. <sup>21</sup> And a strong angel took up a stone, as a great millstone, and cast [it] into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall Babylon the great city be cast down, and shall be found no more at all; <sup>22</sup> and voice of harp-singers and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters shall not be heard any more at all in thee, and no artificer of any art shall be found any more at all in thee, and voice of millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee, <sup>23</sup> and light of lamp shall shine no more at all in thee, and voice of bridegroom and bride shall be heard no more at all in thee; for thy merchants were the great ones of the earth; for by thy sorcery have all the nations been deceived. <sup>24</sup> And in her was found [the] blood of prophets and saints, and of all the slain upon the earth.

<sup>1</sup> After these things I heard as a loud voice of a great multitude in the heaven, saying, Hallelujah: the salvation and the glory and the power of our °God: <sup>2</sup> for true and righteous [are] his judgments; for he has judged the great harlot which corrupted the earth with her fornication, and has avenged the blood of his bondmen at her hand. <sup>3</sup> And a second time they said, Hallelujah. And her smoke goes up to the ages of ages. <sup>4</sup> And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and did homage to °God who sits upon the throne, saying, Amen, Hallelujah. <sup>5</sup> And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our °God, all ye his bondmen, [and] ye that fear him, small and great. <sup>6</sup> And I heard as a voice of a great crowd, and as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of strong thunders, saying, Hallelujah, for [the] Lord our °God the Almighty has taken to himself kingly power. <sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and exult, and give him glory; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife has made herself ready. <sup>8</sup> And it was given to her that she should be clothed in fine linen, bright [and] pure; for the fine linen is the righteousnesses of the saints. <sup>9</sup> And he says to me, Write, Blessed [are] they who are called to the supper of the marriage of the Lamb. And he says to me, These are the true words of °God. <sup>10</sup> And I fell before his feet to do him homage. And he says to me, See [thou do it] not. I am thy fellow-bondman, and [the fellow-bondman] of thy brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Do homage to °God. For the spirit of prophecy is the testimony of Jesus. <sup>11</sup> And I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and one sitting on it, [called] Faithful and True, and he judges and makes war in righteousness. <sup>12</sup> And his eyes are a flame of fire, and upon his head many diadems, having a name written which no one knows but himself; <sup>13</sup> and [he is] clothed with a garment dipped in blood; and his name is called The Word of °God. <sup>14</sup> And the armies which [are] in the heaven followed him upon white horses, clad in white, pure, fine linen. <sup>15</sup> And out of his mouth goes a sharp [two-edged] sword, that with it he might smite the nations; and he shall shepherd them with an iron rod; and he treads the wine-press of the fury of the wrath of °God the Almighty.

<sup>16</sup> And he has upon his garment, and upon his thigh, a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords. <sup>17</sup> And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, Come, gather yourselves to the great supper of °God, <sup>18</sup> that ye may eat flesh of kings, and flesh of chiliarchs, and flesh of strong men, and flesh of horses and of those that sit upon them, and flesh of all, both free and bond, and small and great. <sup>19</sup> And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army. <sup>20</sup> And the beast was taken, and the false prophet that [was] with him, who wrought the signs before him by which he deceived them that received the mark of the beast, and those that worship his image. Alive were both cast into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone; <sup>21</sup> and the rest were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which goes out of his mouth; and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

<sup>1</sup> And I saw an angel descending from the heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup> And he laid hold of the dragon, the ancient serpent who is [the] devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, <sup>3</sup> and cast him into the abyss, and shut [it] and sealed [it] over him, that he should not any more deceive the nations until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must be loosed for a little time. <sup>4</sup> And I saw thrones; and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them; and the souls of those beheaded on account of the testimony of Jesus, and on account of the word of °God; and those who had not done homage to the beast nor to his image, and had not received the mark on their forehead and hand; and they lived and reigned with the Christ a thousand years: <sup>5</sup> the rest of the dead did not live till the thousand years had been completed. This [is] the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy he who has part in the first resurrection: over these the second death has no power; but they shall be priests of °God and of the Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. <sup>7</sup> And when the thousand years have been completed, Satan shall be loosed from his prison, <sup>8</sup> and shall go out to deceive the nations which [are] in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war, whose number [is] as the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup> And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city: and fire came down [from °God] out of the heaven and devoured them. <sup>10</sup> And the devil who deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where [are] both the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for the ages of ages. <sup>11</sup> And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled, and place was not found for them. <sup>12</sup> And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is [that] of life. And the dead were judged out of the things written in the books according to their works. <sup>13</sup> And the sea gave up the dead which [were] in it, and death and hades gave up the dead which [were] in them; and they were judged each according to their works: <sup>14</sup> and death and hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, [even] the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup> And if any one was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

<sup>1</sup> And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea exists no more. <sup>2</sup> And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of the heaven from °God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup> And I heard a loud voice out of the heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of °God [is] with men, and he shall tabernacle with them, and they shall be his people, and °God himself shall be with them, their °God. <sup>4</sup> And he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall not exist any more, nor grief, nor cry, nor distress shall exist any more, for the former things have passed away. <sup>5</sup> And he that sat on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he says [to me], Write, for these words are true and faithful. <sup>6</sup> And he said to me, It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him that thirsts of the fountain of the water of life freely. <sup>7</sup> He that overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be to him °God, and he shall be to me son. <sup>8</sup> But to the fearful and unbelieving, [and sinners], and those who make themselves abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part [is] in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone; which is the second death. <sup>9</sup> And there came one of the seven angels which had had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and spoke with me, saying, Come here, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. <sup>10</sup> And he carried me away in [the] Spirit, [and set me] on a great and high mountain, and shewed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of the heaven from °God, <sup>11</sup> having the glory of °God. Her shining [was] like a most precious stone, as a crystal-like jasper stone; <sup>12</sup> having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names inscribed, which are those of the twelve tribes of [the] sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup> On [the] east three gates; and on [the] north three gates; and on [the] south three gates; and on [the] west three gates. <sup>14</sup> And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup> And he that spoke with me had a golden reed [as] a measure, that he might measure the city, and its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup> And the city lies four-square, and its length [is] as much as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed — twelve thousand stadia: the length and the breadth and height of it are equal. <sup>17</sup> And he measured its wall, a hundred [and] forty-four cubits, [a] man's measure, that is, [the] angel's. <sup>18</sup> And the building of its wall [was] jasper; and the city pure gold, like pure glass: <sup>19</sup> the foundations of the wall of the city [were] adorned with every precious stone: the first foundation, jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; <sup>20</sup> the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. <sup>21</sup> And the twelve gates, twelve pearls; each one of the gates, respectively, was of one pearl; and the street of the city pure gold, as transparent glass. <sup>22</sup> And I saw no temple in it; for the Lord °God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. <sup>23</sup> And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon, that they should shine for it; for the glory of °God has enlightened it, and the lamp thereof [is] the Lamb. <sup>24</sup> And the nations shall walk by its light; and the kings of the earth bring their glory to it. <sup>25</sup> And its gates shall not be shut at all by day, for night shall not be there. <sup>26</sup> And they shall bring the glory and the honour of the nations to it. <sup>27</sup> And nothing common, nor that maketh an abomination and a lie, shall at all enter into it; but those only who [are] written in the book of life of the Lamb.

<sup>1</sup> And he shewed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, going out of the throne of °God and of the Lamb. <sup>2</sup> In the midst of its street, and of the river; on this side and on that side, [the] tree of life, producing twelve fruits, in each month yielding its fruit; and the leaves of the tree for healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup> And no curse shall be any more; and the throne of °God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him, <sup>4</sup> and they shall see his face; and his name [is] on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> And night shall not be any more, and no need of a lamp, and light of [the] sun; for [the] Lord °God shall shine upon them, and they shall reign to the ages of ages. <sup>6</sup> And he said to me, These words [are] faithful and true; and [the] Lord °God of the spirits of the prophets has sent his angel to shew to his bondmen the things which must soon come to pass. <sup>7</sup> And behold, I come quickly. Blessed [is] he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book. <sup>8</sup> And I, John, [was] he who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to do homage before the feet of the angel who shewed me these things. <sup>9</sup> And he says to me, See [thou do it] not. I am thy fellow-bondman, and [the fellow-bondman] of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Do homage to °God. <sup>10</sup> And he says to me, Seal not the words of the prophecy of this book. The time is near. <sup>11</sup> Let him that does unrighteously do unrighteously still; and let the filthy make himself filthy still; and let him that is righteous practise righteousness still; and he that is holy, let him be sanctified still. <sup>12</sup> Behold, I come quickly, and my reward with me, to render to every one as his work shall be. <sup>13</sup> I [am] the Alpha and the Omega, [the] first and [the] last, the beginning and the end. <sup>14</sup> Blessed [are] they that wash their robes, that they may have right to the tree of life, and that they should go in by the gates into the city. <sup>15</sup> Without [are] the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that loves and makes a lie. <sup>16</sup> I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify these things to you in the assemblies. I am the root and offspring of David, the bright [and] morning star. <sup>17</sup> And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that hears say, Come. And let him that is athirst come; he that will, let him take [the] water of life freely. <sup>18</sup> I testify to every one who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, If any one shall add to these things, °God shall add to him the plagues which are written in this book. <sup>19</sup> And if any one take from the words of the book of this prophecy, °God shall take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. <sup>20</sup> He that testifies these things says, Yea, I come quickly. Amen; come, Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [be] with all the saints.

The Psalms

1

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, and standeth not in the way of sinners, and sitteth not in the seat of scorners;
- <sup>2</sup> But his delight is in Jehovah's law, and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
- <sup>3</sup> And he [is] as a tree planted by brooks of water, which giveth its fruit in its season, and whose leaf fadeth not; and all that he doeth prospereth.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked are not so; but are as the chaff which the wind driveth away.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> For Jehovah knoweth the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

- <sup>1</sup> Why are the nations in tumultuous agitation, and [why] do the peoples meditate a vain thing?
- <sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth set themselves, and the princes plot together, against Jehovah and against his anointed:
- <sup>3</sup> Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us!
- <sup>4</sup> He that dwelleth in the heavens shall laugh, the Lord shall have them in derision.
- <sup>5</sup> Then will he speak to them in his anger, and in his fierce displeasure will he terrify them:
- <sup>6</sup> And I have anointed my king upon Zion, the hill of my holiness.
- <sup>7</sup> I will declare the decree: Jehovah hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; I this day have begotten thee.
- <sup>8</sup> Ask of me, and I will give thee nations for an inheritance, and for thy possession the ends of the earth:
- <sup>9</sup> Thou shalt break them with a sceptre of iron, as a potter's vessel thou shalt dash them in pieces.
- <sup>10</sup> And now, O kings, be ye wise, be admonished, ye judges of the earth.
- <sup>11</sup> Serve Jehovah with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
- <sup>12</sup> Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way, though his anger burn but a little. Blessed are all who have their trust in him.

3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, how many are they that trouble me, many they that rise up against me!
- <sup>2</sup> Many say of my soul, There is no salvation for him in °God. Selah.
- <sup>3</sup> But thou, Jehovah, art a shield about me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head.
- <sup>4</sup> With my voice will I call to Jehovah, and he will answer me from the hill of his holiness. Selah.
- <sup>5</sup> I laid me down and slept; I awaked, for Jehovah sustaineth me.

° 3:2 Elohim

- 6 I will not fear for myriads of the people that have set themselves against me round about.
- 7 Arise, Jehovah; save me, my °God! For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheekbone, thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.
- 8 Salvation is of Jehovah; thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

4

To the chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

- 1 When I call, answer me, O °God of my righteousness: in pressure thou hast enlarged me; be gracious unto me, and hear my prayer.
- 2 Ye sons of men, till when is my glory [to be put] to shame? [How long] will ye love vanity, will ye seek after a lie? Selah.
- 3 But know that Jehovah hath set apart the pious [man] for himself: Jehovah will hear when I call unto him.
- 4 Be moved with anger, and sin not; meditate in your own hearts upon your bed, and be still. Selah.
- 5 Offer sacrifices of righteousness, and confide in Jehovah.
- 6 Many say, Who shall cause us to see good? Lift up upon us the light of thy countenance, O Jehovah.
- 7 Thou hast put joy in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their new wine was in abundance.
- 8 In peace will I both lay me down and sleep; for thou, Jehovah, alone makest me to dwell in safety.

5

To the chief Musician. Upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Give ear to my words, O Jehovah; consider my meditation.
- 2 Hearken unto the voice of my crying, my king and my °God; for to thee will I pray.
- 3 Jehovah, in the morning shalt thou hear my voice; in the morning will I address myself to thee, and will look up.
- 4 For thou art not a *God that hath pleasure in wickedness; evil shall not sojourn with thee.
- 5 Insolent fools shall not stand before thine eyes; thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
- 6 Thou wilt destroy them that speak lies: Jehovah abhorreth a man of blood and deceit.
- 7 But as for me, in the greatness of thy loving-kindness will I enter thy house; I will bow down toward the temple of thy holiness in thy fear.
- 8 Lead me, Jehovah, in thy righteousness, because of my foes; make thy way plain before me.
- 9 For there is no certainty in their mouth; their inward part is perversion, their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.
- 10 Bring guilt upon them, O °God; let them fall by their own counsels: drive them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against thee.

- 11 And all that trust in thee shall rejoice: for ever shall they shout joyously, and thou wilt protect them; and they that love thy name shall exult in thee.
- 12 For thou, Jehovah, wilt bless the righteous [man]; with favour wilt thou surround him as [with] a shield.

6

To the chief Musician. On stringed instruments, upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Jehovah, rebuke me not in thine anger, and chasten me not in thy hot displeasure.
- 2 Be gracious unto me, Jehovah, for I am withered; Jehovah, heal me, for my bones tremble.
- 3 And my soul trembleth exceedingly: and thou, Jehovah, till how long?
- 4 Return, Jehovah, free my soul; save me for thy loving-kindness' sake.
- 5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee; in Sheol who shall give thanks unto thee?
- 6 I am wearied with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I dissolve my couch with my tears.
- 7 Mine eye wasteth away through grief; it hath grown old because of all mine oppressors.
- 8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for Jehovah hath heard the voice of my weeping.
- 9 Jehovah hath heard my supplication; Jehovah receiveth my prayer.
- 10 All mine enemies shall be ashamed and tremble exceedingly; they will turn, they will be ashamed suddenly.

7

Shiggaion of David, which he sang to Jehovah, concerning the words of Cush the Benjaminite.

- 1 Jehovah my °God, in thee have I trusted: save me from all my pursuers, and deliver me;
- 2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, crushing it while there is no deliverer.
- 3 Jehovah my °God, if I have done this, if there be iniquity in my hands;
- 4 If I have rewarded evil to him that was at peace with me; (indeed I have freed him that without cause oppressed me;)
- 5 Let the enemy pursue after my soul, and take [it], and let him tread down my life to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.
- 6 Arise, Jehovah, in thine anger; lift thyself up against the raging of mine oppressors, and awake for me: thou hast commanded judgment.
- 7 And the assembly of the peoples shall encompass thee; and for their sakes return thou on high.
- 8 Jehovah shall minister judgment to the peoples. Judge me, Jehovah, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity which is in me.
- 9 Oh let the wrong of the wicked come to an end, and establish thou the righteous [man]; even thou that triest the hearts and reins, the righteous °God.
- 10 My shield is with °God, who saveth the upright in heart.

- 11 <sup>o</sup> God is a righteous judge, and a * God who is indignant all the day.
 12 If one turn not, he will sharpen his sword; he hath bent his bow and made it ready, 13 And he hath prepared for him instruments of death; his arrows hath he made burning.
 14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, yea, he hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood:
 15 He digged a pit, and hollowed it out, and is fallen into the hole that he made.
 16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violence shall come down upon his own pate.
 17 I will praise Jehovah according to his righteousness, and will sing forth the name of Jehovah the Most High.

8

To the chief Musician. Upon the Gittith. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Jehovah our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy majesty above the heavens.
 2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established praise because of thine adversaries, to still the enemy and the avenger.
 3 When I see thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and stars, which thou hast established;
 4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
 5 Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and splendour.
 6 Thou hast made him to rule over the works of thy hands; thou hast put everything under his feet:
 7 Sheep and oxen, all of them, and also the beasts of the field;
 8 The fowl of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, [whatever] passeth through the paths of the seas.
 9 Jehovah our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

9

To the chief Musician. Upon Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

- 1 I will praise Jehovah with my whole heart; I will recount all thy marvellous works.
 2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee; I will sing forth thy name, O Most High.
 3 When mine enemies turned back, they stumbled and perished at thy presence:
 4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause. Thou sittest on the throne, judging righteously.
 5 Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked; thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
 6 O enemy! destructions are ended for ever. — Thou hast also destroyed cities, even the remembrance of them hath perished.
 7 But Jehovah sitteth for ever; he hath ordained his throne for judgment.
 8 And it is he that will judge the world with righteousness; he shall execute judgment upon the peoples with equity.

- <sup>9</sup> And Jehovah will be a refuge to the oppressed one, a refuge in times of distress.
- <sup>10</sup> And they that know thy name will confide in thee; for thou, Jehovah, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.
- <sup>11</sup> Sing psalms to Jehovah who dwelleth in Zion; tell among the peoples his doings.
- <sup>12</sup> For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them; the cry of the afflicted ones hath he not forgotten.
- <sup>13</sup> Be gracious unto me, O Jehovah; consider mine affliction from them that hate me, lifting me up from the gates of death:
- <sup>14</sup> That I may declare all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion. I will be joyful in thy salvation.
- <sup>15</sup> The nations are sunk down in the pit [that] they made; in the net that they hid is their own foot taken.
- <sup>16</sup> Jehovah is known [by] the judgment he hath executed: the wicked is ensnared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.
- <sup>17</sup> The wicked shall be turned into Sheol, all the nations that forget °God.
- <sup>18</sup> For the needy one shall not be forgotten alway; the hope of the meek shall not perish for ever.
- <sup>19</sup> Arise, Jehovah; let not man prevail: let the nations be judged in thy sight.
- <sup>20</sup> Put them in fear, Jehovah: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

- <sup>1</sup> Why, Jehovah, standest thou afar off? [Why] hidest thou thyself in times of distress?
- <sup>2</sup> The wicked, in his pride, doth hotly pursue the afflicted. They shall be taken in the devices that they have imagined.
- <sup>3</sup> For the wicked boasteth of his soul's desire, and he blesseth the covetous; he contemneth Jehovah.
- <sup>4</sup> The wicked [saith], in the haughtiness of his countenance, He doth not search out: all his thoughts are, There is no °God!
- <sup>5</sup> His ways always succeed; thy judgments are far above out of his sight; [as for] all his adversaries, he puffeth at them.
- <sup>6</sup> He saith in his heart, I shall not be moved; from generation to generation I shall be in no adversity.
- <sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of cursing, and deceit, and oppression; under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
- <sup>8</sup> He sitteth in the lurking-places of the villages; in the secret places doth he slay the innocent: his eyes watch for the wretched.
- <sup>9</sup> He lieth in wait secretly, like a lion in his thicket; he lieth in wait to catch the afflicted: he doth catch the afflicted, drawing him into his net.
- <sup>10</sup> He croucheth, he boweth down, that the wretched may fall by his strong ones.
- <sup>11</sup> He saith in his heart, *God hath forgotten, he hideth his face, he will never see [it].
- <sup>12</sup> Arise, Jehovah; O *God, lift up thy hand: forget not the afflicted.

- 13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn °God? He hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require [it].
- 14 Thou hast seen [it], for thou thyself beholdest trouble and vexation, to requite by thy hand. The wretched committeth himself unto thee; thou hast been the helper of the fatherless.
- 15 Break thou the arm of the wicked, and as for the evil man, seek out his wickedness [till] thou find none.
- 16 Jehovah is King for ever and ever: the nations have perished out of his land.
- 17 Jehovah, thou hast heard the desire of the meek, thou hast established their heart: thou causest thine ear to hear,
- 18 To do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed one, that the man of the earth may terrify no more.

11

To the chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

- 1 In Jehovah have I put my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee [as] a bird to your mountain?
- 2 For behold, the wicked bend the bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may in darkness shoot at the upright in heart.
- 3 If the foundations be destroyed, what shall the righteous do?
- 4 Jehovah [is] in the temple of his holiness; Jehovah, — his throne is in the heavens: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.
- 5 Jehovah trieth the righteous one; but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.
- 6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone; and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
- 7 For righteous is Jehovah; he loveth righteousness, his countenance doth behold the upright.

