THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW

¹ The genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham. ² Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brothers. ³ And Judah begat Pharez and Zarah, by Tamar. And Pharez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat Ram; ⁴ and Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; ⁵ and Salmon begat Boaz by Rahab. And Boaz begat Obed by Ruth. And Obed begat Jesse; ⁶ and Jesse begat David the king. And David begat Solomon by the wife of Uriah. ⁷ And Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat Asa; ⁸ and Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; ⁹ and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; ¹⁰ and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat Amon; and Amon begat Josiah; ¹¹ and Josiah begat Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the removal to Babylon. ¹² And after the removal to Babylon, Jeconiah begat Shealtiel; and Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; ¹³ and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; ¹⁴ and Azor begat Zadok; and Zadok begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; ¹⁵ and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; ¹⁶ and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. ¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the removal to Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the removal to Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations. ¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was in this manner. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ Then Joseph her husband, being righteous, and not willing to expose her to shame, purposed to put her away privately. ²⁰ But while he thought on these things, lo! an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, fear not to take to thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. ²¹ And she will bear a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he will save his people from their sins. ²² Now all this took place, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³ "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel;" that is, when interpreted, God-is-with-us. ²⁴ Then Joseph, on waking up from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took to him his wife; ²⁵ and he knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and he called his name Jesus.

the king heard of these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; ⁴ and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. ⁵ And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judaea; for thus it is written by the prophet: ⁶ "And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, art by no means least among the princes of Judah; for out of thee shall come a ruler, who shall feed my people Israel." ⁷ Then Herod, having privately called the magians ascertained from them exactly the time when the star appeared. ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search carefully for the child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may go and do him homage. ⁹ When they had heard the king, they departed. And lo! the star, which they had seen in the East, went before them, till it came and stood over where the child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy; ¹¹ and when they had come into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and did homage to him; and opening their treasures, they presented him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. ¹² And having been warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way. ¹³ And when they had gone, lo! an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and remain there until I speak to thee; for Herod will seek the child, to destroy him. ¹⁴ And he arose, and took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt; ¹⁵ and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "I called my son out of Egypt." ¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he had been deceived by the magians, was greatly enraged; and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the magians. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸ "A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping, and great mourning; Rachel weeping for her children, and refusing to be comforted, because they were no more." ¹⁹ But when Herod was dead, lo! an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, Arise, and take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel; for they who sought the child's life are dead. ²¹ And he arose, and took the child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judaea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned by God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, ²³ and came and took up his abode in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, "He will be called a Nazarene,"

¹ In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, ² saying, Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. ³ For this is he that was spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths!" ⁴ And John himself had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵ Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the country about the Jordan; ⁶ and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁷ But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to be baptized, he said to them, Brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of repentance, ⁹ and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father; for I say to you, that God is able out of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ¹⁰ And already is the axe lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that beareth not good fruit is to be cut down, and cast into the fire. ¹¹ I indeed baptize you in water, for repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to bear; he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire. ¹² His winnowing-shovel is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire. ¹³ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John opposed him, saying, I have need to be baptized by thee, and dost thou come to me? ¹⁵ And Jesus answering said to him, Suffer it now; for thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he suffered him. ¹⁶ And Jesus, as soon as he was baptized, went up from the water; and, lo! the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God, descending like a dove, coming upon him. ¹⁷ And lo! a voice from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

¹ Then was Jesus led up by the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted by the Devil. ² And when he had tasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward hungry. ³ And the tempter came and said to him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread. ⁴ But he answered and said, It is written, "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God." ⁵ Then the Devil taketh him into the holy city, and setteth him on the pinnacle of the temple; ⁶ and saith to him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down; for it is written, "He will give his angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they will bear thee up, that thou mayst not dash thy foot against a stone." ⁷ Jesus said to him, Again it is written, "Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God." ⁸ Again, the Devil taketh him in an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory; ⁹ and said to him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. ¹⁰ Then saith Jesus to him, Be gone, Satan! for it is written, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." ¹¹ Then the Devil leaveth him; and lo! angels came and ministered to him. ¹² Now when Jesus heard that John had been cast into prison, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³ And leaving Nazara, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, on the shore of the lake, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali; ¹⁴ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁵ "The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the lake beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, ¹⁶ the people that sat in darkness, saw a great light; and upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death, light arose.” ¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. ¹⁸ And while walking by the lake of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the lake; for they were fishers. ¹⁹ And he saith to them, Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men. ²⁰ And they immediately left their nets, and followed him. ²¹ And going on from thence, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. ²² And they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him. ²³ And he went round the whole of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. ²⁴ And his fame went forth into all Syria; and they brought to him all that were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were possessed by demons, and lunatics, and those who were struck with palsy; and he healed them. ²⁵ And great multitudes followed him from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judaea, and from beyond the Jordan.

be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I say to you, Unless your righteousness shall exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, ye will not enter the kingdom of heaven. ²¹ Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, "Thou shalt not kill; and whoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the Judges." ²² But I say to you, that whoever is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the Judges; and whoever shall say to his brother, Simpleton! shall be in danger of the Council; and whoever shall say, Fool! shall be in danger of hell-fire. ²³ Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there remember that thy brother hath aught against thee, ²⁴ leave there thy gift before the altar, and go away; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. ²⁵ Agree with thine adversary at law quickly, while thou art on the road with him; lest the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. ²⁶ Truly do I say to thee, Thou wilt not come out thence, till thou hast paid the last farthing. ²⁷ Ye have heard that it was said, "Thou shalt not commit adultery." ²⁸ But I say to you, that whoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. ²⁹ And if thy right eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out, and cast it from thee; for it is better for thee that one of thy members should perish, than that thy whole body should be cast into hell. ³⁰ And if thy right hand cause thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee; for it is better for thee that one of thy members should perish, than that thy whole body should go away into hell. ³¹ And it was said, "Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement." ³² But I say to you, that whoever putteth away his wife, unless it be on account of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whoever shall marry her when put away, committeth adultery. ³³ Again ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, "Thou shalt not swear falsely, but shalt perform to the Lord thine oaths." ³⁴ But I say to you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵ nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King; ³⁶ nor shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your language be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatever is more than these cometh of evil. ³⁸ Ye have heard that it was said, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth." ³⁹ But I say to you, that ye resist not the evil-doer; but whoever smiteth thee on the right cheek, turn to him the other also; ⁴⁰ and if any one intends to sue thee at the law, and take thy coat, give up to him thy cloak also; ⁴¹ and whoever shall compel thee to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to him that asketh of thee; and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not away. ⁴³ Ye have heard that it was said, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy." ⁴⁴ But I say to you, Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you; ⁴⁵ that ye may become sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. ⁴⁶ For if ye love those who love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans the same? ⁴⁷ And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye that excelleth? Do not even the heathen the same? ⁴⁸ Be ye therefore perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

¹ But take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen by them; otherwise ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven. ² Therefore when thou doest alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Truly do I say to you, They have received their reward. ³ But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; ⁴ that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee. ⁵ And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Truly do I say to you, They have received their reward. ⁶ But do thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee. ⁷ But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do; for they think that they shall be heard for the multitude of their words. ⁸ Be not ye therefore like them; for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. ⁹ After this manner therefore pray ye:— Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; ¹⁰ thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; ¹¹ give us this day our daily bread; ¹² and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors; ¹³ and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. ¹⁴ For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; ¹⁵ but if ye do not forgive men, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. ¹⁶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance; for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to be fasting. Truly do I say to you, They have received their reward. ¹⁷ But do thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; ¹⁸ that thou appear not to men to be fasting, but to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee. ¹⁹ Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth, where the moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal; ²⁰ but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumeth, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. ²¹ For where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. ²² The eye is the lamp of the body. If thine eye be clear, thy whole body will be in light; ²³ but if thine eye be disordered, thy whole body will be in darkness. If then the light that is within thee is darkness, how great that darkness! ²⁴ No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate one, and love the other; or else he will cleave to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. ²⁵ Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than food, and the body than raiment? ²⁶ Behold the birds of the air, that they sow not, nor reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much greater value than they? ²⁷ But who of you by anxious thought can add to his life one cubit? ²⁸ And why are ye anxious about raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They toil not, neither do they spin; ²⁹ and yet

I say to you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. ³⁰ And if God so clothes the herbage of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into an oven, will he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? ³¹ Therefore be not anxious, saying, What shall we eat, or what shall we drink, or wherewith shall we be clothed? ³² For after all these things do the gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. ³³ But seek first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will also be given you. ³⁴ Be not then anxious about the morrow; for the morrow will be anxious about itself. Sufficient for the day is the evil thereof.

and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock. ²⁶ And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand; ²⁷ and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell; and great was its fall. ²⁸ And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching. ²⁹ For he taught them as having authority, and not as their scribes.

¹ When he had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. ² And lo! there came a leper and bowed down before him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me. ³ And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou cleansed. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. ⁴ And Jesus saith to him, See thou tell no one; but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. ⁵ And when he had entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, beseeching him, ⁶ and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home palsied, sorely tormented. ⁷ He saith to him, I will come and heal him. ⁸ But the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but only command with a word, and my servant will be made well. ⁹ For even I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. ¹⁰ When Jesus heard this, he marveled, and said to those who followed, Truly do I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found such faith. ¹¹ And I say to you, that many will come from the east and the west, and recline at table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will go out into the outer darkness; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. ¹³ And Jesus said to the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee. And the servant was made well in that hour. ¹⁴ And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. ¹⁵ And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and waited on him. ¹⁶ And when evening came, they brought to him many that were possessed by demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick; ¹⁷ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He himself took our infirmities, and bore our diseases." ¹⁸ And Jesus, seeing great multitudes about him, gave orders to depart to the other side. ¹⁹ And a certain scribe came and said to him, Teacher, I will follow thee wherever thou goest. ²⁰ And Jesus saith to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have lodging-places; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. ²¹ And another of the disciples said to him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. ²² But he saith to him, Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead. ²³ And when he had gone on board the boat, his disciples followed him. ²⁴ And, lo! a great tempest arose on the lake, so that the boat was almost covered by the waves; but he was sleeping. ²⁵ And they came and awoke him, saying, Lord, save! we are perishing. ²⁶ And he saith to them, Why are ye fearful, ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the waves; and there was a great calm. ²⁷ And the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the waves obey him? ²⁸ And when he had come to the other side, into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two men possessed by demons, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass by that way. ²⁹ And lo! they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Son of God? Didst thou come here to torment us before the time? ³⁰ Now there was at a distance from them a herd of many swine feeding. ³¹ And the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us into the herd of swine. ³² And he said to them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine. And lo! the whole herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and perished in the waters. ³³ And the herdsman fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what had happened to the men possessed by demons. ³⁴ And lo! the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they besought him to depart from their borders.

new wine into new skins, and both are preserved together. ¹⁸ While he was thus speaking to them, lo! a certain ruler came in and bowed down before him, saying, My daughter just now died; but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she will live. ¹⁹ And Jesus arose and followed him, with his disciples. ²⁰ And, lo! a woman, who had had an issue of blood for twelve years, came up behind, and touched the fringe of his garment. ²¹ For she said within herself, If I only touch his garment, I shall be made well. ²² And he turned round, and seeing her, said, Be of good cheer, daughter; thy faith hath made thee well. And the woman was made well from that hour. ²³ And Jesus coming into the ruler's house, and seeing the minstrels, and the crowd making a noise, ²⁴ said, Withdraw; for the girl is not dead, but is sleeping. And they laughed him to scorn. ²⁵ But when the crowd had been put out, he went in, and took hold of her hand; and the girl arose. ²⁶ And the report of this went abroad into all that country. ²⁷ And as Jesus passed on from thence, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, Have pity on us, Son of David! ²⁸ And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus saith to them, Do ye believe that I am able to do this? They say to him, Yea, Lord. ²⁹ Then he touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it done to you. ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly charged them, saying, See that no one know it. ³¹ But they went out, and spread abroad his fame in all that country. ³² And as they were going out, lo! they brought to him a dumb man, possessed by a demon. ³³ And when the demon was cast out, the dumb man spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, Never was the like seen in Israel. ³⁴ But the Pharisees said, He casteth out the demons through the prince of the demons. ³⁵ And Jesus went round all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease. ³⁶ And seeing the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered about, as sheep having no shepherd. ³⁷ Then he saith to his disciples, The harvest indeed is great, but the laborers are few. ³⁸ Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers for his harvest.

is worthy of his living. ¹¹ And into whatever city or town ye enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye leave the place. ¹² And as ye enter the house, salute it. ¹³ And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴ And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye go out of that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵ Truly do I say to you, It will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city. ¹⁶ Lo! I send you forth as sheep into the midst of wolves. Be therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. ¹⁷ But beware of men. For they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; ¹⁸ and ye will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, that ye may bear testimony to them and to the gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they deliver you up, be not anxious as to how or What ye shall speak; for it will be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. ²⁰ For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. ²¹ And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children will rise up against their parent, and put them to death; ²² and ye will be hated by all on account of my name. But he that endureth to the end will be saved. ²³ And when they persecute you in one city, flee to another. For truly do I say to you, Ye will not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man hath come. ²⁴ A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord. ²⁵ It is enough for the disciple to be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they so call those of his household! ²⁶ Fear them not therefore. For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed; and hid, that will not be known. ²⁷ What I say to you in darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim ye upon the housetops. ²⁸ And fear not those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? and not one of them shall fall to the ground without your Father. ³⁰ But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹ Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows. ³² Every one therefore who shall acknowledge me before men, him will I also acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven. ³⁴ Think not that I came to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I came to set a man at variance with his father, and a daughter with her mother, and a bride with her mother-in-law; ³⁶ and they of a man's own household will be his foes. ³⁷ He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me; ³⁸ and he that doth not take his cross, and follow me, is not worthy of me. ³⁹ He that findeth his life will lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake will find it. ⁴⁰ He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. ⁴¹ He that receiveth a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet's reward, and he that receiveth a righteous man because he is a righteous man, will receive a righteous man's reward. ⁴² And whoever shall give to drink only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, truly do I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.

¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of his charge to his twelve disciples, that he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities. ² And John, having heard in the prison of the works of Christ, sent by his disciples, ³ and said to him, Art thou he that is to come, or are we to look for another? ⁴ And Jesus answered and said to them, Go and tell John what ye hear and see. ⁵ The blind receive sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and to the poor good tidings are brought; ⁶ and blessed is he, whoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me. ⁷ And, as these were going, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? the reeds shaken by the wind? ⁸ But why did ye go out? to see a man clothed in soft raiment? Lo! they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. ⁹ But why did ye go out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say to you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰ For this is he of whom it is written: "Lo! I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee." ¹¹ Truly do I say to you, Among those born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist. But he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent seize upon it. ¹³ For all the Prophets and the Law, until John, prophesied. ¹⁴ And if ye are willing to receive it, he is the Elijah who was to come. ¹⁵ He that hath ears, let him hear. ¹⁶ But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets, who call to their fellows, ¹⁷ and say, We piped to you, and ye did not dance; we sung a dirge, and ye did not lament. ¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking; and they say, He hath a demon. ¹⁹ The Son of man came eating and drinking; and they say, Behold, a glutton and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! But wisdom is justified by her works. ²⁰ Then he began to upbraid the cities wherein most of his miracles were done, because they did not repent. ²¹ Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee, Bethsaida! for if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²² But I say to you, It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. ²³ And thou, Capernaum! shalt thou be exalted to heaven? Thou shalt be brought down to the underworld; for if the miracles which were done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴ But I say to you, that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. ²⁵ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that, though thou didst hide these things from the wise and discerning, thou didst reveal them to babes. ²⁶ Yea, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. ²⁷ All things were delivered to me by my Father; and no one knoweth the Son but the Father; nor doth any one know the Father, but the Son, and he to whom it is the will of the Son to reveal him. ²⁸ Come to me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

¹ At that time Jesus went on the sabbath through the grain-fields; and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of grain, and to eat. ² But the Pharisees, seeing it, said to him, Lo! thy disciples are doing that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath. ³ But he said to them, Have ye not read what David did, when he and those who were with him were hungry? ⁴ how he went into the house of God, and they ate the show-bread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but for the priests alone? ⁵ Or have ye not read in the Law, that on the sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? ⁶ But I say to you, that something greater than the temple is here. ⁷ But if ye had known what this meaneth, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice," ye would not have condemned the guiltless. ⁸ For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath. ⁹ And departing thence, he went into their synagogue. ¹⁰ And, lo! there was a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath? that they might accuse him. ¹¹ And he said to them, Who of you that owneth one sheep, if it fall into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold of it, and lift it out? ¹² Of how much more worth now is a man than a sheep! So then it is lawful to do well on the sabbath. ¹³ Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored sound as the other. ¹⁴ Then the Pharisees went out, and consulted together against him, how they might destroy him. ¹⁵ But Jesus, knowing it, withdrew from thence; and many followed him; and he healed them all, ¹⁶ and strictly charged them not to make him known; ¹⁷ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸ "Behold my servant, whom I chose; my beloved, with whom my soul is well pleased; I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will declare judgment to the nations. ¹⁹ He will not strive, nor cry aloud, nor will any one hear his voice in the streets. ²⁰ A bruised reed he will not break, and smoking flax he will not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. ²¹ And in his name will nations hope." ²² Then was brought to him one possessed by a demon, blind and dumb; and he healed him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw. ²³ And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Is this the son of David? ²⁴ But the Pharisees, hearing it, said, This man doth not cast out the demons, except through Beelzebul, the prince of the demons. ²⁵ And he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and no city or house divided against itself will stand. ²⁶ And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I cast out the demons through Beelzebul, through whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore shall they be judges of you. ²⁸ But if I cast out the demons through the Spirit of God, then hath the kingdom of God already come to you. ²⁹ Or how can one enter into a strong man's house, and seize upon his goods, unless he first bind the strong man, and then plunder his house? ³⁰ He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. ³¹ Therefore I say to you, All manner of sin and evil-speaking will be forgiven to men; but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³² And whoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this world, or in the world to come. ³³ Either say that the tree is good, and its fruit good; or say that the tree is bad, and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit. Brood of vipers! ³⁴ How can ye, evil as ye are, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. ³⁵ The good man, from his good treasure, bringeth out good things; and the evil man, from his evil treasure, bringeth out evil things. ³⁶ And I say to you, that for every idle word that men shall speak, they will give account in the day of judgment. ³⁷ For by thy words thou wilt be justified, and by thy words thou wilt be condemned. ³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, we wish to see a sign from thee. ³⁹ But he answered and said to them, A wicked and adulterous generation is seeking for a sign; and no sign will be given to it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰ For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, lo! something more than Jonah is here. ⁴² The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and lo! something more than Solomon is here. ⁴³ But when the unclean spirit is gone out from a man, it goeth through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. ⁴⁴ Then it saith, I will return to my house whence I came out. And on coming, it findeth it empty, and swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then it goeth and taketh with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. So will it be also with this wicked generation. ⁴⁶ While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, lo! his mother and his brothers were standing without, seeking to speak with him. ⁴⁷ And one said to him, Behold, thy mother and thy brothers are standing without, seeking to speak with thee. ⁴⁸ But he answered and said to him that told him, Who is my mother, and who are my brothers? ⁴⁹ And stretching forth his hand toward his disciples, he said, Behold, my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰ For whoever doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ And others fell upon rocky places, where they had not much earth; and they sprung up immediately, because they had no depth of earth. ⁶ But when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. ⁷ And others fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them. ⁸ And others fell upon good ground; and yielded fruit, some a hundred fold, some Sixty, some thirty fold. ⁹ He that hath ears, let him hear. ¹⁰ And the disciples came and said to him, Why dost thou speak to them in parables? ¹¹ He answered and said, Because to you it hath been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven; but to them it hath not been given. ¹² For whoever hath, to him will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever hath not, from him will be taken away even what he hath. ¹³ Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, nor understand. ¹⁴ And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, "Ye will hear indeed, and not understand; and ye will see indeed, and not perceive." ¹⁵ For this people's heart hath become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn from their ways, and I should heal them." ¹⁶ But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷ Truly do I say to you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and did not see them; and to hear the things which ye hear, and did not hear them. ¹⁸ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. ¹⁹ When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, the Evil One cometh, and snatcheth away that which was sown in his heart; this man is what was sown by the wayside. ²⁰ And what was sown on the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and immediately receiveth it with joy, ²¹ but, having no root within him, endureth only for a time; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth on account of the word, he immediately falleth away. ²² And what was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. ²³ And what was sown on the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who also beareth fruit, and yieldeth, one a hundred fold, another sixty, another thirty fold. ²⁴ Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵ But while men slept, his enemy came, and sowed tares among the wheat; and went away. ²⁶ But when the blade grew up, and put forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. ²⁷ So the servants of the householder came and said to him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? Whence then hath it tares? ²⁸ He said to them, An enemy did this. The servants say to him, Dost thou wish then that we go and gather them up? ²⁹ But he said, Nay; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. ³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles, to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn. ³¹ Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard, which a man took and sowed in his field. ³² Which is the least indeed of all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches. ³³ Another parable he spoke to them: The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. ³⁴ All these things Jesus spoke to the multitudes in parables, and without a parable he spoke nothing to them; ³⁵ that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet Isaiah, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation [[of the world]]." ³⁶ Then he sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field. ³⁷ He answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man. ³⁸ The field is the world; the good seed is the sons of the kingdom; but the tares are the sons of the Evil One; ³⁹ the enemy that sowed them is the Devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. ⁴⁰ As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so will it be at the end of the world. ⁴¹ The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all the stumbling-blocks, and those who do iniquity, ⁴² and will cast them into the furnace of fire; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³ Then will the righteous shine forth as the sun, in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear. ⁴⁴ The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hid in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy thereof he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. ⁴⁵ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking goodly pearls. ⁴⁶ And having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it. ⁴⁷ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net, cast into the sea, and bringing together fish of every kind; ⁴⁸ which, when it was full, they drew upon the beach, and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹ So will it be at the end of the world. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the righteous, ⁵⁰ and will cast them into the furnace of fire; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. ⁵¹ Did ye understand all these things? They say to him, Yea. ⁵² And he said to them, Thus then every scribe, instructed for the kingdom of heaven, is like a householder, who bringeth out from his storehouse things new and old. ⁵³ And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these parables, that he departed thence. ⁵⁴ And having come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and the miracles? ⁵⁵ Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? ⁵⁷ And they took offence at him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house. ⁵⁸ And he did not work many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

and therefore do these powers work in him. ³ For Herod had seized John, and bound him, and put him in prison, on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. ⁴ For John said to him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. ⁵ And wishing to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they regarded him as a prophet. ⁶ But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod; ⁷ whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. ⁸ And she, being set on by her mother, saith, Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist. ⁹ And the king was sorry; but on account of his oaths, and of those at table with him, he ordered it to be given, ¹⁰ and sent and beheaded John in the prison. ¹¹ And his head was brought on a platter, and given to the damsel; and she brought it to her mother. ¹² And his disciples came and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus. ¹³ When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew thence in a boat into a desert place apart; and the multitudes hearing of it followed him on foot from the cities. ¹⁴ And when he came forth he saw a great multitude; and he was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick. ¹⁵ And when it was evening, the disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and it is now late; send the multitudes away therefore, that they may go to the villages and buy themselves victuals. ¹⁶ But he said to them, They need not go away; do ye give them food. ¹⁷ And they say to him, We have here only five loaves, and two fishes. ¹⁸ He said, Bring them hither to me. ¹⁹ And bidding the multitudes to lie down on the grass, he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed; and having broken the loaves he gave them to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. ²⁰ And they all ate, and were filled. And they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full. ²¹ And they who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children. ²² and he constrained the disciples to get into the boat, and to go before him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. ²³ And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray. And when evening came, he was there alone. ²⁴ But the boat was now in the midst of the lake, tossed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. ²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night, he went to them, walking on the lake. ²⁶ And seeing him walking on the lake, they were dismayed, saying, It is a spectre; and they cried out for fear. ²⁷ But he immediately spoke to them, saying, Be of good cheer, it is I; be not afraid. ²⁸ And Peter answering him said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come to thee on the water. ²⁹ And he said, Come. And Peter, coming down from the boat, walked on the water, and came to Jesus. ³⁰ But seeing the wind, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me! ³¹ And Jesus immediately stretched out his hand, and took hold of him, and said to him, Thou of little faith, why didst thou doubt? ³² And when they had got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ And they that were in the boat fell down before him, saying, Truly thou art the Son of God. ³⁴ And crossing over, they came to land, to Gennesaret. ³⁵ And the men of that place, when they saw who he was, sent out into all that country round, and brought to him all the diseased, ³⁶ and besought him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched were made well.

and the blind seeing; and they gave glory to the God of Israel. ³² And Jesus having called his disciples to him, said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have remained with me now three days, and have nothing to eat; and I am not willing to send them away fasting, lest they faint on the road. ³³ And the disciples say to him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude? ³⁴ And Jesus saith to them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. ³⁵ And bidding the multitude to lie down on the ground, ³⁶ he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. ³⁷ And they all ate, and were filled; and they took up of the fragments that remained, seven baskets full. ³⁸ And they who ate were four thousand men, besides children and women. ³⁹ Then he sent away the multitudes, and went on board the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

was the Christ. ²¹ From that time Jesus began to show to his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be put to death, and rise again on the third day. ²² Then Peter, taking him aside, began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord! This shall not be to thee. ²³ But he turned and said to Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan! thou art my stumbling-block; for thy thoughts are not on the things of God, but on those of men. ²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, If any one chooseth to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. ²⁵ For whoever chooseth to save his life will lose it; and whoever shall lose his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶ For what will a man be profited, if he gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? or what shall a man give as an exchange for his life? ²⁷ For the Son of man is to come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then will he render to every one according to his works. ²⁸ Truly do I say to you, There are some of those standing here who will not taste of death, till they have seen the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

¹ And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and leadeth them up into a high mountain apart. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone as the sun; and his garments became white as the light. ³ And lo! there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴ And Peter answering said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here; if thou wilt, I will make here three tents; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁵ While he was yet speaking, lo! a bright cloud overshadowed them; and lo! a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; hear him." ⁶ And the disciples hearing it, fell on their face, and were exceedingly afraid. ⁷ And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. ⁸ And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only. ⁹ And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell what hath been seen to no one, until the Son of man hath risen from the dead. ¹⁰ And the disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come? ¹¹ And he answering said, Elijah indeed cometh, and will restore all things. ¹² But I say to you, that Elijah hath already come, and they knew him not, but did with him whatever they would. So also is the Son of man to suffer by them. ¹³ Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist. ¹⁴ And when they had come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling down to him, and saying, ¹⁵ Lord, have compassion on my son; for he is a lunatic, and is sorely afflicted; for he often falleth into the fire, and often into the water. ¹⁶ And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. ¹⁷ Then Jesus answering said, Unbelieving and perverse generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him hither to me. ¹⁸ And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon went out of him; and the boy was cured from that hour. ¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it out? ²⁰ And he said to them, Because of your want of faith. For truly do I say to you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard, ye shall say to this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it will remove; and nothing will be impossible to you. ²¹ ²² And while they were together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, ²³ and they will put him to death; and on the third day he will rise again. And they were greatly grieved. ²⁴ And when they had come to Capernaum, those who received the half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your teacher pay the half-shekel? ²⁵ He saith, Yes. And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes? Of their own sons, or of strangers? ²⁶ And when he said, Of strangers, Jesus said to him, Then are the sons free. ²⁷ But that we may not give them offence, go to the lake, and cast a hook, and take the fish that first cometh up; and on opening his mouth, thou wilt find a shekel; take that, and give it to them for me and thee.

¹ At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven? ² And he called a child to him, and set him in the midst of them, ³ and said, Truly do I say to you, Unless ye are changed, and become as children, ye will not enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever receiveth one such child in my name, receiveth me. ⁶ But whoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe in me to fall away, it were better for him to have a great millstone hung round his neck, and be swallowed up in the depth of the sea. ⁷ Woe to the world because of stumbling-blocks! For it must needs be that stumbling-blocks come; but woe to the man through whom the stumbling-block cometh! ⁸ And if thy hand or thy foot is causing thee to fall, cut it off, and cast it from thee; it is better for thee to enter into life maimed or lame, than having two hands, or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire. ⁹ And if thine eye is causing thee to fall, pluck it out, and cast it from thee; it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell-fire. ¹⁰ Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say to you, that their angels in heaven continually behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. ¹¹ ¹² What think ye? if a man have a hundred sheep, and one of them hath gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety-nine upon the mountains, and go and seek that which hath gone astray? ¹³ And if it happen that he find it, truly do I say to you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. ¹⁴ Thus it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish. ¹⁵ Moreover, if thy brother sin, go and reprove him between thee and him alone. If he listen to thee, thou hast gained thy brother; ¹⁶ but if he do not listen, take with thee one or two more; that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. ¹⁷ And if he disregard them, tell the matter to the church; but if he disregard the church also, let him be to thee as a heathen and a publican. ¹⁸ Truly do I say to you, Whatever ye shall bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever ye shall loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. ¹⁹ Again, I say to you, that if two of you shall agree on earth concerning any thing that they shall ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. ²¹ Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times? ²² Jesus saith to him, I say not to thee, until seven times, but until seventy times seven. ²³ Therefore the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who would settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴ And when he had begun to reckon, there was brought to him one, who owed him ten thousand talents. ²⁵ But as he was unable to pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶ Then that servant fell down and did obeisance to him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. ²⁷ And the lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. ²⁸ But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred denaries; and he laid hold of him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. ²⁹ His fellow-servant then fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. ³⁰ And he would not; but went away and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. ³¹ Then his fellow-servants, seeing what was done, were greatly grieved; and went and told their lord all that had been done. ³² Then his lord, having called him, saith to him, Thou wicked servant! All that debt I forgave thee because thou didst beseech me; ³³ shouldst not thou also have had pity on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? ³⁴ And his lord was enraged, and delivered him to the inflictors of punishment, till he should pay all that was due to him. ³⁵ So also will my heavenly Father do to you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

¹ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had ended these sayings, he removed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judaea, beyond the Jordan. ² And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there. ³ And the Pharisees came to him, trying him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? ⁴ And he answering said, Have ye not read, that he who made them at the beginning, made them male and female? ⁵ And He said: "For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh." ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God joined together, let not man put asunder. ⁷ They say to him, Why then did Moses ordain that a man may give his wife a writing of divorcement, and put her away? ⁸ He saith to them, Moses, on account of your hardness of heart, allowed you to put away your wives; but in the beginning it was not so. ⁹ And I say to you, Whoever putteth away his wife, except for fornication, and marrieth another, committeth adultery. ¹⁰ The disciples say to him, If such be the case of a man with his wife, it is not good to marry. ¹¹ But he said to them, All cannot receive this saying, but they only to whom it is given. ¹² For there are eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs, who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. ¹³ Then there were brought to him children, that he might lay his hands on them, and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ But Jesus said to them, Suffer the children, and forbid them not to come to me; for to such belongeth the kingdom of heaven. ¹⁵ And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence. ¹⁶ And lo! one came to him and said, Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have everlasting life? ¹⁷ And he said to him, Why dost thou ask me concerning what is good? There is but one who is good. But if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. ¹⁸ Which? saith he. And Jesus said, These: "Thou shalt not kill; Thou shalt not commit adultery; Thou shalt not steal; Thou shalt not bear false witness; ¹⁹ Honor thy father and thy mother;" and, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." ²⁰ The young man saith to him, All these things have I kept; in what am I still wanting? ²¹ Jesus said to him, If thou wilt be perfect, go, sell what thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. ²² But the young man, on hearing this went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. ²³ Then Jesus said to his disciples, Truly do I say to you, it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴ And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁵ And the disciples, hearing this, were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? ²⁶ But Jesus, fixing his eyes on them, said, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. ²⁷ Then Peter answering said to him, Lo! we left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? ²⁸ And Jesus said to them, Truly do I say to you, that, in the renovation when the Son of man sitteth on the throne of his glory, ye who have followed me shall also yourselves sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹ And every one who hath left brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or children, or lands, or houses, for the sake of my name, will receive many fold more, and will inherit everlasting life. ³⁰ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

hour came, and received each a denary. ¹⁰ But when the first came, they supposed that they should receive more; and they too received each a denary. ¹¹ And when they had received it, they murmured against the householder, ¹² saying, These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day. ¹³ But he answering said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong; didst not thou agree with me for a denary? ¹⁴ Take thy due, and go. But I will give to this last even as to thee. ¹⁵ Am I not free to do what I will with my own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? ¹⁶ Thus the last will be first, and the first, last. And as ¹⁷ Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve apart, and on the way said to them, ¹⁸ Lo! we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and scribes; and they will condemn him to death, ¹⁹ and will deliver him up to the gentiles to mock, and scourge, and crucify; and on the third day he will rise again. ²⁰ Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, falling down before him, and asking a certain thing of him. ²¹ And he said to her, What is thy wish? She saith to him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left, in thy kingdom. ²² But Jesus answering said, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink the cup which I am to drink? They say to him, We can. ²³ He saith to them, Ye will indeed drink my cup; but to sit on my right hand and on my left is not mine to give, but it will be given to those for whom it hath been prepared by my Father. ²⁴ And when the ten heard this, they were much displeased with the two brothers. ²⁵ But Jesus called them to him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great men exercise a strict authority over them. ²⁶ Not so shall it be among you; but whoever desireth to become great among you, will be your minister; ²⁷ and whoever desireth to be first among you, will be your servant; ²⁸ even as the Son of man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many. ²⁹ And as they were going out of Jericho, a great multitude followed him. ³⁰ And lo! two blind men, who were sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Have pity on us, Son of David! ³¹ And the multitude sharply bade them be silent. But they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have pity on us, Son of David! ³² And Jesus stopped, and called them, and said, What would ye have me do for you? ³³ They say to him, Lord, to open our eyes. ³⁴ Then Jesus, moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and they immediately received sight, and followed him.

an ass, and on a colt the foal of a beast of burden.”⁶ And the disciples went, and did as Jesus bade them,⁷ and brought the ass and the colt, and put on them their garments, and he sat on them.⁸ And very many of the multitude spread their garments in the road; others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the road.⁹ And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, were crying out, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heavens!¹⁰ And when he came into Jerusalem, the whole city was in commotion, saying, Who is this?¹¹ And the multitudes said, This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.¹² And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves;¹³ and said to them, It is written, “My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye make it a den of robbers.”¹⁴ And the blind and lame came to him in the temple, and he cured them.¹⁵ But the chief priests and the scribes, when they saw the wonderful things which he did, and the children that were crying out in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, were much displeased;¹⁶ and said to him, Dost thou hear what these say? But Jesus saith to them, Yea; did ye never read, “From the mouth of babes and sucklings thou didst prepare praise”?¹⁷ And he left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.¹⁸ And in the morning, as he was returning to the city, he was hungry.¹⁹ And seeing one fig-tree by the road-side, he went up to it, and found nothing on it, but leaves only; and he saith to it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig-tree withered.²⁰ And the disciples seeing it, marveled, saying, How suddenly did the fig-tree wither!²¹ Jesus answering said to them, Truly do I say to you, If ye have faith, and do not doubt, not only shall ye do what hath been done to the fig-tree, but should ye even say to this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it would be done.²² And all things whatever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye will receive.²³ And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? And who gave thee this authority?²⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, I also will ask you one question; which if ye answer me, I too will tell you by what authority I do these things.²⁵ The baptism of John, whence was it? From heaven, or from men? And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did ye not believe him?²⁶ But if we say, From men, we fear the multitude; for all regard John as a prophet.²⁷ And they answered Jesus and said, We do not know. And he said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.²⁸ But what think ye? A man had two sons: he came to the first, and said, Son, go, work today in the vineyard.²⁹ And he answered and said, I will not. Afterward he repented, and went.³⁰ And he came to the other and said the same. And he answered and said, I will, sir; and went not.³¹ Which of the two did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith to them, Truly do I say to you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. ³² For John came to you as a preacher of righteousness, and ye did not believe him; but the publicans and the harlots believed him; and ye, when ye had seen it, did not afterward repent, that ye might believe him. ³³ Hear another parable. There was a householder, who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug in it a wine-press, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad. ³⁴ And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive his fruits. ³⁵ And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. ³⁶ Again he sent other servants more than the first; and they dealt with them in the same manner. ³⁷ And afterward he sent to them his son, saying, They will respect my son. ³⁸ But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and get his inheritance. ³⁹ And they took him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰ When therefore the lord of the vineyard cometh, what will he do to those husbandmen? ⁴¹ They say to him, He will bring those wicked men to a miserable end, and will let out his vineyard to other husbandmen, who will render him the fruits in their season. ⁴² Jesus saith to them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, "The stone which the builders rejected, the same hath become the corner-stone; from the Lord did this come, and it is marvelous in our eyes?" ⁴³ Therefore I say to you, that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and given to a nation yielding the fruits thereof. ⁴⁴ ⁴⁵ And the chief priests and the Pharisees when they heard his parables, knew that he was speaking of them. ⁴⁶ And they sought to seize him, but feared the multitudes, because they regarded him as a prophet.

¹ Jesus answered and spoke to them again in parables, and said, ² The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage-feast for his son, ³ and sent forth his servants to call to the feast those who had been invited; and they would not come. ⁴ Again, he sent other servants, saying, Tell those who have been invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come to the feast. ⁵ But they made light of it, and went away; one to his farm, another to his merchandise. ⁶ And the rest seized his servants, and ill-treated and slew them. ⁷ And the king was enraged; and sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸ Then saith he to his servants, The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore into the thoroughfares, and as many as ye find, invite to the feast. ¹⁰ So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good; and the bride-chamber was fully furnished with guests. ¹¹ And the king, coming in to view the guests, saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment; ¹² and he saith to him, Friend, how camest thou in here, not having a wedding garment? And he was struck dumb. ¹³ Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen. ¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went and consulted together how they might ensnare him in speech. ¹⁶ And they send out to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and thou carest for no one; for thou regardest not the person of men. ¹⁷ Tell us, therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? ¹⁸ But Jesus, perceiving their wickedness, said, Why are ye trying me, hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show me the tribute money. And they brought to him a denary. ²⁰ And Jesus saith to them, Whose is this image and inscription? ²¹ They say, Caesar's. Then saith he to them, Render then to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. ²² And hearing this, they wondered, and left him, and went away. ²³ The same day there came to him Sadducees, saying that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, ²⁴ saying, Teacher, Moses said, "If a man die having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed to his brother." ²⁵ Now there were with us seven brothers; and the first married and died; and, having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. ²⁶ And so also the second, and the third, even to the seventh. ²⁷ And last of all the woman died. ²⁸ In the resurrection, then, of which of the seven will she be the wife? For they all had her. ²⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, Ye err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. ³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, ³² "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob"? He is not a God of the dead, but of the living. ³³ And when the multitudes heard this, they were astonished at his teaching. ³⁴ And the Pharisees, hearing that he had put the Sadducees to silence, assembled together; ³⁵ and one of them, a lawyer, asked, trying him, ³⁶ Teacher, which commandment is great in the Law? ³⁷ And he said to him, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." ³⁸ This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹ There is a second like it: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." ⁴⁰ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. ⁴¹ And while the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them, ⁴² saying, What think ye concerning the Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, David's. ⁴³ He saith to them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him lord? saying, ⁴⁴ "The Lord said to my lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I put thine enemies under thy feet." ⁴⁵ If David then calleth him lord, how is he his son? ⁴⁶ And no one was able to answer him a word; nor durst any one from that day question him any more.

broad their phylacteries, and enlarge their fringes, ⁶ and love the first place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, ⁷ and salutations in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi. ⁸ But be not ye called Rabbi; for one is your teacher; and ye are all brethren. ⁹ And call no one your father on the earth; for one is your father, he who is in heaven. ¹⁰ Nor be ye called leaders; for one is your leader, the Christ. ¹¹ But the greatest among you will be your servant. ¹² And whoever shall exalt himself will be humbled; and whoever shall humble himself will be exalted. ¹³ But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites I because ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for ye go not in yourselves, nor suffer those who are entering to go in. ¹⁴ ¹⁵ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him two-fold mole a son of hell than yourselves. ¹⁶ Woe to you, blind guides, that say, Whoever sweareth by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever sweareth by the gold of the temple, is bound. ¹⁷ Fools and blind I for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? ¹⁸ And, Whoever sweareth by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, is bound. ¹⁹ Blind men! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar flint sanctifieth the gift? ²⁰ He then who sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all that is upon it; ²¹ and he that sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him who dwelleth in it; ²² and he who sweareth by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him who sitteth thereon. ²³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithes of the mint, and the dill, and the cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the Law, justice, and mercy, and faith; these ought ye to have done, and not to leave those undone. ²⁴ Blind guides! who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel. ²⁵ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but within they are full of robbery and licentiousness. ²⁶ Blind Pharisee! cleanse first the inside of the cup, that its outside side also may become clean. ²⁷ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like whited sepulchres, which outwardly indeed appear beautiful, but within are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. ²⁸ Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. ²⁹ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous, ³⁰ and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. ³¹ So that ye bear witness against yourselves, that ye are the sons of those who killed the prophets. ³² Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers! ³³ Serpents, brood of vipers! how can ye escape the punishment of hell? ³⁴ Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; some of them ye will kill and crucify, and some of them ye will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; ³⁵ that on you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Barachiah, whom ye slew, between the temple and the altar. ³⁶ Truly do I say to you, All these things will come upon this generation. ³⁷ Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth those who are sent to her! How often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! ³⁸ Lo! your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹ For I say to you, Ye will not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

¹ And Jesus went out, and was going from the temple; and his disciples came to him, to show him the buildings of the temple. ² And he answering said to them, See ye not all these? Truly do I say to you, There will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down. ³ And as he was sitting upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when will these things be? and what will be the signs of thy coming, and of the end of the world? ⁴ And Jesus answering said to them, See that no one deceive you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, saying, I am the Christ, and will deceive many. ⁶ And ye are to hear of wars, and rumors of wars; see that ye be not troubled; for these things must come to pass; but not yet is the end. ⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines and earthquakes in divers places. ⁸ But all these things are the beginning of travail-pains. ⁹ Then will they deliver you up to distress, and will kill you; and ye will be hated by all nations on account of my name. ¹⁰ And then will many fall away; and will deliver up one another; and will hate one another. ¹¹ And many false prophets will arise, and will deceive many. ¹² And because iniquity shall abound, the love of the many will wax cold. ¹³ But he that endureth to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ And these glad tidings of the kingdom will be published throughout the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then will come the end. ¹⁵ When, therefore, ye see the abomination of desolation, spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (let him that readeth understand,) ¹⁶ then let those who are in Judaea flee to the mountains; ¹⁷ let not him that is on the house-top go down to take away the things belonging to his house; ¹⁸ and let not him that is in the field turn back to take his garment. ¹⁹ And woe to the women with child, and to those with children at the breast, in those days! ²⁰ And pray that your flight be not in winter; nor on a sabbath. ²¹ For there will then be great distress, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world to this time; no, nor shall ever be. ²² And were not those days to be shortened, no flesh would be saved; but, for the sake of the chosen, these days will be shortened. ²³ Then if any one say to you, Lo! here is the Christ; or there, believe him not. ²⁴ For there will rise up false Christs, and false prophets, and will show great signs and wonders, so that, if possible, even the chosen will be deceived. ²⁵ Lo! I have told you beforehand. ²⁶ If therefore they say to you, Lo! he is in the wilderness; go not forth; lo! he is in the private chambers; believe them not. ²⁷ For as the lightning cometh from the east, and shineth even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of man. ²⁸ Wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together. ²⁹ And immediately after the distress of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰ And then will appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and will see the Son of man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹ And he will send forth his angels with a great trumpet, and they will gather his chosen from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. ³² And from the fig-tree learn its parable. When its branch hath now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that summer is near. ³³ So also, when ye see all these things, know ye that he is near, at the doors. ³⁴ Truly do I say to you, This generation will not pass away, till all these things take place. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ³⁶ But that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. ³⁷ But as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of man. ³⁸ For as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, ³⁹ and knew not, until the flood came, and took them all away, so also will be the coming of the Son of man. ⁴⁰ Then will two men be in the field; one will be taken, and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one left. ⁴² Watch, therefore, for ye know not on what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³ But be sure of this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through. ⁴⁴ Therefore be ye also ready; for at an hour when ye think not, the Son of man cometh. ⁴⁵ Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord placed over his household, to give them their food in due season? ⁴⁶ Happy is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing. ⁴⁷ Truly do I say to you, that he will place him in charge of all his substance. ⁴⁸ But if the bad servant say in his heart, My lord is tarrying long; ⁴⁹ and begin to beat his fellow-servants, and eat and drink with the drunken, ⁵⁰ the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for it, and at an hour when he is not aware; ⁵¹ and will cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

¹ Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom. ² And five of them were foolish, and five wise. ³ For the foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them. ⁴ But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. ⁵ And as the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. ⁶ But at midnight there was a cry, Lo! the bridegroom! go out to meet him. ⁷ Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. ⁸ And the foolish said to the wise, Give us of your oil, for our lamps are going out. ⁹ But the wise answered, saying, Perhaps there will not be enough for us and you; go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves. ¹⁰ And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. 12 But he answering said, Truly do I say to you, I know you not, 13 Watch, therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour. 14 For it will be as when a man going abroad called his own servants, and intrusted to them his property; 15 and to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his ability, and went abroad. 16 He that had received the five talents went immediately and traded with the same, and gained five talents more. 17 In like manner, he that had received the two gained two more. 18 But he that had received the one went and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 And after a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. 20 And he that had received the five talents came and brought five talents more, saying, Lord, thou intrustedst to me five talents; see, I have gained five talents more. 21 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant! thou hast been faithful over a little, I will place thee in charge of much; enter into the joy of thy lord. 22 He also that had received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou intrustedst to me two talents; see, I have gained two talents more. 23 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant! thou hast been faithful over a little, I will place thee in charge of much; enter into the joy of thy lord. 24 Then he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee to be a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter seed; 25 and I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth. See! thou hast thine own. 26 But his lord answered and said to him, Wicked and slothful servant! Didst thou know that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter seed? 27 Thou oughtest then to have put my money with the money-dealers, and on my coming I should have received mine own with interest. 28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who hath the ten talents. 29 For to every one that hath will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath will be taken away. 30 And cast out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness; there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 31 And when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then will he sit on the throne of his glory, 32 and before him will be gathered all the nations; and he will separate men one from another, as a shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats; 33 and he will set the sheep on his right hand, and the goats on the left. 34 Then will the king say to those on his right hand, Come, ye blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and ye gave me food; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; 36 naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came to me. 37 Then will the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? 38 and when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? 39 or when did we see thee sick, or in prison, and come to thee? 40 And the king will answer and say to them, Truly do I say to you, Inasmuch as ye did it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it to me. 41 Then will he say also to those on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the everlasting fire, which is prepared for the Devil and his angels. ⁴² For I was hungry, and ye gave me no food; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; ⁴³ I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. ⁴⁴ Then will they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to thee? ⁴⁵ Then will he answer them, saying, Truly do I say to you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. ⁴⁶ And these will go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into everlasting life.

¹ And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that he said to his disciples, ² Ye know that after two days cometh the passover; and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. ³ Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the court of the palace of the high-priest, named Caiaphas; ⁴ and took counsel together that they might seize Jesus by craft, and put him to death. ⁵ But they said, Not at the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people. ⁶ Now when Jesus was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷ there came to him a woman having an alabaster bottle of very costly ointment, and poured it on his head while he was reclining at table. ⁸ But the disciples seeing it, were much displeased, saying, To what purpose is this waste?. ⁹ For this might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. ¹⁰ And Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, Why do ye trouble the woman? For she hath done a good deed to me. ¹¹ For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always. ¹² For she, in pouring this ointment on my body, hath done it to prepare me for burial. ¹³ Truly do I say to you, Wherever these glad tidings shall be published in the whole world, this too which she hath done will be told for a memorial of her. ¹⁴ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, ¹⁵ and said, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him up to you? And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶ And from that time he sought an opportunity to deliver him up. ¹⁷ And on the first of the days of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? ¹⁸ And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The Teacher saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. ¹⁹ And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and made ready the passover. ²⁰ And when evening came, he took his place at table with the twelve disciples. ²¹ And as they were eating, he said, Truly do I say to you, that one of you will betray me. ²² And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began every one to say to him, Is it I, Lord? ²³ And he answering said, He that hath dipped his hand with me in the dish, he will betray me. ²⁴ The Son of man indeed goeth away, as it hath been written concerning him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Well were it for that man if he had not been born. ²⁵ Then Judas, his betrayer, answering said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith to him, It is. ²⁶ And, as they were eating, Jesus took a loaf, and having blessed, broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. ²⁷ And he took a cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; ²⁸ for this is my blood of the covenant, which is shed for many for remission of sins. ²⁹ And I say to you, I shall not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father. ³⁰ And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³¹ Then Jesus saith to them, This night will all of you fall away from me; for it is written, "I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered." ³² But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee. ³³ Peter answering said to him, Though all should fall away from thee, yet will I never fall away. ³⁴ Jesus said to him, Truly do I say to thee, that this night, before a cock crows, thou wilt thrice deny me. ³⁵ Peter saith to him, Even if I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And so said all the disciples. ³⁶ Then Jesus cometh with them to a place called Gethsemane, and saith to the disciples, Sit here, while I go yonder and pray. ³⁷ And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to he sorrowful and full of anguish. ³⁸ Then he saith to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me. ³⁹ And he came a little nearer, and fell on his face, praying and saying, Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me! nevertheless, not as I will, but as Thou wilt. ⁴⁰ And he cometh to the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, Is it so that ye could not watch with me one hour? ⁴¹ Watch, and pray that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. ⁴² Again he went away a second time, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this [[cup]] cannot pass away from me, but I must drink it, thy will be done! ⁴³ And coming again he found them sleeping; for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ And leaving them, he went away again, and prayed the third time, saying again the same words. ⁴⁵ Then he cometh to the disciples, and saith to them, Sleep on, and take your rest! Lo! the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Rise, let us be going; lo! he is at hand that delivereth me up. ⁴⁷ And while he was yet speaking, lo! Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸ And his betrayer had given them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, he is the man; seize him. ⁴⁹ And immediately going up to Jesus, he said, Hail, Rabbi! and kissed him. ⁵⁰ And Jesus said to him, Friend, for what hast thou come! Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and seized him. ⁵¹ And, lo! one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high-priest, and cut off his ear. ⁵² Then Jesus saith to him, Put back thy sword into its place; for all they that take the sword will perish by the sword. ⁵³ Dost thou think that I cannot pray to my Father, and he will now give me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? ⁵⁵ In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, Ye have come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take me; I sat daily teaching in the temple, and ye did not lay hands on me. ⁵⁶ But all this hath been done, that the Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled.

Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. ⁵⁷ And they who seized Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high-priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. ⁵⁸ But Peter followed him at a distance, as far as to the court of the high-priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the officers to see the end. ⁵⁹ And the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; ⁶⁰ and they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But at last came two, ⁶¹ and said, This man affirmed, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it within three days. ⁶² And the high-priest arose, and said to him, Dost thou make no answer to what these men testify against thee? ⁶³ But Jesus was silent. And the high-priest answering said to him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ, the Son of God. ⁶⁴ Jesus saith to him, I am. Moreover I say to you, Henceforth ye will see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. ⁶⁵ Then the high-priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? See! ye have now heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What think ye? They answered and said, He should be punished with death. ⁶⁷ Then they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and some smote him with the palms of their hands, ⁶⁸ saying, Prophecy to us, O Messiah! who it was that struck thee. ⁶⁹ Now Peter was sitting outside in the court. And a maid-servant came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilaean. ⁷⁰ But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. ⁷¹ And when he had gone out into the porch, another woman saw him, and said to those who were there, This man was with Jesus the Nazarene. ⁷² And again he denied with an oath; I do not know the man. ⁷³ And shortly after, they who were standing by came and said to Peter, Surely thou too art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee. ⁷⁴ Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, I do not know the man. And immediately a cock crew. ⁷⁵ And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who had said, Before a cock crows, thou wilt thrice deny me. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

¹ And when it was morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people consulted together against Jesus, to put him to death. ² And having bound him, they led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor. ³ Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴ saying, I sinned in betraying innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? See thou to it. ⁵ And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and withdrew; and went away and hanged himself. ⁶ And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are the price of blood. ⁷ And they consulted together, and bought with them the potter's field, for a burial-place for strangers. ⁸ Wherefore that field hath been called, The Field of Blood, unto this day. ⁹ Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, whom they of the sons of Israel priced, ¹⁰ and gave them for the potter's field; as the Lord commanded me.” ¹¹ And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor questioned him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And Jesus said, I am. ¹² And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer. ¹³ Then saith Pilate to him, Dost thou not hear what things they are testifying against thee? ¹⁴ And he made him no answer, not even to one word; so that the governor greatly wondered. ¹⁵ Now at the feast the governor was wont to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they would. ¹⁶ And they had then a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. ¹⁷ When therefore they were assembled, Pilate said to them, Whom will ye that I release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ? ¹⁸ For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up. ¹⁹ And while he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have nothing to do with that righteous man; for I have suffered much this day in a dream because of him. ²⁰ But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and to destroy Jesus. ²¹ And the governor answering said to them, Which of the two will ye that I release to you? And they said, Barabbas. ²² Pilate saith to them, What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. ²³ And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. ²⁴ And when Pilate saw that it availed nothing, but that rather a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of this blood; see ye to it. ²⁵ And all the people answering said, His blood be on us, and on our children. ²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Jesus, he delivered him up to be crucified. ²⁷ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's palace, and gathered to him the whole band. ²⁸ And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. ²⁹ And having platted a crown of thorns, they put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and bowing the knee before him, they mocked him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews! ³⁰ And they spit upon him, and took the reed and struck him on the head. ³¹ And after they had made sport of him, they took off the robe from him, and put on him his own garments, and led him away to crucify him. ³² And as they were going out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, whom they compelled to carry his cross. ³³ And having come to a place called Golgotha, that is, Place of a Skull, ³⁴ they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall; and when he had tasted it, he refused to drink. ³⁵ And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them, casting lots. ³⁶ And sitting down, they watched him there. ³⁷ And they set up over his head the charge against him in writing: “This is Jesus the king of the Jews.” ³⁸ Then are crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand, and one on the left. ³⁹ And they who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, ⁴⁰ and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it up in three days, save thyself, if thou art the Son of God, and come down from the cross. ⁴¹ So also the chief priests, mocking, with the scribes and elders, said, ⁴² He saved others, cannot he save himself? He is the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe in him. ⁴³ He trusteth in God; let him now deliver him, if he desireth him; for he said, I am the Son of God. ⁴⁴ The robbers also, who were crucified with him, reviled him in the same manner. ⁴⁵ And from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land, until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ⁴⁷ Some of those standing there, when they heard this, said, This man is calling for Elijah. ⁴⁸ And one of them immediately ran and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. ⁴⁹ But the rest said, Hold! let us see whether Elijah will come to save him. ⁵⁰ And Jesus, crying out again with a loud voice, yielded up his spirit. ⁵¹ And, lo! the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and the earth, quaked, and the rocks were rent, ⁵² and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of holy men that slept, ⁵³ and the tombs were coming out of the tombs after his resurrection went into the holy city and appeared to many. ⁵⁴ And the centurion and they who with him were watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and what was taking place, were exceedingly afraid, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. ⁵⁵ And many women were there, looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, rendering services to him; ⁵⁶ among whom was Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. ⁵⁷ And at evening there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who was himself also a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸ This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given him. ⁵⁹ And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock, and having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, went away. ⁶¹ And Mary the Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. ⁶² And on the next day, that following the day of the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, ⁶³ saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise. ⁶⁴ Command therefore that the sepulchre be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come and steal him away, and say to the people, He hath risen from the dead; and the last error will be worse than the first. ⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, Ye have a guard; go, make it as secure as ye know how. ⁶⁶ And they went, and made the sepulchre secure, sealing the stone, and setting the guard.

¹ And the sabbath being over, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary the Magdalene, and the other Mary, to view the sepulchre. ² And, lo! there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. ⁴ And for fear of him the keepers shook, and became as dead men. ⁵ And the angel answering said to the women, Fear ye not; for I know that ye are seeking Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here; for he hath risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷ And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he hath risen from the dead, and, lo! he is going before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him. Lo! I have told you. ⁸ And they went away quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ And lo! Jesus met them, saying, All hail! And they went up, and laid hold of his feet, and knelt down before him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus saith to them, Be not afraid; go, tell my brethren to depart into Galilee, and there they shall see me. ¹¹ And as they were going, lo! some of the guard came into the city, and told the chief priests all that had taken place. ¹² And having assembled with the elders, and taken counsel together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, ¹³ saying, Say, His disciples came by night, and stole him away, while we slept. ¹⁴ And should the governor hear of this, we will persuade him, and make you secure. ¹⁵ So they took the money, and did as they were taught. And this story hath been commonly reported among the Jews to this day. ¹⁶ And the eleven disciples went into Galilee, into the mountain, where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ And when they saw him, they knelt down before him; but some doubted. ¹⁸ And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, All power was given to me in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go, and make all nations my disciples, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; ²⁰ teaching them to observe all things, whatever I have commanded you. And, lo! I am with you always, unto the end of the world.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK

wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and they immediately speak to him about her. ³¹ And he went to her, and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she waited on them. ³² And in the evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all that were sick, and those who were possessed by demons; ³³ and the whole city was assembled at the door. ³⁴ And he healed many that were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him. ³⁵ And rising early, long before day, he went out, and withdrew into a desert place, and there prayed. ³⁶ And Simon and those with him went in search of him, ³⁷ and found him. And they say to him, All people are in search of thee. ³⁸ And he saith to them, Let us go elsewhere into the neighboring towns, that I may preach there also; for, for this I came forth. ³⁹ And he went, preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and casting out the demons. ⁴⁰ And there cometh a leper to him beseeching him, and kneeling down, saying to him, If thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me. ⁴¹ And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith, I will; be thou cleansed. ⁴² And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. ⁴³ And sternly charging him, he immediately sent him away, ⁴⁴ saying to him, See that thou say nothing to any one; but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. ⁴⁵ But he went away, and began to publish it constantly, and to spread the matter abroad, so that Jesus could no more enter a city openly, but was without in desert places; and they came to him from every quarter.

¹ And after some days he again entered Capernaum; and it was reported that he was in the house. ² And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, even at the door; and he was speaking the word to them. ³ And they come to him, bringing one that was palsied, borne by four men. ⁴ And not being able to bring him to him on account of the crowd, they took off the roof where he was; and when they had broken an opening, they let down the bed whereon the palsied man lay. ⁵ And Jesus seeing their faith, saith to the palsied man, Son, thy sins are forgiven. ⁶ But there were some of the scribes sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷ Why doth this man speak thus? He blasphemeth; who can forgive sins but God only? ⁸ And Jesus immediately perceiving in his spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, saith to them, Why do ye reason thus in your hearts? ⁹ Which is easier? to say to the palsied man, Thy sins are forgiven? or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed and go? ¹⁰ But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins, —he saith to the palsied man,— ¹¹ I say to thee, Arise, take up thy bed and go to thy house. ¹² And he arose, and immediately took up the bed and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and gave glory to God, saying, We never saw it thus. ¹³ And he went forth again to the lake; and all the multitude came to him, and he taught them. ¹⁴ And passing along, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the custom-house; and he saith to him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. ¹⁵ And it happened that he was reclining at table in his house; and many publicans and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and scribes of the Pharisees were also following him. ¹⁶ And when they saw that he was eating with the publicans and sinners, they said to his disciples, Doth he eat and drink with publicans and sinners? ¹⁷ And Jesus hearing it, saith to them, They who are well do not need a physician, but they who are sick. I came not to call righteous men, but sinners. ¹⁸ And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting; and they come and say to him, Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, and thy disciples fast not? ¹⁹ And Jesus said to them, Can the companions of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then will they fast in that day. ²¹ No one seweth a patch of undressed cloth on an old garment; for the new piece teareth away from the old garment, and a worse rent is made. ²² And no one putteth new wine into old skins; for the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and the skins. ²³ And it came to pass, that he was going through the grain-fields on the sabbath, and his disciples began, as they went along, to pluck the ears of grain. ²⁴ And the Pharisees said to him, See, why are they doing on the sabbath that which is not lawful? ²⁵ And he saith to them, Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, himself and they who were with him? ²⁶ how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high-priest, and ate the show-bread, which it is lawful for none but the priests to eat, and gave also to those who were with him? ²⁷ And he said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath. ²⁸ So that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

¹ And he entered again into a synagogue; and there was a man there having a withered hand; ² and they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath, that they might accuse him. ³ And he saith to the man having the withered hand, Stand up in the midst. ⁴ And he saith to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they were silent. ⁵ And looking round on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and his hand was restored. ⁶ And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately had a consultation with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. ⁷ And Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lake; and a great multitude from Galilee, and from Judaea followed; ⁸ and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond the Jordan, and the people about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard what great things he was doing, came to him. ⁹ And he gave direction to his disciples, that a boat should be in readiness for him because of the multitude, that they might not throng him. ¹⁰ For he had healed many, so that as many as had plagues pressed upon him to touch him. ¹¹ And the unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and

cried out, saying, Thou art the Son of God. ¹² And he strictly charged them that they should not make him known. ¹³ And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth to him whom he would; and they came to him. ¹⁴ And he appointed twelve to be with him, and whom he might send forth to preach, ¹⁵ and to have authority to cast out demons. And he appointed the twelve, ¹⁶ and Simon he surnamed Peter; ¹⁷ and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, that is, Sons of thunder; ¹⁸ and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon of Cana, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. And he cometh into the house. ²⁰ And again a multitude cometh together, so that they could not so much as eat bread. ²¹ And his relations hearing of it went out to lay hold of him; for they said, He is beside himself. ²² And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebul; and, He casteth out the demons through the prince of the demons. ²³ And calling them to him, he said to them in parables: How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴ And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand; ²⁵ and if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand; ²⁶ and if Satan rise up against himself, he is divided, and cannot stand, but hath an end. ²⁷ Moreover, no one can enter into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man; and then he will plunder his house. ²⁸ Truly do I say to you, All sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and the blasphemies wherewith they shall blaspheme; ²⁹ but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath no forgiveness forever, but is exposed to everlasting sin. — ³⁰ Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit. ³¹ And his mother and his brothers came; and, standing without, sent to him, to call him. ³² And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say to him, Lo! thy mother and thy brothers and thy sisters are without, seeking for thee. ³³ And he answering saith to them, Who is my mother, and my brothers? ³⁴ And looking round on those who sat about him, he saith, Behold my mother and my brothers. ³⁵ Whoever shall do the will of God, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

¹ And again he began to teach by the shore of the lake; and there was gathered to him a very great multitude, so that he went into a boat, and sat down in it upon the lake; and all the multitude was by the lake on the land. ² And he taught them many things in parables, and said to them in his teaching, ³ Hearken: Behold, a sower went forth to sow. ⁴ And it came to pass, as he sowed some seeds fell by the way-side; and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ And others fell on rocky ground, where they had not much earth; and they sprung up immediately, because they had no depth of earth. ⁶ But when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. ⁷ And others fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them, and they yielded no fruit. ⁸ And others fell on good ground, and shooting up and growing yielded fruit; and bore as much as thirty, and sixty, and a hundred fold. ⁹ And he said, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. ¹⁰ And when he was in private, they who were about him, with the twelve, asked him about the parables. ¹¹ And he said to them, To you hath been given the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to them, who are without, all things are done in parables; that ¹² they seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest they should turn, and be forgiven. ¹³ And he saith to them, Know ye not this parable? and how will ye know all the parables? ¹⁴ The sower soweth the word. ¹⁵ And these are they by the wayside, those where the word is sown, and when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in them. ¹⁶ And these in like manner are they that are sown on the rocky places, those, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy, ¹⁷ and have no root in themselves, but endure only for a time; then, when affliction or persecution ariseth on account of the word, they immediately fall away. ¹⁸ And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they who hear the word, ¹⁹ but the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. ²⁰ And these are they who are sown on the good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it; and bear fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundred fold. ²¹ And he said to them, Is a lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be set on the lamp-stand? ²² For there is nothing secret, unless to be made known; nor was any thing hidden, but that it should come to light. ²³ If any one hath ears to hear, let him hear. ²⁴ And he said to them, Take heed what ye hear. With what measure ye mete, it will be measured to you, and more will be added to you. ²⁵ For he that hath, to him will be given; and he that hath not, from him will be taken away even what he hath. ²⁶ And he said, Thus is the kingdom of God, as when a man has cast seed upon the ground, ²⁷ and sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed springs and grows up, he knows not how. ²⁸ For the earth brings forth fruit of itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. ²⁹ But when the fruit puts itself forth, immediately he sends out the sickle, because the harvest is come. ³⁰ And he said, To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? or under what comparison shall we set it forth? ³¹ It is like a grain of mustard, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth; ³² and when it is sown, it grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts forth great branches, so that the birds of the air can lodge under its shade. ³³ And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear. ³⁴ But without a parable he did not speak to them; but in private he explained all things to his own disciples. ³⁵ And on the same day, when the evening was come, he saith to them, Let us pass over to the other side. ³⁶ And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, as he was, in the boat; and there were also other boats with him. ³⁷ And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. ³⁸ And he was in the stern, asleep on the pillow; and they awake him, and say to him, Teacher, carest thou not that we are perishing? ³⁹ And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the waves, Peace! be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ And he said to them, Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have not faith? ⁴¹ And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the waves obey him?

¹ And they came to the other side of the lake, into the country of the Gerasenes. ² And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, ³ who had his dwelling in the tombs; and not even with a chain could any one bind him any longer; ⁴ because he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been snapped asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces; and no one could master him; ⁵ and continually, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself, with stones. ⁶ And seeing Jesus afar off, he ran and bowed down before him, ⁷ and cried out with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, do not torment me. ⁸ For he was saying to him, Unclean spirit, come out from the man. ⁹ And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith to him, Legion is my name; for we are many. ¹⁰ And he besought him much not to send them out of the country. ¹¹ Now there was there, by the mountain, a great herd of swine feeding. ¹² And they besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. ¹³ And he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits coming out, entered into the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, about two thousand, and were drowned in the lake. ¹⁴ And they that fed them fled, and told the news in the city and in the country. And they came to see what had been done. ¹⁵ And they come to Jesus, and see him who had been possessed by demons, sitting, clothed, and in his right mind,—him who had had the legion; and they were afraid. ¹⁶ And they who saw it told them how it befell him that was possessed by the demons, and concerning the swine. ¹⁷ And they began to beseech him to depart from their borders. ¹⁸ And when he was going on board the boat, he that had been possessed by the demons besought him that he might be with him. ¹⁹ And he did not permit him, but said to him, Go to thy house to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and that he hath had compassion on thee. ²⁰ And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him; and all wondered. ²¹ And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the ether side, a great multitude gathered about him; and he was by the lake. ²² And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, ²³ and besought him much, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death; I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be saved and live. ²⁴ And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and pressed upon him. ²⁵ And a woman, who had had an issue of blood twelve years, ²⁶ and had undergone much at the hands of many physicians, and spent all that she had, and was not at all benefited, but rather grew worse, ²⁷ having heard about Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. ²⁸ For she said, If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well. ²⁹ And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she perceived in her body that she was cured of her plague. ³⁰ And Jesus immediately perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, turned round in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments? ³¹ And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the multitude pressing on thee, and dost thou say, Who touched me? ³² And he looked round to see her who had done this. ³³ But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. ³⁴ And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee well; go in peace, and be recovered from thy plague. ³⁵ While he was yet speaking, there came from the house I of the ruler of the synagogue some who said, Thy daughter is dead; why dost thou trouble the Teacher any further? ³⁶ And Jesus, overhearing those words, saith to the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not; only believe. ³⁷ And he suffered no one to follow him except Peter and James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸ And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he seeth a tumult, and people weeping and wailing greatly. ³⁹ And going in, he saith to them, Why do ye make this confusion and weeping? The child is not dead, but is sleeping. ⁴⁰ And they laughed him to scorn. But putting them all out, he taketh the father of the child, and the mother, and those who were with him, and entereth where the child was. ⁴¹ And taking hold of the hand of the child, he saith to her, Talitha, kum; which is, when interpreted, Damsel, I say to thee, arise! ⁴² And immediately the damsel arose and walked; for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were greatly astonished. ⁴³ And he charged them strictly that no one should know it, and bade that something should be given her to eat.

¹ And he went out from thence, and cometh into his own country; and his disciples follow him. ² And when the sabbath was come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And most people when they heard him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? And what is the wisdom which is given him? And how is it that such miracles are wrought by his hands? ³ Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judah, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they took offence at him. ⁴ And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, and among his own kindred, and in his own house. ⁵ And he could not do any miracle there, except that he laid his hand upon a few sick persons, and cured them. ⁶ And he wondered at their want of faith. And he went about the surrounding villages teaching. ⁷ And he calleth to him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over the unclean spirits; ⁸ and commanded them that they should take nothing for the way but a staff only; no bread, no bag, no money in their girdle; ⁹ but to be shod with sandals; and, Do not put on two coats. ¹⁰ And he said to them, Wherever ye enter a house, there abide fill ye leave that place. ¹¹ And whatever place shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye go thence, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony to them. ¹² And they went out and preached that men should repent; ¹³ and they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many sick persons, and healed them. ¹⁴ And king Herod heard of him (for his name was spread abroad), and he said, John the Baptizer hath risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him. But others said, It is Elijah. ¹⁵ And others said, It is a prophet, as one of the prophets. ¹⁶ But Herod hearing of it said, John, whom I beheaded, hath risen again. ¹⁷ For Herod himself had sent forth and seized John, and bound him in prison, on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. ¹⁸ For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. ¹⁹ And Herodias was enraged against him, and wished to put him to death, but could not. ²⁰ For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and was regardful of him; and on hearing him, was in much anxiety, and listened to him gladly. ²¹ And a convenient day having come, when Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles and chief captains and the principal men of Galilee, ²² and the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those at table with him; and the king said to the damsel, Ask of me whatever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. ²³ And he swore to her, Whatever thou shalt ask of me, I will give thee, to the half of my kingdom. ²⁴ And she went out and said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptizer. ²⁵ And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I desire that thou wilt give me immediately on a platter the head of John the Baptist. ²⁶ And the king was exceedingly sorry; but on account of his oaths, and of those at table with him, he would not refuse her. ²⁷ And the king immediately sent one of his guards, and ordered his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸ and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. ²⁹ And his disciples, when they heard of it, came and took up his body, and laid it in a tomb. ³⁰ And the apostles gather together to Jesus, and told him all which they had done and taught. ³¹ And he saith to them, Come ye by yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going; and they had no leisure, even to eat. ³² And they went away into a desert place in the boat apart. ³³ And many saw them departing, and knew them, and ran together on foot thither from all the cities, and arrived before them. ³⁴ And when he came forth, he saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion for them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. ³⁵ And late in the day his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and it is now late; ³⁶ send them away, that they may go into the surrounding fields and villages, and buy themselves something to eat. ³⁷ But he answering said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denaries' worth of bread, and give them to eat? ³⁸ He saith to them, How many loaves have ye? Go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. ³⁹ And he ordered them to make all lie down in companies upon the green grass. ⁴⁰ And they lay down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. ⁴¹ And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes he divided among them all. ⁴² And they all ate, and were filled. ⁴³ And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. ⁴⁴ And they who ate of the loaves were five thousand men. ⁴⁵ And he immediately constrained his disciples to get into the boat, and to go before to the other side to Bethsaida, while he sent the multitude away. ⁴⁶ And when he had taken leave of them, he went away into the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷ And when evening came, the boat was in the midst of the lake; and he was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ And when he saw them toiling hard in rowing, for the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh to them, walking upon the lake. And he would have passed by them; ⁴⁹ but they, seeing him walking upon the lake, thought it was a spectre, and cried out. ⁵⁰ For they all saw him, and were terrified. But he immediately spoke with them, and saith to them, Be of good cheer; it is I, be not afraid. ⁵¹ And he went up to them into the boat, and the wind ceased. And they were exceedingly astonished, beyond measure. ⁵² For they did not consider the matter of the loaves; but their heart was hardened. ⁵³ And crossing over, they came to land, to Gennesaret; and anchored there. ⁵⁴ And when they had come out of the boat, the people immediately knowing who he was, ⁵⁵ ran through all that region, and began to carry about on beds those that were sick to the place where they heard he was. ⁵⁶ And wherever he entered into villages or cities or the open country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

word of God by your tradition, which ye have handed down; and many such things ye do. ¹⁴ And again calling the multitude to him, he said to them, Harken to me all of you, and understand. ¹⁵ Nothing that entereth into a man from without can defile him; but the things that come out of him are what defile a man. ¹⁶ ¹⁷ And when he had gone into the house from the crowd, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. ¹⁸ And he saith to them, Are ye too so without discernment? Do ye not understand that whatever thing from without entereth into a man, cannot defile him? ¹⁹ because it entereth not into his heart, but into the stomach; and goeth out into the drain, which cleanseth all kinds of food. ²⁰ And he said, That which cometh out of a man, that defileth a man. ²¹ For from within, out of the heart of men, come forth evil thoughts, fornications, ²² thefts, murders, adulteries, covetousness, iniquities, deceit, wantonness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. ²³ All these evil things come from within, and defile a man. ²⁴ And rising up, he departed thence into the borders of Tyre; and entering into a house, he desired that no one should know it; but he could not escape notice. ²⁵ But a woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, immediately hearing of him, came in, and fell at his feet. ²⁶ The woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter. ²⁷ And he said to her, Let the children be filled first; for it is not well to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs. ²⁸ But she answered, and saith to him, Yea, Lord; even the little dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. ²⁹ And he said to her, For this saying go thy way; the demon hath gone out of thy daughter. ³⁰ And going away to her house, she found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out. ³¹ And again leaving the borders of Tyre, he came through Sidon to the lake of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. ³² And they bring to him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech, and beseech him to lay his hand upon him. ³³ And taking him aside from the multitude, he put his fingers into his ears, and having spit, touched his tongue; ³⁴ and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. ³⁵ And his ears were opened; and the string of his tongue was immediately loosed, and he spoke plain. ³⁶ And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more did they publish it. ³⁷ And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

¹ In those days, there being again a great multitude, and they having nothing to eat, he called the disciples to him, and saith to them, ² I have compassion on the multitude, because they have remained with me now three days, and they have nothing to eat. ³ And if I send them away fasting to their houses, they will faint on the road; and some of them have come from altar. ⁴ And his disciples answered him, Whence can ally one satisfy these men with bread here in a wilderness? ⁵ And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. ⁶ And he ordered the multitude to lie down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. ⁷ And they had a few small fishes; and having blessed them, he set them before them. ⁸ And they ate, and were filled; and they took up of the fragments that remained, seven baskets. ⁹ And they were about four thousand; and he sent them away. ¹⁰ And immediately going on board the boat with his disciples, he came into the region of Dalmanutha. ¹¹ And the Pharisees came out, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, trying him. ¹² And sighing deeply in his spirit, he saith, Why doth this generation seek for a sign? Truly do I say to you, A sign will not be given to this generation. ¹³ And leaving them, he again went on board and crossed to the other side. ¹⁴ And they had forgotten to take bread, and had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. ¹⁵ And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and the leaven of Herod. ¹⁶ And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. ¹⁷ And knowing it, he saith to them, Why are ye reasoning, because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive nor understand? Have ye your mind still blinded? ¹⁸ Having eyes, do ye not see? and having ears, do ye not hear? And do ye not remember, ¹⁹ when I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, and how many baskets full of fragments ye took up? They say to him, Twelve. ²⁰ When also the seven among the four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did ye take up? And they say, Seven. ²¹ And he said to them, Do ye not yet understand? ²² And they come to Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him. ²³ And taking the blind man by the hand, he led him out of the village; and spitting on his eyes, and putting his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything. ²⁴ And he looked up, and said, I can see men, for I see them as trees, walking. ²⁵ Then he again put his hands on his eyes, and he saw clearly, and was restored, and saw all things distinctly. ²⁶ And he sent him away to his house, saying, Go not into the village. ²⁷ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am? ²⁸ And they answered him, saying, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets. ²⁹ And he asked them, But who do ye say that I am? Peter answering saith to him, Thou art the Christ. ³⁰ And he strictly charged them to tell no one concerning him. ³¹ And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be put to death, and after three days rise again; ³² and he told them this plainly. And Peter, taking him aside, began to rebuke him. ³³ But he turning about and looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan! for thy thoughts are not on the things of God, but on those of men. ³⁴ And calling the multitude to him with his disciples also, he said to them, Whoever chooseth to follow me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. ³⁵ For whoever chooseth to save his life, will lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for the sake of me and of the glad tidings, will save it. ³⁶ For what doth it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? ³⁷ For what can a man give as an exchange for his life? ³⁸ For whoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will also the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

¹ And he said to them, Truly do I say to you, There are some of those standing here who will not taste of death, till they have seen that the kingdom of God hath come with power. ² And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter and James and John, and leadeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them. ³ And his garments became glistening, very white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten. ⁴ And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵ And Peter answering saith to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tents, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁶ For he knew not what to answer; for they were struck with terror. ⁷ And there came a cloud overshadowing them; and a voice came out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son; hear him. ⁸ And suddenly looking round, they no longer saw any one but Jesus alone with themselves. ⁹ And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them to give no account of what they had seen to any one, till the Son of man should have risen from the dead. ¹⁰ And they kept these words in mind, questioning one another what rising from the dead might mean. ¹¹ And they asked him, saying, How is it that the Pharisees and scribes say that Elijah must come first? ¹² And he said to them, Elijah cometh first, and restoreth all things. And how hath it been written of the Son of man? that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. ¹³ But I say to you that Elijah hath come, and they have done to him whatever they would; as it hath been written concerning him. ¹⁴ And coming to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes debating with them. ¹⁵ And immediately the whole multitude on seeing him was struck with awe, and running to him, saluted him. ¹⁶ And he asked them, About what are ye debating with them? ¹⁷ And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I have brought to thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit. ¹⁸ And wherever it seizeth hold of him, it throweth him down; and he foameth and gnasheth his teeth; and he pineth away. And I spoke to thy disciples to cast it out, and they were not able. ¹⁹ He answereth and saith to them, O unbelieving generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me. ²⁰ And they brought him to him. And as soon as he saw him, the spirit convulsed him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming. ²¹ And he asked his father, How long hath it been thus with him? And he said, From a child; ²² and it hath often cast him both into fire, and into water, to destroy him; but if thou art able to do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. ²³ Jesus said to him, If thou art able? All things are possible for him that believeth. ²⁴ The father of the child immediately cried out and said, I believe; help thou my unbelief. ²⁵ And Jesus seeing that the multitude came running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, Dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. ²⁶ And uttering a cry, and convulsing him much, it came out of him. And he became as one dead; so that very many said, He is dead. ²⁷ But Jesus, taking hold of his hand, raised him, and he stood up. ²⁸ And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast it out? ²⁹ And he said to them, This kind can go out by nothing, except by prayer. ³⁰ And departing thence, they passed through Galilee; and he would not that any one should know it. ³¹ For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, and they will put him to death; and when he hath been put to death, after three days he will rise again. ³² But they understood not what he said, and were afraid to ask him. ³³ And they came to Capernaum; and having come into the house, he asked them, About what were ye disputing on the road? ³⁴ But they were silent; for on the road they had been disputing with one another, who was greatest. ³⁵ And sitting down, he called the twelve, and saith to them, If any one desire to be first, he will be last of all, and servant of all. ³⁶ And he took a child, and placed him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ Whoever receiveth one of these children in my name, receiveth me; and whoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. ³⁸ John said to him, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name who followeth not us; and we forbade him, because he did not follow us. ³⁹ But Jesus said, Forbid him not. For no one, who shall do a miracle in my name, can readily speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ For he that is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, truly do I say to you, he will not lose his reward. ⁴² And whoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe to fall away, it would be better for him to have a great millstone hung round his neck, and be cast into the sea. ⁴³ And if thy hand cause thee to fall away, cut it off. It is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having the two hands to go away into hell, into the fire that is unquenchable. ⁴⁴ ⁴⁵ And if thy foot is causing thee to fall away, cut it off; it is better for thee to enter into life lame, than having the two feet to be cast into hell. ⁴⁶ ⁴⁷ And if thine eye is causing thee to fall away, pluck it out; it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell, ⁴⁸ where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. ⁴⁹ For every one will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰ Salt is good; but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

¹ And departing thence, he cometh into the borders of Judaea, and to the other side of the Jordan; and multitudes again come together to him; and, as he was wont, he again taught them. ² And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him whether it was lawful for a man to put away his wife, trying him. ³ And he answering said to them, What did Moses command you? ⁴ And they said, Moses permitted to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. ⁵ And Jesus said to them, On account of your hardness of heart he wrote you this command.

⁶ But, from the beginning of the creation, [[God]] made them male and female. ⁷ “For this cause shall a man leave his father and his mother; ⁸ and the two shall become one flesh.” So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹ What therefore God joined together, let not man put asunder. ¹⁰ And in the house his disciples asked him again about this matter. ¹¹ And he saith to them, Whoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery against her. ¹² And if she put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. ¹³ And they brought children to him, that he might touch them; and the disciples rebuked those that brought them. ¹⁴ But Jesus seeing it was much displeased, and said to them, Suffer the children to come to me; forbid them not; for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. ¹⁵ Truly do I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a child, will not enter therein. ¹⁶ And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them. ¹⁷ And as he was going out into the way, a certain one running up and kneeling to him, asked him, Good teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit everlasting life? ¹⁸ And Jesus said to him, Why dost thou call me good? None is good but one, that is, God. ¹⁹ Thou knowest the commandments, “Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honor thy father and thy mother.” ²⁰ And he said to him, Teacher, all these have I kept from my youth. ²¹ And Jesus looking at him, loved him, and said to him, One thing thou lackest; go, sell whatever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. ²² But his countenance fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. ²³ And Jesus, looking round, saith to his disciples, How hardly shall they who have riches enter the kingdom of God! ²⁴ And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answering again saith to them, Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. ²⁶ And they were beyond measure astonished, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? ²⁷ Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God. ²⁸ Peter began to say to him, Lo! we left all, and have followed thee. ²⁹ Jesus said, Truly do I say to you, There is no one who hath left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for the sake of me and of the glad tidings, ³⁰ who will not receive a hundredfold in the time that now is, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come everlasting life. ³¹ But many who are first will be last; and the last first. ³² And they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was leading the way; and they were amazed, and they that followed were afraid. And again taking the twelve aside, he began to tell them what things were about to befall him: ³³ Lo! we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn him to death, and deliver him up to the gentiles; ³⁴ and they will mock him, and spit upon him, and scourge him, and put him to death; and after three days he will rise again. ³⁵ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come to him, saying to him, Teacher, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatever we shall ask thee. ³⁶ And he said to them, What would ye that I should do for you? ³⁷ And they said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on thy right hand and one on thy left, in thy glory. ³⁸ But Jesus said to them, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? ³⁹ And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said to them, Ye will drink the cup that I drink, and ye will be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; ⁴⁰ but to sit on my right hand or on my left is not mine to give, but it will be given to those for whom it hath been prepared. ⁴¹ And the ten hearing it began to be much displeased with James and John. ⁴² And Jesus, calling them to him, saith to them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the nations lord it over them, and their great men exercise a strict authority over them. ⁴³ But it is not so among you; but whoever desireth to become great among you, will be your minister; ⁴⁴ and whoever of you desireth to become first, will be servant of all; ⁴⁵ for even the Son of man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many. ⁴⁶ And they come to Jericho; and as he was going out of Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the wayside. ⁴⁷ And hearing that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me! ⁴⁸ And many sharply bade him be silent; but he cried out the more, Son of David, have pity on me! ⁴⁹ And Jesus stopped, and said, Call him. And they call the blind man, saying to him, Be of good courage, rise, he calleth thee. ⁵⁰ And throwing off his garment, he leaped up, and came to Jesus. ⁵¹ And Jesus answering said to him, What dost thou wish me to do for thee? The blind man said to him, My master, to restore my sight. ⁵² And Jesus said to him, Go; thy faith hath saved thee. And he immediately received his sight, and followed him on the road.

