

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

¹ The beginning of the gospel of Jesus *Christ, the Son of God.

² As it is written in †the Prophets,

“Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,

who will prepare your way ‡before you,

³ the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight,’”

⁴ John §came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. ⁵ The whole Judean countryside was going out to him, and so were *the people of Jerusalem. They were all being baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁶ Now John was clothed with camel's hair and wore a leather belt around his waist; he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷ He proclaimed, “After me comes one who is mightier than I, the strap of whose ⁹ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

¹⁰ Immediately as he was coming up †from the water, he saw the heavens being split apart and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹ Then a voice came from heaven: “You are my beloved ‡Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

¹² Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness, ¹³ and he was §there in the wilderness for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

¹⁴ After John was put in prison, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching the gospel *of the kingdom of God ¹⁵ and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has drawn near. Repent and believe in the gospel.”

¹⁶ As Jesus was †walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew ‡his brother (that is, Simon's brother) casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ Jesus said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men.” ¹⁸ So they immediately left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹ Going on a little farther

§ From there, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother as they were in the boat mending their nets. ²⁰ Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

²¹ They went to Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath Jesus ^{}went into †the synagogue and began teaching. ²² The people were astonished at his teaching, because he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. ²³ ‡Now in their synagogue there was a man who was possessed by an unclean spirit. He cried out, ²⁴ “§Leave us alone! What do you have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God.” ²⁵ But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” ²⁶ So the unclean spirit convulsed the man and came out of him, crying out with a loud voice. ²⁷ All the people were amazed so that they questioned ^{}among themselves, saying, “What is this? †What new teaching is this that with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him?” ²⁸ And the news about him immediately ‡spread throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.

³² When evening came, after the sun had set, they brought to Jesus all who were sick and those who were possessed by demons. ³³ The whole city was gathered together at the door, ³⁴ and he healed many who were sick with various diseases. He also cast out many demons, but he would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew *who he was.

³⁵ Early the next morning, while it was still very dark, Jesus rose and departed. He went off to a desolate place and prayed there. ³⁶ Simon and his companions searched diligently for him, ³⁷ and when they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is looking for you." ³⁸ Jesus said to them, "Let us †go into the neighboring towns so that I may preach there also, for that is why I have come." ³⁹ So he ‡was preaching in

⁴⁰ Then a leper came up and Sknelt before him, begging him, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.” ⁴¹ *Moved with compassion, Jesus stretched out his hand, touched the man, and said to him, “I am willing; be made clean.”

⁴³ Then Jesus sternly warned him and immediately sent him away, ⁴⁴ saying to him, “See that you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

⁴⁵ But the man went out and began to proclaim it widely and to spread the news, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter a town, but was out in desolate places. Yet people were coming to him from everywhere.

them. ³ Then some people came to him, bringing a paralytic carried by four men. ⁴ Since they were not able to †come near Jesus because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was. After digging through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic was lying. ⁵ When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven §you.”

⁶ Now some of the scribes were sitting there and questioning in their hearts: ⁷ “Why does this man *speak such blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?” ⁸ Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves, so he said to them, “Why are you questioning these things in your hearts? ⁹ Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are †forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, take up your mat, and walk?’ ¹⁰ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— ¹¹ “I say to you, rise, pick up your mat, and go to your house.” ¹² So the man †immediately rose, picked up his mat, and went out in front of them all, so that they were all amazed and began glorifying God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

¹⁴ As he was walking along, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth. Jesus said to him, “Follow me,” so Levi rose and followed him.

¹⁵ Later, as Jesus was reclining at the table in Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners reclined with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. ¹⁶ When the scribes § and the Pharisees saw Jesus eating with *tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples, “Why is he eating † and drinking with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹⁷ When Jesus heard this, he said to them, “It is not those who are healthy who have need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners ‡ to repentance.”

¹⁸ Now the disciples of John and § the disciples of the Pharisees were fasting. So some people came and said to Jesus, “Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?” ¹⁹ Jesus said to them, “Can the bridegroom's attendants fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in *those days.

23 On the Sabbath Jesus was going through the grainfields, and his disciples began to make their way, plucking heads of grain. 24 So the Pharisees said to him, “Behold, why are they doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?” 25 He said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry, he and those who were with him, 26 how he entered the house of God, in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except for the priests, and how he also gave it to those who were with him?” 27 Then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. 28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

² Now the Pharisees were watching Jesus closely to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath, so that they could accuse him. ³ And he said to the man with the withered hand, “Rise and come forward.” ⁴ Then Jesus said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. ⁵ After looking around at them with anger, grieved by the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and his hand was †restored, as sound as the other. ⁶ Then the Pharisees went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Jesus as to how they might destroy him.