12

To the chief Musician. Upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Save, Jehovah, for the °godly man is gone; for the faithful have failed from among the children of men.
- 2 They speak falsehood every one with his neighbour: [with] flattering lip, with a double heart, do they speak.
- 3 Jehovah will cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that speaketh proud things,
- 4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail, our lips are our own:
who [is] lord over us?
- 5 Because of the oppression of the afflicted, because of the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith Jehovah, I will set [him] in safety, at whom they puff.
- 6 The words of Jehovah are pure words, silver tried in the furnace of earth, purified seven times.
- 7 Thou, Jehovah, wilt keep them, thou wilt preserve them from this generation for ever.
- 8 The wicked walk about on every side, when vileness is exalted among the children of men.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> How long, Jehovah, wilt thou forget me for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
- <sup>2</sup> How long shall I take counsel in my soul, with sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?
- <sup>3</sup> Consider, answer me, O Jehovah my °God! lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the [sleep of] death;
- <sup>4</sup> Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him! [lest] mine adversaries be joyful when I am moved.
- <sup>5</sup> As for me, I have confided in thy loving-kindness; my heart shall be joyful in thy salvation.
- <sup>6</sup> I will sing unto Jehovah, for he hath dealt bountifully with me.

To the chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The fool hath said in his heart, There is no °God. They have corrupted themselves, they have done abominable works: there is none that doeth good.
- <sup>2</sup> Jehovah looked down from the heavens upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek °God.
- <sup>3</sup> They have all gone aside, they are together become corrupt: there is none that doeth good, not even one.
- <sup>4</sup> Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, eating up my people [as] they eat bread? They call not upon Jehovah.
- <sup>5</sup> There were they in great fear; for °God is in the generation of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> Ye have shamed the counsel of the afflicted, because Jehovah [was] his refuge.
- <sup>7</sup> Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When Jehovah turneth again the captivity of his people, Jacob shall be glad, Israel shall rejoice.

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tent? who shall dwell in the hill of thy holiness?
- <sup>2</sup> He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth from his heart.
- <sup>3</sup> [He that] slandereth not with his tongue, doeth not evil to his companion, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour;
- <sup>4</sup> In whose eyes the depraved person is contemned, and who honoureth them that fear Jehovah; who, if he have sworn to his own hurt, changeth it not;
- <sup>5</sup> [He that] putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these [things] shall never be moved.

Michtam of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Preserve me, O *God: for I trust in thee.

- 2 Thou [my soul] hast said to Jehovah, Thou art the Lord: my goodness [extendeth] not to thee; —
- 3 To the saints that are on the earth, and to the excellent [thou hast said], In them is all my delight.
- 4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, and I will not take up their names into my lips.
- 5 Jehovah is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.
- 6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless Jehovah, who giveth me counsel; even in the nights my reins instruct me.
- 8 I have set Jehovah continually before me; because [he is] at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
- 9 Therefore my heart rejoiceth, and my glory exulteth; my flesh moreover shall dwell in hope.
- 10 For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol, neither wilt thou allow thy Holy One to see corruption.
- 11 Thou wilt make known to me the path of life: thy countenance is fulness of joy; at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

A Prayer of David.

- 1 Hear the right, O Jehovah, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, which is not out of feigned lips.
- 2 Let my judgment come forth from thy presence, let thine eyes regard equity.
- 3 Thou hast proved my heart, thou hast visited me by night; thou hast tried me, thou hast found nothing: my thought goeth not beyond my word.
- 4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept from the paths of the violent [man].
- 5 When thou holdest my goings in thy paths, my footsteps slip not.
- 6 I have called upon thee, for thou answerest me, O *God. Incline thine ear unto me, hear my speech.
- 7 Shew wondrously thy loving-kindnesses, O thou that savest by thy right hand them that trust [in thee] from those that rise up [against them].
- 8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings,
- 9 From the wicked that destroy me, my deadly enemies, who compass me about.
- 10 They are enclosed in their own fat; with their mouth they speak proudly.
- 11 They have now encompassed us in our steps; their eyes have they set, bowing down to the earth.
- 12 He is like a lion that is greedy of its prey, and as a young lion lurking in secret places.
- 13 Arise, Jehovah, anticipate him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, thy sword;

* 17:6 El

- 14 From men [who are] thy hand, O Jehovah, from men of this age: their portion is in [this] life, and their belly thou fillest with thy hid [treasure]; they have their fill of sons, and leave the rest of their [substance] to their children.
- 15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

To the chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David, the servant of Jehovah, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul. And he said,

- 1 I will love thee, O Jehovah, my strength.
- 2 Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my *God, my rock, in whom I will trust; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
- 3 I will call upon Jehovah, who is to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.
- 4 The bands of death encompassed me, and torrents of Belial made me afraid.
- 5 The bands of Sheol surrounded me, the cords of death encountered me.
- 6 In my distress I called upon Jehovah, and I cried out to my °God; he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, into his ears.
- 7 Then the earth shook and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains trembled and shook, because he was wroth.
- 8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals burned forth from it.
- 9 And he bowed the heavens, and came down; and darkness was under his feet.
- 10 And he rode upon a cherub and did fly; yea, he flew fast upon the wings of the wind.
- 11 He made darkness his secret place, his tent round about him: darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
- 12 From the brightness before him his thick clouds passed forth: hail and coals of fire.
- 13 And Jehovah thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice: hail and coals of fire.
- 14 And he sent his arrows, and scattered [mine enemies]; and he shot forth lightnings, and discomfited them.
- 15 And the beds of the waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were uncovered at thy rebuke, Jehovah, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
- 16 He reached forth from above, he took me, he drew me out of great waters:
- 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me; for they were mightier than I.
- 18 They encountered me in the day of my calamity, but Jehovah was my stay.
- 19 And he brought me forth into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

* 18:2 El   ° 18:6 Elohim

- 20 Jehovah hath rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, and have not wickedly departed from my °God.
- 22 For all his ordinances were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me;
- 23 And I was upright with him, and kept myself from mine iniquity.
- 24 And Jehovah hath recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.
- 25 With the gracious thou dost shew thyself gracious; with the upright man thou dost shew thyself upright;
- 26 With the pure thou dost shew thyself pure; and with the perverse thou dost shew thyself contrary.
- 27 For it is thou that savest the afflicted people; but the haughty eyes wilt thou bring down.
- 28 For it is thou that makest my lamp to shine: Jehovah my °God enlighteneth my darkness.
- 29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my °God have I leaped over a wall.
- 30 As for *God, his way is perfect; the word of Jehovah is tried: he is a shield to all that trust in him.
- 31 For who is *God save Jehovah? and who is a rock if not our °God?
- 32 The *God who girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect,
- 33 Who maketh my feet like hinds' [feet], and setteth me upon my high places;
- 34 Who teacheth my hands to war, and mine arms bend a bow of brass;
- 35 And thou didst give me the shield of thy salvation, and thy right hand held me up; and thy condescending gentleness hath made me great.
- 36 Thou didst enlarge my steps under me, and mine ankles have not wavered.
- 37 I pursued mine enemies, and overtook them; and I turned not again till they were consumed.
- 38 I crushed them, and they were not able to rise: they fell under my feet.
- 39 And thou girdedst me with strength to battle; thou didst subdue under me those that rose up against me.
- 40 And mine enemies didst thou make to turn their backs unto me, and those that hated me I destroyed.
- 41 They cried, and there was none to save; — unto Jehovah, and he answered them not.
- 42 And I did beat them small as dust before the wind; I did cast them out as the mire of the streets.
- 43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; thou hast made me the head of the nations: a people I knew not doth serve me.
- 44 At the hearing of the ear, they obey me: strangers come cringing unto me.
- 45 Strangers have faded away, and they come trembling forth from their close places.

 47 The *God who hath avenged me, and hath subjected the peoples to me;
 48 Who hath delivered me from mine enemies: yea, thou hast lifted me up above them that rose up against me; from the man of violence hast thou delivered me.
 49 Therefore will I give thanks to thee, Jehovah, among the nations, and will sing psalms to thy name.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of *God; and the expanse sheweth the work of his hands.
 2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.
 3 There is no speech and there are no words, yet their voice is heard.
 4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their language to the extremity of the world. In them hath he set a tent for the sun,
 5 And he is as a bridegroom going forth from his chamber; he rejoiceth as a strong man to run the race.
 6 His going forth is from the end of the heavens, and his circuit unto the ends of it; and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
 7 The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul; the testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple;
 8 The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes;
 9 The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever; the judgments of Jehovah are truth, they are righteous altogether:
 10 They are more precious than gold, yea, than much fine gold; and sweeter than honey and the dropping of the honeycomb.
 11 Moreover, by them is thy servant enlightened; in keeping them there is great reward.
 12 Who understandeth [his] errors? Purify me from secret [faults].
 13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous [sins]; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be perfect, and I shall be innocent from great transgression.
 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Jehovah answer thee in the day of trouble; the name of the °God of Jacob protect thee;
 2 May he send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion;
 3 Remember all thine oblations, and accept thy burnt-offering; Selah.
 4 Grant thee according to thy heart, and fulfil all thy counsels.

- 5 We will triumph in thy salvation, and in the name of our °God will we set up our banners. Jehovah fulfil all thy petitions!
- 6 Now know I that Jehovah saveth his anointed; he answereth him from the heavens of his holiness, with the saving strength of his right hand.
- 7 Some make mention of chariots, and some of horses, but we of the name of Jehovah our °God.
- 8 They are bowed down and fallen; but we are risen and stand upright.
- 9 Save, Jehovah! Let the king answer us in the day we call.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 The king shall joy in thy strength, Jehovah; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice.
- 2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.
- 3 For thou hast met him with the blessings of goodness; thou hast set a crown of pure gold on his head.
- 4 He asked life of thee; thou gavest [it] him, length of days for ever and ever.
- 5 His glory is great through thy salvation; majesty and splendour hast thou laid upon him.
- 6 For thou hast made him to be blessings for ever; thou hast filled him with joy by thy countenance.
- 7 For the king confideth in Jehovah: and through the loving-kindness of the Most High he shall not be moved.
- 8 Thy hand shall find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.
- 9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery furnace in the time of thy presence; Jehovah shall swallow them up in his anger, and the fire shall devour them:
- 10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
- 11 For they intended evil against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they could not execute.
- 12 For thou wilt make them turn their back; thou wilt make ready thy bowstring against their face.
- 13 Be thou exalted, Jehovah, in thine own strength: we will sing and celebrate thy power.

To the chief Musician. Upon Aijeleth-Shahar. A Psalm of David.

- 1 My *God, my *God, why hast thou forsaken me? [why art thou] far from my salvation, from the words of my groaning?
- 2 My °God, I cry by day, and thou answerest not; and by night, and there is no rest for me:
- 3 And thou art holy, thou that dwellest amid the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our fathers confided in thee: they confided, and thou didst deliver them.

- 5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered; they confided in thee, and were not confounded.
- 6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and the despised of the people.
- 7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, [saying:]
- 8 Commit it to Jehovah — let him rescue him; let him deliver him, because he delighteth in him!
- 9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me trust, upon my mother's breasts.
- 10 I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my *God from my mother's belly.
- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is none to help.
- 12 Many bulls have encompassed me; Bashan's strong ones have beset me round.
- 13 They gape upon me with their mouth, [as] a ravening and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is become like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.
- 15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my palate; and thou hast laid me in the dust of death.
- 16 For dogs have encompassed me; an assembly of evil-doers have surrounded me: they pierced my hands and my feet.
- 17 I may count all my bones. They look, they stare upon me;
- 18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.
- 19 But thou, Jehovah, be not far [from me]; O my strength, haste thee to help me.
- 20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my only one from the power of the dog;
- 21 Save me from the lion's mouth. Yea, from the horns of the buffaloes hast thou answered me.
- 22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
- 23 Ye that fear Jehovah, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and revere him, all ye the seed of Israel.
- 24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him: but when he cried unto him, he heard.
- 25 My praise is from thee, in the great congregation; I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
- 26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied; they shall praise Jehovah that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.
- 27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto Jehovah, and all the families of the nations shall worship before thee:
- 28 For the kingdom is Jehovah's, and he ruleth among the nations.
- 29 All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship; all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him, and he that cannot keep alive his own soul.
- 30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

<sup>2</sup> My °God, I confide in thee; let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

<sup>3</sup> Yea, none that wait on thee shall be ashamed: they shall be ashamed that deal treacherously without cause.

<sup>4</sup> Make me to know thy ways, O Jehovah; teach me thy paths.

<sup>5</sup> Make me to walk in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the °God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

- 6 Remember, Jehovah, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for they are from everlasting.
- 7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions; according to thy loving-kindness remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, Jehovah.
- 8 Good and upright is Jehovah; therefore will he instruct sinners in the way:
- 9 The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.
- 10 All the paths of Jehovah are loving-kindness and truth for such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
- 11 For thy name's sake, O Jehovah, thou wilt indeed pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.
- 12 What man is he that feareth Jehovah? him will he instruct in the way [that] he should choose.
- 13 His soul shall dwell in prosperity, and his seed shall inherit the earth.
- 14 The secret of Jehovah is with them that fear him, that he may make known his covenant to them.
- 15 Mine eyes are ever toward Jehovah; for he will bring my feet out of the net.
- 16 Turn toward me, and be gracious unto me; for I am solitary and afflicted.
- 17 The troubles of my heart are increased: bring me out of my distresses;
- 18 Consider mine affliction and my travail, and forgive all my sins.
- 19 Consider mine enemies, for they are many, and they hate me [with] cruel hatred.
- 20 Keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I trust in thee.

- 4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither have I gone in with dissemblers;
- 5 I have hated the congregation of evil-doers, and I have not sat with the wicked.
- 6 I will wash my hands in innocency, and will encompass thine altar, O Jehovah,
- 7 That I may cause the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and declare all thy marvellous works.
- 8 Jehovah, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thy glory dwelleth.
- 9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with men of blood;

A Psalm of David: dedication-song of the house.

- 1 I will extol thee, Jehovah; for thou hast delivered me, and hast not made mine enemies to rejoice over me.
 2 Jehovah my °God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.
 3 Jehovah, thou hast brought up my soul from Sheol, thou hast quickened me from among those that go down to the pit.
 4 Sing psalms unto Jehovah, ye saints of his, and give thanks in remembrance of his holiness.
 5 For a moment [is passed] in his anger, a life in his favour; at even weeping cometh for the night, and at morn there is rejoicing.
 6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, I shall never be moved.
 7 Jehovah, by thy favour thou hadst made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face; I was troubled.
 8 I called to thee, Jehovah, and unto the Lord did I make supplication:
 9 What profit is there in my blood, in my going down to the pit? shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 In thee, Jehovah, do I trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.
 2 Incline thine ear to me, deliver me speedily; be a strong rock to me, a house of defence to save me.
 3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; and, for thy name's sake, thou wilt lead me and guide me.
 4 Draw me out of the net that they have hidden for me; for thou art my strength.
 5 Into thy hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, Jehovah, [thou] *God of truth.
 6 I have hated them that observe lying vanities; and as for me, I have confided in Jehovah.
 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy loving-kindness, for thou hast seen mine affliction; thou hast known the troubles of my soul,
 8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large place.
 9 Be gracious unto me, Jehovah, for I am in trouble: mine eye wasteth away with vexation, my soul and my belly.
 10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength faileth through mine iniquity, and my bones are wasted.
 11 More than to all mine oppressors, I am become exceedingly a reproach, even to my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that see me without flee from me.
 12 I am forgotten in [their] heart as a dead man; I am become like a broken vessel.
 13 For I have heard the slander of many — terror on every side — when they take counsel together against me: they plot to take away my life.
 14 But I confided in thee, Jehovah; I said, thou art my °God.
 15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from my persecutors.
 16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; save me in thy loving-kindness.
 17 Jehovah, let me not be ashamed; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, let them be silent in Sheol.
 18 Let the lying lips become dumb, which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt.
 19 [Oh] how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, [which] thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee, before the sons of men!
 20 Thou keepest them concealed in the secret of thy presence from the conspiracies of man; thou hidest them in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

- 21 Blessed be Jehovah; for he hath shewn me wondrously his loving-kindness in a strong city.
- 22 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes; nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
- 23 Love Jehovah, all ye his saints. Jehovah preserveth the faithful, and plentifully requiteth the proud doer.
- 24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all ye that hope in Jehovah.

Of David. Instruction.

- 1 Blessed is he [whose] transgression is forgiven, [whose] sin is covered!
- 2 Blessed is the man unto whom Jehovah reckoneth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile!
- 3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old, through my groaning all the day long.
- 4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me; my moisture was turned into the drouth of summer. Selah.
- 5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity I covered not; I said, I will confess my transgressions unto Jehovah, and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.
- 6 For this shall every one that is <sup>o</sup>godly pray unto thee at a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they will not reach him.
- 7 Thou art a hiding-place for me; thou preservest me from trouble; thou dost encompass me with songs of deliverance. Selah.
- 8 I will instruct thee and teach thee the way in which thou shalt go; I will counsel [thee] with mine eye upon thee.
- 9 Be ye not as a horse, as a mule, which have no understanding: whose trappings must be bit and bridle, for restraint, or they will not come unto thee.
- 10 Many sorrows hath the wicked; but he that confideth in Jehovah, loving-kindness shall encompass him.
- 11 Rejoice in Jehovah, and be glad, ye righteous; and shout for joy, all ye upright in heart.

33

- 1 Exult, ye righteous, in Jehovah: praise is comely for the upright.
- 2 Give thanks unto Jehovah with the harp; sing psalms unto him with the ten-stringed lute.
- 3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud sound.
- 4 For the word of Jehovah is right, and all his work is in faithfulness.
- 5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the loving-kindness of Jehovah.
- 6 By the word of Jehovah were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
- 7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap; he layeth up the deeps in storehouses.
- 8 Let all the earth fear Jehovah; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

<sup>o</sup> 32:6 Elohim

- 9 For he spoke, and it was [done]; he commanded, and it stood fast.
 10 Jehovah frustrateth the counsel of the nations; he maketh the thoughts of the peoples of none effect.
 11 The counsel of Jehovah standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.
 12 Blessed is the nation whose °God is Jehovah, the people that he hath chosen for his inheritance!
 13 Jehovah looketh from the heavens; he beholdeth all the sons of men:
 14 From the place of his habitation he looketh forth upon all the inhabitants of the earth;
 15 He who fashioneth the hearts of them all, who considereth all their works.
 16 The king is not saved by the multitude of [his] forces; a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.
 17 The horse is a vain thing for safety; neither doth he deliver by his great power.
 18 Behold, the eye of Jehovah is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his loving-kindness, 19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
 20 Our soul waiteth for Jehovah: he is our help and our shield.
 21 For in him shall our heart rejoice, because we have confided in his holy name.
 22 Let thy loving-kindness, O Jehovah, be upon us, according as we have hoped in thee.

34

[A Psalm] of David; when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

- 1 I will bless Jehovah at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
 2 My soul shall make its boast in Jehovah: the meek shall hear, and rejoice.
 3 Magnify Jehovah with me, and let us exalt his name together.
 4 I sought Jehovah, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
 5 They looked unto him, and were enlightened, and their faces were not confounded.
 6 This afflicted one called, and Jehovah heard [him], and saved him out of all his troubles.
 7 The angel of Jehovah encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
 8 Taste and see that Jehovah is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him!
 9 Fear Jehovah, ye his saints; for there is no want to them that fear him.
 10 The young lions are in need and suffer hunger; but they that seek Jehovah shall not want any good.
 11 Come, ye sons, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.
 12 What man is he that desireth life, [and] loveth days, that he may see good?
 13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile;
 14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

° 33:12 Elohim

- 15 The eyes of Jehovah are upon the righteous, and his ears are toward their cry;
- 16 The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth:
- 17 [The righteous] cry, and Jehovah heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.
- 18 Jehovah is nigh to those that are of a broken heart, and saveth them that are of a contrite spirit.
- 19 Many are the adversities of the righteous, but Jehovah delivereth him out of them all:
- 20 He keepeth all his bones; not one of them is broken.
- 21 Evil shall destroy the wicked; and they that hate the righteous shall bear their guilt.
- 22 Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall bear guilt.

35

[A Psalm] of David.

- 1 Strive, O Jehovah, with them that strive with me; fight against them that fight against me:
- 2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help;
- 3 And draw out the spear, and stop [the way] against my pursuers: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.
- 4 Let them be put to shame and confounded that seek after my life; let them be turned backward and brought to confusion that devise my hurt:
- 5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, and let the angel of Jehovah drive [them] away;
- 6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the angel of Jehovah pursue them.
- 7 For without cause have they hidden for me their net [in] a pit; without cause they have digged [it] for my soul.
- 8 Let destruction come upon him unawares, and let his net which he hath hidden catch himself: for destruction let him fall therein.
- 9 And my soul shall be joyful in Jehovah; it shall rejoice in his salvation.
- 10 All my bones shall say, Jehovah, who is like unto thee, who deliverest the afflicted from one stronger than he, yea, the afflicted and the needy from him that spoileth him!
- 11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up; they lay to my charge things which I know not.
- 12 They reward me evil for good, [to] the bereavement of my soul.
- 13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth; I chastened my soul with fasting, and my prayer returned into mine own bosom:
- 14 I behaved myself as though [he had been] a friend, a brother to me; I bowed down in sadness, as one that mourneth [for] a mother.
- 15 But at my halting they rejoiced, and gathered together: the slanderers gathered themselves together against me, and I knew [it] not; they did tear [me], and ceased not:
- 16 With profane jesters for bread, they have gnashed their teeth against me.