¹ And when they were drawing near to Jerusalem and to Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples, ² and saith to them, Go to the village over against you; and immediately on entering it ye will find a colt tied, on which no man hath yet sat; loose and bring it. ³ And if any one say to you, Why do ye this? say, The Lord hath need of it, and will immediately send it back hither. ⁴ And they went, and found the colt tied by the door without, on the street; and they loose it. ⁵ And some of those who were standing there said to them, What are ye about, loosing the colt? ⁶ And they said to them as Jesus had commanded; and they let them go. ⁷ And they bring the colt to Jesus, and put their garments on it; and he sat upon it. ⁸ And many spread their garments on the road; and others boughs, having cut them from the fields. ⁹ And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! ¹⁰ Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest heavens! ¹¹ And he entered Jerusalem, and the temple; and having looked round on all things, the evening being now come, he went out to Bethany, with the twelve. ¹² And on the morrow, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry; ¹³ and seeing a fig-tree afar off having leaves, he went to see whether he might find anything on it; and on coming to it he found nothing but leaves; for the season of figs had not come. ¹⁴ And he answering said to it, Let no one eat fruit from thee henceforth for ever. And his disciples heard him. ¹⁵ And they come to Jerusalem. And he went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves; ¹⁶ and he suffered no one to carry any vessel through the temple. ¹⁷ And he taught, and said to them, Is it not written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations?" but ye have made it a den of robbers." ¹⁸ And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him; for they feared him; because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. ¹⁹ And when it became late, he went out of the city. ²⁰ And in the morning, as they were passing by, they saw the fig-tree withered from the roots. ²¹ And Peter remembered and said to him, Rabbi, see! the fig-tree which thou didst curse is withered away. ²² And Jesus answering saith to them, Have faith in God. ²³ Truly do I say to you, that whoever shall say to this mountain, Be thou taken up, and cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith will come to pass, he shall have it. ²⁴ Therefore I say to you, All things whatever ye pray for and ask, believe that ye have obtained, and ye shall have them. ²⁵ And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any one, that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. ²⁶ ²⁷ And they come again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests and the scribes and the elders; ²⁸ and they said to him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? ²⁹ And Jesus said to them, I will ask you one question; and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰ The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me. ³¹ And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? ³² But shall we say, From men? They feared the people; for all regarded John as truly a prophet. ³³ And they answered and said to Jesus, We do not know. And Jesus saith to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours. ⁸ And they took him and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. ⁹ What will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ And have ye not read this scripture: "The stone which the builders rejected, the same hath become the cornerstone; ¹¹ from the Lord did this come, and it is marvelous in our eyes"? ¹² And they sought to seize him, but feared the multitude; for they knew that he spoke the parable against them. And they left him, and went away. ¹³ And they send to him some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to ensnare him in speech. ¹⁴ And they come and say to him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest for no one; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵ Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, seeing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why are ye trying me? Bring me a denary, that I may see it. ¹⁶ And they brought one. And he saith to them, Whose is this image and inscription? And they said to him, Caesar's. ¹⁷ And Jesus said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marveled at him exceedingly. ¹⁸ Then come to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, ¹⁹ Teacher, Moses wrote to us, "If a man's brother die, and leave a wife and no child, his brother shall take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother." ²⁰ There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed. ²¹ And the second took her and died, leaving no seed; and the third likewise. ²² And the seven left no seed. Last of all, the woman also died. ²³ In the resurrection, when they have risen, of which of them will she be wife? for the seven had her for a wife. ²⁴ Jesus said to them, Do ye not err on this account, that ye know not the Scriptures, nor the power of God? ²⁵ For when they have risen from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels in heaven. ²⁶ And concerning the dead, that they are raised, have ye not read in the book of Moses, at the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob"? ²⁷ He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. Ye err greatly. ²⁸ And one of the scribes came up, having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which commandment is first of all? ²⁹ Jesus answered, The first is, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord; ³⁰ and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength." ³¹ The second is this: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." There is no other commandment greater than these. ³² And the scribe said to him, In truth, Teacher, thou hast well said, that He is one, and that there is no other but he; ³³ and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as one's self, is more than all the whole burnt-offerings and the sacrifices. ³⁴ And Jesus, perceiving that he answered wisely, said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And after this no one dared to question him. ³⁵ And Jesus answered and said, while he was teaching in the temple, How is it that the scribes say, that the Christ is David's son? ³⁶ David himself said in the Holy Spirit, "The Lord said to my lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool." ³⁷ David himself calleth him lord; and how can he be his son? And the great multitude heard him gladly. ³⁸ And he said in his teaching, Beware of the scribes, who like to walk about in long robes, and love salutations in the markets, ³⁹ and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the first places at feasts; ⁴⁰ who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers. These will receive a far greater condemnation. ⁴¹ And he sat over against the treasury, and was beholding how the people cast money into the treasury. And many that were rich were casting in much. ⁴² And a certain poor widow came and threw in two mites, which make a farthing. ⁴³ And he called to him his disciples, and said to them, Truly do I say to you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than all those who are casting into the treasury. ⁴⁴ For they all threw in of their abundance; but she out of her penury threw in all that she had, her whole living.

will be a time of distress, such as hath not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, nor shall be. ²⁰ And if the Lord had not shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen whom he chose, he shortened the days. ²¹ And then if any one shall say to you, See! here is the Christ; see! there; believe him not. ²² For false Christs and false prophets will rise up, and will do signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the chosen. ²³ But do ye take heed! I have told you all beforehand. ²⁴ But in those days, after that distress, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light; ²⁵ and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶ And then will they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷ And then will he send forth the angels, and will gather the chosen ones from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. ²⁸ And from the fig-tree learn its parable. When its branch hath now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that summer is near. ²⁹ So also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that he is near, at the doors. ³⁰ Truly do I say to you, that this generation will not pass away, till all these things take place. ³¹ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ³² But that day or hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father. ³³ Take heed, watch; for ye know not when the time is. ³⁴ As a man going abroad, having left his house and given authority to his servants, to each one his work, also commanded the porter to watch, ³⁵ so also watch ye; for ye know not when the master of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning; ³⁶ lest coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. ³⁷ And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch.

¹ And two days after was the passover, and the feast of unleavened bread; and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by craft, and put him to death. ² For they said, Not at the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people. ³ And when he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he was reclining at table, there came a woman having an alabaster bottle of ointment of pure spikenard, very precious; and breaking the bottle, she poured it on his head. ⁴ And there were some that were much displeased, [[and said]] among themselves, Why is this waste of the ointment made? ⁵ For this ointment might have been sold for more than three hundred denaries, and given to the poor. And they chid her harshly. ⁶ But Jesus said, Let her alone; why do ye trouble her? A good deed hath she done for me. ⁷ For the poor ye have always with you, and whenever ye will, ye can do good to them; but me ye have not always. ⁸ She hath done what she could; she hath anointed my body beforehand for its burial. ⁹ And truly do I say to you, Wherever the glad tidings shall be published throughout the whole world, this too which she hath done will be told for a memorial of her. ¹⁰ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, that he might deliver him up to them.

11 And they when they heard it were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought a good opportunity to deliver him up. 12 And on the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, when they used to kill the passover, his disciples say to him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready for thee to eat the passover? 13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith to them, Go into the city, and there will meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him; 14 and wherever he goeth in, say to the master of the house, The Teacher saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples? 15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared; and there make ready for us. 16 And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had told them; and they made ready the passover. 17 And when it was evening, he cometh with the twelve. 18 And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, Truly do I say to you, that one of you will betray me,—one that is eating with me. 19 They began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? 20 And he said to them, It is one of the twelve, one that is dipping with me in the dish. 21 For the Son of man indeed goeth away, as it hath been written concerning him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Well were it for that man if he had not been born. 22 And as they were eating, he took a loaf, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, Take; this is my body. 23 And he took a cup, and having given thanks, gave it to them; and they all drank of it. 24 And he said to them, This is my blood of the covenant, which is shed for many. 25 Truly do I say to you, I shall not drink hereafter of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God. 26 And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 27 And Jesus saith to them, Ye will all fall away from me; for it is written, “I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.” 28 But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee. 29 But Peter said to him, Even if all shall fall away, yet will not I. 30 And Jesus saith to him, Truly do I say to thee, that even thou, to-day, on this night, before a cock crow twice, wilt thrice deny me. 31 But he spoke the more vehemently: If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And so also said they all. 32 And they come to a place called Gethsemane; and he saith to his disciples, Sit here, while I pray. 33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John; and began to be in great consternation and anguish. 34 And he saith to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death; remain here and watch. 35 And going on a little farther, he fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it was possible, the hour might pass from him. 36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee! take away this cup from me. But not what I will, but what thou wilt. 37 And he cometh and findeth them sleeping; and he saith to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? Couldst not thou watch one hour? 38 Watch, and pray that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 39 And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And returning, he found them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy; and they knew not what to answer him. 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith to them, Sleep on, and take your rest! It is enough! the hour is come: lo!

the Son of man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. ⁴² Rise, let us be going; lo! he that delivereth me up is at hand. ⁴³ And immediately, while he was yet speaking, cometh Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and elders. ⁴⁴ And his betrayer had given them a signal, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, he is the man; seize him, and lead him away securely. ⁴⁵ And on coming he immediately went up to him, and said, Rabbi! and kissed him. ⁴⁶ And they laid hands on him and seized him. ⁴⁷ And one of those who stood by drew his sword, and smote the servant of the high-priest, and cut off his ear. ⁴⁸ And Jesus answering said to them, Ye have come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs, to take me. ⁴⁹ I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye did not lay hands on me; but [[thus it is]], that the Scriptures may be fulfilled. ⁵⁰ And all forsook him and fled. ⁵¹ And there followed him a certain young man having a linen cloth wrapped round his naked body; and they laid hold of him. ⁵² And he left the linen cloth behind, and fled naked. ⁵³ And they led Jesus away to the high-priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes come together. ⁵⁴ And Peter followed him afar off, even into the court of the palace of the high-priest, and was sitting with the officers, and warming himself at the fire. ⁵⁵ And the chief priests and the whole council sought for testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death; and they found none. ⁵⁶ For many bore false witness against him, but their testimonies did not agree together. ⁵⁷ And some stood up and bore false witness against him, saying, ⁵⁸ We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another not made with hands. ⁵⁹ And not even so did their testimony agree. ⁶⁰ And the high-priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Dost thou make no answer to what these men testify against thee? ⁶¹ But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high-priest asked him, and saith to him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? ⁶² And Jesus said, I am; and ye will see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. ⁶³ Then the high-priest rent his garments, and said, What further need have we of witnesses? ⁶⁴ Ye have heard the blasphemy; what think ye? And they all condemned him as deserving the punishment of death. ⁶⁵ And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face and buffet him, and say to him, Prophecy! And the officers, with blows, took him in charge. ⁶⁶ And as Peter was below in the court, there cometh one of the maid-servants of the high-priest; ⁶⁷ and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, Thou too wast with the Nazarene, Jesus. ⁶⁸ But he denied, saying, I do not know nor understand what thou sayest. And he went out into the fore-court; and a cock crew. ⁶⁹ And the maid-servant, seeing him, began again to say to those who were standing by, This is one of them. ⁷⁰ And he denied it again. And shortly after, those who were standing by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilaean. ⁷¹ But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. ⁷² And immediately a cock crew a second time. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, Before a cock crows twice, thou wilt thrice deny me.

And when he thought thereon, he wept.

¹ And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests, having held a consultation with the elders and the scribes, and the whole council, bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. ² And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering saith to him, I am. ³ And the chief priests brought many charges against him. ⁴ And Pilate asked him again, Dost thou make no answer? See what things they are testifying against thee! ⁵ But Jesus made no further answer; so that Pilate marveled. ⁶ Now at the feast he was wont to release to them one prisoner, whom they might ask. ⁷ And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with insurgents who had committed murder in the insurrection. ⁸ And the multitude, coming up, began to ask him to do as he had been wont to do for them. ⁹ And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release to you the king of the Jews? ¹⁰ For he knew that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. ¹¹ But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should rather release to them Barabbas. ¹² And Pilate answering again said to them, What then would ye have me do with him whom ye call the king of the Jews? ¹³ And they cried out again, Crucify him! ¹⁴ Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more, Crucify him! ¹⁵ And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the multitude, released to them Barabbas; and, when he had scourged Jesus, delivered him up to be crucified. ¹⁶ And the soldiers led him away into the court, which is the Praetorium; and they call together the whole band. ¹⁷ And they clothe him with purple, and having platted a crown of thorns, they put it on him. ¹⁸ And they began to salute him: Hail, king of the Jews! ¹⁹ And they struck him on the head with a reed, and spit upon him, and kneeling down, did him homage. ²⁰ And after they had made sport of him, they stripped him of the purple robe, and put his own garments on him. And they lead him out to crucify him. ²¹ And they compel one Simon a Cyrenaeen, who was passing by, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. ²² And they bring him to the place Golgotha; which is, when interpreted, Place of a Skull. ²³ And they gave him wine mingled with myrrh; but he did not take it. ²⁴ And they crucify him, and divide his garments, casting lots for them, what each should take. ²⁵ And it was the third hour when they crucified him. ²⁶ And on the cross the inscription of the charge against him was written: "The king of the Jews." ²⁷ And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. ²⁸ ²⁹ And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it up in three days, ³⁰ save thyself, and come down from the cross. ³¹ In like manner also the chief priests, with the scribes, making sport among themselves, said, He saved others, cannot he save himself? ³² Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him were reviling him. ³³ And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. ³⁴ And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani? which is, when interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ³⁵ And some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, See! he is calling for Elijah. ³⁶ And one ran and filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, Hold! Let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down. ³⁷ And Jesus, having uttered a loud cry, expired. ³⁸ And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. ³⁹ And the centurion who stood over against him, seeing that he so expired, said, Truly this man was the Son of God. ⁴⁰ There were also women looking on from a distance; among whom was Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; ⁴¹ who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and rendered him their services; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem. ⁴² And evening having now come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathaea, an honorable councilor, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, came, and boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴ And Pilate wondered that he was already dead; and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been long dead. ⁴⁵ And having been informed by the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ And having bought fine linen, he took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a tomb which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷ And Mary the Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

¹ And when the sabbath was past, Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. ² And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun. ³ And they said to one another, Who will roll away for us the stone from the door of the tomb? ⁴ And looking up they see that the stone had been rolled back; for it was very large. ⁵ And they entered the tomb, and saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. ⁶ But he saith to them, Be not affrighted; ye seek Jesus the Nazarene who was crucified; he hath risen; he is not here; behold the place where they laid him. ⁷ But go, tell his disciples and Peter, that he is going before you into Galilee; there ye will see him, as he said to you. ⁸ And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and amazement had seized them, and they said nothing to any one; for they were terrified. ⁹ {The remaining twelve verses, according to Tischendorf and others, made originally no part of Mark's Gospel. As the passage was added very early, however, since it is referred to by Irenaeus in the latter part of the second century, it is here given, as an appendix.} [[And having risen early, on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and reported it to those who had been with him, who were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, did not believe. ¹² After this, he manifested himself in another form to two of them as they walked, going into the country. ¹³ And they went and reported it to the rest; and even them they did not believe. ¹⁴ Afterward he manifested himself to the eleven themselves, as they were reclining at table, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen. ¹⁵ And he said to them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the glad tidings to the whole creation. ¹⁶ He that believeth and is baptized will be saved; but he that doth not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷ And these signs will accompany believers: In my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; ¹⁸ they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover. ¹⁹ So then, the Lord, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down on the right hand of God; ²⁰ and they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs which followed it.]]

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE

betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸ And the angel came in to her and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored! the Lord is with thee. ²⁹ And she was troubled at the words, and was considering what this salutation could mean. ³⁰ And the angel said to her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favor with God. ³¹ And lo! thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bear a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. ³² He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of David his father; ³³ and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. ³⁴ Then said Mary to the angel, How shall this be, since I know not a man? ³⁵ And the angel answering said to her, The Holy Spirit will come upon thee, and the power of the Most High will overshadow thee; wherefore the holy one that is to be born will be called the Son of God. ³⁶ And lo! Elizabeth, thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who is called barren. ³⁷ For nothing will be impossible with God. ³⁸ And Mary said, Lo, the handmaid of the Lord! May it be to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. ³⁹ And Mary arose and went in those days into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Judah. ⁴⁰ And she entered the house of Zachariah, and saluted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, ⁴² and cried out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! ⁴³ And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴ For lo! as soon as the voice of thy salutation came to my ears, the babe leaped in my womb in exultation. ⁴⁵ And blessed is she who hath believed that there will be an accomplishment of those things which were told her from the Lord. ⁴⁶ And Mary said, My soul magnifieth the Lord, ⁴⁷ and my spirit hath exulted in God my Saviour; ⁴⁸ for he hath looked upon the low estate of his handmaiden. For lo! from this time all generations will call me blessed; ⁴⁹ for the Mighty One hath done great things for me; and holy is his name; ⁵⁰ and his mercy is from generation to generation on them that fear him. ⁵¹ He hath wrought mightily with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the device of their heart. ⁵² He hath cast down princes from thrones, and exalted men of low degree. ⁵³ The hungry he hath filled with good things, and the rich he hath sent away empty. ⁵⁴ He hath given help to Israel his servant, in remembrance of his mercy ⁵⁵ toward Abraham and his offspring for ever, as he spoke to our fathers. ⁵⁶ And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house. ⁵⁷ Now Elizabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. ⁵⁸ And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had showed great mercy toward her; and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹ And it came to pass that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they were about to call him Zachariah, after the name of his father. ⁶⁰ And his mother answering said, Not so; but he shall be called John. ⁶¹ And they said to her, There is no one of thy kindred that is called by this name. ⁶² And they made signs to his father, how he would have him named. ⁶³ And he asked for a writing-tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they all marveled. ⁶⁴ And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue was loosed; and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵ And fear came on all that dwelt around them; and all these things were talked of throughout the whole of the hill-country of Judaea. ⁶⁶ And all that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What then will this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him. ⁶⁷ And Zachariah his father was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, ⁶⁸ Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel! for he hath visited and redeemed his people, ⁶⁹ and hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David his servant,—⁷⁰ as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets of old, ⁷¹ salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us, ⁷² to accomplish his mercy toward our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant, ⁷³ the oath which he swore to Abraham our father, ⁷⁴ to grant to us, that being delivered from the hand of our enemies, we might worship him without fear, ⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness before him, all our days. ⁷⁶ And thou, child, shalt be called a prophet of the Most High; for thou shalt go in advance before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, ⁷⁷ to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the remission of their sins ⁷⁸ through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, ⁷⁹ to give light to those sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. ⁸⁰ And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit; and was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

see that which hath come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us. ¹⁶ And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. ¹⁷ And when they had seen it, they made known abroad what had been told them concerning this child. ¹⁸ And all who heard wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds. ¹⁹ But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all which they had heard and seen, as had been told them. ²¹ And when eight days were completed for him to be circumcised, his name was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. ²² And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, ²³ as it is written in the law of the Lord: "Every first-born male shall be called holy to the Lord," ²⁴ and to offer a sacrifice, according to what is directed in the law of the Lord: "A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons." ²⁵ And lo! there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and he was a righteous and devout man, waiting for the consolation of Israel. And the Holy Spirit was upon him; ²⁶ and it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. ²⁷ And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law, ²⁸ he took him in his arms, and blessed God, and said, ²⁹ Lord! now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word; ³⁰ for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, ³¹ which thou hast prepared before the face of all the peoples; ³² a light to enlighten the gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel. ³³ And his father and his mother marveled at what was spoken concerning him. ³⁴ And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that will be spoken against;— ³⁵ yea, a sword will pierce through thine own soul,—that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. ³⁶ And there was Anna, a prophetess, daughter of Phanuel: of the tribe of Asher; she was of great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; ³⁷ and she was a widow eighty-four years old, who never left the temple, worshipping with fastings and prayers night and day. ³⁸ And she came up at this very time, and gave thanks to God, and spoke of him to all that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. ³⁹ And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. ⁴⁰ And the child grew, and waxed strong, being filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him. ⁴¹ Now his parents used to go yearly to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. ⁴² And when he was twelve years old, and they went up, after the custom of the feast, ⁴³ and had completed the days, on their returning, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents did not know it, ⁴⁴ but, supposing him to be in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance; ⁴⁵ and not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem in search of him. ⁴⁶ And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸ And when they saw him, they were amazed; and his mother said to him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have been seeking thee in much distress. ⁴⁹ And he said to them, Why is it that ye have been seeking me? Did ye not know that I must be about my Father's business? ⁵⁰ And they understood not what he spoke to them. ⁵¹ And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them. And his mother kept all these things in her heart. ⁵² And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. ²¹ And it came to pass, when all the people had been baptized, and Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying, that the heaven was opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in a bodily shape as a dove; and a voice came from heaven: "Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased." ²³ And Jesus himself was, when he began, about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, who was the son of Heli, ²⁴ who was the son of Matthath, who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Jannai, who was the son of Joseph, ²⁵ who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Amos, who was the son of Nahum, who was the son of Esli, who was the son of Naggai, ²⁶ who was the son of Maath, who was the son of Mattathias, who was the son of Shimei, who was the son of Josech, who was the son of Joda, ²⁷ who was the son of Joanan, who was the son of Rhesa, who was the son of Zerubbabel, who was the son of Shealtiel, who was the son of Neri, ²⁸ who was the son of Melchi, who was the son of Addi, who was the son of Kosam, who was the son of Elmadam, who was the son of Er, ²⁹ who was the son of Jesus, who was the son of Eliezer, who was the son of Jorim, who was the son of Matthath, who was the son of Levi, ³⁰ who was the son of Simeon, who was the son of Judah, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Jonam, who was the son of Eliakim, ³¹ who was the son of Melea, who was the son of Menna, who was the son of Mattatha, who was the son of Nathan, who was the son of David, ³² who was the son of Jesse, who was the son of Obed, who was the son of Boaz, who was the son of Salma, who was the son of Nahshon, ³³ who was the son of Amminadab, who was the son of Admin, who was the son of Arni, who was the son of Hezron, who was the son of Pharez, who was the son of Judah, ³⁴ who was the son of Jacob, who was the son of Isaac, who was the son of Abraham, who was the son of Terah, who was the son of Nahor, ³⁵ who was the son of Serug, who was the son of Reu, who was the son of Peleg, who was the son of Eber, who was the son of Shelah, ³⁶ who was the son of Cainan, who was the son of Arphaxad, who was the son of Shem, who was the son of Noah, who was the son of Lamech, ³⁷ who was the son of Methuselah, who was the son of Enoch, who was the son of Jared, who was the son of Mahalaleel, who was the son of Cainan, ³⁸ who was the son of Enos, who was the son of Seth, who was the son of Adam, who was the son of God.

¹ And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led in the Spirit in the wilderness ² forty days, tempted by the Devil. And he ate nothing in those days; and when they were ended, he was hungry. ³ And the Devil said to him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become a loaf of bread. ⁴ And Jesus answered him, It is written, "Not on bread alone shall man live." ⁵ And taking him up, he showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶ And the Devil said to him, All this power will I give thee, and their glory; because to me it hath been delivered, and I give it to whomever I will. ⁷ If thou then wilt worship me, it shall all be thine. ⁸ And Jesus answering said to him, It is written, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.”⁹ And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence;¹⁰ for it is written, “He will give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee;”¹¹ and in their hands they will bear thee up, that thou mayst not dash thy foot against a stone.”¹² And Jesus answering said to him, It hath been said, “Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God.”¹³ And when he had brought every temptation to an end, the Devil departed from him for a season.¹⁴ And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee; and there went out a report concerning him through all the surrounding country.¹⁵ And he taught in their synagogues, honored by all.¹⁶ And he came to Nazara, where he had been brought up, and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day; and stood up to read.¹⁷ And there was delivered to him the book of the prophet Isaiah; and unrolling the book, he found the place where it was written,¹⁸ “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he anointed me to preach glad tidings to the poor; he hath sent me to proclaim deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty the oppressed,¹⁹ to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”²⁰ And rolling up the book, he gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed upon him.²¹ And he began to say to them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your ears.²² And they all spoke in his praise, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded from his mouth; and they said, Is not this Joseph’s son?²³ And he said to them, Ye will doubtless say to me this proverb, “Physician, heal thyself;” whatever things we have heard of as having been done in Capernaum, do here too in thy own country.²⁴ And he said, Truly do I say to you, No prophet is acceptable in his own country.²⁵ But I tell you in truth, that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land;²⁶ and yet to none of them was Elijah sent, but to Sarepta in Sidonia, to a woman that was a widow.²⁷ And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.²⁸ And all in the synagogue, when they heard this, were filled with wrath.²⁹ And they rose up, and forced him out of the city and took him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, to cast him down headlong;³⁰ but he, passing through the midst of them, went away.³¹ And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the sabbath.³² And they were astonished at his teaching; for his word was with authority.³³ And in the synagogue there was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,³⁴ Ha! what have we to do with thee, Jesus of Nazareth? Thou hast come to destroy us. I know who thou art, the Holy One of God.³⁵ And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. And the demon threw him down in the midst, and came out of him, having done him no hurt.³⁶ And all were amazed; and they spoke with one another, saying, What kind of word is this, that with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out?³⁷ And there went out a report concerning him into every place of the surrounding country. ³⁸ And he arose and went from the synagogue into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was seized with a great fever; and they besought him for her. ³⁹ And standing over her, he rebuked the fever; and it left her. And immediately she arose and waited on them. ⁴⁰ And when the sun was setting, all who had any sick with divers diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. ⁴¹ And demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he rebuked them, and did not suffer them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ. ⁴² And when it was day, he went out, and betook himself to a desert place; and the multitudes went in search of him; and they came to him, and would have prevented him from leaving them. ⁴³ But he said to them, I must publish the good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; because for this I was sent forth. ⁴⁴ And he continued to preach in the synagogues of Galilee.

¹ And it came to pass, as the multitude was pressing upon him and hearing the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, ² and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone out of them, and had washed the nets. ³ And going into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down in the boat, he taught the multitudes. ⁴ And when he had done speaking, he said to Simon, Put out into deep water, and let down your nets for a draught. ⁵ And Simon answering said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing; but at thy word I will let down the nets. ⁶ And having done this, they inclosed great multitude of fishes; and their nets began to break. ⁷ And they beckoned to their partners in the other boat, to come and help them; and they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸ And Simon Peter seeing it fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man. ⁹ For he and all that were with him were amazed at the draught of fishes, which they had taken; ¹⁰ and so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Fear not; henceforth thou shalt catch men. ¹¹ And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. ¹² And it came to pass, when he was in one of the cities, lo! a man full of leprosy; and seeing Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me. ¹³ And he put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be thou cleansed. And immediately the leprosy left him. ¹⁴ And he charged him to tell no one: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them. ¹⁵ But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him; and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. ¹⁶ But he was wont to withdraw to desert places, and pray. ¹⁷ And it came to pass on a certain day, that he was teaching, and there were sitting by Pharisees and teachers of the law, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judea, and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present that he might heal. ¹⁸ And lo! men brought on a bed a man that was palsied; and they endeavored to bring him in, and to set him before him. ¹⁹ And not finding any way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with the couch into the midst before Jesus. ²⁰ And seeing their faith, he said, Man, thy sins have been forgiven thee. ²¹ And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone? ²² But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered and said to them, What are ye thinking in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier? to say, Thy sins have been forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and walk? ²⁴ But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins,—he said to the palsied man,—I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go to thy house. ²⁵ And he immediately rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and went away to his house, giving glory to God. ²⁶ And amazement seized them all, and they gave glory to God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day. ²⁷ And after these things he went out, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the custom-house; and he said to him, Follow me. ²⁸ And leaving everything, he arose and followed him. ²⁹ And Levi made a great feast for him at his house, and there was a great company of publicans and others, who were reclining at table with them. ³⁰ And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? ³¹ And Jesus answering said to them, They who are well do not need a physician, but they who are sick. ³² I have not come to call righteous men, but sinners to repentance. ³³ And they said to him, The disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink. ³⁴ But Jesus said to them, Can ye make the companions of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? ³⁵ But the days will come—and when the bridegroom is taken from them, then will they fast in those days. ³⁶ And he spoke also a parable to them: No one taketh a patch from a new garment and putteth it upon an old one; for then both the new garment would be rent, and the patch from the new garment would not match with the old. ³⁷ And no one putteth new wine into old skins; for the new wine would burst the skins, and would itself run out, and the skins would be spoilt. ³⁸ But new wine must be put into new skins. ³⁹ And no one, having drunk old wine, desireth new; for he saith, The old is good.

Son of man is lord even of the sabbath. ⁶ And it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught; and there was a man there whose right hand was withered. ⁷ And the scribes and the Pharisees were watching whether he would heal on the sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him. ⁸ But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man having the withered hand, Rise, and stand up in the midst. And he arose, and stood up. ⁹ And Jesus said to them, I ask you whether it is lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do evil; to save life, or to kill? ¹⁰ And looking round on them all, he said to him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so; and his hand was restored. ¹¹ But they were filled with madness, and conferred with one another as to what they should do to Jesus. ¹² And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. ¹³ And when it was day, he called to him his disciples; and he chose from them twelve, whom he also named apostles; ¹⁴ Simon, whom he named Peter; and Andrew his brother; and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, ¹⁵ and Matthew and Thomas, and James the Son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the zealot, ¹⁶ and Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. ¹⁷ And he came down with them, and stood on a level place with a great multitude of his disciples, and a great crowd of the people from all Judaea and Jerusalem and the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases. ¹⁸ And they that were harassed with unclean spirits were cured. ¹⁹ And the whole multitude sought to touch him, because power went out of him and healed all. ²⁰ And raising his eyes toward his disciples, he said, Blessed are ye poor; for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹ Blessed are ye that hunger now; for ye will be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now; for ye will laugh. ²² Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they exclude you, and revile and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man. ²³ Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy; for lo! your reward is great in heaven; for thus their fathers did to the prophets. ²⁴ But woe to you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. ²⁵ Woe to you that are full now! for ye will hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! for ye will mourn and weep. ²⁶ Woe, when all men speak well of you! for so did their fathers of the false prophets. ²⁷ But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies; do good to those who hate you; ²⁸ bless those who curse you; pray for those who are spiteful to you. ²⁹ To him that smiteth thee on one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also. ³⁰ Give to every one that asketh of thee; and from him that taketh away thy goods, demand them not again. ³¹ And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also in like manner to them. ³² And if ye love those who love you, what thanks do ye deserve? for sinners also love those who love them. ³³ For if ye do good to those who do good to you, what thanks do ye deserve? even sinners do the same. ³⁴ And if ye lend to those from whom ye expect to receive, what thanks do ye deserve? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much in return. ³⁵ But love your enemies, and do good and lend, despairing of no one; and your reward will be great, and ye will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind to the unthankful and wicked. ³⁶ Be merciful, as your Father is merciful. ³⁷ And judge not, and ye will not be judged; and condemn not, and ye will not be condemned; forgive, and ye will be forgiven; ³⁸ give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will men give into your bosom; for with what measure ye mete, it will be measured to you in return. ³⁹ And he spoke also a parable to them: Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a ditch? ⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher; but every one when fully instructed will be as his teacher. ⁴¹ And why dost thou look at the mote in thy brother's eye, and not perceive the beam that is in thine own eye? ⁴² How canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me take out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself perceivest not the beam in thine own eye? Hypocrite! first cast the beam out of thine own eye, and then thou wilt see clearly to take out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. ⁴³ For there is no good tree that beareth bad fruit; and again, there is no bad tree that beareth good fruit. ⁴⁴ For every tree is known by its own fruit; for from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble-bush do they gather grapes. ⁴⁵ The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil; for out of the abundance of his heart his mouth speaketh. ⁴⁶ But why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? ⁴⁷ Every one that cometh to me and heareth my sayings and doeth them, I will show you whom he is like. ⁴⁸ He is like a man building a house, who dug deep, and laid its foundation on a rock; and when a flood arose, the stream dashed against that house, and could not shake it; because it was well built. ⁴⁹ But he that heareth and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream dashed, and it fell at once, and the ruin of that house was great.

¹ When he had ended all his discourse in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. ² And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick, and about to die. ³ And having heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, and besought him to come and save his servant. ⁴ And they came to Jesus, and besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldst do this for him; ⁵ for he loveth our nation, and himself built the synagogue for us. ⁶ And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; ⁷ on which account I did not think myself worthy to come to thee; but command with a word, and let my servant be healed. ⁸ For even I am a man set under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. ⁹ And Jesus hearing this, wondered at him; and turning round said to the multitude that followed him, I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found such faith. ¹⁰ And they who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well. ¹¹ And it came to pass the day after, that he was going to a city called Nain; and many of his disciples were with him, and a great multitude. ¹² And as he came near the gate of the city, lo! there was carried out dead an only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a great multitude from the city was with her. ¹³ And when the Lord saw her, he was moved with compassion for her, and said to her, Weep not. ¹⁴ And he came up, and touched the bier; and they who bore it stood still; and he said, Young man, I say to thee, Rise. ¹⁵ And he that was dead sat up and began to speak; and he gave him to his mother. ¹⁶ And fear seized on all, and they gave glory to God, saying, A great prophet hath risen up among us; and, God hath visited his people. ¹⁷ And this report about him went forth in all Judaea, and in all the neighboring country. ¹⁸ And the disciples of John told him all these things. ¹⁹ And calling to him two of his disciples, John sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he that is to come, or are we to look for another? ²⁰ And the men came to him and said, John the Baptist hath sent us to thee, saying, Art thou he that is to come, or are we to look for another? ²¹ In that hour he cured many of diseases, and plagues, and evil spirits, and to many who were blind he gave sight. ²² And he answered and said to them, Go and tell John what ye have seen and heard; that the blind receive sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor good tidings are brought; ²³ and blessed is he, whoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me. ²⁴ And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to say to the multitudes concerning John, What have ye gone out into the wilderness to see? the reeds shaken by the wind? ²⁵ But what have ye gone out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Lo! they who wear gorgeous apparel, and live luxuriously, are in kings' palaces. ²⁶ But what have ye gone out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say to you, and more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is he of whom it is written, "Lo! I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee." ²⁸ I say to you, Among those born of women there is no greater prophet than John; but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. ²⁹ And all the people when they heard him, and the publicans, acknowledged God as righteous by being baptized with the baptism of John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God toward themselves, not being baptized by him. ³¹ To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, saying, We piped to you, and ye did not dance; we sung a dirge, and ye did not weep. ³³ For John the Baptist hath come not eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. ³⁴ The Son of man hath come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a glutton and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! ³⁵ But wisdom is acknowledged by all her children. ³⁶ And one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him; and he went into the Pharisee's house, and reclined at the table. ³⁷ And lo! a woman who was in the city, a sinner, learning that he was at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-bottle of ointment, ³⁸ and standing behind at his feet, weeping, began to wet his feet with tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. ³⁹ And the Pharisee who had invited him, when he saw this, said within himself, This man, if he were a prophet, would know who, and what sort of woman, this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner. ⁴⁰ And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have somewhat to say to thee. And he saith, Teacher, say on. ⁴¹ A certain money-lender had two debtors; one owed five hundred denaries, and the other fifty. ⁴² When they had nothing to pay, he freely remitted the debt of both. Which of them, now, will love him the most? ⁴³ Simon answering said, He, I suppose, to whom he remitted the most. And he said to him, Thou hast judged rightly. ⁴⁴ And turning to the woman, he said to Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered thy house, no water didst thou give me for my feet; but she wet my feet with tears, and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ No kiss didst thou give me; but she, from the time I came in, did not cease to kiss my feet. ⁴⁶ My head with oil thou didst not anoint; but she anointed my feet with costly ointment. ⁴⁷ Wherefore, I say to thee, her many sins have been forgiven; for she loved much; but he to whom little is forgiven loveth little. ⁴⁸ And he said to her, Thy sins have been forgiven. ⁴⁹ And those who were at table with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? ⁵⁰ But he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

perfection. ¹⁵ But the seeds on the good ground, these are they who in an honest and good heart, when they have heard the word, hold it fast, and bear fruit with constancy. ¹⁶ And no one having lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. ¹⁷ For nothing is secret, that will not be made manifest; nor hidden, that will not be known, and come to light. ¹⁸ Take heed therefore how ye hear; for whoever hath, to him will be given; and whoever hath not, from him will be taken even what he seemeth to have. ¹⁹ And his mother and his brothers came where he was, and could not get to him on account of the crowd. ²⁰ And word was brought to him, Thy mother and thy brothers stand without, desiring to see thee. ²¹ And he answering said to them, My mother and my brothers are these, who hear the word of God, and do it. ²² Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples, and said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake; and they put off. ²³ But as they were sailing, he fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. ²⁴ And they came and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we are perishing! And he rose, and rebuked the wind, and the surging of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵ And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they were afraid, and wondered, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him? ²⁶ And they sailed to the country of the Gergesenes, which is over against Galilee. ²⁷ And when he had landed, there met him a certain man out of the city who had demons, and for a long time had worn no clothes, and abode not in a house, but in the tombs. ²⁸ And seeing Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, Son of the most high God? I beseech thee, do not torment me. ²⁹ For he was about to command the unclean spirit to come out of the man; for it had possessed him for a long time, and he had been kept bound and secured with chains and fetters; and bursting the bands, he had been driven by the demon into the wilderness. ³⁰ And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion; because many demons had entered into him. ³¹ And they besought him not to command them to go away into the abyss. ³² Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain; and they besought him to permit them to go into them. And he permitted them. ³³ And the demons coming out of the man went into the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were drowned. ³⁴ And the herdsmen, seeing what was done, fled, and told the news in the city and in the country. ³⁵ And they went out to see what had been done. And they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus; and they were afraid. ³⁶ And they who had seen it told them how he that was possessed by demons was made well. ³⁷ And the whole multitude in the surrounding country of the Gergesenes besought him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear. And he went on board a boat and returned. ³⁸ And the man out of whom the demons had gone besought him that he might be with him. But he sent him away, saying, ³⁹ Return to thy house, and tell what great things God hath done for thee. And he went and published through the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him. ⁴⁰ And it came to pass when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him. ⁴¹ And lo! there came a man, named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at the feet of Jesus, he besought him to come into his house; ⁴² for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. And as he went, the multitudes thronged him. ⁴³ And a woman who had had an issue of blood twelve years, and had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be cured by any one, ⁴⁴ came up behind and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her issue of blood ceased. ⁴⁵ And Jesus said, Who touched me? And when all denied it, Peter and those with him said, Master, the multitudes are thronging thee, and pressing against thee. ⁴⁶ But Jesus said, Some one touched me; for I perceived that power went out from me. ⁴⁷ And the woman, seeing that she was discovered, came trembling, and falling down before him declared before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was cured immediately. ⁴⁸ And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee well; go in peace. ⁴⁹ While he was yet speaking, there cometh one from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Teacher any further. ⁵⁰ But Jesus hearing this, answered him, Fear not; only believe, and she will be made well. ⁵¹ And going into the house, he suffered no one to go in with him but Peter and John and James, and the father of the maiden, and the mother. ⁵² And all were weeping, and lamenting for her. But he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleeping. ⁵³ And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴ But he took hold of her hand, and called aloud, saying, Maiden, arise! ⁵⁵ And her spirit returned, and she immediately arose. And he ordered food to be given to her. ⁵⁶ And her parents were amazed. But he charged them to tell no one what had been done.

to a city called Bethsaida. ¹¹ But the multitudes, when they knew it, followed him; and he welcomed them, and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing. ¹² And when the day began to decline, the twelve came and said to him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages around, and the open country, and lodge, and get food; for we are here in a desert place. ¹³ But he said to them, Do ye give them food. And they said, We have not more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we ourselves should go and buy food for all these people. ¹⁴ They were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them lie down in companies of fifty. ¹⁵ And they did so, and made them all lie down. ¹⁶ Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. ¹⁷ And they ate, and were all filled; and what remained to them of fragments was taken up, twelve baskets. ¹⁸ And it came to pass as he was in a private place praying, that his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? ¹⁹ And they answering said, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets hath risen. ²⁰ And he said to them, But who do ye say that I am? And Peter answering said, The Christ of God. ²¹ But he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no one; ²² saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be put to death, and rise again on the third day. ²³ And he said to all, If any one chooseth to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me. ²⁴ For whoever chooseth to save his life, will lose it; and whoever loseth his life for my sake, he will save it. ²⁵ For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit himself? ²⁶ For whoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his glory, and that of his Father, and of the holy angels. ²⁷ And I tell you in truth, that there are some of those standing here who will not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God. ²⁸ And it came to pass about eight days after this discourse, that he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. ²⁹ And while he was praying, the appearance of his countenance was changed, and his raiment became white and glistening. ³⁰ And lo! two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah; ³¹ who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure which he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem. ³² But Peter and those who were with him were weighed down with sleep. But when they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. ³³ And it came to pass as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tents, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah;—not knowing what he said. ³⁴ But as he was saying this, there came a cloud and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, “This is my chosen Son; hear him.” ³⁶ And when the voice had come, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it secret, and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen. ³⁷ And it came to pass that on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. ³⁸ And lo! a man from the multitude cried out, saying, Teacher, I beseech thee, look upon my son, for he is my only child; ³⁹ and lo! a spirit seizeth him, and suddenly crieth out, and convulseth him so that he foameth, and it departeth from him hardly, taking away all his strength. ⁴⁰ And I besought thy disciples to cast it out, and they could not. ⁴¹ And Jesus answering said, O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring thy son hither. ⁴² And while he was yet coming, the demon threw him down, and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him to his father. ⁴³ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they were all wondering at all the things which he did, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴ As for you, let these words sink into your ears; for the Son of man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men. ⁴⁵ But they knew not the meaning of these words, and it was hidden from them, that they might not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about these words. ⁴⁶ And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them was greatest. ⁴⁷ And Jesus knowing the reasoning of their heart, took a child and set him by his side, ⁴⁸ and said to them, Whoever receiveth this child in my name, receiveth me; and whoever receiveth me, receiveth him who sent me. For he that is least among you all, he is great. ⁴⁹ And John answering said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name, and we forbade him, because he doth not follow in our company. ⁵⁰ But Jesus said to him, Forbid him not; for he that is not against you is for you. ⁵¹ And it came to pass, when the time was near for his being received up, that he himself steadily set his face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵² And he sent messengers before him; and they went and entered a city of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. ⁵³ And they did not receive him, because his face was as if he were going to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ And the disciples James and John, on seeing it, said, Lord, wilt thou have us bid fire come down from heaven, and consume them? ⁵⁵ But he turned and rebuked them. ⁵⁶ And they went to another village. ⁵⁷ And as they were traveling on the way, one said to him, I will follow thee wherever thou goest. ⁵⁸ And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have lodging-places; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. ⁵⁹ And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Suffer me first to go and bury my father. ⁶⁰ And he said to him, Let the dead bury their own dead; but go thou and carry the tidings of the kingdom of God. ⁶¹ And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first let me bid farewell to those who are in my house. ⁶² And Jesus said to him, No one who looketh back after putting his hand to the plough is fit for the kingdom of God.

¹ After these things, the Lord appointed also seventy others, and sent them two and two before him into every city and place where he himself was about to come. ² And he said to them, The harvest is great, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers for his harvest. ³ Go forth; lo! I send you as lambs into the midst of wolves. ⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; salute no one by the way. ⁵ And into whatever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. ⁶ And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it; if not, it shall return to you. ⁷ And abide in the same house, eating and drinking such things as they give; for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house. ⁸ And into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat what is set before you, ⁹ and heal the sick that are therein, and say to them, The kingdom of God hath come near to you. ¹⁰ But into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ Even the dust of your city that cleaveth to our feet we wipe off to you; but know this, that the kingdom of God hath come near. ¹² And I tell you, that it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. ¹³ Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee, Bethsaida! for if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would long ago have repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴ But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you. ¹⁵ And thou, Capernaum! shalt thou be exalted to heaven? thou shalt be brought down to the underworld. ¹⁶ He that hearkeneth to you, hearkeneth to me; and he that rejecteth you, rejecteth me; but he that rejecteth me, rejecteth him that sent me. ¹⁷ And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us in thy name. ¹⁸ And he said to them, I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning. ¹⁹ Lo! I have given you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the might of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you. ²⁰ Yet rejoice not in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names have been written in heaven. ²¹ In that hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that, though thou didst hide these things from the wise and discerning, thou didst reveal them to babes. Yea, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. And turning to the disciples he said, ²² All things were delivered to me by my Father; and no one knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom it is the will of the Son to reveal him. ²³ And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye are seeing. ²⁴ For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye are seeing, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye are hearing, and heard them not. ²⁵ And lo! a certain lawyer stood up to try him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life? ²⁶ And he said to him, What is written in the Law? How readest thou? ²⁷ And he answering said "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself." ²⁸ And he said to him, Thou hast answered rightly; do this, and thou shalt live. ²⁹ But he, wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? ³⁰ Jesus answering said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers; who after stripping him of his raiment, and wounding him, departed, leaving him half dead. ³¹ And by chance a certain priest was going down on that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³² And in like manner also a Levite, having arrived at the place, came and saw, and passed by on the other side. ³³ But a certain Samaritan, as he was journeying, came where he was, and when he saw him, had compassion, ³⁴ and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and setting him on his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵ And the next day, he took out two denaries and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatever thou spendest more, I, when I come back, will repay thee. ³⁶ Which of these three, dost thou think, was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers? ³⁷ And he said, He that took pity on him. Then said Jesus to him, Go, and do thou likewise. ³⁸ And it came to pass, as they journeyed, that he entered into a certain village; and a certain woman, named Martha, received him into her house. ³⁹ And she had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the feet of the Lord, and listened to his word. ⁴⁰ But Martha was cumbered about much serving; and she came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Tell her therefore to help me. ⁴¹ But the Lord answering said to her, Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things. ⁴² But one thing is needful. For Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

¹ And it came to pass, as he was in a certain place praying, that when he ceased one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples. ² And he said to them, When ye pray, say, Father, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; ³ give us day by day our daily bread; ⁴ and forgive us our sins, for even we ourselves forgive every one that is indebted to us; and lead us not into temptation. ⁵ And he said to them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him Friend, lend me three loaves; ⁶ for a friend of mine hath come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him? ⁷ And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and I and my children are in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. ⁸ I say to you, though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. ⁹ And I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and ye will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, the door will be opened. ¹¹ And what father is there, among you, who, if his son ask for bread, will give him a stone? or if he ask for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent? ¹² or, if he ask for an egg, will give him a scorpion? ¹³ If ye then, though evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! ¹⁴ And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb; and it came to pass, when the demon had gone out, that the dumb man spoke. And the multitudes wondered. ¹⁵ But some of them said, He casteth out the demons through Beelzebul, the prince of the demons; ¹⁶ and others, to make trial of him, asked of him a sign from heaven. ¹⁷ But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and house divided against house falleth. ¹⁸ And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? For ye say that I cast out the demons through Beelzebul. ¹⁹ But if I cast out the demons through Beelzebul, through whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore shall they be judges of you. ²⁰ But if I cast out the demons through the finger of God, then hath the kingdom of God already come to you. ²¹ When a strong man armed guardeth his palace, his goods are in peace; ²² but when one stronger than he cometh upon him and overcometh him, he taketh from him his whole armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. ²³ He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. ²⁴ When the unclean spirit is gone out from a man, it goeth through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, it saith, I will return to my house whence I came out. ²⁵ And on coming, it findeth it swept and put in order. ²⁶ Then it goeth, and taketh with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. ²⁷ And it came to pass, as he was saying these things, that a certain woman lifted up her voice from the crowd, and said to him, Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the breasts from which thou drewest nourishment. ²⁸ But he said, Blessed rather are they that hear the word of God and keep it. ²⁹ And when the crowds were thronging about him, he began to say, This generation is a wicked generation; it seeketh a sign; and no sign will be given it, but the sign of Jonah. ³⁰ For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of man be to this generation. ³¹ The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and lo! something more than Solomon is here. ³² The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and lo! something more than Jonah is here. ³³ No one when he has lighted a lamp, puts it into a secret place, or under the bushel, but on the lamp-stand, that they who come in may see the light. ³⁴ The lamp of the body is thine eye. When thine eye is clear, thy whole body also is in the light; but when it is disordered, thy body also is in darkness. ³⁵ Take heed therefore, that the light which is within thee be not darkness. ³⁶ If then thy whole body is enlightened, having no part dark, the whole will be as fully enlightened, as when a lamp with its bright shining giveth thee light. ³⁷ And when he had done speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him. And he went in and reclined at the table. ³⁸ And the Pharisee, seeing it, wondered that he did not bathe before dinner. ³⁹ But the Lord said to him, Now ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inside is full of rapacity and wickedness. ⁴⁰ Fools, did not he who made the outside, make the inside also? ⁴¹ But give what they contain in alms, and lo! all is clean to you. ⁴² But woe to you Pharisees! for ye pay tithes of the mint, and the rue, and every herb; and pass by justice and the love of God. These ought ye to have done, and not to leave those undone. ⁴³ Woe to you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and salutations in the markets. ⁴⁴ Woe to you, for ye are as tombs which are unseen, and men walking over them know it not. ⁴⁵ And one of the lawyers answering saith to him, Teacher, in saying these things, thou revilest us also. ⁴⁶ And he said, To you lawyers also, woe! for ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷ Woe to you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸ So then ye bear witness to and approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and ye are building [[their tombs]]. ⁴⁹ Therefore the wisdom of God also said, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute; ⁵⁰ that the blood of all the prophets, which hath been shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was slain between the altar and the temple. Yea, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. ⁵² Woe to you lawyers! because ye have taken away the key of knowledge; ye have not entered yourselves, and those who were entering ye have hindered. ⁵³ And as he came out thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very spiteful, and to press him to speak off hand about many things, ⁵⁴ lying in wait to catch something out of his mouth.

not where to store my crops. ¹⁸ And he said, This will I do; I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I store all my crops and my goods; ¹⁹ and I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast many goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. ²⁰ But God said to him, Fool! this night will thy soul be required of thee; and whose will those things be which thou hast laid up? ²¹ So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God. ²² And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for the life, what ye shall eat; nor for the body, what ye shall put on. ²³ The life is more than its food, and the body than its raiment. ²⁴ Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap; which have neither storehouse, nor barn; and God feedeth them. Of how much greater value are ye than the birds! ²⁵ And who of you can by anxious thought add a cubit to his life? ²⁶ If then ye cannot do even that which is least, why are ye anxious about the rest? ²⁷ Consider the lilies, that they neither spin nor weave; and yet I say to you, Not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. ²⁸ But if God so clothes the herbage in the field, which is to-day, and tomorrow is cast into an oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith! ²⁹ And seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink; and be not of a doubtful mind. ³⁰ For all these things do the nations of the world seek after; and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. ³¹ But rather seek his kingdom, and these things will also be given you. ³² Fear not, little flock! for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. ³³ Sell what ye have, and give alms. Make for yourselves purses which wax not old, treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, nor moth destroyeth. ³⁴ For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. ³⁵ Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; ³⁶ and be yourselves like men waiting for the return of their lord from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open to him immediately. ³⁷ Happy are those servants, whom their lord when he cometh shall find watching; truly do I say to you, that he will gird himself, and place them at table, and will come and wait on them. ³⁸ And if in the second, or if in the third watch, he cometh and findeth them thus, happy are they. ³⁹ And be sure of this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have suffered his house to be broken through. ⁴⁰ Be ye also ready; for at an hour when ye think not the Son of man cometh. ⁴¹ And Peter said to him, Lord, dost thou speak this parable to us, or also to all? ⁴² And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful, the wise steward, whom his lord will place over his household, to give the portion of food in due season? ⁴³ Happy is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing. ⁴⁴ I say to you in truth, that he will place him in charge of all his substance. ⁴⁵ But if that servant say in his heart, My lord is long in coming; and begin to beat the men-servants and maid-servants, and to eat and drink and be drunken, ⁴⁶ the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the unfaithful. ⁴⁷ And that servant who knew his lord's will, and did not make ready, nor do according to his will, will be beaten with many stripes; ⁴⁸ but he that knew not and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few. And from every one to whom much hath been given, will much be required; and to whom much hath been entrusted, of him will the more be demanded. ⁴⁹ I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what do I wish, if it hath been already kindled? ⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how is my soul troubled, till it be accomplished! ⁵¹ Think ye that I came to give peace in the earth? I tell you, nay, but rather division. ⁵² For from this time forth five in one house will be divided, three against two, and two against three. ⁵³ They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ⁵⁴ And he said also to the multitudes, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, ye say at once, A shower is coming; and it is so; ⁵⁵ and when ye perceive the south wind blowing, ye say, It will be hot; and it cometh to pass. ⁵⁶ Hypocrites! ye know how to judge of the face of the earth and the sky; but how is it that ye know not how to judge of this time? ⁵⁷ And why even of yourselves do ye not judge what is right? ⁵⁸ When thou art going with thine adversary at law to the magistrate, take pains, while on the way, to be released by him; lest he drag thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell thee, Thou wilt not come out thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

¹⁵ But the Lord answered him and said, Hypocrites, doth not each of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away and water him? ¹⁶ And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo! for eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day? ¹⁷ And on his speaking thus, all his adversaries were ashamed; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. ¹⁸ He said therefore, To what is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I compare it? ¹⁹ It is like a grain of mustard, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and became a tree, and the birds of the air lodged in its branches. ²⁰ And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of God? ²¹ It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. ²² And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem. ²³ And one said to him, Lord, are there few that are to be saved? And he said to them, ²⁴ Strive to enter in through the narrow door; for many, I say to you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. ²⁵ When once the master of the house shall have risen, and shut the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us, and he answering shall say to you, I know not whence ye are; ²⁶ then will ye begin to say, We ate and drank in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets. ²⁷ And he will say, I tell you, I know not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. ²⁸ There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth there, when ye see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out. ²⁹ And from the east and the west and the north and the south will men come, and take their places at table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ And lo! there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last. ³¹ In the same hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Depart, and go hence; for Herod designeth to kill thee. ³² And he said to them, Go, tell that fox, Lo! I cast out demons and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and on the third day I make an end. ³³ But to-day and to-morrow and the next day I must go on; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish out of Jerusalem. ³⁴ Jerusalem! Jerusalem! that killeth the prophets, and stoneth those who are sent to her! How often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, and ye would not! ³⁵ Lo! your house is abandoned to you. I declare to you, Ye will not see me until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

¹ And it came to pass, when he had come into the house of one of the chief men of the Pharisees on the sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. ² And lo! there was a certain man before him, who had the dropsy. ³ And Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath, or not? ⁴ But they were silent. And taking hold of him, he cured him, and sent him away. ⁵ And he answered them and said, Who is there of you, who, if his son or his ox fall into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the sabbath-day? ⁶ And they could make no answer to this. ⁷ And he spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he observed how they chose out the highest places at the table, saying to them, ⁸ When thou art invited by any one to a wedding, do not take the highest place, lest one more honorable than thou may have been invited by him; ⁹ and he who invited thee and him come and say to thee, Give place to this man; and then thou wilt begin with shame to take the lowest place. ¹⁰ But when thou art invited, go and recline in the lowest place, that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher. Then wilt thou have honor in the presence of all who are at table with thee. ¹¹ For every one that exalteth himself will be humbled; and he that humbleth himself will be exalted. ¹² And he said also to him who invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, do not invite thy friends, nor thy brothers, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest they too invite thee in return, and a recompense be made thee. ¹³ But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind; ¹⁴ and thou shalt be blessed, because they cannot recompense thee; but thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the righteous. ¹⁵ And one of those who were at table with him, hearing this, said to him, Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. ¹⁶ And he said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. ¹⁷ And at the hour of supper he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, Come, for things are now ready. ¹⁸ And all with one accord began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of land, and must needs go out and see it; I pray that I may be excused. ¹⁹ And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and am going out to try them; I pray that I may be excused. ²⁰ And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. ²¹ And the servant came, and reported these things to his lord. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, the blind, and the lame. ²² And the servant said, Lord, what thou didst command hath been done, and yet there is room. ²³ And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. ²⁴ For I say to you, that none of those men who were invited shall taste of my supper. ²⁵ And great multitudes were going with him; and he turned and said to them, ²⁶ If any one cometh to me, and hateth not his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. ²⁷ Whoever doth not bear his own cross and follow me, cannot be my disciple. ²⁸ For which of you, intending to build a tower, doth not sit down first and count the cost, whether he hath the means to finish it? ²⁹ lest haply when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to make sport of him, ³⁰ saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. ³¹ Or what king, setting out to give battle to another king, will not first sit down and consider whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? ³² Else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassy, and asketh conditions of peace. ³³ So likewise, whoever of you doth not forsake all that he hath, cannot be my disciple. ³⁴ Salt then is good; but if the salt itself have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? ³⁵ It is fit neither for the land, nor for the dunghill; men cast it out. He that hath ears, let him hear.

would not go in; and his father came out, and entreated him. ²⁹ And he answering said to his father, Lo! for so many years have I served thee, and never transgressed thy command; and yet to me thou never gavest a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. ³⁰ But as soon as this thy son came, who devoured thy living with harlots, thou didst kill for him the fatted calf. ³¹ And he said to him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. ³² It was meet that we should make merry and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.

¹ And he said also to the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused to him as wasting his goods. ² And he called him, and said to him, What is this that I hear of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. ³ Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do, now that my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig, I am ashamed to beg. ⁴ I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, I may be received into their houses. ⁵ So he called to him every one of his lord's debtors, and said to the first, How much dost thou owe my lord? ⁶ And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take thy bond, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. ⁷ Then he said to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He saith to him, Take thy bond, and write eighty. ⁸ And the lord commended the unjust steward for having done wisely; for the sons of this world are wiser toward their generation than the sons of light. ⁹ And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends with the unrighteous mammon; that, when it faileth, ye may be received into everlasting habitations. ¹⁰ He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much. ¹¹ If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? ¹² and if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? ¹³ No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate one, and love the other; or he will cleave to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. ¹⁴ And the Pharisees, who were covetous, heard all this, and they derided him. ¹⁵ And he said to them, Ye are they who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts; for that which is highly exalted among men is an abomination before God. ¹⁶ The Law and the Prophets were till John; from that time the glad tidings of the kingdom of God have been published, and every one is forcing his way into it. ¹⁷ But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fail. ¹⁸ Whoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery; and he who marrieth a woman that hath been put away from her husband, committeth adultery. ¹⁹ There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and feasted sumptuously every day. ²⁰ And a certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, ²¹ and longing to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. But even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²² And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ And in the underworld he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. ²⁴ And he called and said, Father Abraham, have pity on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. ²⁵ But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou didst receive thy good things in thy lifetime, and Lazarus in like manner his evil things; but now he is comforted here, and thou art tormented. ²⁶ And besides all this, between us and you there is placed a great gulf, so that those who wish to cross from hence to you may not be able, and that those on that side cannot cross over to us. ²⁷ Then he said, I pray thee then, father, to send him to my father's house; ²⁸ for I have five brothers; that he may give earnest warning to them, that they too may not come into this place of torment. ²⁹ But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. ³⁰ But he said, Nay, father Abraham; but if one should go to them from the dead, they would repent. ³¹ But he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded, though one should rise from the dead.

¹ And he said to his disciples, It is impossible but that stumbling-blocks will come; but woe to him through whom they come! ² It were better for him to have a millstone hung round his neck, and be cast into the sea, than to cause one of these little ones to fall away. ³ Take heed to yourselves. If thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. ⁴ And if he sin against thee seven times in a day, and seven times turn to thee, saying, I repent, thou shalt forgive him. ⁵ And the apostles said to the Lord, Give us more faith. ⁶ But the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard, ye might say to this sycamine-tree, Be plucked up by the roots, and planted in the sea! and it would obey you. ⁷ And which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him, when he hath come in from the field, Come immediately and place thyself at table? ⁸ Will he not rather say to him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself and serve me till I have eaten and drunken, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? ⁹ Doth he owe any thanks to that servant, because he did what was commanded? ¹⁰ So also do ye, when ye have done all that hath been commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were bound to do. ¹¹ And it came to pass, as he was going to Jerusalem, that he was traveling on the confines of Samaria and Galilee. ¹² And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten lepers, who stood afar off. ¹³ And they lifted up their voice, saying, Jesus, Master, have pity on us. ¹⁴ And when he saw them, he said to them, Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they were on their way, they were cleansed. ¹⁵ And one of them, perceiving that he was freed from his disease, turned back, giving glory to God with a loud voice; ¹⁶ and he fell down on his face at his feet, giving thanks to him; and he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷ And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸ Were there none found returning to give glory to God but this foreigner? ¹⁹ And he said to him, Rise and go; thy faith hath made thee well. ²⁰ And being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not in such a manner as to be watched for; ²¹ nor will they say, Lo here! or there! for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you. ²² And he said to the disciples, The days will come, when ye will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and will not see it. ²³ And they will say to you, Lo there! lo here! Go not away, and follow not. ²⁴ For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of one part under heaven, shineth to the other part under heaven, so will the Son of man be in his day. ²⁵ But first he must suffer much, and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶ And as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be also in the days of the Son of man. ²⁷ They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. ²⁸ In like manner, as it was in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; ²⁹ but on the day when Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. ³⁰ Thus will it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. ³¹ In that day, let not him who is upon the house-top, and whose furniture is in the house, come down to take it away; and he that is in the field, let him likewise not turn back. ³² Remember Lot's wife. ³³ Whoever shall seek to save his life will lose it; and whoever shall lose it will preserve it. ³⁴ I tell you, In that night there will be two men on one bed; one will be taken, and the other will be left. ³⁵ Two women will be grinding together; one will be taken, and the other left. ³⁶ ³⁷ And they answering say to him, Where, Lord? And he said to them, Where the body is, there also will the eagles be gathered together.

¹ And he spoke a parable to them to show that they ought to pray always, and not be faint-hearted: ² saying, There was in a certain city a judge, who feared not God, nor regarded man. ³ And there was a widow in that city; and she kept coming to him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary! ⁴ And he would not for some time. But afterward he said within himself, Though I neither fear God, nor regard man, ⁵ yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her; lest by coming for ever she weary me out. ⁶ And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. ⁷ And will not God avenge his chosen, who cry to him day and night, though he be slow to punish in their behalf? ⁸ I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. But yet, when the Son of man cometh, will he find faith on the earth? ⁹ And to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised all others, he spoke this parable: ¹⁰ Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood and prayed by himself thus: O God, I thank thee that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. ¹² I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all that I gain. ¹³ But the publican, standing afar off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven; but smote his breast, saying, O God, be merciful to me a sinner! ¹⁴ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one that exalteth himself will be humbled; but he that humbleth himself will be exalted. ¹⁵ And they brought to him infants also, that he might touch them; and the disciples, on seeing it, rebuked them. ¹⁶ But Jesus called them to him, saying, Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not; for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. ¹⁷ Truly do I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, will not enter therein. ¹⁸ And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life? ¹⁹ And Jesus said to him, Why dost thou call me good? None is good but one, that is, God. ²⁰ Thou knowest the commandments: "Do not commit adultery; Do not kill; Do not steal; Do not bear false witness; Honor thy father and thy mother." ²¹ And he said, All these have I kept from my youth. ²² And Jesus hearing this said to him, One thing thou still lackest: sell all that thou hast, and distribute to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. ²³ But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful; for he was very rich. ²⁴ And Jesus seeing him said, How hardly do they that have riches enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. ²⁶ And those who heard this said, Who then can be saved? ²⁷ But he said, What is impossible with men is possible with God. ²⁸ Then Peter said, Lo! we left what we had, and followed thee. ²⁹ And he said to them, Truly do I say to you, There is no one that hath left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who will not receive many fold more in the present time, and in the world to come everlasting life. ³¹ And taking the twelve aside, he said to them, Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all that hath been written by the prophets concerning the Son of man will be accomplished. ³² For he will be delivered up to the gentiles, and will be mocked, and insulted, and spit upon; ³³ and they will scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he will rise again. ³⁴ And they understood none of these things; and the meaning of these words was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what was said. ³⁵ And it came to pass, as he drew near to Jericho, that a certain blind man was sitting by the wayside begging. ³⁶ And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what this meant. ³⁷ And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. ³⁸ And he cried out, saying, Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me! ³⁹ And they who went before sharply bade him hold his peace. But he cried out the more, Son of David, have pity on me! ⁴⁰ And Jesus stopped, and ordered him to be brought to him. And when he had come near, he asked him, ⁴¹ What dost thou wish me to do for thee? And he said, Lord, to restore my sight. ⁴² And Jesus said to him, Receive thy sight; thy faith hath saved thee. ⁴³ And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, giving glory to God; and all the people on seeing it gave praise to God.

he sought to see Jesus, what sort of man he was; and he could not on account of the multitude; because he was small of stature. ⁴ And he ran on before, and climbed up a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way. ⁵ And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said to him, Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for today I must abide at thy house. ⁶ And he made haste and came down, and received him joyfully. ⁷ And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He hath gone in to be the guest of a sinner. ⁸ And Zacchaeus stood up, and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any one by false representation, I restore him four-fold. ⁹ And Jesus said to him, This day hath salvation come to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham; ¹⁰ for the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost. ¹¹ And while they were hearing these things, he proceeded and spoke a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear. ¹² He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. ¹³ And he called his ten servants, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, Trade with these, till I come. ¹⁴ But his citizens hated him, and sent an embassy after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. ¹⁵ And it came to pass, when he had returned, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants to whom he had given the money to be called to him, that he might know what each had gained by trading. ¹⁶ And the first came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. ¹⁷ And he said to him, Well done, good servant! because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities. ¹⁸ And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. ¹⁹ And he said also to this servant, And be thou over five cities. ²⁰ And another came, saying, Lord, behold thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin. ²¹ For I feared thee, because thou art a harsh man; thou takest up what thou didst not lay down, and reapest what thou didst not sow. ²² He saith to him, Out of thy mouth will I judge thee, wicked servant! thou knewest that I was a harsh man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow; ²³ why then didst thou not put my money into a bank? Then I at my coming might have received it back with interest. ²⁴ And he said to them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath the ten pounds. ²⁵ (And they said to him, He hath ten pounds, Lord.) ²⁶ I say to you, that to every one who hath, will be given; but from him that hath not, even what he hath will be taken away. ²⁷ But as for those enemies of mine, who would not that I should reign over them, bring them here, and slay them before me. ²⁸ And when he had thus spoken, he went forward, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹ And it came to pass, as he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, ³⁰ saying, Go to the village over against us; on entering which ye will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever sat; and loose, and bring it. ³¹ And if any one ask you, Why are ye loosing it? ye shall say thus, The Lord hath need of it. ³² And they who were sent went and found just as he told them. ³³ And as they were loosing the colt, its owners said to them, Why are ye loosing the colt? ³⁴ And they said, The Lord hath need of it. ³⁵ And they brought it to Jesus; and having thrown their garments on the colt, they set Jesus thereon. ³⁶ And as he went on, they spread their garments in the road. ³⁷ And as he was drawing near, just at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the miracles which they had seen; ³⁸ saying, Blessed be the King in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heavens! ³⁹ And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said to him, Teacher, rebuke thy disciples. ⁴⁰ And he answering said, I tell you, that if these are silent, the stones will cry out. ⁴¹ And when he came near, as he beheld the city, he wept over it, ⁴² saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, and that in this thy day, the things that concern thy peace! but now they are hidden from thine eyes. ⁴³ For the days will come upon thee, when thine enemies will cast up a mound about thee, and compass thee round, and shut thee in on every side, ⁴⁴ and will level thee with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they will not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. ⁴⁵ And entering the temple, he began to cast out those who sold, ⁴⁶ saying to them, It is written, "And my house shall be a house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of robbers." ⁴⁷ And he was teaching daily in the temple; but the chief priests, and the scribes, and the leading men of the people sought to destroy him. ⁴⁸ And they could not find an opportunity of doing any thing; for all the people hung upon him, listening.

¹ And it came to pass, on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and publishing the good tidings, that the priests and the scribes with the elders came upon him, ² and spoke to him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? Or who is he that gave thee this authority? ³ And he answering said to them, I also will ask you a question; and tell me: ⁴ The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? ⁵ And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say, Why did ye not believe him? ⁶ But if we say, From men, all the people will stone us; for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. ⁷ And they answered, that they did not know whence it was. ⁸ And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. ⁹ And he began to speak to the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad for a long time. ¹⁰ And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹ And he sent still another servant; and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹² And he went on to send a third; and they wounded him also, and cast him out. ¹³ And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him. ¹⁴ But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may become ours. ¹⁵ So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶ He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. And when they heard this, they said, God forbid! ¹⁷ But he, looking upon them, said, What then is this which is written, "The stone which the builders rejected, the same hath become the corner-stone"? ¹⁸ Every one who falleth upon that stone will be broken; but on whomever it falleth, it will grind him to powder. ¹⁹ And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that hour, but they feared the people; for they knew that he spoke this parable against them. ²⁰ And they kept watch on him, and sent forth spies feigning themselves to be righteous men, that they might take hold of his words, in order to deliver him up to the civil power and to the authority of the governor. ²¹ And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and hast no regard to the person of men, but teachest the way of God truly. ²² Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not? ²³ But perceiving their craftiness, he said to them, ²⁴ Show me a denary. Whose image and inscription hath it? And they answered and said, Caesar's. ²⁵ And he said to them, Render then to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. ²⁶ And they could not take hold of his words before the people; and marveling at his answer, they held their peace. ²⁷ Then some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, came to him, and asked him, ²⁸ saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, "If a man's brother die, having a wife, and the same die without children, his brother shall take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother." ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless. ³⁰ And the second ³¹ and the third took her; and in like manner also the seven left no children, and died. ³² At last the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection then, of which of them is the woman the wife? for the seven had her for a wife. ³⁴ And Jesus said to them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage; ³⁵ but they who have been accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage; ³⁶ for they cannot die any more; for they are like the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷ But that the dead are raised, even Moses hath shown at the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to him. ³⁹ Then some of the scribes answering, said, Teacher, thou hast well said. ⁴⁰ For they dared no longer to ask him any question. ⁴¹ And he said to them, How is it that men say that the Christ is David's son? ⁴² For David himself saith in the book of Psalms, "The Lord said to my lord, Sit thou on my right hand, ⁴³ till I make thine enemies thy footstool." ⁴⁴ David then calleth him lord; and how is he his son? ⁴⁵ And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, ⁴⁶ Beware of the scribes, who like to walk about in long robes, and love salutations in the markets, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the first places at feasts; ⁴⁷ who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers. These will receive a far greater condemnation.

pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. ³² Truly do I say to you, that this generation will not pass away, till all shall have taken place. ³³ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ³⁴ But take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be weighed down with surfeiting and drunkenness and worldly cares, and that day come upon you unawares. ³⁵ For as a snare will it come on all that dwell on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ But watch at all times, and pray that ye may be able to escape all the things that are about to come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. ³⁷ And during the daytime he was teaching in the temple; but at night he went out, and lodged in the mount called the Mount of Olives. ³⁸ And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

exercise authority over them are called benefactors. ²⁶ But it is not to be so with you; but let the greatest among you be as the youngest; and he that is chief, as he that serveth. ²⁷ For which is greater? he who reclineth at the table, or he who serveth? Is not he that reclineth at the table? But I am in the midst of you as he who serveth. ²⁸ Ye however are they who have continued steadfastly with me in my trials. ²⁹ And I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father appointed to me; ³⁰ that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; and ye shall sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ³¹ Simon, Simon, lo! Satan hath asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat. ³² But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not. And do thou, when thou hast returned to me, strengthen thy brethren. ³³ And he said to him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee both to prison and to death. ³⁴ And he said, I tell thee, Peter, a cock will not crow this day, till thou hast thrice denied that thou knowest me. ³⁵ And he said to them, When I sent you without purse, or bag, or sandals, were ye in need of anything? And they said, Of nothing. Then he said to them, ³⁶ But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a bag; and he that hath not, let him sell his garment, and buy a sword. ³⁷ For I say to you, that this which is written must be accomplished in me: "And he was reckoned among transgressors." For that which concerneth me also hath an end. ³⁸ And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said to him, It is enough! ³⁹ And going out, he went, as he was wont, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. ⁴⁰ And when he was at the place, he said to them, Pray that ye may not enter into temptation. ⁴¹ And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw; and kneeling down he prayed, ⁴² saying, Father, if thou art willing to remove this cup from me—yet not my will, but thine be done! ⁴³ And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. ⁴⁴ And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly. And his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling to the ground. ⁴⁵ And rising up from prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow, ⁴⁶ and said to them, Why sleep ye? Rise, and pray that ye may not enter into temptation. ⁴⁷ While he was yet speaking, lo! a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, was at the head of them; and he drew near to Jesus to kiss him. ⁴⁸ But Jesus said to him, Judas, dost thou betray the Son of man with a kiss? ⁴⁹ And they who were about him, seeing what would follow, said, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? ⁵⁰ And one of them smote the servant of the high-priest, and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹ But Jesus answering said, Permit thus far; and touched his ear, and healed him. ⁵² Then Jesus said to the chief priests and captains of the temple and elders who had come to him, Ye have come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs; ⁵³ when I was daily with you in the temple, ye did not put forth your hands against me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. ⁵⁴ And they seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the house of the high-priest. And Peter followed afar off. ⁵⁵ And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat down among them. ⁵⁶ But a certain maid-servant saw him sitting at the fire, and steadily looking at him said, This man also was with him. ⁵⁷ And he denied him, saying, Woman, I do not know him. ⁵⁸ And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou also art one of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. ⁵⁹ And in about one hour's time, another confidently affirmed, saying, In truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galilaean. ⁶⁰ And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, a cock crew. ⁶¹ And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, that he had said to him, Before a cock crows this day, thou wilt thrice deny me. ⁶² And he went out, and wept bitterly. ⁶³ And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and beat him; ⁶⁴ and having blindfolded him, they asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that struck thee? ⁶⁵ And many other things did they scoffingly say against him. ⁶⁶ And when it was day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together, and brought him before their council, saying, ⁶⁷ If thou art the Christ, tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, ye will not believe; ⁶⁸ and if I ask, ye will not answer. ⁶⁹ But from this time the Son of man will sit on the right hand of the power of God. ⁷⁰ Then they all said, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said to them, Ye say what is true; for I am. ⁷¹ And they said, What further need have we of testimony? For we have ourselves heard from his own mouth.