⁷ But Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed †him, and also from Judea, ⁸ from Jerusalem, from Idumea, and from beyond the Jordan. A great multitude of people from around Tyre and Sidon also came to him when they heard about everything he was doing. ⁹ Then he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him, so that the crowd would not crush him. ¹⁰ For he had healed many, so that all who had afflictions were pressing toward him to touch him. ¹¹ Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they would fall down before him and cry out, “You are the Son of God.” ¹² But he would strictly warn them not to make him known.

they came to him. ¹⁴ He appointed [§]twelve so that they might be with him and so that he might send them out to preach ¹⁵ and to have authority to *heal diseases and cast out demons. ¹⁶ He †appointed Simon (whom he gave the name Peter); ¹⁷ James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (whom he gave the name Boanerges, which means, Sons of Thunder); ¹⁸ Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the ‡Cananite, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Then [§]they entered a house, ²⁰ and *a crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat bread. ²¹ When his family heard about it, they went out to restrain him, for they said, “He is out of his mind.” ²² But the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul,” and, “By the ruler of demons he casts out demons.” ²³ So Jesus called them over and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ And if a house is divided against itself, that house †cannot stand. ²⁶ And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand,

²⁸ “Truly I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter. ²⁹ But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is §subject to eternal judgment.” ³⁰ He said this because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

³¹ Then *Jesus' brothers and mother came, and standing outside, they sent word to him and called for him. ³² There was a crowd sitting around Jesus, and they said to him, “Behold, your †mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you.” ³³ But he answered them, “Who is my mother, ‡or my brothers?” ³⁴ And looking around in a circle at the people sitting there, he said, “Behold, these are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵ §For whoever does the will of God is my brother and *my sister and †mother.”

and a *large crowd was gathered around him. So he got into †the boat and sat in it on the sea, while the entire crowd was beside the sea on the shore. ² Then he taught them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them, ³ “Listen! The sower went out to sow. ⁴ As he sowed, some seed fell ‡along the path, and the §birds came and devoured it. ⁵ Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up immediately because it had no depth of soil. ⁶ But when the sun rose, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁷ Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it produced no fruit. ⁸ But *other seed fell into good soil and produced †fruit that grew and increased; some bore thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times more than what was sown.” ⁹ Then he ‡said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

¹⁰ When he was alone, those who were around him, along with the twelve, asked him about the §parable. ¹¹ So he said to them, “To you *it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside everything is said in parables, ¹² so that

When they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in ‡their hearts. 16 §Likewise, some people are like the seed sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy. 17 Yet they have no root in themselves, but are only temporary. When tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, they immediately fall away. 18 Others are like the seed sown among the thorns. *They hear the word, 19 but the cares of †this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 But others are like the seed sown on the good soil. 24 Then he said to them, “Consider what you hear. With the measure you use it will be measured to §you, and more will be added to you *who hear. 25 For whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

26 He also said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground. 27 He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he does not know how. 28 †For the earth produces a crop by itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. 29 When the crop is ready, the man immediately sends in the sickle, for the harvest has come.”

30 Then Jesus said, “To what †can we compare the kingdom of God? Or what parable can we use to §describe it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth. 32 Yet when it is sown, it grows and becomes larger than all

³³ With many similar parables he spoke the word to them, to the extent that they were able to understand it. ³⁴ He did not *speak to them without using a parable, but privately he explained everything to his disciples.

³⁵ On that day, when evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let us cross over to the other side of the sea.” ³⁶ So they left the crowd and took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other †little boats were also with him. ³⁷ Now a great windstorm arose, and the waves were beating against the boat, so that ‡it was nearly swamped. ³⁸ But Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. So they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” ³⁹ Then he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” So the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ Then he said to them, “Why are you §so afraid? *How is it that you have no faith?” ⁴¹ And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

the region of the *Gadarenes. ² As Jesus got out of the boat, he was immediately met by a man from the tombs who had an unclean spirit. ³ This man lived among the tombs, and no one could bind †him, not even with chains. ⁴ For he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he tore the chains apart and broke the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵ Night and day, ‡on the mountains and among the tombs, he would continually cry out and cut himself with stones.