- 17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? Rescue my soul from their destructions, my only one from the young lions.
- 18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation; I will praise thee among much people.
- 19 Let not them that are wrongfully mine enemies rejoice over me; let them not wink with the eye that hate me without cause.
- 20 For they speak not peace; and they devise deceitful words against the quiet in the land.
- 21 And they opened their mouth wide against me; they said, Aha! aha! our eye hath seen [it].
- 22 Thou hast seen [it], Jehovah: keep not silence; O Lord, be not far from me.
- 23 Stir up thyself, and awake for my right, for my cause, my °God and Lord!
- 24 Judge me, Jehovah my °God, according to thy righteousness, and let them not rejoice over me.
- 25 Let them not say in their heart, Aha! so would we have it. Let them not say, We have swallowed him up.
- 26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine adversity; let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.
- 27 Let them exult and rejoice that delight in my righteousness; and let them say continually, Jehovah be magnified, who delighteth in the prosperity of his servant.
- 28 And my tongue shall talk of thy righteousness, [and] of thy praise, all the day.

36

To the chief Musician. [A Psalm] of the servant of Jehovah; of David.

- 1 The transgression of the wicked uttereth within my heart, There is no fear of °God before his eyes.
- 2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, [even] when his iniquity is found to be hateful.
- 3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, to do good.
- 4 He deviseth wickedness up on his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good: he abhorreth not evil.
- 5 Jehovah, thy loving-kindness is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness [reacheth] unto the clouds.
- 6 Thy righteousness is like the high mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: thou, Jehovah, preservest man and beast.
- 7 How precious is thy loving-kindness, O °God! So the sons of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.
- 8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou wilt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.
- 9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.
- 10 Continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee, and thy righteousness to the upright in heart;

- 11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and are not able to rise.

37

[A Psalm] of David.

- 1 Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, and be not envious of them that work unrighteousness;
2 for they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and fade as the green herb.
3 Confide in Jehovah, and do good; dwell in the land, and feed on faithfulness;
4 and delight thyself in Jehovah, and he will give thee the desires of thy heart.
5 Commit thy way unto Jehovah, and rely upon him: he will bring [it] to pass;
6 and he will bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.
7 Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him that prospereth in his way, because of the man that bringeth mischievous devices to pass.
8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; fret not thyself: it [would be] only to do evil.
9 For evil-doers shall be cut off; but those that wait on Jehovah, they shall possess the land.
10 For yet a little while, and the wicked is not; and thou considerest his place, but he is not.
11 But the meek shall possess the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of prosperity.
12 The wicked plotteth against the righteous, and gnasheth his teeth against him.
13 The Lord laugheth at him; for he seeth that his day is coming.
14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the afflicted and needy, to slay those that are upright in [the] way:
15 their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.
16 The little that the righteous hath is better than the abundance of many wicked;
17 for the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but Jehovah upholdeth the righteous.
18 Jehovah knoweth the days of the perfect; and their inheritance shall be for ever:
19 they shall not be ashamed in the time of evil, and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
20 For the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of Jehovah shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume, like smoke shall they consume away.
21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again; but the righteous is gracious and giveth:

- 22 for those blessed of him shall possess the land, and they that are cursed of him shall be cut off.
- 23 The steps of a man are established by Jehovah, and he delighteth in his way:
- 24 though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down, for Jehovah upholdeth his hand.
- 25 I have been young, and now am old, and I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed seeking bread:
- 26 all the day he is gracious and lendeth, and his seed shall be a blessing.
- 27 Depart from evil, and do good, and dwell for evermore;
- 28 for Jehovah loveth judgment, and will not forsake his saints: They are preserved for ever; but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
- 29 The righteous shall possess the land, and dwell therein for ever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous proffereth wisdom, and his tongue speaketh judgment;
- 31 the law of his <sup>o</sup>God is in his heart; his goings shall not slide.
- 32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him:
- 33 Jehovah will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.
- 34 Wait for Jehovah, and keep his way, and he will exalt thee to possess the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see [it].
- 35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading like a green tree in its native soil:
- 36 but he passed away, and behold, he was not; and I sought him, but he was not found.
- 37 Mark the perfect, and behold the upright, for the end of [that] man is peace;
- 38 but the transgressors shall be destroyed together; the future of the wicked shall be cut off.
- 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of Jehovah: he is their strength in the time of trouble.
- 40 And Jehovah will help them and deliver them: he will deliver them from the wicked, and save them; for they trust in him.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- 1 Jehovah, rebuke me not in thy wrath; neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
- 2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand cometh down upon me.
- 3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine indignation; no peace in my bones, because of my sin.
- 4 For mine iniquities are gone over my head: as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
- 5 My wounds stink, they are corrupt, because of my foolishness.
- 6 I am depressed; I am bowed down beyond measure; I go mourning all the day.
- 7 For my loins are full of burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.
- 8 I am faint and broken beyond measure; I roar by reason of the agitation of my heart.
- 9 Lord, all my desire is before thee, and my sighing is not hid from thee.

- 10 My heart throbbed, my strength hath left me; and the light of mine eyes, it also is no more with me.
- 11 My lovers and mine associates stand aloof from my stroke; and my kinsmen stand afar off.
- 12 And they that seek after my life lay snares [for me]; and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all the day long.
- 13 But I, as a deaf [man], hear not; and am as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
- 14 Yea, I am as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
- 15 For in thee, Jehovah, do I hope: thou wilt answer, O Lord my °God.
- 16 For I said, Let them not rejoice over me! When my foot slipped, they magnified [themselves] against me.
- 17 For I am ready to halt, and my pain is continually before me.
- 18 For I will declare mine iniquity, I am grieved for my sin.
- 19 But mine enemies are lively, they are strong; and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied:
- 20 And they that render evil for good are adversaries unto me; because I pursue what is good.
- 21 Forsake me not, Jehovah; O my °God, be not far from me.
- 22 Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

39

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

- 1 I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a muzzle, while the wicked is before me.
- 2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace from good; and my sorrow was stirred.
- 3 My heart burned within me; the fire was kindled in my musing: I spoke with my tongue,
- 4 Make me to know, Jehovah, mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is: I shall know how frail I am.
- 5 Behold, thou hast made my days [as] hand-breadths, and my lifetime is as nothing before thee; verily, every man, [even] the high placed, is altogether vanity. Selah.
- 6 Verily, man walketh in a vain show; verily they are disquieted in vain; he heapeth up [riches], and knoweth not who shall gather them.
- 7 And now, what wait I for, Lord? my hope is in thee.
- 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions; make me not the reproach of the foolish.
- 9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; for thou hast done [it].
- 10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thy hand.
- 11 When thou with rebukes dost correct a man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely, every man is vanity. Selah.
- 12 Hear my prayer, Jehovah, and give ear unto my cry; be not silent at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, a sojourner, like all my fathers.

13 Look away from me, and let me recover strength, before I go hence and be no more.

40

To the chief Musician. Of David. A Psalm.

- 1 I waited patiently for Jehovah; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.
- 2 And he brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock; he hath established my goings:
- 3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, praise unto our °God. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall confide in Jehovah.
- 4 Blessed is the man that hath made Jehovah his confidence, and turneth not to the proud, and to such as turn aside to lies.
- 5 Thou, O Jehovah my °God, hast multiplied thy marvellous works, and thy thoughts toward us: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee; would I declare and speak [them], they are more than can be numbered.
- 6 Sacrifice and oblation thou didst not desire: ears hast thou prepared me. Burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not demanded;
- 7 Then said I, Behold, I come, in the volume of the book it is written of me
- 8 To do thy good pleasure, my °God, is my delight, and thy law is within my heart.
- 9 I have published righteousness in the great congregation: behold, I have not withheld my lips, Jehovah, thou knowest.
- 10 I have not hidden thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.
- 11 Withhold not thou, Jehovah, thy tender mercies from me; let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.
- 12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I cannot see; they are more than the hairs of my head: and my heart hath failed me.
- 13 Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me; Jehovah, make haste to my help.
- 14 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be turned backward and confounded that take pleasure in mine adversity;
- 15 Let them be desolate, because of their shame, that say unto me, Aha! Aha!
- 16 Let all those that seek thee be glad and rejoice in thee; let such as love thy salvation say continually, Jehovah be magnified!
- 17 But I am afflicted and needy: the Lord thinketh upon me. Thou art my help and my deliverer: my °God, make no delay.

41

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Blessed is he that understandeth the poor: Jehovah will deliver him in the day of evil.
- 2 Jehovah will preserve him, and keep him alive; he shall be made happy in the land; and thou wilt not deliver him to the will of his enemies.

- 3 Jehovah will sustain him upon the bed of languishing: thou turnest all his bed in his sickness.
- 4 As for me, I said, Jehovah, be gracious unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.
- 5 Mine enemies wish me evil: When will he die, and his name perish?
- 6 And if one come to see [me], he speaketh falsehood; his heart gathereth wickedness to itself: he goeth abroad, he telleth [it].
- 7 All that hate me whisper together against me; against me do they devise my hurt.
- 8 A thing of Belial cleaveth fast unto him; and now that he is laid down, he will rise up no more.
- 9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I confided, who did eat of my bread, hath lifted up [his] heel against me.
- 10 But thou, Jehovah, be gracious unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.
- 11 By this I know that thou delightest in me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
- 12 But as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.
- 13 Blessed be Jehovah, the °God of Israel, from eternity to eternity! Amen, and Amen.

To the chief Musician. An instruction; of the sons of Korah.

- 1 As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O °God.
- 2 My soul thirsteth for °God, for the living *God: when shall I come and appear before °God?
- 3 My tears have been my bread day and night, while they say unto me all the day, Where is thy °God?
- 4 These things I remember and have poured out my soul within me: how I passed along with the multitude, how I went on with them to the house of °God, with the voice of joy and praise, a festive multitude.
- 5 Why art thou cast down, my soul, and art disquieted in me? hope in °God; for I shall yet praise him, [for] the health of his countenance.
- 6 My °God, my soul is cast down within me; therefore do I remember thee from the land of the Jordan, and the Hermons, from mount Mizar.
- 7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy cataracts; all thy breakers and thy billows are gone over me.
- 8 In the day-time will Jehovah command his loving-kindness, and in the night his song shall be with me, a prayer unto the *God of my life.
- 9 I will say unto *God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
- 10 As with a crushing in my bones mine adversaries reproach me, while they say unto me all the day, Where is thy °God?

1 Judge me, O °God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; deliver me from the deceitful and unrighteous man.
 2 For thou art the °God of my strength: why hast thou cast me off? why go I about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
 3 Send out thy light and thy truth: they shall lead me, they shall bring me to thy holy mount, and unto thy habitations.
 4 Then will I go unto the altar of °God, unto the *God of the gladness of my joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O °God, my °God.
 5 Why art thou cast down, my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in °God; for I shall yet praise him, [who is] the health of my countenance, and my °God.

44

To the chief Musician. Of the sons of Korah. An instruction.

1 O °God, with our ears have we heard, our fathers have told us, the work thou wroughtest in their days, in the days of old:
 2 Thou, by thy hand, didst dispossess the nations, but them thou didst plant; thou didst afflict the peoples, but them thou didst cause to spread out.
 3 For not by their own sword did they take possession of the land, neither did their own arm save them; but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst delight in them.
 4 Thou thyself art my king, O °God: command deliverance for Jacob.
 5 Through thee will we push down our adversaries; through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.
 6 For I will not put confidence in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
 7 For thou hast saved us from our adversaries, and hast put them to shame that hate us.
 8 In °God will we boast all the day, and we will praise thy name for ever. Selah.
 9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to confusion, and dost not go forth with our armies;
 10 Thou hast made us to turn back from the adversary, and they that hate us spoil for themselves;
 11 Thou hast given us over like sheep [appointed] for meat, and hast scattered us among the nations;
 12 Thou hast sold thy people for nought, and hast not increased [thy wealth] by their price;
 13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a mockery and a derision for them that are round about us;

- 14 Thou makest us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.
- 15 All the day my confusion is before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me,
- 16 Because of the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and the avenger.
- 17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely against thy covenant:
- 18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy path;
- 19 Though thou hast crushed us in the place of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death.
- 20 If we had forgotten the name of our °God, and stretched out our hands to a strange *god,
- 21 Would not °God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
- 22 But for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are reckoned as sheep for slaughter.
- 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Lord? arise, cast [us] not off for ever.
- 24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, [and] forgettest our affliction and our oppression?
- 25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.
- 26 Rise up for our help, and redeem us for thy loving-kindness' sake.

To the chief Musician. Upon Shoshannim. Of the sons of Korah. An instruction; — a song of the Beloved.

- 1 My heart is welling forth [with] a good matter: I say what I have composed touching the king. My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
- 2 Thou art fairer than the sons of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore °God hath blessed thee for ever.
- 3 Gird thy sword upon [thy] thigh, O mighty one, [in] thy majesty and thy splendour;
- 4 And [in] thy splendour ride prosperously, because of truth and meekness [and] righteousness: and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.
- 5 Thine arrows are sharp — peoples fall under thee — in the heart of the king's enemies.
- 6 Thy throne, O °God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:
- 7 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickedness; therefore °God, thy °God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy companions.
- 8 Myrrh and aloes, cassia, are all thy garments; out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad.
- 9 Kings' daughters are among thine honourable women; upon thy right hand doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

- 10 Hearken, daughter, and see, and incline thine ear; and forget thine own people and thy father's house:
 11 And the king will desire thy beauty; for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him.
 12 And the daughter of Tyre with a gift, the rich ones among the people, shall court thy favour.
 13 All glorious is the king's daughter within; her clothing is of wrought gold:
 14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of embroidery; the virgins behind her, her companions, shall be brought in unto thee:
 15 With joy and gladness shall they be brought; they shall enter into the king's palace.
 16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy sons; princes shalt thou make them in all the earth.
 17 I will make thy name to be remembered throughout all generations; therefore shall the peoples praise thee for ever and ever.

To the chief Musician. Of the sons of Korah. On Alamoth. A song.

- 1 °God is our refuge and strength, a help in distresses, very readily found.
 2 Therefore will we not fear though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the heart of the seas;
 3 Though the waters thereof roar [and] foam, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.
 4 There is a river the streams whereof make glad the city of °God, the sanctuary of the habitations of the Most High.
 5 °God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: °God shall help her at the dawn of the morning.
 6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved; he uttered his voice, the earth melted.
 7 Jehovah of hosts is with us; the °God of Jacob is our high fortress. Selah.
 8 Come, behold the works of Jehovah, what desolations he hath made in the earth:
 9 He hath made wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariots in the fire.
 10 Be still, and know that I am °God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.
 11 Jehovah of hosts is with us; the °God of Jacob is our high fortress. Selah.

To the chief Musician. Of the sons of Korah. A Psalm.

- 1 All ye peoples, clap your hands; shout unto °God with the voice of triumph!
 2 For Jehovah, the Most High, is terrible, a great king over all the earth.
 3 He subdueth the peoples under us, and the nations under our feet.
 4 He hath chosen our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.
 5 °God is gone up amid shouting, Jehovah amid the sound of the trumpet.

A Song; a Psalm. Of the sons of Korah.

- 1 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised in the city of our °God, in the hill of his holiness.
- 2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, [on] the sides of the north, the city of the great King.
- 3 °God is known in her palaces as a high fortress.
- 4 For behold, the kings assembled themselves, they passed by together;
- 5 They saw, — so they marvelled; they were troubled, they fled in consternation:
- 6 Trembling took hold upon them there; anguish, as of a woman in travail.
- 7 With an east wind thou hast broken the ships of Tarshish.
- 8 As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of Jehovah of hosts, in the city of our °God: °God doth establish it for ever. Selah.
- 9 We have thought, O °God, of thy loving-kindness, in the midst of thy temple.
- 10 According to thy name, O °God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.
- 11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
- 12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: count the towers thereof;
- 13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces: that ye may tell it to the generation following.
- 14 For this °God is our °God for ever and ever; he will be our guide until death.

To the chief Musician. Of the sons of Korah. A Psalm.

- 1 Hear this, all ye peoples; give ear, all inhabitants of the world:
- 2 Both men of low and men of high degree, rich and poor alike.
- 3 My mouth shall speak wisdom, and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding:
- 4 I will incline mine ear to a parable, I will open my riddle upon the harp.
- 5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of adversity, [when] the iniquity of my supplanters encompasseth me? —
- 6 They depend upon their wealth, and boast themselves in the abundance of their riches. ...
- 7 None can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to °God a ransom

- for him,
 8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly, and must be given up for ever,)
 9 That he should still live perpetually, [and] not see corruption.
 10 For he seeth that wise men die; all alike, the fool and the brutish perish, and they leave their wealth to others.
 11 Their inward thought is, that their houses are for ever, their dwelling-places from generation to generation: they call the lands after their own names.
 12 Nevertheless, man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.
 13 This their way is their folly, yet they that come after them delight in their sayings. Selah.
 14 Like sheep are they laid in Sheol: Death feedeth on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their comeliness shall be for Sheol to consume, that there be no habitation for them.
 15 But °God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol: for he will receive me. Selah.
 16 Be not afraid when a man becometh rich, when the glory of his house is increased:
 17 For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him.
 18 Though he blessed his soul in his lifetime, — and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thyself, —
 19 It shall go to the generation of his fathers: they shall never see light.
 20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

A Psalm. Of Asaph.

- 1 *God, Elohim-Jehovah, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, °God hath shined forth.
 3 Our °God will come, and will not keep silence: fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.
 4 He will call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people:
 5 Gather unto me my °godly ones, those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice!
 6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness; for °God executeth judgment himself. Selah.
 7 Hear, my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify unto thee: I am °God, thy °God.
 8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, continually before me;
 9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, [nor] he-goats out of thy folds:
 10 For every beast of the forest is mine, the cattle upon a thousand hills;

- 11 I know all the fowl of the mountains, and the roaming creatures of the field are mine:
 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee; for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
 13 Should I eat the flesh of bulls, and drink the blood of goats?
 14 Offer unto °God thanksgiving, and perform thy vows unto the Most High;
 15 And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.
 16 But unto the wicked °God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant into thy mouth, 17 Seeing thou hast hated correction and hast cast my words behind thee?
 18 When thou sawest a thief, thou didst take pleasure in him, and thy portion was with adulterers;
 19 Thou lettest thy mouth loose to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit;
 20 Thou sittest [and] speakest against thy brother, thou revilest thine own mother's son:
 21 These [things] hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether as thyself: [but] I will reprove thee, and set [them] in order before thine eyes.
 22 Now consider this, ye that forget *God, lest I tear in pieces, and there be no deliverer.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

- 1 Be gracious unto me, O °God, according to thy loving-kindness; according to the abundance of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.
 2 Wash me fully from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
 3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is continually before me.
 4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in thy sight; that thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, be clear when thou judgest.
 5 Behold, in iniquity was I brought forth, and in sin did my mother conceive me.
 6 Behold, thou wilt have truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden [part] thou wilt make me to know wisdom.
 7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
 8 Make me to hear gladness and joy; [that] the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
 9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.
 10 Create in me a clean heart, O °God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
 11 Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not the spirit of thy holiness from me.

- 12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and let a willing spirit sustain me.
- 13 I will teach transgressors thy ways, and sinners shall return unto thee.
- 14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O °God, thou °God of my salvation: my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
- 15 Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.
- 16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou hast no pleasure in burnt-offering.
- 17 The sacrifices of °God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O °God, thou wilt not despise.
- 18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion; build the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then shalt thou have sacrifices of righteousness, burnt-offering, and whole burnt-offering; then shall they offer up bullocks upon thine altar.

To the chief Musician: an instruction. Of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David came to the house of Ahimelech.

- 1 Why boastest thou thyself in evil, thou mighty man? The loving-kindness of *God [abideth] continually.
- 2 Thy tongue deviseth mischievous things, like a sharp razor, practising deceit.
- 3 Thou hast loved evil rather than good, lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.
- 4 Thou hast loved all devouring words, O deceitful tongue!
- 5 *God shall likewise destroy thee for ever; he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of [thy] tent, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.
- 6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him, [saying,]
- 7 Behold the man that made not °God his strength, but put confidence in the abundance of his riches, [and] strengthened himself in his avarice.
- 8 But as for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of °God: I will confide in the loving-kindness of °God for ever and ever.
- 9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done [it]; and I will wait on thy name, before thy °godly ones, for it is good.

To the chief Musician. 'Destroy not.' Of David. Michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

- 1 Deliver me from mine enemies, O my °God; secure me on high from them that rise up against me.
 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from men of blood.
 3 For behold, they lie in wait for my soul; strong ones are gathered against me: not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Jehovah.
 4 They run and prepare themselves without [my] fault: awake to meet me, and behold.
 5 Yea, do thou, Jehovah, the °God of hosts, the °God of Israel, arise to visit all the nations: be not gracious to any plotters of iniquity. Selah.
 6 They return in the evening; they howl like a dog, and go round about the city:
 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth; swords are in their lips: for who [say they] doth hear?
 8 But thou, Jehovah, wilt laugh at them; thou wilt have all the nations in derision.
 9 Their strength! ...I will take heed to thee; for °God is my high fortress.
 10 °God, whose loving-kindness will come to meet me, — °God shall let me see [my desire] upon mine enemies.