¹ And the whole assemblage of them arose, and carried him before Pilate. ² And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is the Christ, the king. ³ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering said to him, I am. ⁴ And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, I find nothing criminal in this man. ⁵ But they were the more violent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judaea, beginning from Galilee, even to this place. ⁶ And when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilaean. ⁷ And on learning that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was himself also at Jerusalem at this time. ⁸ Now Herod, when he saw Jesus, was very glad; for he had been wishing to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him; and he hoped to see some sign wrought by him. ⁹ And he put many questions to him; but he gave him no answer. ¹⁰ And the chief priests and scribes stood vehemently accusing him. ¹¹ And Herod also with his guard of soldiers set him at nought and mocked him, and having arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, sent him back to Pilate. ¹² And Herod and Pilate on that day became friends with each other; for they had before been at enmity. ¹³ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴ said to them, Ye have brought to me this man, as one that perverteth the people; and behold, I have examined him before you, and have found nothing in this man to sustain the charges which ye bring against him. ¹⁵ No, nor yet Herod; for he hath sent him back to us; and lo! nothing deserving death hath been done by him. ¹⁶ I will therefore chastise, and release him. ¹⁷ Now it was necessary for him to release to them

one at the feast. ¹⁸ And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas; ¹⁹ who, for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, had been cast into prison. ²⁰ But Pilate again spoke to them, wishing to release Jesus. ²¹ But they cried out, saying, Crucify, crucify him! ²² And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found him guilty of nothing deserving death; I will therefore chastise, and release him. ²³ But they were urgent with loud voices, demanding that he should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. ²⁴ And Pilate gave sentence that what they demanded should be done. ²⁵ And he released him who for sedition and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will. ²⁶ And when they had led him away, they laid hold on one Simon a Cyrenaeon, coming out of the country, and laid on him the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. ²⁷ And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who were bewailing and lamenting him. ²⁸ But Jesus turning to them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me; but weep for yourselves, and for your children. ²⁹ For lo! the days are coming, in which they will say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never gave nourishment. ³⁰ Then will they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. ³¹ For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry? ³² And two others, who were malefactors, were led with him to be put to death. ³³ And when they had come to the place which is called the Skull, they there crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left. ³⁴ And Jesus said, Father, forgive them! for they know not what they do. And they divided his garments, casting lots. ³⁵ And the people stood looking on; and the rulers sneered, saying, Others he saved; let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, the chosen one. ³⁶ And the soldiers also came up to him and made sport of him, offering him vinegar; ³⁷ and saying, If thou art the king of the Jews, save thyself. ³⁸ There was also an inscription over him: "This is the king of the Jews." ³⁹ And one of the crucified malefactors railed at him, saying, Art thou not the Christ? save thyself and us. ⁴⁰ But the other answering said, rebuking him, Dost not thou fear God, since thou art in the same condemnation? ⁴¹ And we indeed justly; for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiss. ⁴² And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom. ⁴³ And he said to him, Truly do I say to thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise. ⁴⁴ And it was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour; ⁴⁵ the sun having failed; and the veil of the temple was rent in two. ⁴⁶ And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit! And having said this, he expired. ⁴⁷ And the centurion, seeing what was done, gave glory to God, saying, Surely this was a righteous man. ⁴⁸ And all the multitudes that had come together to that sight, when they had seen the things which were done, returned, beating their breasts. ⁴⁹ And all his acquaintances stood at a distance, and women that came with him from Galilee, beholding these things. ⁵⁰ And lo! a man named Joseph, of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, being a councilor, and a good and righteous man, ⁵¹ who was not consenting to their purpose and deed, and was waiting for the kingdom of God,— ⁵² this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁵³ And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock; wherein no one had yet lain. ⁵⁴ And it was the day of preparation, and the sabbath was now coming on. ⁵⁵ And the women also, who had come with him from Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. ⁵⁶ And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and on the sabbath they rested, according to the commandment.

that the Christ should suffer these things, and enter into his glory? ²⁷ And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. ²⁸ And they drew near to the village whither they were going; and he made as though he would go further. ²⁹ But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to stay with them. ³⁰ And it came to pass, as he was at table with them, that he took the bread, and blessed it, and broke and gave it to them. ³¹ And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. ³² And they said one to another, Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked with us on the way, while he opened to us the Scriptures? ³³ And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, ³⁴ saying, The Lord hath risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. ³⁵ And they told what had happened on the way, and how he became known to them in the breaking of the bread. ³⁶ And while they were thus speaking, he himself stood in the midst of them. ³⁷ But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld a spirit. ³⁸ And he said to them, Why are ye troubled? and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹ See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. ⁴⁰ ⁴¹ And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said to them, Have ye anything here to eat? ⁴² And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish. ⁴³ And he took and ate it before them. ⁴⁴ And he said to them, These are my words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which are written in the Law of Moses, and the Prophets, and the Psalms, concerning me. ⁴⁵ Then he opened their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ And he said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and should rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance for the remission of sins should be preached in his name among all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ Ye are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And I send forth upon you that which hath been promised by my Father; but do ye tarry in the city, until ye are endued with power from on high. ⁵⁰ And he led them out as far as to Bethany; and he lifted up his hands and blessed them. ⁵¹ And it came to pass, while he blessed them, that he parted from them. ⁵² And they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³ and were continually in the temple, praising God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN

¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² The same was in the beginning with God. ³ All things were made through him; and without him was nothing made that hath been made. ⁴ In him is life; and the life was the light of men. ⁵ And the light hath been shining in the darkness; and the darkness received it not. ⁶ There was a man, sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness, to bear witness of the light, that through him all might believe. ⁸ He was not the light, but came to bear witness of the light. ⁹ The true light, which enlighteneth every man, was coming into the world. ¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. ¹¹ He came to his own, and his own received him not. ¹² But as many as received him, to them he gave power to become children of God,—to those who believed in his name; ¹³ who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. ¹⁴ And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; and we beheld his glory, a glory as of an only begotten of a father. ¹⁵ John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me hath gone before me; for he was before me. ¹⁶ For out of his fullness have we all received, and grace upon grace. ¹⁷ For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one hath ever seen God; the only begotten God, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath made him known. ¹⁹ And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou? ²⁰ And he declared, and did not deny; and he declared, I am not the Christ. ²¹ And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he said, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. ²² They said therefore to him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to those who sent us; what sayest thou of thyself? ²³ He said, I am “a voice of one crying aloud in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord,” as said Isaiah the prophet. ²⁴ And they were sent from the Pharisees; ²⁵ and they asked him and said to him, Why then dost thou baptize, if thou art not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet? ²⁶ John answered them, saying, I baptize in water. There standeth one among you whom ye know not, ²⁷ he who cometh after me, the latchet of whose sandal I am not worthy to loose. ²⁸ These things took place in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. ²⁹ The next day he seeth Jesus coming to him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world! ³⁰ This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, who hath gone before me; for he was before me. ³¹ And I knew him not; but that he might be made manifest to Israel, therefore I came baptizing in water. ³² And John bore witness, saying, I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove from heaven, and it abode upon him. ³³ And I knew him not; but he who sent me to baptize in water, the same said to me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and abiding on him, he it is that baptizeth in the Holy Spirit. ³⁴ And I have seen and have borne witness, that this is the Son of God. ³⁵ On the morrow John was again standing, and two of his disciples; ³⁶ and looking upon Jesus as he was walking, he saith, Behold, the Lamb of God! ³⁷ The two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ Jesus turning and seeing them following, saith to them, What seek ye? And they said to him, Rabbi, (that is to say, when interpreted, Teacher,) where dost thou dwell? ³⁹ He saith to them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he dwelt; and they abode with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. ⁴⁰ One of the two who heard what John said, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith to him, We have found the Messiah; (which is, when interpreted, the Christ.) ⁴² He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looking upon him said, Thou art Simon, the son of John; thou shalt be called Cephas; (which signifieth Peter; that is, Rock.) ⁴³ On the morrow he determined to go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip. And Jesus saith to him, Follow me. ⁴⁴ Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith to him, We have found him of whom Moses in the Law, and the Prophets wrote, Jesus, the son of Joseph, who is of Nazareth. ⁴⁶ And Nathanael said to him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith to him, Come and see. ⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile. ⁴⁸ Nathanael saith to him, Whence dost thou know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee. ⁴⁹ Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the king of Israel. ⁵⁰ Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, dost thou believe? Thou shalt see greater things than these. ⁵¹ And he saith to him, Truly, truly do I say to you, Ye will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

¹ And on the third day there was a marriage-feast in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there. ² And both Jesus and his disciples were invited to the feast. ³ And they had no wine, because the wine of the feast had failed. Then the mother of Jesus saith to him, There is no wine. ⁴ Jesus saith to her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? My hour is not yet come. ⁵ His mother saith to the servants, Whatever he saith to you, do it. ⁶ Now there were set there six water-pots of stone, in conformity with the Jews' custom of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. ⁷ Jesus saith to them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸ And he saith to them, Draw out now, and bear it to the master of the feast. And they bore it. ⁹ But when the master of the feast tasted the water that had been made wine, not knowing whence it was, but the servants who drew the water knew, he called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him, Every man setteth on the good wine first, and when men have drunk freely, that which is worse. Thou hast kept the good wine until now. ¹¹ This beginning of the signs Jesus made in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him. ¹² After this he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brothers, and his disciples; and they abode there not many days. ¹³ And the passover of the Jews was near; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And he found in the temple those who sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the money-changers sitting. ¹⁵ And having made a scourge of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and poured out the money of the exchangers, and overthrew the tables; ¹⁶ and said to those who sold the doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. ¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for thy house will consume me." ¹⁸ The Jews therefore answered and said to him, What sign dost thou show us, seeing thou doest these things? ¹⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. ²⁰ Then said the Jews, Forty-six years was this temple in building; and wilt thou raise it up in three days? ²¹ But he spoke of the temple of his body. ²² When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken. ²³ And when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, at the feast, many believed in his name, when they saw his signs which he wrought. ²⁴ But Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew all men; ²⁵ and had no need that any one should testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

¹ And there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ² This man came to him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou hast come as a teacher from God; for no one can do these signs which thou doest, unless God be with him. ³ Jesus answered and said to him, Truly, truly do I say to thee, Unless a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ⁴ Nicodemus saith to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter his mother's womb a second time, and be born? ⁵ Jesus answered, Truly, truly do I say to thee, Unless a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁶ That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit. ⁷ Marvel not that I said to thee, Ye must be born again. ⁸ The wind bloweth where it will; and thou hearest the sound thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. ⁹ Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can these things be? ¹⁰ Jesus answered and said to him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? ¹¹ Truly, truly do I say to thee, We speak that which we know, and testify that which we have seen; and ye receive not our testimony. ¹² If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how will ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³ And no one hath ascended into heaven, but he who came down from heaven, even the Son of man. ¹⁴ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up ¹⁵ that every one who believeth in him may have everlasting life. ¹⁶ For God so loved the world, that he gave the only begotten Son, that every one who believeth in him may not perish, but may have everlasting life. ¹⁷ For God sent not the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that through him the world might be saved. ¹⁸ He that believeth in him is not condemned; he that believeth not hath already been condemned, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹ And this is the condemnation, that the light hath come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. ²¹ But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. ²² After these things Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judaea; and there he remained with them, and baptized. ²³ And John also was baptizing in AEnon, near Salim, because there was much water there; and they came, and were baptized. ²⁴ For John was not yet thrown into prison. ²⁵ Then there arose a question on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about purifying. ²⁶ And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, he who was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men are going to him. ²⁷ John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, unless it be given him from heaven. ²⁸ Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I was sent before that man. ²⁹ He that hath the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy then hath become full. ³⁰ He must increase, but I must decrease. ³¹ He that cometh from above is above all. He that is from the earth is earthly, and speaketh earthly things; he that cometh from heaven ³² testifieth what he hath seen and heard; and no one receiveth his testimony. ³³ He that hath received his testimony hath set his seal that God is true. ³⁴ For he whom God sent speaketh the words of God; for he giveth not the Spirit by measure. ³⁵ The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. ³⁶ He that believeth in the Son hath everlasting life; and he that disobeyeth the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

water. ¹¹ The woman saith to him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Whence hast thou the living water? ¹² Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? ¹³ Jesus answered and said to her, Every one that drinketh of this water, will thirst again; ¹⁴ but whoever drinketh of the water that I will give him, will never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become within him a well of water springing up to everlasting life. ¹⁵ The woman saith to him, Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come hither to draw. ¹⁶ He saith to her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. ¹⁷ The woman answered, I have no husband. Jesus saith to her, Thou saidst well, that thou hast no husband. ¹⁸ For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband; in this thou hast spoken truly. ¹⁹ The woman saith to him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. ²⁰ Our fathers worshipped on this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. ²¹ Jesus saith to her, Believe me, woman, the hour is coming, when ye shall neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. ²² Ye worship that which ye know not; we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for such worshippers the Father seeketh. ²⁴ God is a spirit; and they who worship must worship in spirit and in truth. ²⁵ The woman saith to him, I know that Messiah cometh (who is called Christ); when he hath come, he will tell us all things. ²⁶ Jesus saith to her, I who speak to thee am he. ²⁷ And upon this his disciples came, and marveled that he was talking with a woman. Yet no one said, What dost thou seek? or, Why dost thou talk with her? ²⁸ The woman then left her water-pot, and went away into the city, and saith to the men, ²⁹ Come, see a man who told me all things which I have done. Is this the Christ? ³⁰ They went out of the city, and came to him. ³¹ In the mean while the disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, eat. ³² But he said to them, I have food to eat that ye know not of. ³³ The disciples therefore said to one another, Hath any one brought him anything to eat? ³⁴ Jesus saith to them, My food is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. ³⁵ Do ye not say, There are yet four months, and the harvest cometh? Lo! I say to you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white for harvest. ³⁶ Already is the reaper receiving wages, and gathering fruit unto everlasting life; that both the sower and the reaper may rejoice together. ³⁷ And herein is fulfilled the true saying, One soweth, and another reapeth. ³⁸ I have sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored. Others have labored, and ye have entered into their labor. ³⁹ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in him because of the words of the woman, who testified, He told me all things which I have done. ⁴⁰ When therefore the Samaritans came to him, they besought him to remain with them; and he remained there two days. ⁴¹ And many more believed on account of his word; ⁴² and said to the woman, No longer do we believe on account of what thou hast told us; for we have ourselves heard him, and know that this is in truth the Saviour of the world. ⁴³ And after the two days he went from that place into Galilee. ⁴⁴ For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵ When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all that he did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they also went to the feast. ⁴⁶ So he came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick, at Capernaum. ⁴⁷ He, having heard that Jesus had come out of Judaea into Galilee, went to him, and asked him to go down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. ⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to him, Unless ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. ⁴⁹ The nobleman saith to him, Sir, come down before my child die. ⁵⁰ Jesus saith to him, Go; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and went away. ⁵¹ And as he was now going down, the servants met him, and brought word that his child was living. ⁵² Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to mend. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. ⁵³ So the father knew that it was in the same hour in which Jesus said to him, Thy son is living. And he himself believed, and his whole house. ⁵⁴ This again, a second sign, Jesus wrought, when he had come out of Judaea into Galilee.

²⁰ for the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things which he himself doeth; and greater works than these will he show him, so that ye will wonder. ²¹ For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and giveth them life, so the Son also giveth life to whom he will. ²² For neither doth the Father judge any one, but hath committed all judgment to the Son; ²³ that all may honor the Son, as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not the Father, who sent him. ²⁴ Truly, truly do I say to you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and cometh not into condemnation, but hath passed out of death into life. ²⁵ Truly, truly do I say to you, The hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear will live. ²⁶ For as the Father hath life in himself, so did he give to the Son also to have life in himself. ²⁷ And he gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. ²⁸ Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, ²⁹ and will come forth, they that have done good, to a resurrection of life; they that have done evil, to a resurrection of condemnation. ³⁰ I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will, but the will of him that sent me. ³¹ If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. ³² There is another who beareth witness of me; and ye know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. ³³ Ye have sent to John, and he hath borne witness to the truth. ³⁴ But the testimony which I receive is not from man; but these things I say, that ye may be saved. ³⁵ He was the burning and shining lamp: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. ³⁶ But the testimony which I have, is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to perform, the works themselves which I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. ³⁷ And the Father who sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. ³⁸ And ye have not his word abiding in you; for whom he sent, him ye believe not. ³⁹ Ye search the Scriptures, because ye yourselves think that in them ye have everlasting life; and it is they which testify of me; ⁴⁰ and ye are not willing to come to me, that ye may have life. ⁴¹ I receive not honor from men; ⁴² but I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. ⁴³ I have come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not; if another come in his own name, him ye will receive. ⁴⁴ How can ye believe while ye receive honor from one another; and seek not the honor that is from him who alone is God? ⁴⁵ Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye have placed your hope. ⁴⁶ For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote of me. ⁴⁷ But if ye do not believe his writings, how will ye believe my words?

seeing that a great crowd was coming to him, saith to Philip, Whence are we to buy bread, that these may eat? ⁶ But this he said to try him; for he himself knew what he was going to do. ⁷ Philip answered him, Two hundred denaries' worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that each one may take a tittle. ⁸ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith to him, ⁹ There is a lad here, who hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes; but what are they among so many? ¹⁰ Jesus said, Make the men lie down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men lay down, in number about five thousand. ¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, and having given thanks, distributed to those that were lying down; in like manner also of the fishes, as much as they desired. ¹² And when they were filled, he saith to his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain over, that nothing may be lost. ¹³ So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above to those that had eaten. ¹⁴ The men therefore seeing the sign which he wrought, said, This is truly the prophet that was to come into the world. ¹⁵ Jesus therefore, knowing that they were about to come and take him by force to make him a king, withdrew again to the mountain alone. ¹⁶ But when evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, ¹⁷ and having gone on board a boat, were going over the lake to Capernaum. And darkness had overtaken them, and Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸ And as a strong wind was blowing, the waves ran high. ¹⁹ When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they saw Jesus walking on the lake, and drawing near the boat; and they were afraid. ²⁰ But he saith to them, It is I, be not afraid. ²¹ Then they were willing to receive him into the boat; and immediately the boat was at the land whither they were going. ²² The day following, the multitude which stood on the other side of the lake having seen that there was no other boat there but one, and that Jesus did not go with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone, ²³ (but there came other boats from Tiberias near the place where they ate the bread, when the Lord had given thanks;) ²⁴ when therefore the multitude saw that Jesus was not there nor his disciples, they went on board the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. ²⁵ And having found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, Rabbi, when didst thou come hither? ²⁶ Jesus answered them and said, Truly, truly do I say to you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. ²⁷ Labor not for the food that perisheth, but for the food that endureth to everlasting life, which the Son of man giveth to you; for on him hath the Father set his seal, even God. ²⁸ Then they said to him, What are we to do, that we may work the works of God? ²⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that ye believe in him whom he sent. ³⁰ They said therefore to him, What sign doest thou, that we may see, and believe thee? What dost thou work? ³¹ Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." ³² Jesus therefore said to them, Truly, truly do I say to you, Moses hath not given you the bread from heaven; but my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is that which is coming down from heaven, and giving life to the world. ³⁴ They said therefore to him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. ³⁵ Jesus therefore said to them, I am the bread of life; he that cometh to me will not hunger; and he that believeth in me will never thirst. ³⁶ But I said to you, that ye have even seen, and do not believe. ³⁷ All that the Father giveth me will come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out; ³⁸ for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me. ³⁹ And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up in the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of my Father, that every one who looketh on the Son and believeth in him, shall have everlasting life; and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁴¹ The Jews therefore murmured about him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven; ⁴² and they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, one whose father and mother we know? How is it then that this man saith, I have come down from heaven? ⁴³ Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves. ⁴⁴ No one can come to me, unless the Father, who sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught of God." Every one that hath heard the Father, and hath learnt from him, cometh to me. ⁴⁶ Not that any one hath seen the Father, but he who is from God; he hath seen the Father. ⁴⁷ Truly, truly do I say to you, He that believeth hath everlasting life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹ Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and died. ⁵⁰ This is the bread which is coming down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eat of my bread, he will live for ever. Yea, and the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. ⁵² The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? ⁵³ Jesus therefore said to them, Truly, truly do I say to you, Unless ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. ⁵⁴ He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁵⁵ For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶ He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood dwelleth in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ As the living Father sent me, and I live by reason of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live by reason of me. ⁵⁸ This is the bread which came down from heaven; not as the fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread will live for ever. ⁵⁹ These things he said in a synagogue, while teaching in Capernaum. ⁶⁰ Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This teaching is hard; who can listen to it? ⁶¹ Jesus therefore knew within himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, and said to them, Doth this offend you? ⁶² What then if ye behold the Son of man ascending where he was before? ⁶³ It is the spirit which maketh alive; the flesh profiteth nothing. The words which I have spoken to you are spirit, and are life. ⁶⁴ But there are some of you who do not believe. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. ⁶⁵ And he said, For this cause I have told you, that no one can come to me, unless it hath been given him from the Father. ⁶⁶ From this time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. ⁶⁷ Jesus therefore said to the twelve, Do ye also wish to go away? ⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast words of everlasting life; ⁶⁹ and we have believed and known, that thou art the Holy One of God. ⁷⁰ Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you twelve? and one of you is a devil! ⁷¹ He spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot; for it was he that was about to betray him, being one of the twelve.

have not come of myself, but there is in truth one who sent me, whom ye know not. ²⁹ I know him, because I am from him, and he hath sent me. ³⁰ Therefore they sought to take him; but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come. ³¹ But of the multitude many believed in him, and said, When the Christ cometh, will he do more signs than these which this man doeth? ³² The Pharisees heard the multitude thus debating concerning him; and the chief priest and the Pharisees sent officers to seize him. ³³ Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to him that sent me. ³⁴ Ye will seek me and not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come. ³⁵ The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go, that we shall not find him? Will he go to the dispersed among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ³⁶ What meaneth this which he said, Ye will seek me, and not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come? ³⁷ On the last day, which is the great day, of the feast, Jesus stood and cried aloud, saying, If any one thirst, let him come to me, and drink. ³⁸ He that believeth in me, from within him, as the Scripture hath said, will flow rivers of living water. ³⁹ But this he said of the Spirit, which those that believed in him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet, because Jesus was not yet glorified. ⁴⁰ Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is in truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. ⁴¹ Others said, Doth the Christ then come from Galilee? ⁴² Hath not the Scripture said, that the Christ cometh from the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the town where David was? ⁴³ So there was a division among the multitude because of him. ⁴⁴ And some of them wished to seize him; but no one laid hands on him. ⁴⁵ The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, Why did ye not bring him? ⁴⁶ The officers answered, Never man spoke like this man. ⁴⁷ The Pharisees answered them, Have ye also been deceived? ⁴⁸ Hath any one of the rulers believed in him? or of the Pharisees? ⁴⁹ but this multitude that know not the Law are accursed. ⁵⁰ Nicodemus saith to them, being one of them, ⁵¹ Doth our law judge a man, unless it first hear from him, and know what he doeth? ⁵² They answered and said to him, Art thou too from Galilee? Search and see that no prophet ariseth from Galilee. ⁵³ {Joh 7:53 - 8:12: This passage is omitted as ungenueine by Tischendorf and most critical editors of the Greek Testament. It is found in some manuscripts, but not in the most ancient. It is, however, very generally regarded as a genuine relic of the teaching of Christ, though not forming a part of the fourth Gospel. I give it in the text of Tregelles, omitting the words which he incloses in brackets. Tregelles, however, does not suppose it to be genuine.} [[And they went each to his house;

¹ but Jesus went to the mount of Olives. ² And early in the morning he came again to the temple, and all the people were coming to him. And he sat down and taught them. ³ And the scribes and the Pharisees bring to him a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in the midst, ⁴ they say to him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. ⁵ Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such persons; what then dost thou say? ⁶ But this they said to try him, that they might be able to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. ⁷ But when they continued asking him, he lifted himself up, and said to them, Let him that is without sin among you first cast a stone at her. ⁸ And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. ⁹ And when they heard this, they went out one by one, beginning with the oldest; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman who was in the midst. ¹⁰ And Jesus lifted himself up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn thee! ¹¹ And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more. ¹² Again therefore Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life.]] ¹³ The Pharisees therefore said to him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. ¹⁴ Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. ¹⁵ Ye judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. ¹⁶ But even if I myself should judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and he who sent me. ¹⁷ Moreover, it is written in your law, that the witness of two men is true. ¹⁸ I am one who bear witness of myself, and the Father who sent me beareth witness of me. ¹⁹ They said therefore to him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father. If ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. ²⁰ These words he spoke in the treasury, while teaching in the temple; and no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come. ²¹ Again therefore he said to them, I go away, and ye will seek me, and will die in your sin. Whither I go, ye cannot come. ²² The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? ²³ And he said to them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above; ye are of this world, I am not of this world. ²⁴ Therefore I said to you, that ye will die in your sins; for unless ye believe that I am He, ye will die in your sins. ²⁵ They said therefore to him, Who art thou? Jesus said to them, In the first place, I am just that which I speak to you. ²⁶ I have many things to say, and to judge, concerning you; but he who sent me is true; and I speak to the world what I heard from him. ²⁷ They understood not that he spoke to them of the Father. ²⁸ Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then ye will know that I am He, and do nothing of myself, but speak these things as the Father taught me. ²⁹ And he that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone, for I always do the things that please him. ³⁰ As he spoke these words, many believed in him. ³¹ Jesus therefore said to those Jews who believed in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are truly my disciples; ³² and ye will know the truth, and the truth will make you free. ³³ They answered him, We are Abraham's offspring, and have never been in bondage to any one; how sayest thou, Ye will be made free? ³⁴ Jesus answered them, Truly, truly do I say to you, Every one that committeth sin is a bond-servant of sin. ³⁵ And the bond-servant abideth not in the house for ever; the son abideth for ever. ³⁶ If therefore the Son make you free, ye will be free indeed. ³⁷ I know that ye are Abraham's offspring; but ye seek to kill me, because my word is not received within you. ³⁸ I speak what I have seen with the Father; and ye accordingly do what ye have seen with your father. ³⁹ They answered and said to him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith to them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰ But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath spoken to you the truth, which I heard from God; this did not Abraham. ⁴¹ Ye do the works of your father. They said to him, We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, God. ⁴² Jesus said to them, If God were your father, ye would love me; for from God I proceeded forth and am come; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. ⁴³ Why do ye not understand my language? It is because ye cannot listen to my word. ⁴⁴ Ye are of your father the Devil, and what your father desireth ye are ready to do. He was a murderer from the beginning; and he abideth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh from his own nature; for he is a liar, and the father of it. ⁴⁵ But because I speak the truth, ye believe me not. ⁴⁶ Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I speak truth, Why do ye not believe me? ⁴⁷ He that is of God heareth God's words; for this cause ye do not hear, because ye are not of God. ⁴⁸ The Jews answered and said to him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon? ⁴⁹ Jesus answered, I have not a demon, but I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me. ⁵⁰ But I seek not my own glory; there is one that seeketh and judgeth. ⁵¹ Truly, truly do I say to you, If any one keep my word, he will never see death. ⁵² The Jews said to him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If any one keep my word, he will never taste of death. ⁵³ Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets also died. Whom dost thou make thyself? ⁵⁴ Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father that glorifieth me, of whom ye say, He is our God: ⁵⁵ yet ye know him not; but I know him. And if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like you. But I know him, and keep his word. ⁵⁶ Your father Abraham exulted that he might see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. ⁵⁷ The Jews therefore said to him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? ⁵⁸ Jesus said to them, Truly, truly do I say to you, From before Abraham was, I have been. ⁵⁹ They therefore took up stones to throw at him; but Jesus concealed himself, and went out of the temple.

¹ And as he was passing along, he saw a man who had been blind from his birth. ² And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? ³ Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but that the works of God might be made manifest in him. ⁴ We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night is coming, when no one can work. ⁵ As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. ⁶ Having thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay with the spittle, and anointed his eyes with the clay, ⁷ and said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam; (which is, when translated, Sent.) He went away therefore, and washed and came seeing. ⁸ The neighbors therefore, and they who before had seen him as a beggar, said, Is not this he that sits and begs? ⁹ Some said, This is he. Others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. ¹⁰ They said therefore to him How then were thine eyes opened? ¹¹ He answered, The man who is called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to Siloam, and wash. I went therefore and washed, and received sight. ¹² And they said to him, Where is that man? He saith, I do not know. ¹³ They bring to the Pharisees him who had once been blind. ¹⁴ And the day on which Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes was the sabbath. ¹⁵ Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, He put clay on my eyes, and I washed them, and I see. ¹⁶ Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs. And there was a division among them. ¹⁷ They say therefore to the blind man again, What dost thou say of him for having opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. ¹⁸ The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. ¹⁹ And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see? ²⁰ His parents, answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; ²¹ but by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not; ask him, he is of age; he will speak for himself. ²² This his parents said, because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed, that if any one should acknowledge him as the Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. ²³ Therefore his parents said, He is of age; ask him. ²⁴ They therefore called a second time the man that had been blind, and said to him, Give glory to God; we know that this man is a sinner. ²⁵ He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner, I know not; one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. ²⁶ They said to him, What did he do to thee? How did he open thine eyes? ²⁷ He answered them, I have already told you, and ye did not hear; why would ye hear it again? Are ye also inclined to become his disciples? ²⁸ They reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹ We know that God hath spoken to Moses; but as for this man, we know not whence he is. ³⁰ The man answered and said to them, Why, herein is a marvelous thing, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened my eyes. ³¹ We know that God heareth not sinners; but if any one is a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. ³² Since the world began, it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. ³³ If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. ³⁴ They answered and said to him, Thou wast wholly born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. ³⁵ Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and he found him, and said, Dost thou believe in the Son of man? ³⁶ He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him? ³⁷ Jesus said to him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. ³⁸ And he said, I believe, Lord; and he prostrated himself before him. ³⁹ And Jesus said, For judgment came I into this world; that they who see not might see, and that they who see might become blind. ⁴⁰ Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this, and said to him, Are we also blind? ⁴¹ Jesus said to them, If ye were blind, ye would not have sin; but now ye say, We see. Your sin remaineth.

¹ Truly, truly do I say to you, He that entereth not through the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber; ² but he that entereth through the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and his own sheep he calleth by name, and leadeth them out. ⁴ When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. ⁵ But a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him; because they know not the voice of strangers. ⁶ This parable Jesus spoke to them; but they did not understand what the things were which he spoke to them. ⁷ Jesus therefore said, Truly, truly do I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸ All those who came are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. ⁹ I am the door; if any one enter through me, he will be saved, and will go in and out, and find pasture. ¹⁰ The thief cometh not but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I came that they might have life, and have abundance. ¹¹ I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. ¹² He that is a hireling and not a shepherd, nor the owner of the sheep, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep; ¹³ because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. ¹⁴ I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep, and they know me, ¹⁵ even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I give my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring; and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷ On this account the Father loveth me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. ¹⁸ No one taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again; this charge I received from my Father. ¹⁹ Again there arose a division among the Jews on account of these words. ²⁰ Many of them said, He hath a demon, and is mad; why do ye hear him? ²¹ Others said, These are not the words of one that hath a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? ²² And the feast of the dedication came at Jerusalem. It was winter; ²³ and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. ²⁴ Then came the Jews around him, and said to him, How long dost thou hold our minds in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. ²⁵ Jesus answered them, I have told you, and ye do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. ²⁶ But ye do not believe, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said to you. ²⁷ My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; ²⁸ and I give them everlasting life; and they shall never perish, nor shall any one tear them out of my hand. ²⁹ That which my Father hath given me is greater than all; and no one is able to tear [[them]] out of the Father's hand. ³⁰ I and the Father are one. ³¹ The Jews again took up stones to stone him. ³² Jesus answered them, Many good works have

I shown you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? ³³ The Jews answered him, Not for a good work do we stone thee, but for blasphemy, and because thou, who art a man, makest thyself God. ³⁴ Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, "I said, ye are gods"? ³⁵ If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be made void, ³⁶ say ye of him whom the Father sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Son of God? ³⁷ If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. ³⁸ But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may learn and know that the Father is in me, and I in the Father. ³⁹ They sought therefore to seize him; and he went forth out of their hands. ⁴⁰ And he went away again beyond the Jordan, to the place where John was at first baptizing; and there he abode. ⁴¹ And many came to him, and said, John indeed wrought no sign; but everything that John said of this man was true. ⁴² And many believed in him there.

¹ But there was a certain man sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. ² It was the Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. ³ The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. ⁴ And Jesus hearing this said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it. ⁵ Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. ⁶ When therefore he heard that he was sick, he remained in the place where he was two days. ⁷ Then after this he saith to the disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. ⁸ The disciples say to him, Rabbi, the Jews but just now were seeking to stone thee, and goest thou thither again? ⁹ Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world; ¹⁰ but if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth; because the light is not in him. ¹¹ This he spoke, and afterwards said to them, Our friend Lazarus hath fallen asleep; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep. ¹² The disciples therefore said to him, Lord, if he hath fallen asleep, he will recover. ¹³ But Jesus had spoken of his death; but they thought that he spoke of the taking of rest in sleep. ¹⁴ Then therefore Jesus said to them plainly: Lazarus is dead. ¹⁵ And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there; that ye may believe; but let us go to him. ¹⁶ Then said Thomas, who was called Didymus, to his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. ¹⁷ Having come, therefore, Jesus found that he had been four days in the tomb. ¹⁸ Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; ¹⁹ and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. ²⁰ Martha therefore, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet him; but Mary continued sitting in the house. ²¹ Then said Martha to Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died; ²² and even now I know that whatever thou shalt ask of God, God will give it thee. ²³ Jesus saith to her, Thy brother will rise again. ²⁴ Martha saith to him,

I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day. ²⁵ Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he have died, will live; ²⁶ and whoever liveth and believeth in me will never die. Believest thou this? ²⁷ She saith to him, Yea, Lord; I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, he who was to come into the world. ²⁸ And having said this, she went away, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher is here and calleth for thee. ²⁹ She, when she heard this, riseth quickly and cometh to him. ³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was still in the place where Martha met him. ³¹ The Jews then who were with her in the house and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up hastily and went out, followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb to weep there. ³² Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was, as soon as she saw him fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. ³³ Jesus therefore when he saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, was greatly moved in his spirit, and much troubled, ³⁴ and said, Where have ye laid him? They say to him, Lord, come and see. ³⁵ Jesus wept. ³⁶ The Jews therefore said, See, how he loved him! ³⁷ But some of them said, Could not he, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also caused that this man should not have died? ³⁸ Jesus therefore, again greatly moved within himself, cometh to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ³⁹ Jesus saith, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith to him, Lord, by this time the body is offensive; for he hath been dead four days. ⁴⁰ Jesus saith to her, Did I not tell thee, that if thou wouldst believe, thou shouldst see the glory of God? ⁴¹ They therefore took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father! I thank thee that thou hast heard me. ⁴² Yet I knew that thou hearest me always; but for the sake of the multitude standing around I said it, that they might believe that thou didst send me. ⁴³ And having thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth! ⁴⁴ He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith to them, Loose him, and let him go. ⁴⁵ Many of the Jews therefore who had come to Mary, and had seen what he did, believed in him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷ Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What are we to do, seeing that this man worketh many signs? ⁴⁸ If we thus let him alone, all will believe in him; and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and nation. ⁴⁹ And a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high-priest that year, said to them, Ye know nothing at all; ⁵⁰ nor do ye consider that it is expedient for us that one man die for the people, and not the whole nation perish. ⁵¹ And this he spoke not from himself; but being high-priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation; ⁵² and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together in one body the children of God that are scattered abroad. ⁵³ Therefore from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death. ⁵⁴ Jesus therefore no longer walked openly among the Jews, but departed thence to the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there abode with the disciples. ⁵⁵ And the passover of the Jews was at hand; and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. ⁵⁶ They sought therefore for Jesus, and said one to another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? that he will not come to the feast? ⁵⁷ Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders, that, if any one knew where he was, he should give information, that they might seize him.

any one be a servant to me, let him follow me; and where I am, there also will my servant be; if any one serve me, the Father will honor him. ²⁷ Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour! But for this cause I came to this hour. ²⁸ Father, glorify thy name! Then came there a voice from heaven: Yea, I have glorified it, and will glorify it again. ²⁹ The multitude therefore that stood by, hearing this, said that it thundered. Others said, An angel hath spoken to him. ³⁰ Jesus answered and said, This voice hath come not for my sake, but for yours. ³¹ Now is the judgment of this world; now will the prince of this world be cast out; ³² and I, if I be lifted up from the earth, shall draw all men to me. ³³ This he said, signifying what kind of death he was to die. ³⁴ The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the Law that the Christ abideth for ever; how then dost thou say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? ³⁵ Jesus therefore said to them, Yet a little while is the light among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness may not overtake you; and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. ³⁶ While ye have the light, believe in the light, that ye may become sons of light. These things spoke Jesus, and went away, and hid himself from them. ³⁷ But though he had wrought so many signs before them, they did not believe in him; ³⁸ that what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, "Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?" ³⁹ For this cause they could not believe, because Isaiah said again, ⁴⁰ "He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; lest they should see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn from their ways, and I should heal them." ⁴¹ These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory, and spoke of him. ⁴² Yet even of the rulers many believed in him; but on account of the Pharisees they did not acknowledge him, lest they should be put of the synagogue; ⁴³ for they loved the glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God. ⁴⁴ But Jesus cried aloud, and said, He that believeth in me, believeth not in me, but in him that sent me; ⁴⁵ and he that beholdeth me, beholdeth him that sent me. ⁴⁶ I have come a light into the world, that whoever believeth in me may not remain in the darkness. ⁴⁷ And if any one hear my words, and keep them not, I do not judge him; for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. ⁴⁸ He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him; the word that I have spoken, that will judge him in the last day. ⁴⁹ Because I have not spoken from myself; but the Father who sent me hath himself committed to me what I should say, and what I should speak; ⁵⁰ and I know that what he hath committed to me is everlasting life. What I speak therefore, I speak as the Father hath directed me.

¹ Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus, knowing that his hour had come that he should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, loved them unto the end. ² And supper being served,—the Devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray him,—³ he, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God, ⁴ riseth from the supper, and layeth aside his garments, and took a towel, and girded himself. ⁵ Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. ⁶ So he cometh to Simon Peter; who saith to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? ⁷ Jesus answered and said to him, What I do thou knowest not now, but thou wilt know hereafter. ⁸ Peter saith to him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. ⁹ Simon Peter saith to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. ¹⁰ Jesus saith to him, He that hath bathed needeth not to wash himself, but is wholly clean; and ye are clean, but not all. ¹¹ For he knew who was about to betray him; for this reason he said, Ye are not all clean. ¹² So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and placed himself again at the table, he said to them, Know ye what I have done to you? ¹³ Ye call me the Teacher, and the Lord; and ye say well; for so I am. ¹⁴ If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶ Truly, truly do I say to you, A servant is not greater than his lord, nor one who is sent greater than he that sent him. ¹⁷ If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. ¹⁸ I speak not of you all; I know whom I chose; but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, "He that eateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me." ¹⁹ I tell you now before it hath come to pass, that when it hath come to pass ye may believe that I am He. ²⁰ Truly, truly do I say to you, He that receiveth whomever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him who sent me. ²¹ Having said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Truly, truly do I say to you, that one of you will betray me. ²² The disciples therefore looked at one another, doubting of whom he spoke. ²³ There was reclining on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. ²⁴ To him therefore Simon Peter maketh a sign, and saith to him, Tell who it is of whom he is speaking. ²⁵ He, therefore, leaning back on the breast of Jesus, saith to him, Lord, who is it? ²⁶ Jesus answereth, It is he for whom I shall dip the morsel and give it to him. Having therefore dipped the morsel, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ And after the morsel, Satan entered into him. Jesus therefore saith to him, What thou doest, do quickly. ²⁸ Now no one at the table knew for what intent he said this to him. ²⁹ For some thought, because Judas kept the purse, that Jesus said to him, Buy what we need for the feast; or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰ He then, having received the morsel, went out immediately; and it was night. ³¹ When therefore he had gone out, Jesus saith, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. ³² If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will immediately glorify him. ³³ My children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek me; and, as I said to the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come, so now I say to you. ³⁴ A new commandment I give you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. ³⁵ By this will all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one for another. ³⁶ Simon Peter saith to him, Lord, whither dost thou go? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou wilt follow me afterward. ³⁷ Peter saith to him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thee. ³⁸ Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Truly, truly do I say to thee, A cock will not crow, till thou hast thrice denied me.

¹ Let not your heart be troubled. Have faith in God, and have faith in me. ² In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. For I go away to prepare a place for you; ³ and when I have gone away and prepared a place for you, I will come again, and will take you to myself; that where I am, ye also may be. ⁴ And ye know the way whither I go. ⁵ Thomas saith to him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how then do we know the way? ⁶ Jesus saith to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one cometh to the Father but through me. ⁷ If ye knew me, ye would know my Father also; and from this time ye know him, and have seen him. ⁸ Philip saith to him, Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied. ⁹ Jesus saith to him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how is it that thou sayest, Show us the Father? ¹⁰ Dost thou not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak to you, I speak not from myself; but the Father, who dwelleth in me, doeth his works. ¹¹ Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; but if not, believe for the very works' sake. ¹² Truly, truly do I say to you, He that believeth in me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater than these shall he do; because I am going to the Father, ¹³ and whatever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do; that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. ¹⁵ If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments; ¹⁶ and I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever; ¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, which the world cannot receive, because it doth not behold it, nor know it; ye know it, because it abideth with you, and will be in you. ¹⁸ I will not leave you bereaved; I am coming to you. ¹⁹ Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye will behold me, because I live, and ye will live. ²⁰ In that day ye will know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. ²¹ He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me will be loved by my Father; and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. ²² Judas, not Iscariot, saith to him, And how is it, Lord, that thou art going to manifest thyself to us, and not to the world? ²³ Jesus answered and said to him, If any one loveth me, he will keep my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our abode with him. ²⁴ He that loveth me not, keepeth not my words; and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. ²⁵ These things have I spoken to you, while abiding with you; ²⁶ but the Comforter, the Holy Spirit which the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things which I have said to you. ²⁷ Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world giveth, do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. ²⁸ Ye heard me say to you, I am going away, and am coming again to you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced that I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹ And now I have told you before it hath come to pass, that when it hath come to pass ye may believe. ³⁰ I shall not talk much more with you. For the prince of the world cometh, and hath nothing in me. ³¹ But [[this must be]] that the world may know that I love the Father, and that as the Father gave me commandment so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

¹ I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. ² Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit he cleanseth, that it may bear more fruit. ³ Ye are clean already, by reason of the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴ Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, if it abide not in the vine, so neither can ye, unless ye abide in me. ⁵ I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit; for apart from me ye can do nothing. ⁶ If any one abideth not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather it, and cast it into the fire, and it is burned. ⁷ If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever ye will, and it shall be done for you. ⁸ Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; and ye will become my disciples. ⁹ As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love. ¹⁰ If ye keep my commandments, ye will abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. ¹¹ These things have I spoken to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full. ¹² This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. ¹³ Greater love hath no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ Ye are my friends, if ye do what I command you. ¹⁵ No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things which I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you. ¹⁶ Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever ye ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. ¹⁷ This I command you, that ye love one another. ¹⁸ If the world hateth you, ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If ye were of the world, the world would love its own; but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. ²⁰ Remember what I said to you, A servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my words, they will keep yours also. ²¹ But all these things will they do to you on account of my name, because they know not him that sent me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ He that hateth me, hateth my Father also. ²⁴ If I had not done among them the works which no other man hath done, they would not have sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. ²⁵ But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their Law: "They hated me without a cause." ²⁶ When the Comforter is come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he will bear witness of me. ²⁷ And ye also are witnesses, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

¹ These things have I spoken to you, that ye may not fall away. ² They will put you out of the synagogues; yea, the hour is coming when every one that killeth you will think that he is offering sacrifice to God. ³ And these things will they do, because they neither know the Father nor me. ⁴ But I have spoken these things to you, that, when the time cometh, ye may remember that I myself told you of them. But these things I told you not at the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I go to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? ⁶ But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your hearts. ⁷ But I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I depart. For if I do not depart, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸ And when he is come, he will bring conviction to the world, of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. ⁹ Of sin, because they believe not in me; ¹⁰ of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye see me no more; ¹¹ of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. ¹² I have yet many things to say to you, but ye cannot bear them now. ¹³ But when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak from himself, but whatever he shall hear, that he will speak; and he will tell you the things to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me, for he will receive of what is mine, and will tell it to you. ¹⁵ Every thing that the Father hath is mine. For this cause I said, that he receiveth of what is mine, and will tell it to you. ¹⁶ A little while, and ye no longer behold me; and again a little while, and ye will see me. ¹⁷ Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, What is this that he saith to us, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye will see me? and, Because I go to the Father? ¹⁸ They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We do not know what he is speaking of. ¹⁹ Jesus knew that they were desirous of asking him, and said to them, Is it of this that ye are inquiring of one another, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye will see me? ²⁰ Truly, truly do I say to you, that ye will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; ye will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. ²¹ A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, through joy that a man is born into the world. ²² So ye also now have sorrow; but I shall see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one taketh from you. ²³ And in that day ye will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly do I say to you, Whatever ye shall ask the Father, he will give it you in my name. ²⁴ Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name; ask, and ye will receive, that your joy may be made full. ²⁵ These things I have spoken to you in parables. The time is coming, when I shall no more speak to you in parables, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. ²⁶ In that day ye will ask in my name; and I do not tell you that I will pray the Father for you; ²⁷ for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God. ²⁸ I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. ²⁹ His disciples say, Lo! now thou speakest plainly, and speakest no parable. ³⁰ Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any one should ask thee; by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. ³¹ Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? ³² Behold, the hour is coming, yea, is now come, when ye will be scattered, every one to his own, and will leave me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. ³³ These things I have spoken to you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation; but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

¹ When Jesus had thus spoken, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father! the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee; ² according as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that he should give everlasting life to all whom thou hast given him. ³ And this is the everlasting life, to know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou didst send. ⁴ I have glorified thee on the earth, having finished the work which thou gavest me to do; ⁵ and now, Father! do thou glorify me with thyself, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. ⁶ I manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest me out of the world. Thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. ⁷ Now they know that all things whatever thou hast given me are from thee; ⁸ for I have given to them the words which thou hast given me; and they received them, and knew surely that I came forth from thee, and believed that thou didst send me. ⁹ I pray for them; I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine; ¹⁰ and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. ¹¹ And I am no longer in the world; and they are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father! keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. ¹² While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me, and guarded them; and no one of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture may be fulfilled. ¹³ But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy made full in them. ¹⁴ I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁵ I do not pray thee to take them out of the world, but to keep them from evil. ¹⁶ They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁷ Sanctify them in thy truth; thy word is truth. ¹⁸ As thou didst send me into the world, I also sent them into the world. ¹⁹ And in their behalf I sanctify myself, that they also may be sanctified in the truth. ²⁰ Yet not for these alone do I pray, but also for those who believe in me through their word; ²¹ that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me and I in thee, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that thou didst send me.

²² And the glory which thou hast given me, I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one; ²³ I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. ²⁴ Father! as to that which thou hast given me, I desire that they also be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me; for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵ Righteous Father! and yet the world knew thee not! but I knew thee, and these knew that thou didst send me. ²⁶ And I made known to them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

¹ When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples across the brook Kedron, where was a garden, into which he entered with his disciples. ² And Judas also, his betrayer, knew the place; because Jesus often resorted thither with his disciples. ³ Judas then, having received the band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with torches and lanterns and weapons. ⁴ But Jesus, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith to them, Whom do ye seek? ⁵ They answered him, Jesus the Nazarene. Jesus saith to them, I am he. Now Judas also, his betrayer, was standing with them. ⁶ As soon then as he said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. ⁷ Again therefore he asked them, Whom do ye seek? And they said, Jesus the Nazarene. ⁸ Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye are seeking me, let these men go. ⁹ That the saying might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom thou hast given me, I have lost none." ¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and smote the servant of the high-priest, and cut off his right ear. And the servant's name was Malchus. ¹¹ Jesus therefore said to Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath. The cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? ¹² So the band and the captain, and the officers of the Jews, took Jesus and bound him, ¹³ and carried him to Annas first; for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high-priest that year. ¹⁴ And it was Caiaphas who counseled the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. ¹⁵ And Simon Peter and the other disciple followed Jesus. That disciple was an acquaintance of the high-priest, and went with Jesus into the court of the palace of the high-priest. ¹⁶ But Peter was standing outside at the door. The other disciple therefore, who was an acquaintance of the high-priest, went out and spoke to her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. ¹⁷ Then the maid-servant that kept the door saith to Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. ¹⁸ And the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold, and were warming themselves; and Peter was standing with them and warming himself. ¹⁹ The high-priest then asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. ²⁰ Jesus answered him, I have spoken plainly to the world; I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple, where all the Jews assemble, and in secret I spoke nothing. ²¹ Why askest thou me? Ask those who have heard, what I have spoken to them; behold, these know what I have said. ²² And when he had said this, one of the officers who was standing by struck Jesus on the face, saying, Is it thus that thou answerest the high-priest? ²³ Jesus answered him, If I spoke what is evil, testify to the evil; but if well, why dost thou strike me? ²⁴ Annas therefore sent him bound to Caiaphas the high-priest. ²⁵ And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied and said, I am not. ²⁶ One of the servants of the high-priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? ²⁷ Then Peter denied again; and immediately a cock crew. ²⁸ Then they lead Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace; and it was early. And they did not themselves go into the palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. ²⁹ Pilate therefore went out to them, and saith, What accusation do ye bring against this man? ³⁰ They answered and said to him, If he had not been doing evil, we would not have delivered him up to thee. ³¹ Pilate therefore said to them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any one to death. ³² That the words of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what kind of death he was to die. ³³ Pilate therefore went into the palace again, and called Jesus, and said to him, Art thou the King of the Jews? ³⁴ Jesus answered, Dost thou say this of thyself, or did others tell thee concerning me? ³⁵ Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thy own nation and the chief priests delivered thee up to me. What hast thou done? ³⁶ Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have fought, that I should not be delivered up to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from hence. ³⁷ Pilate therefore said to him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest what is true; for I am a king. For this end have I been born, and for this cause have I come into the world, that I may bear witness to the truth. Every one that is of the truth listeneth to my voice. ³⁸ Pilate saith to him, What is truth? And having said this, he went out again to the Jews, and saith to them, I find nothing criminal in him. ³⁹ But ye have a custom that I should release to you one at the passover: do ye desire, therefore, that I release to you the king of the Jews? ⁴⁰ Then they cried out again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

the law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. ⁸ When Pilate therefore heard this, he was the more afraid; ⁹ and went again into the palace, and saith to Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰ Pilate saith to him, Dost thou not speak to me? Dost thou not know that I have power to release thee, and have power to crucify thee? ¹¹ Jesus answered, Thou wouldst have no power against me, unless it had been given thee from above; for this cause he that delivered me up to thee hath the greater sin. ¹² From this time Pilate sought to release him. But the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not a friend of Caesar. Every one that maketh himself a king, setteth himself against Caesar. ¹³ When therefore Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down on the judgment-seat, in a place called the Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. ¹⁴ Now it was the preparation of the passover. It was about the sixth hour. And he saith to the Jews, Behold your king! ¹⁵ Upon this they cried out, Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him! Pilate saith to them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. ¹⁶ Then therefore he delivered him up to them to be crucified. They therefore took Jesus; ¹⁷ and bearing his own cross, he went forth into the place called Place of a Skull; in Hebrew, Golgotha; ¹⁸ where they crucified him, and with him two others, one on each side, and Jesus in the midst. ¹⁹ And Pilate wrote an inscription also, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, "Jesus the Nazarene, the king of the Jews." ²⁰ This inscription therefore was read by many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. ²¹ Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews; but that he said, I am king of the Jews. ²² Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. ²³ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part, and also his coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. ²⁴ They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. That the scripture might be fulfilled: "They parted my garments among them, and for my vesture they cast lots." These things the soldiers did. ²⁵ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary the Magdalene. ²⁶ Jesus therefore, when he saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing by, saith to his mother, Woman, behold thy son! ²⁷ Then he saith to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home. ²⁸ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now finished, in order that the Scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. ²⁹ A vessel was brought full of vinegar; and putting a sponge filled with vinegar upon a stalk of hyssop, they raised it to his mouth. ³⁰ When therefore he had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished! and he bowed his head, and yielded up his spirit. ³¹ The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the sabbath, for that sabbath was a great day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. ³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him. ³³ But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they broke not his legs; ³⁴ but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and immediately there came out blood and water. ³⁵ And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knoweth that he saith what is true, that ye also may believe. ³⁶ For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him shall not be broken." ³⁷ And again another scripture saith, "They shall look on him whom they pierced." ³⁸ And after this, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but concealing it for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave. They came therefore and took him away. ³⁹ Nicodemus also, he who at the first went to him by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds weight. ⁴⁰ Then they took the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the manner of the Jews in preparing for burial. ⁴¹ Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. ⁴² There then, on account of the Jews' preparation-day, they laid Jesus; for the tomb was at hand.

¹ But on the first day of the week Mary the Magdalene cometh early, while it was yet dark, to the tomb, and seeth that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ² She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. ³ Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they set out for the tomb. ⁴ And they ran both together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb. ⁵ And stooping down, he seeth the linen cloths lying; but he did not go in. ⁶ Then cometh also Simon Peter following him, and he went into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, ⁷ and the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself. ⁸ Then therefore went in also the other disciple, who came first to the tomb; and he saw, and believed. ⁹ For not even yet did they know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ So the disciples went away again to their home. ¹¹ But Mary was standing without by the tomb weeping. And as she wept, she stooped down into the tomb, ¹² and beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. ¹³ And they say to her, Woman, why dost thou weep? She saith to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. ¹⁴ Having said this, she turned back, and beheld Jesus standing; and knew not that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus saith to her, Woman, why dost thou weep? whom dost thou seek? She, supposing that it was the gardener, saith to him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. ¹⁶ Jesus saith to her, Mary! She turned and saith to him in Hebrew, Rabboni! Which signifieth, Teacher! ¹⁷ Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brethren, and say to them, I ascend to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. ¹⁸ Mary the Magdalene cometh, bringing word to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. ¹⁹ When therefore it was evening on that day, which was the first day of the week, and the doors where the disciples were had been shut for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace be to you! ²⁰ And having said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Then he said to them again, Peace be to you! As the Father hath sent me, I also send you. ²² And having said this, he breathed on them, and saith to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them; whosoever ye retain, they are retained. ²⁴ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I shall not believe. ²⁶ And after eight days the disciples were again within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be to you! ²⁷ Then he saith to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach forth thy hand, and put it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. ²⁸ Thomas answered and said to him, My Lord and my God! ²⁹ Jesus saith to him, Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed; blessed are they who have not seen, and yet have believed. ³⁰ Many other signs did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹ But these have been written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that believing ye may have life in his name.

board, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty three; and though there were so many, the net was not broken. ¹² Jesus saith to them, Come and breakfast. But no one of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus cometh and taketh the bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. ¹⁴ This is now the third time that Jesus manifested himself to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. ¹⁵ So when they had breakfasted, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He saith to him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my lambs. ¹⁶ He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? He saith to him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Tend my sheep. ¹⁷ He saith to him the third time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said to him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my sheep. ¹⁸ Truly, truly do I say to thee, when thou wast young, thou didst gird thyself, and walk whither thou wouldst; but when thou hast grown old, thou wilt stretch forth thy hands, and another will gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not. ¹⁹ This he said, signifying by what manner of death he was to glorify God. And having thus spoken, he saith to him, Follow me. ²⁰ Peter, turning round, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following, —who also at supper leaned back on his breast, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee?— ²¹ Peter, seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and how will it be with him? ²² Jesus saith to him, If it be my will that he remain till I come, what is it to thee? Follow thou me. ²³ This report therefore went abroad among the brethren, that this disciple was not to die. And yet Jesus did not say to him, He will not die; but, If it be my will that he remain till I come, what is it to thee? ²⁴ This is the disciple who testifieth of these things, and hath written these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

¹ The former narrative I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus both did and taught from the beginning ² until the day in which, after he had through the Holy Spirit given commandments to the apostles whom he had chosen, he was taken up; ³ to whom also he showed himself living, after he had suffered, by many sure proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. ⁴ And while in assembly with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for what had been promised by the Father, which [[said he]] ye heard from me; ⁵ for John indeed baptized with water, but ye will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days hence. ⁶ They therefore, having come together, asked him, saying, Lord, art thou at this time about to restore the kingdom to Israel? ⁷ But he said to them, It belongeth not to you to know times or seasons, which the Father appointed by his own authority. ⁸ But ye will receive power when the Holy Spirit hath come upon you; and ye will be my witnesses, both in Jerusalem and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and to the end of the earth. ⁹ And having thus spoken, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. ¹⁰ And while they were looking earnestly into heaven as he went up, lo! two men stood by them in white apparel, ¹¹ who said, Men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This Jesus, who hath been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same manner in which ye beheld him going into heaven. ¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, within a sabbath-day's journey. ¹³ And when they had come in, they went up into the upper room where they were making their abode, namely, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the zealot, and Judas the brother of James. ¹⁴ These all continued with one accord in prayer, with women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers. ¹⁵ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said, (the number of the names together was about one hundred and twenty,) ¹⁶ Brethren, it was necessary that this scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus. ¹⁷ For he was numbered among us, and obtained the allotment of this ministry. ¹⁸ Now this man purchased a field with the wages of the iniquity; and falling headlong he burst asunder in the middle, and all his bowels gushed out. ¹⁹ And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that that field is called in their own tongue, Aeldamach, that is, Field of Blood. ²⁰ For it is written in the book of Psalms, "Let his habitation be made desolate, and let no one dwell therein;" and, "Let another take his office." ²¹ Of these men, therefore, who accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²² from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us, must one be made a witness with us of his resurrection. ²³ And they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴ And they prayed saying, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which of these two thou hast chosen ²⁵ to take the part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell away, that he might go to his own place. ²⁶ And they cast lots for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

¹ And on the day of Pentecost they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly there came out of heaven a sound, as of a rushing mighty wind; and it filled the whole house where they were sitting; ³ and there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributing themselves; and one sat upon each of them. ⁴ And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, even as the Spirit gave them utterance. ⁵ Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. ⁶ And when this sound took place, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every one heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ And they were amazed, and marveled, saying, Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans? ⁸ and how is it that we every one hear them in our own language, wherein we were born? ⁹ Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and those who inhabit Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and Romans who sojourn here, both Jews and Proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabians—how is it that we hear them speaking in our tongues the wonderful works of God? ¹² And they were all amazed and were in doubt, saying one to another, What can this mean? ¹³ Others making sport of it, said, They are full of new wine. ¹⁴ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, Men of Judea, and all that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known to you, and hearken to my words. ¹⁵ For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; for it is the third hour of the day; ¹⁶ but this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel, ¹⁷ “It shall be in the last days, saith God, that I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams; ¹⁸ and even on my servants, and on my handmaids, I will pour out of my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. ¹⁹ And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs on the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; ²⁰ the sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the day of the Lord cometh, the great and notable day. ²¹ And it shall be that every one that calleth on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” ²² Men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus the Nazarene, a man approved of God to you by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God wrought by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves know,— ²³ this man, being delivered up by the settled purpose and foreknowledge of God, ye, by the hand of godless men, crucified and slew. ²⁴ But God raised him up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. ²⁵ For David saith concerning him, “I saw the

Lord always before me; because he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. ²⁶ Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue exulted; moreover also, my flesh shall dwell in hope; ²⁷ because thou wilt not abandon my soul to the underworld, nor wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see corruption. ²⁸ Thou didst make known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of joy with thy countenance.” ²⁹ Brethren, I may speak to you with freedom of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us to this day. ³⁰ Being then a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath that he would set one sprung from his loins upon his throne, ³¹ he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the underworld, nor did his flesh see corruption. ³² This Jesus God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. ³³ Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit, he hath poured forth this, which ye both see and hear. ³⁴ For David did not ascend into the heavens; but he himself saith, The Lord said to my lord, “Sit thou on my right hand, ³⁵ until I make thine enemies thy footstool.” ³⁶ Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified. ³⁷ And when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what must we do? ³⁸ But Peter said to them, Repent, and let every one of you be baptized to the name of Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins, and ye will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call. ⁴⁰ And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this perverse generation. ⁴¹ They therefore received his word, and were baptized; and there were added on that day about three thousand souls. ⁴² And they were constantly attending on the teaching of the apostles, and the imparting [[of their substance]], the breaking of bread, and the prayers. ⁴³ And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were wrought through the apostles. ⁴⁴ And all that believed were together, and had all things common; ⁴⁵ and they sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as any one had need. ⁴⁶ And attending daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread in a private house, they partook of their food with gladness and singleness of heart, ⁴⁷ praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were in the way of salvation.

and walk. ⁷ And grasping him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles received strength. ⁸ And leaping forth he stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping, praising God. ⁹ And all the people saw him walking, and praising God; ¹⁰ and they recognized him as the man that sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him. ¹¹ And as he held fast to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's greatly wondering. ¹² But Peter seeing it, answered the people: Men of Israel, why wonder ye at this? Or why look ye earnestly on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man to walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his servant Jesus, whom ye indeed delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. ¹⁴ But ye denied the holy and righteous one, and asked that a murderer should be granted to you. ¹⁵ But the author of life ye killed; whom God raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses. ¹⁶ And his name, through faith in his name, made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is through him gave him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. ¹⁷ And now, brethren, I know that ye acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸ But God thus fulfilled what he had before announced by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer. ¹⁹ Repent therefore and turn from your ways, that your sins may be blotted out, in order that the times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, ²⁰ and that he may send forth Christ Jesus, who was before appointed for you; ²¹ whom heaven indeed must receive until the times of a restoration of all things; of which times God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from the days of old. ²² Moses indeed said, "A prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you from among your brethren, as he raised up me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatever he shall speak to you. ²³ And it shall come to pass, that every soul which doth not hear that prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people." ²⁴ And all the prophets also, Samuel and those who followed, as many as spoke, announced these days. ²⁵ Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, "And in thy posterity shall all the families of the earth be blessed." ²⁶ To you first, God, having raised up his servant, sent him to bless you in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

¹ And while they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, ² being indignant that they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³ And they laid hands upon them, and put them in prison until the next day; for it was now evening. ⁴ Many however of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men became five thousand. ⁵ And it came to pass on the next day, that their rulers and elders and scribes, ⁶ and Annas the high-priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high-priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. ⁷ And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, did ye do this? ⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel! ⁹ If we are this day examined in respect to a good deed done to a cripple, by what means he hath been restored, ¹⁰ be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead,—by him doth this man stand here before you sound. ¹¹ This is the stone which was set at nought by you the builders, which is become a cornerstone. ¹² And there is salvation in no other; for there is not another name under heaven, that hath been given among men, by which we must be saved. ¹³ And when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and common men, they wondered; and they recognized them as having been with Jesus. ¹⁴ And seeing the man that had been cured standing with them, they could say nothing in reply. ¹⁵ But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶ saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a remarkable sign hath been wrought by them is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷ But that it spread no further among the people, let us strictly forbid them with threats to speak any longer in this name to any one. ¹⁸ And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹ But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken to you rather than to God, judge ye. ²⁰ For we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. ²¹ So, having further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, on account of the people; because all were glorifying God for that which had been done. ²² For the man was above forty years old, on whom this sign of the healing had been wrought. ²³ And being released they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. ²⁴ And on hearing it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art he that made heaven and earth and sea, and all things that are in them; ²⁵ who by the mouth of thy servant David said, “Why did the heathen rage, and the peoples meditate vain things? ²⁶ The kings of the earth came up, and the rulers assembled together, against the Lord, and against his Anointed.” ²⁷ For in truth against thy holy servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint, did both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the gentiles, and the peoples of Israel, assemble in this city, ²⁸ to do whatever thy hand and thy will before determined to be done. ²⁹ And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings, and grant to thy servants that with all boldness they may speak thy word, ³⁰ while thou stretchest forth thy hand to heal, and signs and wonders are wrought through the name of thy holy servant Jesus. ³¹ And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. ³² And the multitude of those who believed were of one heart, and of one soul; and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. ³³ And with great power did the apostles give their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴ For there was no one among them that was in want; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, ³⁵ and laid them at the feet of the apostles; and distribution was made to every one, according as he had need. ³⁶ And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, when interpreted, Son of consolation,) a Levite, born in Cyprus, ³⁷ having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

¹ But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, ² and kept back part of the price, his wife also having knowledge of it; and brought a certain part, and laid it at the feet of the apostles. ³ But Peter said, Ananias, why did Satan fill thy heart that thou shouldst lie to the Holy Spirit, and keep back part of the price of the land? ⁴ While it remained, was it not thine own? And after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? Why didst thou conceive this thing in thy heart? Thou didst not lie to men, but to God. ⁵ And Ananias, hearing these words, fell down, and expired. And great fear came on all that heard of it. ⁶ And the young men arose, and wrapt him up, and carried him out, and buried him. ⁷ And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. ⁸ Peter said to her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yes, for so much. ⁹ And Peter said to her, Why is it that ye agreed together to try the Spirit of the Lord? Lo! the feet of those who have buried thy husband are at the door, and they will carry thee out. ¹⁰ And she fell down immediately at his feet, and expired; and the young men, when they came in, found her dead, and carried her out, and buried her by her husband. ¹¹ And great fear came upon all the church, and upon all that heard of these things. ¹² And many signs and wonders were wrought among the people by the hands of the apostles; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. ¹³ But of the rest no one dared to join himself to them. But the people highly honored them; ¹⁴ and more and more were believers added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; ¹⁵ so that in the streets they brought out the sick, and laid them on beds and couches, in order that at least the shadow of Peter, as he passed, might overshadow some of them. ¹⁶ The multitude also belonging to the cities around came together to Jerusalem bringing the sick, and those plagued by unclean spirits; and they were all healed. ¹⁷ But the high-priest and all that were with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, rose up and were filled with indignation, ¹⁸ and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in the public prison. ¹⁹ But an angel of the Lord in the night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth and said, ²⁰ Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. ²¹ And hearing this, they went into the temple at daybreak and taught. But the high-priest and they that were with him came and called together the council, and all the elders of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. ²² But the officers that came did not find them in the prison; and they returned and brought word, ²³ saying, The prison we found shut in all security and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we opened them, we found no one within. ²⁴ And when the priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were at a loss concerning them, to what this would come. ²⁵ But one came and brought them word, Lo! the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people. ²⁶ Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence, that they might not be stoned; for they feared the people. ²⁷ And having brought them, they set them before the council. And the high-priest questioned them, ²⁸ saying, We strictly commanded you not to teach in this name, and lo! ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and mean to bring this man's blood upon us. ²⁹ But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. ³⁰ The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew by hanging him on a cross; ³¹ him hath God exalted by his right hand, as a Leader and Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. ³² And we are his witnesses of these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit which God hath given to those who obey him. ³³ But when they heard this, they were filled with rage, and were resolving to kill them. ³⁴ But there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, in high esteem with all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while, ³⁵ and said to them [[of the council]], Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as to what ye are about to do in respect to these men. ³⁶ For before these days arose Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and came to nought. ³⁷ After this man arose Judas the Galilaeen, in the days of the registering, and drew people away after him; he also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. ³⁸ And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone; for if this design or this work be of men, it will come to nought; ³⁹ but if it be of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found also fighting against God. ⁴⁰ And they were persuaded by him; and having called the apostles, they beat them, and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them. ⁴¹ They therefore went away from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame in behalf of that name; ⁴² and every day, in the temple, and in houses, they ceased not to teach, and to publish the glad tidings concerning Jesus the Christ.

¹ But in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations. ² And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them, and said, It doth not seem to us proper, that we should leave the word of God, and provide for tables. ³ Therefore, brethren, look out among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint over this business; ⁴ but we will give ourselves closely to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. ⁵ And what was said pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus a proselyte of Antioch, ⁶ whom they set before the apostles; and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. ⁷ And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem was greatly enlarged; and a great multitude of the priests were obedient to the faith. ⁸ And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹ But some of those who belonged to the so-called synagogue of the Freedmen, and of the Cyrenaeans and Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia, arose and disputed with Stephen; ¹⁰ and they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. ¹¹ Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and God. ¹² And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him to the council, ¹³ and set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against the holy place, and the Law. ¹⁴ For we have heard him say, This Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place, and change the customs which Moses delivered to us. ¹⁵ And all that sat in the council, looking steadily upon him, saw his face like the face of an angel.

¹ And the high-priest said, Are then these things so? ² And he said, Brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, ³ and said to him, "Go forth from thy country and thy kindred, and come into the land which I will show thee." ⁴ Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Haran; and from thence, after his father was dead, he caused him to remove into this land wherein ye now dwell; ⁵ and he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on; and he promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his posterity after him, when as yet he had no child. ⁶ And God spoke in this manner: "That his posterity should sojourn in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into bondage, and ill-treat them four hundred years; ⁷ and the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge," said God; "and after that they shall come forth, and shall worship me in this place." ⁸ And he gave him the covenant of circumcision; and so he begat Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. ⁹ And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt; and God was with him, ¹⁰ and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house. ¹¹ Now there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great distress; and our fathers found no Sustenance. ¹² But Jacob, hearing that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers first. ¹³ And at the second time Joseph was recognized by his brothers, and the kindred of Joseph became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴ Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, seventy five souls. ¹⁵ And Jacob went down [[into Egypt]], and died, he and our fathers. ¹⁶ And they were removed to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. ¹⁷ But as the time of the promise drew near, which God solemnly made to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, ¹⁸ until another king arose, who knew not Joseph. ¹⁹ The same dealt subtly with our race, and ill-treated our fathers, so that they should cast out their infants, that they might not be preserved alive. ²⁰ In which time Moses was born, and was exceedingly fair; who was nourished in his father's house three months. ²¹ And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for herself as a son. ²² And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in his words and deeds. ²³ And when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the sons of Israel. ²⁴ And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed by smiting the Egyptian. ²⁵ For he supposed his brethren would understand that God through his hand would give them salvation; but they understood not. ²⁶ And the next day he showed himself to them as they were contending, and urged them to peace, saying, Ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one another? ²⁷ But he who was wronging his neighbor thrust him away, saying, "Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? ²⁸ Dost thou mean to kill me, as thou didst kill the Egyptian yesterday?" ²⁹ And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. ³⁰ And when forty years were completed, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai an angel in the flaming fire of a bush. ³¹ And Moses seeing it wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came [[to him]], ³² saying, "I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob." And Moses trembled and durst not behold. ³³ And the Lord said to him, "Loose the sandals from thy feet; for the place where thou standest is holy ground. ³⁴ I have surely seen the oppression of my people in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them; and now, come, I will send thee into Egypt." ³⁵ This Moses, whom they denied, saying, "Who made thee a ruler and a judge?" this very man did God send both as a ruler and a redeemer with the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ This very man brought them out, working wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years. ³⁷ This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, "A prophet will God raise up to you from among your brethren, as he raised up me." ³⁸ This is he that was in the assembly in the wilderness with the anger who spake to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers; who received the living oracles to give to us; ³⁹ to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back into Egypt, ⁴⁰ saying to Aaron, "Make us gods who shall go before us; for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him." ⁴¹ And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. ⁴² But God turned away, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, "Did ye offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?"⁴³ And ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of the god Rephan, the figures which ye made to worship them; and I will carry you away beyond Babylon."⁴⁴ Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, as he that spoke to Moses commanded that he should make it according to the pattern that he had seen;⁴⁵ which also our fathers received and brought in with Joshua, at their taking possession of the gentiles whom God drove out from before our fathers, until the days of David;⁴⁶ who found favor before God, and asked that he might find a habitation for the God of Jacob.⁴⁷ But Solomon built him a house.⁴⁸ Yet the Most High dwelleth not in [[temples]] made with hands; as saith the prophet,⁴⁹ "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What house will ye build for me? saith the Lord; or what is the place of my rest?"⁵⁰ Did not my hands make all these things?"⁵¹ Stiffnecked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears! ye do always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do ye.⁵² Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? And they slew those who foretold the coming of the righteous one, of whom ye have now become the betrayers and murderers;⁵³ ye who received the Law as ordained through angels, and did not keep it.⁵⁴ But when they heard these things, their hearts were filled with rage, and they gnashed their teeth at him.⁵⁵ But, being full of the Holy Spirit, he looked up earnestly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,⁵⁶ and said, Lo, I behold the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.⁵⁷ And they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord;⁵⁸ and having cast him out of the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul;⁵⁹ and they stoned Stephen, making supplication, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.⁶⁰ And kneeling down he cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And saying this, he fell asleep.

¹ And Saul was consenting to his death. And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and all were scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.² And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.³ But Saul ravaged the church, entering house after house, and dragging both men and women, committed them to prison.⁴ Now those that had been scattered abroad went through the country preaching the word.⁵ And Philip went down to a city of Samaria, and preached to them the Christ.⁶ And the multitudes with one accord gave heed to the things spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he wrought.⁷ For from many that had unclean spirits came they out crying with a loud voice; and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were cured.⁸ And there was great joy in that city.⁹ But before their arrival a certain man, named Simon, was in the city, a man practising sorcery, and amazing the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was some great person; ¹⁰ to whom they gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the Power of God, which is called Great. ¹¹ And to him they gave heed, because they had for a long time been amazed by his sorceries. ¹² But when they believed Philip, publishing the glad tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³ And Simon himself also believed, and having been baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed when he beheld the miracles and signs which were wrought. ¹⁴ And the apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the word of God, sent to them Peter and John; ¹⁵ who, having come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ For it had not yet fallen upon any of them; but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ But Simon, seeing that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, Give me also this power, that on whomever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ But Peter said to him, Thy money perish with thee! because thou didst think to obtain the gift of God with money. ²¹ Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter; for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. ²² Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if haply the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee. ²³ For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. ²⁴ And Simon answering said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of the things which ye have spoken may come upon me. ²⁵ They then, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, were returning to Jerusalem, and publishing the glad tidings in many villages of the Samaritans. ²⁶ But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go towards the south, to the way that goeth down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert way. ²⁷ And he arose and went; and lo! a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch, a high officer of Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, ²⁸ was returning and sitting in his chariot; and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹ And the Spirit said to Philip, Go near and join thyself to this chariot. ³⁰ And Philip ran up, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Well, but dost thou understand what thou art reading? ³¹ And he said, How can I, unless some one shall guide me? And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³² And the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this: "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so he openeth not his mouth. ³³ In his humiliation judgment was refused him; and who shall describe his generation? for his life is taken away from the earth." ³⁴ And the eunuch answering said, I pray thee, of whom doth the prophet say this? Of himself, or of some other man? ³⁵ And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this scripture declared to him the glad tidings concerning Jesus. ³⁶ And as they went along the road, they came to a certain water; and the eunuch saith, See, here is water; what is there to hinder my being baptized? ³⁷ ³⁸ And he commanded that the chariot should stop; and they both went down into the water, both

Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. ³⁹ But when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰ But Philip was found at Azotus; and passing through, he published the glad tidings in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

¹ But Saul, yet breathing out threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, ² and asked of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any who were of this way of belief, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³ And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus; and suddenly there shone around a him a light from heaven; ⁴ and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? ⁵ And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he answered, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. ⁶ But arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. ⁷ And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one. ⁸ And Saul arose from the earth; but when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. ⁹ And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank. ¹⁰ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him the Lord said in a vision, Ananias! And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. ¹¹ And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus; for lo! he prayeth, ¹² and hath seen a man, named Ananias, coming in and putting his hand on him, that he might receive sight. ¹³ But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how great evils he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. ¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, Go; for this man is to me a chosen vessel, to bear my name before nations, and kings, and the sons of Israel. ¹⁶ For I myself will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. ¹⁷ And Ananias went away, and entered the house; and putting his hands on him, he said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus who appeared to thee in the way thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayst receive sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ And immediately there fell off from his eyes as it were scales; and he received sight, and arose, and was baptized. ¹⁹ And having taken some food he was strengthened. And he was some days with the disciples in Damascus. ²⁰ And immediately he preached Jesus in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. ²¹ And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed in Jerusalem those who called on this name? And he hath come hither for this purpose, that he may bring them bound to the chief priests. ²² But Saul gained still more strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. ²³ But after many days had passed, the Jews took counsel together to kill him; ²⁴ but their plot became known to Saul; and they were even watching the gates day and night to kill him. ²⁵ But his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. ²⁶ And when he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join himself to the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. ²⁷ But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and related to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. ²⁸ And he was with them going in and out at Jerusalem, ²⁹ speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. And he often spoke and disputed with the Hellenists; but they were endeavoring to slay him. ³⁰ But the brethren obtaining knowledge of it, brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. ³¹ The church therefore throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being built up, and walking in the fear of the Lord; and by the exhortation of the Holy Spirit it was greatly increased. ³² And it came to pass, that as Peter went through the whole country, he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda. ³³ And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had lain on a bed eight years, and was palsied. ³⁴ And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus the Christ healeth thee; arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. ³⁵ And all that dwelt in Lydda and Sharon saw him; and they turned to the Lord. ³⁶ Now at Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which name being interpreted is the same as Dorcas, that is, Gazelle. This woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did. ³⁷ And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died; and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. ³⁸ And as Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent to him two men with the entreaty, Do not delay to come to us. ³⁹ Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber; and all the widows came to him weeping, and showing the coats and cloaks which Dorcas made while she was with them. ⁴⁰ But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed; and turning to the body he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and seeing Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹ And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and the widows, he presented her alive. ⁴² And it became known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

them every thing sent them to Joppa. ⁹ On the morrow, as they were on their journey, and were drawing near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. ¹⁰ And he became very hungry and wished to eat; but while they were making ready, a trance came upon him, ¹¹ and he beheld heaven opened, and a sort of vessel descending, as it were a large sheet having cords at the four corners, and let down upon the earth; ¹² wherein were all the four-footed beasts and creeping things of the earth, and birds of the air. ¹³ And there came a voice to him, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat. ¹⁴ But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything common and unclean. ¹⁵ And a voice came to him again, the second time, That which God hath cleansed, call not thou common. ¹⁶ This was done three times; and the vessel was immediately taken up into heaven. ¹⁷ Now, while Peter was doubting within himself what the vision which he had seen meant, lo! the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate; ¹⁸ and they called, and asked whether Simon, surnamed Peter, lodged there. ¹⁹ And while Peter was meditating on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, men are seeking thee; ²⁰ but arise, and go down, and go with them, without scruple; for I have sent them. ²¹ And Peter went down to the men and said, Behold, I am he whom ye are seeking; for what cause have ye come? ²² And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee to his house, and to hear words from thee. ²³ Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴ And the morrow after, he came into Caesarea. And Cornelius was expecting them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. ²⁵ And as Peter came in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and did him reverence. ²⁶ But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. ²⁷ And while talking with him, he went in, and found many who had come together. ²⁸ And he said to them, Ye know that it is an unlawful thing for a Jew to keep company with one of another nation, or to come near him; but God showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. ²⁹ Wherefore I came without objection, when sent for. I ask therefore, for what reason did ye send for me? ³⁰ And Cornelius said, Four days ago, I was fasting till this hour; and at the ninth hour was praying in my house; and lo! a man stood before me in bright clothing, ³¹ and said, Cornelius, thy prayer hath been heard, and thine alms have been remembered before God. ³² Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea-side; and he, when he cometh, will speak to thee. ³³ I therefore sent to thee immediately; and thou hast done well in coming here. Now therefore we are all present before God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee from the Lord. ³⁴ And Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is not a respecter of persons, ³⁵ but in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness is acceptable to him—³⁶ the word which he sent to the sons of Israel, publishing glad tidings of peace through Jesus Christ; he is Lord of all men. ³⁷ Ye yourselves know what was spoken of through the whole of Judaea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached, ³⁸ relating to Jesus of Nazareth, that God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were overpowered by the Devil; for God was with him. ³⁹ And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they also slew by hanging him on a cross. ⁴⁰ Him God raised up on the third day, and caused him to be manifested, ⁴¹ not to all the people, but to witnesses before appointed by God, to ourselves, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead; ⁴² and he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is he who hath been appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ To him all the prophets bear witness, that through his name every one that believeth in him shall receive forgiveness of sins. ⁴⁴ While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all that heard the word. ⁴⁵ And those of the circumcision who believed, as many as came with Peter, were astonished that on the gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit; ⁴⁶ for they heard them speaking with tongues, and magnifying God. Then answered Peter, ⁴⁷ Can any one forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have? ⁴⁸ And he commanded that they should be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they entreated him to remain some days.

¹ And the apostles and the brethren throughout Judaea heard that the gentiles also had received the word of God. ² And when Peter went up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, ³ saying, Thou didst go in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. ⁴ But Peter rehearsed the matter to them in order from the beginning, saying, ⁵ I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, a sort of vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me; ⁶ on which fixing my eyes, I observed, and saw the four-footed beasts of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the air. ⁷ And I also heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat. ⁸ But I said, Not so, Lord; for nothing common or unclean ever entered my mouth. ⁹ But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, That which God hath cleansed, call not thou common. ¹⁰ And this was done three times; and all were again drawn up into heaven. ¹¹ And lo! immediately there stood three men at the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea. ¹² And the Spirit bade me go with them. And these six brethren also came with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³ And he told us how he had seen the angel in his house, standing and saying to him, Send to Joppa, and call for Simon, surnamed Peter; ¹⁴ who will speak to thee words by which thou shalt be saved, and all thy house. ¹⁵ And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶ And I remembered the word of the Lord, that he said, John indeed baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷ Since then God gave the like gift to them as to us, on believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God? ¹⁸ And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, So then to the gentiles also God hath granted repentance unto life. ¹⁹ Now they who were scattered abroad by the persecution that arose on account of Stephen traveled as far as Phenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none but Jews. ²⁰ But some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Greeks, publishing the glad tidings of the Lord Jesus. ²¹ And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord. ²² But the talk concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem; and they sent forth Barnabas, to go as far as Antioch; ²³ who, when he came, and saw the grace of God, rejoiced, and exhorted all to cleave to the Lord with purpose of heart; ²⁴ for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great multitude was added to the Lord. ²⁵ And he went to Tarsus, to seek for Saul; ²⁶ and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that for a whole year they came together in the church, and taught a great multitude; and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. ²⁷ And in those days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ And one of them named Agabus stood up, and signified by the Spirit, that there was about to be a great famine over the whole world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius. ²⁹ And according as any one of the disciples was prospered, they determined every one of them to send relief to the brethren who dwelt in Judaea; ³⁰ which also they did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

¹ Now about that time, Herod the king laid his hands upon certain of the church, to oppress them. ² And he slew James, the brother of John, with the sword. ³ And seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to apprehend Peter also; (then were the days of unleavened bread;) ⁴ and he seized him and put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people. ⁵ Peter therefore was kept guarded in prison; but earnest prayer was made by the church to God in his behalf. ⁶ And when Herod was about to bring him forth, on that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and keepers before the door were guarding the prison. ⁷ And lo! an angel of the Lord came to him, and a light shone in the room; and he smote Peter on the side, and roused him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell from his hands. ⁸ And the angel said to him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals; and he did so. And he saith to him, Throw thy garment round thee, and follow me. ⁹ And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. ¹⁰ And when they had passed the first, and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leadeth to the city, which opened to them of itself; and they went out and passed on through one street, and the angel immediately departed from him. ¹¹ And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know certainly, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. ¹² And when he understood the matter, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, surnamed Mark, where many were gathered together, and praying. ¹³ And as he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid-servant came to listen, named Rhoda; ¹⁴ and recognizing Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness; but ran in, and told them that Peter was standing before the gate. ¹⁵ And they said to her, Thou art mad. But she positively affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, It is his angel. ¹⁶ But Peter continued knocking; and opening the door, they saw him, and were amazed. ¹⁷ But beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, he related how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go and tell these things to James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. ¹⁸ And when it was day, there was no small commotion among the soldiers, as to what had become of Peter. ¹⁹ And Herod, when he had sought for him and found him not, examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be led away [[to execution]]. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and there abode. ²⁰ And he was highly displeased with the Tyrians and Sidonians; but they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, sued for peace; because their country drew its nourishment from that of the king. ²¹ And on a day appointed, Herod, having arrayed himself in royal apparel, and taken his seat on the throne, made a speech to them. ²² And thereupon the people shouted, The voice of a god, and not of a man! ²³ But immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory, and he was eaten by worms, and expired. ²⁴ But the word of God grew and was extended. ²⁵ And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having performed their service, taking with them also John, surnamed Mark.

¹ Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers; Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenaean, and Manaen, the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ² And while they were ministering to the Lord, and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. ³ Then, after they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. ⁴ They therefore being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, came down to Seleucia, and from thence sailed to Cyprus. ⁵ And having come to Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews; and they had also John as an assistant. ⁶ And when they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain magian, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-jesus, ⁷ who was with the proconsul of the country, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. He, having called for Barnabas and Saul, desired to hear the word of God. ⁸ But Elymas the magian (for so is his name interpreted) withstood them, seeking so turn away the proconsul from the faith. ⁹ But Saul (who is also called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, fixed his eyes on him ¹⁰ and said, O full of all deceit, and of all mischief, son of the Devil, enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? ¹¹ And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou wilt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and darkness; and going about he sought to find some who would lead him by the hand. ¹² Then the proconsul, when he saw what had taken place, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. ¹³ And Paul and his company, having put to sea from Paphos, came to Perga in Pamphylia. But John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And they, going on from Perga, came to Antioch in Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down. ¹⁵ And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, speak. ¹⁶ Then Paul stood up, and beckoned with his hand and said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, hearken. ¹⁷ The God of this people chose our fathers, and he exalted the people in their sojourn in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it; ¹⁸ and for about forty years he nourished them in the wilderness. ¹⁹ And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as a possession. ²⁰ And after that, for about four hundred and fifty years, he gave judges, until Samuel the prophet. ²¹ And afterward they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years; ²² and having removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king, to whom he gave testimony, saying, "I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will do all my will." ²³ From the seed of this man hath God, according to his promise, brought to Israel a Saviour, Jesus; ²⁴ before whose coming forward John had first preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ And as John was finishing his course, he said, Who do ye think that I am? I am not He. But lo I there cometh after me one, the sandal of whose feet I am not worthy to loose. ²⁶ Brethren, sons of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to you was the word of this salvation sent forth. ²⁷ For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, not knowing him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them in condemning him. ²⁸ And though they found nothing deserving death in him, they asked of Pilate that he should be slain. ²⁹ And when they had accomplished all that was written of him, they took him down from the cross, and laid him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised him from the dead, ³¹ and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. ³² And we declare to you the glad tidings, that the promise which was made to the fathers ³³ God hath fulfilled to us their children, in raising up Jesus [[from the dead]]; as it is also written in the first Psalm: "Thou art my Son; I have this day begotten thee." ³⁴ And that he raised him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he hath thus spoken: "I will give you the sure holy things promised to David." ³⁵ Wherefore also in another

Psalm he saith, "Thou wilt not suffer thy holy one to see corruption:"³⁶ For David, after having in his own generation served the will of God, fell asleep, and was added to his fathers, and saw corruption;³⁷ but he whom God raised from the dead did not see corruption.³⁸ Be it therefore known to you, brethren, that through this man is announced to you the forgiveness of sins;³⁹ and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.⁴⁰ Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken in the Prophets,⁴¹ "Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish! for I work a work in your days, a work which ye will not believe, though one should plainly declare it to you."⁴² And as they were going out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them on the next sabbath.⁴³ And when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and proselyte worshippers followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.⁴⁴ And on the next sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of the Lord.⁴⁵ But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with indignation, and spoke against what was spoken by Paul, contradicting and reviling.⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas said boldly and plainly, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you; but seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of the everlasting life, lo! we turn to the gentiles.⁴⁷ For thus hath the Lord commanded us: "I have set thee to be a light of the gentiles, that thou mayst bring salvation even to the end of the earth."⁴⁸ And when the gentiles heard this, they rejoiced, and glorified the word of the Lord; and as many as were ordained to everlasting life, believed.⁴⁹ And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout the whole country.⁵⁰ But the Jews stirred up the women of rank who worshipped God, and the chief men of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them from their borders.⁵¹ But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

¹ And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and Greeks believed.² But the Jews that disbelieved stirred up and embittered the minds of the gentiles against the brethren.³ They abode therefore a long time there, speaking boldly in reliance on the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be wrought by their hands.⁴ But the multitude of the city was divided; and some held with the Jews, and some with the apostles.⁵ And when a movement was made both of the gentiles, and the Jews with their rulers, to abuse and stone them,⁶ they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the neighboring country;⁷ and they were publishing the glad tidings there.⁸ And at Lystra there sat a certain man who had not the use of his feet, a cripple from his birth, who never had walked.⁹ This man heard Paul speaking; who looking steadily at him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,¹⁰ said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped up and walked. ¹¹ And the multitudes, seeing what Paul had done, lifted up their voices, saying, in the language of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men. ¹² And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. ¹³ Then the priest of Jupiter, that was in front of the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have offered sacrifice with the multitudes. ¹⁴ But the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, when they heard of it, rent their garments, and rushed forth to the multitude, crying out ¹⁵ and saying, Men, why do ye these things? We also are men of like nature with you, bringing to you glad tidings, that ye may turn from these vanities to the living God, who made heaven and earth and sea, and all things that are therein; ¹⁶ who in the ages past suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways; ¹⁷ although he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. ¹⁸ And with these words, they hardly restrained the multitudes from sacrificing to them. ¹⁹ But there came thither Jews from Antioch and Iconium; who, having persuaded the multitudes, and stoned Paul, dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. ²⁰ But the disciples having gathered around him, he rose up, and came into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹ And when they had published the glad tidings to that city, and had made many disciples, they went back to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch; ²² confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that it is through many afflictions that we must enter into the kingdom of God. ²³ And having appointed for them elders in every church, they prayed with fasting, and commended them to the Lord, in whom they believed. ²⁴ And having gone through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia; ²⁵ and when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia, ²⁶ and thence set sail for Antioch, whence they had been commended to the grace of God, for the work which they had accomplished. ²⁷ And when they had arrived and had gathered the church together, they related what great things God had wrought with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the gentiles. ²⁸ And they abode no little time with the disciples.