⁶ When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him. ⁷ Then he cried out with a loud voice and said, “What do you have to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me.” ⁸ For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!” ⁹ Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He §answered, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” ¹⁰ And he earnestly begged Jesus not to send them out of that region.

¹¹ Now there was a large herd of pigs feeding there near the *mountain. ¹² †All the demons begged Jesus, “Send us into the pigs, so that we may go into them.” ¹³ So he ‡immediately gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs. Then the herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea.

¹⁴ Those who had been feeding the pigs then ran off and reported it in the city and in the countryside. So the people went out to see what had happened. ¹⁵ They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by demons sitting there, clothed and in his right mind—the man who had been possessed by the “Legion”—and they were afraid. ¹⁶ Those who had seen it told them what had happened to the man who had been possessed by demons, and they also told them about the pigs. ¹⁷ Then the people began begging Jesus to depart from their region. ¹⁸ When Jesus got into the boat, the man who had been possessed by demons begged to go with him. ¹⁹ But Jesus did not permit him to do so. Instead, he said to him, “Go to your house and to your people, and report to them all that the Lord has done for you and how he has had mercy on you.” ²⁰ So the man went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him, and all the people were amazed.

²¹ When Jesus had again crossed over in the boat to the other side of the sea, a large crowd was gathered around him, and he was by the sea. ²² §And behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, whose name was Jairus. ²⁵ Now there was a woman who had suffered from a flow of blood for twelve years. ²⁶ She had suffered a great deal under many physicians and had spent all she had, yet received no benefit from it, but had only grown worse. ²⁷ When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment.

²⁸ For she †said, “If I touch even his garments, I will be healed.” ²⁹ Immediately her flow of blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she had been healed from her affliction.

³⁰ Jesus immediately perceived in himself that power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched my garments?” ³¹ His disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you, and yet you say, ‘Who touched me?’”

³² But he kept looking around to see who had done it. ³³ Now the woman was frightened and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, so she came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

³⁴ Then Jesus said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction.”

³⁵ While he was still speaking, some people came from the ruler of the synagogue's house and said, “Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any further?” ³⁶ But when Jesus

The child is not dead but sleeping.” ⁴⁰ And they began laughing at him. But he put them all outside, took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in to where the child was *lying down. ⁴¹ Then he took hold of the child's hand and said to her, “Talitha †koumi,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.” ⁴² Immediately the girl got up and began to walk (for she was twelve years old), and they were ‡overcome with great amazement. ⁴³ Then he gave them strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and he told them to give her something to eat.

Then Jesus went around among the villages teaching. ⁷ He summoned the twelve and began to send them out two by two, giving them authority over unclean spirits. ⁸ He instructed them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no †knapsack, no bread, and no copper money in their belts. ⁹ He told them to wear sandals but not an extra tunic. ¹⁰ He also said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. ¹¹ If ‡anyone will not receive you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet as you leave that place, as a testimony against them. §Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that city.” ¹² So they went out and preached that people should repent. ¹³ They also cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

¹⁴ Now King Herod heard about this, for Jesus' name had become known, and *he said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these mighty powers are at work in him.” ¹⁵ Others said, “He is Elijah.” And others said, “He is a prophet, †like one of the prophets.” ¹⁶ But when Herod heard this, he said, “‡This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised §from the dead.”

¹⁷ For Herod himself had sent men to arrest John and chain him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom Herod had married. ¹⁸ For John had been saying to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.” ¹⁹ So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she was not able to do so. ²⁰ For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When Herod listened to John, he would listen to him gladly *and do many things.

military commanders, and the prominent men of Galilee. ²² When †the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. So the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you.” ²³ He ‡swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give to you, up to half of my kingdom.” ²⁴ So she went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?” Her mother said, “The head of John the Baptist.” ²⁵ Immediately the girl came in with haste to the king and made her request, saying, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.” ²⁶ Although the king was very sad, because of his oaths and his guests, he did not want to reject her. ²⁷ So the king immediately sent an executioner and commanded that John's head be brought back. ²⁸ The executioner then went and beheaded John in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹ When John's disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰ Meanwhile, the apostles gathered around Jesus and told him about all they had done and taught. ³¹ Then he said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest for a little while.” For many people were coming and going, and Jesus and his apostles did not even have an opportunity to eat. ³² So they went away to a

They ran together on foot from all the ‡towns, got there ahead of them, and gathered around him. ³⁴ When Jesus went ashore and saw a large crowd, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began to teach them many things.