17 Unto thee, my strength, will I sing psalms; for °God is my high fortress, the °God of my mercy.

To the chief Musician. On Shushan. Testimony. Michtam of David; to teach: when he strove with the Syrians of Mesopotamia, and the Syrians of Zobah, and Joab returned, and smote the Edomites in the valley of salt, twelve thousand.

1 O °God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased: restore us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble, thou hast rent it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewn thy people hard things; thou hast made us to drink the wine of bewilderment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth, (Selah,)

5 That thy beloved ones may be delivered. Save with thy right hand, and answer me.

6 °God hath spoken in his holiness: I will exult, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine, and Ephraim is the strength of my head; Judah is my law-giver;

8 Moab is my wash-pot; upon Edom will I cast my sandal; Philistia, shout aloud because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me unto Edom?

10 [Wilt] not thou, O °God, who didst cast us off? and didst not go forth, O °God, with our armies?

- 6 He only is my rock and my salvation; my high fortress: I shall not be moved.
- 7 With °God is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength, my refuge is in °God.
- 8 Confide in him at all times, ye people; pour out your heart before him: °God is our refuge. Selah.
- 9 Men of low degree are only vanity; men of high degree, a lie: laid in the balance, they go up together [lighter] than vanity.
- 10 Put not confidence in oppression, and become not vain in robbery; if wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.
- 11 Once hath °God spoken, twice have I heard this, that strength [belongeth] unto °God.
- 12 And unto thee, O Lord, [belongeth] loving-kindness; for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

A Psalm of David; when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- 1 O °God, thou art my *God; early will I seek thee. My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh languisheth for thee, in a dry and weary land without water:
- 2 To see thy power and thy glory, as I have beheld thee in the sanctuary;
- 3 For thy loving-kindness is better than life: my lips shall praise thee.
- 4 So will I bless thee while I live; I will lift up my hands in thy name.
- 5 My soul is satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise [thee] with joyful lips.
- 6 When I remember thee upon my bed, I meditate on thee in the night-watches:
- 7 For thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings will I sing for joy.
- 8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.
- 9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy [it], shall go into the lower parts of the earth;
- 10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword; they shall be the portion of foxes.
- 11 But the king shall rejoice in °God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear, O °God, my voice in my plaint; preserve my life from fear of the enemy:
- <sup>2</sup> Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-doers, from the tumultuous crowd of the workers of iniquity,
- <sup>3</sup> Who have sharpened their tongue like a sword, [and] have aimed their arrow, a bitter word;
- <sup>4</sup> That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
- <sup>5</sup> They encourage themselves in an evil matter, they concert to hide snares; they say, Who will see them?
- <sup>6</sup> They devise iniquities: We have it ready, the plan is diligently sought out. And each one's inward [thought] and heart is deep.
- <sup>7</sup> But °God will shoot an arrow at them: suddenly are they wounded;
- <sup>8</sup> By their own tongue they are made to fall over one another: all that see them shall flee away.
- <sup>9</sup> And all men shall fear, and shall declare °God's doing; and they shall wisely consider his work.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous shall rejoice in Jehovah, and trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

65

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David: a Song.

- <sup>1</sup> Praise waiteth for thee in silence, O °God, in Zion; and unto thee shall the vow be performed.
- <sup>2</sup> O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.
- <sup>3</sup> Iniquities have prevailed against me: our transgressions, thou wilt forgive them.
- <sup>4</sup> Blessed is he whom thou chooseth and causeth to approach: he shall dwell in thy courts. We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, of thy holy temple.
- <sup>5</sup> By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O °God of our salvation, thou confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of the distant regions of the sea. ...
- <sup>6</sup> Who by his strength established the mountains, being girded with power;
- <sup>7</sup> Who stilleth the raging of the seas, the raging of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.
- <sup>8</sup> And they that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens; thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.
- <sup>9</sup> Thou hast visited the earth, thou hast watered it; thou greatly enrichest it: the river of °God is full of water; thou providest their corn, when thou hast so prepared it:
- <sup>10</sup> Thou dost satiate its furrows, thou smoothest its clods, thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof.
- <sup>11</sup> Thou crownest the year with thy goodness, and thy paths drop fatness:
- <sup>12</sup> They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness, and the hills are girded with gladness.

13 The meadows are clothed with flocks, and the valleys are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, yea, they sing.

66

To the chief Musician. A Song: a Psalm.

1 Shout aloud unto °God, all the earth:

2 Sing forth the glory of his name, make his praise glorious;

3 Say unto °God, How terrible are thy works! because of the greatness of thy strength, thine enemies come cringing unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and sing psalms unto thee: they shall sing forth thy name. Selah.

5 Come and see the works of °God: he is terrible in [his] doings toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry [land]; they went through the river on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes observe the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 Bless our °God, ye peoples, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

9 Who hath set our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O °God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into a net, thou didst lay a heavy burden upon our loins;

12 Thou didst cause men to ride over our head; we went through fire and through water: but thou hast brought us out into abundance.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will perform my vows to thee, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer up unto thee burnt-offerings of fatted beasts, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 Come, hear, all ye that fear °God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I called unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 Had I regarded iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not hear.

19 But °God hath heard; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be °God, who hath not turned away my prayer, nor his loving-kindness from me!

67

To the chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm: a Song.

1 °God be gracious unto us, and bless us, [and] cause his face to shine upon us; Selah,

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy salvation among all nations.

3 Let the peoples praise thee, O °God, let all the peoples praise thee.

4 Let the nations rejoice and sing for joy: for thou wilt judge the peoples equitably; and the nations upon earth, thou wilt guide them. Selah.

- <sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise thee, O °God; let all the peoples praise thee.
<sup>6</sup> The earth will yield her increase; °God, our °God, will bless us:
<sup>7</sup> °God will bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

68

To the chief Musician. Of David. A Psalm: a Song.

- <sup>1</sup> Let °God arise, let his enemies be scattered, and let them that hate him flee before him.
<sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven, thou wilt drive them away; as wax melteth before the fire, the wicked shall perish at the presence of °God.
<sup>3</sup> But the righteous shall rejoice: they shall exult before °God and be glad with joy.
<sup>4</sup> Sing unto °God, sing forth his name; cast up a way for him that rideth in the deserts: his name is Jah; and rejoice before him.
<sup>5</sup> A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is °God in his holy habitation.
<sup>6</sup> °God maketh the solitary into families; those that were bound he bringeth out into prosperity: but the rebellious dwell in a parched [land].
<sup>7</sup> O °God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness — (Selah) —
<sup>8</sup> The earth trembled, the heavens also dropped at the presence of °God, yon Sinai, at the presence of °God, the °God of Israel.
<sup>9</sup> Thou, O °God, didst pour a plentiful rain upon thine inheritance, and when it was weary thou strengthenedst it.
<sup>13</sup> Though ye have lain among the sheepfolds, [ye shall be as] wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with green gold.
<sup>16</sup> Why do ye look with envy, ye many-peaked mountains, upon the mount that °God hath desired for his abode? yea, Jehovah will dwell [there] for ever.
<sup>17</sup> The chariots of °God are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands; the Lord is among them: it is a Sinai in holiness.
<sup>18</sup> Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts in Man, and even [for] the rebellious, for the dwelling [there] of Jah Elohim.

- 19 Blessed be the Lord: day by day doth he load us [with good], the *God who is our salvation. Selah.
- 20 Our *God is the *God of salvation; and with Jehovah, the Lord, are the goings forth [even] from death.
- 21 Verily °God will smite the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of him that goeth on still in his trespasses.
- 22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring [them] again from the depth of the sea;
- 23 That thou mayest dip thy foot in blood: the tongue of thy dogs has its portion from enemies.
- 24 They have seen thy goings, O °God, the goings of my *God, my King, in the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the players on stringed instruments after, in the midst of maidens playing on tabrets.
- 26 In the congregations bless ye °God, the Lord, — [ye] from the fountain of Israel.
- 27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler; the princes of Judah, their company; the princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.
- 28 Thy °God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O °God, that which thou hast wrought for us.
- 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee.
- 30 Rebuke the beast of the reeds, the assembly of the strong, with the calves of the peoples: [every one] submitteth himself with pieces of silver. Scatter the peoples that delight in war.
- 31 Great ones shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall quickly stretch out her hands unto °God.
- 32 Ye kingdoms of the earth, sing unto °God; sing psalms of the Lord, (Selah,)
- 33 Of him that rideth upon the heavens, the heavens which are of old: lo, he uttereth his voice, a mighty voice.
- 34 Ascribe ye strength unto °God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

To the chief Musician. Upon Shoshannim. [A Psalm] of David.

- 1 Save me, O °God; for the waters are come in unto [my] soul.
- 2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing; I am come into the depths of waters, and the flood overfloweth me.
- 3 I am weary with my crying, my throat is parched; mine eyes fail while I wait for my °God.

- 4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.
- 5 Thou, O °God, knowest my foolishness, and my trespasses are not hidden from thee.
- 6 Let not them that wait on thee, Lord, Jehovah of hosts, be ashamed through me; let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O °God of Israel.
- 7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; confusion hath covered my face.
- 8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's sons;
- 9 For the zeal of thy house hath devoured me, and the reproaches of them that reproach thee have fallen upon me.
- 10 And I wept, my soul was fasting: that also was to my reproach; —
- 11 And I made sackcloth my garment: then I became a proverb to them.
- 12 They that sit in the gate talk of me, and [I am] the song of the drunkards.
- 13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, Jehovah, in an acceptable time: O °God, in the abundance of thy loving-kindness answer me, according to the truth of thy salvation:
- 14 Deliver me out of the mire, let me not sink; let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the depths of waters.
- 15 Let not the flood of waters overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up; and let not the pit shut its mouth upon me.
- 16 Answer me, O Jehovah; for thy loving-kindness is good: according to the abundance of thy tender mercies, turn toward me;
- 17 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am in trouble: answer me speedily.
- 18 Draw nigh unto my soul, be its redeemer; ransom me because of mine enemies.
- 19 Thou knowest my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.
- 20 Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am overwhelmed: and I looked for sympathy, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.
- 21 Yea, they gave me gall for my food, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- 22 Let their table become a snare before them, and their very welfare a trap;
- 23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not, and make their loins continually to shake.
- 24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let the fierceness of thine anger take hold of them.
- 25 Let their habitation be desolate; let there be no dweller in their tents.
- 26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten, and they talk for the sorrow of those whom thou hast wounded.
- 27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity, and let them not come into thy righteousness.
- 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.

- 29 But I am afflicted and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O °God, set me secure on high.
- 30 I will praise the name of °God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving;
- 31 And it shall please Jehovah more than an ox, — a bullock with horns and cloven hoofs.
- 32 The meek shall see it, they shall be glad; ye that seek °God, your heart shall live.
- 33 For Jehovah heareth the needy, and despiseth not his prisoners.
- 34 Let heavens and earth praise him; the seas, and everything that moveth therein.
- 35 For °God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; and they shall dwell there, and possess it:
- 36 And the seed of his servants shall inherit it, and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

To the chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David: to bring to remembrance.

- 1 Make haste, O °God, to deliver me; Jehovah, [hasten] to my help.
- 2 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion that seek after my soul; let them be turned backward and confounded that take pleasure in mine adversity;
- 3 Let them turn back because of their shame that say, Aha! Aha!
- 4 Let all those that seek thee be glad and rejoice in thee, and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let °God be magnified!
- 5 But I am afflicted and needy: make haste unto me, O °God. Thou art my help and my deliverer: O Jehovah, make no delay.

71

- 1 In thee, Jehovah, do I trust: let me never be ashamed.
- 2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and rescue me; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.
- 3 Be to me a rock of habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.
- 4 My °God, rescue me out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
- 5 For thou art my hope, O Lord Jehovah, my confidence from my youth.
- 6 On thee have I been stayed from the womb; from the bowels of my mother thou didst draw me forth: my praise shall be continually of thee.
- 7 I have been as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.
- 8 My mouth shall be filled with thy praise, with thy glory, all the day.
- 9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.
- 10 For mine enemies speak against me, and they that watch for my soul consult together,
- 11 Saying, °God hath forsaken him; pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver.

- 12 O °God, be not far from me; my °God, hasten to my help.
- 13 Let them be ashamed, let them be consumed, that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.
- 14 But as for me, I will hope continually, and will praise thee yet more and more.
- 15 My mouth shall declare thy righteousness, [and] thy salvation all the day: for I know not the numbers [thereof].
- 16 I will go in the might of the Lord Jehovah; I will recall thy righteousness, thine alone.
- 17 O °God, thou hast taught me from my youth, and hitherto have I proclaimed thy marvellous works:
- 18 Now also, when I am old and greyheaded, O °God, forsake me not, until I have proclaimed thine arm unto [this] generation, thy might to every one that is to come.
- 19 And thy righteousness, O °God, reacheth on high, thou who hast done great things: O °God, who is like unto thee?
- 20 Thou, who hast shewn us many and sore troubles, wilt revive us again, and wilt bring us up again from the depths of the earth;
- 21 Thou wilt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.
- 22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, my °God; unto thee will I sing psalms with the harp, thou holy One of Israel.
- 23 My lips shall exult when I sing psalms unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.
- 24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day; for they shall be ashamed, for they shall be brought to confusion, that seek my hurt.

For Solomon.

- 1 O °God, give the king thy judgments, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.
- 2 He will judge thy people with righteousness, and thine afflicted with judgment.
- 3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the hills, by righteousness.
- 4 He will do justice to the afflicted of the people; he will save the children of the needy, and will break in pieces the oppressor.
- 5 They shall fear thee as long as sun and moon endure, from generation to generation.
- 6 He shall come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.
- 7 In his days shall the righteous flourish, and abundance of peace till the moon be no more.
- 8 And he shall have dominion from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.
- 9 The dwellers in the desert shall bow before him, and his enemies shall lick the dust.

- 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall render presents; the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer tribute:
 11 Yea, all kings shall bow down before him; all nations shall serve him.
 12 For he will deliver the needy who crieth, and the afflicted, who hath no helper;
 13 He will have compassion on the poor and needy, and will save the souls of the needy:
 14 He will redeem their souls from oppression and violence, and precious shall their blood be in his sight.
 15 And he shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba; and prayer shall be made for him continually: all the day shall he be blessed.
 16 There shall be abundance of corn in the earth, upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon; and they of the city shall bloom like the herb of the earth.
 17 His name shall endure for ever; his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and [men] shall bless themselves in him; all nations shall call him blessed.
 18 Blessed be Jehovah Elohim, the °God of Israel, who alone doeth wondrous things!
 19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever! and let the whole earth be filled with his glory! Amen, and Amen.
 20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 Truly °God is good to Israel, to such as are of a pure heart.
 2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone, my steps had well nigh slipped;
 3 For I was envious at the arrogant, seeing the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 For they have no pangs in their death, and their body is well nourished;
 5 They have not the hardships of mankind, neither are they plagued like [other] men:
 6 Therefore pride encompasseth them as a neck-chain, violence covereth them [as] a garment;
 7 Their eyes stand out from fatness, they exceed the imaginations of their heart:
 8 They mock and speak wickedly of oppression, they speak loftily:
 9 They set their mouth in the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.
 10 Therefore his people turn hither, and waters in fulness are wrung out to them.
 11 And they say, How can *God know, and is there knowledge in the Most High?
 12 Behold, these are the wicked, and they prosper in the world: they heap up riches.
 13 Truly have I purified my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency:
 14 For all the day have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.
 15 If I said, I will speak thus, behold, I should be faithless to the generation of thy children.

- 16 When I thought to be able to know this, it was a grievous task in mine eyes;
- 17 Until I went into the sanctuaries of *God; [then] understood I their end.
- 18 Truly thou settest them in slippery places, thou castest them down in ruins.
- 19 How are they suddenly made desolate! they pass away, consumed with terrors.
- 20 As a dream, when one awaketh, wilt thou, Lord, on arising despise their image.
- 21 When my heart was in a ferment, and I was pricked in my reins,
- 22 Then I was brutish and knew nothing; I was [as] a beast with thee.
- 23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden my right hand;
- 24 Thou wilt guide me by thy counsel, and after the glory, thou wilt receive me.
- 25 Whom have I in the heavens? and there is none upon earth I desire beside thee.
- 26 My flesh and my heart faileth: °God is the rock of my heart and my portion for ever.
- 27 For behold, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou destroyest every one that goeth a whoring from thee.
- 28 But as for me, it is good for me to draw near to °God: I have put my trust in the Lord Jehovah, that I may declare all thy works.

74

An instruction: of Asaph.

- 1 Why, O °God, hast thou cast off for ever? [why] doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?
- 2 Remember thine assembly, which thou hast purchased of old, which thou hast redeemed [to be] the portion of thine inheritance, this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.
- 3 Lift up thy steps unto the perpetual desolations: everything in the sanctuary hath the enemy destroyed.
- 4 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy place of assembly; they set up their signs [for] signs.
- 5 [A man] was known as he could lift up axes in the thicket of trees;
- 6 And now they break down its carved work altogether, with hatchets and hammers.
- 7 They have set on fire thy sanctuary, they have profaned the habitation of thy name to the ground.
- 8 They said in their heart, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all *God's places of assembly in the land.
- 9 We see not our signs; there is no more any prophet, neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.
- 10 How long, O °God, shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy contemn thy name for ever?
- 11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, and thy right hand? [pluck it] out of thy bosom: consume [them].

- 12 But °God is my king of old, accomplishing deliverances in the midst of the earth.
- 13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength; thou didst break the heads of the monsters on the waters:
- 14 Thou didst break in pieces the heads of leviathan, thou gavest him to be meat to those that people the desert.
- 15 Thou didst cleave fountain and torrent, thou driedst up ever-flowing rivers.
- 16 The day is thine, the night also is thine; thou hast prepared the moon and the sun:
- 17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth; summer and winter — thou didst form them.
- 18 Remember this, that an enemy hath reproached Jehovah, and a foolish people have contemned thy name.
- 19 Give not up the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the wild beast; forget not the troop of thine afflicted for ever.
- 20 Have respect unto the covenant; for the dark places of the earth are full of the dwellings of violence.
- 21 Oh let not the oppressed one return ashamed; let the afflicted and needy praise thy name.
- 22 Rise up, O °God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee all the day;
- 23 Forget not the voice of thine adversaries: the tumult of those that rise up against thee ascendeth continually.

To the chief Musician. 'Destroy not.' A Psalm of Asaph: a Song.

- 1 Unto thee we give thanks, O °God, we give thanks; and thy name is near: thy marvellous works declare it.
- 2 When I shall receive the assembly, I will judge with equity.
- 3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I have established its pillars. Selah.
- 4 I said unto the boastful, Boast not; and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:
- 5 Lift not up your horn on high; speak not arrogantly with a [stiff] neck.
- 6 For not from the east nor from the west, nor yet from the south doth exaltation [come]:
- 7 For °God is the judge; he putteth down one and exalteth another.
- 8 For in the hand of Jehovah there is a cup, and it foameth with wine, it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same; yea, the dregs thereof shall all the wicked of the earth drain off, [and] drink.
- 9 But as for me, I will declare for ever; I will sing psalms to the °God of Jacob.
- 10 And all the horns of the wicked will I cut off; [but] the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

To the chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph: a Song.

- 1 In Judah is °God known, his name is great in Israel;

- 2 And in Salem is his tent, and his dwelling-place in Zion.
 3 There broke he the flashings of the bow, shield and sword and battle.
 Selah.
 4 More glorious art thou, more excellent, than the mountains of prey.
 5 The stout-hearted are made a spoil, they have slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands.
 6 At thy rebuke, O °God of Jacob, both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
 7 Thou, thou art to be feared, and who can stand before thee when once thou art angry?
 8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from the heavens; the earth feared, and was still,
 9 When °God rose up to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.
 10 For the fury of man shall praise thee; the remainder of fury wilt thou gird on thyself.
 11 Vow and pay unto Jehovah your °God: let all that are round about him bring presents unto him that is to be feared.
 12 He cutteth off the spirit of princes; [he] is terrible to the kings of the earth.

To the chief Musician. On Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A Psalm.