⁶ And the apostles and the elders came together to consider this matter. ⁷ And after much debate, Peter rose up and said to them, Brethren, ye know that a long time ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the gentiles should hear the word of the glad tidings, and believe. ⁸ And God, who knoweth the heart, bore them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit, as he gave it to us; ⁹ and made no difference between us and them, having purified their hearts by faith. ¹⁰ Now therefore why do ye provoke the anger of God, by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? ¹¹ But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same manner as they. ¹² And all the multitude became silent, and listened to Barnabas and Paul, while they related what great signs and wonders God had wrought among the gentiles by them. ¹³ And after they had done speaking, James answered, saying, Brethren, hearken to me. ¹⁴ Simeon hath related how God first visited the gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. ¹⁵ And with this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written: ¹⁶ "After this I will return, and will rebuild the tabernacle of David which hath fallen; and I will rebuild its ruins, and will set it up; ¹⁷ that the rest of men may seek after the Lord, and all the gentiles, who have been called by my name, saith the Lord, who doeth these things, ¹⁸ which were known from the beginning." ¹⁹ Wherefore my judgment is, that we should not trouble those who from among the gentiles are turning to God; ²⁰ but that we should write to them by letter to abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from that which hath been strangled, and from blood. ²¹ For Moses from the times of old hath had in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath. ²² Then it was decided by the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among themselves, and send them to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren. ²³ And they wrote by them, "The apostles, and the elders, and the brethren, to the brethren who are from the gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting. ²⁴ Whereas we have heard, that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, to whom we gave no command; ²⁵ it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, to choose men and send them to you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶ men who have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will themselves tell you the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸ For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us, to lay upon you no further burden except these necessary things: ²⁹ to abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, ye will do well. Farewell." ³⁰ They therefore being sent away came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. ³¹ And when they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. ³² And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words and confirmed them. ³³ And when they had remained some time, they were dismissed with peace from the brethren to those who sent them. ³⁴ ³⁵ But Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and publishing, with many others also, the glad tidings of the word of the Lord. ³⁶ And some days after, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit the brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are. ³⁷ And Barnabas determined to take with them John, called Mark. ³⁸ But Paul did not think it proper to take with them a man who had left them in Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. ³⁹ And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted from each other, and Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. ⁴⁰ And Paul chose Silas and went forth, having been commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹ And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

¹ And he came to Derbe and Lystra; and lo! a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewess, but whose father was a Greek; ² who was well spoken of by the brethren in Lystra and Iconium. ³ Him Paul wished to go forth with him, and took and circumcised him on account of the Jews who were in those places; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴ And as they journeyed through the cities, they delivered to them for their observance the decrees which had been ordained by the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. ⁵ The churches therefore were established in the faith, and increased in number daily. ⁶ And having gone through Phrygia and the Galatian country, on being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia, ⁷ they came to Mysia, and were attempting to go into Bithynia; but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. ⁸ And passing by Mysia, they came to Troas. ⁹ And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia beseeching him and saying, Come over into Macedonia and help us. ¹⁰ And when he had seen the vision, we immediately endeavored to go into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to publish the glad tidings to them. ¹¹ And setting sail from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothrace, and on the day following to Neapolis; ¹² and thence to Philippi, which is a chief city of the province of Macedonia, a colony. And we remained in the city some days. ¹³ And on the sabbath-day we went forth out of the gate to a river-side, where was wont to be a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had assembled. ¹⁴ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, was listening; whose heart the Lord opened to attend to the things which were spoken by Paul. ¹⁵ And when she had been baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be a believer in the Lord, come into my house, and abide. And she constrained us. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain bond-maid having a soothsaying spirit met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. ¹⁷ This woman followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, who announce to you the way of salvation. ¹⁸ And this she did for many days. But Paul, being much displeased, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out immediately. ¹⁹ But her masters seeing that the hope of their gain was gone, laid hold of Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the market-place to the rulers; ²⁰ and having brought them before the magistrates, said, These men are grievously disturbing our city, being Jews; ²¹ and they teach customs which it is not lawful for us Romans to receive or observe. ²² And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates, tearing off their clothes, commanded to beat them with rods; ²³ and when they had laid on them many stripes, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely; ²⁴ who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. ²⁵ But at midnight Paul and Silas praying, were singing praises to God; and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and all the doors were immediately opened, and the bands of all were loosed. ²⁷ And the jailer awaking out of sleep, and seeing the prison-doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm, for we are all here. ²⁹ Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas; ³⁰ and having brought them out, he said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? ³¹ And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and thou wilt be saved, and thy household. ³² And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. ³³ And he took them with him at that hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and he was immediately baptized, himself and all that belonged to him. ³⁴ And when he had brought them up into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced with all his house, having become a believer in God. ³⁵ And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Release those men. ³⁶ And the jailer reported these words to Paul: The magistrates have sent to release you; now therefore come out, and go in peace. ³⁷ But Paul said to them, They have publicly beaten us uncondemned, although we are Romans, and have thrust us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? No; but let them come themselves, and bring us out. ³⁸ And the sergeants reported these words to the magistrates; and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans. ³⁹ And they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they entreated them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ And when they had come out of the prison, they went into the house of Lydia; and when they saw the brethren, they exhorted them, and departed.

¹ And when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was the synagogue of the Jews. ² And Paul, as his custom was, went in among them, and for three sabbaths discoursed to them out of the Scriptures, ³ explaining them, and setting forth that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead, and that "this is the Christ,—Jesus whom I am making known to you." ⁴ And some of them were convinced, and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the women of high rank not a few. ⁵ But the unbelieving Jews, taking with them certain bad men of the idlers in the market-place, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar; and having come to the house of Jason, they endeavored to bring them out to the people; ⁶ but not finding them, they dragged Jason and some of the brethren before the city magistrates, crying out, These men that have turned the world upside down have come hither also; ⁷ whom Jason hath entertained; and they are all acting in opposition to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus. ⁸ And they alarmed the multitude and the city magistrates when they heard these things. ⁹ And having taken security of Jason and of the others, they let them go. ¹⁰ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea; who, having come there, went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹ These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so. ¹² Many of them therefore believed; and of the Grecian women of rank and men, not a few. ¹³ But when the Jews of Thessalonica knew that at Beroea, too, the word of God was preached by Paul, they came hither also, and stirred up the multitudes. ¹⁴ And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go to the sea; but Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵ And they who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and having received a commandment to Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they departed. ¹⁶ Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him, when he saw the city full of idols. ¹⁷ Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout [[Greeks]], and in the market daily with those that met him. ¹⁸ And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also conversed with him. And some said, What doth this babbler mean to say? and others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of foreign gods; because he brought the glad tidings of Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹ And they took him and brought him to Mars' hill, saying, May we know what this new doctrine is, of which thou speakest? ²⁰ For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears. We would know therefore what these things mean. ²¹ Now all the Athenians, and the strangers residing among them, spent their leisure for nothing else but to tell or to hear something new. ²² Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are very devout. ²³ For while passing along and observing your objects of worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, "To an unknown God." What therefore ye, without knowledge of it, worship, that do I make known to you. ²⁴ The God who made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; ²⁵ nor doth he receive service at the hands of men, as though he needed anything, since it is he that giveth to all life and breath and all things. ²⁶ And he made of one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having fixed appointed times, and the bounds of their habitation; ²⁷ that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us. ²⁸ For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as also some of your own poets have said: "For we are also his offspring." ²⁹ Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Deity is like to gold or silver or stone, graven by the art and device of man. ³⁰ The times indeed of ignorance God overlooked; but now commandeth all men every where to repent; ³¹ inasmuch as he hath fixed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he hath appointed; having given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. ³² And when they heard of a resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee again about this matter. ³³ Thus Paul departed from among them. ³⁴ But certain men joined themselves to him, and believed; among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite; and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

²⁰ And when they asked him to stay longer, he consented not; ²¹ but having taken leave of them, saying, I will return to you, if God will, he set sail from Ephesus. ²² And having landed at Caesarea and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch. ²³ And after he had spent some time there, he departed, going through the Galatian country and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. ²⁴ And a certain Jew, named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. ²⁵ This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught correctly the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John. ²⁶ And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But Aquila and Priscilla having heard him, took him to them, and set forth to him the way [[of the Lord]] more fully. ²⁷ And when he wished to go over into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to give him welcome; and when he was come, he gave much aid to those who had believed through grace. ²⁸ For he publicly confuted the Jews, with power, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

¹ And it came to pass, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through the upper districts, came to Ephesus. And finding certain disciples, ² he said to them, Did ye receive the Holy Spirit when ye believed? And they said to him, No, we did not even hear whether there is a Holy Spirit. ³ And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. ⁴ Then said Paul, John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people, that they should believe on him that was coming after him; that is, on Jesus. ⁵ And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues, and prophesied. ⁷ And the men were about twelve in all. ⁸ And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for three months, discoursing and persuading concerning the kingdom of God. ⁹ But when some were hardened, and believed not, but spoke evil of the way [[of the Lord]] before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, discoursing daily in the school of Tyrannus. ¹⁰ And this continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. ¹¹ And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul; ¹² so that even handkerchiefs, or aprons, were carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. ¹³ Then some of the wandering Jewish exorcists undertook to name over those who had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by that Jesus whom Paul preacheth. ¹⁴ And there were seven sons of Scevas, a Jewish chief priest, who did this. ¹⁵ And the evil spirit answering said, Jesus I knew, and Paul I well know; but who are ye? ¹⁶ And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them both, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷ And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸ And many of the believers came, confessing and declaring their practices. ¹⁹ Many also of those who had practised magical arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. ²⁰ So the word of the Lord grew and prevailed mightily. ²¹ And when these things were ended, Paul resolved to pass through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. ²² And having sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a season. ²³ And about that time there arose no small tumult concerning the faith. ²⁴ For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, made silver shrines of Diana, and brought no small gain to the craftsmen. ²⁵ And having called them together, with the workmen of like occupation, he said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth; ²⁶ and ye see and hear, that this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, not only of Ephesus, but of almost all Asia, saying, that those are not gods, which are made with hands. ²⁷ And there is not only danger that this branch of our business will come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana will be despised, and her magnificence destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worship. ²⁸ And hearing this they became full of wrath, and kept crying out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians! ²⁹ And the city was filled with confusion; and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. ³⁰ And when Paul wished to go in to the people, the disciples would not suffer him. ³¹ And some also of the Asiarchs, who were his friends, sent to him, and entreated him not to venture into the theatre. ³² Some therefore were crying one thing, and some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and the greater part knew not wherefore they had come together. ³³ And they brought forward Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward; and Alexander beckoned with his hand, desiring to make his defence to the people. ³⁴ But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice for about two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians! ³⁵ But when the Recorder had quieted the multitude, he said, Men of Ephesus, who is there among men that doth not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? ³⁶ Since then these things cannot be denied, ye ought to be quiet, and do nothing rashly. ³⁷ For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor blasphemers of your goddess. ³⁸ If then Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against any one, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls; let them bring their charges against each other. ³⁹ But if ye ask for any thing further, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. ⁴⁰ For we are in danger of being called to answer concerning this day's riot, there being no ground on which we shall be able to give an account of this concourse. ⁴¹ And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

¹ And after the tumult had ceased, Paul called to him the disciples, and having embraced them departed to go into Macedonia. ² And when he had gone through those regions, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. ³ And when he had stayed three months, a plot having been laid for him by the Jews as he was about to sail for Syria, he resolved to return through Macedonia. ⁴ And there accompanied him as far as Asia, Sopater, son of Pyrrhus, a Beroean; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. ⁵ These having gone forward waited for us at Troas. ⁶ But we set sail from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we abode seven days. ⁷ And on the first day of the week, when we had assembled to break bread, Paul discoursed to them, being about to depart on the morrow, and continued the discourse until midnight. ⁸ And there were many lamps in the upper room where we had assembled. ⁹ And there sat on the window a certain young man named Eutychus, having fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was discoursing at great length, he sank down with sleep, and fell from the third story, and was taken up dead. ¹⁰ But Paul went down and fell on him, and having embraced him, said, Make no lamentations; for his life is in him. ¹¹ And having gone up again, and broken the bread and eaten, he talked a long while even till break of day, and so departed. ¹² And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted. ¹³ We however, going forward to the ship, put to sea for Assos, intending to take in Paul from that place; for so he had appointed, intending himself to go on foot. ¹⁴ And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board, and came to Mitylene; ¹⁵ and sailing thence, we came the following day over against Chios. And the next day we arrived at Samos; and having tarried at Trogyllium, we came the next day to Miletus. ¹⁶ For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not be detained in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. ¹⁷ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. ¹⁸ And when they had come to him, he said to them: Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you the whole time, ¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility, and with tears, and trials which befell me by the plots of the Jews; ²⁰ how I kept back nothing that was profitable, but have made it known to you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house; ²¹ testifying to both Jews and Greeks repentance toward God, and faith in our Lord Jesus. ²² And now behold, I go, bound in my spirit, to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will befall me there; ²³ save that the Holy Spirit witnesseth to me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions await me. ²⁴ But I count life of no value to me, so that I may finish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the glad tidings of the grace of God. ²⁵ And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will see my face no more. ²⁶ Wherefore I testify to you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men; ²⁷ for I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God. ²⁸ Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Spirit made you overseers, to feed the church of the Lord, which he purchased with his own blood. ²⁹ For I know this, that after my departure grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰ And from among yourselves will men arise speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹ Therefore be watchful, and remember that for the space of three years, night and day, I ceased not to warn every one with tears. ³² And now I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, who is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all the sanctified. ³³ I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. ³⁴ Ye yourselves know, that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those that were with me. ³⁵ In all ways I showed you that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. ³⁶ And having thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. ³⁷ And they all wept sorely, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him; ³⁸ sorrowing most of all for the word which he had spoken, that they were to see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

¹ And it came to pass, after we had torn ourselves from them, and had put to sea, that we came with a straight course to Cos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from thence to Patara. ² And finding a ship crossing over to Phenicia, we went aboard, and put to sea. ³ And having come in sight of Cyprus, we passed it on the left, and sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unlade her cargo. ⁴ And having found out the disciples, we remained there seven days; and they told Paul, through the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem. ⁵ And when we had completed the days, we departed, and went our way, they all accompanying us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city; and having kneeled down on the shore and prayed, ⁶ we took leave of each other, and went on board the ship; and they returned home. ⁷ But we, finishing our voyage, came down from Tyre to Ptolemais; and having embraced the brethren, remained with them one day. ⁸ And on the morrow we departed, and came to Caesarea; and entering the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we stayed with him. ⁹ And this man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied. ¹⁰ And while we were staying some days longer, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus; ¹¹ and coming to us, he took off Paul's girdle, and bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit: So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and will deliver him into the hands of the gentiles. ¹² But when we heard this, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go to Jerusalem. ¹³ Then answered Paul, What mean ye that ye weep, and break my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁴ And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased; saying, The Lord's will be done. ¹⁵ And after those days we got ready our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ There went with us also some of the disciples of Caesarea, bringing us to one Mnason, a Cyprian, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. ¹⁷ And when we arrived at Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. ¹⁸ And the day following Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. ¹⁹ And having embraced them, he recounted particularly what things God had wrought among the gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰ And they on hearing it glorified God; and said to him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all zealots for the Law. ²¹ But they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children, nor to walk after the customs. ²² What then is to be done? The multitude will necessarily come together; for they will hear that thou hast come. ²³ Do this therefore that we advise thee. We have four men who have a vow on them. ²⁴ These take, and purify thyself with them, and pay the expenses for them, that they may shave their heads; and all will know that those things of which they have been informed concerning thee are nothing, but that thou thyself also walkest in observance of the Law. ²⁵ But concerning the gentile believers, we have written to them and decided that they should observe no such thing, save only to abstain from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from what hath been strangled, and from fornication. ²⁶ Then Paul took the men, and the next day having purified himself with them, entered the temple, announcing the completion of the days of the purification, until the offering was made for every one of them. ²⁷ And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, having seen him in the temple, stirred up the whole multitude, and laid hands on him, ²⁸ crying out, Men of Israel, help! This is the man that teacheth every one everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place; and besides he even brought Greeks into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. ²⁹ For they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus, the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. ³⁰ And the whole city was in motion, and the people ran together; and they laid hold of Paul and dragged him out of the temple; and forthwith the doors were shut. ³¹ And while they were endeavoring to kill him, tidings came up to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar; ³² who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And seeing the chief captain and the soldiers, they left off beating Paul. ³³ Then the chief captain came near and laid hold of him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. ³⁴ And some cried one thing, and some another, among the multitude. And not being able to gain certain knowledge on account of the uproar, he ordered him to be carried into the castle. ³⁵ And when he reached the stairs, he was obliged to be borne by the soldiers, on account of the violence of the crowd; ³⁶ for the multitude of the people were following, crying out, Away with him! ³⁷ And as he was about to be led into the castle, Paul saith to the chief captain, May I speak to thee? And he said, Canst thou speak Greek? ³⁸ Art thou not then the Egyptian, who before these days made an insurrection, and led out into the wilderness those four thousand men of the assassins? ³⁹ But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus, a citizen of no mean city of Cilicia; and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak to the people. ⁴⁰ And when he had given him leave, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with his hand to the people, and there was a great silence; and he spoke to them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, ordered him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might ascertain for what cause they were thus crying out against him. ²⁵ But when they had stretched him out with the cords, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? ²⁶ When the centurion heard this, he went and told the chief captain, saying, What art thou about to do? For this man is a Roman. ²⁷ Then the chief captain came and said to him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yes. ²⁸ The chief captain answered, For a great sum I obtained this citizenship. And Paul said, But I was born a Roman. ²⁹ They therefore who were about to examine him left him immediately. And the chief captain also was alarmed when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. ³⁰ On the morrow, wishing to have certain knowledge why he was accused by the Jews, he released him, and ordered the chief priests and all the council to assemble; and bringing Paul down, he set him before them.

¹ And Paul looking earnestly upon the council, said: Brethren! I have ordered my life in all good conscience before God to this day. ² And the high-priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to smite him on the mouth. ³ Then Paul said to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall! Art thou then sitting to judge me according to the law, and dost thou command me to be smitten contrary to the law? ⁴ And they that stood by said, Dost thou revile God's high-priest? ⁵ Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he was high-priest; for it is written, "Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people." ⁶ But Paul, perceiving one part to be Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, cried aloud in the council, Brethren! I am a Pharisee, the son of Pharisees; for the hope of the resurrection of the dead I am now tried. ⁷ And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the multitude was divided. ⁸ For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees affirm both. ⁹ And there arose a great clamor; and scribes of the party of the Pharisees arose, and contended, saying, We find nothing amiss in this man; but if a spirit hath spoken to him or an angel— ¹⁰ And a great dissension arising, the chief captain, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the castle. ¹¹ And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage; for as thou hast borne witness concerning me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. ¹² And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. ¹³ And there were more than forty who took this oath together. ¹⁴ And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ Now therefore do ye with the council give notice to the chief captain, that he bring him down to you, as though ye were about to examine his case more thoroughly; and we are ready to kill him before he cometh near

you. ¹⁶ But Paul's sister's son hearing of the plot went, and entering the castle, told Paul. ¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Take this young man to the chief captain; for he hath something to tell him. ¹⁸ So he took him and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to thee, as he hath something to say to thee. ¹⁹ Then the chief captain took him by the hand and went aside privately, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tell me? ²⁰ And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul tomorrow into the council, as though thou wert about to inquire more thoroughly concerning him. ²¹ But do not thou yield to them; for there lie in wait for him more than forty men of them, who have bound themselves with an oath neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him; and they are now ready, looking for the promise from thee. ²² The chief captain then dismissed the young man with the charge, Tell no one that thou hast disclosed these things to me. ²³ And he called to him two of the centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night; ²⁴ and provide beasts, whereon they may set Paul, and carry him safe to Felix the governor. ²⁵ And he wrote a letter after this manner: ²⁶ Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix, greeting. ²⁷ This man was taken by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them; but I came upon them with the soldiery, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. ²⁸ And wishing to know the crime of which they accused him, I brought him down to their council; ²⁹ but I found him to be accused only on account of questions of their law, and to have nothing laid to his charge deserving death or bonds. ³⁰ And having been informed of a plot against the man, I sent him at once to thee, and directed his accusers also to bring their charges against him before thee. ³¹ Then the soldiers, as was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³² But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the castle. ³³ And they, when they had come to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. ³⁴ And having read the letter, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, I will hear thee fully, when thy accusers also have arrived. And he ordered him to be kept in Herod's palace.

¹ And after five days Ananias, the high-priest, came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus; and they brought a complaint before the governor against Paul. ² And when he had been called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that improvements are in every way and everywhere taking place in this nation through thy foresight, ³ we accept it, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴ But not to detain thee too long, I pray thee to hear us, in thy clemency, a few words. ⁵ For we have found this man to be a pest, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes; ⁶ who also attempted to profane the temple, and we apprehended him; ⁷ ⁸ and from him thou canst thyself ascertain by examination all these things of which we accuse him. ⁹ And the Jews also joined in the charges against him, affirming that these things were so. ¹⁰ Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, Since I know that thou hast been for many years a judge for this nation, I answer for myself cheerfully; ¹¹ for it is in thy power to ascertain that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹² And neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any one, or stirring up a tumult of the people, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city; ¹³ nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. ¹⁴ But this I acknowledge to thee, that according to the way [[of belief]] which they call a sect, so do I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and by the Prophets; ¹⁵ having a hope in God, which they themselves also entertain, that there will be a resurrection both of the righteous and the unrighteous. ¹⁶ On this ground do I also myself strive to have always a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men. ¹⁷ And after some years I came to bring alms to my nation, and to make offerings; ¹⁸ in doing which they found me purified in the temple, not with a crowd nor with tumult; but certain Jews from Asia [[caused it]], ¹⁹ who ought to be here before thee, and make their charge, if they had aught against me. ²⁰ Or, let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found in me when I stood before the council, ²¹ except in relation to this one expression, which I uttered aloud while standing among them: Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am tried before you this day. ²² But Felix, having an accurate knowledge of the matters relating to this way [[of belief]], put them off, and said, When Lysias the chief captain cometh down, I will thoroughly examine your case. ²³ He also gave orders to the centurion to guard him, and let him have indulgence, and not to forbid any of his friends to do him service. ²⁴ And after some days, Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. ²⁵ And as he discoursed of righteousness, and temperance, and the judgment to come, Felix became alarmed, and answered, Go thy way for the present; and when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. ²⁶ He hoped also that money would be given him by Paul; on which account he sent for him the oftener, and conversed with him. ²⁷ But after two years Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and Felix, wishing to gain favor with the Jews, left Paul bound.

tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and on the morrow, sitting on the judgment-seat, ordered Paul to be brought. ⁷ And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, bringing many and heavy charges which they could not prove; ⁸ while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I committed any offence. ⁹ But Festus, wishing to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, Art thou willing to go up to Jerusalem, and there be tried on these charges before me? ¹⁰ But Paul said, I stand at the judgment-seat of Caesar, where I ought to be tried. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. ¹¹ If indeed I am an offender, and have done anything deserving death, I refuse not to die; but if there be nothing in the charges which they bring against me, no man can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar. ¹² Then Festus having conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed to Caesar; to Caesar shalt thou go. ¹³ And after some days Agrippa the king and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. ¹⁴ And while they were making a stay of some days there, Festus laid the case of Paul before the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix, ¹⁵ against whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought a complaint, asking for judgment against him. ¹⁶ To whom I answered, It is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man on a charge, before the accused hath the accusers face to face, and hath opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. ¹⁷ When therefore they had come together here, without any delay I sat on the judgment-seat on the day after, and ordered the man to be brought forward. ¹⁸ And his accusers standing around him brought no accusation of such things as I had conjectured, ¹⁹ but had against him certain questions of their own religion, and of one Jesus that was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. ²⁰ And I being at a loss about such questions, asked him if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be put on trial for these matters. ²¹ But Paul having appealed to be kept in custody for the judgment of Augustus, I ordered him to be kept till I should send him up to Caesar. ²² Then Agrippa said to Festus, I should like to hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. ²³ Accordingly on the morrow Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, and at the order of Festus Paul was brought forward. ²⁴ And Festus said: King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us! Ye see this man about whom the whole multitude of the Jews applied to me both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he ought no longer to live. ²⁵ But having found that he had done nothing deserving death, and he himself having appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him; ²⁶ and as I have nothing certain to write about him to the emperor, I have brought him forward before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that when the examination hath been made, I may have something to write. ²⁷ For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not signify the charges against him;

¹ And Agrippa said to Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand and made his defence: ² I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence this day before thee concerning all things of which I am accused by the Jews; ³ especially as thou art acquainted with all the customs and questions among the Jews. Wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. ⁴ My manner of life, then, from my youth, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem, all Jews know: ⁵ and they know, if they are willing to testify, that from the first, according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee. ⁶ And now I stand on trial for the hope of the promise made by God to the fathers, ⁷ which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God day and night, hope to obtain; concerning which hope, O king, I am accused by Jews. ⁸ Why is it judged incredible with you if God raiseth the dead? ⁹ I indeed thought with myself that I ought to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus the Nazarene. ¹⁰ Which I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I myself shut up in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. ¹¹ And I punished them often in all the synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I pursued them even to foreign cities. ¹² And as I was going to Damascus on this business, with authority and a commission from the chief priests, ¹³ at mid-day, on the road, O king, I saw a light from heaven above the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who were journeying with me. ¹⁴ And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the goads. ¹⁵ And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest. ¹⁶ But arise and stand upon thy feet; for I have appeared to thee for this purpose, to prepare thee as a minister and a witness both of the things which thou sawest, and of those on account of which I will appear to thee; ¹⁷ delivering thee from the people, and from the gentiles, to whom I send thee, ¹⁸ to open their eyes that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among the sanctified, by faith in me. ¹⁹ Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; ²⁰ but first to those in Damascus, and Jerusalem, and to all the country of Judaea, and then to the gentiles, I proclaimed that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. ²¹ For these causes the Jews seized me in the temple, and attempted to kill me. ²² Having, however, obtained help from God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying nothing except those things which the Prophets and Moses said were to come to pass; ²³ that the Christ should suffer, and that, as first of those raised from the dead, he was to proclaim light both to the people and to the gentiles. ²⁴ And as he was thus speaking in his defence, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning is making thee mad. ²⁵ But he saith, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but utter words of truth and soberness. ²⁶ For the king knoweth about these things well; to whom also I speak boldly; for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him: for this was not done in a corner. ²⁷ King Agrippa, believest thou the Prophets? I know that thou believest. ²⁸ Then Agrippa said to Paul, With little effort thou thinkest to persuade me to become a Christian. ²⁹ And Paul said, I would to God, that with little effort or with great, not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, might be made such as I am, except these bonds. ³⁰ And the king rose up and the governor and Bernice, and those who sat with them; ³¹ and going aside they talked with each other, saying, This man is doing nothing deserving death, or bonds. ³² And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Caesar.

¹ And when it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. ² And going on board a ship of Adramyttium, about to sail along the coasts of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. ³ And the next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go to his friends, and receive their care. ⁴ And thence putting to sea, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. ⁵ And having sailed over the sea along Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. ⁶ And there the centurion, finding a ship of Alexandria about to sail for Italy, put us on board of it. ⁷ And sailing slowly some days, and having with difficulty arrived over against Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to put in, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; ⁸ and coasting along it with difficulty we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city Lasea. ⁹ And much time having been spent, and the voyage being now dangerous, because the Fast had already gone by, Paul advised them, ¹⁰ saying, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. ¹¹ But the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than what was spoken by Paul. ¹² And as the harbor was not well situated for wintering, the greater part advised to sail thence also, if by any means they might reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete, looking toward the southwest and northwest, and there winter. ¹³ And when a south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor, and coasted along close by Crete. ¹⁴ But not long after, there rushed against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. ¹⁵ And the ship being caught, and unable to face the wind, we gave up to it, and were driven along. ¹⁶ And running under a certain small island called Claudia, we were hardly able to get possession of the boat; ¹⁷ which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should run into the Syrtis, they lowered the sail and so were driven. ¹⁸ And as we were violently tempest-tossed, the next day they began to lighten the vessel; ¹⁹ and the third day we cast out with our own hands the movables of the ship. ²⁰ And as neither sun nor stars had appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, thenceforward all hope that we should be saved was taken away. ²¹ And after there had been much abstinence from food, Paul stood up in the midst of them and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened to me, and not have put to sea from Crete, nor thus brought upon yourselves this injury and loss. ²² And now I exhort you to be of good cheer; for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. ²³ For there stood by me this night an angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, ²⁴ saying, Fear not, Paul! Thou must stand before Caesar; and lo, God hath given thee all those that sail with thee. ²⁵ Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer; for I believe God, that it will be just as it hath been told me. ²⁶ But we must be cast upon some island. ²⁷ And when the fourteenth night had come on, as we were driven onward in the Adriatic sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were near some country; ²⁸ and sounding, they found twenty fathoms; and having gone a little further and sounded again, they found fifteen fathoms; ²⁹ then fearing lest we should fall upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for day. ³⁰ And as the sailors were seeking means to escape from the ship, when they had lowered the boat into the sea, under the pretence that they were about to carry out anchors from the foreship, ³¹ Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, If these men do not stay in the ship, ye cannot be saved. ³² Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off. ³³ And while the day was coming on, Paul exhorted them all to take food; saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye have waited, and continued fasting, having taken nothing. ³⁴ Wherefore I exhort you to take food; for this is for your safety; for there shall not a hair be lost from the head of one of you. ³⁵ And having thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all, and having broken it, he began to eat. ³⁶ Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took food. ³⁷ And there were of us in the ship in all two hundred and seventy-six souls. ³⁸ And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, casting out the grain into the sea. ³⁹ And when it was day, they did not know the land; but they observed a certain creek having a beach, into which they determined, if possible, to run the ship. ⁴⁰ And cutting away the anchors, they left them in the sea, and at the same time unfastening the rudder-bands, and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made toward the beach. ⁴¹ And falling into a place having the sea on both sides, they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the stern was breaking to pieces with the violence [[of the waves]]. ⁴² And on the part of the soldiers there was a plan to kill the prisoners, lest any one should swim out and escape. ⁴³ But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and ordered those who could swim to cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land, ⁴⁴ and the rest, some on boards, and others on something from the ship. And in this way it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to land.

² And the barbarians showed us no little kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the rain which had come on, and because of the cold. ³ And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid it on the fire, there came forth a viper by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. ⁴ And when the barbarians saw the animal hanging from his hand, they said to one another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, Justice hath not permitted to live. ⁵ He, however, shaking off the animal into the fire suffered no harm. ⁶ But they were looking for his becoming swollen, or suddenly falling down dead. But after looking a great while, and seeing no harm come to him they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. ⁷ And in the neighborhood of that place were lands be longing to the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who welcomed us, and entertained us kindly three days. ⁸ And it happened that the father of Publius was lying sick with a fever and dysentery; to whom Paul went in, and, when he had prayed, laid his hands on him, and healed him. ⁹ And when this was done, the others also who had diseases in the island came, and were healed; ¹⁰ who also honored us with many honors, and when we put to sea, loaded us with such things as were necessary. ¹¹ And after three months we put to sea in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. ¹² And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there three days; ¹³ and from thence we made a circuit, and came to Rhegium; and after one day a south wind arose, and we came on the second day to Puteoli, ¹⁴ where we found brethren, and were entreated to remain with them seven days; and so we went toward Rome. ¹⁵ And from thence, the brethren having heard of us came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns; at the sight of whom Paul thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶ And when we had come to Rome, Paul was permitted to dwell by himself, with the soldier that guarded him. ¹⁷ And it came to pass that after three days he called together the chief men of the Jews, and when they had met he said to them, Brethren, I, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, was delivered up a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans; ¹⁸ who, when they had examined me, wished to release me, because I had done nothing deserving death. ¹⁹ But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar; not that I had any charge to bring against my nation. ²⁰ For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak to you; for it is on account of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain. ²¹ And they said to him, We neither received letters from Judea concerning thee, nor did any one of the brethren that came report or speak any evil of thee. ²² But we think it proper to hear from thee what thou thinkest; for with regard to this sect, we know that it is everywhere spoken against. ²³ And when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging; to whom he expounded, and earnestly testified, the kingdom of God, endeavoring to persuade them concerning Jesus both from the Law of Moses, and from the Prophets, from morning till evening. ²⁴ And some believed the things spoken, and some believed not. ²⁵ So, disagreeing with one another, they took their departure, after Paul had spoken one word: Well did the Holy Spirit speak through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, ²⁶ saying, "Go to this people, and say, 'Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see and not perceive. ²⁷ For the heart of this people hath become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn from their ways, and I should heal them.'" ²⁸ Be it therefore known to you, that to the gentiles this salvation of God hath been sent; they, moreover, will hear. ²⁹ ³⁰ And he abode two whole years in his own hired house and gladly received all that came in to him, ³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, without hindrance from any one.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

¹ Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, a called apostle, set apart to preach the gospel of God, ² which he had promised before by his prophets in the Holy Scriptures, ³ the gospel concerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David as to the flesh, ⁴ and shown with power to be the Son of God as to his spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord; ⁵ through whom we received grace and the office of an apostle in behalf of his name, in order to produce obedience to the faith among all nations; ⁶ among whom are ye also, the called of Jesus Christ; ⁷ to all the beloved of God at Rome, called, holy: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ In the first place, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. ⁹ For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how constantly I make mention of you, always in my prayers ¹⁰ supplicating that, if it be possible, I may at last through the will of God be favored with an opportunity of coming to you. ¹¹ For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, which may be for your confirmation; ¹² that is, that I may be edified among you, and you also, through each other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³ But I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that I often purposed to come to you, though I have been hindered hitherto, that I might have some fruit of my labors among you also, as among the other gentiles. ¹⁴ I am debtor both to Greeks and barbarians, both to the wise and the unwise. ¹⁵ So, according to my ability, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also in Rome. ¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel; for to every believer, to the Jew first and also to the Greek, it is the power of God unto salvation. ¹⁷ For therein is revealed the righteousness which is of God from faith to faith; as it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith." ¹⁸ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all impiety and unrighteousness of men, who keep down the truth in unrighteousness. ¹⁹ Because that which may be known of God is manifest within them; for God made it manifest to them. ²⁰ For, ever since the creation of the world, his invisible attributes, even his eternal power and divinity, being perceived from his works, are clearly seen, so that they might be without excuse. ²¹ Because though they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, nor were they thankful to him; but became perverse in their reasonings, and their senseless minds were darkened; ²² professing to be wise, they became fools, ²³ and for the glory of the incorruptible God they substituted images of corruptible man, and of birds and four-footed beasts and creeping things. ²⁴ Wherefore God also gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to debase their bodies with one another; ²⁵ because they changed the true God for false gods, and adored and worshipped created things rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. ²⁶ For this cause God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women indulged in unnatural lust, ²⁷ and in like manner the men also, neglecting the natural use of the female, burned with lust for one another, men with men practising that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves the due recompense of their error. ²⁸ And as they did not choose to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do things which are shameful; ²⁹ being filled with all unrighteousness, malice, covetousness, wickedness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; backbiters, ³⁰ slanderers, hated of God, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of mischief, disobedient to parents, ³¹ senseless, faithless, without natural affection, without pity; ³² who, although knowing the ordinance of God, that they who practise such things deserve death, not only do them themselves, but approve of those who do them.

form of knowledge and of the truth in the Law,—²¹ dost thou then who teachest another, not teach thyself? Thou who proclaimest that others should not steal, dost thou steal? ²² Dost thou who forbiddest to commit adultery, thyself commit adultery? Thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou rob temples? ²³ Dost thou who boastest of the Law, dishonor God by breaking the Law? ²⁴ For, as it is written, “the name of God is on your account blasphemed among the gentiles.” ²⁵ For circumcision is indeed a benefit to thee, if thou keep the Law; but if thou art a breaker of the Law, thy circumcision hath become uncircumcision. ²⁶ If then he who is uncircumcised keep the precepts of the Law, shall not he though uncircumcised be regarded as circumcised? ²⁷ Yea, those who are by nature uncircumcised, if they perform the law, will judge thee, who having a written Law and circumcision, art a breaker of the Law. ²⁸ For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly, nor is that circumcision, which is outward, in the flesh; ²⁹ but he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, spiritual, not literal, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

¹ What then is the advantage of the Jew? or what the benefit of circumcision? ² Great, every way. In the first place, because they were entrusted with the oracles of God. ³ For what? If some were unfaithful, shall their unfaithfulness make God unfaithful? ⁴ Far be it! yea, let God be true, and every man a liar; as it is written, “That thou mayst be justified in thy words, and mayst overcome when thou art arraigned.” ⁵ But if our unrighteousness serve to display the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicteth punishment? (I am speaking as men do.) ⁶ Far be it! For then how shall God judge the world? ⁷ For if, through my being false, the truth of God hath been more abundantly manifested to his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? ⁸ And why do you not say, as some slanderously charge us with saying, Let us do evil, that good may come? The condemnation of such men is just. ⁹ What then? Are we better than others? By no means! For we have already brought a charge both against Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. ¹⁰ As it is written: “There is none righteous, no, not one; ¹¹ there is none that hath understanding, there is none that diligently seeketh God; ¹² they have all turned aside from the right way, they have become worthless together; there is none that doeth good, not even one. ¹³ Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have practised deceit. The poison of asps is under their lips. ¹⁴ Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. ¹⁵ Swift are their feet to shed blood; ¹⁶ destruction and misery are in their ways; ¹⁷ and the way of peace they know not. ¹⁸ There is no fear of God before their eyes.” ¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the Law saith, it saith to those who are under the Law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world become subject to condemnation before God. ²⁰ Because by works of the Law no flesh shall be accepted as righteous: for by the Law is the knowledge of sin. ²¹ But now, apart from the Law, the righteousness which is of God, to which the Law and the Prophets bear testimony, ²² even the righteousness which is of God through faith in Jesus Christ, hath been made manifest to all and for all believers. For there is no distinction. ²³ For all have sinned, and fail of obtaining the glory which cometh from God; ²⁴ being accepted as righteous freely, by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵ whom, in his blood, through faith, God hath set forth as a propitiatory sacrifice, in order to manifest his righteousness, on account of his passing by, in his forbearance, the sins committed in former times; ²⁶ in order to manifest his righteousness at the present time, so that he may be righteous, and accept as righteous him who hath faith. ²⁷ Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith. ²⁸ We conclude therefore, that a man is accepted as righteous through faith, without the works of the Law. ²⁹ Or is God [[the God]] of Jews alone? Is he not also the God of gentiles? Yea, of gentiles also. ³⁰ Seeing there is but one God, who will accept the circumcised as righteous by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹ Do we then make void the Law through faith? Far be it! On the contrary, we establish the Law.

¹ What advantage then shall we say that Abraham our father had as to the flesh? ² For if Abraham was accepted as righteous through works, he hath ground of boasting. But he hath no ground of boasting before God. ³ For what saith the scripture? "Abraham had faith in God, and it was accounted unto him as righteousness." ⁴ Now to him that performeth works, the reward is not accounted a matter of grace, but of debt; ⁵ but to him who without performing works hath faith in him who accepteth as righteous one that hath been ungodly, his faith is accounted as righteousness; ⁶ as David also speaketh of the blessedness of the man whom God accepteth as righteous without works: ⁷ "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. ⁸ Blessed is the man whom the Lord shall not charge with sin." ⁹ Doth this blessedness belong to the circumcised alone, or to the uncircumcised also? For we are saying that Abraham's faith was accounted as righteousness. ¹⁰ How then was it so accounted? After his circumcision, or while he was uncircumcised? Not after he was circumcised, but while he was uncircumcised. ¹¹ And he received the outward sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all the uncircumcised who have faith, so that righteousness might be put to their account also; ¹² and that he might be the father of the circumcised, who are not circumcised merely, but who tread in the steps of that faith which our father Abraham had while yet uncircumcised. ¹³ For not through the Law was the promise made to Abraham or his offspring that he should be the heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴ For if they that are of the Law are heirs, then faith becometh a vain thing, and the promise is made of no effect. ¹⁵ For the Law is the cause of wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression. ¹⁶ Therefore the inheritance was made to depend on faith, that it might be a matter of grace; that the promise might be sure to all the offspring, not to that only which is under the Law, but to that also which hath the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all ¹⁷ (as it is written, "I have made thee a father of many nations") in the sight of that God whom he believed, who giveth life to the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. ¹⁸ For he had confident hope in that which was past hope, that he should become a father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, "Thus shall thy offspring be;" ¹⁹ and not being weak in faith, he regarded not his own body which had become dead, he being about a hundred years old, nor the deadness of Sarah's womb; ²⁰ nor did he waver in respect to the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; ²¹ being fully convinced, that what he hath promised, he is able also to perform. ²² And therefore it was accounted to him for righteousness. ²³ And that it was so accounted was not written for his sake alone, ²⁴ but for our sakes also, to whom it will be so accounted through our faith in him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵ who was delivered up on account of our trespasses, and raised from the dead that we might be accepted as righteous.

¹ Therefore being accepted as righteous through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ² through whom also we have had admission into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in the hope of the glory which God will confer. ³ And not only so, but we rejoice in afflictions also, knowing that affliction produceth endurance, ⁴ and endurance proof [[of faith]], and proof [[of faith giveth]] hope; ⁵ and hope will not disappoint us; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which hath been given to us. ⁶ For while we were yet without strength, in due season Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ Now hardly for a righteous man will one die; perhaps, however, for a benefactor one might even dare to die. ⁸ But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹ Much more then, being now accepted as righteous through his blood, we shall be saved through him from the [[coming]] wrath. ¹⁰ For if while enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more having been reconciled shall we be saved by his life; ¹¹ and not this only, but also having joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. ¹² So then as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin death, and thus [[death]] came through unto all men, because all sinned— ¹³ (for all the time before the Law sin was in the world; but sin is not set to one's account when there is no law. ¹⁴ Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the manner in which Adam transgressed; who is a type of him who was to come.— ¹⁵ But the free gift was not as the transgression. For if through the offence of the one the many died, much more hath the grace of God, and the gift which is by the grace of the one man Jesus Christ, abounded to the many. ¹⁶ And the free gift is not like what happened through one man who sinned. For sentience of condemnation followed one offence; but the free gift is a justification after many offences. ¹⁷ For if by one trespass death reigned through the one man, much more will they who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.)—¹⁸ As then through one trespass all men have come under condemnation, so through one act of righteousness all obtain the gift of righteousness unto life. ¹⁹ For as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of the one man will the many be made righteous. ²⁰ Moreover the law came in in addition, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded much more; ²¹ that as sin reigned in death, so grace might reign through righteousness to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹ What shall we say then? Let us continue in sin, that grace may abound still more? ² God forbid! How shall we, who died to sin, live any longer in it? ³ Are ye ignorant, that all of us who were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? ⁴ We then by this baptism into his death were buried with him; that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. ⁵ For if we have been made completely like him in his death, we shall be made like him in his resurrection also; ⁶ knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin; ⁷ for he that hath died hath been set free from sin. ⁸ And if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; ⁹ since we know that Christ, having been raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath dominion over him no longer. ¹⁰ For in that he died, he died to sin once for all; but in that he liveth, he liveth to God. ¹¹ Thus do ye too consider yourselves as dead to sin, but alive to God, through Jesus Christ. ¹² Let not then sin reign in your mortal body, bringing you into subjection to its lusts, ¹³ nor yield up your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but yield up yourselves to God, as being alive from the dead, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall not hold dominion over you; for ye are not under the Law, but under grace. ¹⁵ What then? Are we to sin, because we are not under the Law, but under grace? God forbid! ¹⁶ Know ye not, that whomever ye choose to obey as a master, his bondmen ye are, whether of sin whose fruit is death, or of obedience whose fruit is righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God that, though ye were the bondmen of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching which was delivered to you; ¹⁸ and being made free from sin, ye became the bondmen of righteousness. ¹⁹ I speak in a way common among men on account of the weakness of your flesh. For as ye once yielded your members as slaves to impurity and to iniquity, in order to commit iniquity, so now yield your members as bondmen to righteousness in order to become holy. ²⁰ For when ye were the slaves of sin, ye were not the bondmen of righteousness. ²¹ What fruit then had ye at that time from those things of which ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. ²² But now having been delivered from the slavery of sin, and having become the bondservants of God, ye have holiness as the fruit, and everlasting life as the end. ²³ For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is everlasting life, through Christ Jesus our Lord.

me]] through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, I, the same person, with the mind serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

¹ There is then now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. ² For the law of the Spirit of life set me free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the Law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God hath done, who on account of sin sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and passed sentence of condemnation on sin in the flesh; ⁴ so that what is required by the Law might be accomplished in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ⁵ For they who are according to the flesh have their mind on the things of the flesh; but they who are according to the Spirit, on the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit life and peace. ⁷ Because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it doth not submit itself to the Law of God, neither indeed can it. ⁸ And they who are in the flesh cannot please God. ⁹ But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any one hath to not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. ¹⁰ And if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹ But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he who raised up Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies, because of his Spirit that dwelleth in you. ¹² So then, brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³ For if ye live according to the flesh, ye are sure to die; but if by the Spirit ye make an end of the deeds of the body, ye will live. ¹⁴ For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are sons of God. ¹⁵ For ye did not receive the spirit of bondage so as to be again in fear; but ye received the spirit of adopted children, whereby we cry, Abba, Father! ¹⁶ The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God; ¹⁷ and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and fellow-heirs with Christ; if indeed we are suffering with him, that we may also be glorified with him. ¹⁸ For I esteem the sufferings of the present time as of no account, when compared with the glory which is about to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the earnest expectation of the creation is waiting for the manifestation of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was brought into subjection to vanity not of its own will, but by reason of him who put it into subjection, ²¹ in hope that even the creation itself will be set free from the bondage of corruption and brought into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation is together groaning and suffering the pains of labor, up to this time; ²³ and not only so, but even we ourselves also, though having the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons, for the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For we were saved only in hope. But hope which is seen is not hope; how can a man hope for that which he seeth? ²⁵ But if we hope for that which we do not see, then do we with patience wait for it. ²⁶ In like manner the Spirit also helpeth our weakness; for we know not what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit itself intercedeth with groans which cannot be expressed in words. ²⁷ But he that searcheth the hearts knoweth the mind of the Spirit, because it intercedeth for the holy according to the will of God. ²⁸ We know moreover that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For he determined beforehand that those whom he foreknew should be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. ³⁰ And those whom he before appointed, he also called; and those whom he called, he also accepted as righteous; and those whom he accepted as righteous, he also glorified. ³¹ What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? ³³ Who shall bring any charge against the chosen of God? God is he who accepteth them as righteous. ³⁴ Who is he that condemneth? Christ is he that died, yea rather, who rose again, who is also at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ for us? Shall affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword? ³⁶ As it is written, "For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we were accounted as sheep for slaughter." ³⁷ Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us. ³⁸ For I am persuaded, that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God for us, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹ I speak truth in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, that ² I have great grief and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³ For I could wish to be myself accursed and cast out from Christ in behalf of my brethren, my kinsmen as to the flesh; ⁴ who are Israelites; whom God adopted as sons, whose was the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of the sanctuary, and the promises; ⁵ whose are the fathers, and from whom, as to the flesh, was the Christ. He who is over all, God, be blessed for ever! Amen. ⁶ Not as though the word of God hath failed; for not all they that are of Israel are Israel; ⁷ nor because they are descendants of Abraham are they all children; but, "Thy offspring shall be reckoned from Isaac." ⁸ That is, not the children by natural descent are children of God, but the children to whom the promise is made are accounted as the offspring. ⁹ For the word of promise is this: "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son." ¹⁰ And not only so, but also when Rebecca had conceived by one man, our father Isaac, ¹¹ before the children were born, or had done any thing good or evil, to the end that God's purpose according to election might stand, not depending on works, but on the will of him that calleth, ¹² it was said to her, "The elder shall serve the younger:" ¹³ as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated." ¹⁴ What then shall we say? Is there injustice with God? Far be it! ¹⁵ For he saith to Moses, "On whom I have mercy, on him will I have mercy; and on whom I have compassion, on him will I have compassion.” ¹⁶ So then it dependeth not on him that willeth, nor on him that runneth, but on God who showeth mercy. ¹⁷ For the Scripture saith to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show forth my power in thee, and that my name might be made known in all the earth.” ¹⁸ So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and hardeneth whom he will. ¹⁹ Hence thou wilt say to me, Why then doth he still find fault? for who resisteth his will? ²⁰ Nay but, O man, who art thou that makest answer to God? Shall the thing that is wrought say to the workman, Why hast thou made me thus? ²¹ Hath not the potter a right out of the same lump of clay to make one vessel for an honorable use, and another for a dishonorable? ²² What if God endured with much patience vessels of wrath fitted for destruction, purposing to manifest his wrath and to make known his power; ²³ purposing also to make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared for glory, ²⁴ whom he also called, even us, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the gentiles? ²⁵ as he also saith in Hosea, “I will call that my people, which was not my people; and her beloved, that was not beloved. ²⁶ And it shall be, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people, there shall they be called sons of the living God.” ²⁷ But Isaiah crieth out concerning Israel, “Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only the remnant will be saved. ²⁸ For he is accomplishing his word and speedily fulfilling it in righteousness; for a speedily fulfilled word will the Lord execute upon the earth.” ²⁹ And as Isaiah hath said before, “Unless the Lord of hosts had left us a seed, we should have become as Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah.” ³⁰ What then shall we say? That the gentiles, who did not strive after righteousness, obtained righteousness, but a righteousness which is of faith; ³¹ while Israel, which strove after a law of righteousness, did not attain to a law of righteousness. ³² Why? Because they did not strive for it by faith, but as being by works. For they stumbled against the stone of stumbling; ³³ as it is written, “Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and rock of offence; and he that believeth in him shall not be put to shame.”

¹ Brethren, the desire of my heart and my prayer to God for them is, that they may be saved. ² For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³ For being ignorant of the righteousness which is of God, and endeavoring to establish a righteousness of their own, they have not submitted themselves to the righteousness which is of God. ⁴ For Christ is the end of the Law, so that every one that believeth may obtain righteousness. ⁵ For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the Law: “The man that hath done these things shall live by them.” ⁶ But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh thus: Say not in thy heart, “Who shall ascend into heaven?” that is, to bring Christ down. ⁷ Or, “Who shall descend into the abyss?” that is, to bring up Christ from the dead. ⁸ But what saith it? “The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart;” that is, the word concerning faith, which we preach; ⁹ for if thou shalt acknowledge with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. ¹⁰ For with the heart man believeth so as to obtain righteousness, and with the mouth professeth so as to obtain salvation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith, "Whoever believeth in him shall not be put to shame." ¹² For there is no difference between Jew and Greek; for one and the same is Lord over all, rich to all that call upon him. ¹³ For "every one who calleth upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." ¹⁴ How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him, of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? ¹⁵ and how shall men preach, unless they are sent forth? as it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring glad tidings of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!" ¹⁶ But they did not all hearken to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, "Lord, who hath believed what he hath heard from us?" ¹⁷ Faith then cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ¹⁸ But I say, Did they not hear? Yes truly, "Their voice went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world." ¹⁹ But I say, Hath not Israel had knowledge? First, Moses saith, "I will move you to jealousy by that which is no nation, I will excite you to indignation by a foolish people." ²⁰ But Isaiah is very bold, and saith, "I was found by those who sought me not, I became known to those who inquired not for me." ²¹ But concerning Israel he saith, "All the day long I have stretched out my hands to a disobedient and rebellious people."

some of them. ¹⁵ For if the rejection of them is the reconciliation of the world, what will the reception of them be, but life from the dead? ¹⁶ And if the first portion of the dough is holy, so also will be the lump; and if the root is holy, so will be the branches. ¹⁷ And if some of the branches have been broken off, and thou, a wild olive, hast been grafted in among them, and become a partaker with them of the root and fatness of the olive-tree, ¹⁸ boast not over the branches; for if thou boast, thou dost not bear the root, but the root thee. ¹⁹ Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. ²⁰ Be it so. It was for their unbelief that they were broken off, and thou standest through thy faith; be not high-minded, but fear. ²¹ For if God spared the natural branches, take care lest he spare not thee. ²² Behold then the goodness and the severity of God; toward those who fell, severity; but toward thee God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness; otherwise thou also wilt be cut off. ²³ And they also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴ For if thou hast been cut off from an olive-tree wild by nature, and hast against thy nature been ingrafted into a good olive-tree, how much more shall these, the natural branches, be ingrafted into their own olive-stock? ²⁵ For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that blindness hath to some extent come upon Israel, until the fullness of the gentiles shall have come in. ²⁶ And thus will all Israel be saved; as it is written, "There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer; he shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob." ²⁷ And this will be my covenant with them, when I shall have taken away their sins." ²⁸ In regard to the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but in regard to God's choice, they are beloved for the fathers' sake. ²⁹ For in respect to his gifts and his calling, there is no change of purpose with God. ³⁰ For as ye in times past were disobedient to God, but have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, ³¹ so they too have now become disobedient, that they also may obtain mercy through the mercy shown to you. ³² For God delivered up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all. ³³ O the depth of the riches, and of the wisdom, and of the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his purposes, and his ways past finding out! ³⁴ For "who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been made his counselor?" ³⁵ or "who first gave to him, and shall receive a return?" ³⁶ For from him, and through him, and to him are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

¹ I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well-pleasing to God, which is your spiritual worship; ² and be not conformed to the fashion of this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that ye may learn by experience what is the will of God, what is good, and well-pleasing, and perfect. ³ For through the grace given to me I warn every one among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according to the measure of faith which God hath imparted to each. ⁴ For as in one body we have many members, and the members have not all the same office, ⁵ so we, though many, form one body in Christ, and each of us is a member of it in common with the rest. ⁶ Having then gifts which differ according to the grace which hath been bestowed upon us, if we have prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; ⁷ or if service, let us attend to the service; he that teacheth, let him attend to teaching; ⁸ or he that exhorteth, to exhortation; he that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that presideth over others, with diligence; he that doeth deeds of mercy, with cheerfulness. ⁹ Let your love be unfeigned. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. ¹⁰ In brotherly love, be affectionate to one another; in honor, give each other the preference. ¹¹ Be not backward in zeal; be fervent in spirit; serving the Lord. ¹² Rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; persevere in prayer. ¹³ Relieve the wants of the holy; be given to hospitality. ¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless, and curse not. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Be of one mind among yourselves. Set not your minds on high things, but content yourselves with what is humble. Be not wise in your own conceits. ¹⁷ Render to no one evil for evil; have regard to what is honorable in the sight of all men. ¹⁸ If it be possible, as far as dependeth on you, be at peace with all men. ¹⁹ Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather make room for wrath; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." ²⁰ Therefore, "if thy enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink. For in so doing thou wilt heap coals of fire on his head." ²¹ Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

¹ Let every one submit to the authorities that are over him; for there is no authority which is not from God: and the authorities which exist have been ordained by God. ² He therefore that setteth himself against the authority resisteth what God hath ordained; and they who resist will bring upon themselves judgment. ³ For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wouldst thou then not be afraid of the government? Do that which is good, and thou wilt have praise from it; ⁴ for the ruler is God's servant to thee for good. But if thou doest evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is God's servant, an avenger to inflict wrath upon him that doeth evil. ⁵ It is necessary therefore to submit, not only because of the wrath, but also for your conscience' sake. ⁶ For the same reason pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God, attending continually to this very business. ⁷ Render to all what is due to them; tribute, to whom tribute is due; custom, to whom custom; fear, to whom fear; honor, to whom honor. ⁸ Owe no one anything but brotherly love; for he that loveth others hath fulfilled the Law. ⁹ For these, "Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet," and every other commandment, are summed up in this precept, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." ¹⁰ Love worketh no ill to one's neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the Law. ¹¹ And this, since we know the time, that it is already high time for us to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we became believers. ¹² The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us then throw off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us walk becomingly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in lewdness and wantonness, not in strife and envy; ¹⁴ but clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and think not about satisfying the lusts of the flesh.

¹ Him that is weak in his faith receive with kindness, and not to pass judgment on his thoughts. ² One man hath faith to eat every kind of food; another, who is weak, eateth herbs only. ³ Let not him who eateth, despise him that eateth not; and let not him who eateth not, judge him that eateth; for God hath received him. ⁴ Who art thou that judgest the servant of another? To his own lord he standeth or falleth; and he shall be made to stand; for the Lord is able to make him stand. ⁵ One man esteemeth one day above another; another esteemeth every day alike: let each one be fully persuaded in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it to the Lord; ⁶ and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. And he that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth thanks to God; and he that doth not eat, to the Lord he doth not eat, and giveth thanks to God. ⁷ For none of us liveth to himself, and no one dieth to himself. ⁸ For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Whether then we live or die, we are the Lord's. ⁹ For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living. ¹⁰ But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? And thou, too, why dost thou despise thy brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God. ¹¹ For it is written, "As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall give praise to God." ¹² So then every one of us will give account of himself to God. ¹³ Let us then no longer judge one another; but let this rather be your judgment, not to put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall, in a brother's way. ¹⁴ I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself; but to him that accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. ¹⁵ For if on account of food thy brother is made to mourn, thou art no longer walking according to love. Do not with thy food destroy him for whom Christ died. ¹⁶ Let not then the blessing which ye enjoy be evil spoken of. ¹⁷ For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit; ¹⁸ for he who in this matter serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved by men. ¹⁹ Let us then strive to promote peace, and the edification of each other. ²⁰ Do not for the sake of food undo the work of God. All things indeed are clean; but that which is pure is evil for that man who eateth so as to be an occasion of sin. ²¹ It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is put in danger of falling, or is made weak. ²² Thou hast faith; have it to thyself before God. Happy is he who doth not condemn himself in that which he alloweth. ²³ But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he doeth it not from faith; but every thing which is not from faith is sin.

to them in temporal things. ²⁸ When therefore I have completed this business, and secured to them this fruit, I shall set out to pass through you to Spain. ²⁹ And I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ. ³⁰ But I beseech you, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love produced by the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in prayers to God for me; ³¹ that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judaea, and that my service for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the saints; ³² so that, through the will of God, I may come to you in joy, and may with you be refreshed. ³³ And may the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

¹ I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a deaconess of the church at Cenchreae; ² that ye may receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the holy, and assist her in whatever business she may need your aid; for she hath been a helper of many, and of myself also. ³ Salute Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-laborers in Christ Jesus; ⁴ who for my life laid down their own necks; to whom not I alone give thanks, but also all the churches of the gentiles; ⁵ salute also the church that is in their house. Salute Epænetus, my beloved, who is the first fruit gathered from Asia for Christ. ⁶ Salute Mary, who labored much for us. ⁷ Salute Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. ⁸ Salute Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. ⁹ Salute Urbanus, our fellow-laborer in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. ¹⁰ Salute Apelles, the approved in Christ. Salute those who belong to the family of Aristobulus. ¹¹ Salute Herodion, my kinsman. Salute those of the family of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. ¹² Salute Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. ¹³ Salute Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who is mine also. ¹⁴ Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren that are with them. ¹⁵ Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. ¹⁶ Salute each other with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you. ¹⁷ But I exhort your brethren, to mark those who are causing divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye learned; and avoid them. ¹⁸ For such men are not servants of our Lord Christ, but of their own appetites; and by good words and fair speeches they deceive the hearts of the simple. ¹⁹ For your obedience hath become known to all. Over you, then, I rejoice; but I would have you wise as to that which is good, and simple as to that which is evil. ²⁰ And the God of peace will soon beat down Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²¹ Timothy, my fellow-laborer, salutes you, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater my kinsmen. ²² I Tertius, who wrote this letter, salute you in the Lord. ²³ Gaius my host, and the host of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the treasurer of the city saluteth you, and Quartus, the brother. ²⁴ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. ²⁵ Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which for eternal ages was unrevealed, ²⁶ but is now made manifest, and through the writings of the prophets, by the command of the everlasting God, is made known to all the nations to bring them to obedience to the faith,— ²⁷ to God, the only wise, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory for ever! Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

¹ Paul, a called apostle of Christ Jesus, through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, ² to the church of God which is at Corinth, the sanctified in Christ Jesus, called, holy, with all that in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours; ³ grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I ever thank my God for you, on account of the grace of God bestowed upon you in Christ Jesus; ⁵ that in him ye were enriched in everything, in all utterance, and all knowledge, ⁶ as the testimony of Christ was established among you; ⁷ so that ye come behind in no gift, while waiting for the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ⁸ who will also make you steadfast to the end, so that ye may be without blame in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful, by whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. ¹⁰ But I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly united in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹ For I have been informed concerning you, my brethren, by those of the family of Chloe, that there are dissensions among you. ¹² What I mean is this, that each of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. ¹³ Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were ye baptized the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; ¹⁵ that no one may say that ye were baptized into my name. ¹⁶ And I baptized also the household of Stephanas; I am not aware that I baptized any one besides. ¹⁷ For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel; not with wisdom of speech, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect. ¹⁸ For the preaching of the cross is to those who are perishing, foolishness, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nought the discernment of the discerning." ²⁰ Where is the wise man? Where the scribe? Where the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world by its wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe; ²² since even Jews ask for signs, and the Greeks seek for wisdom; ²³ but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews a stumbling-block, and to gentiles foolishness, ²⁴ but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. ²⁶ For consider, brethren, who ye are that have been called; not many wise men after the fashion of the world, not many mighty, not many noble; ²⁷ but the foolish things of the world did God choose, to put to shame the wise; and the weak things of the world did God choose, to put to shame the things which are strong; ²⁸ and the mean things of the world, and the things which are despised, did God choose, the things which are not, to bring to nought things that are; ²⁹ that no flesh might glory before God. ³⁰ But from him it is that ye are in Christ Jesus, who from God was made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption; ³¹ that, according as it is written, "He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."

¹ And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. ² For I determined not to know anything while with you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ³ And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling; ⁴ and my speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power; ⁵ that your faith might not rest on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God. ⁶ But we do speak wisdom among the perfect; not, however, the wisdom of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nought; ⁷ but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God determined on before the world was, for our glory; ⁸ which none of the rulers of this world comprehended; for had they comprehended it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory; ⁹ but, as it is written: "The things which eye hath not seen, and ear hath not heard, and which have not entered into the heart of man, the great things which God hath prepared for those that love him." ¹⁰ For God hath revealed them to us by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, even the depths of God. ¹¹ For who among men knoweth the things of a man, but the spirit of the man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no one but the Spirit of God. ¹² But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that have been given to us by the grace of God; ¹³ which things we also speak, not in words taught by man's wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, connecting what is spiritual with what is spiritual. ¹⁴ But the unspiritual man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them; because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵ But he that is spiritual judgeth of all things, yet he himself is judged by no one. ¹⁶ For "who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

¹ I also, brethren, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual men, but as those who are not spiritual, as to babes in Christ. ² I fed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it. Nor indeed are ye able even now; ³ for ye are yet unspiritual. For while there is among you rivalry and strife, are ye not unspiritual, and walking after the manner of men? ⁴ For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollos, are ye not [[like common]] men? ⁵ Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but ministers through whom ye believed, and that as the Lord gave to each? ⁶ I planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the growth. ⁷ So then, neither he that planteth nor he that watereth is anything, but God that giveth the growth. ⁸ And he that planteth and he that watereth are one; and each will receive his own reward, according to his own labor. ⁹ For we are God's fellow-laborers; ye are God's field, ye are God's building. ¹⁰ According to the grace of God bestowed on me, I, as a skilful master-builder, have laid the foundation; and another buildeth thereon; but let every one take heed, how he buildeth thereon. ¹¹ For other foundation can no one lay than that which is laid, which is Christ Jesus. ¹² But if any one build upon this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble, ¹³ the work of every one will be made manifest; for the day will show it; because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will prove what every one's work is. ¹⁴ If the work which any one built thereon remaineth, he will receive reward; ¹⁵ if any one's work shall be burned up, he will lose the reward; but he will be saved himself, yet as one escaping through fire. ¹⁶ Know ye not, that ye are God's temple, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? ¹⁷ If any one defaceth the temple of God, God will deface him; for the temple of God is holy, and such are ye. ¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself; if any one thinketh himself wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God; for it is written: "He that taketh the wise in their craftiness;" ²⁰ and again: "The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain." ²¹ So then let no one glory in men. For all things are yours; ²² whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come,—all are yours; ²³ and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

become as the filth of the world, the off-scouring of all things until now. ¹⁴ I write not these things to shame you, but I am warning you as my beloved children. ¹⁵ For though ye have ten thousand teachers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I begot you through the gospel. ¹⁶ I exhort you therefore, be ye imitators of me. ¹⁷ For this end I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved child, and faithful in the Lord, who will put you in mind of my ways in Christ, according as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸ Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I shall come to you shortly, if it be the Lord's will, and will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power; ²⁰ for the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. ²¹ What will ye? Am I to come to you with a rod, or in love, and the spirit of mildness?

¹ It is everywhere reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. ² And ye are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, so that he that committed this deed might be separated from among you. ³ For I, for my part, though absent in the body, yet present in the spirit have already determined, as if I were present with you, respecting him who thus wrought this deed, ⁴ in the name of our Lord Jesus, when you and my spirit with you are assembled together, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵ to deliver such a man over to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. ⁶ Your glorying is not good. Know ye not, that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? ⁷ Cleanse out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened; for our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ. ⁸ So then let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. ⁹ I wrote to you in that letter, not to keep company with fornicators; ¹⁰ certainly not meaning the fornicators of this world, or the covetous and extortioners, or idolaters; for to do this ye must go out of the world. ¹¹ But this is what I wrote you, not to keep company with any one called a brother, if he be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one not even to eat. ¹² For what have I to do with judging those who are without? Do not ye judge those who are within? ¹³ But those who are without, God will judge. Do ye put away that bad man from among yourselves.

wise man among you, not one that will be able to judge between his brethren? ⁶ Nay, brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers. ⁷ Now therefore it is altogether an evil among you, that ye have suits against each other. Why do ye not rather submit to wrong? Why do ye not rather allow yourselves to be defrauded? ⁸ But ye yourselves wrong, and defraud, and that too your brethren. ⁹ Know ye not, that wrongdoers shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor the effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ And such were some of you; but ye were washed, but ye were made holy, but ye were accepted as righteous in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God. ¹² All things are lawful for me, but all things are not profitable; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of anything. ¹³ Meats are for the stomach, and the stomach for meats; but God will make an end of both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body; ¹⁴ and God both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his power. ¹⁵ Know ye not, that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? God forbid! ¹⁶ Know ye not, that he who is connected with a harlot is one body with her? "For the two," saith he, "shall become one flesh;" ¹⁷ but he that is connected with the Lord is one spirit with him. ¹⁸ Flee fornication. Every other sin which a man may commit, is apart from the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body. ¹⁹ Know ye not, that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God, and that ye are not your own? ²⁰ For ye were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.

be satisfied to dwell with him, let him not put her away; ¹³ and if a wife hath an unbelieving husband, and he be satisfied to dwell with her, let her not put her husband away. ¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband hath been made holy by his wife, and the unbelieving wife hath been made holy by the brother; otherwise were your children unclean, but, as it is, they are holy. ¹⁵ But if the unbelieving separateth himself, let him separate himself; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God hath called you to be in peace. ¹⁶ For how dost thou know, O wife, but that thou mayst save thy husband? or how dost thou know, O husband, but that thou mayst save thy wife? ¹⁷ But let every one continue to walk in the lot which the Lord appointed him, in the condition in which God called him. And this direction I give in all the churches. ¹⁸ Was any one called being circumcised, let him not become as if uncircumcised; hath any one been called in uncircumcision, let him not become circumcised. ¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. ²⁰ Let every one remain in the same calling in which he was called. ²¹ Wast thou called being a slave, care not for it; but even if thou canst be made free, use it rather. ²² For he that was called in the Lord, being a slave, is the Lord's freeman. In like manner the freeman, who is called, is Christ's slave. ²³ Ye were bought with a price; become not the slaves of men. ²⁴ In that state, brethren, in which he was called, let every one remain with God. ²⁵ Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord; but I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. ²⁶ I think, then, that it is well, on account of the impending distress, for a man to remain as he is. ²⁷ Art thou bound to a wife, seek not to be loosed from her; art thou loosed from a wife, do not seek for one. ²⁸ But if thou hast married, thou hast committed no sin; and if a virgin hath married, she hath committed no sin. Such, however, will have trouble in the flesh, which I desire to spare you. ²⁹ But this I say, brethren, the time that remaineth is short; that both they that have wives may be as though they had none; ³⁰ and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; ³¹ and they that use this world as not abusing it; for the outward condition of this world is passing away; ³² and I would have you free from anxious cares. He that is unmarried careth about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; ³³ but he that is married careth about the things of the world, how to please his wife. ³⁴ There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin; the unmarried woman careth about the things of the Lord, to be holy, both in body and in spirit; but she that is married careth about the things of the world, how to please her husband. ³⁵ And this I say for your own profit; not to cast a noose over you, but with a view to what is becoming, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. ³⁶ But if any one thinketh that he behaveth improperly in respect to his virgin [[daughter]], if she pass the flower of her age [[without being married]], and if it must be so, let him do what he will, he committeth no sin; let them marry. ³⁷ But if any one is settled in his purpose, and is under no necessity, but is free to act as he will, and hath determined in his heart to keep his own virgin daughter [[unmarried]], he doeth well. ³⁸ So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; and he that doth not give her in marriage doeth better. ³⁹ The wife is bound to her husband as long as he liveth; but if her husband die, she is free to marry whom she will, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰ But she is happier if she remain as she is, in my opinion; and I too think that I have the Spirit of God.

¹ Now concerning the things offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth; ² if any one think that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing yet, as he ought to know; ³ but if any one love God, the same is known by Him. ⁴ Concerning the eating of the things offered in sacrifice to idols, then, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one. ⁵ For though there are those that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; ⁶ yet to us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we to him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him. ⁷ But there is not in all men this knowledge; for some, with a conscience directed toward the idol even now, eat of it as a thing offered in sacrifice to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸ But food will not recommend us to God; if we do not eat, we are not the worse; nor if we do eat, are we the better. ⁹ But take heed, lest this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to the weak. ¹⁰ For if any one see thee, who hast knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him that is weak be emboldened to eat the things offered to idols? ¹¹ For through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth,—the brother for whom Christ died! ¹² But when ye so sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. ¹³ Wherefore, if food cause my brother to fall, I will eat no flesh for ever, lest I cause my brother to fall. Am I not free?

¹ Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not ye my work in the Lord? ² If I am not an apostle to others, yet surely I am to you; for the seal of my apostleship are ye in the Lord. ³ This is my answer to those who question my authority. ⁴ Have we not a right to eat and drink? ⁵ Have we not a right to carry about with us a sister as a wife, as well as the other apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? ⁶ Or am I alone and Barnabas bound to labor with our own hands? ⁷ Who ever serveth as a soldier at his own charges? Who planteth a vineyard without eating its fruit? Or who tendeth a flock and doth not eat of the milk of the flock? ⁸ Is it on man's authority that I am saying these things, or doth not the Law too say the same? ⁹ For it is written in the law of Moses: "Thou shalt not muzzle an ox while treading out grain." Is it for oxen that God careth? ¹⁰ Or doth he say it altogether on our account? On our account, no doubt, it was written, that he who plougheth ought to plough in hope, and that he who thrasheth should do it in the hope of partaking. ¹¹ If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap from you things for the body? ¹² If others possess this right in relation to you, do not we still more? But we have not used this right; but we submit to all things, that we may occasion no hindrance to the gospel of Christ. ¹³ Do ye not know, that they who minister in the offerings of the temple live from the temple? that they who serve at the altar share with the altar? ¹⁴ In like manner also did the Lord ordain that they who preach the gospel should live from the gospel. ¹⁵ But I have used no right of this kind; nor have I written thus that anything of this kind should be done for me; for it were better for me to die, than that any one should take from me what I glory in. ¹⁶ For in preaching the gospel, I have nothing to glory in; for I am under a necessity to do so; yea, woe is to me, if I preach not the gospel! ¹⁷ For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, still I have been intrusted with a stewardship. ¹⁸ What then is my reward? It is that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel free of charge, that I use not to the full my right as a preacher of the gospel. ¹⁹ For being free from all men, yet I made myself a servant to all, that I might gain the more; ²⁰ and to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under the Law, as under the Law, not being myself under the Law, that I might gain those under the Law; ²¹ to those without the Law, as without the Law, being not without a law before God, but under the law of Christ, that I might gain those without the Law; ²² to the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; I have become all things to all, that I might by all means save some. ²³ And I do all for the sake of the gospel, that I may with others partake of it. ²⁴ Know ye not, that of those who run in the race-course all run, but one receiveth the prize? Thus run, that ye may obtain. ²⁵ And every one who contendeth in the games is temperate in all things; they, however, to obtain a perishable crown, but we, an imperishable. ²⁶ I therefore so run, not as one uncertain; I so fight, not as one striking the air; ²⁷ but I beat down my body, and bring it into subjection, lest perhaps, when I have been a herald to others, I should myself be rejected as unworthy.

¹ For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, ² and were all baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea, ³ and all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank of the spiritual rock that accompanied them; and the rock was Christ; ⁵ but with most of them God was not well pleased; for they were laid low in the wilderness. ⁶ Now these things were warnings for us, in order that we should not lust after evil things, as they lusted. ⁷ And do not ye become idolaters, as some of them did; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to sport." ⁸ Nor let us commit fornication, as some of them did, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. ⁹ Nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed by the serpents. ¹⁰ And do not ye murmur, as some of them murmured, and perished by the Destroyer. ¹¹ Now these things happened to them as warnings, and were recorded for our admonition, to whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹² Wherefore let him that

thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall. ¹³ No temptation hath come upon you, but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted beyond what ye are able to endure, but will with the temptation furnish also the way to escape, that ye may be able to endure it. ¹⁴ Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I speak as to wise men, judge ye what I say. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a partaking of the blood of Christ? the loaf which we break, is it not a partaking of the body of Christ? ¹⁷ For we, the many, are one loaf, one body; for we all share in that one loaf. ¹⁸ Look at Israel by natural descent. Have not those who eat of the sacrifices, communion with the altar? ¹⁹ What do I say then? That what is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? Or that an idol is anything? ²⁰ Nay, but that what they sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I would not that ye should have communion with demons. ²¹ Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and the table of demons. ²² Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? ²³ All things are lawful, but all things are not profitable; all things are lawful, but all things are not edifying. ²⁴ Let no one seek his own pleasure, but the good of others. ²⁵ Whatever is sold in the market that eat, without asking questions for the sake of conscience; ²⁶ for "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof." ²⁷ And if one who is an unbeliever inviteth you to a feast, and ye choose to go, eat whatever is set before you, without asking any questions for the sake of conscience. ²⁸ But if any one say to you, This hath been offered in sacrifice to an idol, do not eat of it, on account of him that showed you this, and from a regard to conscience; ²⁹ conscience I mean, not thine own, but that of the other. For why is my liberty to be judged by another conscience [[than my own]]? ³⁰ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I to be evil spoken of in a matter for which I give thanks? ³¹ Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatever ye do, do all to the glory of God. ³² Give no occasion of stumbling either to Jews or Greeks, or to the church of God; ³³ as I also strive to please all in all things, not seeking my own advantage, but that of the many; that they may be saved.

¹ Follow my example, as I do that of Christ. ² Now I praise you, brethren, that in all things ye remember me, and hold fast the instructions, as I delivered them to you. ³ But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man that prayeth or prophesieth having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. ⁵ But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if her head were shaved. ⁶ For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn; but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. ⁷ For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man; ⁸ for the man is not from the woman, but the woman from the man; ⁹ and the man was not created for the woman, but the woman for the man. ¹⁰ For this cause the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹ But neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. ¹² For as the woman is from the man, so also is the man by the woman; but all things from God. ¹³ Judge in your own selves; is it comely that a woman pray to God uncovered? ¹⁴ Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame to him, ¹⁵ but that if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her? for her hair is given for a covering. ¹⁶ But if any one seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor the churches of God. ¹⁷ But I give you this charge, not praising you, because ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. ¹⁸ For in the first place, when ye come together in assembly of the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it; ¹⁹ for there must be also parties among you, that they who are approved may also become manifest among you. ²⁰ When ye come together then in the same place, there is no eating of the Lord's supper. ²¹ For, when ye eat, every one taketh before any distribution his own supper, and one is hungry, and another is drunken. ²² What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise ye the church of God, and shame those who have nothing? What am I to say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you. ²³ For I received of the Lord, what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took a loaf, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, This is my body, which is for you; this do in remembrance of me. ²⁵ In like manner also the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new covenant, in my blood; this do, as oft as ye drink, in remembrance of me. ²⁶ For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye show forth the Lord's death, till he come. ²⁷ So that whoever eateth the bread or drinketh the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty with respect to the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸ But let a man examine himself, and thus let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup; ²⁹ for he that eateth and drinketh eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, if he do not discern the body. ³⁰ For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and some are falling asleep. ³¹ But if we judged ourselves, we should not be judged; ³² but when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. ³³ Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴ If any one hunger, let him eat at home; that ye may not come together to condemnation. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

¹ Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. ² Ye know, that when ye were gentiles, ye were carried away to dumb idols, as ye happened to be led; ³ wherefore I give you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God saith, Accursed be Jesus; and that no one can say, Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Spirit. ⁴ Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵ and there are diversities of services, but the same Lord; ⁶ and there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all things in all.

¹ Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. ² And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. ³ And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give up my body that I may be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing. ⁴ Love suffereth long, is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not herself, is not puffed up, ⁵ doth not behave herself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, maketh no account of an injury, ⁶ rejoiceth not at iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth, ⁷ beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. ⁸ Love never faileth; but whether there are prophesyings, they will come to an end; whether tongues, they will cease; whether knowledge, it will be done away. ⁹ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; ¹⁰ but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part will be done away. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I had the feelings of a child, I thought as a child; since I have become a man, I have put away the things of the child. ¹² For now we see in a mirror, obscurely; but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall fully know even as I also am fully known. ¹³ And now there abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

¹ Strive to possess love; and desire earnestly the spiritual gifts, but especially that of prophesying. ² For he that speaketh in an [[unknown]] tongue speaketh not to men, but to God; for no one heareth; but in the Spirit he speaketh mysteries; ³ but he that prophesieth speaketh to men edification, and exhortation, and comfort. ⁴ He that speaketh in an [[unknown]] tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. ⁵ I would that ye all spoke with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied; for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, unless he interpret, that the church may receive edification. ⁶ But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching? ⁷ And even things without life that give sound, whether pipe or harp, if they make no distinction in the sounds, how shall that be known which is piped or harped? ⁸ For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for the battle? ⁹ So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall that be known which is spoken? For ye will be speaking into the air. ¹⁰ There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and not one is without meaning. ¹¹ If then I know not the meaning of the language, I shall be to him that speaketh a foreigner, and he that speaketh a foreigner to me. ¹² So also ye, since ye are eager to possess spiritual gifts, be earnest to abound in them to the edification of the church. ¹³ Wherefore let him that speaketh in an [[unknown]] tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in an [[unknown]] tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ How stands it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. ¹⁶ Else, if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the place of the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, since he understandeth not what thou art saying? ¹⁷ For thou indeed givest thanks well; but the other is not edified. ¹⁸ I thank God, I speak in an [[unknown]] tongue more than ye all; ¹⁹ yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might also instruct others, than ten thousand words in an [[unknown]] tongue. ²⁰ Brethren, do not become children in understanding; yet in malice be children, but in understanding be men. ²¹ In the Law it is written: "With men of other tongues and with other lips will I speak to this people, ²² and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord." Wherefore the tongues are for a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers, but for believers. ²³ If therefore the whole church be assembled in one place, and all be speaking with tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? ²⁴ But if all prophesy, and there come in one that is an unbeliever, or unlearned, he is convinced by all, he is searched through by all, ²⁵ the secrets of his heart become manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is indeed within you. ²⁶ How is it then, brethren? When ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a lesson of instruction, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation; let all things be done for edification. ²⁷ If any one speak in an [[unknown]] tongue, let it be by two, or, at the most, by three, and in turn; and let one interpret. ²⁸ But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. ²⁹ And of the prophets let two or three speak, and let the others judge; ³⁰ if anything be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first speaker be silent. ³¹ For one by one ye can all prophesy, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. ³² And spirits of prophets are subject to prophets; ³³ for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴ let your women keep silence in the churches; for it is not permitted them to speak, but they are to be in subjection, as also saith the Law. ³⁵ And if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is a shame for a woman to speak in the church. ³⁶ What! Did the word of God come forth from you? Or did it come to you alone? ³⁷ If any one thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him know surely that the directions I am writing to you are the Lord's; ³⁸ but if any one be ignorant, let him be ignorant! ³⁹ Wherefore, brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues; ⁴⁰ but let all things be done becomingly, and in order.

