

Isaiah

Unknown if consultant checked

5

¹¹⁻¹² You get up early in the morning to drink wine, then you keep on drinking during the night...You should be thinking about God, but you're not! You are ignorant of what he is doing. He says to you, "I will hit you hard, it's impossible for you to run away and hide."

38

¹⁷ You left me alone from my wrongdoing.

53

⁵⁻⁶ We are healed by the punishment he suffered, made whole by the blows he received. All of us were like sheep that were lost, each of us going his own way. But the Lord made the punishment fall on him, the punishment all of us deserved. For our wrongdoing God hit him. God whipped him, as a result of that he healed us. We all self-centredly did whatever we wanted to do. He did not hit us, he hit him for our badness.