- 1 My voice is unto °God, and I will cry; my voice is unto °God, and he will give ear unto me.
 2 In the day of my trouble, I sought the Lord: my hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not; my soul refused to be comforted.
 3 I remembered °God, and I moaned; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.
 4 Thou holdest open mine eyelids; I am full of disquiet and cannot speak.
 5 I consider the days of old, the years of ancient times.
 6 I remember my song in the night; I muse in mine own heart, and my spirit maketh diligent search.
 7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?
 8 Hath his loving-kindness ceased for ever? hath [his] word come to an end from generation to generation?
 9 Hath *God forgotten to be gracious? or hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
 10 Then said I, This is my weakness: — the years of the right hand of the Most High 11 Will I remember, — the works of Jah; for I will remember thy wonders of old, 12 And I will meditate upon all thy work, and muse upon thy doings.
 13 O °God, thy way is in the sanctuary: who is so great a *god as °God?
 14 Thou art the *God that doest wonders; thou hast declared thy strength among the peoples.
 15 Thou hast with [thine] arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
 16 The waters saw thee, O °God, the waters saw thee; they trembled, yea, the depths were troubled:

- 17 The thick clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound, yea, thine arrows went abroad;
 18 The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind, lightnings lit up the world; the earth was troubled and it quaked.
 19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths are in the great waters; and thy footsteps are not known.
 20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

An instruction. Of Asaph.

- 1 Give ear, O my people, to my law; incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
 2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter riddles from of old,
 3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us:
 4 We will not hide [them] from their sons, shewing forth to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah, and his strength, and his marvellous works which he hath done.
 5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;
 6 That the generation to come might know [them], the children that should be born; that they might rise up and tell [them] to their children,
 7 And that they might set their hope in °God, and not forget the works of *God, but observe his commandments;
 8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that prepared not their heart, and whose spirit was not stedfast with *God.
 9 The sons of Ephraim, armed bowmen, turned back in the day of battle.
 10 They kept not the covenant of °God, and refused to walk in his law;
 11 And forgot his doings, and his marvellous works which he had shewn them.
 12 In the sight of their fathers had he done wonders, in the land of Egypt, the field of Zoan.
 13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through; and made the waters to stand as a heap;
 14 And he led them with a cloud in the daytime, and all the night with the light of fire.
 15 He clave rocks in the wilderness, and gave [them] drink as out of the depths, abundantly;
 16 And he brought streams out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.
 17 Yet they still went on sinning against him, provoking the Most High in the desert;
 18 And they tempted *God in their heart, by asking meat for their lust;
 19 And they spoke against °God: they said, Is *God able to prepare a table in the wilderness?

- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, and waters gushed out, and streams overflowed; is he able to give bread also, or provide flesh for his people?
- 21 Therefore Jehovah heard, and was wroth; and fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also went up against Israel:
- 22 Because they believed not in °God, and confided not in his salvation;
- 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and had opened the doors of the heavens,
- 24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them the corn of the heavens.
- 25 Man did eat the bread of the mighty; he sent them provision to the full.
- 26 He caused the east wind to rise in the heavens, and by his strength he brought the south wind;
- 27 And he rained flesh upon them as dust, and feathered fowl as the sand of the seas,
- 28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations:
- 29 And they did eat, and were well filled; for that they lusted after, he brought to them.
- 30 They were not alienated from their lust, their meat was yet in their mouths,
- 31 When the anger of °God went up against them; and he slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.
- 32 For all this, they sinned still, and believed not in his marvellous works;
- 33 And he consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror.
- 34 When he slew them, then they sought him, and returned and sought early after *God;
- 35 And they remembered that °God was their rock, and *God, the Most High, their redeemer.
- 36 But they flattered him with their mouth, and lied unto him with their tongue;
- 37 For their heart was not firm toward him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.
- 38 But he was merciful: he forgave the iniquity, and destroyed [them] not; but many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his fury:
- 39 And he remembered that they were flesh, a breath that passeth away and cometh not again.
- 40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!
- 41 And they turned again and tempted *God, and grieved the Holy One of Israel.
- 42 They remembered not his hand, the day when he delivered them from the oppressor;
- 43 How he set his signs in Egypt, and his miracles in the field of Zoan;
- 44 And turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink;
- 45 He sent dog-flies among them, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them;

- 46 And he gave their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust;
- 47 He killed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with hailstones;
- 48 And he delivered up their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to thunderbolts.
- 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and distress, — a mission of angels of woes.
- 50 He made a way for his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;
- 51 And he smote all the firstborn in Egypt, the first-fruits of their vigour in the tents of Ham.
- 52 And he made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock;
- 53 And he led them safely, so that they were without fear; and the sea covered their enemies.
- 54 And he brought them to his holy border, this mountain, which his right hand purchased;
- 55 And he drove out the nations before them, and allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
- 56 But they tempted and provoked °God, the Most High, and kept not his testimonies,
- 57 And they drew back and dealt treacherously like their fathers: they turned like a deceitful bow.
- 58 And they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
- 59 °God heard, and was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:
- 60 And he forsook the tabernacle at Shiloh, the tent where he had dwelt among men,
- 61 And gave his strength into captivity, and his glory into the hand of the oppressor;
- 62 And delivered up his people unto the sword, and was very wroth with his inheritance:
- 63 The fire consumed their young men, and their maidens were not praised in [nuptial] song;
- 64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.
- 65 Then the Lord awoke as one out of sleep, like a mighty man that shouteth aloud by reason of wine;
- 66 And he smote his adversaries in the hinder part, and put them to everlasting reproach.
- 67 And he rejected the tent of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim,
- 68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved;
- 69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which he hath founded for ever.
- 70 And he chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:
- 71 From following the suckling-ewes, he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
- 72 And he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and led them by the skilfulness of his hands.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 O °God, the nations are come into thine inheritance: thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
- 2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowl of the heavens, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth:
- 3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury [them].
- 4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a mockery and a derision to them that are round about us.
- 5 How long, O Jehovah? wilt thou be angry for ever? Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?
- 6 Pour out thy fury upon the nations that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that call not upon thy name:
- 7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his habitation.
- 8 Remember not against us the iniquities of [our] forefathers; let thy tender mercies speedily come to meet us: for we are brought very low.
- 9 Help us, O °God of our salvation, because of the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and forgive our sins, for thy name's sake.
- 10 Wherefore should the nations say, Where is their °God? Let the avenging of the blood of thy servants that is shed be known among the nations in our sight.
- 11 Let the groaning of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thine arm, preserve those that are appointed to die;
- 12 And render unto our neighbours, sevenfold into their bosom, their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.
- 13 And we, thy people and the sheep of thy pasture, will give thanks unto thee for ever; we will shew forth thy praise from generation to generation.

To the chief Musician. On Shoshannim-Eduth. Of Asaph. A Psalm.

- 1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that sittest [between] the cherubim, shine forth.
- 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy strength, and come to our deliverance.
- 3 O °God, restore us; and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
- 4 Jehovah, °God of hosts, how long will thine anger smoke against the prayer of thy people?
- 5 Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure:
- 6 Thou hast made us a strife unto our neighbours, and our enemies mock among themselves.
- 7 Restore us, O °God of hosts; and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
- 8 Thou broughtest a vine out of Egypt; thou didst cast out the nations, and plant it:

- 9 Thou preparedst space before it, and it took deep root, and filled the land;
 10 The mountains were covered with its shadow, and the branches thereof were [like] cedars of *God;
 11 It sent out its boughs unto the sea, and its shoots unto the river.
 12 Why hast thou broken down its fences, so that all who pass by the way do pluck it?
 13 The boar out of the forest doth waste it, and the beast of the field doth feed off it.
 14 O °God of hosts, return, we beseech thee; look down from the heavens, and behold, and visit this vine;
 15 Even the stock which thy right hand hath planted, and the young plant thou madest strong for thyself.
 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down; they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou hast made strong for thyself.
 18 So will we not go back from thee. Revive us, and we will call upon thy name.
 19 Restore us, O Jehovah, °God of hosts; cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

To the chief Musician. Upon the Gittith. [A Psalm] of Asaph.

- 1 Sing ye joyously unto °God our strength, shout aloud unto the °God of Jacob;
 2 Raise a song, and sound the tambour, the pleasant harp with the lute.
 3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the set time, on our feast day:
 4 For this is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the °God of Jacob;
 5 He ordained it in Joseph [for] a testimony, when he went forth over the land of Egypt, [where] I heard a language that I knew not.
 6 I removed his shoulder from the burden; his hands were freed from the basket.
 7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder; I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
 8 Hear, my people, and I will testify unto thee; O Israel, if thou wouldest hearken unto me!
 9 There shall no strange *god be in thee, neither shalt thou worship any foreign *god.
 10 I am Jehovah thy °God, that brought thee up out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
 11 But my people hearkened not to my voice, and Israel would none of me.
 12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' stubbornness: they walked after their own counsels.
 13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, that Israel had walked in my ways!
 14 I would soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 °God standeth in the assembly of *God, he judgeth among the °gods.
 2 How long will ye judge unrighteously, and accept the person of the wicked? Selah.
 3 Judge the poor and the fatherless, do justice to the afflicted and the destitute;
 4 Rescue the poor and needy, deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
 5 They know not, neither do they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are moved.
 6 I have said, Ye are °gods, and all of you are children of the Most High;
 7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.
 8 Arise, O °God, judge the earth; for thou shalt inherit all the nations.

A Song; a Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 O °God, keep not silence; hold not thy peace, and be not still, O *God:
 2 For behold, thine enemies make a tumult; and they that hate thee lift up the head.
 3 They take crafty counsel against thy people, and consult against thy hidden ones:
 4 They say, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, and let the name of Israel be mentioned no more.
 5 For they have consulted together with one heart: they have made an alliance together against thee.
 6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagarites;
 7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia, with the inhabitants of Tyre;
 8 Asshur also is joined with them: they are an arm to the sons of Lot. Selah.
 9 Do unto them as to Midian; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the torrent of Kishon:
 10 Who were destroyed at Endor; they became as dung for the ground.
 11 Make their nobles as Oreb and as Zeeb; and all their chiefs as Zebah and as Zalmunna.
 12 For they have said, Let us take to ourselves °God's dwelling-places in possession.
 13 O my °God, make them like a whirling thing, like stubble before the wind.
 14 As fire burneth a forest, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire, 15 So pursue them with thy tempest, and terrify them with thy whirlwind.
 16 Fill their faces with shame, that they may seek thy name, O Jehovah.
 17 Let them be put to shame and be dismayed for ever, and let them be confounded and perish:
 18 That they may know that thou alone, whose name is Jehovah, art the Most High over all the earth.

To the chief Musician. Upon the Gittith. Of the sons of Korah. A Psalm.

- 1 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Jehovah of hosts!
- 2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living *God.
- 3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she layeth her young, thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts, my King and my °God.
- 4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be constantly praising thee. Selah.
- 5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee, — they, in whose heart are the highways.
- 6 Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a well-spring; yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.
- 7 They go from strength to strength: [each one] will appear before °God in Zion.
- 8 Jehovah, °God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O °God of Jacob. Selah.
- 9 Behold, O °God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.
- 10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather stand at the threshold of the house of my °God, than dwell in the tents of wickedness.
- 11 For Jehovah Elohim is a sun and shield: Jehovah will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
- 12 Jehovah of hosts, blessed is the man that confideth in thee!

To the chief Musician. Of the sons of Korah. A Psalm.

- 1 Thou hast been favourable, Jehovah, unto thy land; thou hast turned the captivity of Jacob:
- 2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.
- 3 Thou hast withdrawn all thy wrath; thou hast turned from the fierceness of thine anger.
- 4 Bring us back, O °God of our salvation, and cause thine indignation toward us to cease.
- 5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger from generation to generation?
- 6 Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?
- 7 Shew us thy loving-kindness, O Jehovah, and grant us thy salvation.
- 8 I will hear what *God, Jehovah, will speak; for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his °godly ones: but let them not turn again to folly.
- 9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Loving-kindness and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other:

A Prayer of David.

- 1 Incline thine ear, Jehovah, answer me; for I am afflicted and needy.
 2 Keep my soul, for I am °godly; O thou my °God, save thy servant who confideth in thee.
 3 Be gracious unto me, O Lord; for unto thee do I call all the day.
 4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant; for unto thee, Lord, do I lift up my soul.
 5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, and art of great loving-kindness unto all that call upon thee.
 6 Give ear, O Jehovah, unto my prayer, and attend to the voice of my supplications.
 7 In the day of my distress I will call upon thee, for thou wilt answer me.
 8 Among the °gods there is none like unto thee, Lord, and there is nothing like unto thy works.
 9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord, and shall glorify thy name.
 10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art °God, thou alone.
 11 Teach me thy way, Jehovah; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.
 12 I will praise thee, O Lord my °God, with my whole heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.
 13 For great is thy loving-kindness toward me, and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
 14 O °God, the proud are risen against me, and the assembly of the violent seek after my soul, and they have not set thee before them.
 15 But thou, Lord, art a *God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth.
 16 Turn toward me, and be gracious unto me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.
 17 Shew me a token for good, that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed; for thou, Jehovah, hast helped me and comforted me.

 3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of °God. Selah.
 4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon among them that know me; behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: this [man] was born there.

- <sup>5</sup> And of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her; and the Most High himself shall establish her.

A Song, a Psalm for the sons of Korah. To the chief Musician. Upon Mahalath Leannoth. An instruction. Of Heman the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, °God of my salvation, I have cried by day [and] in the night before thee.
<sup>3</sup> For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh to Sheol.
<sup>4</sup> I am reckoned with them that go down into the pit; I am as a man that hath no strength:
<sup>5</sup> Prostrate among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave; whom thou rememberest no more, and who are cut off from thy hand.
<sup>8</sup> Thou hast put my familiar friends far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
<sup>9</sup> Mine eye consumeth by reason of affliction. Upon thee, Jehovah, have I called every day; I have stretched out my hands unto thee.
<sup>10</sup> Wilt thou do wonders to the dead? shall the shades arise and praise thee? Selah.
<sup>12</sup> Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
<sup>13</sup> But as for me, Jehovah, I cry unto thee, and in the morning my prayer cometh before thee.
<sup>14</sup> Why, O Jehovah, castest thou off my soul? [why] hidest thou thy face from me?
<sup>15</sup> I am afflicted and expiring from my youth up; I suffer thy terrors, [and] I am distracted.
<sup>16</sup> Thy fierce anger hath gone over me; thy terrors have brought me to nought:
<sup>17</sup> They have surrounded me all the day like water; they have compassed me about together.
<sup>18</sup> Lover and associate hast thou put far from me: my familiar friends are darkness.

An instruction. Of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of the loving-kindness of Jehovah for ever; with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness from generation to generation.
<sup>2</sup> For I said, Loving-kindness shall be built up for ever; in the very heavens wilt thou establish thy faithfulness.
<sup>3</sup> I have made a covenant with mine elect, I have sworn unto David my servant:

° 88:1 Elohim

- 4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne from generation to generation. Selah.
- 5 And the heavens shall celebrate thy wonders, O Jehovah, and thy faithfulness in the congregation of the saints.
- 6 For who in the heaven can be compared to Jehovah? [who] among the sons of the mighty shall be likened to Jehovah?
- 7 *God is greatly to be feared in the council of the saints, and terrible for all that are round about him.
- 8 Jehovah, °God of hosts, who is like unto thee, the strong Jah? And thy faithfulness is round about thee.
- 9 Thou rulest the pride of the sea: when its waves arise, thou stillest them.
- 10 Thou hast crushed Rahab as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.
- 11 Thine are the heavens, the earth also is thine; the world and its fulness, thou hast founded them.
- 12 The north and the south, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon triumph in thy name.
- 13 Thine is the arm of might: strong is thy hand, high is thy right hand.
- 14 Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of thy throne; loving-kindness and truth go before thy face.
- 15 Blessed is the people that know the shout of joy: they walk, O Jehovah, in the light of thy countenance.
- 16 In thy name are they joyful all the day, and in thy righteousness are they exalted.
- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength; and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.
- 18 For Jehovah is our shield, and the Holy One of Israel, our king.
- 19 Then thou spakest in vision of thy Holy One, and saidst, I have laid help upon a mighty one; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:
- 21 With whom my hand shall be established; and mine arm shall strengthen him.
- 22 No enemy shall exact upon him, nor the son of wickedness afflict him;
- 23 But I will beat down his adversaries before his face, and will smite them that hate him.
- 24 And my faithfulness and my loving-kindness shall be with him, and by my name shall his horn be exalted.
- 25 And I will set his hand in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
- 26 He shall call unto me, Thou art my father, my *God, and the rock of my salvation;
- 27 And as to me, I will make him firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
- 28 My loving-kindness will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him;
- 29 And I will establish his seed for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
- 30 If his sons forsake my law, and walk not in mine ordinances;
- 31 If they profane my statutes, and keep not my commandments:

- 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
- 33 Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor belie my faithfulness;
- 34 My covenant will I not profane, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
- 35 Once have I sworn by my holiness; I will not lie unto David:
- 36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me;
- 37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and the witness in the sky is firm. Selah.
- 38 But thou hast rejected and cast off; thou hast been very wroth with thine anointed:
- 39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant; thou hast profaned his crown to the ground:
- 40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin.
- 41 All that pass by the way plunder him; he is become a reproach to his neighbours.
- 42 Thou hast exalted the right hand of his oppressors; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice:
- 43 Yea, thou hast turned back the edge of his sword, and hast not made him stand in the battle.
- 44 Thou hast made his brightness to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground;
- 45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened; thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.
- 46 How long, Jehovah, wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy fury burn like fire?
- 47 Remember, as regards me, what life is. Wherefore hast thou created all the children of men to be vanity?
- 48 What man liveth, and shall not see death? Shall he deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah.
- 49 Where, Lord, are thy former loving-kindnesses, [which] thou swarest unto David in thy faithfulness?
- 50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants — that I bear in my bosom [that of] all the mighty peoples —
- 51 Wherewith thine enemies, O Jehovah, have reproached, wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.
- 52 Blessed be Jehovah for evermore! Amen, and Amen.

A Prayer of Moses, the man of °God.

- 1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, and thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from eternity to eternity thou art *God.
- 3 Thou makest [mortal] man to return to dust, and sayest, Return, children of men.
- 4 For a thousand years, in thy sight, are as yesterday when it is past, and [as] a watch in the night.

° 90: Elohim * 90:2 El

- 5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are [as] a sleep: in the morning they are like grass [that] groweth up:
 6 In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down and withereth.
 7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy fury are we troubled.
 8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret [sins] in the light of thy countenance.
 9 For all our days pass away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a [passing] thought.
 10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if, by reason of strength, they be fourscore years, yet their pride is labour and vanity, for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
 11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? and thy wrath according to the fear of thee?
 12 So teach [us] to number our days, that we may acquire a wise heart.
 13 Return, Jehovah: how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
 14 Satisfy us early with thy loving-kindness; that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
 15 Make us glad according to the days [wherein] thou hast afflicted us, according to the years [wherein] we have seen evil.
 16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy majesty unto their sons.
 17 And let the beauty of Jehovah our °God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us: yea, the work of our hands, establish thou it.

91

- 1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
 2 I say of Jehovah, My refuge and my fortress; my °God, I will confide in him.
 3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, [and] from the destructive pestilence.
 4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou find refuge: his truth is a shield and buckler.
 5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, for the arrow that flieth by day,
 6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
 7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; [but] it shall not come nigh thee.
 8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.
 9 Because thou hast made Jehovah, my refuge, the Most High, thy dwelling-place, 10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.
 11 For he shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to keep thee in all thy ways:

- 12 They shall bear thee up in [their] hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
- 13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and the adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.
- 14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him.
- 16 With length of days will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

A Psalm, a Song, for the Sabbath day.

- 1 It is good to give thanks unto Jehovah, and to sing psalms unto thy name, O Most High;
- 2 To declare thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness in the nights,
- 3 Upon an instrument of ten strings and upon the lute; upon the Higgsaion with the harp.
- 4 For thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad through thy work; I will triumph in the works of thy hands.
- 5 Jehovah, how great are thy works! Thy thoughts are very deep:
- 6 A brutish man knoweth not, neither doth a fool understand it.
- 7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity flourish, it is that they may be destroyed for ever.
- 8 And thou, Jehovah, art on high for evermore.
- 9 For lo, thine enemies, O Jehovah, for lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
- 10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like a buffalo's: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.
- 11 And mine eye shall see [its desire] on mine enemies; mine ears shall hear [it] of the evil-doers that rise up against me.
- 12 The righteous shall shoot forth like a palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar on Lebanon.
- 13 Those that are planted in the house of Jehovah shall flourish in the courts of our °God:
- 14 They are still vigorous in old age, they are full of sap and green;
- 15 To shew that Jehovah is upright: [he is] my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93

- 1 Jehovah reigneth, he hath clothed himself with majesty: Jehovah hath clothed himself, he hath girded himself with strength; yea, the world is established, it shall not be moved.
- 2 Thy throne is established of old; thou art from eternity.
- 3 The floods lifted up, O Jehovah, the floods lifted up their voice; the floods lifted up their roaring waves.
- 4 Jehovah on high is mightier than the voices of many waters, than the mighty breakers of the sea.
- 5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thy house, O Jehovah, for ever.