¹ Moreover, brethren, I declare anew to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also ye received, and wherein ye stand, ² by which also ye are saved, if ye hold fast the same word which I preached to you, unless ye believed in vain. ³ For I delivered to you first of all what I also received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures; ⁴ and that he was buried, and that he hath risen on the third day, according to the Scriptures; ⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶ After that, he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷ After that, he appeared to James; then to all the apostles. ⁸ And last of all, as to one born out of due time, he appeared also to me. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, one not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain, but I labored more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. ¹¹ Whether, then, it were I or they, thus we preach, and thus ye believed. ¹² But if Christ be preached that he hath risen from the dead, how is it that some among you say, that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then Christ hath not risen; ¹⁴ and if Christ hath not risen, then is our preaching vain, and vain also is your faith. ¹⁵ And we are also found false witnesses concerning God; because we testified concerning God that he raised up Christ, whom he did not raise up, if so be that the dead rise not. ¹⁶ For if the dead rise not, then Christ hath not risen; ¹⁷ and if Christ hath not risen, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins; ¹⁸ then also they that have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹ If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. ²⁰ But now hath Christ risen from the dead, the first-fruits of them that have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since through man came death, through man came also the resurrection of the dead. ²² For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ will all be made alive. ²³ But every one in his own order; Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming. ²⁴ Then will be the end, when he delivereth up the kingdom to God, the Father, when he shall have destroyed all dominion, and all authority, and power. ²⁵ For he must reign, "till he hath put all enemies under his feet." ²⁶ The last enemy, death, will be destroyed; ²⁷ for "he put all things under his feet." But when it is said that all things have been put under him, it is manifest that he who put all things under him is excepted. ²⁸ And when all things have been put under him, then will also the Son himself become subject to him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. ²⁹ If it be not so, what are they doing, who are baptized for the dead? If the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for them? ³⁰ Why also do we stand in peril every hour? ³¹ I protest, brethren, by my glorying in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, that I die daily. ³² If with the views of men I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead rise not, "let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die." ³³ Be not deceived; "evil communications corrupt good manners." ³⁴ Awake, as is your duty, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God; I say it to your shame. ³⁵ But some one will say, How are the dead to rise? and with what body do they come? ³⁶ Fool! that which thou sowest is not brought to life unless it die; ³⁷ and what thou sowest, not the body that shall be dost thou sow, but a bare grain, of wheat perhaps, or of some of the other grains; ³⁸ but God giveth it a body, as he willed, and to every seed its own body. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one flesh of men, another of beasts, another of birds, another of fishes. ⁴⁰ There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies; but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another. ⁴¹ There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. ⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; ⁴³ it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; ⁴⁴ it is sown an animal body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is an animal body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ Thus is it also written: "The first man Adam became a living soul;" the last Adam a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ But the spiritual is not first, but the animal; and afterward the spiritual. ⁴⁷ The first man is from the earth, earthy; the second man is from heaven. ⁴⁸ As was the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly; ⁴⁹ and as we bore the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. ⁵⁰ And this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor doth corruption inherit incorruption. ⁵¹ Behold, I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed, ⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. ⁵³ For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴ So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then will be brought to pass that which is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." ⁵⁵ "Where, O death, is thy sting? Where, O death, is thy victory?" ⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the Law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸ Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, since ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

¹ Now concerning the collection for the saints, according to the directions which I gave to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. ² Every first day of the week let each of you lay by him something in store, according as he hath prospered; that the collections may not have to be made when I come. ³ And when I am with you, I will send with letters whomever you may approve to carry your bounty to Jerusalem; ⁴ and if it be worth while for me to go also, they shall go with me. ⁵ Now I will come to you, when I have passed through Macedonia; for I am about to pass through Macedonia; ⁶ and perhaps I may remain, or even spend the winter with you, that ye may set me forward on my journey whithersoever I may be going. ⁷ For I am unwilling to see you now in passing; for I hope to stay some time with you if the Lord permit. ⁸ But I shall remain at Ephesus until the Pentecost; ⁹ for a door hath been opened to me great and effective, and there are many adversaries. ¹⁰ Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he is laboring in the work of the Lord, as I am; ¹¹ let no one therefore despise him. But conduct him on in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren. ¹² As regards Apollos, the brother, I urged him much to come to you with the brethren; and it was not at all his will to come at this time; but he will come when he hath a convenient opportunity. ¹³ Watch, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong; ¹⁴ let all your doings be in love. ¹⁵ And I exhort you, brethren,—ye know the family of Stephanas, that they are the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the service of the holy,— ¹⁶ that ye submit yourselves to such as they are, and to every one that worketh with us, and laboreth. ¹⁷ I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus; for what was lacking on your part, they supplied; ¹⁸ for they refreshed my spirit and yours. Pay regard then to those that are such. ¹⁹ The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Prisca, with the church that is in their house, send you many salutations in the Lord. ²⁰ All the brethren salute you. Salute one another with a holy kiss. ²¹ The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand. ²² If any one loveth not the Lord, let him be accursed! The Lord is at hand. ²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. ²⁴ My love is with you all in Christ Jesus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy the brother, to the church of God which is in Corinth, with all the holy who are in all Achaia: ² Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Fathers and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, ⁴ who comforteth us in all our distress, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any distress by the comfort wherewith we are ourselves comforted by God; ⁵ for as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so through Christ doth our comfort also overflow. ⁶ And whether we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation, which showeth its power in enabling you to bear patiently the same sufferings which we also endure; and our hope is steadfast in your behalf; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation, ⁷ knowing that as ye are sharers in the sufferings, so also ye will be sharers in the comfort. ⁸ For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our distress which came upon us in Asia, that it was exceedingly heavy upon us beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life; ⁹ yea, we ourselves had within ourselves the sentence of death, that we might not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead; ¹⁰ who delivered us from such peril of death, and is delivering; in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us, ¹¹ you also unitedly helping us by prayer, so that for this blessing bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many on your behalf. ¹² For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and the sincerity which is of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you. ¹³ For we write no other things to you, than what ye read or even acknowledge. And I trust ye will acknowledge even to the end, ¹⁴ as also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your glorying, as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁵ And in this confidence it was my purpose to come to you before, that ye might receive a second benefit; ¹⁶ and to go by way of you into Macedonia, and from Macedonia to come again to you, and by you to be forwarded on my way to Judaea. ¹⁷ Having, then, this purpose, did I act with levity? Or in my purposes do I resolve according to the flesh, that with me there should be now yea, yea, and now nay, nay? ¹⁸ But as God is faithful, our word to you is not yea and nay. ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us, by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not found yea and nay, but in him hath been found yea. ²⁰ For as to all the promises of God, in him is yea, and in him amen, to the glory of God through us. ²¹ Now he who maketh us with you steadfast in Christ, and anointed us, is God; ²² he who also sealed us, and gave the Spirit as a pledge in our hearts. ²³ But I call upon God as a witness against my soul, that it was to spare you that I came no more to Corinth; ²⁴ not that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy. For in respect to faith ye stand firm.

¹ But I determined this with myself, that my next visit to you should not be in sorrow. ² For if I make you sorrowful, who is there to make me glad but he that is made sorrowful by me? ³ And I wrote about this very matter, that I might not on my coming have sorrow from those who ought to gladden me, having confidence in all of you, that my joy is the joy of you all. ⁴ For out of much distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that ye should be made sorrowful, but that ye might know the exceeding love which I have for you. ⁵ But if any one hath caused grief, he hath caused it not to me alone, but in a measure, not to be too severe on him, to all of you. ⁶ Sufficient for such a one is this punishment, which was inflicted by the many; ⁷ so that on the contrary ye ought rather to forgive, and console him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. ⁸ Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. ⁹ For to this end also I wrote, that I might know by putting it to the proof, whether ye are obedient in all things. ¹⁰ But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also; for what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes I forgave it in the person of Christ, ¹¹ that Satan might not gain an advantage over us; for we are not ignorant of his devices. ¹² Now when I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, and a door had been opened to me by the Lord, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went forth into Macedonia. ¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always exhibiteth us in triumph in Christ, and manifesteth through us the odor of the knowledge of him in every place. ¹⁵ For we are to God a sweet odor of Christ among those who are being saved, and those who are perishing; ¹⁶ to the latter we are the odor of death, producing death; and to the former the odor of life, producing life. And who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not as the many, who adulterate the word of God; but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

¹ Are we beginning again to recommend ourselves? Or do we need, like some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you? ² Ye are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; ³ since ye are manifestly shown to be a letter of Christ by means of our service, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tablets of stone, but on fleshly tablets of the heart. ⁴ And such confidence as this have we through Christ toward God; ⁵ not that we are able of ourselves to think anything, as from ourselves; but our ability is from God; ⁶ who also gave us ability to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. ⁷ But if the ministration of death, engraven in letters on stones, was so glorious, that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses by reason of the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away, ⁸ shall not the ministration of the Spirit be much more glorious? ⁹ For if the ministration of condemnation had glory, much greater is the glory of the ministration of righteousness. ¹⁰ For even that which was made glorious hath ceased to be glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory by which it is exceeded. ¹¹ For if that which was to be done away was glorious, much more glorious is that which endureth. ¹² Having therefore such hope, we use great plainness of speech; ¹³ and do not as Moses did, who put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel might not steadfastly look on the end of that which was to be done away. ¹⁴ But their understandings were blinded; for until this day, when the old covenant is read, the same veil remaineth, since it is not unveiled to them that it is done away in Christ; ¹⁵ but even till this day, when Moses is read, there lieth a veil upon their heart; ¹⁶ but whenever it turneth to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. ¹⁸ But we all with unveiled face beholding in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, as by the Lord, the Spirit.

¹ Therefore, having this ministry through the mercy we received, we are not faint-hearted; ² but have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor adulterating the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. ³ But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to them that perish, ⁴ in whom the God of this world blinded the understandings of the unbelieving, so that they cannot behold the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵ For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves your bond-servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶ For it is God, who commanded light to shine out of darkness, that shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. ⁷ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not of us; ⁸ being troubled on every side, yet not distressed; perplexed, but not in despair; ⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰ always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. ¹¹ For we who live are continually delivered up to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. ¹² So then death worketh in us, but life in you. ¹³ But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke," we also believe, and therefore speak; ¹⁴ knowing that he who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise up us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. ¹⁵ For all things are for your sakes, that the grace abounding by means of the greater number may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. ¹⁶ For which cause we are not faint-hearted; but though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh out for us, in a higher and still higher degree, an everlasting weight of glory; ¹⁸ while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are but for a time; but the things which are not seen are ever lasting.

¹ For we know that, if our earthly tent-habitation be destroyed, we have a building provided by God, a house not made with hands, everlasting, in the heavens. ² For while in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven; ³ since, indeed, when we have put off our present garment, we shall not be found naked. ⁴ For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened; inasmuch as we do not desire to be unclothed, but to be clothed upon, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. ⁵ Now he that hath prepared us for this very thing is God; who also gave to us the Spirit as the pledge. ⁶ We have courage, therefore, always, and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; ⁷ for we walk by faith, not by sight; but we have courage, ⁸ and are well pleased rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. ⁹ Wherefore we also strive that, whether at home or absent, we may be approved by him. ¹⁰ For we must all be made manifest before the judgment-seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he did, whether good or bad. ¹¹ Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men; but to God we have been made manifest, and I hope have been made manifest in your consciences also. ¹² For we are not again commending ourselves to you, but giving you occasion to glory on our behalf; that ye may have somewhat to answer those who glory in outward appearance, and not in heart. ¹³ For whether we were beside ourselves, it was for God; or whether we are in our sound mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judged, that if one died for all, then all died; ¹⁵ and he died for all, that they who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who died for their sakes, and rose again. ¹⁶ So that we henceforth know no one according to the flesh; and if we have even known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know him. ¹⁷ Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. ¹⁸ And all things are from God, who reconciled us to himself by Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹ seeing that in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. ²⁰ We then are ambassadors for Christ; as though God were exhorting you by us, in behalf of Christ we entreat you, Be reconciled to God. ²¹ Him, who knew not sin, he made sin for us, that we might become God's righteousness in him.

¹ As fellow-workers, then, with him, we also exhort you that ye receive not the grace of God in vain; ² (for he saith: "In an accepted time I heard thee, and in the day of salvation I helped thee;" Behold, now is the accepted time, behold, now is the day of salvation;) ³ giving no occasion for stumbling in anything, that the ministry may not be blamed; ⁴ but as God's ministers recommending ourselves in all things, in much endurance, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, ⁵ in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; ⁶ in pureness, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned, ⁷ in the word of truth, in the power of God, by the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸ through honor and dishonor; through evil report and good report; as deceivers, and true; ⁹ as unknown, and well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; ¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and possessing all things. ¹¹ Our mouth is open to you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged. ¹² Ye have not a narrow place in my heart, but ye have a narrow place for me in yours. ¹³ So then in return, I speak to you as children, let your hearts be enlarged. ¹⁴ Be not strangely yoked with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? Or what communion hath light with darkness? ¹⁵ And what concord hath Christ with Beliar? Or what part hath a believer with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? For ye are the temple of the living God; as God said: "I will dwell among them, and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people." ¹⁷ "Wherefore come out from the midst of them, and be separated, saith the Lord, and touch not anything unclean;" "and I will receive you, ¹⁸ and will be to you a father, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

¹ Having then these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all pollution of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. ² Receive us into your hearts; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one. ³ I am not saying this to condemn you; for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die with you and to live with you. ⁴ Great is my confidence toward you, great is my glorying on your account; I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our trouble. ⁵ For indeed when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. ⁶ But God, that comforteth those who are brought low, comforted us by the coming of Titus; ⁷ and not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted in regard to you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal in my behalf; so that I rejoiced the more. ⁸ For though I caused you sorrow with the letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it; for I perceive that that letter caused you sorrow, though it was but for a short time. ⁹ Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorrowful, but that your sorrow produced repentance. For the sorrow which ye felt had respect to God, that ye might in nothing receive injury from me. ¹⁰ For sorrow before God worketh repentance to salvation never to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world worketh death. ¹¹ For behold this very thing, that your sorrow had respect to God; what earnestness it wrought in you; yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what readiness to punish! In every thing ye showed yourselves to be pure in the matter. ¹² Although, then, I wrote to you, it was not on account of him that did the wrong, nor of him who suffered wrong; but that your earnestness for us might be made manifest to you in the sight of God. ¹³ Therefore we have been comforted; but in our comfort we rejoiced still more on account of the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all; ¹⁴ for if in anything I have boasted to him of you, I am not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting, which we made before Titus, was found to be truth; ¹⁵ and his affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. ¹⁶ I rejoice that in every thing I have confidence in you.

¹ Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been bestowed in the churches of Macedonia; ² that under a great trial of distress the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty increased the riches of their liberality; ³ for according to their power, I bear witness, and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, ⁴ begging of us with much entreaty the favor of sharing in the ministration to the saints; ⁵ and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and to us by the will of God; ⁶ so that we urged Titus, that, as he had already made a beginning, so he would also finish among you this bounty also. ⁷ But as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this exercise of liberality also. ⁸ I speak not by way of command, but by reason of the earnestness of others, and to prove the genuineness of your love. ⁹ For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. ¹⁰ And I only give an opinion in this matter. For this is expedient for you, who began before others, not only to do, but also to be willing, a year ago. ¹¹ Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. ¹² For if there be first the willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man hath, not according to what he hath not. ¹³ For it is not that others may be eased, and you burdened, ¹⁴ but to make an equality; at the present season your abundance meeting their deficiency, that their abundance may at another time meet your deficiency; that there may be equality; ¹⁵ as it is written: "He that gathered much, had nothing over; and he that gathered little, had no lack." ¹⁶ But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus; ¹⁷ for he accepted indeed the exhortation; but being very earnest, he went of his own accord to you. ¹⁸ And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise in the gospel is throughout all the churches; ¹⁹ and not that only, but who was also appointed by the churches as our fellow-traveler in the matter of this bounty, which is administered by us to the honor of the Lord himself, and of our ready mind; ²⁰ since we are careful of this, that no one should blame us in our management of this abundant liberality; ²¹ for we take forethought for what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. ²² And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often in many things proved to be zealous, but now much more zealous through the great confidence which he hath in you. ²³ As to Titus, he is my partner and fellow-laborer for you; as to our brethren, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴ Display to them, therefore, before the churches, the proof of your love, and of what we have boasted on your behalf.

¹ For concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you. ² For I know your readiness of mind, of which I boast in behalf of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was prepared a year ago; and your zeal stirred up the greater part of them. ³ But I sent the brethren, that our boasting of you should not prove unfounded in this respect; that, as I said, ye may be prepared; ⁴ lest, should the Macedonians come with me, and find you unprepared, we (not to say ye) should be put to shame in respect to this confidence. ⁵ I thought it necessary therefore to exhort the brethren to go before to you, and make up beforehand your bounty, which was already announced, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of covetousness. ⁶ But this there is to say: He that soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth bountifully, shall reap also bountifully. ⁷ Each one, as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to make every blessing abound toward you, that ye, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work; ⁹ as it is written: "He dispersed abroad, he gave to the poor; his righteousness remaineth for ever." ¹⁰ Now, he that ministereth seed to the sower, and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; ¹¹ while ye are enriched in everything to all liberality, which worketh out through us thanksgiving to God; ¹² for the ministration of this service not only supplieth the wants of the saints, but also overfloweth through many thanksgivings to God; ¹³ while by the proof afforded by this ministration they glorify God for your obedience to your profession in regard to the gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution in regard to them and in regard to all; ¹⁴ while with supplication for you they long after you on account of the exceeding grace of God to you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

¹ Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I, who present indeed am lowly among you, but am bold toward you when absent; ² but I entreat you, that I may not when I am present be bold with that confidence wherewith I think of being bold towards some, who think of us as walking according to the flesh. ³ For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, ⁴ (for the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds,) ⁵ casting down reasonings, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing every purpose into captivity to the obedience of Christ, ⁶ and being in readiness to punish every disobedience, when the measure of your obedience shall be full. ⁷ Ye look at the outward appearance. If any one trusteth to himself that he belongeth to Christ, let him of himself consider this again, that as he belongeth to Christ, so also do we. ⁸ For even if I should boast still more highly of our authority, which the Lord gave us for building you up, and not pulling you down, I should not be put to shame; ⁹ that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. ¹⁰ For his letters, saith one, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. ¹¹ Let such a one count upon this, that such as we are in word by letters when absent, such will we be also in deed when present. ¹² For we do not venture to reckon ourselves among, or compare ourselves with, some of those who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are not wise. ¹³ But we will not boast of things that are without our measure, but according to the measure of the line which God allotted us,—a measure to reach even to you. ¹⁴ For we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not to you; (for as far as even to you did we come, in the gospel of Christ;) ¹⁵ not boasting of things that are without measure, in other men's labors, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that our line will through you be still further extended, ¹⁶ so that we may preach the gospel in the regions beyond you; not boasting, in another's line, of things made ready to our hand. ¹⁷ But "he that boasteth, let him boast in the Lord." ¹⁸ For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but he whom the Lord commendeth.

not be stopped in regard to me in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Wherefore? Because I love you not? God knoweth! ¹² But what I do, that I will continue to do, that I may cut off occasion from those who wish for an occasion, in order that in the matter of which they boast they may be found even as we. ¹³ For such are false apostles, deceitful workmen, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And no wonder; for even Satan transformeth himself into an angel of light. ¹⁵ It is no great thing, then, if his ministers also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. ¹⁶ I say again, let no one suppose me a fool; if otherwise, yet even as a fool receive me, that I too may boast myself a little. ¹⁷ What I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as it were in folly, in this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸ Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will boast also. ¹⁹ For ye bear with fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise; ²⁰ for ye bear with it, if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one smites you on the face. ²¹ I say it to my reproach, that we were weak; but in whatever any one is bold, (I speak in folly,) I am bold also. ²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abram's offspring? So am I. ²³ Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as beside myself,) I am more; in labors more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often; ²⁴ of the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one; ²⁵ thrice I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have spent in the deep; ²⁶ by journeyings often; by perils of rivers, by perils of robbers, by perils from my countrymen, by perils from the heathen, by perils in the city, by perils in the wilderness, by perils in the sea, by perils among false brethren; ²⁷ by weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. ²⁸ Besides the other troubles, there is that which presseth upon me daily, the anxiety for all the churches. ²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is in danger of stumbling, and I do not burn? ³⁰ If I must boast, I will boast of the things which belong to my weakness. ³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I am not lying. ³² In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept guard over the city of the Damascenes, in order to apprehend me; ³³ and through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

¹ It is indeed not expedient for me to boast; I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. ² I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago,—whether in the body, I know not, or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth,—such a one caught up even to the third heaven. ³ And I know such a man, whether in the body, or without the body, I know not; God knoweth,—⁴ that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. ⁵ Of such a one I will boast; but of myself I will not boast, except in my infirmities. ⁶ For if I should desire to boast, I should not be a fool; for I should say the truth; but I forbear, lest any one should think of me above what he seeth me to be, or what he heareth from me. ⁷ And that I might not be too much lifted up by the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to buffet me, that I might not be too much lifted up. ⁸ In respect to this I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me; ⁹ and he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather boast in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ may abide upon me. ¹⁰ Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses in behalf of Christ; for when I am weak, then am I strong. ¹¹ I have become a fool; it is ye that compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing was I behind the very foremost apostles, though I am nothing. ¹² Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you with all endurance, by signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. ¹³ For what is there in which ye were at disadvantage when compared with other churches, except that I myself was not a charge to you? Forgive me this wrong. ¹⁴ Behold, I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not be a charge to you; for I seek not yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵ And I will very gladly spend and be spent for your souls; though the more I love you, the less I am loved. ¹⁶ But be it so; I at least was not a charge to you; but yet, being crafty, I caught you with guile. ¹⁷ Did I make gain of you by any of those whom I have sent to you? ¹⁸ I urged Titus to go to you, and with him I sent the brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps? ¹⁹ Have ye been thinking this long time that we are defending ourselves to you? It is before God in Christ that we are speaking; but all things, beloved, for your edification. ²⁰ For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and lest I too shall be found by you such as ye would not; lest there be wranglings, envying, wraths, rivalries, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults; ²¹ and lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many of those who have sinned already, and did not repent of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness, which they committed.

¹ This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. ² I said before, and now say beforehand, as when present the second time, so also absent now, to those who have sinned before, and to all the others, that if I come again, I will not spare; ³ since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who towards you is not weak, but is mighty among you. ⁴ For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God; for we also are weak in him, but we shall live together with him by the power of God toward you. ⁵ Try yourselves, whether ye are in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, that Christ Jesus is in you, unless ye are unapproved? ⁶ But I trust that ye shall know, that we are not unapproved. ⁷ Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not in order that we may appear approved, but that ye may do what is good, though we be as unapproved. ⁸ For we have no power against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹ For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong; this also we pray for, even your perfection. ¹⁰ For this cause I write these things while absent, that when present I may not use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord gave me for edification, and not for destruction. ¹¹ Finally, brethren, farewell! Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. ¹² Salute one another with a holy kiss. ¹³ All the saints salute you. ¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the partaking of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

¹ Paul, an apostle, not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead,—² and all the brethren that are with me, to the churches of Galatia: ³ Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from the present evil world, according to the will of God our Father; ⁵ to whom be the glory for ever and ever! Amen. ⁶ I marvel that ye are so soon turning from him that called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel; ⁷ which is not another; only there are certain persons who are troubling you, and seeking to change entirely the gospel of Christ. ⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel to you contrary to that which we preached to you, let him be accursed! ⁹ As we have said before, so I now say again, If any one preach a gospel to you contrary to that which ye received, let him be accursed! ¹⁰ For do I now seek the favor of men, or of God? Or am I endeavoring to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I should not be the servant of Christ. ¹¹ But I assure you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not after man; ¹² for I did not receive it from man nor was I taught it by any man, but it was revealed to me by Jesus Christ. ¹³ For ye have heard of my conduct formerly in Judaism; that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and was destroying it, ¹⁴ and made progress in Judaism beyond many of the same age with me in my nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵ But when it pleased him who set me apart from my very birth, and called me through his grace, ¹⁶ to reveal his Son within me, that I might publish the glad tidings of him among the gentiles, immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood, ¹⁷ neither did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. ¹⁸ Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Cephas, and stayed with him fifteen days; ¹⁹ but no other of the apostles did I see, save James the brother of the Lord. ²⁰ Now as to what I am writing to you, behold, before God, I do not lie. ²¹ Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; ²² and I was unknown by face to the churches of Judaea which were in Christ; ²³ but they were only hearing that “He who was once our persecutor is now preaching the faith which he was once destroying”; ²⁴ and they glorified God in me.

¹ Then, fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus also with me. ² And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the gentiles; but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. ³ But not even Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised;

⁴ and that because of the false brethren stealthily brought in, who crept in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring into bondage; ⁵ to whom not even for an hour did we yield by the required subjection, that the truth of the gospel might still remain with you. ⁶ But from those who were reputed to be somewhat —whatever they were, it matters not to me, (God accepteth no man's person,) for to me those in reputation communicated nothing new. ⁷ But on the contrary, when they saw that I was intrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, as Peter was with that to the circumcised, ⁸ (for he who wrought for Peter in behalf of the apostleship to the circumcised, wrought also for me in behalf of the gentiles,) ⁹ and when they knew the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the gentiles, and they to the circumcised; ¹⁰ only they wished us to remember the poor; which very thing I also was earnest to do. ¹¹ But when Cephas came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face; for he was condemned. ¹² For before certain persons came from James, he used to eat with the gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. ¹³ And the other Jews also dissembled with him; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they were not walking uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in the presence of all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of gentiles, and not that of the Jews, how is it that thou compellest the gentiles to keep the customs of the Jews? ¹⁵ We are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the gentiles; ¹⁶ but knowing that a man is not accepted as righteous by the works of the Law, but by faith in Christ Jesus, we also have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be accepted as righteous by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the Law; for by the works of the Law shall no flesh be accepted as righteous. ¹⁷ But while seeking to be accepted as righteous in Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Far be it! ¹⁸ For if I again build up what I pulled down, I make myself a transgressor. ¹⁹ For I through the Law died to the Law, that I might live to God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and no longer do I live, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. ²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness come through the Law, then did Christ die for nought.

righteousness.” ⁷ Know then that they who have faith, these are the sons of Abraham. ⁸ Moreover the Scripture, foreseeing that God was to accept the gentiles as righteous by faith, proclaimed beforehand the glad tidings to Abraham, saying, “In thee shall all nations be blessed.” ⁹ So then they who have faith are blessed with believing Abraham. ¹⁰ For as many as rely on the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the Law, to do them.” ¹¹ But further, that through the observance of the Law no one is accepted as righteous with God is evident; for “the righteous shall live by faith.” ¹² And the Law hath nothing to do with faith; but [[its language is]], “He that hath done them shall live in them.” ¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, “Cursed is every one that is hanged on a beam of wood,”— ¹⁴ to the end that in Christ Jesus the blessing promised to Abraham might come to the gentiles, that we through faith might receive the Spirit which was promised. ¹⁵ Brethren, I speak according to what is practised among men; no one sets aside even a human covenant, or makes additions to it, after it has been ratified. ¹⁶ But the promises were made to Abraham and “to his offspring.” He doth not say, “and to offsprings,” as speaking of many, but, as speaking of one, “and to thy offspring,” which is Christ. ¹⁷ And what I mean is this; that a covenant that was before ratified by God, the Law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, cannot annul, so as to make void the promise; ¹⁸ for if the inheritance cometh from the Law, it ceaseth to be the consequence of the promise; but to Abraham God gave it by promise. ¹⁹ To what end then was the Law? It was added because of transgressions, till the offspring should come to whom the promise belongeth, having been ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. ²⁰ Now no mediator is a mediator of one; but God is one. ²¹ Is then the Law against the promises of God? Far be it! For if a law had been given which was able to give life, righteousness would indeed have been by the Law; ²² but the Scripture shut up all under sin, that the blessing promised through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ²³ But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the Law, shut up unto the faith which was to be revealed. ²⁴ So then the Law hath been our schoolmaster, to lead us to Christ, that we might be accepted as righteous through faith; ²⁵ but faith having come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. ²⁶ For ye are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus; ²⁷ for as many of you as were baptized into Christ, did put on Christ. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is no male and female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus; ²⁹ and if ye belong to Christ, then are ye Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to the promise.

¹ Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth in no respect from a bond-servant, though he is lord of all; ² but is under guardians and stewards, until the time appointed by the father. ³ So also we, when we were children, were in bondage under the rudiments of the world; ⁴ but when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the Law,⁵ to redeem those under the Law, that we might be adopted as sons.⁶ And to show that ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father!⁷ So then thou art no longer a bond-servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.⁸ But at that time, indeed, when ye knew not God, ye were in slavery to those who in their nature are not gods;⁹ but now, after having known God, or rather having been known by God, how is it that ye are turning back to the weak and beggarly rudiments to which ye wish to be again in bondage?¹⁰ Do ye observe days, and months, and times, and years?¹¹ I fear for you, lest I may have bestowed upon you labor in vain.¹² Brethren, I beseech you, become as I am, for I also have become as ye are; ye injured me in nothing.¹³ Nay, ye know that it was on account of an infirmity of the flesh that I preached the gospel to you the former time,¹⁴ and my trial which was in my flesh ye did not despise nor spurn; but received me as an angel of God, yea, as Christ Jesus.¹⁵ How great then was your boasting of happiness! for I bear you witness, that if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes, and have given them to me.¹⁶ So then, have I become your enemy because I tell you the truth?¹⁷ They show a zeal for you, but not in honesty; yea, they wish to exclude you, that ye may be zealous for them.¹⁸ But it is good to be an object of zeal in what is good always, and not only when I am present with you.¹⁹ My children, with whom I am again in travail until Christ be formed in you, —²⁰ I could wish indeed to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am in perplexity about you.²¹ Tell me, ye that desire to be under the Law, do ye not hear the Law?²² For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; the one by the bondwoman, the other by the freewoman.²³ But the one by the bondwoman was born after the flesh; while the one by the freewoman was through the promise.²⁴ Which things are written allegorically; for these women are two covenants; the one from Mount Sinai, who beareth children into bondage, which is Hagar;²⁵ for the word Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; and she corresponds to the Jerusalem now existing, for she is in bondage with her children;²⁶ but the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.²⁷ For it is written: “Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for many are the children of the desolate one, rather than of her who hath the husband.”²⁸ But ye, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of a promise.²⁹ But as at that time he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born through the Spirit, so it is now.³⁰ But what saith the scripture? “Cast out the bondwoman and her son; for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.”³¹ So then, brethren, we are not children of a bondwoman, but of the freewoman.

¹ Stand firm in the liberty with which Christ made us free, and be not again bound fast to the yoke of bondage. ² Behold, I Paul say to you, that if ye are circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing; ³ yea, I testify again to every one who becometh circumcised, that he is bound to keep the whole Law. ⁴ Ye are entirely separated from Christ, who seek to obtain righteousness through the Law; ye have fallen away from grace. ⁵ For we through the Spirit by faith steadfastly wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith working by love. ⁷ Ye were running well; who hindered you, that ye should not obey the truth? ⁸ This persuasion came not from him that called you. ⁹ A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. ¹⁰ I indeed have confidence in regard to you in the Lord, that ye will be no otherwise minded; but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whoever he may be. ¹¹ But as for me, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? Then hath the cross ceased to be a stumbling-block. ¹² Would that they who unsettle you would quite cut themselves off! ¹³ For ye, brethren, were called to liberty; only use not your liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by your love serve one another. ¹⁴ For the whole Law is fulfilled in one commandment, even in this "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." ¹⁵ But if ye bite and devour one another, beware lest ye be consumed by one another. ¹⁶ But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye will not fulfill the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh hath desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these oppose one another, that ye may not do the things that ye would. ¹⁸ But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the Law. ¹⁹ Now the works of the flesh are manifest; such as fornication, uncleanness, wantonness, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, strife, rivalry, outbursts of wrath, cabals, divisions, factions, ²¹ envyings, drunkenness, revelings, and things like these; of which I tell you beforehand, as I also told you in time past, that they who practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. ²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ meekness, temperance; against such things as these there is no law. ²⁴ And they who belong to Christ Jesus crucified the flesh with the passions and lusts. ²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. ²⁶ Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

a fair show in the flesh, these are constraining you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. ¹³ For not even do they who become circumcised themselves keep the Law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. ¹⁴ But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. ¹⁶ And as many as walk by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. ¹⁷ Henceforth let no one trouble me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. ¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints who are [[in Ephesus]], and believers in Christ Jesus: ² Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly regions in Christ; ⁴ according as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him; ⁵ having in love predestinated us for himself to be adopted as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶ to the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved; ⁷ in whom we have the redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, ⁸ which he made to abound toward us, in all wisdom and understanding; ⁹ having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself ¹⁰ in reference to the dispensation of the fullness of the times, to gather for himself into one all things in Christ, the things which are in the heavens, and the things on the earth; even in him, ¹¹ in whom we also obtained the inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will, ¹² that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who have before placed our hope in the Messiah; ¹³ in whom ye also, after having heard the word of truth, the glad tidings of your salvation, in whom, I say, having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit that was promised, ¹⁴ which is a pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory. ¹⁵ For this cause I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and of your love to all the saints, ¹⁶ do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; ¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, would give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the full knowledge of him; ¹⁸ the eyes of your mind being enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope belonging to his call of you, and what the riches of the glory of the inheritance which he hath given among the saints, ¹⁹ and what the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, ²⁰ which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead; and seated him at his own right hand in the heavenly regions, ²¹ far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come; ²² and put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who filleth all with all; of this world, according to the prince of the powers of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience; ³ among whom even we all had our way of life in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath, even as others; ⁴ but God, who is rich in mercy, on account of his great love wherewith he loved us, gave to us, ⁵ even when dead through our trespasses, life with Christ,—by grace have ye been saved,— ⁶ and raised us up with him, and caused us to sit with him in the heavenly regions in Christ Jesus, ⁷ that he might show in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For by grace ye have been saved, through faith; and this is not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; ⁹ not of works, lest any one should boast. ¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God before prepared that we should walk in them. ¹¹ Wherefore remember, that in time past ye, the gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcised by those who are called circumcised, having the circumcision of the flesh, performed by hand,— ¹² that ye were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and without God, in the world; ¹³ but now, in Christ Jesus, ye, who formerly were afar off, have been brought nigh by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴ For it is he who is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition between us, that is, the enmity; ¹⁵ having abolished in his flesh the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create of the two one new man in himself, thus making peace, ¹⁶ and might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having slain on it the enmity. ¹⁷ And he came and brought the glad tidings of peace to you who were afar off, and of peace to those that were near; ¹⁸ for through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. ¹⁹ So then ye are no longer strangers and foreigners, but are fellow-citizens with the saints, and members of the household of God, ²⁰ and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner-stone; ²¹ in whom all the building, fitly framed together, is growing into a holy temple in the Lord; ²² in whom ye also are built together into a dwelling-place of God in the Spirit.

¹ For this cause [[I bend my knees]], I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you gentiles; ² if, indeed, ye heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given me toward you, ³ that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, ⁴ whereby, when ye read, ye may perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ; ⁵ which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; ⁶ that the gentiles are fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers with us of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel; ⁷ of which I became a minister according to the gift of the grace of God, given to me according to the effectual working of his power. ⁸ To me, who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to make known among the gentiles the glad tidings of the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹ to make all men see what is the dispensation of the mystery, which hath been hidden for ages in God, who created all things; ¹⁰ to the intent that now to the principalities and powers in the heavenly regions might be known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, ¹¹ according to his purpose for ages, which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord; ¹² in whom we have our boldness and our access in confidence, through faith in him. ¹³ Wherefore I entreat you not to be disheartened by the troubles I am suffering for you, since they are your glory. ¹⁴ For this cause I bend my knees to the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth receiveth its name, ¹⁶ that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; ¹⁷ that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, ye having been rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸ that ye may be able to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, ¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fullness of God. ²⁰ Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, ²¹ to him be the glory in the church in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

¹ I exhort you, therefore, I the prisoner in the Lord, to walk worthily of the calling with which ye were called, ² with all humility and meekness, with long-suffering; bearing with one another in love, ³ endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. ⁷ But to each one of us was given the grace [[which he hath]] according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸ Wherefore he saith: "When he ascended on high, he led captive a train of captives, and gave gifts to men." ⁹ Now what is implied in his ascending, but that he also descended into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰ He who descended is the same as he who ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things. ¹¹ And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; ¹² for the perfecting of the saints for the work of ministration, for the building up of the body of Christ; ¹³ till we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full-grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; ¹⁴ that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and borne about by every wind of teaching, through the dishonest tricks of men, and their cunning in the wily arts of error; ¹⁵ but cleaving to truth in love, may grow up in all things unto him who is the head, even Christ; ¹⁶ from whom the whole body, well put together and compacted by means of every supplying joint, is, according to the working of each part in its proportion, building itself up in love. ¹⁷ This therefore I say, and charge you in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the rest of the gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind, ¹⁸ having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God on account of the ignorance that is in them, on account of the hardness of their hearts; ¹⁹ who, being past feeling, have given themselves up to wantonness, to work all uncleanness in greediness. ²⁰ But not so did ye learn Christ, ²¹ if indeed ye heard him, and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus; ²² that as to your former way of life ye should put off the old man, who perisheth according to the lusts of deceit, ²³ and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ²⁴ and that ye put on the new man, who was created according to God in righteousness and holiness of the truth. ²⁵ Wherefore having put away falsehood, speak truth every one with his neighbor; for we are members one of another. ²⁶ "Be angry, and sin not;" let not the sun go down upon your wrath; ²⁷ and do not give place to the Devil. ²⁸ Let him that stealeth steal no more, but rather let him labor, working with his hands at that which is good, that he may have to give to him that is in need. ²⁹ Let no foul language proceed out of your mouth, but whatever is good for edification, as the need may be, that it may benefit the hearers; ³⁰ and grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye were sealed unto the day of redemption. ³¹ Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; ³² and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

¹ Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children; ² and walk in love, as Christ also loved you, and gave himself for you an offering and a sacrifice to God, of a sweet odor. ³ But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints, ⁴ neither obscenity, nor foolish talking, nor indecent jesting, which are not becoming; but rather giving of thanks. ⁵ For of this ye are sure, since ye know that no whore-monger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. ⁶ Let no one deceive you with vain words; for because of these things the wrath of God cometh upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷ Be not therefore partakers with them. ⁸ For ye were once darkness, but now ye are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, ⁹ —for the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth,— ¹⁰ proving what is acceptable to the Lord; ¹¹ and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. ¹² For the things done in secret by them it is a shame even to speak of. ¹³ But all things, when reproved, are made manifest by the light; for whatever maketh manifest is light. ¹⁴ Wherefore he saith, "Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give thee light." ¹⁵ See then that ye walk circumspectly; not as unwise men, but as wise; ¹⁶ buying up for yourselves opportunities, because the days are evil. ¹⁷ Wherefore be not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸ And be not drunk with wine, in which is dissoluteness, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹ speaking to one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; ²⁰ giving thanks always for all things to God, the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ. ²² Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord; ²³ for the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church,—he, who is the Saviour of the body. ²⁴ But as the church is subject to Christ, so let wives be to their husbands in everything. ²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it, ²⁶ that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the bath of the water in the word; ²⁷ that he himself might present to himself the church, glorious, having no spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. ²⁸ In like manner husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself; ²⁹ for no one ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ doth the church; ³⁰ for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. ³¹ “For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.” ³² This mystery is a great one; but I am speaking of Christ and of the church. ³³ However, do ye also severally love each one his own wife as himself; and let the wife see that she reverence her husband.

¹ Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. ² “Honor thy father and mother;” which is the first commandment with a promise; ³ “that it may be well with thee, and thou mayst live long on the earth.” ⁴ And, ye fathers, stir not up the anger of your children, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. ⁵ Bond-servants, obey your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as serving Christ; ⁶ not with eyeservice as men-pleasers, but as bond-servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; ⁷ doing service with good will, as to the Lord, and not to men; ⁸ knowing that whatever good each one shall have done, that shall he receive from the Lord, whether he be bondman or free. ⁹ And, ye masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening; knowing that both they and you have a Master in heaven, and that there is no respect of persons with him. ¹⁰ Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. ¹¹ Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil; ¹² for our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of evil in the heavenly regions. ¹³ Wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. ¹⁴ Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breast-plate of righteousness, ¹⁵ and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; ¹⁶ taking up, in addition to all, the shield of faith, by which ye will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the Evil One; ¹⁷ and receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; ¹⁸ praying with all prayer and entreaty at all times in the Spirit; and watching to this end with all perseverance and entreaty for all the saints, ¹⁹ and for me, that utterance may be given me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰ in behalf of which I am an ambassador in chains; that I may proclaim it boldly, as I ought to speak. ²¹ But that ye also may know about me, how I am faring, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will inform you of everything; ²² whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that ye may know about us, and that he may comfort your hearts. ²³ Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an incorruptible love.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

¹ Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, together with the bishops and deacons: ² Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, ⁴ always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy ⁵ on account of your fellowship in the cause of the gospel from the first day until now; ⁶ being confident of this very thing, that he who began in you a good work, will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus; ⁷ even as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, all of you being sharers of the grace bestowed on me. ⁸ For God is my witness how much I long for you all in the tender affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹ And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all discernment; ¹⁰ so that ye may approve the things that are most excellent, in order that ye may be pure and without offence against the day of Christ, ¹¹ being filled with the fruit of righteousness which is through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ¹² But I wish you to know, brethren, that things with me have resulted in the furtherance of the gospel; ¹³ so that my bonds have become known in connection with Christ in the whole camp of the imperial guards, and to all the rest; ¹⁴ and that the great part of the brethren, made confident in the Lord by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. ¹⁵ Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from good will. ¹⁶ (1:17) but they who are of a factious spirit preach Christ with no pure intent, thinking to stir up affliction to my bonds. ¹⁷ (1:16) They who are of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel; ¹⁸ What then? Notwithstanding, in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and therein do I rejoice, yea, and shall rejoice. ¹⁹ For I know that this will turn out to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰ according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so also now, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. ²¹ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²² But if to live in the flesh, if this is to me the fruit of my labor, then what I should choose, I cannot say; ²³ but I am held in a strait by the two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; for it is far better; ²⁴ but to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. ²⁵ And being persuaded of this, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your advancement and joy in your faith, ²⁶ that your glorying in me, in the cause of Christ Jesus, may be more abundant by my coming to you again. ²⁷ Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or remain absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸ and in nothing terrified by your adversaries; which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation; and that from God; ²⁹ for to you it was given in behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but in his behalf to suffer also; ³⁰ as ye have the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear of in me.

¹ If then there is any exhortation in Christ, if any encouragement from love, if any partaking of the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, ² make my joy full, that ye be of the same mind, having the same love, with union of soul cherishing one mind; ³ doing nothing in the spirit of faction, or in the spirit of vain-glory, but in humility esteeming others as better than yourselves; ⁴ looking each of you not to his own interest, but each to the interest of others also. ⁵ Yea, let this mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus, ⁶ who, being in the form of God, did not regard it as a thing to be grasped at to be on an equality with God, ⁷ but made himself of no consideration, taking the form of a servant, and becoming like men; ⁸ and in what appertained to him appearing as a man, he humbled himself, and was obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. ⁹ Wherefore God also highly exalted him, and gave him a name which is above every name; ¹⁰ that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those who are in heaven, and those on earth, and those under the earth, ¹¹ and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father. ¹² So then, my beloved, as ye always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; ¹³ for it is God who worketh in you both to will and to work for his good pleasure. ¹⁴ Do all things without murmurings and doubts; ¹⁵ that ye may be blameless and pure, children of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation; among whom ye shine as luminaries in the world, ¹⁶ holding forth the word of life, that I may have whereof to boast against the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain, or labor in vain. ¹⁷ But if I am even poured out on the sacrifice and ministration of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸ For the same reason, do ye also rejoice, and rejoice with me. ¹⁹ But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I know your state. ²⁰ For I have no one like-minded, who will have a true concern for your state; ²¹ for all of them are seeking their own things, not those of Christ Jesus. ²² But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son serves a father, he served with me for the gospel. ²³ Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, as soon as I see how it will go with me; ²⁴ but I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come soon. ²⁵ Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and minister to my wants; ²⁶ for he was longing after you all, and was much troubled, because ye heard that he was sick. ²⁷ For indeed he was sick near to death; but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ I send him therefore the more speedily, that when ye see him ye may again rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

²⁹ Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such in honor; ³⁰ because he was near to death on account of the work, hazarding his life to supply what was wanting on your part in the ministration to me.

¹ Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord; to write the same things to you, to me is not burdensome, and for you it is safe. ² Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workmen, beware of the concision. ³ For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; ⁴ though I myself have reason for confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath reason for confidence in the flesh, I more; ⁵ circumcised the eighth day, of the race of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as to the Law, a Pharisee; ⁶ as to zeal, persecuting the church; as to the righteousness which is in the Law, blameless. ⁷ But whatever things were gain to me, those for the sake of Christ I have counted but loss. ⁸ Nay more, I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as refuse, that I may gain Christ, ⁹ and be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God upon faith; ¹⁰ that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, while becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. ¹² Not that I have already obtained, or have been already perfected; but I press on, if I may also lay hold of that for which I was laid hold of by Christ. ¹³ Brethren, I do not reckon myself to have laid hold of it; but one thing I do, forgetting the things that are behind, and stretching forth to the things that are before, ¹⁴ I press toward the mark for the prize of the heavenly calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ Let us, therefore, as many as are perfect, be of this mind; and if ye have a different mind in anything, even this will God reveal to you. ¹⁶ Nevertheless, whereto we have reached, in that let us walk. ¹⁷ Brethren, be ye followers together of me, and mark those who walk as ye have us for an example. ¹⁸ For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ; ¹⁹ whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, whose mind is on earthly things. ²⁰ For the country of which we are citizens is heaven, whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who will transform the body of our humiliation so that it shall be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working of the power with which he is able to subdue all things to himself.

¹ Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved. ² I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord; ³ yea, I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, give them aid; since they labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life. ⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say it, rejoice. ⁵ Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. ⁶ Be anxious about nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God; ⁷ and the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are right, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. ⁹ The things which ye learned, and received, and heard, and saw in me, these do; and the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰ But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at length ye have revived again in your care for my welfare; for which indeed ye cared before, but lacked opportunity. ¹¹ Not that I speak on account of want; for I have learned, in whatever state I am, therewith to be content. ¹² I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound; in every thing and in all things I have been well taught, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want; ¹³ I can do all things in him who strengtheneth me. ¹⁴ Notwithstanding, ye did well in sharing with me in my distress. ¹⁵ And ye yourselves also know, Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went forth from Macedonia, no church communicated with me in an account of giving and receiving, but ye only; ¹⁶ for even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to my necessity. ¹⁷ Not that I seek for such a gift, but I do seek for fruit that may abound to your account. ¹⁸ But I have all, and abound; I am full, having received from Epaphroditus what was sent from you, a sweet odor, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. ¹⁹ But my God will supply all your need according to his riches in glory, in Christ Jesus. ²⁰ Now to God, our Father, be glory for ever. Amen. ²¹ Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me salute you. ²² All the saints salute you, but especially they who are of Caesar's household. ²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy the brother, ² to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colossae: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father. ³ We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, ⁴ since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, ⁵ on account of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, ⁶ which is come to you, as it is in all the world, and is bearing fruit and growing, as it doth also in you, from the day ye heard it, and knew the grace of God in truth; ⁷ even as ye learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf; ⁸ who also brought to our knowledge your love in the Spirit. ⁹ On this account we also, from the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to ask that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; ¹⁰ that ye may walk worthily of the Lord so as to please him in all things, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹ endued with all power according to the might of his glory unto all patience and long-suffering with joy; ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who enabled us to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light; ¹³ who rescued us from the empire of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son; ¹⁴ in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins;— ¹⁵ who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of the whole creation; ¹⁶ for in him were created all things, those in the heavens, and those on the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers, all things have been created through him and for him; ¹⁷ and he is before all things, and in him all things subsist. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; since he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that he may be in all things pre-eminent; ¹⁹ for God was pleased that in him all the fullness should dwell, and by him to reconcile all things to himself, ²⁰ having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him, I say, whether the things on earth, or those in the heavens. ²¹ And you, that were once alienated, and enemies in your mind in wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled ²² in the body of his flesh through his death, to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable in his sight; ²³ if ye indeed continue in the faith grounded and settled, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye heard, which hath been preached in the whole creation under heaven; of which I Paul became a minister. ²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up instead that which is wanting of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh on behalf of his body, which is the church; ²⁵ of which I became a minister, according to the stewardship which God entrusted to me, for you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶ the mystery which hath been hidden for ages and generations, but hath been now revealed to his saints;

27 to whom it was the will of God to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; 28 whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ; 29 to which end I also am laboring, striving earnestly through his working, which worketh within me mightily.

1 For I would have you know what a great struggle I have for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2 that their hearts may be encouraged, they being knit together in love, and that they may attain to all the riches of a full assurance of the understanding, to the full knowledge of the mystery of God; 3 in which are stored up all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4 And this I say, that no one may impose on you by specious discourses. 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet in the spirit I am with you, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 As therefore ye have received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, 7 rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. 8 Beware lest there be some one who shall make a prey of you through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not according to Christ. 9 For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and ye are made full in him, who is the head of all principality and power; 11 in whom also ye have been circumcised with a circumcision not performed by hand, in putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ, 12 having been buried with him in your baptism; in which also ye were raised to life with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead; 13 and to you also who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he given life together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; 14 blotting out the handwriting in ordinances that was against us, which was opposed to us, he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15 and having disarmed principalities and powers, he made a public show of them, and led them captive in triumph in him. 16 Let no one then call you to account about food or drink, or a feast-day, or a new moon, or sabbaths; 17 which are a shadow of the things to come, but the body is Christ's. 18 Let no one defraud you of the prize, desiring to do it in humiliation and worshipping of the angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, puffed up without reason by the mind of his own flesh, 19 and not holding fast the Head, from which the whole body, supported and compacted by means of the joints and ligaments, groweth with an increase wrought by God. 20 If ye died with Christ to the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to ordinances, such as, 21 Handle not, Taste not, Touch not, 22 (which all are to perish with the using,) after the commandments and teachings of men; 23 which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship and humiliation and severity to the body, not in any honor for the satisfying of the flesh.

¹ If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is sitting on the right hand of God. ² Set your mind on the things above, not on things on the earth. ³ For ye died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God; ⁴ when Christ, our life, shall be manifested, then will ye also be manifested with him in glory. ⁵ Make dead therefore your members which are upon the earth, fornication, uncleanness, lust, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; ⁶ on account of which things cometh the wrath of God. ⁷ In which things ye also once walked, when ye lived in them; ⁸ but now put ye away all these, anger, wrath, malice, evil-speaking, filthy language out of your mouth. ⁹ Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds, ¹⁰ and have put on the new man, who is renewed unto knowledge after the image of him that created him; ¹¹ where there is no Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all. ¹² Clothe yourselves, therefore, as the chosen of God, holy and beloved, with compassionate affections, kindness, lowliness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; ¹³ bearing with each other, and forgiving each other, if any one have a complaint against another; even as Christ freely forgave you, do ye also freely forgive; ¹⁴ and over all these things put on the robe of love, which is the bond of perfectness; ¹⁵ and let the peace of Christ, to which ye were called in one body, rule in your hearts; and be ye thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, spiritual songs, in grace singing in your hearts to God; ¹⁷ and whatever ye do, in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, the Father, through him. ¹⁸ Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. ²⁰ Children, obey your parents in all things; for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, provoke not your children, lest they be discouraged. ²² Bond-servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³ Whatever ye do, do it from the heart, as to the Lord, and not to men, ²⁴ knowing that from the Lord ye will receive the recompense of the inheritance; serve Christ as your Lord. ²⁵ For he that doeth wrong, shall receive back the wrong which he hath done; and there is no respect of persons.

¹ Masters, deal out to your bond-servants justice and equity, knowing that ye also have a master in heaven. ² Persevere in prayer, being watchful therein with thanksgiving; ³ praying at the same time for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for the sake of which I am also in bonds; ⁴ that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. ⁵ Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, buying up opportunities. ⁶ Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every one. ⁷ Of all my affairs Tychicus will inform you, the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord;

⁸ whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that he may know your condition, and comfort your hearts; ⁹ together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will inform you of every thing here. ¹⁰ Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, saluteth you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, concerning whom ye received directions (if he come to you, receive him), ¹¹ and Jesus, who is called Justus; who are of the circumcision; these only are my fellow-workers for the kingdom of God, who have been an encouragement unto me. ¹² Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of God. ¹³ For I bear him witness, that he hath much labor for you, and those that are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, salute you. ¹⁵ Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church in his house. ¹⁶ And when the letter hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that ye likewise read the letter from Laodicea. ¹⁷ And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it. ¹⁸ The salutation by the hand of me, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

¹ Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace. ² We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, ³ remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and perseverance in the hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before God our Father; ⁴ since we know, brethren beloved of God, that he hath chosen you; ⁵ because the gospel preached by us came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as ye well know what sort of persons we became among you for your sake. ⁶ And ye became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction with joy from the Holy Spirit; ⁷ so that ye became an example to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. ⁸ For from you the word of the Lord hath sounded forth not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith toward God hath become known; so that we need not say anything [[about you]]. ⁹ For they themselves are reporting concerning us what kind of reception we had among you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰ and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from the coming wrath.

¹ For ye yourselves know, brethren, that our coming among you hath not been in vain; ² but after we had suffered before and had been shamefully treated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict. ³ For our teaching is not from error, nor from impurity, nor in guile; ⁴ but as we have been regarded by God as worthy to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts. ⁵ For neither at any time did we use flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness, God is witness; ⁶ nor from men sought we glory, either from you, or from others; though we might have used authority as apostles of Christ. ⁷ But we were gentle in the midst of you, even as a nurse cherisheth her own children; ⁸ so having a strong affection for you, we were willing to impart to you, not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because ye became dear to us. ⁹ For ye remember, brethren, our labor and toil, how laboring night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰ Ye are witnesses, and so is God, how holily, and righteously, and unblamably we conducted ourselves toward you that believe; ¹¹ as ye know how we exhorted, and encouraged, and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, ¹² that ye should walk in a manner worthy of God, who is calling you to his own kingdom and glory. ¹³ And for this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received the word of God which ye heard from us, ye received it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also is powerfully working in you that believe. ¹⁴ For ye, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judaea in Christ Jesus; for ye also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, as they have from the Jews; ¹⁵ who both killed the Lord Jesus, and the prophets, and drove us out, and please not God, and set themselves against all men, ¹⁶ hindering us from speaking to the gentiles that they may be saved,—to fill up their sins always! But the wrath is come upon them to the end. ¹⁷ But we, brethren, having been bereaved of you for a short time, separated in body, not in heart, used the greater endeavors with much earnestness to see your face. ¹⁸ Wherefore we purposed to come to you, that is, I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹ For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying? Is it not even ye, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at his coming? ²⁰ For ye are our glory and joy.

¹ Wherefore, when we could no longer forbear, we chose to be left at Athens alone, ² and sent Timothy, our brother and a fellow-laborer with God in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to encourage you in your faith, ³ so that no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for yourselves know that to this we are appointed; ⁴ for even when we were with you, we told you before that we are to suffer affliction, just as it came to pass, and ye know. ⁵ For this cause, when I too could no longer forbear, I sent in order to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter might have tempted you, and our labor should prove in vain. ⁶ But when Timothy just now came to us from you, and brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you; ⁷ for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction by your faith; ⁸ for now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. ⁹ For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy wherewith we rejoice for your sakes before our God; ¹⁰ night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may supply that which is lacking in your faith? ¹¹ Now God himself, our Father, and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you; ¹² and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all, even as we do in love toward you; ¹³ in order that he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones.

¹ Furthermore then, brethren, we beseech you, and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye are walking, ye would abound still more; ² for ye know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³ For this is the will of God, your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; ⁴ that every one of you should know how to procure for himself his own vessel in purity and honor; ⁵ not in the passion of lust, even as the gentiles who know not God; ⁶ that no one should go beyond and overreach his brother in the matter; because the Lord is the avenger in respect to all these things, as we also told you before and solemnly testified. ⁷ For God did not call us to live in uncleanness, but in purity. ⁸ He therefore that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who also gave to you his Holy Spirit. ⁹ But concerning brotherly love there is no need of writing to you; for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another; ¹⁰ for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, to abound in love still more; ¹¹ and to study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; ¹² that ye may walk becomingly toward those without, and may have need of nothing. ¹³ But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are sleeping, that ye may not sorrow, as others do, who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, then also will God, through Jesus, bring again with him those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁵ For this we say to you in the word of the Lord, that we who are living, we who are left till the coming of the Lord, shall not anticipate those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a loud summons, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trump of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first; ¹⁷ then we who are living, we who are left, shall be caught up together with them in clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we be ever with the Lord. ¹⁸ So then comfort one another with these words.

¹ But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, there is no need of writing to you; ² for ye yourselves know full well, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. ³ When they are saying, Peace and safety; then doth sudden destruction come upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. ⁴ But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief; ⁵ for ye all are sons of light, and sons of the day; we are not of the night, nor of darkness. ⁶ Let us not sleep, then, as others, but let us watch and be sober. ⁷ For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that are drunken, are drunken in the night; ⁸ but let us, as we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation; ⁹ for God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰ who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should together live with him. ¹¹ Wherefore, encourage one another, and edify one another, as indeed ye are doing. ¹² And we beseech you, brethren, to know those who labor among you, and preside over you in the Lord, and admonish you, ¹³ and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴ Moreover we exhort you, brethren, admonish the unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be forbearing to all. ¹⁵ See that none render evil for evil to any one; but ever follow that which is good, both toward one another and toward all. ¹⁶ Be always joyful. ¹⁷ Pray without ceasing; ¹⁸ in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus in regard to you.

¹⁹ Quench not the Spirit; ²⁰ despise not prophesyings, ²¹ but prove all things; hold fast that which is good; ²² abstain from every form of evil. ²³ And may the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved whole, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Faithful is he who calleth you, who also will do it. ²⁵ Brethren, pray for us. ²⁶ Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss. ²⁷ I adjure you by the Lord, that this letter be read to all the holy brethren. ²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

¹ Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ² Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ We ought to thank God always for you, brethren, as is fit, because your faith increaseth exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth; ⁴ so that we ourselves glory in you among the churches of God, for your constancy and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions which ye endure; ⁵ an indication of the righteous judgment of God, by which ye will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye are also suffering; ⁶ since it will be just with God to repay distress to them that distress you, ⁷ and to you the distressed rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be manifested from heaven, with the angels of his might, ⁸ in flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus; ⁹ who will be punished with everlasting destruction proceeding from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power; ¹⁰ when he shall come in that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all who believed; for our testimony to you was believed. ¹¹ For which end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and perfect [[in you]] all pleasure in goodness, and the work of faith, with power; ¹² that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ Now we beseech you, brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our being assembled together unto him, ² that ye be not easily shaken in mind, nor troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, as if the day of the Lord were close at hand. ³ Let no one deceive you in any manner; for [[that day will not come]] unless the apostasy shall have come first and the man of sin have been revealed, the son of perdition; ⁴ he that opposeth and exalteth himself above every one that is called God, or worthy of worship, so that he sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself to be God. ⁵ Do ye not remember, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? ⁶ And now ye know what restraineth, in order that he may be revealed in his own time. ⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already working; only there is one who now restraineth, until he be taken out of the way; ⁸ and then will the lawless one be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will consume with the breath of his mouth, and destroy with the manifestation of his coming; ⁹ [[he,]] whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power, and signs, and wonders of falsehood, ¹⁰ and in all deceit of unrighteousness for those who are perishing; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. ¹¹ And for this cause God sendeth them a working of delusion, that they may believe the falsehood; ¹² that they may all be judged, who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. ¹³ But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, that God chose you from the beginning to salvation in sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth; ¹⁴ whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brethren, stand firm, and hold fast the traditions which ye were taught by us, whether by word, or by our letter. ¹⁶ Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, our Father, who loved us, and gave us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, ¹⁷ encourage your hearts, and establish you in every good work and word.

¹ Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, as with you, ² and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for it is not all that have faith. ³ But faithful is the Lord, who will establish you, and guard you from evil. ⁴ And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. ⁵ And the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God, and to perseverance in the cause of Christ. ⁶ Now we charge you, brethren, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which they received of us. ⁷ For ye yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us; for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you, ⁸ neither did we eat any man's bread for nought, but were working with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you. ⁹ Not because we have not authority, but to make ourselves an example to you, that ye should imitate us. ¹⁰ For also when we were with you, this we commanded you: If any one will not work, neither let him eat. ¹¹ For we hear of some who walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. ¹² Now such we charge and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. ¹³ But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing. ¹⁴ And if any one obey not our word by this epistle, mark that man; and keep no company with him, that he may be shamed; ¹⁵ yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. ¹⁶ Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always in every way; the Lord be with you all. ¹⁷ The salutation by the hand of me, Paul; which is the token in every letter; so I write. ¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus, through the command of God, our Saviour, and Christ Jesus, our hope, ² to Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ³ As I besought thee, when I set out for Macedonia, to remain still in Ephesus, that thou mightst charge certain persons not to teach other doctrine, ⁴ nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which occasion disputes rather than promote God's dispensation which is in faith, [[so I do now.]] ⁵ Now the end of the commandment is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and faith unfeigned; ⁶ from which some swerving turned aside to vain babbling, ⁷ desiring to be teachers of the Law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. ⁸ But we know that the Law is good, if a man use it lawfully, ⁹ knowing this, that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers, ¹⁰ for whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to the sound teaching, ¹¹ according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust. ¹² And I thank him who gave me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, that he accounted me faithful, putting me into the ministry, t ¹³ though formerly I was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and a doer of outrage; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief; ¹⁴ and the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ True is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. ¹⁶ But for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me especially Christ Jesus might show forth all his long-suffering, as an example to those who should hereafter believe in him to life everlasting. ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, the imperishable, invisible, only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen. ¹⁸ This charge I commit to thee, my child Timothy, in accordance with the directions of the prophets before given to thee, that thou mayst in them war the good warfare, ¹⁹ having faith, and a good conscience, which some thrusting away made shipwreck concerning the faith; ²⁰ of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

¹ I exhort then, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; ² for kings, and all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all godliness and propriety. ³ For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, ⁴ whose will is that all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave himself a ransom for all; to which the testimony was to be borne in its own due times, ⁷ whereunto I was appointed a herald and an apostle, (I speak the truth, I lie not,) a teacher of the gentiles in faith and truth. ⁸ I desire, then, that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. ⁹ In like manner also, that women, in seemly attire, adorn themselves with modesty and sobriety, not with braided hair, and gold, or pearls, or costly apparel; ¹⁰ but, as becometh women professing godliness, with good works. ¹¹ Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. ¹² But I suffer not the woman to teach, nor to have authority over the man, but to be in silence. ¹³ For Adam was first formed, then Eve. ¹⁴ And Adam was not deceived; but the woman being deceived fell into transgression. ¹⁵ But she will be saved through child-bearing, if they continue in faith, and love, and holiness, with sobriety.

¹ True is the saying: If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. ² A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, sober, discreet, orderly, hospitable, apt in teaching; ³ not given to wine, not a striker, but forbearing, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money; ⁴ presiding well over his own house, having his children in subjection with all propriety;— ⁵ for if a man knoweth not how to preside over his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God— ⁶ not a new convert, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the Devil; ⁷ moreover he must also have a good report from them that are without, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the Devil. ⁸ Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of base gain, ⁹ holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ¹⁰ And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they are without reproach. ¹¹ The women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. ¹² Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹³ For they that have served well as deacons, gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ These things write I to thee, hoping to come to thee shortly; ¹⁵ but if I should tarry long, that thou mayst know how thou oughtest to conduct thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶ And confessedly great is the mystery of godliness, in him who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached among the gentiles, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

for those who believe and know the truth. ⁴ For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving; ⁵ for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. ⁶ If thou lay these things before the brethren, thou wilt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good teaching, with which thou art well acquainted. ⁷ But avoid the profane and old wives' fables; and exercise thyself unto godliness. ⁸ For bodily exercise is profitable for little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. ⁹ True is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. ¹⁰ For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have placed our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of believers. ¹¹ These things command and teach. ¹² Let no one despise thy youth, but become an example to the believers, in word, in behavior, in love, in faith, in purity. ¹³ Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. ¹⁴ Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. ¹⁵ Meditate on these things, give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest to all. ¹⁶ Give heed to thyself, and to thy teaching; continue in them; for in doing this thou wilt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

¹ Do not sharply rebuke an aged man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men, as brethren; ² the elder women, as mothers; the younger, as sisters, with all purity. ³ Honor as widows those that are widows indeed. ⁴ But if any widow have children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety to their own family, and to requite their parents; for this is acceptable before God. ⁵ Now she that is a widow indeed, and left alone, hath set her hope on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day; ⁶ but she that giveth herself up to pleasure is dead while she liveth. ⁷ These things also enjoin, that they may be blameless. ⁸ But if any one provideth not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹ Let a widow be put on the list when not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one husband, ¹⁰ well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. ¹¹ But younger widows refuse; for when they become wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; ¹² falling into condemnation, because they have cast off their first faith; ¹³ and withal they learn to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. ¹⁴ I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, guide the house, give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. ¹⁵ For some have already turned aside after Satan. ¹⁶ If any man or woman that is a believer have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be burdened, that it may relieve those that are widows indeed. ¹⁷ Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor; especially

they who labor in the word and in teaching. ¹⁸ For the Scripture saith, "Thou shalt not muzzle the ox while he is treading out the grain"; and, "The laborer is worthy of his wages." ¹⁹ Against an elder receive not an accusation without two or three witnesses. ²⁰ Those that sin rebuke before all, that the rest also may fear. ²¹ I charge thee before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without prejudging, doing nothing with partiality. ²² Lay hands hastily on no one, neither share in other men's sins. Keep thyself pure. ²³ No longer drink water only, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thy frequent infirmities. ²⁴ Some men's sins are openly manifest, going before them to judgment; and some men they follow after. ²⁵ In like manner also the good works of some are openly manifest; and those that are otherwise cannot be hid.

¹ Let all who are under the yoke as bond-servants count their own masters worthy of all honor; that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. ² And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they who receive the benefit are faithful and beloved. These things teach and exhort. ³ If any one teacheth other doctrine, and assenteth not to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, ⁴ he is puffed up with pride, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, from which cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, ⁵ incessant disputings of men corrupted in their minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that godliness is gain. ⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷ For we brought nothing into the world; and it is certain we can carry nothing out. ⁸ If we have, then, food and raiment, we will be therewith content. ⁹ But they who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all evils; which some coveting have strayed away from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many pangs. ¹¹ But do thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. ¹² Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on everlasting life, to which thou wast called, and didst profess the good profession before many witnesses. ¹³ I charge thee before God, who giveth life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who under Pontius Pilate testified the good profession, ¹⁴ that thou keep the commandment without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵ which in his own times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords, ¹⁶ who only hath immortality, dwelling in light unapproachable, whom no man hath seen, or can see; to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen. ¹⁷ Charge those who are rich in this world that they be not high-minded, nor place their hope in uncertain riches, but in God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, ¹⁸ that they be rich in good works, liberal in imparting, willing to communicate, ¹⁹ laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the true life. ²⁰ O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding the profane babblings, and oppositions of the falsely-called knowledge; ²¹ which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, ² to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ³ I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, as without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day, ⁴ longing to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; ⁵ when I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that it dwelleth in thee also. ⁶ For which cause I remind thee to stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the laying on of my hands; ⁷ for God gave us not the spirit of cowardice, but of power, and of love, and of admonition. ⁸ Be not then ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship with me for the gospel through the power of God, ⁹ who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and the grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, ¹⁰ but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light through the gospel, ¹¹ for which I was appointed a herald, and an apostle, and a teacher of the gentiles. ¹² For which cause I suffer also these things. But I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which he hath committed to me unto that day. ¹³ Hold the pattern of sound words, which thou heardest from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus; ¹⁴ the good trust committed to thee keep through the Holy Spirit which dwelleth in us. ¹⁵ Thou knowest this, that all those in Asia turned away from me, of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶ The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; but on the contrary, ¹⁷ when he arrived at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me. ¹⁸ The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day: and what services he rendered me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

the seed of David, as raised from the dead, according to my gospel; ⁹ in which I suffer hardship even unto bonds as an evil-doer; but the word of God is not bound. ¹⁰ For this cause I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with everlasting glory. ¹¹ True is the saying: for if we died with him, we shall also live with him; ¹² if we endure, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; ¹³ if we are faithless, he remaineth faithful; for he cannot deny himself. ¹⁴ Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord not to carry on a strife of words, to no useful purpose, but rather to the subverting of the hearers. ¹⁵ Study to present thyself approved unto God, a workman not ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ¹⁶ But shun the profane babblings; for they will go on to a higher degree of ungodliness; ¹⁷ and their word will eat as doth a canker; of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸ who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection hath already taken place, and overthrow the faith of some. ¹⁹ Nevertheless God's firm foundation standeth, having this seal, "The Lord knoweth them that are his;" and, "Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from iniquity." ²⁰ But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also wooden and earthen ones; and some for honor, and some for dishonor. ²¹ If then any one shall purge himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, hallowed, useful for the householder, prepared for every good work. ²² But flee youthful lusts, and follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³ But the foolish and ignorant questionings avoid, knowing that they gender quarrels; ²⁴ and a servant of the Lord must not quarrel, but be gentle to all, apt in teaching, patient of wrong, ²⁵ in meekness admonishing those that oppose themselves; if haply God may give them repentance to attain the full knowledge of the truth, ²⁶ and they may awake to their senses out of the snare of the Devil, by whom they have been taken captive to do his will.

Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured, and out of them all the Lord delivered me. ¹² Yea, and all that desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. ¹³ But evil men and impostors will wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴ But do thou continue in the things which thou didst learn and wast assured of, knowing from what teachers thou didst learn them, ¹⁵ and that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God, and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for discipline in righteousness; ¹⁷ that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto every good work.

¹ I charge thee before God, and Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom; ² preach the word, be urgent in season, out of season, confute, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and teaching. ³ For the time will come, when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own desires will they heap to themselves teachers; because they have itching ears; ⁴ and they will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. ⁵ But be thou watchful in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fully accomplish thy ministry. ⁶ For I am already about to be offered as a sacrifice, and the time of my departure is at hand. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; ⁸ henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me at that day, and not to me only, but to all those who have loved his appearing. ⁹ Use diligence to come to me shortly. ¹⁰ For Demas forsook me, because he loved the present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee; for he is useful to me for the ministry. ¹² But Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. ¹³ The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest bring with thee, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord will reward him according to his works; ¹⁵ of whom do thou also beware; for he hath greatly withstood our words. ¹⁶ At my first defence no one came forward with me, but all forsook me. May it not be laid to their charge! ¹⁷ But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that the preaching might be fully accomplished by me, and that all the gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed, and preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom; to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. ¹⁹ Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus remained at Corinth, but Trophimus I left at Miletus sick. ²¹ Use diligence to come before winter. Eubulus saluteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. ²² The Lord be with thy spirit. Grace be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TITUS

¹ Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Christ Jesus, for the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, ² in hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie, promised from the most ancient times, ³ but in his own seasons manifested his word through the preaching with which I was intrusted by the commandment of God our Saviour: ⁴ to Titus, true child after the common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour. ⁵ For this cause I left thee behind in Crete, that thou shouldst set in order the things that are wanting, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed thee; ⁶ if any one is without reproach, the husband of one wife, having believing children, that are not accused of dissoluteness, or unruly. ⁷ For a bishop must be without reproach, as God's steward; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy of base gain, ⁸ but hospitable, a lover of what is good, discreet, just, holy, temperate, ⁹ holding fast the sure word according to what he was taught, that he may be able by sound teaching both to exhort, and to refute the gainsayers. ¹⁰ For there are many unruly vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision; ¹¹ whose mouths must be stopped, since they overturn whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of base gain. ¹² One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said: "The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, slothful gluttons." ¹³ This testimony is true; for which cause rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴ not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵ To the pure all things are pure; but to the defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure, but both their mind and conscience are defiled. ¹⁶ They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient, and for every good work reprobate.

that they may adorn the teaching of God our Saviour in all things. ¹¹ For the grace of God, that bringeth salvation to all men, was manifested, ¹² teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in the present world; ¹³ looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the great God and of our Saviour Jesus Christ; ¹⁴ who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself a people to be his own, zealous in good works. ¹⁵ These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise thee.

¹ Put them in mind to submit themselves to governments, to authorities, to obey magistrates, to be ready for every good work, ² to speak evil of no one, to be averse to strife, forbearing, showing all meekness to all men. ³ For we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, going astray, slaves to divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. ⁴ But when the kindness and love for men of God our Saviour appeared, ⁵ not by works of righteousness which we did, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the bath of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit, ⁶ which he poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷ that having been accepted as righteous by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of everlasting life. ⁸ True is the saying; and these things I desire that thou affirm earnestly, that they who have believed in God may be careful to practise good works. These things are good and profitable to men; ⁹ but avoid foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strifes, and contentions about the Law; for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰ A man that stirs up divisions, after a first and second admonition, avoid; ¹¹ knowing that he that is such is utterly perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned. ¹² When I shall have sent Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, use diligence to come to me to Nicopolis; for there I have determined to pass the winter. ¹³ Zenas the lawyer and Apollos forward on their journey diligently, that nothing may be wanting to them. ¹⁴ And let those also who belong to us learn to practise good works for the necessary wants that arise, that they may not be unfruitful. ¹⁵ All that are with me salute thee. Salute those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO PHILEMON

¹ Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy the brother, to Philemon our beloved friend and fellow-laborer, ² and to the beloved Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house: ³ Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I thank my God at all times, making mention of thee in my prayers, ⁵ hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints; ⁶ that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us, for Christ Jesus. ⁷ For we have great thankfulness and comfort on account of thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by thee, brother. ⁸ Wherefore, though I have much boldness in Christ to enjoin upon thee that which is befitting, ⁹ yet for love's sake I beseech thee rather; being such a one as Paul an old man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus, ¹⁰ I beseech thee for my child, whom I begot in my bonds, Onesimus; ¹¹ who in time past was unprofitable to thee, but is now profitable to thee and to me; ¹² whom I have sent back; and do thou [[receive]] him, that is, my own flesh. ¹³ Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might minister to me in the bonds of the gospel; ¹⁴ but I chose to do nothing without thy consent, that thy benefit may be not as from necessity, but willingly. ¹⁵ For perhaps he was separated from thee for a season to this end, that thou shouldst receive him back as thine for ever; ¹⁶ no longer as a bond-servant, but above a bond-servant, a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord! ¹⁷ If thou then regardest me as a partner, receive him as myself. ¹⁸ And if he wronged thee in anything, or oweth thee, put that to my account. ¹⁹ I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it; not to say to thee, that to me thou owest even thy own self besides. ²⁰ Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ²¹ Having confidence in thy obedience I have written to thee, knowing that thou wilt do even more than I say. ²² And at the same time make ready a lodging for me; for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted to you. ²³ Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, ²⁴ Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-laborers, salute thee. ²⁵ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

¹ God, who at different times and in different ways spoke of old to the fathers by the prophets, ² hath at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, by whom he also made the worlds, ³ who being a brightness from his glory and an image of his being, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself accomplished a cleansing of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; ⁴ having become so much superior to the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they. ⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say: "Thou art my Son, I this day have begotten thee?" and again: "I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?" ⁶ And again, when he hath brought in the first-begotten into the world, he saith: "And let all the angels of God pay him homage." ⁷ And of the angels he saith: "Who maketh his angels winds, and his ministers a flame of fire;" ⁸ but of the Son: "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; and the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of righteousness. ⁹ Thou lovedst righteousness, and hatedst iniquity; therefore God, thy God, anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows." ¹⁰ And: "Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst found the earth, and the heavens are the works of thy hands. ¹¹ They will perish, but thou remainest; and they will all become old as doth a garment, ¹² and thou wilt fold them up as a vesture, and they will be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years will not fail." ¹³ But to which of the angels hath he ever said: "Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?" ¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

¹ Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest haply we let them slip. ² For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just retribution, ³ how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first was spoken through the Lord, and was confirmed to us through those who heard him, ⁴ God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his will? ⁵ For not to angels did he put in subjection the world to come, of which we are speaking. ⁶ But one in a certain place bore testimony, saying, "What is man, that thou art mindful of him, or the son of man, that thou carest for him? ⁷ Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honor; ⁸ thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet." For in that he put all things in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not yet see all things put under him. ⁹ But we see him who was made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, on account of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor; that by the grace of God he might taste

death for every one. ¹⁰ For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. ¹¹ For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren; ¹² saying, "I will declare thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the congregation will I sing praise to thee." ¹³ And again, "I will put my trust in him;" and again, "Behold, I, and the children which God gave me." ¹⁴ Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner shared in the same, that through death he might bring to nought him who had the power of death, that is, the Devil, ¹⁵ and might deliver those who, through fear of death, were all their lifetime subject to bondage. ¹⁶ For surely he doth not help angels, but he helpeth the offspring of Abraham. ¹⁷ Whence it was right for him to be in all respects made like to his brethren, that he might become a merciful and faithful high-priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

¹ Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the apostle and high-priest of our profession, Jesus; ² who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house. ³ For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as greater than the house is he who built it. ⁴ For every house is builded by some one; but he who built all things is God. ⁵ And Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, that he might testify of those things which were to be spoken; ⁶ but Christ as a son over his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and joyousness of our hope. ⁷ Wherefore, as the Holy Spirit saith: "To-day, if ye hear his voice, ⁸ harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of the temptation in the wilderness, ⁹ where your fathers tempted me by proving me, and saw my works forty years. ¹⁰ Wherefore I was offended with that generation, and said, They always err in their heart, but they knew not my ways; ¹¹ so I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest." ¹² Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. ¹³ But exhort one another daily, as long as it is called To-day, that none of you may be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴ For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast our first confidence firm to the end. ¹⁵ When it is said, "To-day, if ye hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation," ¹⁶ who then, when they had heard, provoked? Was it not all who came out of Egypt by means of Moses? ¹⁷ And with whom was he offended forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸ And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, except to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹ So then we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

¹ Let us then fear, since a promise is still left us of entering into his rest, lest any one of you should appear to fail of obtaining it. ² For to us were glad tidings addressed, as well as to them; but the word which was heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. ³ For we who believed enter into the rest, as he hath said: "So I swore in my wrath, they shall not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴ For he hath spoken in a certain place of the seventh day thus: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works;" ⁵ and in this place again: "They shall not enter into my rest." ⁶ Since then it still remaineth for some to enter into it, and they to whom the glad tidings of it were first brought did not enter in because of disobedience, ⁷ he again appointeth a certain day, "To-day"—saying in David so long a time after, as hath before been said—"To-day, if ye hear his voice, harden not your hearts." ⁸ For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not after this be speaking of another day. ⁹ There remaineth therefore a sabbath-rest to the people of God. ¹⁰ For he that hath entered into his rest, hath himself rested from his works, as God did from his own. ¹¹ Let us then strive to enter into that rest, that no one may fall, as a like example of disobedience. ¹² For the word of God is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, both the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart; ¹³ and there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight; but all things are naked and laid open to the eyes of him with whom we have to do. ¹⁴ Since, then, we have a great high-priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. ¹⁵ For we have not a high-priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who hath in all points been tempted as we are, without sin. ¹⁶ Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

¹ For every high-priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; ² being able to be forbearing toward the ignorant and the erring, since he himself also is compassed with infirmity; ³ and by reason of this infirmity he must, as for the people, so also for himself, offer sacrifice for sins. ⁴ And no one taketh this honor to himself, but when called by God, as was Aaron. ⁵ Thus Christ did not glorify himself to be made high-priest, but he who said to him, "Thou art my Son, I this day have begotten thee;" ⁶ as also he saith in another place, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek." ⁷ Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, to him that was able to save him from death, and was heard by reason of his godly reverence, ⁸ though a son yet learned his obedience from what he suffered; ⁹ and being perfected became the author of everlasting salvation to all who obey him, ¹⁰ being addressed by God as high-priest after the order of Melchizedek. ¹¹ Of whom we have much to say, and hard to be explained, seeing ye have become dull of hearing. ¹² For while on account of the length of time ye ought to be teachers, ye again have need that some one should teach you the first elements of the oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milk, and not of solid food. ¹³ For every one that feedeth on milk is unacquainted with the word of righteousness; for he is a babe; ¹⁴ but solid food belongs to those who are of full age, who by use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

¹ Let us then, leaving the first principles of the doctrine of Christ, press on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, ² of the doctrine of baptisms, and of the laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. ³ And this we will do, if God permit. ⁴ For it is impossible that those who have once been enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵ and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, ⁶ and have fallen away, should again be renewed to repentance, since they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to open shame. ⁷ For the earth which hath drunk in the rain that cometh often upon it, and beareth plants useful to those for whose sake it is tilled, receiveth blessing from God; ⁸ but if it bear thorns and briers it is disapproved, and is near to being accursed; and its end is to be burned. ⁹ But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that are connected with salvation, though we do thus speak. ¹⁰ For God is not unjust so as to forget your work, and the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye ministered and are still ministering to the saints. ¹¹ But we earnestly desire that every one of you may show the same diligence with regard to the full assurance of your hope even to the end; ¹² that ye may not become slothful, but imitators of those who through faith and endurance inherit the promises. ¹³ For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, ¹⁴ saying, "Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee." ¹⁵ And so, having endured with patience, he obtained the promised blessing. ¹⁶ For men indeed swear by one who is greater, and the oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. ¹⁷ Wherefore God, wishing more abundantly to show to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his purpose, confirmed it by an oath, ¹⁸ that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us; ¹⁹ which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, sure and steadfast, and which entereth within the veil; ²⁰ where as forerunner for us Jesus entered, having become a high-priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek.

¹ For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, ² to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth part of all, who by interpretation is first King of righteousness, and then also was King of Salem, which is, King of peace, ³ without father, without mother, without record of descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life, but likened to the Son of God, remaineth a priest for ever. ⁴ Consider now how great this man was, to whom even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the spoils. ⁵ And those indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the office of the priesthood have a command to take tithes of the people by the Law, that is, of their brethren, though they have come out of the loins of Abraham; ⁶ but he whose descent is not reckoned from them took tithes of Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷ And beyond all contradiction the less is blessed by the greater. ⁸ And here indeed men that die receive tithes; but there he of whom it is testified that he liveth. ⁹ And so to speak, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham; ¹⁰ for he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him. ¹¹ If indeed perfection had been by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people hath received the Law,) what further need was there that a different priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called alter the order of Aaron? ¹² For if the priesthood is changed, there takes place of necessity a change of the law. ¹³ For he of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, of which no one hath given attendance at the altar; ¹⁴ for it is well-known that our Lord sprang out of Judah, in regard to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests. ¹⁵ And it is still more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth a different priest, ¹⁶ who hath been made, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an indissoluble life. ¹⁷ For it is testified of him, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek." ¹⁸ For on the one hand there takes place an annulling of the commandment which went before, on account of its weakness and unprofitableness, — ¹⁹ for the Law perfected nothing,—and on the other, the bringing in of a better hope, by which we draw near to God. ²⁰ And inasmuch as it was not without an oath that he was made priest, ²¹ —for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath by him who said to him, "The Lord swore, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever;"— ²² by so much hath Jesus become the surety of a better covenant. ²³ And they indeed have been many priests, because they have been prevented from continuing by reason of death; ²⁴ but he, because he abideth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood; ²⁵ wherefore he is able also to save to the utmost those who come to God through him, since he ever liveth to make intercession for them. ²⁶ For such a high-priest also became us, holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; ²⁷ who hath not necessity daily, as the high-priests, to offer up sacrifice first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. ²⁸ For the Law maketh men high-priests, who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the Law, maketh the Son, who is perfected for ever.

