

One Unity Resource Bible Thanks!

The Volunteer Helpers!

This is a volunteer community-based project. Multiple helpers aided in the workload and process to make this publication. It was designed in an accessible and scholarly manner for regular people who want to help, can follow directions, and have basic typing/reading skills, and want to directly help to participate in the process. People between ages 12-85 have helped. Thomas is the main editor and project manager. This project started in 2006; the preparation stage lasted three years and the process of data management and application lasted seven years. This publication during the Jubilee Year is ten years in the making! This is a list of Thank You's to those who directly participated!

Thank You and acknowledgment to the Volunteer Helpers of this Project!

This has always been a volunteer community-based project. Multiple helpers aided in the workload and process to make this publication. It was designed in an accessible and scholarly manner so that people who want to help, can follow directions, and have basic typing/reading skills can directly help. The process is utilizing public domain, scholarly information and teaching regular people to organize data in tables provided, thus producing focused single-topic projects, applied directly to the Bible text.

People ages 12-85 have helped. Everyone has gained long-term memory recall of the projects they worked on. It has been about three years conceptual preparation and seven years of data processing and application. Thomas is the Executive Director, project manager, main editor, head promoter, and volunteer trainer. This is a list of “Thank You” to those who directly participated in the projects that made this Bible:

Al H., Brian C., Brian M., Carissa R., Carolyn R., Coral M., Da

If you aided in the process, prayers and support, given your feedback, listened to me monologue, affirmed the vision, or assist in promotions, I thank you for helping make this reality in whatever stage you helped in! This project has had many names – Triple Cross; Star and Cross; Echad One Composite Unity, EOCU; Echad One Unity, EOU, E-One Unity; One Unity Study Bible, OUSB; One Unity Resource Bible, OURb, OUR Bible. If you remember helping with any one of these, thank you!