94

- 1 O *God of vengeance, Jehovah, *God of vengeance, shine forth;
 2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth, render the reward to the proud.
 3 How long shall the wicked, O Jehovah, how long shall the wicked triumph?
 4 [How long] shall they utter [and] speak insolence — all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
 5 They crush thy people, O Jehovah, and afflict thine inheritance;
 6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless,
 7 And say, Jah will not see, neither will the °God of Jacob regard [it].
 8 Understand, ye brutish among the people; and ye fools, when will ye be wise?
 9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the eye, shall he not see?
 10 He that instructeth the nations, shall not he correct — he that teacheth man knowledge?
 11 Jehovah knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
 12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Jah, and whom thou teachest out of thy law;
 13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of evil, until the pit be digged for the wicked.
 14 For Jehovah will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance;
 15 For judgment shall return unto righteousness, and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
 16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? who will stand for me against the workers of iniquity?
 17 If Jehovah had not been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
 18 When I said, My foot slippeth, thy loving-kindness, O Jehovah, held me up.
 19 In the multitude of my anxious thoughts within me thy comforts have delighted my soul.
 20 Shall the throne of wickedness be united to thee, which frameth mischief into a law?
 21 They band together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood.
 22 But Jehovah will be my high tower; and my °God the rock of my refuge.
 23 And he will bring upon them their iniquity, and will cut them off in their own evil: Jehovah our °God will cut them off.

95

- 1 Come, let us sing aloud to Jehovah, let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation;
 2 Let us come before his face with thanksgiving; let us shout aloud unto him with psalms.
 3 For Jehovah is a great *God, and a great king above all °gods.
 4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also;
 5 The sea is his, and he made it, and his hands formed the dry [land].

- 6 Come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker.
- 7 For he is our °God; and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. To-day if ye hear his voice,
- 8 Harden not your heart, as at Meribah, as [in] the day of Massah, in the wilderness;
- 9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.
- 10 Forty years was I grieved with the generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways;
- 11 So that I swore in mine anger, that they should not enter into my rest.

96

- 1 Sing ye unto Jehovah a new song: sing unto Jehovah, all the earth.
- 2 Sing unto Jehovah, bless his name; publish his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his glory among the nations, his wondrous works among all the peoples.
- 4 For Jehovah is great and exceedingly to be praised; he is terrible above all °gods.
- 5 For all the °gods of the peoples are idols; but Jehovah made the heavens.
- 6 Majesty and splendour are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- 7 Give unto Jehovah, ye families of peoples, give unto Jehovah glory and strength;
- 8 Give unto Jehovah the glory of his name; bring an oblation and come into his courts;
- 9 Worship Jehovah in holy splendour; tremble before him, all the earth.
- 10 Say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth! yea, the world is established, it shall not be moved; he will execute judgment upon the peoples with equity.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
- 12 Let the field exult and all that is therein. Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy,
- 13 Before Jehovah, for he cometh; for he cometh to judge the earth: he will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.

97

- 1 Jehovah reigneth: let the earth be glad, let the many isles rejoice.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him; righteousness and judgment are the foundation of his throne.
- 3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his adversaries round about.
- 4 His lightnings lightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.
- 5 The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Jehovah, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- 6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.
- 7 Ashamed be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols. Worship him, all ye °gods.

- 8 Zion heard, and rejoiced; and the daughters of Judah were glad, because of thy judgments, O Jehovah.
- 9 For thou, Jehovah, art the Most High above all the earth; thou art exalted exceedingly above all °gods.
- 10 Ye that love Jehovah, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints, he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.
- 11 Light is sown for the righteous, and joy for the upright in heart.
- 12 Rejoice in Jehovah, ye righteous; and give thanks in remembrance of his holiness.

98

A Psalm.

- 1 Sing ye unto Jehovah a new song: for he hath done wondrous things; his right hand and his holy arm hath wrought salvation for him.
- 2 Jehovah hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the nations.
- 3 He hath remembered his loving-kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our °God.
- 4 Shout aloud unto Jehovah, all the earth; break forth and shout for joy, and sing psalms.
- 5 Sing psalms unto Jehovah with the harp: with the harp, and the voice of a song;
- 6 With trumpets and sound of cornet, make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.
- 7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein;
- 8 Let the floods clap [their] hands; let the mountains sing for joy together,
- 9 Before Jehovah, for he cometh to judge the earth: he will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

99

- 1 Jehovah reigneth: let the peoples tremble. He sitteth [between the] cherubim: let the earth be moved.
- 2 Jehovah is great in Zion, and he is high above all the peoples.
- 3 They shall praise thy great and terrible name, — it is holy! —
- 4 And the strength of the king that loveth justice. Thou hast established equity: it is thou that executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.
- 5 Exalt Jehovah our °God, and worship at his footstool. He is holy!
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name: they called unto Jehovah, and he answered them.
- 7 He spoke unto them in the pillar of cloud: they kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.
- 8 Jehovah, our °God, thou answeredst them: a forgiving *God wast thou unto them, though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.
- 9 Exalt Jehovah our °God, and worship at the hill of his holiness; for holy is Jehovah our °God.

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

- <sup>1</sup> Shout aloud unto Jehovah, all the earth!
- <sup>2</sup> Serve Jehovah with joy: come before his presence with exultation.
- <sup>3</sup> Know that Jehovah is °God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; [we are] his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- <sup>4</sup> Enter into his gates with thanksgiving [and] into his courts with praise; give thanks unto him, bless his name:
- <sup>5</sup> For Jehovah is good; his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever; and his faithfulness from generation to generation.

101

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will sing of loving-kindness and judgment: unto thee, Jehovah, will I sing psalms.
- <sup>2</sup> I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. When wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house in the integrity of my heart.
- <sup>3</sup> I will set no thing of Belial before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.
- <sup>4</sup> A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will not know evil.
- <sup>5</sup> Whoso secretly slandereth his neighbour, him will I destroy; him that hath a high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.
- <sup>6</sup> Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.
- <sup>7</sup> He that practiseth deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that speaketh falsehoods shall not subsist in my sight.
- <sup>8</sup> Every morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land: to cut off all workers of iniquity from the city of Jehovah.

102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before Jehovah.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, hear my prayer, and let my cry come unto thee.
- <sup>2</sup> Hide not thy face from me: in the day of my trouble, incline thine ear unto me; in the day I call, answer me speedily.
- <sup>3</sup> For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as a firebrand.
- <sup>4</sup> My heart is smitten and withered like grass; yea, I have forgotten to eat my bread.
- <sup>5</sup> By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my flesh.
- <sup>6</sup> I am become like the pelican of the wilderness, I am as an owl in desolate places;
- <sup>7</sup> I watch, and am like a sparrow alone upon the housetop.
- <sup>8</sup> Mine enemies reproach me all the day; they that are mad against me swear by me.
- <sup>9</sup> For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping,
- <sup>10</sup> Because of thine indignation and thy wrath; for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.
- <sup>11</sup> My days are like a lengthened-out shadow, and I, I am withered like grass.

- 12 But thou, Jehovah, abidest for ever, and thy memorial from generation to generation.
- 13 Thou wilt rise up, thou wilt have mercy upon Zion: for it is the time to be gracious to her, for the set time is come.
- 14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour her dust.
- 15 And the nations shall fear the name of Jehovah, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.
- 16 When Jehovah shall build up Zion, he will appear in his glory.
- 17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute one, and not despise their prayer.
- 18 This shall be written for the generation to come; and a people that shall be created shall praise Jah:
- 19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from the heavens hath Jehovah beheld the earth,
- 20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to die;
- 21 That the name of Jehovah may be declared in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem,
- 22 When the peoples shall be gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah.
- 23 He weakened my strength in the way, he shortened my days.
- 24 I said, My *God, take me not away in the midst of my days! ...Thy years are from generation to generation.
- 25 Of old hast thou founded the earth, and the heavens are the work of thy hands:
- 26 They shall perish, but thou continuest; and all of them shall grow old as a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.
- 27 But thou art the Same, and thy years shall have no end.
- 28 The children of thy servants shall abide, and their seed shall be established before thee.

[A Psalm] of David.

- 1 Bless Jehovah, O my soul; and all that is within me, [bless] his holy name!
- 2 Bless Jehovah, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:
- 3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases;
- 4 Who redeemeth thy life from the pit, who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;
- 5 Who satisfieth thine old age with good [things]; thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- 6 Jehovah executeth righteousness and justice for all that are oppressed.
- 7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.
- 8 Jehovah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness.
- 9 He will not always chide, neither will he keep [his anger] for ever.
- 10 He hath not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

* 102:24 El

- 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving-kindness toward them that fear him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
- 13 As a father pitieth [his] children, so Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.
- 14 For himself knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.
- 15 As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth:
- 16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone, and the place thereof knoweth it no more.
- 17 But the loving-kindness of Jehovah is from everlasting and to everlasting, upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children,
- 18 To such as keep his covenant and to those that remember his precepts to do them.
- 19 Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom ruleth over all.
- 20 Bless Jehovah, ye his angels, mighty in strength, that execute his word, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
- 21 Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his that do his will.
- 22 Bless Jehovah, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless Jehovah, O my soul!

104

- 1 Bless Jehovah, O my soul! Jehovah my <sup>o</sup>God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with majesty and splendour;
- 2 Covering thyself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent-curtain; —
- 3 Who layeth the beams of his upper chambers in the waters, who maketh clouds his chariot, who walketh upon the wings of the wind;
- 4 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flame of fire.
- 5 He laid the earth upon its foundations: it shall not be removed for ever.
- 6 Thou hadst covered it with the deep, as with a vesture; the waters stood above the mountains:
- 7 At thy rebuke they fled, at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away;
- 8 The mountains rose, the valleys sank, unto the place which thou hadst founded for them; —
- 9 Thou hast set a bound which they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.
- 10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys: they run among the mountains;
- 11 They give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst.
- 12 The birds of heaven dwell by them; they give forth their voice from among the branches.
- 13 He watereth the mountains from his upper-chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
- 14 He maketh the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; bringing forth bread out of the earth,

- 15 And wine which gladdeneth the heart of man; making [his] face shine with oil; and with bread he strengtheneth man's heart.
- 16 The trees of Jehovah are satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted,
- 17 Where the birds make their nests; [as for] the stork, the fir trees are her house.
- 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats; the cliffs, a refuge for the rock-badgers.
- 19 He made the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth its going down.
- 20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night, wherein all the beasts of the forest creep forth:
- 21 The young lions roar after the prey, and to seek their food from *God.
- 22 The sun ariseth, they retreat, and lay them down in their dens.
- 23 Man goeth forth unto his work, and to his labour until the evening.
- 24 How manifold are thy works, O Jehovah! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.
- 25 Yonder is the great and wide sea: therein are moving things innumerable, living creatures small and great.
- 26 There go the ships; [there] that leviathan, which thou hast formed to play therein.
- 27 These all look unto thee, that thou mayest give their food in its season:
- 28 That thou givest unto them, they gather; thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.
- 29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; thou takest away their breath, they expire and return to their dust.
- 30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created, and thou renewest the face of the earth.
- 31 The glory of Jehovah will endure for ever; Jehovah will rejoice in his works.
- 32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth; he toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing unto Jehovah as long as I live; I will sing psalms to my °God while I have my being.
- 34 My meditation shall be pleasant unto him; I will rejoice in Jehovah.
- 35 Sinners shall be consumed out of the earth, and the wicked shall be no more. Bless Jehovah, O my soul. Hallelujah!

- 4 Seek Jehovah and his strength, seek his face continually;

- 8 He is ever mindful of his covenant, — the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, —
- 9 Which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;
- 10 And he confirmed it unto Jacob for a statute, unto Israel for an everlasting covenant,
- 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;
- 12 When they were a few men in number, of small account, and strangers in it.
- 13 And they went from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.
- 14 He suffered no man to oppress them, and reproved kings for their sakes,
- 15 [Saying,] Touch not mine anointed ones, and do my prophets no harm.
- 16 And he called for a famine upon the land; he broke the whole staff of bread.
- 17 He sent a man before them: Joseph was sold for a bondman.
- 18 They afflicted his feet with fetters; his soul came into irons;
- 19 Until the time when what he said came about: the word of Jehovah tried him.
- 20 The king sent and loosed him — the ruler of peoples — and let him go free.
- 21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler over all his possessions:
- 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his elders wisdom.
- 23 And Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
- 24 And he made his people exceeding fruitful, and made them mightier than their oppressors.
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant, [and] Aaron whom he had chosen:
- 27 They set his signs among them, and miracles in the land of Ham.
- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.
- 29 He turned their waters into blood, and caused their fish to die.
- 30 Their land swarmed with frogs, — in the chambers of their kings.
- 31 He spoke, and there came dog-flies, [and] gnats in all their borders.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain, [and] flaming fire in their land;
- 33 And he smote their vines and their fig-trees, and broke the trees of their borders.
- 34 He spoke, and the locust came, and the cankerworm, even without number;
- 35 And they devoured every herb in their land, and ate up the fruit of their ground.
- 36 And he smote every firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their vigour.
- 37 And he brought them forth with silver and gold; and there was not one feeble among their tribes.
- 38 Egypt rejoiced at their departure; for the fear of them had fallen upon them.
- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.
- 40 They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

- 41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed forth; they ran in the dry places [like] a river.
 42 For he remembered his holy word, [and] Abraham his servant;
 43 And he brought forth his people with gladness, his chosen with rejoicing;
 44 And he gave them the lands of the nations, and they took possession of the labour of the peoples:
 45 That they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws. Hallelujah!

- 1 Hallelujah! Give ye thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Jehovah? [who] can shew forth all his praise?
 3 Blessed are they that keep justice, [and] he that doeth righteousness at all times.
 4 Remember me, O Jehovah, with [thy] favour toward thy people; visit me with thy salvation:
 5 That I may see the prosperity of thy chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the joy of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.
 6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
 7 Our fathers in Egypt considered not thy wondrous works; they remembered not the multitude of thy loving-kindnesses; but they rebelled at the sea, at the Red Sea.
 8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his might.
 9 And he rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up; and he led them through the deeps as through a wilderness.
 10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated [them], and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
 11 And the waters covered their oppressors: there was not one of them left.
 12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.
 13 They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:
 14 And they lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted *God in the desert.
 15 Then he gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.
 16 And they envied Moses in the camp, [and] Aaron, the saint of Jehovah.
 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram;
 18 And fire was kindled in their company; a flame burned up the wicked.
 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and did homage to a molten image;
 20 And they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.
 21 They forgot *God their Saviour, who had done great things in Egypt, 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, terrible things by the Red Sea.
 23 And he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses, his chosen, stood before him in the breach, to turn away his fury, lest he should destroy [them].

- 24 And they despised the pleasant land; they believed not his word, 25 But murmured in their tents: they hearkened not unto the voice of Jehovah.
 26 And he lifted up his hand to them, that he would make them fall in the wilderness;
 27 And that he would make their seed fall among the nations, and disperse them through the countries.
 28 And they joined themselves unto Baal-Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead;
 29 And they provoked [him] to anger with their doings; and a plague broke out among them.
 30 Then stood up Phinehas and executed judgment, and the plague was stayed;
 31 And that was reckoned unto him for righteousness, from generation to generation, for evermore.
 32 And they moved him to wrath at the waters of Meribah, and it went ill with Moses on their account;
 33 For they provoked his spirit, so that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
 34 They did not destroy the peoples, as Jehovah commanded them;
 35 But they mingled with the nations, and learned their works;
 36 And they served their idols; and they were a snare unto them:
 37 And they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto demons,
 38 And shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.
 39 And they were defiled with their works, and went a-whoring in their doings.
 40 Then was the anger of Jehovah kindled against his people, and he abhorred his inheritance;
 41 And he gave them into the hand of the nations; and they that hated them ruled over them:
 42 And their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.
 43 Often did he deliver them; but as for them they provoked [him] by their counsel, and they were brought low by their iniquity.
 44 But he regarded their distress, when he heard their cry;
 45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses;
 46 And he caused them to find compassion of all those that had carried them captives.
 47 Save us, Jehovah our °God, and gather us from among the nations, to give thanks unto thy holy name, [and] to triumph in thy praise.
 48 Blessed be Jehovah the °God of Israel, from eternity and to eternity!
 And let all the people say, Amen! Hallelujah!

- 1 Give ye thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.

° 106:47 Elohim    ° 106:48 Elohim

- 2 Let the redeemed of Jehovah say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the oppressor;
- 3 And gathered out of the countries, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the sea.
- 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way, they found no city of habitation;
- 5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them:
- 6 Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble, [and] he delivered them out of their distresses,
- 7 And he led them forth by a right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.
- 8 Let them give thanks unto Jehovah for his loving-kindness, and for his wondrous works to the children of men;
- 9 For he hath satisfied the longing soul and filled the hungry soul with good.
- 10 Such as inhabit darkness and the shadow of death, bound in affliction and iron,
- 11 Because they had rebelled against the words of *God, and had despised the counsel of the Most High; ...
- 12 And he bowed down their heart with labour; they stumbled, and there was none to help:
- 13 Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble, [and] he saved them out of their distresses;
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bands in sunder.
- 15 Let them give thanks unto Jehovah for his loving-kindness, and for his wondrous works to the children of men;
- 16 For he hath broken the gates of bronze, and cut asunder the bars of iron.
- 17 Fools, because of their way of transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted;
- 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of food, and they draw near unto the gates of death:
- 19 Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble, [and] he saveth them out of their distresses;
- 20 He sendeth his word, and healeth them, and delivereth them from their destructions.
- 21 Let them give thanks unto Jehovah for his loving-kindness, and for his wondrous works to the children of men,
- 22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works in joyful song.
- 23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters,
- 24 These see the works of Jehovah, and his wonders in the deep.
- 25 For he speaketh, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof:
- 26 They mount up to the heavens, they go down to the depths; their soul is melted because of trouble;
- 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and they are at their wits' end:
- 28 Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses;

* 107:11 El

- 29 He maketh the storm a calm, and the waves thereof are still:
 30 And they rejoice because they are quiet; and he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
 31 Let them give thanks unto Jehovah for his loving-kindness, and for his wondrous works to the children of men;
 32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the session of the elders.
 33 He maketh rivers into a wilderness, and water-springs into dry ground;
 34 A fruitful land into a plain of salt, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
 35 He maketh the wilderness into a pool of water, and the dry land into water-springs;
 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, and they establish a city of habitation;
 37 And sow fields, and plant vineyards, which yield fruits of increase;
 38 And he blesseth them, so that they are multiplied greatly; and he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
 39 And they are diminished and brought low, through oppression, adversity, and sorrow:
 40 He poureth contempt upon nobles, and causeth them to wander in a pathless waste;
 41 But he secureth the needy one on high from affliction, and maketh [him] families like flocks.
 42 The upright shall see it, and rejoice; and all unrighteousness shall stop its mouth.
 43 Whoso is wise, let him observe these things, and let them understand the loving-kindnesses of Jehovah.

A Song, a Psalm of David.

- 1 My heart is fixed, O °God: I will sing, yea, I will sing psalms, even [with] my glory.
 2 Awake, lute and harp: I will wake the dawn.
 3 I will give thee thanks among the peoples, O Jehovah; of thee will I sing psalms among the nations:
 4 For thy loving-kindness is great above the heavens, and thy truth is unto the clouds.
 5 Be thou exalted above the heavens, O °God, and thy glory above all the earth.
 6 That thy beloved ones may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.
 7 °God hath spoken in his holiness: I will exult, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
 8 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine, and Ephraim is the strength of my head; Judah is my law-giver;
 9 Moab is my wash-pot; upon Edom will I cast my sandal; over Philistia will I shout aloud.
 10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me unto Edom?

- 11 [Wilt] not [thou], O °God, who didst cast us off? and didst not go forth, O °God, with our armies?
12 Give us help from trouble; for vain is man's deliverance.
13 Through °God we shall do valiantly; and he it is that will tread down our adversaries.

109

To the chief Musician. Of David. A Psalm.

- 1 O °God of my praise, be not silent:
2 For the mouth of the wicked [man] and the mouth of deceit are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue, 3 And with words of hatred have they encompassed me; and they fight against me without a cause.
4 For my love they are mine adversaries; but I [give myself unto] prayer.
5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
6 Set a wicked [man] over him, and let [the] adversary stand at his right hand;
7 When he shall be judged, let him go out guilty, and let his prayer become sin;
8 Let his days be few, let another take his office;
9 Let his sons be fatherless, and his wife a widow;
10 Let his sons be vagabonds and beg, and let them seek [their bread] far from their desolate places;
11 Let the usurer cast the net over all that he hath, and let strangers despoil his labour;
12 Let there be none to extend kindness unto him, neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children;
13 Let his posterity be cut off; in the generation following let their name be blotted out:
14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Jehovah, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out; 15 Let them be before Jehovah continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth:
16 Because he remembered not to shew kindness, but persecuted the afflicted and needy man, and the broken in heart, to slay him.
17 And he loved cursing; so let it come unto him. And he delighted not in blessing; and let it be far from him.
18 And he clothed himself with cursing like his vestment; so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones; 19 Let it be unto him as a garment with which he covereth himself, and for a girdle wherewith he is constantly girded.
20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from Jehovah, and of them that speak evil against my soul.
21 But do thou for me, Jehovah, Lord, for thy name's sake; because thy loving-kindness is good, deliver me:
22 For I am afflicted and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
23 I am gone like a shadow when it lengtheneth; I am tossed about like the locust;
24 My knees are failing through fasting, and my flesh hath lost its fatness;

- 25 And I am become a reproach unto them; [when] they look upon me they shake their heads.
- 26 Help me, Jehovah my <sup>o</sup>God; save me according to thy loving-kindness:
- 27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, Jehovah, hast done it.
- 28 Let them curse, but bless thou; when they rise up, let them be ashamed, and let thy servant rejoice.
- 29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with confusion, and let them cover themselves with their shame as with a mantle.
- 30 I will greatly celebrate Jehovah with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.
- 31 For he standeth at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those that judge his soul.