³⁵ When the hour was already quite late, his disciples came to him and said, “This place is desolate, and the hour is now late. ³⁶ Send the people away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves §bread, for they have nothing to eat.” ³⁷ But Jesus answered them, “You give them something to eat.” They said to him, “Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?” ³⁸ He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” When they found out, they said, “Five, and two fish.” ³⁹ Then he directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in groups of hundreds and

He broke the loaves and gave them to *his disciples to set before the people, and he divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² They all ate and were filled, ⁴³ and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces and of the fish. ⁴⁴ Now those who had eaten the loaves were †five thousand men.

⁴⁵ Immediately Jesus compelled his disciples to get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side of the sea, to Bethsaida, while he sent the crowd away. ⁴⁶ After taking leave of them, he went to the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷ When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ ‡He saw the disciples straining as they rowed, for the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and intended to pass them by. ⁴⁹ But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out. ⁵⁰ For they all saw him and were terrified. But Jesus immediately said to them, “Take courage! It is I; do not be afraid.” ⁵¹ Then he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. ⁵³ When they had crossed the sea, they came to ‡the land of Gennesaret and moored the boat. ⁵⁴ When they got out of the boat, people immediately recognized Jesus. ⁵⁵ So the people ran around throughout that entire §surrounding region and began to carry the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶ And wherever he went, to villages, cities, or the countryside, they would lay the sick in the marketplaces and beg him to let the sick touch even the fringe of his garment. After sending them away, ¹⁰ Jesus immediately got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

¹¹ Then the Pharisees came and began to argue with Jesus, asking him for a sign from heaven, to test him. ¹² Sighing deeply in his spirit, he said, “Why does this generation ask for a sign? the temple courts. When he had looked around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the twelve, since the hour was already late.

¹² On the next day, as they went out from Bethany, Jesus was hungry. ¹³ Seeing in the distance a fig tree that had leaves, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴ In response Jesus said to the fig tree, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

¹⁵ Then they came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered the temple courts and began driving out those who were selling and buying there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves, ¹⁶ and he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple courts. ¹⁷ Then he began to teach ^{*}the people, saying, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’? with you, I will certainly not deny you.” And they all said the same thing.

³² Then they went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, “Sit here while I go and pray.” ³³ He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly disturbed and §distressed. ³⁴ He said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to the point of death; stay here and keep watch.” ³⁵ Going a little farther, he fell on *the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

³⁶ He said, “Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Take this cup away from me; nevertheless, not what I will, but what you will.” ³⁷ Then he came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Could †you not keep watch for one hour? ³⁸ Keep watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

³⁹ Once again he went away and prayed the same prayer. ⁴⁰ When he ‡returned, he found them sleeping again, for their eyes were §heavy, and they did not know what to say in response. ⁴¹ Then he came a third time and said to them, “Sleep on now and take your rest! It is enough; the hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. ⁴² Rise,

⁴⁴ Now his betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, he is the one; arrest him and lead him away under guard.” ⁴⁵ When Judas came, he immediately went up to Jesus and said §to him, “*Rabbi! Rabbi!” And he kissed him. ⁴⁶ Then they took hold of Jesus and arrested him.

⁴⁷ But one of the bystanders drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. ⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to them, “Have you come out to arrest me with swords and clubs as you would against a robber? ⁴⁹ I was with you daily, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. But these things are happening so that the Scriptures may be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰ Then they all left him and fled.

scribes were assembled §together with him. ⁵⁴ Peter had followed Jesus at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the officers, warming himself in the light of the fire. ⁵⁵ Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. ⁵⁶ For many were giving false testimony against him, but their testimonies did not agree. ⁵⁷ Then some stood up and gave false testimony against him, declaring, ⁵⁸ “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another that is not made with hands.’” ⁵⁹ Yet even then their testimony did not agree. ⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Do you make no answer? What are these men testifying against you?” ⁶¹ But he was silent and made no answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?” ⁶² Jesus said, “I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming *with the clouds of heaven.” ⁶³ Then the high priest tore his garments and said, “What further need do we have of witnesses? ⁶⁴ You have †heard his blasphemy. What seems right to you?” And they all condemned him as deserving death. ⁶⁵ Then some began to spit on him, to blindfold him, and to beat him, saying to him, ⁶⁶ Now as Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the servant girls of the high priest came. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, “You also were with Jesus of Nazareth.” ⁶⁸ But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are talking about!” Then he went outside to the *gateway, and a rooster crowed. ⁶⁹ When the servant girl saw †him again, she began saying to those who were standing nearby, “This man is one of them.” ⁷⁰ But again he denied it. After a little while, those who were standing nearby said to Peter once again, “Truly you are one of them, for you also are a †Galilean, and your accent is like theirs.” ⁷¹ But he began to invoke curses and to swear: “I do not know this man of whom you speak.” ⁷² §Then a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered what Jesus had said to him: “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