¹ Now the principal thing among those of which we are speaking is this: We have such a high-priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; ² a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. ³ For every high-priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; whence it is necessary that this one also have something which he may offer. ⁴ For if, indeed, he were on earth, he would not be a priest, since there are those that offer the gifts according to the Law; ⁵ who serve the mere delineation and shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle; for, "See," saith he, "that thou make all things according to the pattern which was shown thee in the mount." ⁶ But now he hath obtained a more excellent ministry, in proportion as he is the mediator of a better covenant, which hath been established upon better promises. ⁷ For if that first covenant had been faultless, then a place would not have been sought for a second. ⁸ For finding fault with them, he saith: "Behold, the days are coming, saith the Lord, when I will make with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah a new covenant; ⁹ not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. ¹⁰ For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws into their mind, and on their hearts will I write them; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. ¹¹ And they shall not teach every one his fellow-citizen, and every one his brother, saying, Know the Lord; for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. ¹² For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities I will remember no more." ¹³ In that he saith, "a new covenant," he hath made the first old; but that which is becoming old, and worn out with age, is ready to vanish away.

have no power as to the conscience to perfect the worshipper, ¹⁰ being only ordinances pertaining to the flesh, which in addition to meats and drinks and divers washings are imposed until the time of reformation. ¹¹ But Christ having appeared, as a high-priest of the good things to come, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this creation, entered once for all into the sanctuary, ¹² not with the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, and obtained for us everlasting redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the purifying of the flesh, ¹⁴ how much more shall the blood of Christ, who by his everlasting spirit offered himself without spot to God, purify your conscience from dead works, for the worship of the living God! ¹⁵ And for this cause he is the mediator of a new covenant, that, death having taken place for redemption from the transgressions under the first covenant, they who have been called may receive the everlasting inheritance which was promised. ¹⁶ For where there is a testament there must of necessity be implied the death of the testator; ¹⁷ for a testament is of force after men are dead, since it is of no force while the testator is living. ¹⁸ Hence neither was the first covenant ratified without blood. ¹⁹ For when Moses had spoken every precept according to the Law to all the people, he took the blood of the calves and of the goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, ²⁰ saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God enjoined in respect to you." ²¹ The tabernacle also and all the vessels of the service he in like manner sprinkled with the blood. ²² And almost all things are according to the Law purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission. ²³ It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with sacrifices better than these. ²⁴ For Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made with hands, which is only a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God in our behalf. ²⁵ Nor yet to make an offering of himself many times, as the high-priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; ²⁶ for then must he have suffered many times since the foundation of the world; but now once in the end of the world he hath appeared, to put away sin by means of his sacrifice. ²⁷ And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment; ²⁸ so also Christ having been once offered up to bear the sins of many, will appear the second time, without sin, for the salvation of those who are waiting for him.

wouldest not, but a body didst thou prepare for me; ⁶ in whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure. ⁷ Then said I, Lo, I have come—in the volume of the book it is written of me—to do thy will, O God.” ⁸ Saying above, “Sacrifices and offerings, and whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, and hadst no pleasure in them,”—such as are offered in conformity to the Law,—⁹ then hath he said, “Lo, I have come to do thy will.” He setteth aside the first, that he may establish the second. ¹⁰ And in this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. ¹¹ And every priest indeed standeth performing daily service, and offering again and again the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins; ¹² but he, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, sat down for ever on the right hand of God, ¹³ thenceforth waiting until his enemies be made his footstool. ¹⁴ For by one offering he hath perfected for ever those who are sanctified. ¹⁵ Moreover the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us of this. For after he had said, ¹⁶ “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days,” the Lord saith, “I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them, ¹⁷ and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.” ¹⁸ But where there is remission of these, there is no longer offering for sin. ¹⁹ Having therefore, brethren, boldness for entrance into the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ a new and living way, which he consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, his flesh, ²¹ and having a great priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience; and having had our bodies washed with pure water, ²³ let us hold fast the profession of our hope without wavering, for he is faithful who promised; ²⁴ and let us consider one another, to excite to love and to good works, ²⁵ not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. ²⁶ For if we sin willingly after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remaineth a sacrifice for sins; ²⁷ but a certain fearful looking for judgment, and an indignation by fire, which will devour the adversaries. ²⁸ He that hath set at nought the law of Moses dieth without mercy under two or three witnesses; ²⁹ of how much heavier punishment, think ye, will he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite to the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we know him who said, “Vengeance belongeth to me, I will recompense, saith the Lord;” and again, “The Lord will judge his people.” ³¹ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ³² But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great struggle with sufferings; ³³ partly, while ye were made a gazing-stock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while ye became partakers with those that were so used. ³⁴ For ye sympathized with those in bonds, and ye took joyfully the plundering of your goods, knowing that ye have for yourselves a better and an enduring substance. ³⁵ Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. ³⁶ For ye have need of endurance; that, after ye have done the will of God, ye may receive what is promised. ³⁷ For yet a very little while, and “he that is to come will come, and will not tarry. ³⁸ Now my righteous man shall live by faith; but if he draw back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.” ³⁹ But we are not of those who draw back, unto perdition; but of those who believe, to the saving of the soul.

of Israel, and gave directions concerning his bones. ²³ By faith Moses, when born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was fair and they feared not the king's commandment. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called son of Pharaoh's daughter; ²⁵ choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; ²⁶ esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the recompense of reward. ²⁷ By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸ Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that he who destroyed the first-born might not touch them. ²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land; which the Egyptians attempted and were swallowed up. ³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encompassed for seven days. ³¹ By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish with those who disobeyed, after having received the spies with peace. ³² And what shall I say more? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, of Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, of David and Samuel, and the prophets; ³³ who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promised blessings, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴ quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put to flight the armies of the aliens. ³⁵ Women received back their dead by a resurrection; but others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection; ³⁶ and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, and also of bonds and imprisonment; ³⁷ they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword; they went about in sheep-skins and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented, ³⁸ of whom the world was not worthy; they wandered in deserts and mountains, and caves and the clefts of the earth. ³⁹ And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promised blessing, ⁴⁰ God having provided for us some better thing, that they might not be made perfect without us.

partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons. ⁹ Furthermore, we were chastened by the fathers of our flesh, and we gave them reverence; shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? ¹⁰ For they indeed for a few days chastened us, according as it seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. ¹¹ Now all chastening for the present indeed seemeth to be not joyous, but grievous; but afterward it yieldeth the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby. ¹² Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; ¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, that the lame may not be turned out of the way, but may rather be healed. ¹⁴ Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord; ¹⁵ looking diligently, lest any one come short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and the many be thereby defiled; ¹⁶ lest there be any fornicator, or profane person as Esau, who for one meal sold even his birthright. ¹⁷ For ye know that when he afterward wished to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it earnestly with tears. ¹⁸ For ye have not come to a mount that can be touched, and burning with fire, and to blackness, and darkness, and tempest, ¹⁹ and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they who heard, entreated that no more should be spoken to them; ²⁰ for they could not bear that which was commanded, "If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned;" and, ²¹ so terrible was the sight, Moses said: "I exceedingly fear and tremble;" ²² but ye have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem; and to myriads, the general assembly of angels; ²³ and to the church of the first-born, who are enrolled in heaven; and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous men made perfect; ²⁴ and to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant; and to a sprinkling with that blood which speaketh something better than Abel. ²⁵ See that ye refuse not him who speaketh. For if they did not escape, who refused him who spoke his will on earth, much more shall not we, if we turn away from him who speaketh from heaven; ²⁶ whose voice then shook the earth; but now he hath promised, saying, "Yet once more will I shake, not the earth only, but also the heaven." ²⁷ And this expression, "Yet once more," signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, in order that those things which are not shaken may abide. ²⁸ Wherefore receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear. ²⁹ For our God is a consuming fire.

¹ Let brotherly love continue. ² Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. ³ Remember those in bonds, as bound with them; those in distress, as being yourselves also in the body. ⁴ Let marriage be honored in all respects, and the bed be undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. ⁵ Let your disposition be without covetousness, and be content with what ye have; for he hath said, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee;”⁶ so that we boldly say, “The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear; what shall man do to me?”⁷ Remember your leaders, who spoke to you the word of God; and considering well the end of their manner of life, imitate their faith.⁸ Jesus Christ is yesterday and to-day the same, and for ever.⁹ Be not carried aside with various and strange teachings; for it is good that the heart be established with grace, not with meats, in which those who walked were not profited.¹⁰ We have an altar, of which they cannot eat who serve the tabernacle.¹¹ For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high-priest are burned without the camp.¹² Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people by his own blood, suffered without the gate.¹³ Let us then go forth to him without the camp, bearing his reproach;¹⁴ for here we have no abiding city, but are seeking that which is to come.¹⁵ Through him therefore let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips giving thanks to his name.¹⁶ But works of kindness and liberality forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.¹⁷ Obey your leaders, and submit yourselves to them; for they keep watch in behalf of your souls, as those who must give an account; that they may do this with joy, and not with grief; for this is not for your advantage.¹⁸ Pray for us; for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring in all things to conduct ourselves well;¹⁹ but I the more earnestly entreat you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep through the blood of an everlasting covenant, even our Lord Jesus,²¹ make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, doing in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory for ever. Amen.²² But I beseech you, brethren, bear with the word of my exhortation; for I have written to you in few words.²³ Know that the brother Timothy hath been set at liberty, with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.²⁴ Salute all your leaders, and all the saints. Those from Italy salute you.²⁵ Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

¹ James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. ² Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into various temptations; ³ knowing that the trying of your faith worketh endurance. ⁴ But let endurance have a perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting in nothing. ⁵ But if any one of you is wanting in wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally, and upbraideth not; and it will be given him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting; for he that doubteth is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. ⁷ For let not that man think that he shall receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ a double-minded man as he is, unstable in all his ways. ⁹ Let the brother of low degree glory in that he is exalted; ¹⁰ but the rich, in that he is made low; because as the flower of the grass he will pass away. ¹¹ For the sun rose with its burning heat, and withered the grass, and its flower fell off, and the beauty of its appearance perished; so also will the rich man fade away in his ways. ¹² Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is approved, he will receive the crown of life, which He promised to them that love him. ¹³ Let no one when he is tempted, say, I am tempted by God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he tempteth no one. ¹⁴ But each one is tempted when by his own lust he is led away and enticed; ¹⁵ then lust, having conceived, bringeth forth sin, and sin, when completed, bringeth forth death. ¹⁶ Do not err, my beloved brethren. ¹⁷ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the lights, with whom is no change, nor shadow from turning. ¹⁸ Of his own will he begot us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. ¹⁹ Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. ²⁰ For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. ²¹ Wherefore put off all filthiness, and excess of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. ²² But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. ²³ For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a glass; ²⁴ for he beholds himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what manner of man he was. ²⁵ But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty, and remains there, being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in his deed. ²⁶ If any one thinks that he is religious, and bridles not his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain. ²⁷ Pure religion and undefiled before God, the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep one's self unspotted from the world.

¹ My brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord of glory, Jesus Christ, with respect of persons. ² For if there come into your assembly a man with a gold ring, in splendid apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment, ³ and ye have respect to him that weareth the splendid apparel, and say, Sit thou here in a good place, and say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or, Sit under my footstool, ⁴ have ye not been partial among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵ Hearken, my beloved brethren. Did not God choose the poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to them that love him? ⁶ but ye have despised the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and do not they drag you before the judgment-seats? ⁷ Do not they blaspheme the worthy name by which ye are called? ⁸ If indeed ye fulfill the royal law, according to the scripture, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," ye do well. ⁹ But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰ For whoever hath kept the whole law, and yet hath offended in one point, hath become guilty of all. ¹¹ For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not kill." Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou hast become a transgressor of the law. ¹² So speak, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. ¹³ For the judgment shall be without mercy to him that showed no mercy. Mercy glorieth against judgment. ¹⁴ What doth it profit, my brethren, if any one say that he hath faith, and have not works? Can his faith save him? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you say to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and be filled, notwithstanding ye give them not the things needful for the body, what doth it profit? ¹⁷ So also faith, if it hath not works, is dead in itself. ¹⁸ But some one will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works; show me thy faith without works, and I will show thee my faith by my works. ¹⁹ Thou believest that God is one; thou doest well; the demons also believe, and tremble. ²⁰ But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is idle? ²¹ Was not Abraham our father accepted as righteous through works, when he offered Isaac his son upon the altar? ²² Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect. ²³ And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness;" and he was called the friend of God. ²⁴ Ye see that by works a man is accounted as righteous, and not by faith only. ²⁵ And in like manner was not also Rahab the harlot accounted as righteous through works, when she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? ²⁶ For as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

¹ My brethren, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. ² For in many things we all offend. If any one offend not in speech, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. ³ For when we put the bits into the horses' mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about also their whole body. ⁴ Behold also the ships, which, though they are so great, and driven by fierce winds, are yet turned about with a very small rudder; whithersoever the steersman chooseth. ⁵ So also the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a forest a little fire kindleth! ⁶ And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity! The tongue among our members is that which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of life, and is itself set on fire by hell. ⁷ For every kind of beasts and of birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed and hath been tamed by mankind; ⁸ but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ Therewith bless we the Lord and Father, and therewith curse we men, who have been made after the likeness of God; ¹⁰ out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. ¹¹ Doth a fountain from the same opening send forth sweet water and bitter? ¹² Can a fig-tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a vine, figs? Neither can salt water yield fresh. ¹³ Who is wise and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good course of conduct his works in meekness of wisdom. ¹⁴ But if ye have bitter rivalry and strife in your hearts, do not glory and lie against the truth. ¹⁵ This wisdom is not that which descendeth from above, but earthly, sensual, devilish. ¹⁶ For where there is rivalry and strife, there is confusion and every evil work. ¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, without hypocrisy. ¹⁸ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

¹ Whence are wars and whence are fightings among you? Are they not hence, from your lusts that war in your members? ² Ye lust, and have not; ye kill, and earnestly covet, and cannot obtain; ye fight and war. Ye have not, because ye ask not; ³ ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. ⁴ Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore chooseth to be a friend of the world, becometh an enemy of God. ⁵ Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, "Zealously doth the Spirit, which made its abode in us, long for us"? ⁶ but he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble." ⁷ Submit yourselves therefore to God; resist the Devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸ Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded. ⁹ Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into heaviness. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you. ¹¹ Speak not against one another, brethren; he that speaketh against his brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law; but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. ¹² One is the Lawgiver and Judge, he who is able to save, and to destroy; but who art thou, that judgest thy neighbor? ¹³ Come now, ye that say, To-day and to-morrow we will go into such a city, and spend a year there and traffic, and get gain, ¹⁴ (whereas ye know not what will be on the morrow; for what is your life? Ye are even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away;) ¹⁵ instead of saying, If the Lord will, we shall both live and do this or that; ¹⁶ but now ye glory in your boastings. All such glorying is evil. ¹⁷ Therefore to him that knoweth how to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

¹ Come now, ye rich men, weep and wail for your miseries that are coming upon you. ² Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are become moth-eaten; ³ your gold and silver is rusted, and the rust of them will be a witness against you, and will eat your flesh as fire; ye have heaped up treasure in the last days! ⁴ Behold, the hire of the laborers who reaped your fields, which is fraudulently kept back by you, crieth out; and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ⁵ Ye have lived in luxury on the earth, and have been given to pleasure; ye have pampered your hearts in a day of slaughter. ⁶ Ye have condemned, ye have killed the just man; he doth not resist you. ⁷ Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and is patient about it, until it hath received the early and latter rain. ⁸ Be ye also patient, establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. ⁹ Murmur not against each other, brethren, that ye be not judged. Behold, the Judge standeth before the door. ¹⁰ Take, brethren, the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, for an example of affliction, and of patience. ¹¹ Behold, we count those happy who have endured. Ye have heard of the patience of Job; behold also the end of the Lord, that he is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. ¹² But above all things, my brethren, swear not; neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under condemnation. ¹³ Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing praise. ¹⁴ Is any sick among you? let him call to him the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up; even if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁶ Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that ye may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous man availeth much. ¹⁷ Elijah was a man of like nature with us, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months; ¹⁸ and again he prayed, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. ¹⁹ Brethren, if any one among you be led astray from the truth, and one convert him, ²⁰ let him know that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

¹ Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered through Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ² chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you. ³ Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his abundant mercy, begot us again into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ to an inheritance imperishable, and undefiled, and unfading, reserved in heaven for you, ⁵ who are guarded by the power of God through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time; ⁶ wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a short time, if need be, made sorrowful by manifold trials, ⁷ that the proof of your faith, much more precious than gold which perisheth, but is tried with fire, may be found unto praise and glory and honor at the manifestation of Jesus Christ; ⁸ whom, having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory, ⁹ receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰ Concerning which salvation the prophets sought earnestly and searched earnestly, who prophesied of the grace that was to come to you; ¹¹ searching what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them signified, when it testified beforehand the sufferings to come upon Christ, and the glories that were to follow; ¹² to whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they were ministering the things, which have now been announced to you by them that have brought the glad tidings to you by the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things angels desire to look into. ¹³ Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope undoubtingly for the grace that is to be brought to you at the manifestation of Jesus Christ; ¹⁴ as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts in your ignorance; ¹⁵ but as he who called you is holy, be ye also holy in all your conduct; ¹⁶ because it is written, "Ye shall be holy, for I am holy." ¹⁷ And if ye call him Father who without respect of persons judgeth according to each one's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear; ¹⁸ knowing that not with perishable things, silver or gold, were ye redeemed from your vain manner of life received by tradition from your fathers, ¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot; ²⁰ who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but manifested in these last times for you, ²¹ who through him have faith in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. ²² Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth unto unfeigned brotherly love, love one another from the heart, fervently; ²³ being born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the word of God, which liveth and abideth. ²⁴ Because, "All flesh is as grass, and all its glory as the flower of grass; the grass withered, and its flower fell off; ²⁵ but the word of the Lord abideth for ever;" and this is the word which was preached to you.

¹ Laying aside therefore all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all slander, ² as new-born babes, desire the spiritual, pure milk, that ye may grow thereby to salvation; ³ if indeed ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. ⁴ To whom coming, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but in the sight of God chosen, honored, ⁵ be ye yourselves also, as living stones, built up, a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶ Because it is contained in the Scripture: "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner-stone, chosen, honored; and he that believeth in him shall not be put to shame." ⁷ To you therefore who believe, is the honor; but to the disobedient, "the stone which the builders rejected, the same hath become the corner-stone," ⁸ and "a stone of stumbling, and a rock to strike against;" even to those who stumble, being disobedient to the word; to which they were also appointed. ⁹ But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for a possession, that ye may show forth the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light; ¹⁰ who once were not a people, but are now the people of God; who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. ¹¹ Beloved, I exhort you, as sojourners and strangers, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; ¹² having your manner of life among the gentiles honorable; that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. ¹³ Submit yourselves therefore to every human institution for the Lord's sake; whether to the king, as supreme; ¹⁴ or to governors, as being sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and the praise of those who do well. ¹⁵ For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men; ¹⁶ as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as servants of God. ¹⁷ Honor all men; love the brotherhood; fear God; honor the king. ¹⁸ Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and considerate, but also to the perverse. ¹⁹ For this is acceptable, if any one on account of a sense of duty to God endureth hardships, suffering wrongfully. ²⁰ For what glory is it, if, when ye are beaten for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently [[it is glory]]; for this is acceptable with God. ²¹ For to this ye were called; because even Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps; ²² who committed no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth; ²³ who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered did not threaten, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously; ²⁴ who himself bore our sins in his own body on the cross, that we, having died to our sins, should live to righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed. ²⁵ For ye were going astray like sheep; but ye have now returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

¹ In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, that even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be won by the behavior of the wives, ² when they behold your chaste behavior coupled with fear. ³ Whose adorning, let it not be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing golden ornaments, or of putting on apparel; ⁴ but the hidden man of the heart, in that which is imperishable, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. ⁵ For in this manner in the old time the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands; ⁶ as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose daughters ye have become, if ye do well, and fear no alarm. ⁷ Dwell likewise, O husband, with thy wife according to knowledge, as with the weaker vessel, giving her honor as being heir with thee of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered. ⁸ Finally, be, all of one mind, have fellow feeling, love as brethren, be compassionate, be humble; ⁹ not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but, on the contrary, blessing the evil-doer; because for this end ye were called, that ye might inherit blessing. ¹⁰ "For he that would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking guile; ¹¹ let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it. ¹² For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are toward their supplication; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil." ¹³ And who is he that shall harm you, if ye are followers of that which is good? ¹⁴ But if ye even suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye. And be not afraid at their terrors, nor alarmed; ¹⁵ but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. And be ready always to give an answer to every one that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, but with meekness and fear; ¹⁶ having a good conscience, that, wherein ye are evil spoken of, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ. ¹⁷ For it is better, if it be the will of God, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing. ¹⁸ For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous one for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; ¹⁹ in which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison, ²⁰ who were disobedient in times past, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was preparing, wherein a few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water; ²¹ which in its antitype, baptism, is now saving you,—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the earnest seeking for a good conscience toward God,—by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; ²² who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

¹ Christ then having suffered in the flesh, do ye also arm yourselves with the same mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; ² that ye may no longer live the remaining time in the flesh after the lusts of men, but after the will of God. ³ For sufficient is the time past to have wrought the will of the gentiles, when ye walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, carousings, and abominable idolatries; ⁴ at which they are astonished that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you; ⁵ who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶ For to this end was the gospel preached also to the dead, that they might indeed be judged according to men in the flesh, but might live according to God in the spirit. ⁷ But the end of all things is at hand; be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. ⁸ And above all things have fervent love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins. ⁹ Be hospitable to one another without grudging. ¹⁰ According as each one hath received a gift, minister the same to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. ¹¹ If any one speak, let him speak as uttering the oracles of God; if any minister, let him do it as from the ability which God giveth; that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen. ¹² Beloved, be not surprised at the fiery trial which is taking place among you to prove you, as though a strange thing were befalling you; ¹³ but, in so far as ye share in Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that also at the manifestation of his glory ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. ¹⁴ If ye are reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. ¹⁵ For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters; ¹⁶ but if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. ¹⁷ For the time is come for judgment to begin at the house of God; but if it first begin with us, what will be the end of those who obey not the gospel of God? ¹⁸ and "if the righteous scarcely is saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?" ¹⁹ Wherefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as to a faithful Creator.

¹ The elders among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a sharer in the glory that is to be revealed; ² tend the flock of God which is among you, overseeing it, not by constraint, but willingly; not for base gain, but with ready mind; ³ not as lording it over your allotted charge, but being examples to the flock; ⁴ and when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye will receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away. ⁵ In like manner, ye younger men, submit yourselves to the elder; and all of you be clothed with humility toward each other; for "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble." ⁶ Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; ⁷ casting all your care upon him, because he careth for you. ⁸ Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary the Devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour; ⁹ whom resist, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are being accomplished in your brethren in the world. ¹⁰ But the God of all grace, who called you to his everlasting glory in Christ Jesus, will, after ye have suffered a while, himself make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. ¹¹ To him be the dominion for ever. Amen. ¹² By Silvanus, the faithful brother as I think, I have written to you in few words, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. ¹³ The church in Babylon, chosen with you, saluteth you; and Mark, my son. ¹⁴ Salute one another with a kiss of love. Peace to you all that are in Christ.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

¹ Symeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of our God, and the Saviour Jesus Christ: ² Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord. ³ Seeing that his Divine power hath given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness; ⁴ through which he hath given us exceedingly great and precious promises, that by these ye may become partakers of the Divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world through lust; ⁵ even for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, ⁶ and to knowledge self-control, and to self-control endurance, and to endurance godliness, ⁷ and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. ⁸ For if these things are in you and abound, they make you neither inactive nor unfruitful in gaining the full knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins. ¹⁰ Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things, ye will never fall. ¹¹ For in this way the entrance will be richly furnished you into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. ¹² Wherefore I shall be careful always to remind you of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth that is with you. ¹³ Yea, I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by reminding you; ¹⁴ knowing that I must soon put off my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ declared to me. ¹⁵ Moreover I shall endeavor that at all times ye may be able, after my departure, to call these things to mind. ¹⁶ For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but had been made eye-witnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷ For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when such a voice as this was borne to him from the excellent glory: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." ¹⁸ And this voice we heard borne from heaven when we were with him in the holy mount. ¹⁹ And we have more sure the prophetic word, to which ye do well in taking heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts; ²⁰ knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture cometh from private interpretation. ²¹ For prophecy never came by the will of man; but moved by the Holy Spirit, men spoke from God.

¹ But there arose false prophets also among the people, as there will be false teachers among you also, who will stealthily bring in destructive factions, even denying the Lord that bought them; bringing upon themselves swift destruction. ² And many will follow their dissolute ways, by reason of whom the way of truth will be

evil spoken of; ³ and in covetousness will they with feigned words make merchandise of you; for whom the judgment long ago ordained lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. ⁴ For if God spared not angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them over to chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; ⁵ and spared not the old world, but saved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; ⁶ and turning into ashes the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, condemned them to overthrow, making them an example for those who in after time should live ungodly; ⁷ and delivered righteous Lot, distressed by the lewd conduct of the lawless men; ⁸ (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing tormented his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds;) ⁹ the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the unrighteous under punishment to the day of judgment; ¹⁰ but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise dominion. Presumptuous, self-willed, they are not afraid to rail at dignities; ¹¹ whereas angels, who are greater in strength and power, bring not against them a railing accusation; ¹² but these, as brute beasts, by nature born to be taken and destroyed, railing at things which they understand not, shall even perish in their own corruption, ¹³ receiving the wages of unrighteousness. Counting it pleasure to riot in the day-time, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceits while they feast with you, ¹⁴ having eyes full of an adulteress, and that cannot cease from sin, alluring unstable souls, having a heart exercised in covetousness, children of a curse, ¹⁵ they have forsaken the right way, and have gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, ¹⁶ but was rebuked for his iniquity; the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, restrained the madness of the prophet. ¹⁷ These are wells without water, and mists driven by a tempest; for whom the blackness of darkness is reserved. ¹⁸ For speaking great swelling words of vanity, they allure in the lusts of the flesh, by dissolute ways, such as were in some measure escaping from those who live in error; ¹⁹ promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what a man is overcome, by the same is he also brought into bondage. ²⁰ For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is worse with them than the first. ²¹ For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²² It hath happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog returned to his own vomit; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

¹ This second letter, beloved, I now write to you, in both which I stir up your pure minds by putting you in remembrance; ² that ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the Lord and Saviour by your apostles;

³ knowing this first, that there will come in the last days open scoffers following their own lusts, ⁴ and saying, Where is his promised coming? for, from the time when the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as then, and as they have continued from the beginning of the creation. ⁵ For of this they are willingly ignorant, that of old by the word of God there were heavens, and an earth formed out of the water and by the water, ⁶ by means of which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished; ⁷ but the present heavens and the present earth are by his word kept in store, reserved for fire against the day of judgment and the perdition of ungodly men. ⁸ But forget not, beloved, this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹ The Lord is not tardy concerning his promise, as some men count tardiness; but is long-suffering toward you, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. ¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein will be burned up. ¹¹ Seeing that all these things are thus to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in holy conduct and godliness, ¹² looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat! ¹³ But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. ¹⁴ Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, be diligent that ye may be found without spot and blameless before him in peace, ¹⁵ and account the long-suffering of our Lord salvation; as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you, ¹⁶ as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things; in which things are some that are hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. ¹⁷ Do ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things beforehand, beware lest, being led away with the error of the lawless, ye fall from your own steadfastness. ¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be the glory, both now and for ever.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

¹That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we looked upon, and our hands handled, concerning the word of life, ²—and the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and announce to you the everlasting life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us,—³that which we have seen and heard we announce to you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴And these things we write to you, that your joy may be full. ⁵And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; ⁷but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

¹My children, these things I write to you, that ye may not sin. And if any one have sinned, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. ²And he is a propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. ³And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵But whoever keepeth his word, truly in him is the love of God perfected. Hereby we know that we are in him. ⁶He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. ⁷Beloved, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which ye have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard. ⁸Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him, and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light now shineth. ⁹He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him; ¹¹but he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes. ¹²I write to you, my children, because your sins have been forgiven you for his name's sake. ¹³I write to you, fathers, because ye know him that was from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because ye have overcome the Evil One. I have written to you, my children, because ye know the Father. ¹⁴I have written to you, fathers, because ye know him that was from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the Evil One. ¹⁵ Love not the world, nor the things in the world. If any one loveth the world, the love of the Father is not in him; ¹⁶ because all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. ¹⁷ And the world is passing away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. ¹⁸ My children, the last time is come; and as ye have heard that Antichrist is coming, even now there are many antichrists; whereby we know that the last time is come. ¹⁹ They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they are not all of us. ²⁰ And ye have an anointing from the Holy One, and know all things. ²¹ I have not written to you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. ²² Who is the liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, who denieth the Father and the Son. ²³ Whoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father; he that acknowledgeth the Son hath also the Father. ²⁴ As for you, let that which ye have heard from the beginning abide in you. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall abide in you, ye also will abide in the Son, and in the Father. ²⁵ And this is the promise which he himself promised us, even the life everlasting. ²⁶ These things I have written to you concerning those who seduce you. ²⁷ And the anointing which ye yourselves received from him abideth in you, and ye have no need that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is truth, and is not a lie, even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. ²⁸ And now, my children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. ²⁹ If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness hath been born of him.

¹ Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. ² Beloved, now are we children of God, and it hath not yet been manifested what we shall be. We know that, when it shall be manifested, we shall be like him; because we shall see him as he is. ³ And every one that hath this hope in Him purifieth himself, even as He is pure. ⁴ Whoever committeth sin transgresseth thereby the law; for sin is a transgression of the law. ⁵ And ye know that he was manifested to take away sins; and in him is no sin. ⁶ Whoever abideth in him sinneth not; whoever sinneth hath not seen him, nor known him. ⁷ My children, let no one deceive you; he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. ⁸ He that committeth sin is of the Devil; for the Devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the Devil. ⁹ Whoever hath been born of God doth not commit sin, because his seed abideth in him; and he cannot sin, because he hath been born of God. ¹⁰ In this are manifest the children of God and the children of the Devil. Whoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, and he that loveth not his brother. ¹¹ For this is the message that ye have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; ¹² not as Cain was of the Evil One, and slew his brother. And wherefore did he slay him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. ¹³ Wonder not, brethren, if the world hateth you. ¹⁴ We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren; he that loveth not abideth in death. ¹⁵ Whoever hateth his brother is a murderer; and ye know that no murderer hath everlasting life abiding in him. ¹⁶ Herein we know love, in that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. ¹⁷ But whoever hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother having need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? ¹⁸ My children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth. ¹⁹ And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him; ²⁰ because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. ²¹ Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have confidence toward God; ²² and whatever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. ²³ And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and should love one another, as he gave commandment. ²⁴ And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him; and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit, which he gave us.

¹ Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone forth into the world. ² Hereby ye know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledgeth that Jesus Christ hath come in the flesh, is of God. ³ And every spirit that doth not acknowledge Jesus, is not of God; and this is that spirit of Antichrist, of which ye have heard that it is to come, and even now it is already in the world. ⁴ Ye are of God, my children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. ⁵ They are of the world; therefore they speak of the world, and the world heareth them. ⁶ We are of God; he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth us not. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. ⁷ Beloved, let us love one another; for love is from God, and every one that loveth hath been born of God, and knoweth God; ⁸ he that loveth not hath not known God; for God is love. ⁹ In this was manifested the love of God in regard to us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we may live through him. ¹⁰ Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be a propitiation for our sins. ¹¹ Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹² No one hath ever seen God. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. ¹³ Hereby we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴ And we have seen and bear witness, that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. ¹⁵ Whoever acknowledgeth that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. ¹⁶ And we have known and believed the love that God hath in regard to us. God is love; and

he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. ¹⁷ Herein hath love been perfected with us, that we have confidence in the day of judgment; because as he is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. ¹⁹ We love, because he first loved us. ²⁰ If any one saith, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen? ²¹ And this commandment we have from him, that he who loveth God love also his brother.

¹ Whoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ hath been born of God; and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth also him that hath been begotten of him. ² By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do his commandments. ³ For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not burdensome, ⁴ because whatever is born of God overcome the world; and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵ Who is he that overcome the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶ This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but in the water and in the blood; and the Spirit is that which beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. ⁷ ⁸ For there are three that bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three agree in one. ⁹ If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God, that he hath borne witness concerning his Son. ¹⁰ He that believeth in the Son of God hath the witness within him; he that believeth not God hath made him a liar, because he hath not believed in the witness which God hath borne concerning his Son. ¹¹ And this is the witness, that God gave to us everlasting life, and this life is in his Son. ¹² He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life. ¹³ These things have I written to you, that ye may know that ye who believe in the name of the Son of God have everlasting life. ¹⁴ And this is the confidence which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us; ¹⁵ and if we know that he heareth us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests which we have asked of him. ¹⁶ If any one see his brother sin a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and shall give him life,—to those who sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death; for that I do not say that he shall pray. ¹⁷ All unrighteousness is sin; and there is a sin not unto death. ¹⁸ We know that whoever hath been born of God sinneth not; but he that is born of God keepeth himself, and the Evil One toucheth him not. ¹⁹ We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth under the dominion of the Evil One. ²⁰ And we know that the Son of God hath come, and hath given us understanding, that we may know the True One; and we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and everlasting life. ²¹ My children, keep yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

¹ The elder to the elect Cyria, and to her children, whom I love in truth, and not I only, but also all that know the truth,—² for the sake of the truth which abideth in us, and will be with us for ever. ³ Grace, mercy, peace shall be with you from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. ⁴ I rejoiced greatly, that I found some of thy children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. ⁵ And now I beseech thee, Cyria, not as writing to thee a new commandment, but that which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. ⁶ And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, as ye have heard from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. ⁷ For many deceivers went out into the world, who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ coming in the flesh; this is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸ Look to yourselves, that ye lose not the things which ye wrought, but receive a full reward. ⁹ Whoever goeth beyond, and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the teaching, he hath both the Son and the Father. ¹⁰ If any one cometh to you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and do not bid him good speed. ¹¹ For he that biddeth him good speed taketh part in his evil deeds. ¹² Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be full. ¹³ The children of thy elect sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

¹ The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth. ² Beloved, in all things I pray that thou mayst prosper and be in health, as thy soul prospereth. ³ For I rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bore witness to thy truth, as thou walkest in truth. ⁴ I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children walk in the truth. ⁵ Beloved, thou doest a faithful thing whatever thou doest to the brethren, and that to strangers, ⁶ who bore witness of thy love before the church; whom if thou send forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, thou wilt do well. ⁷ For in behalf of the Name they went forth, taking nothing of the gentiles. ⁸ We therefore ought to sustain such persons, that we may be fellow-workers for the truth. ⁹ I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not. ¹⁰ Wherefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words; and not content therewith, he himself doth not receive the brethren, and those that would he forbiddeth, and casteth them out of the church. ¹¹ Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God; he that doeth evil hath not seen God. ¹² To Demetrius testimony hath been borne by all, and by the truth itself; yea, we also bear witness, and ye know that our witness is true. ¹³ I had many things to write to thee, but I do not wish to write to thee with ink and pen; ¹⁴ but I hope to see thee immediately, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

¹ Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to the called, loved in God the Father and kept by Jesus Christ: ² Mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you. ³ Beloved, while giving all diligence to write to you, I found it necessary to write to you concerning the common salvation, exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once delivered to the saints. ⁴ For there have stealthily crept in certain men who were of old appointed beforehand for this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into wantonness, and denying the only Sovereign, and our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵ But I wish to remind you as once knowing it all, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who believed not; ⁶ and the angels which kept not their principality, but left their own dwelling-place, he hath kept in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day; ⁷ even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner with them giving themselves over to fornication, and going away after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of everlasting fire. ⁸ Yet in like manner these dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and rail at dignities. ⁹ Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the Devil he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a railing accusation, but said: The Lord rebuke thee. ¹⁰ But these rail at the things which they know not; but what things they understand naturally, as brute beasts, in these they corrupt themselves. ¹¹ Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and rushed on in the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah. ¹² These are the rocks in your feasts of love, feasting together without fear, feeding only themselves; clouds without water, carried away by winds; trees in late autumn, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; ¹³ raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. ¹⁴ Yea, and against these Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord cometh in the midst of his holy myriads, ¹⁵ to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly among them of all the deeds of their ungodliness which they committed; and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners spoke against him." ¹⁶ These are murmurers, complaining of their lot, walking according to their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words; admiring men's persons, for the sake of profit. ¹⁷ But do ye, beloved, remember the words which were before spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁸ that they told you that at the last time there would be scoffers, walking according to their own ungodly lusts. ¹⁹ These are they that separate themselves, sensual, not having the Spirit. ²⁰ But do ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. ²² And some rebuke when they contend; and others save, snatching them out of the fire; and on others have compassion ²³ with fear, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. ²⁴ But to him that is able to keep them from falling, and to present them faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, ²⁵ to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, is glory, majesty, dominion and power, before all time, and now, and for ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

¹ The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants what must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John; ² who bore witness of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ,—of whatever he saw. ³ Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things written therein; for the time is at hand. ⁴ John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven spirits which are before his throne; ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first-born of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him that loveth us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, ⁶ and made us a kingdom, priests to God his Father, to him be the glory and the dominion for ever. Amen. ⁷ Behold, he cometh with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they who pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. ⁸ I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith the Lord God, he who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. ⁹ I John, your brother, and companion in the affliction and kingdom and endurance in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Patmos, on account of the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day; and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, ¹¹ saying: What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamus, and to Thyatira, and to Sardes, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea. ¹² And I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me; and having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks, ¹³ and in the midst of the candlesticks one like to a son of man, clothed with a garment reaching down to the feet, and girded at the breasts with a golden girdle. ¹⁴ His head and his hairs were white as white wool, as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; ¹⁵ and his feet were like fine brass, as if burning in a furnace; and his voice was as the sound of many waters. ¹⁶ And he had in his right hand seven stars; and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. ¹⁷ And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead; and he laid his right hand on me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, ¹⁸ and he that liveth; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore; and I have the keys of death and the underworld. ¹⁹ Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall be after these; ²⁰ the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches; and the seven candlesticks are the seven churches.

that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks: ² I know thy works, and thy labor, and thy endurance, and that thou canst not bear evil men; and thou didst try those who say they are apostles, and are not, and didst find them liars; ³ and thou hast endurance, and hast borne on account of my name, and hast not become weary. ⁴ But I have this against thee, that thou hast left thy first love. ⁵ Remember therefore whence thou hast fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to thee, and will remove thy candlestick out of its place, unless thou repent. ⁶ But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. ⁷ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of my God. ⁸ And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These things saith the first and the last, who was dead, and lived again: ⁹ I know thy affliction and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰ Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer. Behold, now, the Devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye will have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life. ¹¹ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt by the second death. ¹² And to the angel of the church in Pergamus write: These things saith he that hath the sharp two-edged sword: ¹³ I know where thou dwellest, where the throne of Satan is; and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days in which Antipas was my witness, my faithful one, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. ¹⁴ But I have a few things against thee; thou hast there them that hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling-block in the way of the sons of Israel, and to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. ¹⁵ So thou also hast men holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans, in like manner. ¹⁶ Repent therefore; or else I will come to thee quickly, and will make war with them with the sword of my mouth. ¹⁷ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, I will give of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it. ¹⁸ And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass: ¹⁹ I know thy works, and love, and faith, and service, and thy endurance, and that thy last works are more than the first. ²⁰ But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest thy wife Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess, and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. ²¹ And I gave her time to repent, and she will not repent of her fornication. ²² Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and those who together with her commit adultery into great distress, unless they repent of her deeds. ²³ And her children I will slay with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he who searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give to every one of you according to your works. ²⁴ But to you I say, the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, such as have not known “the depths” of Satan, as they speak; I put upon you no other burden; ²⁵ but that which ye have, hold fast till I come. ²⁶ And he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations,— ²⁷ and he shall rule them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of a potter are broken to shivers,—as I also have received of my Father. ²⁸ And I will give him the morning star. ²⁹ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

¹ And to the angel of the church in Sardes write: These things saith he who hath the seven spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. ² Be watchful, and strengthen the remaining things, that were ready to die; for I have not found thy works perfect before my God. ³ Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and keep those things, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know at what hour I will come upon thee. ⁴ But thou hast a few names in Sardes which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white garments; and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, and I will acknowledge his name before my Father, and before his angels. ⁶ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ⁷ And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These things saith he who is holy, he who is true, he who hath the key of David; he who openeth, and no one shall shut; and shutteth, and no one shall open: ⁸ I know thy works; behold, I have set before thee an open door, which no one can shut; for thou hast little power, and yet hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. ⁹ Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie,—behold, I will make them to come and bow down before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. ¹⁰ Because thou hast kept my injunction of endurance, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which is about to come upon the whole world, to try those who dwell upon the earth. ¹¹ I come quickly; hold fast that which thou hast, that no one may take thy crown. ¹² He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall nevermore go out; and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my Gods and I will write upon him my new name. ¹³ He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ¹⁴ And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God: ¹⁵ I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would thou wert cold or hot. ¹⁶ So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit thee out of my mouth. ¹⁷ Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten wealth, and have need of nothing, and knowest not that thou art the wretched and the pitiable one, and poor, and blind, and naked, ¹⁸ I advise thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayst be rich; and white garments, that thou mayst be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not be made manifest; and eye-salve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayst see. ¹⁹ As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. ²⁰ Behold, I stand at the door, and knock; if any one hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. ²¹ He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit with me on my throne, even as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²² He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches,

¹ After this I saw, and lo! an open door in heaven; and the former voice, which I heard as of a trumpet speaking with me, said, Come up hither, and I will show thee what things must take place after these. ² Immediately I was in the Spirit; and lo! a throne was set ha heaven, and one sat on the throne. ³ And he who sat was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius; and there was a rainbow around the throne like in appearance to an emerald. ⁴ And around the throne were twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones I saw the twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments, and on their heads crowns of gold. ⁵ And out of the throne proceed lightnings, and voices and thunders; and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God; ⁶ and before the throne there was as it were a sea of glass like to crystal; and in the middle before the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. ⁷ And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had the face of a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. ⁸ And the four living creatures, having each of them six wings, around and within are full of eyes; and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come. ⁹ And when the living creatures give glory, and honor, and thanksgiving to him that sitteth on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down before him that sitteth on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹ Worthy art thou, O Lord, and our God, to receive the glory, and the honor, and the power; for thou didst create all things, and on account of thy will they were, and were created.

me, Weep not; behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the shoot from David, conquered, he that openeth the book, and its seven seals. ⁶ And I saw, between the throne and the four living creatures and the elders, a Lamb standing, as if it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. ⁷ And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. ⁸ And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹ And they sing a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open its seals; for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed to God by thy blood men out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, ¹⁰ and hast made them a kingdom and priests, and they reign on the earth. ¹¹ And I saw, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; ¹² saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. ¹³ And every creature which is in heaven, and those which are on the earth and under the earth, and on the sea, and the things in them, I heard them all saying, To him that sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the dominion, for ever and ever. ¹⁴ And the four living creatures said Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

¹ And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard, as it were the voice of thunder, one of the four living creatures saying, Come! ² And I saw, and lo! a white horse, and he that sat on him, having a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. ³ And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come! ⁴ And there went forth another horse, that was red; and to him that sat thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that men should slay one another; and there was given to him a great sword. ⁵ And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come! And I saw, and lo! a black horse, and he that sat on him, having a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶ And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, A quart of wheat for a denary, and three quarts of barley for a denary; and, Hurt not the oil and the wine. ⁷ And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, Come! ⁸ And I saw, and lo! a pale horse, and the name of him that sat on him was Death; and the underworld was following with him; and there was given to them power over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth. ⁹ And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain on account of the word of God, and on account of the testimony which they had borne; ¹⁰ and they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth? ¹¹ And a white robe was given to them, and it was said to them that they should rest yet for a time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that were about to be killed as they were, should finish their course. ¹² And I saw when he had opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood, ¹³ and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig-tree casteth its untimely figs when shaken by a great wind; ¹⁴ and the heaven passed off, as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places; ¹⁵ and the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the chief captains, and the rich men, and the strong men, and every bondman and freeman hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; ¹⁶ and they say to the mountains and the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; ¹⁷ for the great day of his wrath is come, and who is able to stand?

the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne will make his abode with them. ¹⁶ They shall hunger no more, nor thirst any more; neither shall the sun fall upon them, nor any burning heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the midst before the throne is a shepherd to them, and leadeth them to the fountains of the waters of life; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

¹ And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about half an hour. ² And I saw the seven angels who stand before God; and there were given to them seven trumpets. ³ And another angel came, and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴ And the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints before God out of the angel's hand. ⁵ And the angel took the censer, and filled it from the fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth; and there followed thunders, and lightnings, and voices, and an earthquake. ⁶ And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. ⁷ And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth; and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. ⁸ And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; ⁹ and the third part of the sea became blood; and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. ¹⁰ And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters. ¹¹ And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. ¹² And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night in like manner. ¹³ And I saw, and heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to those who dwell on the earth, by reason of the remaining voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are yet to sound!

¹ And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fallen out of heaven to the earth, and to him was given the key of the pit of the abyss; ² and he opened the pit of the abyss. And there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. ³ And out of the smoke went forth locusts upon the earth, and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power; ⁴ and it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only those men who have not the seal of God upon their

foreheads; ⁵ and it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it hath struck a man. ⁶ And in those days men will seek death, and shall not find it; and will desire to die, and death will flee from them. ⁷ And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men; ⁸ and they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. ⁹ And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. ¹⁰ And they have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months. ¹¹ They have over them a king, the angel of the abyss, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek he hath for his name Apollyon. ¹² The first woe is past; behold, two woes more are yet to come. ¹³ And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice out of the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God, ¹⁴ saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates. ¹⁵ And the four angels were loosed, who were in readiness for the hour, and day, and month, and year, to slay the third part of men. ¹⁶ And the number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand; I heard the number of them. ¹⁷ And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of a fiery, and a dark blue, and a brimstone color; and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone. ¹⁸ By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and the smoke, and the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. ¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails; for their tails are like to serpents, having heads; and with them they do hurt. ²⁰ And the rest of men, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood, which can neither see; nor hear, nor walk; ²¹ and they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

¹ And I saw another strong angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. ² And he had in his hand a little book open. And he set his right foot upon the sea, and the left upon the land; ³ and he cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. And when he had cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. ⁴ And when the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write; and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up the things which the seven thunders spoke, and write them not. ⁵ And the angel whom I saw standing upon the sea, and upon the land, lifted up his right hand to heaven, ⁶ and swore by him who liveth for ever and ever, who created the heaven, and the things therein, and the earth and the things therein, and the sea, and the things therein, that there should be no longer delay; ⁷ but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then should be finished the mystery of God, as he declared the glad tidings to his servants the prophets. ⁸ And the voice which I heard out of heaven I heard again speaking to me, and saying: Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing upon the sea, and upon the land. ⁹ And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. And he saith to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it will make thy stomach bitter, but in thy mouth it will be sweet as honey. ¹⁰ And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey; and when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. ¹¹ And it was said to me, Thou must again prophesy concerning many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

¹ And there was given me a reed like to a staff, a voice saying: Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein; ² but the court which is outside the temple, leave out, and measure it not, for it hath been given to the gentiles; and the holy city will they tread under foot forty-two months. ³ And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. ⁴ These are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks, which stand before the Lord of the earth. ⁵ And if any one designs to hurt them, fire goeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies; and if any one designs to hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. ⁶ These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy; and have power over the waters, to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they will. ⁷ And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss will make war against them, and will overcome them, and kill them. ⁸ And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord also was crucified. ⁹ And some from among the peoples, and tribes, and tongues, and nations, will look upon their dead bodies three days and a half, and will not suffer their dead bodies to be put into a tomb. ¹⁰ And they that dwell upon the earth will rejoice over them, and make merry, and will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwelt on the earth. ¹¹ And after three days and a half the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them. ¹² And they heard a loud voice from heaven, saying to them, Come up hither; and they went up into heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. ¹³ And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain seven thousand men; and the rest became afraid, and gave glory to the God of heaven. ¹⁴ The second woe is past; behold, the third woe cometh quickly. ¹⁵ And the seventh angel sounded, and there followed loud voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever. ¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who sat before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, ¹⁷ saying,

We give thanks to thee, O Lord God Almighty, who art and who wast, because thou hast taken thy great power, and hast reigned. ¹⁸ And the nations were enraged, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy the destroyers of the earth. ¹⁹ And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

¹ And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; ² and being with child she crieth out, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. ³ And another sign was seen in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems; ⁴ and his tail dragged the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon standeth before the woman who was about to bring forth, that when she hath brought forth he may devour her child. ⁵ And she brought forth a man-child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. ⁶ And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared by God, that they should nourish her there a thousand two hundred and sixty days. ⁷ And there was war in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, ⁸ and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. ⁹ And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, who deceiveth the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. ¹⁰ And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, Now is come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night; ¹¹ and they conquered him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives, even to death. ¹² Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea! for the Devil is come down to you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. ¹³ And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the man-child. ¹⁴ And to the woman were given the two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. ¹⁵ And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a river, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the river. ¹⁶ And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. ¹⁷ And the dragon was enraged at the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God, and maintain the testimony to Jesus.

¹ And I stood upon the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and upon his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of blasphemy. ² And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power, and his throne, and great authority. ³ And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed. And the whole earth wondered after the beast. ⁴ And they worshipped the dragon, because he gave the authority to the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like to the beast, and who is able to make war with him? ⁵ And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemy; and power was given to him to work forty-two months. ⁶ And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ And it was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them; and power was given him over every tribe, and people, and tongue, and nation. ⁸ And all who dwell on the earth wilt worship him, every one whose name hath not been written in the book of life of the Lamb that was slain from the foundation of the world. ⁹ If any one hath an ear, let him hear. ¹⁰ If any one [[leadeth]] into captivity he shall go into captivity; if any one shall kill with the sword, he must be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints. ¹¹ And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon. ¹² And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his presence; and causeth the earth and those who dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. ¹³ And he doeth great signs, so that he even causeth fire to come down from heaven on the earth, in the sight of men. ¹⁴ And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the presence of the beast; commanding those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and lived. ¹⁵ And it was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should even speak, and cause that all who did not worship the image of the beast should be killed. ¹⁶ And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, to receive a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead; ¹⁷ and that no one shall be able to buy or sell, except him that hath the mark, the name of the beast, or the number of his name. ¹⁸ Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

four living creatures and the elders; and no one was able to learn the song but the hundred and forty-four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth. ⁴ These are they who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb wherever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, a first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. ⁵ And in their mouth was found no falsehood; for they are without fault. ⁶ And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having an everlasting message of good tidings to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and tribe, and tongue, and people; ⁷ saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgment is come; and worship him that made the heaven, and the earth, and sea, and fountains of waters. ⁸ And another, a second angel, followed, saying: Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. ⁹ And another, a third angel, followed them, saying with a loud voice: If any one worship the beast and his image, and receive the mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹ And the smoke of their torment goeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worshiped the beast and his image, and whoever receiveth the mark of his name. ¹² Here is the endurance of the saints, who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. ¹³ And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, Write, Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they shall rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. ¹⁴ And I saw, and lo! a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like to a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵ And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap, for the time to reap is come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe. ¹⁶ And he who sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped. ¹⁷ And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the grapes of the earth are fully ripe. ¹⁹ And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the fruit of the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God. ²⁰ And the wine-press was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even to the bits of the horses, to the distance of a thousand six hundred furlongs.

¹ And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous seven angels, having seven plagues, which are the last, because in them is completed the wrath of God. ² And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who had gained the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over the number of his name, standing at the sea of glass, having harps of God. ³ And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of the nations; ⁴ who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all nations shall come and worship before thee, because thy judgments are made manifest. ⁵ And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened; ⁶ and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came forth, clothed in pure shining linen, and girded about the breasts with golden girdles. ⁷ And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden vials, full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. ⁸ And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no one was able to enter the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

¹ And I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go, and pour out the seven vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. ² And the first departed, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and who worshipped his image. ³ And the second poured out his vial into the sea; and it became blood, as of a dead man, and every living thing died, that was in the sea. ⁴ And the third poured out his vial into the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. ⁵ And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, who art and wast holy, because thou hast judged thus; ⁶ for they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; they deserve it. ⁷ And I heard the altar saying, Even so, Lord God Almighty! true and righteous are thy judgments. ⁸ And the fourth poured out his vial upon the sun; and it was given to it to scorch men with fire; ⁹ and men were scorched with great heat. And men blasphemed the name of God, who had the power over these plagues; and they repented not, to give him glory. ¹⁰ And the fifth poured out his vial upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, ¹¹ and blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and because of their sores; and they repented not of their deeds. ¹² And the sixth poured out his vial upon the great river, the Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings who are from the rising of the sun might be prepared. ¹³ And I saw come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs; ¹⁴ for they are the spirits of demons, working signs, which go forth to the kings of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. ¹⁵ Behold, I come as a thief; blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, that he may not walk naked, and his shame be seen. ¹⁶ And he gathered them together into the place called in the Hebrew tongue, Harmagedon. ¹⁷ And the seventh poured out his vial upon the air; and there came forth a loud voice from the temple, from the throne, saying,

It is done. ¹⁸ And there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and there was a great earthquake, such as there was not since there was a man upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. ¹⁹ And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. ²⁰ And every island fled away, and no mountains were found; ²¹ and there came down from heaven upon men a great storm of hail, every stone weighing about a talent; and men blasphemed God on account of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. ¹⁸ And the woman which thou sawest is the great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

¹ After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. ² And he cried with a strong voice, saying: Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and is become a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird; ³ for all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth became rich out of the abundance of her luxury. ⁴ And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues; ⁵ for her sins have reached to heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. ⁶ Requite her even as she requited, and render to her double according to her works; in the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. ⁷ As much as she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, so much torment and mourning give her. For she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning; ⁸ therefore in one day shall her plagues come, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be burned up with fire; for strong is the Lord God who judged her. ⁹ And the kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her shall weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning, ¹⁰ standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great city! Babylon, the mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. ¹¹ And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buyeth their merchandise any more; ¹² merchandise of gold and of silver, and of precious stones and of pearls, and of fine linen and of purple, and of silk and of scarlet; and all citron wood, and all manner of vessels of ivory, and all manner of vessels of most costly wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; ¹³ and cinnamon, and amomum, and odors, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men. ¹⁴ And the fruits that thy soul desired are departed from thee, and all thy dainty and splendid things are perished from thee, and thou shalt find them no more. ¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶ saying: Alas, alas, the great city, that was clothed in tilde linen and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! ¹⁷ for in one hour so great wealth is made desolate. And every pilot, and every one that saileth to any place, and mariners, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, ¹⁸ and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like the great city! ¹⁹ And they cast dust on their heads, and cried out, weeping and mourning, saying: Alas, alas, the great city, whereby were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her wealth! for in one hour she is made desolate. ²⁰ Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints and ye apostles and ye prophets! for God hath avenged you on her. ²¹ And a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall Babylon the great city be thrown down, and shall never more be found. ²² And the sound of harpers, and of musicians, and of pipers, and of trumpeters shall be heard in thee no more, and no craftsman, of whatever craft, shall be found any more in thee, and the sound of a millstone shall never more be heard in thee, ²³ and the light of a lamp shall shine no more in thee, and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard in thee no more; for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. ²⁴ And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that have been slain upon the earth.

standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, Come, gather yourselves together to the great supper of God; ¹⁸ that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, lieth small and great. ¹⁹ And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. ²⁰ And the beast was seized and he who was with him, the false prophet who wrought the signs in his presence, with which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast, and who worshipped his image; the two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. ²¹ And the rest were slain with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, the sword which proceeded out of his mouth; and all the birds were gluttoned with their flesh.

¹ And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain in his hand. ² And he laid hold of the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, ³ and cast him into the abyss, and shut him up and set a seal over him, that he may deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years are ended: after that he must be loosed for a short time. ⁴ And I saw thrones; and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them; and I saw the souls of those beheaded on account of the testimony to Jesus, and on account of the word of God, and of all who had not worshipped the beast, nor his image, and had not received his mark upon their forehead, or upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. ⁵ And the rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. ⁶ Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on these the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. ⁷ And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be loosed out of his prison; ⁸ and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war, the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. ⁹ And they went up upon the breadth of the earth, and encompassed the camp of the saints, and the beloved city; and fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them. ¹⁰ And the Devil who deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they will be tormented day and night for ever and ever. ¹¹ And I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and no place was found for them. ¹² And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of the things written in the books, according to their works. ¹³ And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and the underworld gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged each one according to his works. ¹⁴ And death and the underworld were cast into the lake of fire; this is the second death, the lake of fire. ¹⁵ And if any one was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

¹ And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice out of the throne, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them, their God; ⁴ and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall mourning, nor crying, nor pain be any more; for the former things are passed away. ⁵ And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, Write; for these words are faithful and true. ⁶ And he said to me, All things are accomplished. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To him that thirsteth I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely. ⁷ He that overcometh shall inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. ⁸ But the cowardly, and unbelieving, and the polluted with abominations, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all the liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death. ⁹ And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven vials filled with the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither; I will show thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb. ¹⁰ And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹ having the glory of God; her light was like to a most precious stone, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; ¹² having a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel; ¹³ on the east, three gates; and on the north, three gates; and on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates. ¹⁴ And the wall of the city had twelve foundation-stones, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. ¹⁵ And he who talked with me had for a measure a golden reed, to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. ¹⁶ And the city lieth four-square, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. ¹⁷ And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty-four cubits, according to a man's measure, which is that of an angel. ¹⁸ And the material of its wall was jasper; and the city was of pure gold, like to clear glass. ¹⁹ The foundation-stones of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation-stone was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰ the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, hyacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹ And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. ²² And I saw no temple therein; for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. ²³ And the city hath no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to shine upon it; for the glory of God lightened it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. ²⁴ And the nations will walk by the light of it; and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it; ²⁵ and the gates of it shall not be shut by day, for there will be no night there; ²⁶ and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. ²⁷ And there shall not enter into it anything unclean, or that worketh abomination and falsehood; but only they that are written in the Lamb's book of life.

¹ And he showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, coming out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. ² Between the street of the city and the river, on one side and on the other, is the tree of life, hearing twelve kinds of fruit, and yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. ³ And there shall be no more curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him; ⁴ and they will see his face, and his name will be upon their foreheads. ⁵ And there will be no night, and no need of lamp or light, for the Lord God will shine upon them; and they will reign for ever and ever. ⁶ And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true; and the Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his servants what must shortly come to pass. ⁷ And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book. ⁸ And I John am he who heard and saw these things; and when I had heard and when I had seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. ⁹ And he saith to me, See thou do it not; I am a fellow-servant of thee, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book; worship God. ¹⁰ And he saith to me, Seal not the words of the prophecy of this book; the time is at hand. ¹¹ He that is unjust, let him be unjust still, and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness still, and he that is holy, let him be holy still. ¹² Behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to give to every one according as his work is. ¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. ¹⁴ Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have a right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city. ¹⁵ Without are dogs, and sorcerers, and fornicators, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loveth and practiseth falsehood. ¹⁶ I Jesus sent my angel to testify these things to you for the churches. I am the shoot and the offspring of David, the bright morning-star. ¹⁷ And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And let him that heareth say, Come! And let him that thirsteth come! Whoever will, let him take the water of life freely. ¹⁸ I testify to every one that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any one shall add to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book; ¹⁹ and if any one shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written of in this book. ²⁰ He who testifieth these things saith, Yea, I come quickly. Amen; come, Lord Jesus! ²¹ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all.

The Book of Psalms

¹ “BOOK I” Happy the man who walketh not in the counsel of the unrighteous, Nor standeth in the way of sinners, Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers; ² But whose delight is in the law of the LORD, And who meditateth on his precepts day and night. ³ He is like a tree planted by streams of water, That bringeth forth its fruit in its season, Whose leaves also do not wither: All that he doeth shall prosper. ⁴ Not so the unrighteous; They are like chaff, which the wind driveth away. ⁵ Therefore the wicked shall not stand in judgment, Nor sinners in the assembly of the just. ⁶ For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous, But the way of the wicked leadeth to ruin.

¹ Why do the heathen rage, And the nations meditate a vain thing? ² Why do the kings of the earth rise up, And the princes combine together, Against Jehovah, and against his anointed king? ³ “Let us break their bonds asunder; Let us cast away from us their fetters!” ⁴ He that sitteth in heaven will laugh; The Lord will have them in derision. ⁵ Then shall he speak to them in his wrath, And confound them in his hot displeasure. ⁶ “I myself have anointed my king, Upon Zion, my holy hill!” ⁷ I will declare the decree of Jehovah: He hath said to me, “Thou art my son; This day I have begotten thee. ⁸ Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance, And the ends of the earth for thy possession. ⁹ Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.” ¹⁰ Be wise, therefore, O ye kings! Be admonished, ye rulers of the earth! ¹¹ Be subject to Jehovah with awe, And fear with trembling! ¹² Kiss the son, lest He be angry, and ye perish in your way; For soon shall his wrath be kindled. Happy are all they who seek refuge in him.

¹ “A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.” How many, O LORD, are mine enemies! How many are they who rise up against me! ² How many are they who say of me, “There is no help for him with God!” [[Pause.]] ³ But thou, O LORD! art my shield, My glory, and the lifter-up of my head. ⁴ I call upon the LORD with my voice, And he heareth me from his holy hill. [[Pause.]] ⁵ I lay me down and sleep; I awake, for the LORD sustaineth me. ⁶ I will not fear the ten thousands of people Who on every side set themselves against me. ⁷ Arise, O LORD! Save me, O my God! For thou smitest the cheek of all my enemies; Thou breakest the teeth of the wicked. ⁸ Deliverance cometh from the LORD: May thy blessing be with thy people! [[Pause.]]

my righteousness! Thou hast helped me, when I was in trouble,— Have pity upon me, and hear my prayer! ² How long, O men! will ye dishonor my dignity? How long will ye love vanity, and seek disappointment? [[Pause.]] ³ Know ye that the LORD hath exalted one that is devoted to him; The LORD will hear, when I call upon him. ⁴ Stand in awe, and sin no more; Commune with your hearts upon your beds, and desist! [[Pause.]] ⁵ Offer sacrifices of righteousness, And put your trust in the LORD! ⁶ There are many who say, Who will show us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us! ⁷ Thou puttest gladness into my heart, Greater than theirs, when their corn and wine are abundant. ⁸ I will lay me down in peace, and sleep: For thou alone, O LORD! makest me dwell in safety.

¹ “For the leader of the music; to be accompanied with wind instruments. A psalm of David.” Give ear to my words, O LORD; Have regard to my cry! ² Listen to the voice of my supplication, my King and my God! For to thee do I address my prayer. ³ In the morning shalt thou hear my voice, O LORD! In the morning will I address my prayer to thee, and look for help. ⁴ For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness; The unrighteous man dwelleth not with thee. ⁵ The haughty shall not stand in thy sight; Thou hatest all that do iniquity. ⁶ Thou destroyest them that speak falsehood; The man of blood and deceit the LORD abhorreth. ⁷ But I, through thy great goodness, will come to thy house; In thy fear will I worship at thy holy temple. ⁸ Lead me, O LORD! in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; Make thy path straight before my face! ⁹ For in their mouth there is no truth; Their heart is malignity; Their throat is an open sepulchre; They flatter with their tongue. ¹⁰ Requite them, O God! Let them be confounded in their devices; Cast them out for the multitude of their transgressions; For against thee have they rebelled! ¹¹ But let all, that put their trust in thee, rejoice; Let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them; Let them, that love thy name, be joyful in thee! ¹² For thou, O LORD! dost bless the righteous; With favor dost thou encompass him, as with a shield.

accepteth my prayer. ¹⁰ All my enemies shall be ashamed and utterly confounded; They shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

¹ “A psalm of David, which he sang to Jehovah, on account of the reproaches of Cush the Benjamite.” O Jehovah, my God! to thee do I look for help; Save me from them that persecute me, and deliver me! ² Lest mine enemy tear me like a lion; Lest he rend me in pieces, while there is none to help. ³ O Jehovah, my God! if I have done this,—If there be iniquity upon my hands, ⁴ If I have rendered evil to my friend, Or have despoiled him that without cause is mine enemy,— ⁵ Let my adversary pursue and take me; Let him trample me to the ground, And lay me prostrate in the dust! [[Pause.]] ⁶ Arise, O LORD! in thine anger; Lift thyself up against the rage of mine enemies; Awake for me, ordain judgment! ⁷ Let the assembly of the nations compass thee about, And on their account return to the height! ⁸ The LORD judgeth the nations; Judge me, O LORD! according to my righteousness, And requite me according to my integrity! ⁹ Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked be at an end; But establish the righteous! For the righteous God trieth the heart and the reins. ¹⁰ My shield is with God, Who saveth the upright in heart. ¹¹ God is a righteous judge, And a God who is angry every day. ¹² If he do not desist, He sharpeneth his sword; He bendeth his bow, and maketh it ready; ¹³ He prepareth for him the instruments of death; He shooteth his burning arrows. ¹⁴ Behold, he travailed with iniquity, And conceived mischief, But hath brought forth disappointment! ¹⁵ He made a pit and digged it. And is fallen into the ditch which he made. ¹⁶ His mischief returneth upon his own head, And his violence cometh down upon his own skull. ¹⁷ I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness; I will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

¹ “For the leader of the music; to be accompanied with the gittith. A psalm of David.” O Jehovah, our Lord! How excellent is thy name in all the earth! Thou hast set thy glory above the heavens. ² Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained praise, To put thine adversaries to shame, And to silence the enemy and avenger. ³ When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, The moon and the stars which thou hast ordained: ⁴ What is man, that thou art mindful of him, And the son of man, that thou carest for him? ⁵ Yet thou hast made him little lower than God; Thou hast crowned him with glory and honor. ⁶ Thou hast given him dominion over the works of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet,— ⁷ All sheep and oxen, Yea, and the beasts of the forest; ⁸ The birds of the air, and the fishes of the sea, And whatever passeth through the paths of the deep. ⁹ O Jehovah, our Lord, How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

thy marvellous works. ² I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High! ³ All my enemies are turned back; They fall and perish at thy presence. ⁴ For thou dost defend my right and my cause; Thou sittest upon the throne, a righteous judge. ⁵ Thou rebukest the nations; Thou destroyest the wicked; Thou blottest out their name for evermore! ⁶ The enemy is fallen,—a desolation for ever! Thou, O LORD! hast destroyed their cities; Their memory itself hath perished! ⁷ The LORD reigneth for ever; He hath prepared his throne for judgment. ⁸ He judgeth the world in righteousness; He administereth judgment to the nations with uprightness. ⁹ Yea, the LORD is a refuge for the oppressed; A refuge in times of trouble. ¹⁰ They who know thy name put their trust in thee; For thou, O LORD! forsakest not them that seek thee! ¹¹ Sing praises to the LORD, who reigneth in Zion; Declare his doings among the people! ¹² As the avenger of blood, he remembereth the distressed; He forgetteth not their complaint. ¹³ “Have pity upon me, [[said I,]] O LORD! Look upon my affliction through them that hate me; Lift me up from the gates of death: ¹⁴ That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion; That I may rejoice in salvation by thee.” ¹⁵ The nations have sunk into the pit which they made; In the net, which they hid, is their own foot taken. ¹⁶ Thus it is known that the LORD executeth judgment; The wicked are ensnared in the work of their own hands. [[Stringed instruments. Pause.]] ¹⁷ The wicked shall be driven into the underworld; Yea, all the nations that forger God. ¹⁸ For the poor shall not always be forgotten; The hopes of the afflicted shall not perish for ever. ¹⁹ Arise, O LORD! Let not man prevail; Let the nations be judged by thee! ²⁰ Strike terror into them, O LORD! Let the nations know that they are but men! [[Pause.]]

¹ Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? Why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble? ² Through the haughtiness of the wicked the poor are in distress; They are caught in the wiles which are contrived for them. ³ The wicked boasteth of his heart's desire; The rapacious renounceth and contemneth Jehovah. ⁴ The wicked [[saith]] in his haughtiness, “He careth not!” All his thoughts are, “There is no God.” ⁵ His course is always prosperous; Far in the heights are thy judgments from him; As for all his enemies, he puffeth at them. ⁶ He saith in his heart, “I shall never fall; I shall never be in adversity.” ⁷ His mouth is full of perjury, deceit, and oppression; Mischief and injustice are upon his tongue. ⁸ He sitteth in the lurking-places of the villages; In secret places doth he murder the innocent; His eyes are secretly fixed upon the poor. ⁹ He secretly lieth in wait, like a lion in a thicket; He lieth in wait to seize upon the helpless; He catcheth the poor, drawing him into his net. ¹⁰ He croucheth, and lowereth himself, And the wretched fall into his paws. ¹¹ He saith in his heart, “God doth forget; He hideth his face; he doth never see it.” ¹² Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up thine hand: Forget not the distressed! ¹³ Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God, And say in his heart, “He careth not for it”? ¹⁴ Thou dost see it; yea, thou beholdest malice and oppression, And markest it upon thy hand! The poor committeth himself to thee; Thou art the helper of the fatherless.

¹⁵ Break thou the arm of the unjust and wicked man; Seek out his wickedness, till thou canst find none! ¹⁶ Jehovah is king for ever and ever; The gentiles shall perish out of his land. ¹⁷ Thou, O LORD! wilt hear the desires of the distressed; Thou wilt strengthen their hearts; Thou wilt lend a listening ear! ¹⁸ Thou wilt maintain the cause of the fatherless and the oppressed, That henceforth none may be driven from the land.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” In the LORD do I put my trust. Why say ye to me, “Flee, like a bird, to your mountain?” ² For, lo! the wicked bend their bow; They make ready their arrows on the string, To shoot in secret at the upright in heart. ³ If the pillars be broken down, What can the righteous do?” ⁴ The LORD is in his holy palace; The LORD’S throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, his eyelids prove the children of men. ⁵ The LORD trieth the righteous; But the wicked, and the lover of violence, his soul hateth. ⁶ Upon the wicked he will rain lightning; Fire and brimstone and a burning wind shall be the portion of their cup. ⁷ For the LORD is righteous; he loveth righteousness; The upright shall see his face.

12

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” How long, O LORD! wilt thou forget me for ever? How long wilt thou hide thy face from me? ² How long shall I have anxiety in my soul for ever, And sorrow in my heart all the day? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me? ³ Look down and hear me, O LORD, my God! Enlighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death; ⁴ Lest my enemy say, “I have prevailed against him!” Lest my adversaries rejoice, when I am fallen. ⁵ Yet will I trust in thy goodness; My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation; ⁶ I will sing to the LORD, that he hath dealt kindly with me.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” The fool saith in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt; abominable are their doings; There is none that doeth good. ² Jehovah looketh down from heaven upon the children of men, To see if there are any that have understanding, That have regard to God. ³ They are all gone out of the way; together are they corrupt; There is none that doeth good—no, not one. ⁴ Shall not the evil-doers be requited, Who devour my people like bread, And call not upon Jehovah? ⁵ Yea, then shall they be in great fear; For Jehovah is with the race of the righteous. ⁶ Ye would put to shame the counsel of the poor; But Jehovah is their refuge. ⁷ Oh that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When Jehovah bringeth back the captives of his people, Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel be glad.

¹ “A psalm off David.” Preserve me, O God! for to thee do I look for help. ² I have said to Jehovah, Thou art my Lord; I have no happiness beyond thee! ³ The holy that are in the land, and the excellent,—in them is all my delight. ⁴ They who hasten after other gods shall have multiplied sorrows; Their drink-offerings of blood I will not offer, Nor will I take their names upon my lips. ⁵ Jehovah is my portion and my cup; Thou wilt maintain my lot! ⁶ My portion hath fallen to me in pleasant places; Yea, I have a goodly inheritance. ⁷ I will bless the LORD, who careth for me; Yea, in the night my heart admonisheth me. ⁸ I set the LORD before me at all times; Since he is at my right hand, I shall not fall. ⁹ Therefore my heart is glad, and my spirit rejoiceth; Yea, my flesh dwelleth in security. ¹⁰ For thou wilt not give me up to the underworld; Nor wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see the pit. ¹¹ Thou wilt show me the path of life; In thy presence is fulness of joy; At thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

¹ “A psalm of David.” Hear the righteous cause, O LORD! Attend to my cry; Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit! ² May my sentence come forth from thy presence; May thine eyes behold uprightness! ³ Provest thou my heart, visitest thou me in the night, Triest thou me like gold, thou shalt find nothing! ⁴ My thoughts do not vary from my lips. As to the deeds of men, Through the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. ⁵ Support my steps in thy paths, That my feet may not slip! ⁶ I call upon thee, O God! for thou wilt hear me; Incline thine ear to me, and listen to my prayer!

¹ I love thee, O LORD, my strength! ² Jehovah is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; My God, my strength, in whom I trust; My shield, my strong defence, and my high tower. ³ I called upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, And was delivered from my enemies. ⁴ The snares of death encompassed me; The floods of destruction filled me with dismay; ⁵ The snares of the underworld surrounded me, And the nets of death seized upon me. ⁶ In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried unto my God; He heard my voice from his palace, And my cry came before him into his ears. ⁷ Then the earth quaked and trembled; The foundations of the mountains rocked and were shaken, Because his wrath was kindled. ⁸ A smoke went up from his nostrils, And fire from his mouth devoured; Burning coals shot forth from him. ⁹ He bowed the heavens, and came down; And darkness was under his feet; ¹⁰ And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; Yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind. ¹¹ And he made darkness his covering; His pavilion round about him was dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. ¹² At the brightness before him, his thick clouds passed away; Then came hailstones and coals of fire. ¹³ The LORD also thundered from heaven, And the Most High uttered his voice, Amid hailstones and coals of fire. ¹⁴ He sent forth his arrows, and scattered them; Continual lightnings, and discomfited them. ¹⁵ Then the channels of the deep were seen, And the foundations of the earth were laid bare At thy rebuke, O LORD! At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. ¹⁶ He stretched forth his hand from above; he took me, And drew me out of deep waters. ¹⁷ He delivered me from my strong enemy; From my adversaries, who were too powerful for me. ¹⁸ They fell upon me in the day of my calamity; But the LORD was my stay. ¹⁹ He brought me forth into a large place; He delivered me, because he delighted in me. ²⁰ The LORD hath rewarded me according to my righteous; According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. ²¹ For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not wickedly departed from my God. ²² For all his laws were in my sight; I did not put away his statutes from me. ²³ I was upright before him, And kept myself from iniquity. ²⁴ Therefore hath the LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands before his eyes. ²⁵ To the merciful thou showest thyself merciful; To the upright thou showest thyself upright; ²⁶ To the pure thou showest thyself pure, And to the perverse thou showest thyself perverse. ²⁷ For thou savest the afflicted people, But the haughty countenance thou bringest down. ²⁸ Thou causest my lamp to shine; Jehovah, my God, enlighteneth my darkness. ²⁹ For through thee I have broken through troops; Through my God I have leaped over walls. ³⁰ The ways of God are just and true; His word is pure, tried in the fire; He is a shield to all who put their trust in him. ³¹ Who, then, is God, save Jehovah? And who is a rock, save our God? ³² It is God that girded me with strength, And made my way plain. ³³ He made my feet like the hind's, And set me in my high places; ³⁴ He taught my hands to war, So that my arm bent the bow of brass. ³⁵ Thou gavest me the shield of thy protection; Thy right hand held me up, And thy goodness made me great. ³⁶ Thou didst make a wide path for my steps, So that my feet did not stumble. ³⁷ I pursued my enemies and overtook them, And turned not back till I had destroyed them. ³⁸ I smote them, so that they could not rise; They fell under my feet. ³⁹ Thou didst gird me with strength for the battle; Thou didst cast down my adversaries under me. ⁴⁰ Thou didst cause my enemies to turn their backs, So that I destroyed them that hated me. ⁴¹ They cried, but there was none to help; To Jehovah, but he answered them not. ⁴² I beat them small, like dust before the wind; I cast them out as the dirt of the streets. ⁴³ Thou hast delivered me from the assaults of the nations; Thou hast made me the head of the kingdoms. Nations whom I knew not serve me; ⁴⁴ They who have only heard of me obey me; Yea, men of a strange land submit themselves to me; ⁴⁵ Men of a strange land fade away, like a leaf, And come trembling from their strongholds. ⁴⁶ Jehovah is the living God; blessed be my rock; Exalted be the God of my salvation! ⁴⁷ It is God who hath given me vengeance, And subdued the nations under me; ⁴⁸ He delivered me from my enemies; Yea, thou hast lifted me up above my adversaries; Thou hast saved me from the violent man! ⁴⁹ Therefore I will give thanks to thee, O LORD! among the nations, And sing praises to thy name. ⁵⁰ Great deliverance giveth he to his king, And showeth mercy to his anointed,—To David and to his posterity for ever.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” The heavens declare the glory of God; The firmament showeth forth the work of his hands. ² Day uttereth instruction unto day, And night showeth knowledge unto night. ³ They have no speech nor language, And their voice is not heard; ⁴ Yet their sound goeth forth to all the earth, And their words to the ends of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, ⁵ Which cometh forth like a bridegroom from his chamber, And rejoiceth, like a strong man, to run his course. ⁶ He goeth forth from the extremity of heaven, And maketh his circuit to the end of it; And nothing is hid from his heat. ⁷ The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; The precepts of the LORD are sure, making wise the simple; ⁸ The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandments of the LORD are pure, enlightening the eyes; ⁹ The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever; The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. ¹⁰ More precious are they than gold; yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter than honey and the honeycomb. ¹¹ By them also is thy servant warned, And in keeping of them there is great reward. ¹² Who knoweth his own offences? Oh, cleanse thou me from secret faults! ¹³ Keep back also thy servant from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me! Then shall I be upright; I shall not be polluted with gross transgression. ¹⁴ May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer!

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” May Jehovah hear thee in the day of trouble; May the name of the God of Jacob defend thee! ² May he send thee help from his sanctuary, And strengthen thee out of Zion! ³ May he have regard to all thine offerings, And accept thy burnt sacrifice! [[Pause.]] ⁴ May he grant thee thy heart's desire, And fulfill all thy purposes! ⁵ We will rejoice in thy protection, And in the name of our God will we set up our banners, When Jehovah hath fulfilled all thy petitions. ⁶ Now I know that Jehovah helpeth his anointed; That he heareth him from his holy heaven, And aideth him with the saving strength of his right hand. ⁷ Some glory in chariots, and some in horses, But we in the name of Jehovah our God. ⁸ They stumble and fall, But we stand and are erect. ⁹ The LORD save the king! May he hear us when we call!

21

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” The king rejoiceth in thy strength, O LORD! Yea, he doth greatly exult in thy protection. ² Thou hast given him his heart's desire, And hast not denied him the request of his lips. [[Pause.]] ³ Yea, thou hast met him with rich blessings, Thou hast placed a crown of pure gold upon his head. ⁴ He asked life of thee; thou gavest it him; Even long life, enduring for ever. ⁵ Great is his glory through thine aid; Honor and majesty hast thou laid upon him. ⁶ Thou hast made him blessed for evermore; Thou hast made him glad with the joy of thy countenance. ⁷ For the king trusteth in the LORD; And through the goodness of the Most High he shall never fall. ⁸ Thy hand shall overtake all thine enemies; Thy right hand shall overtake them that hate thee. ⁹ Thou wilt make them like a burning oven in the time of thine anger; Jehovah shall swallow them up in his wrath, And the fire shall devour them. ¹⁰ Their offspring shalt thou destroy from the earth, And their posterity from the sons of men. ¹¹ For they spread a net of mischief against thee; They devised plots against thee, but they did not prevail. ¹² Therefore thou wilt cause them to turn their backs; Thou wilt make ready thine arrows upon the strings against them. ¹³ Exalt thyself, O LORD! by thy strength! So will we sing, and praise thy mighty deeds.

forsaken me? Why so far from mine aid, and from the words of my cry? ² O my God! I cry during the day, but thou hearest not; In the night also, but I have no rest. ³ And yet thou art holy, Dwelling amid the praises of Israel! ⁴ Our fathers trusted in thee; They trusted, and thou didst save them. ⁵ They called upon thee, and were delivered; They trusted in thee, and were not put to shame. ⁶ But I am a worm, and not a man; The reproach of men, and the scorn of the people. ⁷ All who see me scoff at me; They open wide the lips; they shake the head. ⁸ "He trusted in the LORD, let him help him; Let him deliver him, since he delighted in him!" ⁹ Surely thou art he that didst bring me into the world; Thou didst make me lie secure upon my mother's breast! ¹⁰ Upon thee have I cast myself from my birth; Thou hast been my God from my earliest breath! ¹¹ Oh, be not far from me, for trouble is near; For there is none to help! ¹² Many bulls surround me; Strong bulls of Bashan close me in on every side. ¹³ They open their mouths wide against me, Like a ravening and roaring lion. ¹⁴ I am poured out like water, And all my bones are out of joint; My heart is become like wax; It melteth in my bosom. ¹⁵ My strength is dried up like an earthen vessel, And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; Thou hast brought me to the dust of death! ¹⁶ For dogs have surrounded me; Bands of evil-doers have encompassed me,—Like lions my hands and my feet. ¹⁷ I can count all my bones; They gaze, and feast their eyes upon me. ¹⁸ They divide my garments among them, And for my vesture they cast lots. ¹⁹ But be not thou far from me, O LORD! O my strength! make haste to mine aid! ²⁰ Deliver my life from the sword; My blood from the power of the dog; ²¹ Save me from the lion's mouth; Shield me from the horns of the buffaloes! ²² I will proclaim thy name to my brethren; In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee. ²³ Praise him, ye worshippers of Jehovah! Extol him, all ye race of Jacob. And fear him, all ye race of Israel! ²⁴ For he hath not despised nor abhorred the misery of the afflicted. Nor hath he hid his face from him; But when he cried unto him, he heard. ²⁵ My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation; I will pay my vows before them that fear him! ²⁶ The afflicted shall eat, and be satisfied; They that seek the LORD shall praise him; Your hearts shall be glad for ever and ever! ²⁷ All the ends of the earth shall remember, and turn to Jehovah; All the families of the nations shall worship before thee! ²⁸ For the kingdom is Jehovah's; He is the governor of the nations. ²⁹ All the rich of the earth shall eat and worship; Before him shall they also bow, who are going down to the dust, Who cannot keep themselves alive. ³⁰ The future generation shall serve him; The race which is to come shall hear of Jehovah. ³¹ They shall come, and declare his righteousness; His mighty deeds to the people that shall be born.

¹ "A psalm of David." The LORD is my shepherd: I shall not want. ² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. ³ He reviveth my soul; He leadeth me in paths of safety, For his name's sake. ⁴ When I walk through a valley of deathlike shade, I fear no evil; for thou art walk with me; Thy crook and thy staff, they comfort me. ⁵ Thou preparest a table before me In the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. ⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, And I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

¹ "A psalm of David." The earth is the LORD'S, and all that is therein; The world, and they who inhabit it. ² For he hath founded it upon the seas, And established it upon the floods. ³ Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? ⁴ He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; Who hath not inclined his soul to falsehood, Nor sworn deceitfully. ⁵ He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, And favor from the God of his salvation. ⁶ This is the race of them that seek him; They that seek thy face are Jacob. [[Pause.]] ⁷ Lift up your heads, O ye gates! Lift yourselves up, ye everlasting doors, That the king of glory may come in! ⁸ "Who is this king of glory?" Jehovah, strong and mighty; Jehovah, mighty in battle. ⁹ Lift up your heads, O ye gates! Lift yourselves up, ye everlasting doors, That the king of glory may enter in! ¹⁰ "Who is this king of glory?" Jehovah, God of hosts, he is the king of glory. [[Pause.]]