110

Psalm of David.

- 1 Jehovah said unto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put thine enemies [as] footstool of thy feet.
- 2 Jehovah shall send the sceptre of thy might out of Zion: rule in the midst of thine enemies.
- 3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in holy splendour: from the womb of the morning [shall come] to thee the dew of thy youth.
- 4 Jehovah hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art priest for ever after the order of Melchisedek.
- 5 The Lord at thy right hand will smite through kings in the day of his anger.
- 6 He shall judge among the nations; he shall fill [all places] with dead bodies; he shall smite through the head over a great country.
- 7 He shall drink of the brook in the way; therefore shall he lift up the head.

111

- 1 Hallelujah! I will celebrate Jehovah with [my] whole heart, in the council of the upright, and in the assembly.
- 2 Great are the works of Jehovah; sought out of all that delight in them.
- 3 His work is majesty and splendour, and his righteousness abideth for ever.
- 4 He hath made his wonders to be remembered: Jehovah is gracious and merciful.
- 5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He hath shewn his people the power of his works, to give them the heritage of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are truth and judgment; all his precepts are faithful:
- 8 Maintained for ever and ever, done in truth and uprightness.
- 9 He sent deliverance unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and terrible is his name.
- 10 The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do [his precepts]: his praise abideth for ever.

- <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! Blessed is the man that feareth Jehovah, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.
- <sup>2</sup> His seed shall be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright shall be blessed.
- <sup>3</sup> Wealth and riches [shall be] in his house; and his righteousness abideth for ever.
- <sup>4</sup> Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness; he is gracious, and merciful, and righteous.
- <sup>5</sup> It is well with the man that is gracious and lendeth; he will sustain his cause in judgment.
- <sup>6</sup> For he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.
- <sup>7</sup> He shall not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is fixed confiding in Jehovah;
- <sup>8</sup> His heart is maintained, he is not afraid, until he see [his desire] upon his oppressors.
- <sup>9</sup> He scattereth abroad, he giveth to the needy; his righteousness abideth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.
- <sup>10</sup> The wicked [man] shall see [it] and be vexed; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

113

- <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! Praise, ye servants of Jehovah, praise the name of Jehovah.
- <sup>2</sup> Blessed be the name of Jehovah, from this time forth and for evermore!
- <sup>3</sup> From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, let Jehovah's name be praised.
- <sup>4</sup> Jehovah is high above all nations, his glory above the heavens.
- <sup>5</sup> Who is like unto Jehovah our °God, who hath placed his dwelling on high;
- <sup>6</sup> Who humbleth himself to look on the heavens and on the earth?
- <sup>7</sup> He raiseth up the poor out of the dust; from the dung-hill he lifteth up the needy,
- <sup>8</sup> To set [him] among nobles, among the nobles of his people.
- <sup>9</sup> He maketh the barren woman to keep house, [as] a joyful mother of sons. Hallelujah!

114

- <sup>1</sup> When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
- <sup>2</sup> Judah was his sanctuary, Israel his dominion.
- <sup>3</sup> The sea saw it and fled, the Jordan turned back;
- <sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.
- <sup>5</sup> What ailed thee, thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou turnedst back?
- <sup>6</sup> Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams? ye hills, like lambs?
- <sup>7</sup> Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the *God of Jacob,
- <sup>8</sup> Who turned the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

115

- <sup>1</sup> Not unto us, O Jehovah, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth's sake.
- <sup>2</sup> Wherefore should the nations say, Where then is their °God?
- <sup>3</sup> But our °God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he pleased.
- <sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands:
- <sup>5</sup> They have a mouth, and they speak not; eyes have they, and they see not;
- <sup>6</sup> They have ears, and they hear not; a nose have they, and they smell not;
- <sup>7</sup> They have hands, and they handle not; feet have they, and they walk not; they give no sound through their throat.
- <sup>8</sup> They that make them are like unto them, — every one that confideth in them.
- <sup>9</sup> O Israel, confide thou in Jehovah: he is their help and their shield.
- <sup>10</sup> House of Aaron, confide in Jehovah: he is their help and their shield.
- <sup>11</sup> Ye that fear Jehovah, confide in Jehovah: he is their help and their shield.
- <sup>12</sup> Jehovah hath been mindful of us: he will bless, he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron;
- <sup>13</sup> He will bless them that fear Jehovah, both the small and the great.
- <sup>14</sup> Jehovah will add unto you more, unto you and unto your children.
- <sup>15</sup> Ye are blessed of Jehovah, who made the heavens and the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> The heavens are the heavens of Jehovah, but the earth hath he given to the children of men.
- <sup>17</sup> The dead praise not Jah, neither any that go down into silence;
- <sup>18</sup> But we will bless Jah from this time forth and for evermore. Hallelu-jah!

116

- <sup>1</sup> I love Jehovah, for he hath heard my voice [and] my supplications;
- <sup>2</sup> For he hath inclined his ear unto me, and I will call upon him during [all] my days.
- <sup>3</sup> The bands of death encompassed me, and the anguish of Sheol took hold of me; I found trouble and sorrow:
- <sup>4</sup> Then called I upon the name of Jehovah: I beseech thee, Jehovah, deliver my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> Gracious is Jehovah and righteous; and our °God is merciful.
- <sup>6</sup> Jehovah keepeth the simple: I was brought low, and he saved me.
- <sup>7</sup> Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for Jehovah hath dealt bountifully with thee.
- <sup>8</sup> For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, my feet from falling.
- <sup>9</sup> I will walk before Jehovah in the land of the living.
- <sup>10</sup> I believed, therefore have I spoken. As for me, I was greatly afflicted.
- <sup>11</sup> I said in my haste, All men are liars.
- <sup>12</sup> What shall I render unto Jehovah, [for] all his benefits toward me?
- <sup>13</sup> I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of Jehovah.
- <sup>14</sup> I will perform my vows unto Jehovah, yea, before all his people.
- <sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of his saints.

- 16 Yea, Jehovah! for I am thy servant; I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.
 17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of Jehovah.
 18 I will perform my vows unto Jehovah, yea, before all his people, 19 In the courts of Jehovah's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
 Hallelujah!

117

- 1 Praise Jehovah, all ye nations; laud him, all ye peoples;
 2 For his loving-kindness is great toward us, and the truth of Jehovah [endureth] for ever. Hallelujah!

118

- 1 Give ye thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 2 Oh let Israel say, that his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 3 Oh let the house of Aaron say, that his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 4 Oh let them that fear Jehovah say, that his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 5 I called upon Jah in distress; Jah answered me [and set me] in a large place.
 6 Jehovah is for me, I will not fear; what can man do unto me?
 7 Jehovah is for me among them that help me; and I shall see [my desire] upon them that hate me.
 8 It is better to trust in Jehovah than to put confidence in man;
 9 It is better to trust in Jehovah than to put confidence in nobles.
 10 All nations encompassed me; but in the name of Jehovah have I destroyed them.
 11 They encompassed me, yea, encompassed me; but in the name of Jehovah have I destroyed them.
 12 They encompassed me like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of Jehovah have I destroyed them.
 13 Thou hast thrust hard at me that I might fall; but Jehovah helped me.
 14 My strength and song is Jah, and he is become my salvation.
 15 The voice of triumph and salvation is in the tents of the righteous: the right hand of Jehovah doeth valiantly;
 16 The right hand of Jehovah is exalted, the right hand of Jehovah doeth valiantly.
 17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of Jah.
 18 Jah hath chastened me sore; but he hath not given me over unto death.
 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will enter into them; Jah will I praise.
 20 This is the gate of Jehovah: the righteous shall enter therein.
 21 I will give thee thanks, for thou hast answered me, and art become my salvation.
 22 [The] stone which the builders rejected hath become the head of the corner:
 23 This is of Jehovah; it is wonderful in our eyes.
 24 This is the day that Jehovah hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

- 25 Oh save, Jehovah, I beseech thee; Jehovah, I beseech thee, oh send prosperity!
- 26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of Jehovah. We have blessed you out of the house of Jehovah.
- 27 Jehovah is *God, and he hath given us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, — up to the horns of the altar.
- 28 Thou art my *God, and I will give thee thanks; my °God, I will exalt thee.
- 29 Give ye thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.

- 1 ALEPH. Blessed are the perfect in the way, who walk in the law of Jehovah.
- 2 Blessed are they that observe his testimonies, that seek him with the whole heart;
- 3 Who also do no unrighteousness: they walk in his ways.
- 4 Thou hast enjoined thy precepts, to be kept diligently.
- 5 Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!
- 6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.
- 7 I will give thee thanks with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.
- 8 I will keep thy statutes: forsake me not utterly.
- 9 BETH. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his path? by taking heed according to thy word.
- 10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: let me not wander from thy commandments.
- 11 Thy *word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.
- 12 Blessed art thou, Jehovah! teach me thy statutes.
- 13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.
- 14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as [much as] in all wealth.
- 15 I will meditate upon thy precepts, and have respect unto thy paths.
- 16 I delight myself in thy statutes; I will not forget thy word.
- 17 GIMEL. Deal bountifully with thy servant [and] I shall live; and I will keep thy word.
- 18 Open mine eyes, and I shall behold wondrous things out of thy law.
- 19 I am a stranger in the land; hide not thy commandments from me.
- 20 My soul breaketh for longing after thy judgments at all times.
- 21 Thou hast rebuked the proud [that are] cursed, who wander from thy commandments.
- 22 Roll off from me reproach and contempt; for I observe thy testimonies.
- 23 Princes also did sit [and] talk together against me: thy servant doth meditate in thy statutes.
- 24 Thy testimonies also are my delight [and] my counsellors.
- 25 DALETH. My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken me according to thy word.
- 26 I have declared my ways, and thou hast answered me: teach me thy statutes.

* 118:27 El    * 118:28 El    ° 118:28 Elohim

- 27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts, and I will meditate upon thy wondrous works.
- 28 My soul melteth for sadness: strengthen me according to thy word.
- 29 Remove from me the way of falsehood, and graciously grant me thy law.
- 30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness; thy judgments have I set [before me].
- 31 I cleave unto thy testimonies; Jehovah, let me not be ashamed.
- 32 I will run the way of thy commandments when thou shalt enlarge my heart.
- 33 HE. Teach me, O Jehovah, the way of thy statutes, and I will observe it [unto] the end.
- 34 Give me understanding, and I will observe thy law; and I will keep it with [my] whole heart.
- 35 Make me to walk in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.
- 36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to gain.
- 37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; quicken me in thy way.
- 38 Establish thy *word unto thy servant, who is [devoted] to thy fear.
- 39 Turn away my reproach which I fear; for thy judgments are good.
- 40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.
- 41 VAU. And let thy loving-kindness come unto me, O Jehovah, — thy salvation according to thy *word.
- 42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me; for I confide in thy word.
- 43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; because I have hoped in thy judgments.
- 44 Then will I keep thy law continually, for ever and ever;
- 45 And I will walk at liberty, for I have sought thy precepts;
- 46 And I will speak of thy testimonies before kings, and will not be ashamed;
- 47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved;
- 48 And I will lift up my hands unto thy commandments, which I have loved, and I will meditate in thy statutes.
- 49 ZAIN. Remember the word for thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.
- 50 This is my comfort in mine affliction; for thy *word hath quickened me.
- 51 The proud have derided me beyond measure: I have not declined from thy law.
- 52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O Jehovah, and have comforted myself.
- 53 Burning indignation hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked who forsake thy law.
- 54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.
- 55 I have remembered thy name, O Jehovah, in the night, and have kept thy law.
- 56 This I have had, because I have observed thy precepts.
- 57 CHETH. My portion, O Jehovah, I have said, is to keep thy words.

- 58 I have sought thy favour with [my] whole heart: be gracious unto me according to thy *word.
- 59 I have thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
- 60 I have made haste, and not delayed, to keep thy commandments.
- 61 The bands of the wicked have wrapped me round: I have not forgotten thy law.
- 62 At midnight I rise up to give thanks unto thee, because of thy righteous judgments.
- 63 I am the companion of all that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.
- 64 The earth, O Jehovah, is full of thy loving-kindness: teach me thy statutes.
- 65 TETH. Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Jehovah, according to thy word.
- 66 Teach me good discernment and knowledge; for I have believed in thy commandments.
- 67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep thy *word.
- 68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.
- 69 The proud have forged falsehood against me: I will observe thy precepts with [my] whole heart.
- 70 Their heart is as fat as grease: as for me, I delight in thy law.
- 71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I might learn thy statutes.
- 72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.
- 73 YOD. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, and I will learn thy commandments.
- 74 They that fear thee will see me, and rejoice; because I have hoped in thy word.
- 75 I know, Jehovah, that thy Judgments are righteousness, and that in faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.
- 76 Oh let thy loving-kindness be for my comfort, according to thy *word unto thy servant.
- 77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live; for thy law is my delight.
- 78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they have acted perversely towards me with falsehood: as for me, I meditate in thy precepts.
- 79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that know thy testimonies.
- 80 Let my heart be perfect in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.
- 81 CAPH. My soul fainteth for thy salvation; I hope in thy word.
- 82 Mine eyes fail for thy *word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?
- 83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; I do not forget thy statutes.
- 84 How many shall be the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?
- 85 The proud have digged pits for me, which is not according to thy law.
- 86 All thy commandments are faithfulness. They persecute me wrongfully: help thou me.
- 87 They had almost consumed me upon the earth; but as for me, I forsook not thy precepts.

- 88 Quicken me according to thy loving-kindness, and I will keep the testimony of thy mouth.
- 89 LAMED. For ever, O Jehovah, thy word is settled in the heavens.
- 90 Thy faithfulness is from generation to generation: thou hast established the earth, and it standeth.
- 91 By thine ordinances they stand this day; for all things are thy servants.
- 92 Unless thy law had been my delight, I should then have perished in mine affliction.
- 93 I will never forget thy precepts; for by them thou hast quickened me.
- 94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.
- 95 The wicked have awaited me to destroy me; [but] I attend unto thy testimonies.
- 96 I have seen an end of all perfection: thy commandment is exceeding broad.
- 97 MEM. Oh how I love thy law! it is my meditation all the day.
- 98 Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies; for they are ever with me.
- 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers; for thy testimonies are my meditation.
- 100 I understand more than the aged, because I have observed thy precepts.
- 101 I have refrained my feet from every evil path, that I might keep thy word.
- 102 I have not departed from thy judgments; for it is thou that hast taught me.
- 103 How sweet are thy *words unto my taste! more than honey to my mouth!
- 104 From thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false path.
- 105 NUN. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
- 106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.
- 107 I am afflicted very much; O Jehovah, quicken me according to thy word.
- 108 Accept, I beseech thee, Jehovah, the voluntary-offerings of my mouth, and teach me thy judgments.
- 109 My life is continually in my hand; but I do not forget thy law.
- 110 The wicked have laid a snare for me; but I have not wandered from thy precepts.
- 111 Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage for ever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart.
- 112 I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes for ever, unto the end.
- 113 SAMECH. The double-minded have I hated; but thy law do I love.
- 114 Thou art my hiding-place and my shield: I hope in thy word.
- 115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers; and I will observe the commandments of my °God.
- 116 Uphold me according to thy *word, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
- 117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe; and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

- 118 Thou hast set at nought all them that wander from thy statutes; for their deceit is falsehood.
- 119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth [like] dross; therefore I love thy testimonies.
- 120 My flesh shuddereth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.
- 121 AIN. I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.
- 122 Be surety for thy servant for good; let not the proud oppress me.
- 123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the *word of thy righteousness.
- 124 Deal with thy servant according to thy loving-kindness, and teach me thy statutes.
- 125 I am thy servant; give me understanding that I may know thy testimonies.
- 126 It is time for Jehovah to work: they have made void thy law.
- 127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above fine gold.
- 128 Therefore I regard all [thy] precepts concerning all things to be right: I hate every false path.
- 129 PE. Thy testimonies are wonderful; therefore doth my soul observe them.
- 130 The entrance of thy words giveth light, giving understanding unto the simple.
- 131 I opened my mouth wide and panted; for I longed for thy commandments.
- 132 Turn unto me, and be gracious unto me, as thou art wont to do unto those that love thy name.
- 133 Establish my steps in thy *word; and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
- 134 Deliver me from the oppression of man; and I will keep thy precepts.
- 135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant, and teach me thy statutes.
- 136 Mine eyes run down with streams of water, because they keep not thy law.
- 137 TZADE. Righteous art thou, Jehovah, and upright are thy judgments.
- 138 Thou hast commanded thy testimonies in righteousness and exceeding faithfulness.
- 139 My zeal destroyeth me, because mine oppressors have forgotten thy words.
- 140 Thy *word is exceeding pure, and thy servant loveth it.
- 141 I am little and despised: thy precepts have I not forgotten.
- 142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is truth.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold upon me: thy commandments are my delights.
- 144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is for ever: give me understanding, and I shall live.
- 145 KOPH. I have called with [my] whole heart; answer me, O Jehovah: I will observe thy statutes.
- 146 I call upon thee; save me, and I will keep thy testimonies.
- 147 I anticipate the morning-dawn and I cry: I hope in thy word.
- 148 Mine eyes anticipate the night-watches, that I may meditate in thy *word.

- 149 Hear my voice according to thy loving-kindness: O Jehovah, quicken me according to thy judgment.
- 150 They have drawn nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.
- 151 Thou, Jehovah, art near, and all thy commandments are truth.
- 152 From thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.
- 153 RESH. See mine affliction, and deliver me; for I have not forgotten thy law.
- 154 Plead my cause, and redeem me: quicken me according to thy *word.
- 155 Salvation is far from the wicked; for they seek not thy statutes.
- 156 Many are thy tender mercies, O Jehovah; quicken me according to thy judgments.
- 157 Many are my persecutors and mine oppressors; I have not declined from thy testimonies.
- 158 I beheld them that deal treacherously, and was grieved; because they kept not thy *word.
- 159 See how I have loved thy precepts: quicken me, O Jehovah, according to thy loving-kindness.
- 160 The sum of thy word is truth, and every righteous judgment of thine is for ever.
- 161 SHIN. Princes have persecuted me without a cause; but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.
- 162 I have joy in thy *word, as one that findeth great spoil.
- 163 I hate and abhor falsehood; thy law do I love.
- 164 Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.
- 165 Great peace have they that love thy law, and nothing doth stumble them.
- 166 I have hoped for thy salvation, O Jehovah, and have done thy commandments.
- 167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies, and I love them exceedingly.
- 168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies; for all my ways are before thee.
- 169 TAU. Let my cry come near before thee, Jehovah: give me understanding according to thy word.
- 170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy *word.
- 171 My lips shall pour forth praise when thou hast taught me thy statutes.
- 172 My tongue shall speak aloud of thy *word; for all thy commandments are righteousness.
- 173 Let thy hand be for my help; for I have chosen thy precepts.
- 174 I have longed for thy salvation, O Jehovah, and thy law is my delight.
- 175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.
- 176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I have not forgotten thy commandments.

120

A Song of degrees.

- <sup>3</sup> What shall be given unto thee, what shall be added unto thee, thou deceitful tongue?
<sup>5</sup> Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
<sup>6</sup> My soul hath long dwelt with them that hate peace.
<sup>7</sup> I [am for] peace; but when I speak, they [are] for war.

121

A Song of degrees.

- <sup>1</sup> I lift up mine eyes unto the mountains: whence shall my help come?
<sup>2</sup> My help [cometh] from Jehovah, who made the heavens and the earth.
<sup>3</sup> He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
<sup>7</sup> Jehovah will keep thee from all evil; he will keep thy soul.
<sup>8</sup> Jehovah will keep thy going out and thy coming in, from henceforth and for evermore.

122

A Song of degrees. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I rejoiced when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of Jehovah.
<sup>5</sup> For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.
<sup>8</sup> For my brethren and companions' sakes I will say, Peace be within thee!

123

A Song of degrees.