¹ As soon as it was morning, the chief priests took counsel with the elders, scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. ² So Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus answered him, “You have said it yourself.” ³ Then the chief priests accused him of many *things. ⁴ So Pilate asked him again, “Do you make no answer? See how many things they are †testifying against you!” ⁵ But Jesus made no further answer, so Pilate was amazed.

⁶ Now at the feast Pilate would release one prisoner for the people, whomever they requested. ⁷ And there was a man named Barabbas who was in prison with ‡his fellow insurrectionists who had committed murder in the insurrection. ⁸ So the crowd §cried out and began to ask Pilate to do what he *had always done for them. ⁹ Pilate answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the king of the Jews?” ¹⁰ (For he knew that the chief priests had handed Jesus over out of envy.) ¹¹ But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release for them Barabbas instead. ¹² In response Pilate said to them again, “What then †do you want me to do with the man you call King of the Jews?” ¹³ They cried out again, “Crucify him!” ¹⁴ Pilate said to them, “Why? What evil has he done?” But they cried out all the more, “Crucify him!” ¹⁵ Then Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released for them Barabbas. But he scourged Jesus and handed him over to be crucified.

¹⁶ So the soldiers led him away into the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters) and called together the entire cohort of soldiers. ¹⁷ They clothed him with a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on him. ¹⁸ Then they began to salute †him: “Hail, King of the Jews!” ¹⁹ They kept beating him on the head with a reed, spitting on him, and bending down on their knees to pay homage to him. ²⁰ When they had finished mocking him, they stripped him of the purple robe and put his own garments back on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

²¹ Now a certain man from Cyrene, Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the countryside. The soldiers pressed him into service, forcing him to carry Jesus' cross, ²² and they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means, “Place of the Skull”). ²³ Then they gave him wine §to drink, mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it. ²⁴ And they crucified him. Then they divided his garments, casting lots for them to see who would take what. ²⁵ It was the third hour when they crucified him. ²⁶ The inscription of the charge against him was written as follows: “The King of the Jews.” ²⁷ With him they crucified two robbers, one on his right and one on his left. ²⁸ *So the Scripture was fulfilled that says, “He was numbered with the lawless.” ²⁹ Those who passed by reviled him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, ³⁰ save yourself and come down from the cross!” ³¹ In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes, were mocking him among themselves, saying, “He saved others, but he cannot save himself. ³² Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see it and believe †him.” The men who were crucified with him were also insulting him.

³³ From the sixth hour until the ninth hour, there was darkness over the whole land. ³⁴ And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, ‡lima sabachthani?” which means, “§My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” ³⁵ When some of those standing nearby heard this, they said, “Behold, he is calling for Elijah.” ³⁶ Then *a man ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Leave him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to take him down.” ³⁷ But Jesus let out a loud cry and breathed his last breath. ³⁸ Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. ³⁹ Now when the centurion who was standing in front of Jesus saw how he †cried out and breathed his last breath, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God.”

⁴⁰ There were also some women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. ⁴¹ These women had followed Jesus and provided for him when he was in Galilee. There were also many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

⁴² When evening had come, since it was the day of Preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath), ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a respected council member, who was himself also waiting for the kingdom of God, came and boldly went in before Pilate to ask for Jesus' body. ⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised that Jesus was already dead, so he called the centurion over and asked him if Jesus ‡had been dead for some time. ⁴⁵ When he found out from the centurion that it was so, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ After buying a linen cloth and taking him down, Joseph wrapped him in the linen cloth and laid him in a tomb that had been hewn in the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁴⁷ And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

¹ When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus' body. ² Very early in the morning ^{*}of the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³ On the way, they were saying to one another, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb for us?" ⁴ But when they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled away. ⁵ As they went into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶ But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen; he is not here. Behold, this is the place where they laid him. ⁷ And now go tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸ So they went †out and fled from the tomb, ‡and trembling and amazement seized them. But they did not say anything to anyone,