¹ "A psalm of David." To thee, O LORD! do I lift up my soul. ² O my God! I trust in thee; let me not be put to shame! Let not my enemies triumph over me! ³ Yea, none that hope in thee shall be put to shame: They shall be put to shame who wickedly forsake thee. ⁴ Cause me to know thy ways, O LORD! Teach me thy paths! ⁵ Lead me in thy truth, and teach me! For thou art the God from whom cometh my help; In thee do I trust at all times! ⁶ Remember thy loving-kindness, O LORD! and thy tender mercy, Which thou hast exercised of old! ⁷ Remember not the faults and transgressions of my youth! According to thy mercy remember thou me, For thy goodness' sake, O LORD! ⁸ Good and righteous is the LORD; Therefore showeth he to sinners the way. ⁹ The humble he guideth in his statutes, And the humble he teacheth his way. ¹⁰ All the doings of the LORD are mercy and truth To those who keep his covenant and his precepts. ¹¹ For thy name's sake, O LORD, Pardon my iniquity; for it is great! ¹² Who is the man that feareth the LORD? Him doth he show the way which he should choose. ¹³ He shall himself dwell in prosperity, And his offspring shall inherit the land. ¹⁴ The friendship of the LORD is with them that fear him, And he will teach them his covenant. ¹⁵ Mine eyes are ever directed to the LORD, For he will pluck my feet from the net. ¹⁶ Look upon me, and pity me; For I am desolate and afflicted! ¹⁷ Lighten the sorrows of my heart, And deliver me from my troubles! ¹⁸ Look upon my affliction and distress, And forgive all my sins! ¹⁹ Consider how many are my enemies, And with what violence they hate me! ²⁰ Guard thou my life, and deliver me! Let me not be put to shame, for I have trusted in thee! ²¹ Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, For on thee do I rest my hope! ²² Redeem Israel, O God! from all his troubles!

¹ “A psalm of David.” Be thou my judge, O LORD! for I have walked in uprightness. I have put my trust in the LORD, therefore shall I not fall. ² Examine me, O LORD! and prove me; Try my reins and my heart! ³ For thy kindness is ever before my eyes, And I walk in thy truth. ⁴ I sit not with men of falsehood. And go not in company with dissemblers. ⁵ I hate the assembly of evil-doers, And do not sit with the wicked. ⁶ I wash my hands in innocence. And go around thine altar. O LORD! ⁷ To utter the voice of thanksgiving, And tell of all thy wondrous works. ⁸ O LORD! I love the habitation of thy house, The place where thine honor dwelleth! ⁹ Gather not my breath with sinners, Nor my life with men of blood, ¹⁰ In whose hands is mischief, And whose right hands are full of bribes! ¹¹ But as for me, I walk in my integrity; Oh, redeem me, and be merciful to me! ¹² My feet tread in a straight path; In the congregation will I bless the LORD.

¹ “A psalm of David.” The LORD is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The LORD is the shield of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid? ² When the wicked came upon me to devour me, Even my persecutors and enemies, they stumbled and fell. ³ Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; Though war should rise against me, yet will I be confident. ⁴ One thing have I desired of the LORD; that do I yet seek; That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, To behold the grace of the LORD, And to gaze upon his temple. ⁵ For in the day of trouble he will hide me in his pavilion; Yea, in the secret place of his tabernacle will he shelter me; He will set me upon a rock. ⁶ Yea, already doth he lift my head above my enemies, who are around me; Therefore in his tabernacle will I offer sacrifices with the sound of trumpets; I will sing, yea, with instruments of music I will give praise to the LORD. ⁷ Hear my voice, O LORD! when I cry unto thee; Have pity upon me, and answer me! ⁸ When I think of thy precept, “Seek ye my face!” Thy face, LORD, do I seek. ⁹ O hide not thou thy face from me; Cast not thy servant away in displeasure! Thou hast been my help, do not leave me; Do not forsake me, O God, my helper! ¹⁰ For my father and my mother have forsaken me; But the LORD will take me up. ¹¹ Teach me thy way, O LORD! And lead me in the right path, because of my enemies! ¹² Give me not up to the will of my adversaries! For false witnesses have risen up against me, And such as breathe out injustice. ¹³ I trust that I shall see the goodness of the LORD In the land of the living. Hope thou in the LORD! ¹⁴ Be of good courage; let thy heart be strong; Hope thou in the LORD!

¹ “A psalm of David.” To thee do I cry, O LORD! O my rock! be not silent to me, Lest, if thou answer me not, I become like those who go down to the pit! ² Hear the voice of my supplication, when I cry unto thee, When I lift up my hands to thy most holy sanctuary! ³ Draw me not away with the impious, and with evil-doers, Who speak peace to their neighbors, while mischief is in their hearts! ⁴ Give them according to their deeds, and the wickedness of their doings; Give them according to the work of their hands; Render to them their desert! ⁵ For they regard not the doings of the LORD, nor the work of his hands; Therefore will he destroy them, and not again build them up. ⁶ Praised be the LORD, for he hath heard the voice of my supplications! ⁷ The LORD is my strength and my shield; My heart trusteth in him, and he helpeth me; Therefore doth my heart exult, And in my song I will praise him. ⁸ Jehovah is the strength of his people; He is the protecting shield of his anointed. ⁹ Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance; Feed them also, and build them up for ever!

¹ “A psalm of David. To the air of songs for the dedication of a house.” I will extol thee, O LORD! for thou hast lifted me up, And hast not suffered my enemies to rejoice over me. ² O Jehovah, my God! I called upon thee, and thou hast healed me! ³ O LORD! thou hast raised me up from the underworld; Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. ⁴ Sing unto the LORD, O ye his servants! And praise his holy name! ⁵ For his anger endureth but a moment, But his favor through life; In the evening sorrow may be a guest, But joy cometh in the morning. ⁶ I said in my prosperity, “I shall never be moved!” ⁷ Thou, O LORD! by thy favor, hast made my mountain to stand strong; Thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled! ⁸ I cried unto thee, O LORD! To the LORD I made supplication: ⁹ “What will my blood profit thee, that I should go down to the pit? Can dust praise thee? Can it declare thy faithfulness? ¹⁰ Hear, O LORD! and have pity upon me! Be thou, LORD! my helper!” ¹¹ Thou didst turn my mourning into dancing; Thou didst loose my sackcloth, and gird me with gladness. ¹² Therefore I will sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O Jehovah, my God! I will give thanks to thee for ever!

1 “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” In thee, O LORD! do I trust; let me never be put to shame; According to thy goodness deliver me! 2 Bow down thine ear to me; help me speedily! Be to me a strong rock, a high fortress, for my deliverance! 3 For thou art my rock and my high fortress; Be thou also my guide, and lead me, for thy name's sake! 4 Draw me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me, For thou art my strength! 5 Into thy hand I commit my life; Thou wilt deliver me, O LORD, thou God of truth! 6 I hate those who regard lying vanities, And put my trust in the LORD. 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy, That thou hast looked upon my trouble, And hast had regard to my distress; 8 That thou hast not given me up to the hands of my enemies, But hast set my feet in a wide place. 9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD! for I am in trouble! My face is consumed with grief; Yea, my spirit and my body. 10 For my life is wasted with sorrow, And my years with sighing; My strength faileth by reason of my affliction, And my bones are consumed on account of all my enemies. 11 I have become the scorn of my neighbors, And the terror of my acquaintance; They who see me abroad flee from me. 12 I am forgotten like a dead man out of mind; I am like a broken vessel. 13 I hear the slander of many; fear is on every side; For they take counsel together against me; They devise to take away my life. 14 But I trust in thee, O Jehovah! I say, “Thou art my God!” 15 My destiny is in thy hand; Deliver me from the power of my enemies and persecutors! 16 Let thy face shine upon thy servant, And save me through thy mercy! 17 Let me not be put to shame, O LORD! for I have called upon thee; Let the wicked be put to shame; Let them be silenced in the grave! 18 Let lying lips be put to silence, Which speak proud things against the righteous, With haughtiness and contempt! 19 O how great is thy goodness, which thou treasurest up for them that fear thee; Which thou showest to them that trust in thee, before the sons of men! 20 Thou hidest them in the secret place of thy presence from the machinations of men; Thou shelterest them in thy pavilion from the violence of tongues. 21 Praised be the LORD; for he hath shown me his wonderful kindness, As in a fortified city! 22 I said in my distress, “I am cut off from before thine eyes;” But thou didst hear the voice of my supplication, When I cried unto thee. 23 O love the LORD, all ye his servants; For the LORD preserveth the faithful, And requiteth the proud in full measure! 24 Be of good courage; let your hearts be strong, All ye who trust in the LORD!

1 “A psalm of David.” Happy is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is pardoned! 2 Happy the man to whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, And in whose spirit there is no guile! 3 While I kept silence, my bones were wasted, By reason of my groaning all the day long. 4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me; My moisture dried up, as in summer's drought. 5 At length I acknowledged to thee my sin, And did not hide my iniquity. I said, “I will confess my transgression to the LORD;” And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin! [[Pause.]] 6 Therefore shall every pious man pray to thee, while thou mayst be found; Surely the floods of great waters shall not come near him. ⁷ Thou art my hiding-place; thou preservest me from trouble; Thou compassest me about with songs of deliverance. [[Pause.]] ⁸ I will instruct thee, and show thee the way thou shouldst go; I will give thee counsel, and keep mine eye upon thee. ⁹ Be ye not like the horse and the mule, which have no understanding, Whose mouths must be pressed with the bridle and curb, Because they will not come near thee! ¹⁰ The wicked hath many sorrows; But he that trusteth in the LORD is encompassed with mercies. ¹¹ Rejoice in the LORD, and be glad, ye righteous; Shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart!

¹ Rejoice, O ye righteous, in the LORD! For praise becometh the upright. ² Praise the LORD with the harp; Sing to him with the ten-stringed psaltery! ³ Sing to him a new song; Play skilfully amid the sound of trumpets! ⁴ For the word of the LORD is right, And all his acts are faithful. ⁵ He loveth justice and equity; The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD. ⁶ By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, And all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth. ⁷ He gathereth the waters of the sea, as a heap; He layeth up the deep in storehouses. ⁸ Let all the earth fear the LORD; Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him! ⁹ For he spake, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast. ¹⁰ The LORD bringeth the devices of the nations to nothing; He frustrateth the designs of kingdoms. ¹¹ The purposes of the LORD stand for ever; The designs of his heart, to all generations. ¹² Happy the nation whose God is Jehovah; The people whom he hath chosen for his inheritance. ¹³ The LORD looketh down from heaven; He beholdeth all the children of men; ¹⁴ From his dwelling-place he beholdeth all the inhabitants of the earth,— ¹⁵ He that formed the hearts of all, And observeth all their works. ¹⁶ A king is not saved by the number of his forces, Nor a hero by the greatness of his strength. ¹⁷ The horse is a vain thing for safety, Nor can he deliver his master by his great strength. ¹⁸ Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him,—Upon them that trust in his goodness; ¹⁹ To save them from the power of death, And keep them alive in famine. ²⁰ The hope of our souls is in the LORD; He is our help and our shield. ²¹ Yea, in him doth our heart rejoice; In his holy name we have confidence. ²² May thy goodness be upon us, O LORD! According as we trust in thee!

him, And deliver them. ⁸ O taste, and see how good is the LORD! Happy the man who trusteth in him! ⁹ O fear the LORD, ye his servants! For to those who fear him there shall be no want. ¹⁰ Young lions want, and suffer hunger; But they who fear the LORD want no good thing. ¹¹ Come, ye children, hearken to me! I will teach you the fear of the LORD. ¹² Who is he that loveth life, And desireth many days, in which he may see good? ¹³ Guard well thy tongue from evil, And thy lips from speaking guile! ¹⁴ Depart from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it! ¹⁵ The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, And his ears are open to their cry. ¹⁶ But the face of the LORD is against evil-doers, To cut off their remembrance from the earth. ¹⁷ The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, And delivereth them from all their troubles. ¹⁸ The LORD is near to them that are of a broken heart, And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit. ¹⁹ Many are the afflictions of the righteous; But the LORD delivereth him from them all. ²⁰ He guardeth all his bones; Not one of them shall be broken. ²¹ Calamity destroyeth the wicked, And they who hate the righteous suffer for it. ²² The LORD redeemeth the life of his servants, And none that put their trust in him will suffer for it.

¹ “A psalm of David.” Contend, O LORD! with them that contend with me! Fight against them that fight against me! ² Take hold of shield and buckler, And stand up for my help! ³ Draw forth the spear and the axe against my persecutors; Say to me, “I am thy salvation.” ⁴ May they be confounded and put to shame, who seek my life; May they be turned back with disgrace, who devise my hurt! ⁵ May they be like dust before the wind; May the angel of the LORD drive them! ⁶ May their way be dark and slippery, And may the angel of the LORD pursue them! ⁷ For without cause they have laid for me a snare; Without cause they have digged for me a pit. ⁸ May unforeseen destruction come upon them! May the snare which they have laid lay hold on themselves, And may they fall into destruction! ⁹ Then shall my soul rejoice in the LORD; It shall exult in his protection. ¹⁰ All my bones shall say, Who, O LORD! is like thee, Who dost rescue the afflicted from the oppressor, The afflicted and destitute from the spoiler? ¹¹ False witnesses have risen up; They charge me with that which has not entered my mind. ¹² They repay me evil for good; They cause bereavement to my soul. ¹³ And yet I, during their sickness, clothed myself with sackcloth, And afflicted myself with fasting; And my prayer was turned to my bosom. ¹⁴ I behaved myself as if he had been my friend or brother; I bowed down in sadness, as one mourning for his mother. ¹⁵ But at my fall they rejoice, and gather themselves together; Revilers whom I know not assemble themselves against me; They tear me without ceasing. ¹⁶ With base men who mock for their bread, They gnash at me with their teeth. ¹⁷ How long, O LORD! wilt thou look on? O rescue my life from the destruction they plot for me; My precious life from these young lions! ¹⁸ I will thank thee in the great assembly! Before a numerous people I will praise thee. ¹⁹ Let not them that are my enemies wrongfully triumph over me; Let them not wink with the eye, who hate me without cause! ²⁰ For they speak not peace; They devise deceit against them that are quiet in the land. ²¹ Yea, they open their mouths wide against me; They say, "Aha, aha! our eyes seeth it." ²² Thou seest it, O LORD! be not silent! O LORD! be not far from me! ²³ Arouse thyself; awake for my defence! My God and my Lord, awake to my cause! ²⁴ Judge me according to thy righteousness, O Jehovah, my God! Let them not triumph over me! ²⁵ Let them not say in their hearts, "Aha! we have our wish!" Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up!" ²⁶ May they all be confounded and brought to shame, Who rejoice at my calamity! May they be clothed with ignominy and disgrace, Who exalt themselves against me! ²⁷ Let them shout for joy, and be glad, Who favor my righteous cause; Let them ever say, "The LORD be praised, Who delighteth in the prosperity of his servant!" ²⁸ So shall my tongue speak of thy righteousness, And daily repeat thy praise.

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm of David, the servant of the Lord." To speak of the ungodliness of the wicked is in my heart. He hath no fear of God before his eyes. ² For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, Till his iniquity is found out and hated. ³ The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit; He neglecteth to be wise and to do good. ⁴ He deviseth mischief upon his bed; He persevereth in an evil way; He abhorreth not sin. ⁵ Thy goodness, O LORD! reacheth to the heavens, And thy faithfulness to the clouds; ⁶ Thy righteousness is like the high mountains; Thy judgments are a great deep; Thou, O LORD! preservest man and beast! ⁷ How precious is thy loving-kindness, O God! Yea, the sons of men seek refuge under the shadow of thy wings. ⁸ They are satisfied with the abundance of thy house, And thou causest them to drink of the full stream of thy pleasures. ⁹ For with thee is the fountain of life; Through thy light we see light. ¹⁰ O continue thy loving-kindness to them that know thee, And thy favor to the upright in heart! ¹¹ Let not the foot of the proud come upon me, Nor the hand of the wicked remove me! ¹² Lo! already are the workers of iniquity fallen; They are cast down; they are unable to rise!

¹ "A psalm of David." Be not thou angry on account of the wicked, Nor be envious of those who do iniquity. ² For soon shall they be cut down like grass, And wither like the green herb. ³ Trust in the LORD, and do good; Abide in the land, and delight in faithfulness. ⁴ Place thy delight in the LORD. And he will give thee thy heart's desires. ⁵ Commit thy way to the LORD; Trust in him, and he will give thee success! ⁶ He will cause thy justice to shine forth like the light, And thy righteousness like the noonday's brightness. ⁷ Hope thou patiently on the LORD, And in him place thy trust! Be not angry on account of the prosperous,—On account of him that deviseth deceit! ⁸ Cease from anger; give not way to wrath; Be not provoked, so as to do evil! ⁹ For evil-doers shall be rooted out; But they who trust in the LORD, they shall inherit the land. ¹⁰ Yet a little while, and the wicked shall be no more; Thou mayst look for his place, and he will not be found. ¹¹ But the meek shall inherit the land,

And delight themselves in the fulness of prosperity. ¹² The wicked man plotteth against the just, And gnasheth at him with his teeth. ¹³ The Lord laugheth at him; For he seeth that his day is coming. ¹⁴ The wicked draw the sword, And bend their bow, To cast down the afflicted and the needy, And to slay the upright. ¹⁵ Their swords shall enter their own hearts, And their bows shall be broken in pieces. ¹⁶ Better is the little of the righteous man Than the great abundance of the wicked; ¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, But the LORD will uphold the righteous. ¹⁸ The LORD careth for the life of the upright, And their inheritance shall endure for ever. ¹⁹ They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, And in the days of famine they shall have enough. ²⁰ But the wicked shall perish; Yea, the enemies of the LORD shall be consumed, like the glory of the fields; They shall be consumed into smoke. ²¹ The wicked borroweth, and repayeth not; But the righteous is merciful and bountiful. ²² For they who are blessed by God shall inherit the land, And they who are cursed by him shall be rooted out. ²³ The steps of the good man are directed by the LORD; He delighteth himself in his way. ²⁴ Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down, For the LORD holdeth him by the hand. ²⁵ I have been young, and now am old; Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, Nor his offspring begging bread. ²⁶ He is ever merciful and lendeth, And his offspring shall be blessed. ²⁷ Depart from evil, and do good; So thou shalt dwell in the land for ever. ²⁸ For the LORD loveth righteousness, And forsaketh not his servants; They are preserved for ever; But the posterity of the wicked shall be rooted out. ²⁹ The righteous shall inherit the land, And shall dwell therein for ever. ³⁰ The mouth of the righteous uttereth wisdom, And his tongue speaketh what is right. ³¹ The law of his God is in his heart; His footsteps shall not slip. ³² The wicked watcheth the righteous, And seeketh to slay him; ³³ The Lord will not leave him in his hand, Nor suffer him to be condemned, when he is judged. ³⁴ Trust in the LORD, and keep his way, And he will exalt thee to the possession of the land, Whilst thou shalt see the destruction of the wicked! ³⁵ I have seen a wicked man in great power, And spreading himself like a green cedar; ³⁶ But he passed away, and, lo! he was no more; Yea, I sought him, but he was not found. ³⁷ Mark the righteous man, and behold the upright, That posterity is to the man of peace! ³⁸ But transgressors will all be destroyed; The posterity of the wicked shall be rooted out. ³⁹ The salvation of the just is from the LORD. He is their strength in the time of trouble. ⁴⁰ The LORD will help and deliver them; He will deliver them from their enemies, and save them, Because they trust in him.

am bent; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. ⁷ For my loins are full of burning heat, And there is no soundness in my flesh. ⁸ I am weakened and bruised exceedingly; I roar by reason of the disquietude of my heart. ⁹ O Lord! thou knowest all my desire, And my groaning is not hidden from thee! ¹⁰ My heart panteth; my strength faileth me; The very light of my eyes is gone from me. ¹¹ My friends and acquaintance keep aloof from my woe, And my kinsmen stand afar off: ¹² While they who seek my life lay snares for me; They who seek my hurt threaten destruction, And meditate deceit all the day long. ¹³ But I, like a deaf man, hear not; And, like a dumb man, open not my mouth. ¹⁴ I am like one who heareth nothing, And in whose mouth is no reply. ¹⁵ For in thee, O LORD! do I put my trust; Thou wilt hear, O Lord, my God! ¹⁶ For I have prayed, "Let them not rejoice over me; Let them not exult at the slipping of my feet!" ¹⁷ For I am ready to fall, And my pain doth never leave me; ¹⁸ For I confess my iniquity, And am troubled on account of my sin. ¹⁹ But my enemies flourish and are strong; They who hate me without cause are multiplied. ²⁰ They who repay good with evil are my enemies, Because I follow that which is good. ²¹ Forsake me not, O LORD! O my God! be not far from me! ²² Make hast to mine aid, O Lord, my salvation!

¹ "A psalm of David. For the leader of the music of the Jeduthunites." I said, I will take heed to my ways, That I may not sin with my tongue; I will keep my mouth with a bridle, While the wicked is before me. ² I was dumb with silence; I spake not even what was good; But my pain was increased. ³ My heart was hot within me; In my anguish the fire burst forth, And I spake with my tongue: ⁴ LORD, make me to know mine end, And the number of my days, That I may know how frail I am! ⁵ Behold, thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth, And my life is as nothing before thee; Yea, every man in his firmest state is altogether vanity. [[Pause.]] ⁶ Surely every man walketh in a vain show; Surely he disquieteth himself in vain; He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them. ⁷ What, then, O Lord! is my hope? My hope is in thee! ⁸ Deliver me from all my transgressions; Let me not be the reproach of scoffers! ⁹ Yet I am dumb; I open not my mouth; For thou hast done it! ¹⁰ But remove from me thine infliction; For I am perishing by the blow of thine hand. ¹¹ When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for iniquity, Thou causeth his glory to waste away like a moth! Surely every man is vanity. ¹² Hear my prayer, O LORD! Give ear to my cry; Be not silent at my tears! For I am but a stranger with thee, A sojourner, as all my fathers were. ¹³ O spare me, that I may recover strength, Before I go away, and be no more!

in the LORD. ⁴ Happy the man who maketh the LORD his trust, And resorteth not to men of pride and falsehood! ⁵ Many, O LORD, my God! are the wonderful works which thou hast done; Many have been thy gracious purposes towards us; None can be compared to thee! Would I declare and rehearse them, they are more than can be numbered. ⁶ In sacrifice and oblation thou hast no pleasure; Mine ears thou hast opened; Burnt-offering and sin-offering thou requirest not. ⁷ Therefore I said, "Lo, I come; In the scroll of the book it is prescribed to me; ⁸ O my God! to do thy will is my delight, And thy law dwelleth in my heart!" ⁹ I have proclaimed thy righteousness in the great assembly; Lo, I have not restrained my lips, O LORD! thou knowest! ¹⁰ I hide not thy justice in my heart; I declare thy faithfulness and thy salvation; I conceal not thy mercy and truth from the great assembly. ¹¹ Withdraw not from me thy tender mercies, O LORD! May thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me! ¹² For evils without number have encompassed me; My iniquities have overtaken me; I cannot see the end of them; They are more than the hairs of my head, And my heart dieth within me. ¹³ May it please thee, O LORD! to deliver me! O LORD! make haste to mine aid! ¹⁴ May they all be confounded and covered with shame Who seek to take away my life! Let them be driven back with disgrace Who desire to do me injury! ¹⁵ Let them be overwhelmed with confusion Who cry out to me, Aha! aha! ¹⁶ But let all who seek thee Be glad and rejoice in thee! Let those who love thy protection Ever say, "Great is Jehovah!" ¹⁷ I am poor and afflicted, yet the Lord thinketh upon me; Thou art my help and my deliverer; My God! make no delay!

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm of David." Happy is he who hath regard to the poor! The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. ² The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; He shall be happy on the earth; Thou wilt not give him up to the will of his enemies! ³ The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of disease; All his bed thou wilt change in his sickness. ⁴ I said, O LORD! be merciful to me! Heal me, for I have sinned against thee! ⁵ My enemies speak evil of me: "When will he die, and his name perish?" ⁶ If one come to see me, he speaketh falsehood; His heart gathereth malice; When he goeth abroad, he uttereth it. ⁷ All that hate me whisper together against me; Against me do they devise mischief: ⁸ "A deadly disease cleaveth fast unto him; He lieth down, and he shall never arise!" ⁹ Yea, my familiar friend in whom I trusted, who did eat of my bread,—He hath lifted up his heel against me. ¹⁰ But do thou, O LORD! have pity upon me; Raise me up, that I may requite them! ¹¹ By this I know that thou favorest me, Because my enemy doth not triumph over me. ¹² As for me, thou wilt uphold me in my integrity; Thou wilt set me before thy face for ever! ¹³ [Praised be Jehovah, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting. Amen! Amen!]

As the hart panteth for the water-brooks, So panteth my soul for thee, O God! ² My soul thirsteth for God, the living God: When shall I come, and appear before God? ³ My tears have been my food day and night, While they say to me continually, "Where is thy God?" ⁴ When I think of it, I pour out my soul in grief; How I once walked with the multitude, Walked slowly with them to the house of God, Amid sounds of joy and praise with the festive multitude! ⁵ Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, Him, my deliverer and my God! ⁶ My soul is cast down within me, While I remember thee from the land of Jordan and Hermon, From the mountain Mizar. ⁷ Deep calleth for deep at the noise of thy waterfalls; All thy waves and billows have gone over me! ⁸ Once the LORD commanded his kindness by day, And by night his praise was with me, -Thanksgiving to the God of my life. ⁹ Now I say to God, my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning on account of the oppression of the enemy? ¹⁰ Like the crushing of my bones are the reproaches of the enemy, While they say to me continually, "Where is thy God?" ¹¹ Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, Him, my deliverer and my God!

¹ Judge me, O God! and defend my cause against a merciless nation! Deliver me from unjust and deceitful men! ² Thou art the God of my refuge: why dost thou cast me off? Why go I mourning on account of the oppression of the enemy? ³ O send forth thy light and thy truth; let them guide me; Let them lead me to thy holy mountain, and to thy dwelling-place! ⁴ Then will I go to the altar of God, To the God of my joy and exultation; Yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God! ⁵ Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, Him, my deliverer and my God!

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm of the sons of Korah." O God! we have heard with our ears, Our fathers have told us, What deeds thou didst in their days, In the days of old. ² With thine own hand didst thou drive out the nations, And plant our fathers; Thou didst destroy the nations, And cause our fathers to flourish. ³ For not by their own swords did they gain possession of the land, Nor did their own arms give them victory; But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance; For thou didst favor them! ⁴ Thou art my king, O God! O send deliverance to Jacob! ⁵ Through thee we may cast down our enemies; Through thy name we may trample upon our adversaries! ⁶ I trust not in my bow, Nor can my sword save me. ⁷ But it is thou only who savest us from our enemies, And puttest to shame those who hate us! ⁸ In God will we glory continually; Yea, we will praise thy name for ever! [[Pause.]] ⁹ Yet now thou hast cast us off, and put us to shame; Thou goest not forth with our armies. ¹⁰ Thou makest us turn back from the enemy, And they who hate us make our gods their prey.

11 Thou makest us like sheep destined for food, And scatterest us among the nations. 12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, And increasest not thy wealth by their price. 13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbors, A scorn and a derision to those who are around us. 14 Thou makest us a byword among the nations, And causest the people to shake their heads at us. 15 My ignominy is continually before me, And shame covereth my face, 16 On account of the voice of the scoffer and the reviler, And on account of the enemy and the avenger. 17 All this hath come upon us; Yet have we not forgotten thee, Nor have we been false to thy covenant. 18 Our hearts, have not wandered from thee, Nor have our feet gone out of thy path; 19 Though thou hast crushed us in a land of jackals, And covered us with thick darkness. 20 If we had forgotten the name of our God, Or stretched forth our hands to a strange God, 21 Surely God would search it out; For he knoweth the secrets of the heart. 22 But for thy sake we are killed all the day; We are counted as sheep for the slaughter. 23 Awake! why sleepest thou, O Lord? Arise! cast us not off for ever! 24 Wherefore dost thou hide thy face, And forget our affliction and oppression? 25 Our soul is bowed down to the dust; Our body cleaveth to the earth. 26 Arise, O thou, our strength! And deliver us, for thy mercy's sake!

1 "For the leader of the music. To be accompanied with the Shoshannim. A song of loveliness by the sons of Korah." My heart is overflowing with a good matter; I will address my work to the king; May my tongue be like the pen of a ready writer! 2 Thou art the fairest of the sons of men; Grace is poured upon thy lips; For God hath blessed thee for ever! 3 Gird thy sword to thy thigh, thou hero!-Thy glory and ornament! 4 In thy glorious array ride forth victoriously, On account of truth and mildness and justice; And thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things! 5 Thine arrows are sharp; Nations shall fall before thee; They shall pierce the hearts of the king's enemies. 6 Thy throne is God's for ever and ever; The sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of equity! 7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest iniquity; Therefore hath God, thy God, anointed thee With the oil of gladness above thy fellows! 8 All thy garments are myrrh, aloes, and cassia; From ivory palaces stringed instruments delight thee. 9 Daughters of kings are among thy chosen women; On the right hand stands the queen In gold of Ophir. 10 Listen, O daughter! consider, and incline thine ear; Forget thy people and thy father's house! 11 For the king is captivated with thy beauty; He is now thy lord; honor thou him! 12 So shall the daughter of Tyre seek thy favor with gifts, The rich among the people. 13 All glorious is the king's daughter in her apartment; Her robe is embroidered with gold. 14 In variegated garments shall she be led to the king; The virgin companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee. 15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought; They shall enter the king's palace. 16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, Whom thou shalt make princes through all the land. 17 I will make thy name memorable throughout all generations; So shall the nations praise thee for ever and ever!

¹ “For the leader of the music. Of, or for, the sons of Korah. To be sung in the manner, or with the voice, of virgins.” God is our refuge and strength; An ever present help in trouble. ² Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be changed; Though the mountains tremble in the heart of the sea; ³ Though its waters roar and be troubled, And the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. [[Pause.]] ⁴ A river with its streams shall make glad the city of God, The holy dwelling-place of the Most High. ⁵ God is the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God will help her, and that full early. ⁶ The nations raged; kingdoms were moved; He uttered his voice, the earth melted. ⁷ The LORD of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. [[Pause.]] ⁸ Come, behold the doings of the LORD; What desolations he hath made in the earth! ⁹ He causeth wars to cease to the end of the earth; He hath broken the bow, and snapped the spear asunder, And burned the chariots in fire. ¹⁰ “Desist, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted throughout the earth!” ¹¹ The LORD of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of the sons of Korah.” O clap your hands, all ye nations! Shout unto God with the voice of triumph! ² For terrible is Jehovah, the Most High, The great king over all the earth. ³ He hath subdued nations under us, And kingdoms under our feet; ⁴ He hath chosen for us an inheritance, The glory of Jacob, whom he loved. [[Pause.]] ⁵ God goeth up with a shout; Jehovah with the sound of the trumpet. ⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our king, sing praises! ⁷ For God is king of all the earth; Sing to him hymns of praise! ⁸ God reigneth over the nations; God sitteth upon his holy throne. ⁹ The princes of the nations gather themselves together To the people of the God of Abraham; For the mighty of the earth belong to God; He is supremely exalted.

¹ “A psalm of the sons of Korah.” Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised In the city of our God, upon his holy mountain. ² Beautiful in its elevation is Mount Zion, The joy of the whole earth; The joy of the farthest North is the city of the great king; ³ In her palaces God is known as a refuge. ⁴ For, lo! kings were assembled against it; They passed away together. ⁵ As soon as they saw, they were astonished; They were confounded, and hasted away. ⁶ There terror seized upon them,—Pain, as of a woman in travail; ⁷ As when the east wind breaketh in pieces The ships of Tarshish. ⁸ As we have heard, so have we seen In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God; God will establish it for ever. [[Pause.]] ⁹ We think of thy loving-kindness, O God! In the midst of thy temple! ¹⁰ As thy name, O God! so thy praise, extendeth to the ends of the earth; Thy right hand is full of righteousness. ¹¹ Mount Zion rejoiceth, The daughters of Judah exult, On account of thy righteous judgments. ¹² Go round about Zion; number her towers; ¹³ Mark well her bulwarks; count her palaces;

That ye may tell it to the next generation! ¹⁴ For this God is our God for ever and ever; He will be our guide unto death.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of the sons of Korah.” Hear this, all ye nations; Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world; ² Both high and low, rich and poor alike! ³ My mouth shall speak wisdom, And the meditation of my mind shall be understanding. ⁴ I will incline mine ear to a poem; I will utter my song upon the harp. ⁵ Why should I fear in the days of adversity, When the iniquity of my adversaries encompasseth me; ⁶ They who trust in their riches, And glory in the greatness of their wealth? ⁷ No one can redeem his brother from death, Nor give a ransom for him to God, ⁸ That he should live to eternity, And not see the pit. ⁹ Too costly is the redemption of his life, And he giveth it up for ever. ¹⁰ For he seeth that wise men die, As well as the foolish and the ignorant; They perish alike, And leave their wealth to others. ¹¹ They imagine that their houses will endure for ever, And their dwelling-places from generation to generation: Men celebrate their names on the earth. ¹² Yet man, who is in honor, abideth not; He is like the beasts that perish. ¹³ Such is the way which is their confidence! And they who come after them approve their maxims. [[Pause.]] ¹⁴ Like sheep they are cast into the underworld; Death shall feed upon them; And the upright shall soon trample upon them. Their form shall be consumed in the underworld, And they shall no more have a dwelling-place. ¹⁵ But God will redeem my life from the underworld; Yea, he will take me under his care. [[Pause.]] ¹⁶ Be not thou afraid, when one becometh rich; When the glory of his house is increased! ¹⁷ For, when he dieth, he will carry nothing away; His glory will not descend after him. ¹⁸ Though in his life he thought himself happy,—Though men praised thee, while thou wast in prosperity,—¹⁹ Yet shalt thou go to the dwelling-place of thy fathers, Who never more shall see the light! ²⁰ The man who is in honor, but without understanding, Is like the beasts that perish.

¹ “A psalm of Asaph.” The mighty God, Jehovah, speaketh, and calleth the earth, From the rising of the sun to its going down. ² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shineth forth. ³ Our God cometh, and will not be silent; Before him is a devouring fire, And around him a raging tempest. ⁴ He calleth to the heavens on high, And to the earth, while he judgeth his people: ⁵ “Gather together before me my godly ones, Who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice!” ⁶ (And the heavens shall declare his righteousness, For it is God himself that is judge.) [[Pause.]] ⁷ “Hear, O my people, and I will speak! O Israel, and I will testify against thee! For I am God, thine own God. ⁸ I reprove thee not on account of thy sacrifices; For thy burnt-offerings are ever before me. ⁹ I will take no bullock from thy house, Nor he-goat from thy folds; ¹⁰ For all the beasts of the forest are mine, And the cattle on a thousand hills. ¹¹ I know all the birds of the mountains, And the wild beasts of the field are before me. ¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell thee; For the world is mine, and all that is therein. ¹³ Do I eat the flesh of bulls, Or drink the blood of goats? ¹⁴ Offer to God thanksgiving, And pay thy vows to the Most High! ¹⁵ Then call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me!” ¹⁶ And to the wicked God saith, “To what purpose dost thou talk of my statutes? And why hast thou my laws upon thy lips?—¹⁷ Thou, who hatest instruction And castest my words behind thee! ¹⁸ When thou seest a thief, thou art in friendship with him, And hast fellowship with adulterers. ¹⁹ Thou lettest loose thy mouth to evil, And thy tongue frameth deceit; ²⁰ Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; Thou slanderest thine own mother’s son. ²¹ These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; Hence thou thoughtest that I was altogether like thyself: But I will reprove thee, and set it in order before thine eyes. ²² Mark this, ye that forget God, Lest I tear you in pieces, and none deliver you! ²³ Whoso offereth praise honoreth me; And to him who hath regard to his ways Will I show salvation from God.”

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after his intercourse with Bathsheba.” Be gracious unto me, O God! according to thy loving kindness; According to the greatness of thy mercy, blot out my transgressions! ² Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, And cleanse me from my sin! ³ For I acknowledge my transgressions, And my sin is ever before me. ⁴ Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, And in thy sight have I done evil; So that thou art just in thy sentence, And righteous in thy judgment. ⁵ Behold! I was born in iniquity, And in sin did my mother conceive me. ⁶ Behold! thou desirest truth in the heart; So teach me wisdom in my inmost soul! ⁷ Purge me with hyssop, until I be clean; Wash me, until I be whiter than snow! ⁸ Make me to hear joy and gladness, So that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice! ⁹ Hide thy face from my sins, And blot out all my iniquities! ¹⁰ Create within me a clean heart, O God! Renew within me a steadfast spirit! ¹¹ Cast me not away from thy presence, And take not thy holy spirit from me! ¹² Restore to me the joy of thy protection, And strengthen me with a willing spirit! ¹³ Then will I teach thy ways to transgressors, And sinners shall be converted to thee. ¹⁴ Deliver me from the guilt of blood, O God, the God of my salvation! That my tongue may sing aloud of thy goodness! ¹⁵ O Lord! open thou my lips, That my mouth may show forth thy praise! ¹⁶ For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it; Thou delightest not in burnt-offerings. ¹⁷ The sacrifice which God loveth is a broken spirit; A broken and contrite heart, O God! thou wilt not despise! ¹⁸ Do good to Zion according to thy mercy; Build up the walls of Jerusalem! ¹⁹ Then shalt thou be pleased with sacrifices of righteousness, With burnt-offerings and complete offerings; Then shall bullocks be offered upon thine altar.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David, when Doeg, the Edomite, came and told Saul, and said to him, David is come to the house of Abimelech.” Why gloriest thou in mischief, thou man of violence? The goodness of God yet continueth daily. ² Thy tongue deviseth mischief, Like a sharp razor, thou contriver of deceit! ³ Thou lovest evil more than good, And to lie more than to speak truth. [[Pause.]] ⁴ Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue! ⁵ Thee also shall God utterly destroy! o He shall seize thee, and tear thee from thy dwelling-place, And uproot thee from the land of the living. [[Pause.]] ⁶ The righteous shall see and fear, And shall laugh at him. ⁷ “Behold the man that made not God his strength, But trusted in the abundance of his riches, And placed his strength in his wickedness!” ⁸ But I shall be like a green olive-tree in the house of God; I will trust in the goodness of God for ever and ever. ⁹ I will praise thee for ever for what thou hast done; I will trust in thy name, because it is good, Before the eyes of thy godly ones!

¹ “For the leader of the music. To be sung on wind instruments. A psalm of David.” The fool saith in his heart, “There is no God!” They are corrupt; their doings are abominable; There is none that doeth good. ² God looketh down from heaven upon the children of men, To see if there are any that have understanding, That have regard to God. ³ They are all gone astray; together are they corrupt; There is none that doeth good, no, not one. ⁴ Shall not the evil-doers be requited, Who eat up my people like bread, And call not upon God? ⁵ Yea! fear shall come upon them, Where no fear is; For God will scatter the bones of him that encampeth against thee; Thou shalt put them to shame, for God despiseth them! ⁶ O that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captives of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel be glad.

¹ “For the leader of the music. To be sung on stringed instruments A psalm of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?” Save me, O God! by thy name, And by thy strength defend my cause! ² O God! hear my prayer, Give ear to the words of my mouth! ³ For enemies have risen up against me, And oppressors seek my life; They have not set God before their eyes. [[Pause.]] ⁴ Behold! God is my helper; The Lord is the support of my life. ⁵ He will repay evil to my enemies; For thy truth's sake, O God! cut them off! ⁶ With a willing heart will I sacrifice to thee; I will praise thy name, O LORD! for it is good; ⁷ For thou hast delivered me from all trouble, So that my eye hath looked with joy upon my enemies!

in my bosom, And the terrors of death have fallen upon me. ⁵ Fear and trembling have seized me, And horror hath overwhelmed me. ⁶ Then I say, O that I had wings like a dove! For then would I fly away, and be at rest. ⁷ Behold, I would wander far away, And take up my abode in a wilderness. [[Pause.]] ⁸ I would hasten away to a shelter From the rushing wind and tempest. ⁹ Confound, O Lord! divide their counsels! For I behold violence and strife in the city. ¹⁰ Day and night do these go about its walls; In the midst of it are iniquity and mischief. ¹¹ Wickedness is in the midst of it; Oppression and fraud depart not from its streets. ¹² It was not an enemy that reviled me, Then I could have borne it; Nor one that hated me, who rose up against me; From him I could have hid myself. ¹³ But it was thou, a man my equal, My friend, and my acquaintance. ¹⁴ We held sweet converse together, And walked to the house of God in company. ¹⁵ May sudden death seize upon them! May they go down to the underworld alive! For wickedness is in their dwellings, in the midst of them. ¹⁶ As for me, I will call upon God, And Jehovah will save me. ¹⁷ At evening, at morn, and at noon I mourn and sigh, And he will hear my voice. ¹⁸ He will deliver me in peace from my conflict; For many have risen up against me. ¹⁹ God will hear me, and bring them down,—He that hath been judge of old. [[Pause.]] Because they have no changes, Therefore they fear not God. ²⁰ They lift up their hands against their friend, And break their covenant with him. ²¹ Their speech was softer than butter, But war was in their heart; Their words were smoother than oil, Yet were they drawn swords. ²² “Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he will sustain thee; He will never suffer the righteous to fall!” ²³ Yea, thou, O God! wilt bring them down into the lowest pit! Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in thee!

¹ “For the leader of the music. To be sung to the tune of “The dumb dove among strangers.” A psalm of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.” Have pity upon me, O God! for man panteth for my life; My adversary daily oppresses me! ² Mine enemies daily pant for my life, And many are they who war proudly against me. ³ When I am in fear, I will put my trust in thee! ⁴ Through God shall I praise his word; In God do I put my trust; I will not fear; What can flesh do to me? ⁵ Every day they wrest my words; All their thoughts are against me for evil. ⁶ They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they watch my steps, Lying in wait for my life. ⁷ Shall they escape by their iniquity? In thine anger cast down the people, O God! ⁸ Count thou my wanderings; Put my tears into thy bottle! Are they not recorded in thy book? ⁹ When I cry to thee, my enemies shall turn back; This I know, that God is for me. ¹⁰ Through God shall I praise his word; I shall glory in the promise of Jehovah. ¹¹ In God do I put my trust; I will not fear: What can man do to me? ¹² Thy vows are upon me, O God! I will render praise to thee! ¹³ For thou hast delivered me from death, Yea, my feet from falling, That I may walk before God in the light of the living.

¹ “For the leader of the music. To be sung to the tune of “Do not destroy.” A psalm of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.” Have pity upon me, O God! have pity upon me, For in thee doth my soul seek refuge! Yea, in the shadow of thy wings do I take shelter; Until these calamities be overpast! ² I call upon God the Most High, Upon God, who performeth all things for me; ³ He will send from heaven, and save me; He will put to shame him that panteth for my life; [[Pause.]] God will send forth his mercy and his truth. ⁴ My life is in the midst of lions; I dwell among them that breathe out fire; Among men whose teeth are spears and arrows, And whose tongue is a sharp sword. ⁵ Exalt thyself, O God! above the heavens, And thy glory above all the earth! ⁶ They have prepared a net for my steps; My soul is bowed down; They have digged a pit before me, But into it they have themselves fallen. ⁷ My heart is strengthened, O God! my heart is strengthened! I will sing, and give thanks. ⁸ Awake, my soul! awake, psaltery and harp! I will wake with the early dawn. ⁹ I will praise thee, O Lord! among the nations; I will sing to thee among the kingdoms! ¹⁰ For thy mercy reacheth to the heavens, And thy truth to the clouds! ¹¹ Exalt thyself, O God! above the heavens, And thy glory above all the earth!

58

¹ “For the leader of the music. To the tune of “Do not destroy.” A psalm of David.” Do ye, indeed, administer justice faithfully, ye mighty ones? Do ye judge with uprightness, ye sons of men? ² Nay, in your hearts ye contrive iniquity; Your hands weigh out violence in the land! ³ The wicked are estranged, from their very birth; The liars go astray as soon as they are born. ⁴ They have poison, like the poison of a serpent; Like the deaf adder's, which stoppeth her ear; ⁵ Which listeneth not to the voice of the charmer, And of the sorcerer, skilful in incantations. ⁶ Break their teeth, O God! in their mouths! Break out the great teeth of the lions, O LORD! ⁷ May they melt like waters, which flow away; May their arrows, when they aim them, be as if cut in pieces! ⁸ May they be like the snail, which melteth away as it goeth; Like the abortion of a woman, that seeth not the sun! ⁹ Before your pots feel the heat of the thorns, Whether fresh, or burning, may they be blown away! ¹⁰ The righteous shall rejoice, when he seeth such vengeance; He shall bathe his feet in the blood of the wicked. ¹¹ Then shall men say, “Truly there is a reward for the righteous! Truly there is a God who is judge upon the earth!”

of hosts, God of Israel, Awake to punish all the nations! Show no mercy to any wicked transgressors! [[Pause.]] ⁶ Let them return at evening, Let them howl like dogs, And go round about the city! ⁷ Behold! with their mouths they belch out malice; Swords are upon their lips; “For who,” say they, “will hear?” ⁸ Yet thou, O LORD! wilt laugh at them; Thou wilt hold all the nations in derision! ⁹ O my Strength! to thee will I look! For God is my defence; ¹⁰ My God will come to meet me with his mercy; God will cause me to look with joy upon my enemies. ¹¹ Slay them not, lest my people forget; Scatter them by thy power, and cast them down, O Lord, our shield! ¹² The word of their lips is the sin of their mouth; Let them be overtaken in their pride, For the curses and the falsehood which they utter! ¹³ Consume them in thy wrath; consume them that they be no more, That they may know that God ruleth in Jacob, Even to the ends of the earth! [[Pause.]] ¹⁴ Let them return at evening, Let them howl like dogs, And go round about the city! ¹⁵ Let them wander about for food, When they have passed the night unsatisfied! ¹⁶ But I will sing of thy power; Yea, in the morning will I sing aloud of thy mercy; For thou hast been my defence, My refuge in the day of my distress. ¹⁷ To thee, O my Strength! will I sing! For God is my defence; a God of mercy to me.

¹ “For the leader of the music; upon the Shushan-Eduth; a psalm of David for instruction; when he was at strife with the Syrians of Mesopotamia, and the Syrians of Zoba; when Joab returned, and smote twelve thousand Edomites in the valley of Salt.” O God! thou hast forsaken us; thou hast broken us in pieces; Thou hast been angry! O revive us again! ² Thou hast made the land tremble; thou hast rent it; O heal its breaches, for it tottereth! ³ Thou hast caused thy people to see hard things; Thou hast made us drink the wine of reeling. ⁴ Lift up a banner for them that fear thee, For the sake of thy faithfulness, that they may escape! ⁵ That thy beloved may be delivered, Save with thy right hand, and answer me! ⁶ God promiseth in his holiness; I will rejoice; I shall yet divide Shechem, And measure out the valley of Succoth. ⁷ Gilead shall be mine, and mine Manasseh; Ephraim shall be my helmet, And Judah my sceptre; ⁸ Moab shall be my wash-bowl; Upon Edom shall I cast my shoe; I shall triumph over Philistia! ⁹ Who will bring me to the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? ¹⁰ Wilt not thou, O God! who didst forsake us, And didst not go forth with our armies? ¹¹ Give us thine aid in our distress, For vain is the help of man! ¹² Through God we shall do valiantly; For he will tread down our enemies.

God! wilt hear my vows, And give me the inheritance of those who fear thy name. ⁶ O prolong the life of the king! May his years extend through many generations! ⁷ May he reign for ever before God! Grant that mercy and truth may preserve him! ⁸ So will I sing praise to thy name for ever; I will daily perform my vows.

¹ “For the leader of the music of the Jeduthunites, A psalm of David.” Truly my soul resteth on God alone; From him cometh my deliverance! ² He alone is my rock and my salvation; He is my safeguard, I shall not wholly fall! ³ How long will ye continue to assault a single man? How long will ye all seek to destroy me, Like a bending wall, or a tottering fence? ⁴ They study how to cast me down from my eminence; They delight in falsehood; They bless with their mouths, but in their hearts they curse. ⁵ My soul, rest thou on God alone, For from him cometh my hope! ⁶ He alone is my rock and my salvation; He is my safeguard, —I shall not fall. ⁷ From God cometh my help and my glory: My strong rock, my refuge, is God. ⁸ Trust in him at all times, ye people! Pour out your hearts before him! God is our refuge! ⁹ Truly men of low degree are vanity, And men of high degree are a lie; Placed in the balance, They are all lighter than vanity. ¹⁰ Trust not in extortion; Place no vain hopes in rapine! If riches increase, set not your heart upon them! ¹¹ Once hath God promised, twice have I heard it, That power belongeth unto God. ¹² To thee also, O Lord! belongeth mercy; For thou dost render to every man according to his work!

¹ “A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.” O God! thou art my God! earnestly do I seek thee! My soul thirsteth, my flesh longeth for thee, In a dry, thirsty land. where is no water! ² Thus I look toward thee in thy sanctuary, To behold thy power and thy glory! ³ For thy loving-kindness is better than life; Therefore my lips shall praise thee! ⁴ Thus will I bless thee, while I live; In thy name will I lift up my hands! ⁵ My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, And with joyful lips my mouth shall praise thee, ⁶ When I think of thee upon my bed, And meditate on thee in the night-watches. ⁷ For thou art my help, And in the shadow of thy wings I rejoice. ⁸ My soul cleaveth to thee; Thy right hand holdeth me up. ⁹ While they who seek to destroy my life Shall themselves go down into the depths of the earth. ¹⁰ They shall be given up to the sword, And be a portion for jackals. ¹¹ But the king shall rejoice in God; All that swear by him shall be honored; But the mouth of liars shall be stopped.

themselves for an evil deed; They commune of laying secret snares: "Who," say they, "will see them?" ⁶ They meditate crimes: "We have finished," say they, "our plans!" The heart and bosom of every one of them are deep. ⁷ But God will shoot an arrow at them; Suddenly shall they be wounded. ⁸ Thus their own tongues shall bring them down; All who see them will flee away. ⁹ Then will all men stand in awe, And declare what God hath done, And attentively consider his work. ¹⁰ The righteous shall rejoice, and trust in the LORD; All the upright in heart shall glory.

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm of David." To thee belongeth trust, to thee praise, O God in Zion! And to thee shall the vow be performed! ² O Thou that hearest prayer! To thee shall all flesh come! ³ My iniquities are heavy upon me; But thou wilt forgive our transgressions! ⁴ Happy is he whom thou chooseth, And bringest near thee to dwell in thy courts! May we be satisfied with the blessings of thy house, Thy holy temple! ⁵ By wonderful deeds dost thou answer us in thy goodness, O God, our salvation! Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, And of the most distant seas! ⁶ Thou makest fast the mountains by thy power, Being girded with strength! ⁷ Thou stillest the roar of the sea, The roar of its waves, And the tumult of the nations. ⁸ They who dwell in the ends of the earth are awed by thy signs; Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and of the evening to rejoice! ⁹ Thou visitest the earth and waterest it; Thou enrichest it exceedingly; The river of God is full of water. Thou suppliest the earth with corn, When thou hast thus prepared it. ¹⁰ Thou waterest its furrows, And breakest down its ridges; Thou makest it soft with showers, And blessest its increase. ¹¹ Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; Thy footsteps drop fruitfulness; ¹² They drop it upon the pastures of the wilderness, And the hills are girded with gladness. ¹³ The pastures are clothed with flocks, And the valleys are covered with corn; They shout, yea, they sing for joy.

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm." Shout joyfully unto God. all ye lands! ² Sing ye the honor of his name; Make his praise glorious! ³ Say unto God, How terrible are thy doings! Through the greatness of thy power thine enemies are suppliants to thee! ⁴ Let all the earth worship thee; Let it sing praise to thee, let it sing praise to thy name! [[Pause.]] ⁵ Come, behold the works of God! How terrible his doings among the sons of men! ⁶ He turned the sea into dry land; They went through the deep on foot; Then we rejoiced in him. ⁷ By his power he ruleth for ever; His eyes are fixed upon the nations; Let not the rebellious exalt themselves! [[Pause.]] ⁸ O bless our God, ye nations. And make the voice of his praise to be heard! ⁹ It is he who preserveth our lives, And suffereth not our feet to stumble. ¹⁰ Thou hast, indeed, proved us, O God! Thou hast tried us as silver is tried. ¹¹ Thou broughtest us into a snare, And didst lay a heavy burden upon our backs; ¹² Thou didst cause men to ride upon our heads, And we have gone through fire and water: But thou hast brought us to a place of abundance. ¹³ I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings! I will pay thee my vows,— ¹⁴ The vows which my lips uttered. Which my mouth promised in my trouble. ¹⁵ Burnt sacrifices of fatlings will I offer to thee with the fat of rams; Bullocks, with he-goats, will I sacrifice to thee. [[Pause.]] ¹⁶ Come and hear, all ye who fear God, And I will relate what he hath done for me! ¹⁷ I called upon him with my mouth, And praise is now upon my tongue. ¹⁸ If I had meditated wickedness in my heart, The Lord would not have heard me: ¹⁹ But surely God hath heard me; He hath had regard to the voice of my supplication. ²⁰ Blessed be God, who did not reject my prayer, Nor withhold his mercy from me!

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” Let God arise, and his enemies are scattered, And they who hate him flee before him! ² As smoke is dispersed, so thou dispersest them; As wax melteth before the fire, So perish the wicked before the face of God. ³ But the righteous are glad and rejoice in his presence, Yea, they exult exceedingly. ⁴ Sing unto God; sing praises to his name! Prepare a way for him who rideth through the desert! Jehovah is his name; be joyful in his presence! ⁵ The father of the fatherless, and the protector of the widow, Is God in his holy habitation. ⁶ God causeth the forsaken to dwell in houses; He leadeth forth to prosperity them that are bound; But the rebellious shall dwell in a barren land. ⁷ O God! when thou didst go before thy people, When thou didst march through the wilderness. [[Pause.]] ⁸ The earth quaked, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God; This Sinai trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel. ⁹ Thou, O God! didst send a plentiful rain; Thou didst strengthen thy wearied inheritance. ¹⁰ Thy people established themselves in the land; Thou, O God! in thy goodness, didst prepare it for the needy! ¹¹ The Lord gave the song of victory Of the maidens publishing glad tidings to the mighty host. ¹² “The kings with their armies have fled, —have fled! And the matron at home divideth the spoil. ¹³ Truly ye may repose yourselves in the stalls, Like the wings of a dove covered with silver; And her feathers with shining gold.” ¹⁴ When the Most High destroyed the kings in the land, It was white [[with their bones]] like Salmon. ¹⁵ Ye lofty hills, ye hills of Bashan, Ye many-topped hills, ye hills of Bashan, ¹⁶ Why frown ye, ye many-topped hills, At the hill in which

God is pleased to dwell, In which Jehovah will dwell for ever? ¹⁷ The chariots of God are myriads, yea, thousands of thousands; The Lord is in the midst of them, as upon Sinai, in the sanctuary. ¹⁸ Thou hast ascended on high, Thou hast led captive the vanquished, Thou hast received gifts among men, Even the rebellious, that here thou mightst dwell, O LORD God! ¹⁹ Praised be the Lord daily! When we are heavy-laden, the Mighty One is our help. ²⁰ Our God is a God of salvation; From the Lord Jehovah cometh deliverance from death. ²¹ But God smiteth the head of his enemies, Even the hairy crowns of those who go on in their iniquity. ²² "I will bring them back," saith the Lord, "from Bashan; I will bring them back from the deep sea; ²³ That thy foot may be dipped in their blood, That thy dogs may drink the blood of thine enemies." ²⁴ We have seen thy procession, O God! The procession of my God, my king, to his sanctuary! ²⁵ The singers go before, the minstrels follow, Amidst damsels playing on timbrels. ²⁶ Praise ye God in your assemblies; Praise the Lord, all ye from the fountain of Israel! ²⁷ Here is Benjamin, the youngest, and his leaders; The chiefs of Judah, and their band; The chiefs of Zebulon, and the chiefs of Naphtali. ²⁸ Thy God has ordained thy strength, [[O Israel!]] Show forth thy might, O God! thou who hast wrought for us! ²⁹ Because of thy temple in Jerusalem Shall kings bring presents to thee. ³⁰ Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, The multitude of bulls with the calves of the nations, So that they shall cast themselves down with masses of silver; Scatter thou the nations that delight in war! ³¹ Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall haste with outstretched hands to God. ³² Ye kingdoms of the earth, sing unto God; Sing praises to Jehovah; ³³ To him who rideth upon the ancient heaven of heavens! Behold, he uttereth his voice, his mighty voice! ³⁴ Give glory to God, Whose majesty is in Israel, and whose might is in the clouds! ³⁵ Terrible art thou, O God! from thy sanctuary! The God of Israel giveth strength and power to his people. Praised be God!

I address my prayer to thee, O LORD! May it be in an acceptable time according to thy great goodness! Hear, O God! and afford me thy sure help! ¹⁴ Save me from the mire, and let me not sink; May I be delivered from my enemies,—from the deep waters! ¹⁵ Let not the water-flood overflow me; Let not the deep swallow me up, And let not the pit close her mouth upon me! ¹⁶ Hear me, O LORD! since great is thy loving-kindness; According to the abundance of thy tender mercies look upon me! ¹⁷ Hide not thy face from thy servant; I am greatly distressed, O make haste to mine aid! ¹⁸ Draw near to me, and redeem my life; Deliver me because of my enemies! ¹⁹ Thou knowest my reproach, and dishonor, and shame; All my adversaries are in thy view! ²⁰ Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness; I look for pity, but there is none; For comforters, but find none. ²¹ For my food they give me gall, And in my thirst they give me vinegar to drink. ²² May their table be to them a snare; May it be a trap to them, while they are at ease! ²³ May their eyes be darkened, that they may not see; And cause their loins continually to shake! ²⁴ Pour out upon them thine indignation, And may the heat of thine anger overtake them! ²⁵ Let their habitation be desolate, And let none dwell in their tents! ²⁶ For they persecute those whom thou hast smitten, And talk of the pain of those whom thou hast wounded. ²⁷ Add iniquity to their iniquity, And let them never come into thy favor! ²⁸ Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; Let not their names be written with the righteous! ²⁹ But I am poor, and sorrowful: May thine aid, O God! set me on high! ³⁰ Then I will praise the name of God in a song; I will give glory to him with thanksgiving. ³¹ More pleasing shall this be to the LORD Than a full-horned and full-hoofed bullock. ³² The afflicted shall see, and rejoice; The hearts of them that fear God shall be revived. ³³ For the LORD heareth the poor, And despiseth not his people in their bonds. ³⁴ Let the heaven and the earth praise him; The sea, and all that move therein! ³⁵ For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah, That they may dwell therein, and possess it. ³⁶ Yea, the posterity of his servants shall possess it, And they that love him shall dwell therein.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David, for remembrance.” Make haste, O God! to deliver me, O LORD! come speedily to mine aid! ² May they all be confounded, and covered with shame, Who seek to take my life! May they be driven back with disgrace Who desire to do me injury! ³ May they be turned back with shame Who cry out to me, “Aha! aha!” ⁴ But let all who seek thee be glad and rejoice in thee! Let them that love thy protection ever say, “May God be praised!” ⁵ But I am poor and needy; O God! hasten to mine aid! Thou art my help and my deliverer, O LORD! make no delay!

¹ In thee, O LORD! do I put my trust! Let me never be put to shame! ² In thy goodness deliver and rescue me; Incline thine ear to me, and save me! ³ Be thou the rock of my abode, where I may continually resort! Thou hast granted me deliverance; For thou art my rock and my fortress! ⁴ Save me, O my God! from the hand of the wicked,-

 From the hand of the unjust and cruel! ⁵ For thou art my hope, O Lord Jehovah! Thou hast been my trust from my youth! ⁶ Upon thee have I leaned from my birth; From my earliest breath thou hast been my support; My song hath been continually of thee! ⁷ I am a wonder to many, But thou art my strong refuge. ⁸ Let my mouth be filled with thy praise; Yea, all the day long, with thy glory. ⁹ Cast me not off in mine old age; Forsake me not, When my strength faileth! ¹⁰ For my enemies speak against me, And they who lay wait for my life consult together: ¹¹ "God," say they, "hath forsaken him; Pursue and seize him; for he hath none to deliver him!" ¹² O God! be not far from me! Come speedily to mine aid, O my God! ¹³ Let them perish with shame who are my enemies; Let them be covered with contempt and dishonor who seek my hurt! ¹⁴ But I will hope continually; I shall yet praise thee more and more. ¹⁵ My mouth shall speak of thy goodness,—Of thy sure protection all the day long; For thy mercies are more than I can number. ¹⁶ I will celebrate thy mighty deeds, O Lord Jehovah! I will make mention of thy goodness, of thine only! ¹⁷ O God! thou hast taught me from my youth, And thus far have I declared thy wondrous deeds; ¹⁸ And now, when I am old and gray-headed, O God! forsake me not, Until I make known thine arm to the next generation,—Thy mighty power to all that are to come! ¹⁹ For thy goodness, O God! reacheth to the heavens; Wonderful things doest thou! O God! who is like unto thee? ²⁰ Thou hast suffered us to see great and grievous troubles; Thou wilt again give us life, And wilt bring us back from the depths of the earth! ²¹ Thou wilt increase my greatness; Thou wilt again comfort me! ²² Then will I praise thee with the psaltery; Even thy faithfulness, O my God! To thee will I sing with the harp, O Holy One of Israel!
²³ My lips shall rejoice, when I sing to thee; And my soul, which thou hast redeemed from death; ²⁴ My tongue also shall continually speak of thy righteousness: For all who seek my hurt are brought to shame and confounded.

¹ "For Solomon." To the king, O God! give thy justice, And to the son of a king thy righteousness! ² Yea! he shall judge thy people with equity, And thine oppressed ones with justice. ³ For the mountains shall bring forth peace to the people, And the hills, through righteousness. ⁴ He shall defend the oppressed of the people; He shall save the needy, And break in pieces the oppressor. ⁵ They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon shall endure, From generation to generation. ⁶ He shall be like rain descending on the mown field,— Like showers which water the earth. ⁷ In his days shall the righteous flourish, And great shall be their prosperity, as long as the moon shall endure. ⁸ He shall have dominion from sea to sea, And from the river to the ends of the earth. ⁹ They that dwell in the desert shall bow before him, And his enemies shall lick the dust. ¹⁰ The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents; The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts; ¹¹ Yea, all kings shall fall down before him; All nations shall serve him. ¹² For he shall deliver the poor who crieth for aid, And the oppressed who hath no helper. ¹³ He shall spare the weak and needy, And save the lives of the poor. ¹⁴ He shall redeem them from deceit and violence, And their blood shall be precious in his sight. ¹⁵ He shall prosper, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba; Prayer also shall be made for him continually, And daily shall he be praised. ¹⁶ There shall be an abundance of corn in the land; Its fruit shall shake like Lebanon, even on the tops of the mountains; And they of the cities shall flourish as the grass of the earth. ¹⁷ His name shall endure for ever; His name shall be continued as long as the sun. By him shall men bless themselves; All nations shall call him blessed. ¹⁸ [[Praised be God, Jehovah, the God of Israel, Who alone doeth wonderful things! ¹⁹ Praised be his glorious name for ever! May his glory fill the whole earth! Amen, Amen! ²⁰ Here end the Psalms of David, the son of Jesse.]]

¹ "BOOK III. A psalm of Asaph." Truly God is good to Israel,—To those who are pure in heart. ² Yet my feet almost gave way; My steps had well nigh slipped: ³ For I was envious of the proud, When I saw the prosperity of the wicked. ⁴ For they have no pains even to their death; Their bodies are in full health. ⁵ They have not the woes of other men, Neither are they smitten like other men. ⁶ Therefore pride encircleth their neck as a collar; Violence covereth them as a garment. ⁷ From their bosom issueth their iniquity; The designs of their hearts burst forth. ⁸ They mock, and speak of malicious oppression; Their words are haughty; ⁹ They stretch forth their mouth to the heavens, And their tongue goeth through the earth; ¹⁰ Therefore his people walk in their ways, And there drink from full fountains. ¹¹ And they say, "How doth God know? How can there be knowledge with the Most High?" ¹² Behold these are the ungodly! Yet they are ever prosperous; they heap up riches. ¹³ Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain; In vain have I washed my hands in innocence. ¹⁴ For every day have I been smitten; Every morn have I been chastened. ¹⁵ If I should resolve to speak like them, Surely I should be treacherous to the family of thy children. ¹⁶ So, when I studied to know this, It was painful to my eyes; ¹⁷ Until I went into the sanctuaries of God, And considered what was their end. ¹⁸ Behold! thou hast set them on slippery places; Thou castest them down into unseen pits. ¹⁹ How are they brought to desolation in a moment, And utterly consumed with sudden destruction! ²⁰ As a dream when one awaketh, Thou, O Lord! when thou awakest, wilt make their vain show a derision. ²¹ When my heart was vexed And I was pierced in my reins, ²² Then was I stupid and without understanding; I was like one of the brutes before thee. ²³ Yet am I ever under thy care; By my right hand thou dost hold me up. ²⁴ Thou wilt guide me with thy counsel, And at last receive me in glory. ²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but thee, And whom on earth do I love in comparison with thee? ²⁶ Though my flesh and my heart fail, God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. ²⁷ For, lo! they who are far from thee perish; Thou destroyest all who estrange themselves from thee. ²⁸ But it is good for me to draw near to God; I put my trust in the Lord Jehovah, That I may declare all thy works.

¹ “A psalm of Asaph.” O God! why hast thou cast us off for ever? Why doth thine anger smoke against the flock of thy pasture? ² Remember the people which thou didst purchase of old; Thine own inheritance, which thou didst redeem; That Mount Zion, where thou once didst dwell! ³ Hasten thy steps to those utter desolations! Every thing in the sanctuary hath the enemy abused! ⁴ Thine enemies roar in the place of thine assemblies; Their own symbols have they set up for signs. ⁵ They appear like those who raise the axe against a thicket; ⁶ They have broken down the carved work of thy temple with axes and hammers; ⁷ They have cast fire into thy sanctuary; They have profaned, and cast to the ground, the dwelling-place of thy name. ⁸ They said in their hearts, “Let us destroy them all together!” They have burned all God’s places of assembly in the land. ⁹ We no longer see our signs; There is no prophet among us, Nor any one that knoweth how long this desolation shall endure. ¹⁰ How long, O God! shall the adversary revile? Shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? ¹¹ Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? Take it from thy bosom, and destroy! ¹² Yet God was our king of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth. ¹³ Thou didst divide the sea by thy power; Thou didst crush the heads of the sea-monsters in the waters. ¹⁴ Thou didst break in pieces the head of the crocodile; Thou gavest him for food to the inhabitants of the desert. ¹⁵ Thou didst cleave forth the fountain and the stream; Thou didst dry up perennial rivers. ¹⁶ Thine is the day, and thine the night; Thou didst prepare the light and the sun. ¹⁷ Thou didst establish all the boundaries of the earth; Thou didst make summer and winter. ¹⁸ O remember that the enemy hath reviled Jehovah; That an impious people hath blasphemed thy name! ¹⁹ Give not up the life of thy turtle-dove to the wild beast; Forget not for ever thine afflicted people! ²⁰ Have regard to thy covenant! For all the dark places of the land are full of the abodes of cruelty. ²¹ O let not the afflicted go away ashamed! Let the poor and needy praise thy name! ²² Arise, O God! maintain thy cause! Remember how the impious revileth thee daily! ²³ Forget not the clamor of thine adversaries,—The noise of thine enemies, which continually increaseth!

for ever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob. ¹⁰ "I will bring down all the power of the wicked; But the righteous shall lift up their heads."

¹ "For the leader of the music. Upon stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph." In Judah is God known; Great is his name in Israel. ² In Jerusalem is his tabernacle, And in Zion his dwelling-place. ³ There brake he the lightning of the bow, The shield, the sword, and all the weapons of battle. ⁴ More glorious and excellent art thou Than those mountains of robbers! ⁵ Spoiled are the stout-hearted; They sank into their sleep; The hands of the mighty were powerless. ⁶ Before thy rebuke, O God of Jacob! Fell chariot and horseman into a deep sleep! ⁷ Thou, thou, O God! art terrible! Who can stand before thee in thine anger? ⁸ Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; The earth trembled and was still, ⁹ When God arose to judgment, To save all the oppressed of the earth! ¹⁰ The wrath of man shall praise thee, When thou girdest on the whole of thy wrath! ¹¹ Make and perform vows to Jehovah, your God! Let all that dwell around him bring gifts to the terrible One, ¹² Who casteth down the pride of princes, Who is terrible to the kings of the earth!

¹ "For the leader of the music of the Jeduthunites. A psalm of Asaph." I call upon God; I cry aloud for help; I call upon God, that he would hear me! ² In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord; In the night is my hand stretched forth continually; My soul refuseth to be comforted. ³ I remember God, and am disquieted; I think of him, and my spirit is overwhelmed. ⁴ Thou keepest mine eyelids from closing; I am distressed, so that I cannot speak! ⁵ I think of the days of old, —The years of ancient times. ⁶ I call to remembrance my songs in the night; I meditate in my heart, And my spirit inquireth: ⁷ Will the Lord be angry for ever? Will he be favorable no more? ⁸ Is his mercy utterly withdrawn for ever? Doth his promise fail from generation to generation? ⁹ Hath God forgotten to be gracious? Hath he in anger shut up his compassion? ¹⁰ Then I say, "This is mine affliction, A change in the right hand of the Most High." ¹¹ I remember the deeds of Jehovah; I think of thy wonders of old. ¹² I meditate on all thy works, And talk of thy doings. ¹³ Thy ways, O God! are holy! Who so great a god as our God? ¹⁴ Thou art a God who doest wonders; Thou hast manifested thy power among the nations. ¹⁵ With thy strong arm thou didst redeem thy people,—The sons of Jacob and Joseph. ¹⁶ The waters saw thee, O God! The waters saw thee, and feared, And the deep trembled. ¹⁷ The clouds poured out water; The skies sent forth thunder; And thine arrows flew. ¹⁸ Thy thunder roared in the whirlwind; Thy lightning illumined the world; The earth trembled and shook. ¹⁹ Thy way was through the sea, And thy path through great waters; And thy footsteps could not be found. ²⁰ Thou didst lead thy people like a flock, By the hands of Moses and Aaron.

¹ “A psalm of Asaph.” Give ear, O my people, to my instruction! Incline your ears to the words of my mouth! ² I will open my mouth in a psalm; I will utter sayings of ancient times. ³ What we have heard and learned, And our fathers have told us, ⁴ We will not hide from their children; Showing to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah, His might, and the wonders he hath wrought. ⁵ For he appointed statutes in Jacob, And established a law in Israel, Which he commanded our fathers To make known to their children; ⁶ So that the generation to come might know them; The children, which should be born, and rise up, Who should declare them to their children; ⁷ That they might put their trust in God, And not forget his deeds, But keep his commandments; ⁸ And might not be, like their forefathers, A stubborn and rebellious generation,—A generation whose heart was not fixed upon God, And whose spirit was not steadfast toward the Almighty. ⁹ The children of Ephraim were like armed bowmen, Who turn their backs in the day of battle. ¹⁰ They kept not the covenant of God, And refused to walk in his law; ¹¹ And forgot his mighty deeds, And the wonders he had shown them. ¹² Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. ¹³ He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; Yea, he made the waters to stand as a heap. ¹⁴ By day he led them by a cloud, And all the night by a light of fire. ¹⁵ He clave the rocks in the wilderness, And gave them drink, as from the great deep. ¹⁶ From the rock he brought flowing streams, And made water to run down like rivers. ¹⁷ Yet still they sinned against him, And provoked the Most High in the desert. ¹⁸ They tempted God in their hearts, By asking food for their delight. ¹⁹ Yea, they spake against God, and said, “Can God spread a table in the wilderness? ²⁰ Behold! he smote the rock, and the water flowed, And streams gushed forth: Is he also able to give bread? Can he provide flesh for his people?” ²¹ When, therefore, the LORD heard this, he was wroth: So a fire was kindled against Jacob, And anger arose against Israel. ²² Because they believed not in God, And trusted not in his aid. ²³ Yet he had commanded the clouds above, And had opened the doors of heaven; ²⁴ And had rained down upon them manna for food, And had given them the corn of heaven. ²⁵ Every one ate the food of princes; He sent them bread to the full. ²⁶ Then he caused a strong wind to blow in the heavens, And by his power he brought a south wind; ²⁷ He rained down flesh upon them as dust, And feathered fowls as the sand of the sea. ²⁸ He caused them to fall in the midst of their camp, Round about their habitations. ²⁹ So they did eat, and were filled; For he gave them their own desire. ³⁰ Their desire was not yet satisfied, And their meat was yet in their mouths, ³¹ When the wrath of God came upon them, And slew their strong men, And smote down the chosen men of Israel. ³² For all this they sinned still, And put no trust in his wondrous works. ³³ Therefore he consumed their days in vanity, And their years in sudden destruction. ³⁴ When he slew them, they sought him; They returned, and sought earnestly for God; ³⁵ And remembered that God was their rock, And the Most High their redeemer. ³⁶ But they only flattered him with their mouths, And spake falsely to him with their tongues. ³⁷ For their hearts were not true to him, Nor were they steadfast in his covenant. ³⁸ Yet, being full of compassion, he forgave their iniquity, And would not utterly destroy them; Often he restrained his indignation, And stirred not up all his anger. ³⁹ He remembered that they were but flesh,—A breath, that passeth and cometh not back. ⁴⁰ How often did they provoke him in the wilderness! How often did they anger him in the desert! ⁴¹ Again and again they tempted God, And offended the Holy One of Israel. ⁴² They remembered not his hand, Nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy; ⁴³ What signs he had wrought in Egypt, And what wonders in the fields of Zoan. ⁴⁴ He turned their rivers into blood, So that they could not drink of their streams. ⁴⁵ He sent amongst them flies, which devoured them, And frogs, which destroyed them. ⁴⁶ He gave also their fruits to the caterpillar, And their labor to the locust. ⁴⁷ He destroyed their vines with hail, And their sycamore-trees with frost. ⁴⁸ He also gave up their cattle to hail, And their flocks to hot thunderbolts. ⁴⁹ He sent against them the fierceness of his anger, Wrath, indignation, and woe,—A host of angels of evil. ⁵⁰ He made a way for his anger; He spared them not from death, But gave up their lives to the pestilence. ⁵¹ He smote all the firstborn in Egypt; The first-fruits of their strength in the tents of Ham. ⁵² But he led forth his own people like sheep, And guided them like a flock in the wilderness. ⁵³ He led them on safely, so that they feared not, While the sea overwhelmed their enemies. ⁵⁴ He brought them to his own sacred border, Even to this mountain which his right hand had gained. ⁵⁵ He cast out the nations before them, And divided their land by a measuring-line, as an inheritance, And caused the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. ⁵⁶ Yet they tempted and provoked God, the Most High, And kept not his statutes; ⁵⁷ Like their fathers they were faithless, and turned back; They turned aside, like a deceitful bow. ⁵⁸ They provoked his anger by their high places, And stirred up his jealousy by their graven images. ⁵⁹ God saw this, and was wroth, And greatly abhorred Israel; ⁶⁰ So that he forsook the habitation at Shiloh, The tabernacle where he dwelt among men, ⁶¹ And delivered his strength into captivity, And his glory into the hand of the enemy. ⁶² His own people he gave up to the sword, And was wroth with his own inheritance. ⁶³ Fire consumed their young men, And their maidens did not bewail them. ⁶⁴ Their priests fell by the sword, And their widows made no lamentation. ⁶⁵ But at length the Lord awaked as from sleep, As a hero who had been overpowered by wine; ⁶⁶ He smote his enemies, and drove them back, And covered them with everlasting disgrace. ⁶⁷ Yet he rejected the tents of Joseph, And chose not the tribe of Ephraim; ⁶⁸ But chose the tribe of Judah, The Mount Zion which he loved; ⁶⁹ Where he built, like the heavens, his sanctuary; Like the earth, which he hath established for ever. ⁷⁰ And he chose David, his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds; ⁷¹ From tending the suckling ewes he brought him To feed Jacob his people, And Israel his inheritance. ⁷² He fed them with an upright heart, And guided them with skilful hands.

¹ “A psalm of Asaph.” O God! the nations have come into thine inheritance; They have polluted thy holy temple; They have made Jerusalem a heap of ruins! ² They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to be food for the birds of heaven, The flesh of thy holy ones to the wild beasts of the earth! ³ Their blood have they shed like water around Jerusalem, And there was none to bury them! ⁴ We have become the reproach of our neighbors,—The scorn and derision of those around us. ⁵ How long, O LORD! wilt thou be angry for ever? How long shall thy jealousy burn like fire? ⁶ Pour out thy wrath on the nations which acknowledge thee not. And on the kingdoms which call not upon thy name! ⁷ For they have devoured Jacob, And laid waste his dwelling-place. ⁸ O remember not against us former iniquities; Let thy tender mercy speedily succor us, ⁹ For we are brought very low! Help us, O God of our salvation! for the honor of thy name; For thy name’s sake save us, and forgive our iniquities! ¹⁰ Why should the nations say, “Where is their God?” May the revenging of the blood of thy servants, which hath been shed, Be manifested among the nations before our eyes! ¹¹ Let the cry of the prisoner come before thee! According to the greatness of thy power preserve those that are appointed to die! ¹² And return sevenfold into our neighbors’ bosoms The reproach with which they have reproached thee, O Lord! ¹³ So shall we, thy people, and the flock of thy pasture, Give thanks to thee for ever. And show forth thy praise to all generations.

¹ “For the leader of the music. Upon the Shushan-Eduth. A psalm of Asaph.” Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel! Thou who leadest Joseph like a flock, Thou who sittest between the cherubs, shine forth! ² Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy strength, And come and save us! ³ Bring us back, O God! And cause thy face to shine, that we may be saved! ⁴ O LORD, God of hosts! How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people? ⁵ For thou causest them to eat the bread of tears, And givest them tears to drink, in full measure. ⁶ Thou hast made us the object of strife to our neighbors, And our enemies hold us in derision. ⁷ Bring us back, O God of hosts! And cause thy face to shine that we may be saved! ⁸ Thou didst bring a vine out of Egypt; Thou didst expel the nations, and plant it. ⁹ Thou didst prepare a place for it; It spread its roots, and filled the land. ¹⁰ The mountains were covered with its shade, And its branches were like the cedars of God. ¹¹ It sent out its boughs to the sea, And its branches to the river. ¹² Why hast thou now broken down its hedges, So that all who pass by do pluck from it? ¹³ The boar from the wood doth waste it, And the wild beast of the forest doth devour it. ¹⁴ O God of hosts! return, we beseech thee, Look down from heaven, and behold, And have regard to this vine! ¹⁵ Protect what thy right hand planted; The branch which thou madest strong for thyself! ¹⁶ It is burnt with fire; it is cut down; Under thy rebuke they perish. ¹⁷ May thy hand be over the man of thy right hand, The man whom thou madest strong for thyself! ¹⁸ So will we no more turn back from thee: Revive us, and upon thy name alone will we call! ¹⁹ Bring us back, O LORD, God of hosts! And cause thy face to shine, that we may be saved!

¹ “For the leader of the music. On the Gittith. A psalm of Asaph.” Sing joyfully to God, our strength! Shout with gladness to the God of Jacob! ² Raise a song, and strike the timbrel, The sweet-sounding harp, and the psaltery! ³ Blow the trumpet at the new moon; At the full moon, also, on our festal day! ⁴ For this is a statute for Israel, A law of the God of Jacob; ⁵ He appointed it as a memorial in Joseph, When he went out of the land of Egypt, Where he heard a language which he knew not. ⁶ “I relieved [[said he]] thy shoulders from their burden; Thy hands were removed from the hod. ⁷ Thou didst call in trouble, and I delivered thee; In the secret place of thunder I answered thee; I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. [[Pause.]] ⁸ Hear, O my people! and I will admonish thee! O Israel! that thou wouldst hearken to me! ⁹ Let there be no strange god within thee, Nor worship thou any foreign god! ¹⁰ I Jehovah am thy God, Who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: Open wide thy mouth, and I will fill it! ¹¹ But my people would not listen to my voice, And Israel would not hearken to me. ¹² So I gave them up to the obstinacy of their hearts, And they walked according to their own devices. ¹³ “O that my people had hearkened to me! That Israel had walked in my ways! ¹⁴ Soon would I have brought low their enemies, And turned my hand against their adversaries. ¹⁵ The haters of Jehovah should have become suppliants to them, And their prosperity should have endured for ever. ¹⁶ With the finest of the wheat I would have fed them, And with honey out of the rock would I have satisfied them.”

82

¹ “A psalm of Asaph.” God standeth in God’s assembly, He judgeth in the midst of the gods. ² “How long will ye judge unjustly, And favor the cause of the wicked? [[Pause.]] ³ Defend the poor and the fatherless; Do justice to the wretched and the needy! ⁴ Deliver the poor and the destitute; Save them from the hand of the wicked! ⁵ They are without knowledge and without understanding; They walk in darkness: Therefore all the foundations of the land are shaken. ⁶ I have said, Ye are gods, And all of you children of the Most High; ⁷ But ye shall die like men, And fall like the rest of the princes.” ⁸ Arise, O God! judge the earth! For all the nations are thy possession.

also are joined with them; They lend their strength to the children of Lot. ⁹ Do to them as to the Midianites, As to Sisera, as to Jabin at the brook Kison, ¹⁰ Who perished at Endor, And were trampled like dung to the earth. ¹¹ Make their chiefs like Oreb and Zeeb; Yea, all their princes as Zeba and Zalmunna! ¹² Who say, "Let us seize on God's habitations!" ¹³ Make them, O my God! like whirling chaff; Like stubble before the wind! ¹⁴ As fire consumeth the forest, And as flame setteth the mountains in a blaze, ¹⁵ So pursue them with thy tempest, And terrify them with thy storm! ¹⁶ Cover their faces with shame, That they may seek thy name, O LORD! ¹⁷ Let them be confounded! Yea, let them be put to shame, and perish! ¹⁸ That they may know that thy name alone is Jehovah; That thou art the Most High over all the earth.

¹ "For the leader of the music. On the Gittith. A psalm of the sons of Korah." How lovely are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! ² My soul longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the LORD; My heart and my flesh cry aloud for the living God. ³ The very sparrow findeth an abode, And the swallow a nest, where they may lay their young, By thine altars, O LORD of hosts, My king and my God! ⁴ Happy they who dwell in thy house, Who are continually praising thee! [[Pause.]] ⁵ Happy the man whose glory is in thee, In whose heart are the ways [[to Jerusalem]]! ⁶ Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a fountain; and the early rain covereth it with blessings. ⁷ They go on from strength to strength; Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion. ⁸ Hear my prayer, O LORD, God of hosts! Give ear, O God of Jacob! [[Pause.]] ⁹ Look down, O God! our shield, And behold the face of thine anointed! ¹⁰ For a day spent in thy courts is better than a thousand: I would rather stand on the threshold of the house of my God, Than dwell in the tents of wickedness. ¹¹ For the LORD God is a sun and a shield; The LORD giveth grace and glory; No good thing doth he withhold From them that walk uprightly. ¹² O LORD of hosts! Happy the man who trusteth in thee!