- <sup>1</sup> Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
<sup>2</sup> Behold, as the eyes of servants [look] unto the hand of their masters, as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress, so our eyes [are directed] to Jehovah our <sup>o</sup>God, until he be gracious unto us.
<sup>3</sup> Be gracious unto us, O Jehovah, be gracious unto us; for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
<sup>4</sup> Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

124

A Song of degrees. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> If it had not been Jehovah who was for us — oh let Israel say —

<sup>o</sup> 122:9 Elohim    <sup>o</sup> 123:2 Elohim

- 2 If it had not been Jehovah who was for us, when men rose up against us,
 3 Then they had swallowed us up alive, when their anger was kindled against us;
 4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, a torrent had gone over our soul;
 5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
 6 Blessed be Jehovah, who gave us not up a prey to their teeth!
 7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we have escaped.
 8 Our help is in the name of Jehovah, the maker of heavens and earth.

125

A Song of degrees.

- 1 They that confide in Jehovah are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved; it abideth for ever.
 2 Jerusalem! — mountains are round about her, and Jehovah is round about his people, from henceforth and for evermore.
 3 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.
 4 Do good, O Jehovah, unto the good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.
 5 But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, Jehovah will lead them forth with the workers of iniquity. Peace be upon Israel!

126

A Song of degrees.

- 1 When Jehovah turned the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.
 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with rejoicing; then said they among the nations, Jehovah hath done great things for them.
 3 Jehovah hath done great things for us; [and] we are joyful.
 4 Turn our captivity, O Jehovah, as the streams in the south.
 5 They that sow in tears shall reap with rejoicing:
 6 He goeth forth and weepeth, bearing seed for scattering; he cometh again with rejoicing, bearing his sheaves.

127

A Song of degrees. Of Solomon.

- 1 Unless Jehovah build the house, in vain do its builders labour in it; unless Jehovah keep the city, the keeper watcheth in vain:
 2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to lie down late, to eat the bread of sorrows: so to his beloved one he giveth sleep.
 3 Lo, children are an inheritance from Jehovah, [and] the fruit of the womb a reward.
 4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of youth.
 5 Happy is the man that hath filled his quiver with them. They shall not be ashamed when they speak with enemies in the gate.

128

A Song of degrees.

- 1 Blessed is every one that feareth Jehovah, that walketh in his ways.

- 2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands; happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.
 3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine in the inner part of thy house; thy children like olive-plants round about thy table.
 4 Behold, thus shall the man be blessed that feareth Jehovah.
 5 Jehovah will bless thee out of Zion; and mayest thou see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life,
 6 And see thy children's children. Peace be upon Israel!

129

A Song of degrees.

- 1 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth — oh let Israel say
 2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth; yet they have not prevailed against me.
 3 The ploughers ploughed upon my back; they made long their furrows.
 4 Jehovah is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
 5 Let them be ashamed and turned backward, all that hate Zion;
 6 Let them be as the grass upon the house-tops, which withereth before it is plucked up,
 7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand, nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom;
 8 Neither do the passers-by say, The blessing of Jehovah be upon you; we bless you in the name of Jehovah!

130

A Song of degrees.

- 1 Out of the depths do I call upon thee, Jehovah.
 2 Lord, hear my voice; let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.
 3 If thou, Jah, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand?
 4 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.
 5 I wait for Jehovah; my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.
 6 My soul [waiteth] for the Lord more than the watchers [wait] for the morning, [more than] the watchers for the morning.
 7 Let Israel hope in Jehovah, because with Jehovah there is loving-kindness, and with him is plenteous redemption;
 8 And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

131

A Song of degrees. Of David.

- 1 Jehovah, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty; neither do I exercise myself in great matters, and in things too wonderful for me.
 2 Surely I have restrained and composed my soul, like a weaned child with its mother: my soul within me is as a weaned child.
 3 Let Israel hope in Jehovah, from henceforth and for evermore.

132

A Song of degrees.

- 1 Jehovah, remember for David all his affliction;
 2 How he swore unto Jehovah, vowed unto the Mighty One of Jacob:

- <sup>3</sup> I will not come into the tent of my house, I will not go up to the couch of my bed;
- <sup>4</sup> I will not give sleep to mine eyes, slumber to mine eyelids,
- <sup>5</sup> Until I find out a place for Jehovah, habitations for the Mighty One of Jacob. ...
- <sup>6</sup> Behold, we heard of it at Ephratah, we found it in the fields of the wood.
- <sup>7</sup> Let us go into his habitations, let us worship at his footstool.
- <sup>8</sup> Arise, Jehovah, into thy rest, thou and the ark of thy strength.
- <sup>9</sup> Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and let thy saints shout for joy.
- <sup>10</sup> For thy servant David's sake, turn not away the face of thine anointed.
- <sup>11</sup> Jehovah hath sworn [in] truth unto David; he will not turn from it: Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne;
- <sup>12</sup> If thy children keep my covenant, and my testimonies which I will teach them, their children also for evermore shall sit upon thy throne.
- <sup>13</sup> For Jehovah hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his dwelling:
- <sup>14</sup> This is my rest for ever; here will I dwell, for I have desired it.
- <sup>15</sup> I will abundantly bless her provision; I will satisfy her needy ones with bread;
- <sup>16</sup> And I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
- <sup>17</sup> There will I cause the horn of David to bud forth; I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.
- <sup>18</sup> His enemies will I clothe with shame; but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133

A Song of degrees. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
- <sup>2</sup> Like the precious oil upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, upon Aaron's beard, that ran down to the hem of his garments;
- <sup>3</sup> As the dew of Hermon that descendeth on the mountains of Zion; for there hath Jehovah commanded the blessing, life for evermore.

134

A Song of degrees.

- <sup>1</sup> Behold, bless Jehovah, all ye servants of Jehovah, who by night stand in the house of Jehovah.
- <sup>2</sup> Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless Jehovah.
- <sup>3</sup> Jehovah, the maker of heavens and earth, bless thee out of Zion.

135

- <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! Praise the name of Jehovah; praise, ye servants of Jehovah,
- <sup>2</sup> Ye that stand in the house of Jehovah, in the courts of the house of our<sup>o</sup> God.
- <sup>3</sup> Praise ye Jah; for Jehovah is good: sing psalms unto his name; for it is pleasant.
- <sup>4</sup> For Jah hath chosen Jacob unto himself, Israel for his own possession.

- 5 For I know that Jehovah is great, and our Lord is above all °gods.
 6 Whatsoever Jehovah pleased, he hath done in the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all deeps;
 7 Who causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; who maketh lightnings for the rain; who bringeth the wind out of his treasures:
 8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast;
 9 Who sent signs and miracles into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh and upon all his servants;
 10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings, 11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan;
 12 And gave their land for an inheritance, an inheritance unto Israel his people.
 13 Thy name, O Jehovah, is for ever; thy memorial, O Jehovah, from generation to generation.
 14 For Jehovah will judge his people, and will repent in favour of his servants.
 15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands:
 16 They have a mouth, and they speak not; eyes have they, and they see not;
 17 They have ears, and they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouth.
 18 They that make them are like unto them, — every one that confideth in them.
 19 House of Israel, bless ye Jehovah; house of Aaron, bless ye Jehovah;
 20 House of Levi, bless ye Jehovah; ye that fear Jehovah, bless Jehovah.
 21 Blessed be Jehovah out of Zion, who dwelleth at Jerusalem! Hallelujah!

136

- 1 Give ye thanks unto Jehovah, for he is good; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 2 Give thanks unto the °God of °gods, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 3 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 4 To him who alone doeth great wonders, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 5 To him that by understanding made the heavens, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 6 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 7 To him that made great lights, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 8 The sun for rule over the day, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever,
 9 The moon and stars for rule over the night, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 10 To him that smote Egypt in their firstborn, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever,

- 11 And brought out Israel from among them, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 12 With a powerful hand and with a stretched-out arm, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 13 To him that divided the Red sea into parts, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 15 And overturned Pharaoh and his host in the Red sea, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 16 To him that led his people through the wilderness, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 17 To him that smote great kings, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 18 And slew famous kings, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 20 And Og king of Bashan, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 21 And gave their land for an inheritance, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 22 An inheritance unto Israel his servant, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 23 Who hath remembered us in our low estate, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever;
 24 And hath delivered us from our oppressors, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever:
 25 Who giveth food to all flesh, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
 26 Give ye thanks unto the * God of the heavens; for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.

137

- 1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down; yea, we wept when we remembered Zion.
 2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.
 3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that made us wail [required] mirth, [saying,] Sing us [one] of the songs of Zion.
 4 How should we sing a song of Jehovah's upon a foreign soil?
 5 If I forget thee, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget [its skill];
 6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to my palate: if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.
 7 Remember, O Jehovah, against the sons of Edom, the day of Jerusalem; who said, Lay [it] bare, Lay [it] bare, down to its foundation!
 8 Daughter of Babylon, who art to be laid waste, happy he that rendereth unto thee that which thou hast meted out to us.
 9 Happy he that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the rock.

[A Psalm] of David.

- 1 I will give thee thanks with my whole heart; before the ° gods will I sing psalms of thee.

---

* 136:26 El ° 138:1 Elohim

- <sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward the temple of thy holiness, and celebrate thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth; for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
- <sup>3</sup> In the day when I called thou answeredst me; thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.
- <sup>4</sup> All the kings of the earth shall celebrate thee, Jehovah, when they have heard the words of thy mouth;
- <sup>5</sup> And they shall sing in the ways of Jehovah, for great is the glory of Jehovah.
- <sup>6</sup> For Jehovah is high; but he looketh upon the lowly, and the proud he knoweth afar off.
- <sup>7</sup> Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou wilt stretch forth thy hand against the anger of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.
- <sup>8</sup> Jehovah will perfect what concerneth me: thy loving-kindness, O Jehovah, [endureth] for ever; forsake not the works of thine own hands.

139

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, thou hast searched me, and known [me].
- <sup>2</sup> Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off;
- <sup>3</sup> Thou searchest out my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways;
- <sup>4</sup> For there is not yet a word on my tongue, [but] lo, O Jehovah, thou knowest it altogether.
- <sup>5</sup> Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thy hand upon me.
- <sup>6</sup> O knowledge too wonderful for me! it is high, I cannot [attain] unto it.
- <sup>7</sup> Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? and whither flee from thy presence?
- <sup>8</sup> If I ascend up into the heavens thou art there; or if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou [art there];
- <sup>9</sup> [If] I take the wings of the dawn [and] dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
- <sup>10</sup> Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.
- <sup>11</sup> And if I say, Surely darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night;
- <sup>12</sup> Even darkness hideth not from thee, and the night shineth as the day: the darkness is as the light.
- <sup>13</sup> For thou hast possessed my reins; thou didst cover me in my mother's womb.
- <sup>14</sup> I will praise thee, for I am fearfully, wonderfully made. Marvellous are thy works; and [that] my soul knoweth right well.
- <sup>15</sup> My bones were not hidden from thee when I was made in secret, curiously wrought in the lower parts of the earth.
- <sup>16</sup> Thine eyes did see my unformed substance, and in thy book all [my members] were written; [during many] days were they fashioned, when [as yet] there was none of them.
- <sup>17</sup> But how precious are thy thoughts unto me, O *God! how great is the sum of them!

* 139:17 El

- 18 [If] I would count them, they are more in number than the sand. When I awake, I am still with thee.
- 19 Oh that thou wouldest slay the wicked, O *God! And ye men of blood, depart from me.
- 20 For they speak of thee wickedly, they take [thy name] in vain, thine enemies.
- 21 Do not I hate them, O Jehovah, that hate thee? and do not I loathe them that rise up against thee?
- 22 I hate them with perfect hatred; I account them mine enemies.
- 23 Search me, O *God, and know my heart; prove me, and know my thoughts;
- 24 And see if there be any grievous way in me; and lead me in the way everlasting.

140

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Free me, O Jehovah, from the evil man; preserve me from the violent man;
- 2 Who devise mischiefs in [their] heart; every day are they banded together for war.
- 3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.
- 4 Keep me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the wicked [man], preserve me from the violent man, who devise to overthrow my steps.
- 5 The proud have hidden a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the way-side; they have set traps for me. Selah.
- 6 I have said unto Jehovah, Thou art my *God: give ear, O Jehovah, to the voice of my supplications.
- 7 Jehovah, the Lord, is the strength of my salvation: thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.
- 8 Grant not, O Jehovah, the desire of the wicked; further not his device: they would exalt themselves. Selah.
- 9 [As for] the head of those that encompass me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
- 10 Let burning coals fall on them; let them be cast into the fire; into deep waters, that they rise not up again.
- 11 Let not the man of [evil] tongue be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the man of violence to [his] ruin.
- 12 I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted one, the right of the needy.
- 13 Yea, the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name; the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

A Psalm of David.

- 1 Jehovah, I have called upon thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I call unto thee.
- 2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening oblation.
- 3 Set a watch, O Jehovah, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

- <sup>4</sup> Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise deeds of wickedness with men that are workers of iniquity; and let me not eat of their dainties.
- <sup>5</sup> Let the righteous smite me, it is kindness; and let him reprove me, it is an excellent oil which my head shall not refuse: for yet my prayer also is [for them] in their calamities.
- <sup>6</sup> When their judges are thrown down from the rocks, they shall hear my words, for they are sweet.
- <sup>7</sup> Our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol, as when one cutteth and cleaveth [wood] upon the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> For unto thee, Jehovah, Lord, are mine eyes; in thee do I trust: leave not my soul destitute.
- <sup>9</sup> Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
- <sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal pass over.

142

An instruction of David; when he was in the cave: a prayer.

- <sup>1</sup> I cry unto Jehovah with my voice: with my voice unto Jehovah do I make supplication.
- <sup>2</sup> I pour out my plaint before him; I shew before him my trouble.
- <sup>3</sup> When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they hidden a snare for me.
- <sup>4</sup> Look on the right hand and see; there is no man that knoweth me: refuge hath failed me; no man careth for my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> I cried unto thee, Jehovah; I said, Thou art my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.
- <sup>6</sup> Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low; deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.
- <sup>7</sup> Bring my soul out of prison, that I may celebrate thy name. The righteous shall surround me, because thou dealest bountifully with me.

143

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Jehovah, hear my prayer; give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, in thy righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup> And enter not into judgment with thy servant; for in thy sight no man living shall be justified.
- <sup>3</sup> For the enemy persecuteth my soul: he hath crushed my life down to the earth; he hath made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.
- <sup>4</sup> And my spirit is overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.
- <sup>5</sup> I remember the days of old: I meditate on all thy doing; I muse on the work of thy hands.
- <sup>6</sup> I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul, as a parched land, [thirsteth] after thee. Selah.
- <sup>7</sup> Answer me speedily, O Jehovah; my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, or I shall be like unto them that go down into the pit.

- <sup>8</sup> Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning, for in thee do I confide; make me to know the way wherein I should walk, for unto thee do I lift up my soul.
- <sup>9</sup> Deliver me, O Jehovah, from mine enemies: unto thee do I flee for refuge.
- <sup>10</sup> Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my °God: let thy good Spirit lead me in a plain country.
- <sup>11</sup> Revive me, O Jehovah, for thy name's sake; in thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble;
- <sup>12</sup> And in thy loving-kindness cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that oppress my soul: for I am thy servant.

144

[A Psalm] of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed be Jehovah my rock, who teacheth my hands to war, my fingers to fight;
- <sup>2</sup> My mercy and my fortress, my high tower and my deliverer, my shield and he in whom I trust, who subdueth my people under me!
- <sup>3</sup> Jehovah, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him, the son of man, that thou takest thought of him?
- <sup>4</sup> Man is like to vanity; his days are as a shadow that passeth away.
- <sup>5</sup> Jehovah, bow thy heavens, and come down; touch the mountains, that they smoke;
- <sup>6</sup> Cast forth lightnings, and scatter them; send forth thine arrows, and discomfit them:
- <sup>7</sup> Stretch out thy hands from above; rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of aliens,
- <sup>8</sup> Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- <sup>9</sup> O °God, I will sing a new song unto thee; with the ten-stringed lute will I sing psalms unto thee:
- <sup>10</sup> Who givest salvation unto kings; who rescuest David thy servant from the hurtful sword.
- <sup>11</sup> Rescue me, and deliver me from the hand of aliens, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- <sup>12</sup> That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; our daughters as corner-columns, sculptured after the fashion of a palace:
- <sup>13</sup> Our granaries full, affording all manner of store; our sheep bringing forth thousands, ten thousands in our pastures;
- <sup>14</sup> Our kine laden [with young]; no breaking in and no going forth, and no outcry in our streets.
- <sup>15</sup> Blessed the people that is in such a case! Blessed the people whose °God is Jehovah!

145

A Psalm of praise. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I will extol thee, my °God, O King, and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
- <sup>2</sup> Every day will I bless thee, and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

- 3 Great is Jehovah, and exceedingly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.
- 4 One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.
- 5 I will speak of the glorious splendour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.
- 6 And they shall tell of the might of thy terrible acts; and thy great deeds will I declare.
- 7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
- 8 Jehovah is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and of great loving-kindness.
- 9 Jehovah is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works.
- 10 All thy works shall praise thee, Jehovah, and thy saints shall bless thee.
- 11 They shall tell of the glory of thy kingdom, and speak of thy power;
- 12 To make known to the children of men his mighty acts, and the glorious splendour of his kingdom.
- 13 Thy kingdom is a kingdom of all ages, and thy dominion is throughout all generations.
- 14 Jehovah upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all that are bowed down.
- 15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their food in its season.
- 16 Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
- 17 Jehovah is righteous in all his ways, and kind in all his works.
- 18 Jehovah is nigh unto all that call upon him, unto all that call upon him in truth.
- 19 He fulfilleth the desire of them that fear him; he heareth their cry, and saveth them.
- 20 Jehovah keepeth all that love him, and all the wicked will he destroy.
- 21 My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah; and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146

- 1 Hallelujah! Praise Jehovah, O my soul.
- 2 As long as I live will I praise Jehovah; I will sing psalms unto my °God while I have my being.
- 3 Put not confidence in nobles, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.
- 4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his purposes perish.
- 5 Blessed is he who hath the *God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Jehovah his °God,
- 6 Who made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is therein; who keepeth truth for ever;
- 7 Who executeth judgment for the oppressed, who giveth bread to the hungry. Jehovah looseth the prisoners;
- 8 Jehovah openeth [the eyes of] the blind; Jehovah raiseth up them that are bowed down; Jehovah loveth the righteous;
- 9 Jehovah preserveth the strangers; he lifteth up the fatherless and the widow; but the way of the wicked doth he subvert.

10 Jehovah will reign for ever, [even] thy °God, O Zion, from generation to generation. Hallelujah!

147

1 Praise ye Jah! for it is good. Sing psalms of our °God; for it is pleasant: praise is comely.

2 Jehovah doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth the outcasts of Israel.

3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

4 He counteth the number of the stars; he giveth names to them all.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

6 Jehovah lifteth up the meek; he abaseth the wicked to the earth.

7 Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving; sing psalms upon the harp unto our °God:

8 Who covereth the heavens with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains;

9 Who giveth to the cattle their food, to the young ravens which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse, he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man;

11 Jehovah taketh pleasure in those that fear him, in those that hope in his loving-kindness.

12 Laud Jehovah, O Jerusalem; praise thy °God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee;

14 He maketh peace in thy borders; he satisfieth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his oracles to the earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool, scattereth the hoar frost like ashes;

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 He sendeth his word, and melteth them; he causeth his wind to blow — the waters flow.

19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt thus with any nation; and as for [his] judgments, they have not known them. Hallelujah!

148

1 Hallelujah! Praise Jehovah from the heavens; praise him in the heights.

2 Praise ye him, all his angels; praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of Jehovah, for he it is that commanded, and they were created:

6 And he established them for ever and ever; he made [for them] a statute which shall not pass.

7 Praise Jehovah from the earth, ye sea-monsters, and all deeps;

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapour, stormy wind fulfilling his word;

9 Mountains and all hills, fruit-trees and all cedars;

10 Beasts and all cattle, creeping things and winged fowl;

- 11 Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all judges of the earth;
 12 Both young men and maidens, old men with youths, —
 13 Let them praise the name of Jehovah: for his name alone is exalted; his majesty is above the earth and the heavens.
 14 And he hath lifted up the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints, [even] of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.
 Hallelujah!

149

- 1 Hallelujah! Sing unto Jehovah a new song; [sing] his praise in the congregation of the <sup>o</sup>godly.
 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; let the sons of Zion be joyful in their King.
 3 Let them praise his name in the dance; let them sing psalms unto him with the tambour and harp.
 4 For Jehovah taketh pleasure in his people; he beautifieth the meek with salvation.
 5 Let the <sup>o</sup>godly exult in glory; let them shout for joy upon their beds.
 6 Let the high praises of *God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand:
 7 To execute vengeance against the nations, [and] punishment among the peoples;
 8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;
 9 To execute upon them the judgment written. This honour have all his saints. Hallelujah!

150

- 1 Hallelujah! Praise *God in his sanctuary; praise him in the firmament of his power.
 2 Praise him in his mighty acts; praise him according to the abundance of his greatness.
 3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet; praise him with lute and harp;
 4 Praise him with the tambour and dance; praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe;
 5 Praise him with loud cymbals; praise him with high sounding cymbals.
 6 Let everything that hath breath praise Jah. Hallelujah!