85

¹ "For the leader of the music. A psalm of the sons of Korah." O LORD! thou hast been favorable to thy land; Thou hast brought back the captives of Jacob; ² Thou didst forgive the iniquity of thy people, And cover all their sins! [[Pause.]] ³ Thou didst take away all thy displeasure, And abate the fierceness of thy wrath. ⁴ Restore us, O God of our salvation! And let thine anger towards us cease! ⁵ Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? Wilt thou continue thy wrath from generation to generation? ⁶ Wilt thou not revive us again, That thy people may rejoice in thee? ⁷ Show us thy compassion, O LORD! And grant us thy salvation! ⁸ I will hear what God the LORD will speak: Truly he will speak peace to his people, and to his servants; Only let them not turn again to folly! ⁹ Yea, his salvation is near to those who fear him, That glory may dwell in our land. ¹⁰ Mercy and truth shall meet together, Righteousness and peace shall kiss each other; ¹¹ Truth shall spring out of the earth; Righteousness shall look down from heaven. ¹² Yea, Jehovah will give prosperity, And our land shall yield her increase.

 13 Righteousness shall go before him, And set us in the way of his steps.

¹ “A prayer of David.” Incline thine ear, O LORD! and hear me, For I am poor and distressed! ² Preserve my life, for I am devoted to thee! Save, O thou my God! thy servant who trusteth in thee! ³ Have pity upon me, O Lord! For to thee do I cry daily! ⁴ Revive the soul of thy servant, For to thee, O Lord! do I lift up my soul! ⁵ For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; Yea, rich in mercy to all that call upon thee! ⁶ Give ear, O LORD! to my prayer, And attend to the voice of my supplication! ⁷ In the day of my trouble I call upon thee, For thou dost answer me! ⁸ Among the gods there is none like thee, O Lord! And there are no works like thy works! ⁹ All the nations which thou hast made must come and worship before thee, O Lord! And glorify thy name! ¹⁰ For great art thou, and wondrous are thy works; Thou alone art God! ¹¹ Teach me, O LORD! thy way, That I may walk in thy truth; Unite all my heart to fear thy name! ¹² I will praise thee, O Lord, my God! with my whole heart; I will give glory to thy name for ever! ¹³ For thy kindness to me hath been great; Thou hast delivered me from the depths of the underworld! ¹⁴ O God! the proud have risen against me; Bands of cruel men seek my life, And set not thee before their eyes. ¹⁵ But thou, O Lord! art a God full of compassion and kindness, Long-suffering, rich in mercy and truth! ¹⁶ Look upon me, and have compassion upon me! Give thy strength to thy servant, And save the son of thy handmaid! ¹⁷ Show me a token for good, That my enemies may see it and be confounded; Because thou, O LORD! helpst and comfortest me!

87

¹ “A psalm of the sons of Korah.” His foundation is in the holy mountains; ² Jehovah loveth the gates of Zion More than all the dwellings of Jacob. ³ Glorious things are said of thee, O city of God! [[Pause.]] ⁴ “I name Egypt and Babylon among them that know me; Behold! Philistia, Tyre, and Ethiopia,—They also were born there.” ⁵ And of Zion it shall be said, “Men of every nation were born there, And the Most High hath established her.” ⁶ Jehovah, when he numbereth the nations, shall write, “These were born there!” [[Pause.]] ⁷ Singers as well as dancers,—All my springs are in thee!

me in a deep pit, In a dark and deep abyss. ⁷ Thy wrath presseth hard upon me, And thou afflictest me with all thy waves! [[Pause.]] ⁸ Thou hast put mine acquaintances far from me, Yea, thou hast made me their abhorrence: I am shut up, and cannot go forth. ⁹ Mine eyes languish by reason of my affliction. I call upon thee daily, O LORD! To thee do I stretch out my hands! ¹⁰ Canst thou show wonders to the dead? Shall the dead arise, and praise thee? [[Pause.]] ¹¹ Shall thy goodness be declared in the grave, Or thy faithfulness in the place of corruption? ¹² Shall thy wonders be known in the dark, And thy justice in the land of forgetfulness? ¹³ To thee do I cry, O LORD! In the morning doth my cry come before thee. ¹⁴ Why, O LORD! dost thou cast me off? Why hidest thou thy face from me? ¹⁵ I have been afflicted and languishing from my youth; I suffer thy terrors, and am distracted. ¹⁶ Thy fierce wrath overwhelmeth me; Thy terrors utterly destroy me. ¹⁷ They surround me daily like water; They compass me about together. ¹⁸ Lover and friend hast thou put far from me; My acquaintances are withdrawn from my sight.

¹ “A psalm of Ethan, the Ezrahite.” I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever; With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations! ² For I know that thy mercy endureth for ever; Thou hast established thy truth like the heavens. ³ “I have made a covenant with my chosen; I have sworn to David, my servant: ⁴ Thy family I will establish for ever, And build up thy throne to all generations.” [[Pause.]] ⁵ The heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD! And the assembly of the holy ones thy truth! ⁶ Who in the heavens can be compared to Jehovah? Who is like Jehovah among the sons of God? ⁷ A God greatly to be feared in the assembly of the holy ones, And to be had in reverence above all who are around him? ⁸ O Jehovah, God of hosts! Who is mighty like thee, O Jehovah? And thy faithfulness is round about thee. ⁹ Thou rulest the raging of the sea; When the waves thereof rise, thou stillest them! ¹⁰ Thou didst break Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; Thou didst scatter thine enemies with thy mighty arm. ¹¹ The heavens are thine; thine also is the earth; The world and all that is therein, thou didst found them. ¹² The North and the South were created by thee; Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name. ¹³ Thine is a mighty arm; Strong is thy hand, and high thy right hand. ¹⁴ Justice and equity are the foundation of thy throne; Mercy and truth go before thy face. ¹⁵ Happy the people that know the trumpet's sound! They walk, O LORD! in the light of thy countenance; ¹⁶ In thy name they daily rejoice, And in thy righteousness they glory! ¹⁷ For thou art the glory of their strength; Yea, through thy favor our horn exalteth itself! ¹⁸ For from Jehovah is our shield, And from the Holy One of Israel is our king. ¹⁹ Once thou spakest in a vision to thy holy one, And saidst, —“I have laid help on one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen from the people; ²⁰ I have found David, my servant; With my holy oil have I anointed him. ²¹ With him shall my hand be established, And my arm shall strengthen him. ²² The enemy shall not have power over him, Nor shall the unrighteous man oppress him. ²³ For I will beat down his foes before him, And overthrow them that hate him. ²⁴ My faithfulness and mercy shall be with him, And through my name shall his horn be exalted. ²⁵ I will extend his hand to the sea, And his right hand to the rivers. ²⁶ He shall say to me, 'Thou art my father, My God, and the rock of my salvation!' ²⁷ I will also make him my first-born, Highest of the kings of the earth. ²⁸ My mercy I will continue to him for ever; My covenant with him shall be steadfast. ²⁹ I will make his family to endure for ever; And his throne shall be as lasting as the heavens. ³⁰ Should his children forsake my law, And walk not in my statutes, ³¹ Should they break my commandments, And observe not my precepts, ³² I will punish their transgressions with a rod, And their iniquity with stripes. ³³ But my kindness will I not withdraw from him, Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. ³⁴ I will not break my covenant, Nor alter what hath gone from my lips. ³⁵ Once have I sworn in my holiness, That I will not be false unto David. ³⁶ His family shall endure for ever, And his throne as the sun before me. ³⁷ It shall be established for ever like the moon; Like the faithful witness in the sky." ³⁸ But now thou forsakest and abhorrest, And art angry with, thine anointed. ³⁹ Thou hast made void the covenant with thy servant; Thou hast cast his crown to the ground. ⁴⁰ Thou hast broken down all his hedges; Thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin. ⁴¹ All who pass by plunder him; He is a reproach to his neighbors. ⁴² Thou hast lifted up the right hand of his enemies; Thou hast made all his adversaries to rejoice. ⁴³ Yea, thou hast turned the edge of his sword, And made him unable to stand in battle. ⁴⁴ Thou hast brought his glory to an end, And hast cast down his throne to the ground. ⁴⁵ Thou hast shortened the days of his youth; Thou hast covered him with shame. ⁴⁶ How long, O LORD! wilt thou hide thyself for ever? How long shall thine anger burn like fire? ⁴⁷ Remember how short is my life, To what frailty thou hast created all men! ⁴⁸ What man liveth, and seeth not death? Who can deliver himself from the underworld? ⁴⁹ Where, Lord, is thy former loving-kindness Which thou didst swear to David in thy truth? ⁵⁰ Remember, O Lord! the reproach of thy servants, How I bear in my bosom the taunts of all the many nations, ⁵¹ With which thine enemies have reproached me, O LORD! With which they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed! ⁵² [Praised be Jehovah for ever! Amen, yea, amen!]

¹ "BOOK IV. A prayer of Moses, the man of God." LORD! thou hast been our dwelling-place In all generations! ² Before the mountains were brought forth, Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God! ³ But man thou turnest again to dust, And sayst, "Return, ye children of men!" ⁴ For a thousand years are, in thy sight, As yesterday when it is past, And as a watch in the night. ⁵ Thou carriest him away as with a flood; He is a dream; In the morning he springeth up like grass, ⁶ Which flourisheth and shooteth up in the morning, And in the evening is cut down, and withered. ⁷ For we are consumed by thine anger, And by thy wrath are we destroyed. ⁸ Thou settest our iniquities before thee, Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. ⁹ By reason of thine anger all our days vanish away; We spend our years like a thought. ¹⁰ The days of our life are threescore years and ten, And, by reason of strength, may be fourscore years: Yet is the pride of them weariness and sorrow; For it vanisheth swiftly, and we fly away. ¹¹ Yet who attendeth to the power of thine anger? Who with due reverence regardeth thine indignation? ¹² Teach us so to number our days, That we may apply our hearts to wisdom! ¹³ Desist, O LORD! How long—? Have compassion upon thy servants! ¹⁴ Satisfy us speedily with thy mercy, That we may rejoice and be glad all our days! ¹⁵ Make us glad according to the time in which thou hast afflicted us; According to the years in which we have seen adversity! ¹⁶ Let thy deeds be known to thy servants, And thy glory to their children! ¹⁷ Let the favor of the LORD our God be upon us, And establish for us the work of our hands; Yea, the work of our hands, establish thou it!

¹ He who sitteth under the shelter of the Most High Maketh his abode in the shadow of the Almighty. ² I say to the LORD, Thou art my refuge and my fortress; My God, in whom I trust. ³ Surely he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, And from the wasting pestilence; ⁴ He will cover thee with his feathers, And under his wings shalt thou find refuge; His faithfulness shall be thy shield and buckler. ⁵ Thou shalt not be afraid of the terror of the night, Nor of the arrow that flieth by day; ⁶ Nor of the pestilence that walketh in darkness, Nor of the plague that destroyeth at noonday. ⁷ A thousand shall fall by thy side, And ten thousand at thy right hand; But thee it shall not touch. ⁸ Thou shalt only behold with thine eyes, And see the recompense of the wicked. ⁹ Because thou hast made the LORD thy refuge, And the Most High thy habitation, ¹⁰ No evil shall befall thee, Nor any plague come near thy dwelling. ¹¹ For he will give his angels charge over thee, To guard thee in all thy ways. ¹² They shall bear thee up in their hands, Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. ¹³ Thou shalt tread upon the lion and the adder; The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot. ¹⁴ "Because he loveth me, I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he knoweth my name. ¹⁵ When he calleth upon me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honor. ¹⁶ With long life will I satisfy him, And show him my salvation."

¹ "A psalm for the Sabbath-day." It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, And to sing praises to thy name, O Most High! ² To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, And thy faithfulness every night, ³ Upon the ten-stringed instrument and the lute, Upon the harp with a solemn sound. ⁴ For thou, LORD, hast made me glad by thy doings; In the works of thy hands I greatly rejoice! ⁵ How great are thy works, O LORD! How deep thy purposes! ⁶ But the unwise man knoweth not this, And the fool understandeth it not. ⁷ When the wicked spring up like grass, And all who practise iniquity flourish, It is but to be destroyed for ever! ⁸ Thou, O LORD! art for ever exalted! ⁹ For, lo! thine enemies, O LORD! For, lo! thine enemies perish, And dispersed are all who do iniquity! ¹⁰ But my horn thou exaltest like the buffalo's; I am anointed with fresh oil. ¹¹ Mine eye hath gazed with joy upon mine enemies; Mine ears have heard with joy of my wicked adversaries. ¹² The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; They shall grow up like the cedars of Lebanon; ¹³ Planted in the house of the LORD, They shall flourish in the courts of our God. ¹⁴ Even in old age they bring forth fruit; They are green, and full of sap; ¹⁵ To show that the LORD, my rock, is upright, That there is no unrighteousness in him.

¹ O LORD! thou God of vengeance! O thou God of vengeance! shine forth! ² Rouse thyself, thou judge of the earth! Render a recompense to the proud! ³ How long, O LORD! shall the wicked, How long shall the wicked triumph? ⁴ How long shall their lips pour forth insolence? How long shall all the evil-doers boast? ⁵ O LORD! they trample upon thy people, And oppress thine inheritance! ⁶ They slay the widow, and the stranger, And murder the fatherless; ⁷ And they say, "The LORD doth not see, The God of Jacob doth not regard!" ⁸ Be instructed, ye most stupid of mankind! O when, ye fools, will ye be wise? ⁹ He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the eye, shall he not see? ¹⁰ He that chastiseth nations, shall not he punish? He that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? ¹¹ The LORD knoweth the thoughts of men, That they are vanity. ¹² Happy the man, O LORD! whom thou correctest, Whom by thy teaching thou makest wise; ¹³ To give him peace in the days of adversity, Until a pit be digged for the wicked! ¹⁴ For the LORD will not forsake his people, Nor abandon his own inheritance. ¹⁵ For judgment shall return to justice, And all the upright in heart shall follow it. ¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against the evil-doers? ¹⁷ If the LORD had not been my help, I had well nigh dwelt in the land of silence. ¹⁸ When I think that my foot is slipping, Thy goodness, O LORD! holdeth me up. ¹⁹ In the multitude of anxieties within me, Thy consolations revive my soul. ²⁰ Shall with thee be allied the throne of iniquity, Which deviseth mischief against law? ²¹ They band together against the life of the righteous, And condemn innocent blood. ²² But the LORD is my fortress, And my God the rock of my refuge. ²³ He will bring upon them their own iniquity; Yea, through their own wickedness he will cut them off; Yea, the LORD, our God, will cut them off.

95

¹ O come, let us sing to the LORD; Let us raise a voice of joy to the rock of our salvation! ² Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving, And sing joyfully to him with psalms! ³ For Jehovah is a great God; Yea, a great king over all gods. ⁴ In his hands are the depths of the earth; His also are the heights of the mountains. ⁵ The sea is his, and he made it; The dry land also his hands formed. ⁶ O come, let us worship and bow down! Let us kneel before the LORD, our maker! ⁷ For he is our God, And we are the people of his pasture and the flock of his hand. O that ye would now hear his voice! ⁸ "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah [[the strife]], As in the day of temptation [[Massah]] in the wilderness, ⁹ Where your fathers tempted me And tried me, although they had seen my works. ¹⁰ Forty years was I offended with that generation: And I said, 'They are a people of a perverse heart, And who have no regard to my ways.' ¹¹ Therefore I sware, in my wrath, That they should not enter into my rest."

96

¹ O sing to Jehovah a new song; Sing to Jehovah, all the earth! ² Sing to Jehovah; praise his name, Show forth his salvation from day to day! ³ Proclaim his glory among the nations, His wonders among all people! ⁴ For Jehovah is great, and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods. ⁵ For all the gods of the nations are idols; But Jehovah made the heavens. ⁶ Honor and majesty are before him; Glory and beauty are in his holy abode. ⁷ Give to Jehovah, ye tribes of the people, Give to Jehovah glory and praise! ⁸ Give to Jehovah the glory due to his name; Bring an offering, and come into his courts! ⁹ O worship Jehovah in holy attire! Tremble before him, all the earth! ¹⁰ Say among the nations, Jehovah is king; The world shall stand firm; it shall not be moved; He will judge the nations in righteousness. ¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and the earth rejoice; Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; ¹² Let the fields be joyful, with all that is therein; Let all the trees of the forest rejoice ¹³ Before Jehovah! for he cometh, He cometh to judge the earth! He will judge the world with justice, And the nations with faithfulness.

¹ The LORD reigneth, let the earth rejoice! Let the multitude of isles be glad! ² Clouds and darkness are round about him; Justice and equity are the foundation of his throne. ³ Before him goeth a fire, Which burneth up his enemies around. ⁴ His lightnings illumine the world; The earth beholdeth and trembleth. ⁵ The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD, At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth. ⁶ The heavens declare his righteousness, And all nations behold his glory. ⁷ Confounded be they who worship graven images, Who glory in idols! To him, all ye gods, bow down! ⁸ Zion hath heard, and is glad, And the daughters of Judah exult On account of thy judgments, O LORD! ⁹ For thou, O LORD! art most high above all the earth; Thou art far exalted above all gods! ¹⁰ Ye that love the LORD, hate evil! He preserveth the lives of his servants, And delivereth them from the hand of the wicked. ¹¹ Light is sown for the righteous, And joy for the upright in heart. ¹² Rejoice, O ye righteous, in the LORD, And praise his holy name!

¹ "A psalm." Sing to the LORD a new song; For he hath done marvellous things; His own right hand and his holy arm have gotten him the victory! ² The LORD hath made known his salvation; His righteousness hath he manifested in the sight of the nations. ³ He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel, And all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. ⁴ Shout unto the LORD, all the earth! Break forth into joy, and exult, and sing! ⁵ Sing to the LORD with the harp, With the harp, and the voice of song! ⁶ With clarions, and the sound of trumpets, Make a joyful noise before the LORD the King! ⁷ Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; The world, and they that dwell therein; ⁸ Let the rivers clap their hands, And the mountains rejoice together ⁹ Before the LORD! for he cometh to judge the earth! With righteousness will he judge the world, And the nations with equity.

99

¹ The LORD reigneth, let the nations tremble! He sitteth between the cherubs, let the earth quake! ² Great is the LORD upon Zion; He is exalted over all the nations. ³ Let men praise thy great and terrible name! It is holy. ⁴ Let them declare the glory of the King who loveth justice! Thou hast established equity; Thou dost execute justice in Jacob! ⁵ Exalt ye Jehovah, our God, And bow yourselves down at his footstool! He is holy. ⁶ Moses and Aaron, with his priests, And Samuel, who called upon his name,—They called upon the LORD, and he answered them. ⁷ He spake to them in the cloudy pillar; They kept his commandments, And the ordinances which he gave them. ⁸ Thou, O LORD, our God! didst answer them; Thou wast to them a forgiving God, Though thou didst punish their transgressions! ⁹ Exalt the LORD, our God. And worship at his holy mountain! For the LORD, our God, is holy.

100

¹ "A psalm of David." I will sing of mercy and justice; To thee, O LORD! will I sing! ² I will have regard to the way of uprightness: When thou shalt come to me, I will walk within my house with an upright heart. ³ I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes; I hate the work of evil-doers; It shall not cleave to me. ⁴ The perverse in heart shall be far from me; I will not know a wicked person. ⁵ Whoso slandereth his neighbor in secret, him will I cut off; Him that hath a haughty look and a proud heart I will not endure. ⁶ Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; He that walketh in the way of uprightness shall serve me. ⁷ He who practiseth deceit shall not dwell in my house; He who telleth lies shall not remain in my sight. ⁸ Every morning will I destroy the wicked of the land, That I may cut off all evil-doers from the city of the LORD.

¹ “A prayer of the afflicted, when in deep distress he poureth out his complaint before the Lord.” Hear my prayer, O LORD! And let my cry come unto thee! ² Hide not thy face from me in the day of my trouble; Incline thine ear to me when I call! Answer me speedily! ³ For my life is consumed like smoke, And my bones burn like a brand. ⁴ My heart is smitten and withered like grass; Yea, I forget to eat my bread. ⁵ By reason of my sighing, my bones cleave to my skin; ⁶ I am like the pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl amid ruins. ⁷ I am sleepless; I am like a solitary bird upon the house-top. ⁸ All the day long my enemies reproach me; They who rage against me curse by me. ⁹ For I eat ashes like bread, And mingle my drink with tears. ¹⁰ On account of thine indignation and thy wrath; For thou hast lifted me up and cast me down! ¹¹ My life is like a declining shadow, And I wither like grass. ¹² But thou, O LORD! endurest for ever, And thy name from generation to generation! ¹³ Thou wilt arise and have pity upon Zion, For the time to favor her, yea, the set time, is come. ¹⁴ For thy servants take pleasure in her stones; Yea, they have a regard for her dust. ¹⁵ Then shall the nations fear the name of Jehovah, And all the kings of the earth thy glory. ¹⁶ For Jehovah will build up Zion; He will appear in his glory. ¹⁷ He will regard the prayer of the destitute, And not despise their supplication. ¹⁸ This shall be written for the generation to come, That the people to be born may praise Jehovah. ¹⁹ For he looketh down from his holy height, From heaven doth he cast his eye upon the earth, ²⁰ To listen to the sighs of the prisoner. To release those that are doomed to death; ²¹ That they may declare the name of Jehovah in Zion, And his praise in Jerusalem, ²² When the nations are assembled together, And the kingdoms to serve Jehovah. ²³ He hath weakened my strength on the way, He hath shortened my days. ²⁴ I say, O my God! take me not away in the midst of my days! Thy years endure through all generations. ²⁵ Of old hast thou laid the foundations of the earth, And the heavens are the work of thy hands; ²⁶ They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; As a vesture shalt thou change them, And they shall be changed; ²⁷ But thou art the same, And thy years have no end. ²⁸ The children of thy servants shall dwell securely, And their posterity shall be established before thee.

¹ “A psalm of David.” Bless the LORD, O my soul! And all that is within me, bless his holy name! ² Bless the LORD, O my soul! And forget not all his benefits! ³ Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth all thy diseases; ⁴ Who redeemeth thy life from the grave; Who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies; ⁵ Who satisfieth thine old age with good, So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. ⁶ The LORD executeth justice And equity for all the oppressed. ⁷ He made known his ways to Moses, His doings to the children of Israel. ⁸ The LORD is merciful and kind, Slow to anger and rich in mercy. ⁹ He doth not always chide, Nor doth he keep his anger for ever. ¹⁰ He hath not dealt with us according to our sins, Nor requited us according to our iniquities. ¹¹ As high as are the heavens above the earth, So great is his mercy to them that fear him. ¹² As far as the east is from the west, So far hath he removed our transgressions from us. ¹³ Even as a father pitieth his children, So the LORD pitieth them that fear him. ¹⁴ For he knoweth our frame, He remembereth that we are dust. ¹⁵ As for man, his days are as grass; As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. ¹⁶ The wind passeth over it, and it is gone; And its place shall know it no more. ¹⁷ But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting to them that fear him, And his righteousness to children's children, ¹⁸ To such as keep his covenant, And remember his commandments to do them. ¹⁹ The LORD hath established his throne in the heavens, And his kingdom ruleth over all. ²⁰ Bless the LORD, ye his angels, Ye mighty ones who do his commands, Harkening to the voice of his word! ²¹ Bless the LORD, all ye his hosts; Ye, his ministers, who do his pleasure! ²² Bless the LORD, all his works, In all places of his dominion! Bless the LORD, O my soul!

¹ Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD, my God! thou art very great! Thou art clothed with glory and majesty! ² He covereth himself with light as with a garment; He spreadeth out the heavens like a curtain; ³ He layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; He maketh the clouds his chariot; He rideth upon the wings of the wind. ⁴ He maketh the winds his messengers, The flaming lightnings his ministers. ⁵ He established the earth on its foundations; It shall not be removed for ever. ⁶ Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a garment; The waters stood above the mountains! ⁷ At thy rebuke they fled; At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away. ⁸ The mountains rose, the valleys sank, In the place which thou didst appoint for them. ⁹ Thou hast established a bound which the waters may not pass, That they may not return, and cover the earth. ¹⁰ He sendeth forth the springs in brooks; They run among the mountains; ¹¹ They give drink to all the beasts of the forest; In them the wild asses quench their thirst. ¹² About them the birds of heaven have their habitation; They sing among the branches. ¹³ He watereth the hills from his chambers; The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works! ¹⁴ He causeth grass to spring up for cattle, And herbage for the service of man, To bring forth food out of the earth, ¹⁵ And wine that gladdeneth the heart of man, Making his face to shine more than oil, And bread that strengtheneth man's heart. ¹⁶ The trees of the LORD are full of sap, The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted; ¹⁷ There the birds build their nests; In the cypresses the stork

hath her abode. ¹⁸ The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, And the rocks for the conies. ¹⁹ He appointed the moon to mark seasons; The sun knoweth when to go down. ²⁰ Thou makest darkness, and it is night, When all the beasts of the forest go forth! ²¹ The young lions roar for prey, And seek their food from God. ²² When the sun ariseth, they withdraw themselves, And lie down in their dens. ²³ Man goeth forth to his work, And to his labor, until the evening. ²⁴ O LORD! how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all! The earth is full of thy riches! ²⁵ Lo! this great and wide sea! In it are moving creatures without number, Animals small and great. ²⁶ There go the ships; There is the leviathan, which thou hast made to play therein. ²⁷ All these wait on thee To give them their food in due season. ²⁸ Thou givest it to them, they gather it; Thou openest thine hand, they are satisfied with good. ²⁹ Thou hidest thy face, they are confounded; Thou takest away their breath, they die, And return to the dust. ³⁰ Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created, And thou renewest the face of the earth. ³¹ The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever; The LORD shall rejoice in his works; ³² He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth; He toucheth the hills, and they smoke. ³³ I will sing to the LORD as long as I live, I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. ³⁴ May my meditation be acceptable to him! I will rejoice in the LORD. ³⁵ May sinners perish from the earth, And the wicked be no more! Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise ye the LORD!

¹ O give thanks unto the LORD; Call upon his name; Make known his deeds among the people! ² Sing unto him; sing psalms unto him; Tell ye of all his wondrous works! ³ Glory ye in his holy name; Let the hearts of them that seek the LORD rejoice! ⁴ Seek the LORD, and his majesty; Seek his face continually! ⁵ Remember the wonders he hath wrought, His miracles and the judgments of his mouth, ⁶ Ye offspring of Abraham his servant, Ye children of Jacob his chosen! ⁷ Jehovah, he is our God, His judgments are over all the earth. ⁸ He remembereth his covenant for ever, And the promise to a thousand generations; ⁹ The covenant which he made with Abraham, And the oath which he gave to Isaac; ¹⁰ Which he confirmed to Jacob for a decree, And to Israel for an everlasting covenant. ¹¹ "To thee," said he, "will I give the land of Canaan For the lot of your inheritance." ¹² When they were yet few in number, Very few, and strangers in the land; ¹³ When they went from nation to nation, From one kingdom to another people, ¹⁴ He suffered no man to oppress them; Yea, he rebuked kings for their sakes. ¹⁵ "Touch not," said he, "mine anointed, And do my prophets no harm!" ¹⁶ Again, when he commanded a famine in the land, And broke the whole staff of bread, ¹⁷ He sent a man before them; Joseph was sold as a slave. ¹⁸ His feet they hurt with fetters; He was bound in chains of iron; ¹⁹ Until his prediction came to pass, And the word of the LORD proved him. ²⁰ Then the king sent, and loosed him; The ruler of nations, and set him free; ²¹ He made him governor of his house, And lord of all his possessions; ²² To bind his princes at his pleasure, And teach his counsellors wisdom. ²³ Israel also came into

Egypt, And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham; ²⁴ Where God increased his people greatly, And made them stronger than their enemies. ²⁵ He turned their hearts to hate his people, And form devices against his servants. ²⁶ Then sent he Moses his servant, And Aaron, whom he had chosen. ²⁷ They showed his signs among them, And his wonders in the land of Ham. ²⁸ He sent darkness upon them, and made it dark; And they did not disobey his word. ²⁹ He turned their waters into blood, And caused their fish to die. ³⁰ Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, Even in the chambers of their kings. ³¹ He spake, and there came flies, And lice in all their coasts. ³² Instead of rain he gave them hail, And flaming fire in their land. ³³ He smote also their vines and fig-trees, And broke the trees of their coasts. ³⁴ He spake, and the locusts came. Destructive locusts without number, ³⁵ Which ate up all the herbage in their land, And devoured the fruits of their fields. ³⁶ Then he smote all the first-born in their land, The first-fruits of all their strength. ³⁷ He led forth his people with silver and gold; Nor was there one feeble person in all their tribes. ³⁸ Egypt was glad when they departed, For their terror had fallen upon them. ³⁹ He spread out a cloud for a covering, And fire to give light by night. ⁴⁰ They asked, and he brought quails, And satisfied them with the bread of heaven. ⁴¹ He opened the rock, and the waters gushed forth, And ran in the dry places like a river. ⁴² For he remembered his holy promise, Which he had made to Abraham his servant; ⁴³ And he led forth his people with joy, And his chosen with gladness. ⁴⁴ He gave to them the lands of the nations, And they inherited the labor of the peoples; ⁴⁵ That they might observe his statutes, And obey his laws. Praise ye the LORD!

¹ Praise ye the LORD! O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; For his mercy endureth for ever! ² Who can utter the mighty deeds of the LORD? Who can show forth all his praise? ³ Happy are they who have regard to justice, Who practise righteousness at all times! ⁴ Remember me, O LORD! with the favor promised to thy people; O visit me with thy salvation! ⁵ That I may see the prosperity of thy chosen, That I may rejoice in the joy of thy people, That I may glory with thine inheritance! ⁶ We have sinned with our fathers; We have committed iniquity; we have done wickedly. ⁷ Our fathers in Egypt did not regard thy wonders; They remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; But rebelled at the sea, the Red sea. ⁸ Yet he saved them for his own name's sake. That he might make his mighty power to be known. ⁹ He rebuked the Red sea, and it was dried up, And he led them through the deep as through a desert. ¹⁰ He saved them from the hand of him that hated them, And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. ¹¹ The waters covered their enemies; There was not one of them left. ¹² Then believed they his words, And sang his praise. ¹³ But they soon forgot his deeds, And waited not for his counsel. ¹⁴ They gave way to appetite in the wilderness, And tempted God in the desert; ¹⁵ And he gave them their request, But sent upon them leanness. ¹⁶ They also envied Moses in the camp, And Aaron, the holy one of the LORD. ¹⁷ Then the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan, And covered the company of Abiram, ¹⁸ And a fire was kindled in their company; The flames burned up the wicked. ¹⁹ They made a calf in Horeb, And worshipped a molten image; ²⁰ They changed their God of glory Into the image of a grass-eating ox. ²¹ They forgot God, their saviour, Who had done such great things in Egypt, ²² Such wonders in the land of Ham. Such terrible things at the Red sea. ²³ Then he said that he would destroy them; Had not Moses, his chosen, stood before him in the breach, To turn away his wrath, that he might not destroy them. ²⁴ They also despised the pleasant land, And believed not his word; ²⁵ But murmured in their tents, And would not hearken to the voice of the LORD. ²⁶ Then he lifted up his hand against them, And swore that he would make them fall in the wilderness; ²⁷ That he would overthrow their descendants among the nations, And scatter them in the lands. ²⁸ They also gave themselves to the worship of Baal-peor, And ate sacrifices offered to lifeless idols. ²⁹ Thus they provoked his anger by their practices, And a plague broke in upon them. ³⁰ Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment, And the plague was stayed. ³¹ And this was counted to him for righteousness, To all generations for ever. ³² They provoked him also at the waters of Meribah [[strife]], And evil befell Moses on their account. ³³ For they provoked his spirit, So that he spake inconsiderately with his lips. ³⁴ They did not destroy the nations, As Jehovah had commanded them. ³⁵ They mingled themselves with the peoples, And learned their practices. ³⁶ They even worshipped their idols, Which became to them a snare. ³⁷ Their sons and their daughters they sacrificed to demons, ³⁸ And shed innocent blood, The blood of their own sons and daughters, Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with blood. ³⁹ Thus they defiled themselves with their works, And played the harlot with their practices. ⁴⁰ Then burned the anger of the LORD against his people, So that he abhorred his own inheritance. ⁴¹ And he gave them into the hand of the nations, And they who hated them ruled over them. ⁴² Their enemies oppressed them, And they were bowed down under their hand. ⁴³ Many times did he deliver them; But they provoked him by their devices, And they were brought low for their iniquities. ⁴⁴ Yet, when he heard their cries, He had regard to their affliction; ⁴⁵ He remembered his covenant with them, And repented according to the greatness of his mercy, ⁴⁶ And caused them to find pity Among all that carried them captive. ⁴⁷ Save us, O Jehovah, our God! and gather us from among the nations, That we may give thanks to thy holy name, And glory in thy praise! ⁴⁸ [Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, Amen! Praise ye Jehovah!]

within them. ⁶ Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, And he delivered them out of their distress. ⁷ He led them in a straight way, Till they came to a city where they might dwell. ⁸ O let them praise the LORD for his goodness, For his wonderful works to the children of men! ⁹ For he satisfieth the thirsty, And the hungry he filleth with good. ¹⁰ They dwelt in darkness and the shadow of death, Being bound in affliction and iron; ¹¹ Because they disobeyed the commands of God, And contemned the will of the Most High; ¹² Their hearts he brought down by hardship; They fell down, and there was none to help. ¹³ But they cried to the LORD in their trouble, And he saved them out of their distresses; ¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, And brake their bands asunder. ¹⁵ O let them praise the LORD for his goodness, For his wonderful works to the children of men! ¹⁶ For he hath broken the gates of brass, And cut the bars of iron asunder. ¹⁷ The foolish, because of their transgressions, And because of their iniquities, were afflicted; ¹⁸ They abhorred all kinds of food; They were near to the gates of death. ¹⁹ Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, And he delivered them out of their distresses; ²⁰ He sent his word, and healed them, And saved them from their destruction. ²¹ O let them praise the LORD for his goodness, For his wonderful works to the children of men! ²² Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, And declare his works with joy! ²³ They who go down to the sea in ships, And do business in great waters, ²⁴ These see the works of the LORD, And his wonders in the deep. ²⁵ He commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, Which lifteth high the waves. ²⁶ They mount up to the heavens, They sink down to the depths, Their soul melteth with distress; ²⁷ They reel and stagger like a drunken man, And all their skill is vain. ²⁸ Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble, And he saveth them out of their distresses; ²⁹ He turneth the storm into a calm, And the waves are hushed; ³⁰ Then they rejoice that they are still, And he bringeth them to their desired haven. ³¹ O let them praise the LORD for his goodness. For his wonderful works to the children of men! ³² Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, And praise him in the assembly of the elders! ³³ He turneth rivers into a desert, And springs of water into dry ground; ³⁴ A fruitful land into barrenness, For the wickedness of them that dwell therein. ³⁵ He turneth the desert into a lake of water, And dry ground into springs of water; ³⁶ And there he causeth the hungry to dwell, And they build a city for a dwelling-place, ³⁷ And sow fields and plant vineyards, Which yield a fruitful increase. ³⁸ He blesseth them, so that they multiply greatly, And suffereth not their cattle to decrease. ³⁹ When they are diminished and brought low By oppression, affliction, and sorrow, ⁴⁰ He poureth contempt upon princes, And causeth them to wander in a pathless wilderness; ⁴¹ But he raiseth the poor from their affliction, And increaseth their families like a flock. ⁴² The righteous see it and rejoice, And all iniquity shutteth her mouth. ⁴³ Whoso is wise, let him observe this, And have regard to the loving-kindness of the LORD!

¹ "A psalm of David." O God! my heart is strengthened! I will sing and give thanks. ² Awake, my soul! awake, my psaltery and harp! I will wake with the early dawn. ³ I will praise thee, O LORD! among the nations; I will sing to thee among the peoples! ⁴ For thy mercy reacheth to the heavens, And thy truth above the clouds. ⁵ Exalt thyself, O God! above the heavens, And thy glory above all the earth! ⁶ That thy beloved ones may be delivered, Save with thy right hand, and answer me! ⁷ God promiseth in his holiness; I will rejoice; I shall yet divide Shechem, And measure out the valley of Succoth; ⁸ Gilead shall be mine, and mine Manasseh; Ephraim shall be my helmet, And Judah my sceptre. ⁹ Moab shall be my washbowl; Upon Edom shall I cast my shoe; I shall triumph over Philistia. ¹⁰ Who will bring me to the strong city? Who will lead me into Edom? ¹¹ Wilt not thou, O God! who didst forsake us, Who didst not go forth with our armies? ¹² Give us thine aid in our distress, For vain is the help of man! ¹³ Through God we shall do valiantly; For he will tread down our enemies.

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” O God of my praise! be not silent! ² For the mouths of the wicked and the deceitful are opened against me; They speak against me with a lying tongue. ³ They assault me on every side with words of hatred; They fight against me without a cause. ⁴ For my love they are my adversaries: But I give myself unto prayer. ⁵ They repay me evil for good, And hatred for love. ⁶ Set thou a wicked man over him, And let an adversary stand at his right hand! ⁷ When he is judged, may he be condemned, And may his prayer be a crime! ⁸ May his days be few, And another take his office! ⁹ May his children be fatherless, And his wife a widow! ¹⁰ May his children be vagabonds and beggars, And from their ruined dwellings seek their bread! ¹¹ May a creditor seize on all that he hath, And a stranger plunder his substance! ¹² May there be none to show him compassion, And none to pity his fatherless children! ¹³ May his posterity be cut off; In the next generation may his name be blotted out! ¹⁴ May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the LORD, And may the sin of his mother never be blotted out! ¹⁵ May they be before the LORD continually; And may he cut off their memory from the earth! ¹⁶ Because he remembered not to show pity, But persecuted the afflicted and the poor man, And sought the death of the broken-hearted. ¹⁷ As he loved cursing, let it come upon him; As he delighted not in blessing, let it be far from him! ¹⁸ May he be clothed with cursing as with a garment; May it enter like water into his bowels, And like oil into his bones! ¹⁹ May it be to him like the robe that covereth him, Like the girdle with which he is constantly girded! ²⁰ May this be the wages of mine adversaries from the LORD, And of them that speak evil against me! ²¹ But do thou, O LORD, my God! take part with me, For thine own name's sake! Because great is thy mercy, O deliver me! ²² For I am afflicted and needy, And my heart is wounded within me. ²³ I am going like a shadow; I am driven away as the locust. ²⁴ My knees totter from fasting, And my flesh faileth of fatness. ²⁵ I am a reproach to my enemies; They gaze at me; they shake their heads. ²⁶ Help me, O LORD, my God! O save me, according to thy mercy! ²⁷ That they may know that this is thy hand; That thou, O Lord! hast done it! ²⁸ Let them curse, but do thou bless! When they arise, let them be put to shame; But let thy servant rejoice! ²⁹ May my enemies be clothed with ignominy; May they be covered with their shame, as with a mantle! ³⁰ I will earnestly praise the LORD with my lips; In the midst of the multitude I will praise him. ³¹ For he standeth at the right hand of the poor, To save him from those who would condemn him.

¹ "A psalm of David." Jehovah said to my lord, "Sit thou at my right hand, Until I make thy foes thy footstool." ² Jehovah will extend the sceptre of thy power from Zion: Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies! ³ Thy people shall be ready, when thou musterest thy forces, in holy splendor; Thy youth shall come forth like dew from the womb of the morning. ⁴ Jehovah hath sworn, and he will not repent: "Thou art a priest for ever, After the order of Melchisedeck!" ⁵ The Lord is at thy right hand, He shall crush kings in the day of his wrath. ⁶ He shall execute justice among the nations; He shall fill them with dead bodies, He shall crush the heads of his enemies over many lands. ⁷ He shall drink of the brook in the way; Therefore shall he lift up his head.

¹ Praise ye the LORD! I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, In the assembly of the righteous, and in the congregation. ² The works of the LORD are great, Sought out by all who have pleasure in them. ³ His deeds are honorable and glorious, And his righteousness endureth for ever. ⁴ He hath established a memorial of his wonders; The LORD is gracious and full of compassion. ⁵ He giveth meat to them that fear him; He is ever mindful of his covenant. ⁶ He showed his people the greatness of his works, When he gave them the inheritance of the heathen. ⁷ The deeds of his hands are truth and justice; All his commandments are sure; ⁸ They stand firm for ever and ever, Being founded in truth and justice. ⁹ He sent redemption to his people; He established his covenant for ever; Holy, and to be had in reverence, is his name. ¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all they who keep his commandments; His praise endureth for ever.

112

honor. ¹⁰ The wicked shall see, and be grieved; He shall gnash his teeth, and melt away; The desire of the wicked shall perish.

¹ Praise ye the LORD! Praise, O ye servants of the LORD! Praise the name of the LORD! ² Blessed be the name of the LORD From this time forth, even for ever! ³ From the rising of the sun to its going down, May the LORD'S name be praised! ⁴ The LORD is high above all nations; His glory is above the heavens. ⁵ Who is like the LORD, our God, That dwelleth on high, ⁶ That looketh down low Upon the heavens and the earth? ⁷ He raiseth the poor from the dust, And exalteth the needy from the dunghill, ⁸ To set him among princes, Even among the princes of his people. ⁹ He causeth the barren woman to dwell in a house, A joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD!

¹ When Israel came forth from Egypt, The house of Jacob from a people of strange language, ² Judah was his sanctuary, And Israel his dominion. ³ The sea beheld, and fled; The Jordan turned back. ⁴ The mountains skipped like rams, And the hills like lambs. ⁵ What aileth thee, O thou sea! that thou fleest? Thou, Jordan, that thou runnest back? ⁶ Ye mountains, that ye skip like rams, And ye hills like lambs? ⁷ Tremble, O earth! at the presence of the Lord, At the presence of the God of Jacob; ⁸ Who turned the rock into a standing lake, And the flint into a fountain of water!

¹ Not unto us, O LORD! not unto us, But unto thy name, give glory, For thy mercy and thy truth's sake! ² Why should the nations say, "Where is now their God?" ³ Our God is in the heavens; He doeth whatever he pleaseth. ⁴ Their idols are silver and gold, The work of men's hands: ⁵ They have mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see not; ⁶ They have ears, but they hear not; Noses have they, but they smell not; ⁷ They have hands, but they handle not; They have feet, but they walk not; Nor do they speak with their throats. ⁸ They who make them are like unto them; And so is every one that trusteth in them. ⁹ O Israel! trust thou in the LORD! He is their help and their shield. ¹⁰ O house of Aaron! trust ye in the LORD! He is their help and their shield. ¹¹ Ye that fear the LORD trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield. ¹² The LORD hath been mindful of us; he will bless us; He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. ¹³ He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great. ¹⁴ The LORD will increase you more and more, You and your children. ¹⁵ Blessed are ye of the LORD, Who made heaven and earth. ¹⁶ The heaven is the LORD'S heaven; But the earth he hath given to the sons of men. ¹⁷ The dead praise not the LORD,—No one who goeth down into silence. ¹⁸ But we will bless the LORD, From this time forth even for ever! Praise ye the LORD!

² That he hath inclined his ear to me and heard me; I will call upon him as long as I live. ³ The snares of death encompassed me, And the pains of the underworld seized upon me; I found distress and sorrow.
⁴ Then called I upon the LORD: O LORD! deliver me! ⁵ Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; Yea, our God is merciful. ⁶ The LORD preserveth the simple; I was brought low, and he helped me. ⁷ Return, O my soul! to thy rest! For the LORD hath dealt kindly with thee. ⁸ For thou hast preserved me from death; Thou hast kept mine eyes from tears, And my feet from falling! ⁹ I shall walk before the LORD, In the land of the living. ¹⁰ I had trust, although I said, "I am grievously afflicted!" ¹¹ I said in my distress, "All men are liars." ¹² What shall I render to the LORD For all his benefits to me? ¹³ I will take the cup of salvation, And call upon the name of the LORD; ¹⁴ I will pay my vows to the LORD, In the presence of all his people. ¹⁵ Precious in the eyes of the LORD Is the death of his holy ones. ¹⁶ Hear, O LORD! for I am thy servant; I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid! Thou hast loosed my bonds. ¹⁷ I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, And will call upon the name of the LORD. ¹⁸ I will pay my vows to the LORD In the presence of all his people, ¹⁹ In the courts of the house of the LORD, In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem! Praise ye the LORD!

¹ Praise the LORD, all ye nations! Praise him, all ye people! ² For great toward us hath been his kindness, And the faithfulness of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD!

¹ O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; For his kindness endureth for ever! ² Let Israel now say, His kindness endureth for ever! ³ Let the house of Aaron now say, His goodness endureth for ever! ⁴ Let all who fear the LORD say, His kindness endureth for ever! ⁵ I called upon the LORD in distress; He heard, and set me in a wide place. ⁶ The LORD is on my side, I will not fear: What can man do to me? ⁷ The LORD is my helper; I shall see my desire upon my enemies. ⁸ It is better to trust in the LORD Than to put confidence in man; ⁹ It is better to trust in the LORD Than to put confidence in princes. ¹⁰ All the nations beset me around, But in the name of the LORD I destroyed them. ¹¹ They beset me on every side; But in the name of the LORD I destroyed them. ¹² They beset me around like bees; They were quenched like the fire of thorns, For in the name of the LORD I destroyed them. ¹³ Thou didst assail me with violence to bring me down! But the LORD was my support. ¹⁴ The LORD is my glory and my song; For to him I owe my salvation. ¹⁵ The voice of joy and salvation is in the habitations of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly; ¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD is exalted; The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly." ¹⁷ I shall not die, but live, And declare the deeds of the LORD. ¹⁸ The LORD hath sorely chastened me, But he hath not given me over to death. ¹⁹ Open to me the gates of righteousness, That I may go in, and praise the LORD! ²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD, Through which the righteous enter. ²¹ I praise thee that thou hast heard me, And hast been my salvation. ²² "The stone which the builders rejected Hath become the chief corner-stone. ²³ This is the LORD'S doing; It is marvellous in our eyes! ²⁴ This is the day which the LORD hath made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it! ²⁵ Hear, O LORD! and bless us! Hear, O LORD! and send us prosperity!" ²⁶ "Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD! We bless you from the house of the LORD." ²⁷ "Jehovah is God, he hath shone upon us: Bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar!" ²⁸ Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; Thou art my God, and I will exalt thee! ²⁹ O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; For his kindness endureth for ever!

¹ Happy are they who are upright in their way, Who walk in the law of the LORD! ² Happy are they who observe his ordinances, And seek him with their whole heart; ³ Who also do no iniquity, But walk in his ways! ⁴ Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently. ⁵ O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! ⁶ Then shall I not be put to shame, When I have respect to all thy commandments. ⁷ I will praise thee in uprightness of heart, When I shall have learned thy righteous laws. ⁸ I will keep thy statutes; Do not utterly forsake me! ⁹ How shall a young man keep his way pure? By taking heed to it according to thy word. ¹⁰ With my whole heart have I sought thee; O let me not wander from thy commandments! ¹¹ Thy word have I hid in my heart, That I might not sin against thee. ¹² Blessed be thou, O LORD! O teach me thy statutes! ¹³ With my lips do I declare All the precepts of thy mouth. ¹⁴ In the way of thine ordinances I rejoice As much as in all riches. ¹⁵ I meditate on thy precepts, And have respect unto thy ways. ¹⁶ I delight myself in thy statutes; I do not forget thy word. ¹⁷ Deal kindly with thy servant, that I may live, And have regard to thy word! ¹⁸ Open thou mine eyes, That I may behold wondrous things out of thy law! ¹⁹ I am a stranger in the earth; O hide not thy precepts from me! ²⁰ My soul breaketh within me, On account of longing for thy judgments at all times. ²¹ Thou rebukest the proud, the accursed, Who wander from thy commandments. ²² Remove from me reproach and contempt, For I have kept thine ordinances! ²³ Princes sit and speak against me, But thy servant meditateth on thy statutes. ²⁴ Thine ordinances are my delight; Yea, they are my counsellors. ²⁵ My soul cleaveth to the dust; O revive me, according to thy word! ²⁶ I have declared my ways, and thou hast heard me; Teach me thy statutes! ²⁷ Make me to understand the way of thy precepts! So will I meditate upon thy wonders. ²⁸ My soul weepeth for trouble; O lift me up according to thy promise! ²⁹ Remove from me the way of falsehood, And graciously grant me thy law! ³⁰ I have chosen the way of truth, And set thy statutes before me. ³¹ I cleave to thine ordinances; O LORD! let me not be put to shame! ³² I will run in the way of thy commandments, When thou shalt enlarge my heart. ³³ Teach me, O LORD! the way of thy statutes, That I may keep it to the end! ³⁴ Give me understanding, that I may keep thy law; That I may observe it with my whole heart! ³⁵ Cause me to tread in the path of thy commandments, For in it I have my delight. ³⁶ Incline my heart to thine ordinances, And not to the love of gain! ³⁷ Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity, And quicken me in thy law! ³⁸ Fulfill to thy servant thy promise, Which thou hast made to him who feareth thee! ³⁹ Turn away the reproach which I fear; For thy judgments are good. ⁴⁰ Behold, I have longed for thy precepts; O quicken thou me in thy righteousness! ⁴¹ Let thy mercies come to me, O LORD! And thy help according to thy promise! ⁴² So shall I be able to answer him that reproacheth me; For I trust in thy promise. ⁴³ O take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth! For I trust in thy judgments. ⁴⁴ So shall I keep thy law continually, For ever and ever. ⁴⁵ I shall walk in a wide path; For I seek thy precepts. ⁴⁶ I will speak of thine ordinances before kings, And will not be ashamed. ⁴⁷ I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I love; ⁴⁸ I will lift up my hands to thy precepts, which I love; I will meditate on thy statutes. ⁴⁹ Remember thy promise to thy servant, Because thou hast caused me to hope! ⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my affliction; For thy promise reviveth me. ⁵¹ The proud have had me greatly in derision; Yet have I not swerved from thy law. ⁵² I remember thy judgments of old, O LORD! And I comfort myself. ⁵³ Indignation burneth within me, On account of the wicked who forsake thy law. ⁵⁴ Thy statutes have been my song In the house of my pilgrimage. ⁵⁵ In the night, O LORD! I think of thy name, And keep thy law! ⁵⁶ This have I as my own, That I keep thy precepts. ⁵⁷ Thou art my portion, O LORD! I have resolved that I will keep thy precepts. ⁵⁸ I have sought thy favor with my whole heart; Be gracious unto me according to thy promise! ⁵⁹ I think on my ways, And turn my feet to thy statutes; ⁶⁰ I make haste, and delay not, To keep thy commandments. ⁶¹ The snares of the wicked surround me; Yet do I not forget thy law. ⁶² At midnight I rise to give thanks to thee On account of thy righteous judgments. ⁶³ I am the companion of all who fear thee, And who obey thy precepts. ⁶⁴ The earth, O LORD! is full of thy goodness; O teach me thy statutes! ⁶⁵ Thou dost bless thy servant, O LORD! According to thy promise! ⁶⁶ Teach me sound judgment and knowledge! For I have faith in thy commandments. ⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted, I went astray; But now I keep thy word. ⁶⁸ Thou art good and doest good; O teach me thy statutes! ⁶⁹ The proud forge lies against me, But I keep thy precepts with my whole heart. ⁷⁰ Their heart is senseless like fat; But I delight in thy law. ⁷¹ It is good for me that I have been afflicted, That I might learn thy statutes. ⁷² The law of thy mouth is better to me Than thousands of gold and silver. ⁷³ Thy hands have made and fashioned me; Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments! ⁷⁴ They who fear thee shall see me and rejoice, Because I trust in thy word. ⁷⁵ I know, O LORD! that thy judgments are right, And that in faithfulness thou hast afflicted me. ⁷⁶ O let thy loving-kindness be my comfort, According to thy promise to thy servant! ⁷⁷ Let thy tender mercies come to me, that I may live! For thy law is my delight. ⁷⁸ May the proud be put to shame, who wrong me without cause! But I will meditate on thy precepts. ⁷⁹ Let those who fear thee turn unto me, And they that know thine ordinances! ⁸⁰ May my heart be perfect in thy statutes, That I may not be put to shame! ⁸¹ My soul fainteth for thy salvation; In thy promise do I trust. ⁸² Mine eyes fail with looking for thy promise; When, say I, wilt thou comfort me? ⁸³ Yea, I am become like a bottle in the smoke; Yet do I not forget thy statutes. ⁸⁴ How many are the days of thy servant? When wilt thou execute judgment upon my persecutors? ⁸⁵ The proud have digged pits for me; They who do not regard thy law. ⁸⁶ All thy commandments are faithful; They persecute me without cause; help thou me! ⁸⁷ They had almost consumed me from the earth; But I forsook not thy precepts. ⁸⁸ Quicken me according to thy loving-kindness, That I may keep the law of thy mouth! ⁸⁹ Thy word, O LORD! abideth for ever, Being established like the heavens; ⁹⁰ Thy faithfulness endureth to all generations. Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. ⁹¹ They continue to this day according to their ordinances; For they are all subject to thee. ⁹² Had not thy law been my delight, I should have perished in my affliction. ⁹³ I will never forget thy precepts; For by them thou revivest me. ⁹⁴ I am thine, help me! For I seek thy precepts. ⁹⁵ The wicked lie in wait to destroy me; But I will have regard to thine ordinances. ⁹⁶ I have seen an end of all perfection; But thy law is exceeding broad. ⁹⁷ O how I love thy law! It is my daily meditation. ⁹⁸ Thou hast made me wiser than my enemies by thy precepts; For they are ever before me. ⁹⁹ I have more understanding than all my teachers; For thine ordinances are my meditation. ¹⁰⁰ I have more wisdom than the ancients, Because I keep thy precepts. ¹⁰¹ I have restrained my feet from every evil way, That I might keep thy word. ¹⁰² I depart not from thy statutes, For thou teachest me! ¹⁰³ How sweet are thy words to my taste; Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! ¹⁰⁴ From thy precepts I learn wisdom; Therefore do I hate every false way. ¹⁰⁵ Thy word is a lamp to my feet, And a light to my path. ¹⁰⁶ I have sworn, and I will perform it, That I will keep thy righteous statutes. ¹⁰⁷ I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, O LORD! according to thy word! ¹⁰⁸ Accept, O LORD! the free-will offering of my mouth, And teach me thy statutes! ¹⁰⁹ My life is continually in my hand; Yet do I not forget thy law. ¹¹⁰ The wicked lay snares for me, Yet do I not go astray from thy precepts. ¹¹¹ I have made thine ordinances my possession for ever; For they are the joy of my heart. ¹¹² I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes, Always,—even to the end. ¹¹³ I hate impious men, And thy law I do love. ¹¹⁴ Thou art my hiding-place and my shield; In thy word I put my trust! ¹¹⁵ Depart from me, ye evil-doers! For I will keep the commandments of my God. ¹¹⁶ Uphold me according to thy promise, that I may live; And let me not be ashamed of my hope! ¹¹⁷ Do thou hold me up, and I shall be safe, And I will have respect to thy statutes continually! ¹¹⁸ Thou castest off all who depart from thy laws; For their deceit is vain. ¹¹⁹ Thou throwest away all the wicked of the earth, like dross; Therefore I love thine ordinances. ¹²⁰ My flesh trembleth through fear of thee, And I am afraid of thy judgments. ¹²¹ I have done justice and equity; O leave me not to mine oppressors. ¹²² Be surety for thy servant for good; Let not the proud oppress me! ¹²³ Mine eyes fail with looking for thy help, And for thy righteous promise. ¹²⁴ Deal with thy servant according to thy mercy, And teach me thy statutes!

125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, That I may know thine ordinances! 126 It is time for thee, O LORD! to act; For men have made void thy law. 127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; Yea, above fine gold. 128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; I hate every false way. 129 Wonderful are thine ordinances; Therefore do I observe them. 130 The communication of thy precepts giveth light; It giveth understanding to the simple. 131 I open my mouth and pant: For I long for thy commandments. 132 Look thou upon me, and be gracious to me, As is just to those who love thy name! 133 Establish my footsteps in thy word, And let no iniquity have dominion over me! 134 Redeem me from the oppression of men, So will I keep thy precepts! 135 Let thy face shine on thy servant, And teach me thy statutes! 136 Rivers of water run down mine eyes, Because men keep not thy law. 137 Righteous art thou, O LORD! And just are thy judgments! 138 Just are the ordinances which thou hast ordained, And altogether righteous. 139 My zeal consumeth me, Because my enemies forget thy word. 140 Thy word is very pure, Therefore thy servant loveth it. 141 Of mean condition am I, and despised; Yet do I not forget thy precepts. 142 Thy righteousness is everlasting righteousness, And thy law is truth. 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me, But thy laws are my delight. 144 The justice of thine ordinances is everlasting; Give me understanding, and I shall live! 145 I cry to thee with my whole heart; Hear me, O LORD! that I may keep thy statutes. 146 I cry unto thee; save me, And I will observe thine ordinances. 147 I come before the dawn with my prayer; I trust in thy promise! 148 My eyes anticipate the night-watches, That I may meditate upon thy promise. 149 Hear my voice according to thy loving-kindness; O LORD! revive me according to thy mercy! 150 Near are they whose aim is mischief; They are far from thy law; 151 Yet thou art near, O LORD! And all thy commandments are truth! 152 Long have I known concerning thine ordinances, That thou hast founded them for ever. 153 Look upon my affliction, and deliver me! For I do not forget thy law. 154 Maintain my cause, and redeem me; Revive me according to thy promise! 155 Salvation is far from the wicked, Because they seek not thy statutes. 156 Great is thy compassion, O LORD! Revive thou me according to thine equity! 157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies, Yet do I not depart from thine ordinances. 158 I behold the transgressors, and am grieved Because they regard not thy word. 159 Behold, how I love thy precepts! O LORD! revive me according to thy loving-kindness! 160 The whole of thy word is truth, And all thy righteous judgments endure for ever. 161 Princes have persecuted me without cause; But my heart standeth in awe of thy word. 162 I rejoice in thy word, As one that hath found great spoil. 163 I hate and abhor lying, And thy law do I love. 164 Seven times a day do I praise thee On account of thy righteous judgments. 165 Great peace have they who love thy law, And no evil shall befall them. 166 O LORD! I wait for thy salvation, And keep thy commandments! 167 My soul observeth thine ordinances, And loveth them exceedingly. 168 I keep thy precepts and thine ordinances; For all my ways are before thee. 169 Let my prayer come near before thee, O LORD! According to thy promise, give me understanding! ¹⁷⁰ Let my supplication come before thee; O deliver me according to thy promise! ¹⁷¹ My lips shall pour forth praise; For thou teachest me thy statutes. ¹⁷² My tongue shall sing of thy word; For all thy commandments are right. ¹⁷³ Let thy hand be my help; For I have chosen thy precepts! ¹⁷⁴ I long for thy salvation, O LORD! And thy law is my delight! ¹⁷⁵ Let me live, and I will praise thee; Let thy judgments help me! ¹⁷⁶ I wander like a lost sheep; seek thy servant, For I do not forget thy commandments!

¹ "A psalm of steps." In my distress I called upon the LORD, And he answered me. ² O LORD! deliver me from lying lips, From the deceitful tongue! ³ What profit to thee, Or what advantage to thee, is the false tongue? ⁴ It is like the sharp arrows of the mighty man; Like coals of the juniper. ⁵ Alas for me, that I sojourn in Mesech, That I dwell in the tents of Kedar! ⁶ Too long have I dwelt With them that hate peace! ⁷ I am for peace; yet, when I speak for it, They are for war.

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up." I lift up mine eyes to the hills: Whence cometh my help? ² My help cometh from the LORD, Who made heaven and earth. ³ He will not suffer thy foot to stumble; Thy guardian doth not slumber. ⁴ Behold, the guardian of Israel Doth neither slumber nor sleep. ⁵ The LORD is thy guardian; The LORD is thy shade at thy right hand. ⁶ The sun shall not smite thee by day, Nor the moon by night. ⁷ The LORD will preserve thee from all evil; He will preserve thy life. ⁸ The LORD will preserve thee, when thou goest out and when thou comest in, From this time forth for ever.

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up. By David." I was glad when they said to me, Let us go up to the house of the LORD! ² Our feet are standing Within thy gates, O Jerusalem! ³ Jerusalem, the rebuilt city! The city that is joined together! ⁴ Thither the tribes go up, The tribes of the LORD, according to the law of Israel, To praise the name of the LORD. ⁵ There stand the thrones of judgment, The thrones of the house of David. ⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! May they prosper who love thee! ⁷ Peace be within thy walls, And prosperity within thy palaces! ⁸ For my brethren and companions' sake will I say, Peace be within thee! ⁹ For the sake of the house of the LORD, our God, Will I seek thy good!

¹ "A song of the steps, or the goings up." To thee do I lift up mine eyes, O Thou who dwellest in the heavens! ² Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, And as the eyes of a maiden to the hand of her mistress, So do our eyes look to the LORD, our God, Until he have pity upon us. ³ Have mercy upon us, O LORD! have mercy upon us, For we are overwhelmed with contempt! ⁴ Our soul is filled to the full with the scorn of those who are at ease, And with the contempt of the proud.

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up. By David.” If the LORD had not been for us, Now may Israel say, ² If the LORD had not been for us, When men rose up against us, ³ Then had they swallowed us up alive, When their wrath burned against us; ⁴ Then the waters had overwhelmed us; The stream had gone over our soul; ⁵ The proud waters had gone over our soul. ⁶ Blessed be the LORD, Who hath not given us a prey to their teeth! ⁷ We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; The snare is broken, and we have escaped. ⁸ Our help is in the name of the LORD, Who made heaven and earth.

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up.” They who trust in the LORD shall be as Mount Zion, Which cannot be moved, which standeth for ever. ² As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, So the LORD is round about his people, Henceforth even for ever! ³ For the sceptre of the wicked shall not remain upon the portion of the righteous, Lest the righteous put forth their hands to iniquity. ⁴ Do good, O LORD! to the good, To them that are upright in heart! ⁵ But such as turn aside to their crooked ways,-May the LORD destroy them with the evil-doers! Peace be to Israel!

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up.” When the LORD brought back the captivity of Zion, We were like them that dream. ² Then was our mouth filled with laughter, And our tongue with singing. Then said they among the nations, “The LORD hath done great things for them!” ³ Yea, the LORD hath done great things for us, For which we are glad. ⁴ Bring back, O LORD! our captivity, Like streams in the South! ⁵ They who sow in tears Shall reap in joy. ⁶ Yea, he goeth forth weeping, bearing his seed; He shall surely come back rejoicing, bearing his sheaves.

127

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up. By Solomon.” Except the LORD build the house, The builders labor in vain; Except the LORD guard the city, The watchman waketh in vain. ² In vain ye rise up early, and go to rest late, And eat the bread of care! The same giveth he his beloved one in sleep. ³ Behold! sons are an inheritance from the LORD, And the fruit of the womb is his gift. ⁴ As arrows in the hand of the warrior, So are the sons of young men: ⁵ Happy the man that hath his quiver full of them! They shall not be put to shame, When they speak with adversaries in the gate.

shall be like a fruitful vine within thy house; Thy children like olive-branches round about thy table. ⁴ Behold! thus happy is the man who feareth the LORD! ⁵ Jehovah shall bless thee out of Zion, And thou shalt see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of thy life; ⁶ Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children. Peace be to Israel!

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up." Much have they afflicted me from my youth, May Israel now say; ² Much have they afflicted me from my youth, Yet have they not prevailed against me. ³ The ploughers ploughed up my back; They made long their furrows; ⁴ But the LORD was righteous; He cut asunder the cords of the wicked. ⁵ Let all be driven back with shame Who hate Zion! ⁶ Let them be as grass upon the house-tops, Which withereth before one pulleth it up; ⁷ With which the reaper filleth not his hand, Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom! ⁸ And they who pass by do not say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you! We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

130

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up." Out of the depths do I cry to thee, O LORD! ² O Lord! listen to my voice, Let thine ears be attentive to my supplication! ³ If thou, LORD, shouldst treasure up transgressions, Lord, who could stand? ⁴ But with thee is forgiveness, That thou mayst be feared. ⁵ I trust in the LORD; my soul doth trust, And in his promise do I confide. ⁶ My soul waiteth for the LORD More than they who watch for the morning; Yea, more than they who watch for the morning! ⁷ O Israel! trust in the LORD! For with the LORD is mercy, And with him is plenteous redemption. ⁸ He will redeem Israel From all his iniquities.

131

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up. Of David." O LORD! my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty; I employ not myself on great things, or things too wonderful for me! ² Yea, I have stilled and quieted my soul As a weaned child upon his mother; My soul within me is like a weaned child. ³ O Israel! trust in the LORD, Henceforth even for ever!

¹ "A psalm of the steps, or the goings up." O LORD! remember David, And all his affliction! ² How he sware to Jehovah, And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: ³ "I will not go into my house, Nor lie down on my bed, ⁴ I will not give sleep to my eyes, Nor slumber to my eyelids, ⁵ Until I find a place for Jehovah, A habitation for the Mighty One of Jacob." ⁶ Behold, we heard of it at Ephratah; We found it in the fields of the forest. ⁷ Let us go into his habitation; Let us worship at his footstool! ⁸ Arise, O LORD! into thy rest, Thou, and the ark of thy strength! ⁹ Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, And thy holy ones shout for joy! ¹⁰ For the sake of thy servant David, Reject not the prayer of thine anointed! ¹¹ Jehovah hath sworn in truth unto David, And he will not depart from it: "Of the fruit of thy body will I place upon the throne for thee. ¹² If thy children keep my covenant, And my statutes, which I teach them, Their children also throughout all ages Shall sit upon thy throne.” ¹³ For Jehovah hath chosen Zion; He hath desired it as his dwelling-place. ¹⁴ “This is my resting-place for ever; Here will I dwell, for I have chosen it. ¹⁵ I will abundantly bless her provision; I will satisfy her poor with bread. ¹⁶ I will also clothe her priests with salvation, And her holy ones shall shout aloud for joy. ¹⁷ There will I cause to spring forth a horn for David; I have prepared a light for mine anointed. ¹⁸ His enemies will I clothe with shame, And the crown shall glitter upon his head.”

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up. By David.” Behold, how good and pleasant it is For brethren to dwell together in unity! ² It is like precious perfume upon the head, Which ran down upon the beard, The beard of Aaron; Which went down to the very border of his garments; ³ Like the dew of Hermon, Like that which descendeth upon the mountains of Zion. For there the LORD commandeth a blessing, Even life for evermore.

134

¹ “A psalm of the steps, or the goings up.” Praise the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, Who stand in the house of the LORD by night! ² Lift up your hands to the sanctuary, And praise the LORD! ³ May the LORD, who made heaven and earth, Bless thee out of Zion!

135

¹ Praise ye the LORD! Praise ye the name of the LORD! Praise him, O ye servants of the LORD! ² Ye who stand in the house of the LORD, In the courts of the house of our God! ³ Praise ye the LORD, for the LORD is good; Praise his name, for he is kind! ⁴ For the LORD chose Jacob for himself, And Israel for his own possession. ⁵ I know that the LORD is great; That our Lord is above all gods. ⁶ All that the LORD pleaseth, that he doeth, In heaven and upon earth, In the sea, and in all deeps. ⁷ He causeth the clouds to ascend from the ends of the earth; He maketh lightnings for the rain; He bringeth the wind from his store-houses. ⁸ He smote the first-born of Egypt, Both of man and beast. ⁹ He sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt! Against Pharaoh and all his servants! ¹⁰ He smote many nations, And slew mighty kings; ¹¹ Sihon, the king of the Amorites, And Og, the king of Bashan, And all the kings of Canaan; ¹² And gave their land for an inheritance, For an inheritance to Israel, his people. ¹³ Thy name, O LORD! endureth for ever; Thy memorial, O LORD! to all generations! ¹⁴ For the LORD judgeth his people, And hath compassion on his servants. ¹⁵ The idols of the nations are silver and gold, The work of men's hands. ¹⁶ They have mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see not. ¹⁷ They have ears, but they hear not; And there is no breath in their mouths. ¹⁸ They that make them are like them; So is every one that trusteth in them. ¹⁹ Praise the LORD, O house of Israel! Praise the LORD, O house of Aaron! ²⁰ Praise the LORD, O house of Levi! Ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD! ²¹ Praised be the LORD out of Zion, He that dwelleth in Jerusalem! Praise ye the LORD!

¹ O give thanks to the LORD! for he is kind; For his goodness endureth for ever! ² O give thanks to the God of gods; For his goodness endureth for ever! ³ O give thanks to the Lord of lords; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁴ To him that alone doeth great wonders; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁵ To him that made the heavens with wisdom; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁶ To him that spread out the earth upon the waters; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁷ To him that made the great lights; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁸ The sun to rule the day; For his goodness endureth for ever! ⁹ The moon and stars to rule the night; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁰ To him that smote in Egypt their first-born; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹¹ And brought Israel from the midst of them; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹² With a strong hand and an outstretched arm; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹³ To him who divided the Red sea into parts; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁴ And made Israel to pass through the midst of it; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁵ And overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red sea; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁶ To him who led his people through the wilderness; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁷ To him who smote great kings; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁸ And slew mighty kings; For his goodness endureth for ever! ¹⁹ Sihon, the king of the Amorites; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²⁰ And Og, the king of Bashan; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²¹ And gave their land for an inheritance; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²² For an inheritance to Israel his servant; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²³ Who remembered us in our low estate; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²⁴ And redeemed us from our enemies; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²⁵ Who giveth food unto all; For his goodness endureth for ever! ²⁶ O give thanks to the God of heaven; For his goodness endureth for ever!

¹ By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, When we remembered Zion. ² We hung our harps on the willows in the midst thereof. ³ For there they who carried us away captive required of us a song; They who wasted us required of us mirth: "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!" ⁴ How shall we sing the LORD'S song In a strange land? ⁵ If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, Let my right hand forget her cunning! ⁶ If I do not remember thee, Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; If I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy! ⁷ Remember, O LORD! against the children of Edom The day of the calamity of Jerusalem! Who said, "Raze it, Raze it to its foundations!" ⁸ O daughter of Babylon, thou destroyer! Happy be he who requiteth thee As thou hast dealt with us! ⁹ Happy be he who seizeth thy little ones And dasheth them against the stones!

¹ “A psalm of David.” I will praise thee with my whole heart; Before the gods will I sing praise to thee; ² I will worship toward thy holy temple, And praise thy name for thy goodness and thy truth; For thy promise thou hast magnified above all thy name! ³ In the day when I called, thou didst hear me; Thou didst strengthen me, and encourage my soul. ⁴ All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD! When they hear the promises of thy mouth! ⁵ Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD; For great is the glory of the LORD. ⁶ The LORD is high, yet he looketh upon the humble, And the proud doth he know from afar. ⁷ Though I walk through the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me; Thou wilt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath of my enemies; Thou wilt save me by thy right hand! ⁸ The LORD will perform all things for me; Thy goodness, O LORD! endureth ever: Forsake not the works of thine hands!

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” O LORD! thou hast searched me and known me! ² Thou knowest my sitting-down and my rising-up; Thou understandest my thoughts from afar! ³ Thou seest my path and my lying-down, And art acquainted with all my ways! ⁴ For before the word is upon my tongue, Behold, O LORD! thou knowest it altogether! ⁵ Thou besettest me behind and before, And layest thine hand upon me! ⁶ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain to it! ⁷ Whither shall I go from thy spirit, And whither shall I flee from thy presence? ⁸ If I ascend into heaven, thou art there! If I make my bed in the underworld, behold, thou art there! ⁹ If I take the wings of the morning, And dwell in the remotest parts of the sea, ¹⁰ Even there shall thy hand lead me, And thy right hand shall hold me! ¹¹ If I say, “Surely the darkness shall cover me;” Even the night shall be light about me. ¹² Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee, But the night shineth as the day; The darkness and the light are both alike to thee! ¹³ For thou didst form my reins; Thou didst weave me in my mother’s womb. ¹⁴ I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvellous are thy works, And this my soul knoweth full well! ¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from thee, When I was made in secret. When I was curiously wrought in the lower parts of the earth. ¹⁶ Thine eyes did see my substance, while yet unformed, And in thy book was every thing written; My days were appointed before one of them existed. ¹⁷ How precious to me are thy thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them! ¹⁸ If I should count them, they would outnumber the sand: When I awake, I am still with thee! ¹⁹ O that thou wouldst slay the wicked, O God! Ye men of blood, depart from me! ²⁰ For they speak against thee wickedly; Thine enemies utter thy name for falsehood. ²¹ Do I not hate them that hate thee, O LORD? Do I not abhor them that rise up against thee? ²² Yea, I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them mine enemies. ²³ Search me, O God! and know my heart; Try me, and know my thoughts; ²⁴ And see if the way of trouble be within me, And lead me in the way everlasting!

140

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” Deliver me, O LORD! from the evil man, Save me from the man of violence, ² Who meditate mischief in their heart, And daily stir up war! ³ They sharpen their tongues like a serpent; The poison of the adder is under their lips. [[Pause.]] ⁴ Defend me, O LORD! from the hands of the wicked, Preserve me from the man of violence, Who have purposed to cause my fall! [[Pause.]] ⁵ The proud have hidden snares and cords for me; They have spread a net by the way-side; They have set traps for me. ⁶ I say to Jehovah, Thou art my God; Hear, O Jehovah! the voice of my supplication! ⁷ The Lord Jehovah is my saving strength: Thou shelterest my head in the day of battle! ⁸ Grant not, O LORD! the desires of the wicked; Let not their devices prosper; Let them not exalt themselves! ⁹ As for the heads of those who encompass me, Let the mischief of their own lips cover them! ¹⁰ Let burning coals fall upon them; May they be cast into the fire, And into deep waters from which they shall not arise! ¹¹ The slanderer shall not be established upon the earth; Evil shall pursue the violent man to destruction. ¹² I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, And the right of the poor. ¹³ Yea, the righteous shall praise thy name; The upright shall dwell in thy presence!

¹ “For the leader of the music. A psalm of David.” I cry to thee, O LORD! make haste unto me! Give ear to my voice, when I cry unto thee! ² Let my prayer come before thee as incense, And the lifting-up of my hands, as the evening sacrifice! ³ Set a watch, O LORD! before my mouth; Guard the door of my lips! ⁴ Let not my heart incline to any evil thing; Let me not practise wickedness with the doers of iniquity, And let me not eat of their delicacies! ⁵ Let the righteous smite me, —it shall be a kindness; Let him reprove me, and it shall be oil for my head; Let him do it again, and my head shall not refuse it; But now I pray against their wickedness! ⁶ When their judges are hurled over the side of the rock, They shall hear how pleasant are my words. ⁷ So are our bones scattered at the mouth of the underworld, As when one furroweth and ploweth up the land. ⁸ But to thee do my eyes look, O Lord Jehovah! In thee is my trust; Let not my life be poured out! ⁹ Preserve me from the snares which they have laid for me, And from the nets of evil-doers! ¹⁰ Let the wicked fall together into their own traps, Whilst I make my escape!

to my cry, for I am brought very low; Deliver me from my persecutors, For they prevail against me! ⁷ Bring me out of prison, That I may praise thy name! The righteous shall gather around me, When thou shalt show me thy favor.

¹ "A psalm of David." Hear my prayer, O LORD! give ear to my supplications! In thy faithfulness, and in thy righteousness, answer me! ² Enter not into judgment with thy servant; For before thee no man living is righteous. ³ For the enemy pursueth my life; He hath smitten me to the ground; He hath made me dwell in darkness, As those that have been dead of old. ⁴ My spirit is overwhelmed within me; My heart within me is desolate. ⁵ I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the deeds of thy hands. ⁶ I stretch forth my hands unto thee; My soul thirsteth for thee, like a parched land. ⁷ Hear me speedily, O LORD! My spirit faileth; Hide not thy face from me. Lest I become like those who go down to the pit! ⁸ Cause me so see thy loving-kindness speedily; For in thee do I trust! Make known to me the way which I should take; For to thee do I lift up my soul! ⁹ Deliver me, O LORD! from mine enemies; For in thee do I seek refuge! ¹⁰ Teach me to do thy will; For thou art my God! Let thy good spirit lead me in a plain path! ¹¹ Revive me, O LORD! for thy name's sake! In thy righteousness, bring me out of my distress! ¹² And, in thy compassion, cut off mine enemies, And destroy all that distress me! For I am thy servant.

¹ Blessed be the LORD, my rock, Who teacheth my hands to war, And my fingers to fight! ² He who is my loving-kindness and my fortress; My high tower and my deliverer, My shield, and he in whom I trust; Who subdueth peoples under me. ³ LORD, what is man, that thou art mindful of him, Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him? ⁴ Man is like a vapor; His day is like a shadow that passeth away. ⁵ Bow thy heavens, O LORD! and come down; Touch the mountains, so that they shall smoke! ⁶ Cast forth lightnings, and scatter them; Shoot forth thine arrows, and destroy them! ⁷ Send forth thine hand from above; Rescue and save me from deep waters; From the hands of aliens, ⁸ Whose mouth uttereth deceit, And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood! ⁹ I will sing to thee a new song, O God! Upon a ten-stringed psaltery will I sing praise to thee; ¹⁰ To thee, who givest salvation to kings, Who deliverest David, thy servant, from the destructive sword! ¹¹ Rescue and deliver me from the hands of aliens, Whose mouth uttereth deceit, And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood! ¹² That our sons may be as plants, Grown up in their youth; Our daughters as corner-pillars, Hewn like those of a palace! ¹³ That our garners may be full, Affording all kinds of store; That our sheep may bring forth thousands And ten thousands in our streets. ¹⁴ That our cattle may be fruitful; That there be no breaking in, or going out; And no outcry in our streets. ¹⁵ Happy the people that is in such a state! Yea, happy the people whose God is Jehovah!

¹ “A song of praise. By David.” I will extol thee, my God, the King! I will praise thy name for ever and ever! ² Every day will I bless thee, And praise thy name for ever and ever! ³ Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; Yea, his greatness is unsearchable. ⁴ One generation shall praise thy works to another, And shall declare thy mighty deeds. ⁵ I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty, And of thy wonderful works. ⁶ Men shall speak of the might of thy terrible deeds, And I will declare thy greatness; ⁷ They shall pour forth the praise of thy great good And sing of thy righteousness. ⁸ The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion, Slow to anger, and rich in mercy. ⁹ The LORD is good to all. And his tender mercies are over all his works. ¹⁰ All thy works praise thee, O LORD! And thy holy ones bless thee! ¹¹ They speak of the glory of thy kingdom, And talk of thy power; ¹² To make known to the sons of men his mighty deeds, And the glorious majesty of his kingdom. ¹³ Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. ¹⁴ The LORD upholdeth all that fall, And raiseth up all that are bowed down. ¹⁵ The eyes of all wait upon thee, And thou givest them their food in due season; ¹⁶ Thou openest thine hand, And satisfiest the desire of every living thing. ¹⁷ The LORD is righteous in all his ways, And merciful in all his works. ¹⁸ The LORD is nigh to all that call upon him, To all that call upon him in truth. ¹⁹ He fulfilleth the desire of them that fear him; He heareth their cry, and saveth them. ²⁰ The LORD preserveth all that love him; But all the wicked he will destroy. ²¹ My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD; And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever!

¹ Praise ye the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul! ² I will praise the LORD, as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God, while I have my being. ³ Put not your trust in princes, In the son of man, in whom is no help! ⁴ His breath goeth forth; he returneth to the dust; In that very day his plans perish. ⁵ Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help; Whose hope is in the LORD, his God; ⁶ Who made heaven and earth, The sea, and all that is therein; Who keepeth truth for ever; ⁷ Who executeth judgment for the oppressed; Who giveth food to the hungry. The LORD setteth free the prisoners; ⁸ The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind; The LORD raiseth up them that are bowed down; The LORD loveth the righteous. ⁹ The LORD preserveth the strangers; He relieveth the fatherless and the widow; But the way of the wicked he maketh crooked. ¹⁰ The LORD shall reign for ever; Thy God, O Zion! to all generations! Praise ye the LORD!

up the lowly; He casteth the wicked down to the ground. ⁷ Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; Sing praises upon the harp to our God! ⁸ Who covereth the heavens with clouds, Who prepareth rain for the earth, Who causeth grass to grow upon the mountains. ⁹ He giveth to the cattle their food. And to the young ravens, when they cry. ¹⁰ He delighteth not in the strength of the horse, He taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man. ¹¹ The LORD taketh pleasure in those who fear him, In those who trust in his mercy. ¹² Praise the LORD. O Jerusalem! Praise thy God, O Zion! ¹³ For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; He hath blessed thy children within thee. ¹⁴ He maketh peace in thy borders, And satisfieth thee with the finest of the wheat. ¹⁵ He sendeth forth his command to the earth; His word runneth very swiftly. ¹⁶ He giveth snow like wool, And scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes. ¹⁷ He casteth forth his ice like morsels; Who can stand before his cold? ¹⁸ He sendeth forth his word, and melteth them; He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow. ¹⁹ He publisheth his word to Jacob, His statutes and laws to Israel. ²⁰ He hath dealt in this manner with no other nation; And, as for his ordinances, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD!

¹ Praise ye the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens! Praise him in the heights! ² Praise him, all ye his angels! Praise him, all ye his hosts! ³ Praise ye him, sun and moon! Praise him, all ye stars of light! ⁴ Praise him, ye heavens of heavens! Ye waters, that are above the heavens! ⁵ Let them praise the name of the LORD; For he commanded, and they were created. ⁶ He hath also established them for ever; He hath given them a law, and they transgress it not. ⁷ Praise the LORD from the earth, Ye sea-monsters, and all deeps! ⁸ Fire and hail, snow and vapor; Thou tempest, that fulfilllest his word! ⁹ Ye mountains, and all hills! Fruit-trees, and all cedars! ¹⁰ Ye wild beasts, and all cattle! Ye creeping things, and winged birds! ¹¹ Ye kings, and all peoples, Princes, and all judges of the earth! ¹² Young men and maidens, Old men and children! ¹³ Let them praise the name of the LORD! For his name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and the heavens. ¹⁴ He exalteth the horn of his people, The glory of all his godly ones, Of the children of Israel, a people near to him. Praise ye the LORD!

them the sentence which is written: This honor have all his godly ones.
Praise ye the LORD!

¹ Praise ye the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary! Praise him in his glorious firmament! ² Praise him for his mighty deeds! Praise him according to his excellent greatness! ³ Praise him with the sound of trumpets! Praise him with the psaltery and harp! ⁴ Praise him with the timbrel and dance! Praise him with stringed instruments and pipes! ⁵ Praise him with the clear-sounding cymbals! Praise him with the high-sounding cymbals! ⁶ Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD! Praise ye the LORD!
